FOREWORD

FIRST NATIONS GAZETTE

www.fng.ca

The inaugural issue of the First Nations Gazette was published in 1997, under the joint auspices of the Indian Taxation Advisory Board and the Native Law Centre. The vision for the Gazette was to provide official notice of and access to First Nation laws, particularly those dealing with property taxation matters. Over the past number of years, the First Nations Gazette has ensured that all those engaged with reserve lands are aware of the First Nation's governance over those lands.

The First Nations Gazette is published by the First Nations Tax Commission in conjunction with the Native Law Centre. The publication of the First Nations Gazette is governed by an Editorial Board.

In 2014, the First Nations Gazette transitioned to an exclusively electronic publication. While the Gazette is no longer being printed or distributed in hard copy format, it can be accessed, free of charge, on the First Nations Gazette website at fng.ca.

Part II of the digital Gazette, which is a register of First Nation legislation, is consolidated monthly, with the specific content of each volume listed in a hyperlinked table of contents. The First Nation legislation contained in Part II include laws required by federal statute to be published in the First Nations Gazette, and any other laws, by-laws and codes enacted by First Nations and submitted to the Gazette for publication.

The following laws are required by federal statute to be published in the First Nations Gazette:

- Local revenue laws enacted under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act and approved by the First Nations Tax Commission;
- Financial administration laws enacted under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act and approved by the First Nations Financial Management Board;
- Laws enacted under the First Nations Goods and Services Tax Act; and

First Nations may submit other laws, by-laws and codes for publication, such as

- By-laws enacted under sections 81 and 85.1 of the Indian Act;
- By-laws enacted under section 83 of the Indian Act and approved by the Minister of Indigenous and Northern Affairs;
- Land management codes adopted in accordance with the First Nations Land Management Act; and
- Election codes enacted under the First Nations Elections Act.

Format

As of July 2015, the Gazette reproduces all laws, by-laws and codes in the exact form in which they were submitted to the Gazette, including any errors or omissions. This process preserves the authenticity of the legislation in the form submitted to the Gazette. Although legislation is reproduced in its original form using a digital imaging process, the Gazette reserves the right to alter the layout of these documents for compilation and publication purposes. These alterations may include, but are not limited to, altering the page sizing and orientation, and the addition of page numbering, headers and footers. Laws, by-laws, and codes enacted by First Nations are published in the language in which they were approved.

Citation of Laws, By-laws, and Codes

Any law, by-law, or code published in the digital First Nations Gazette may be cited to the annual volume in which it is contained, for example, Kanaka Bar Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015, F.N. Gaz. 2016.20. The citation, as shown in the example, includes the following elements: Title, Gazette abbreviation, year, volume.

Warranty Disclaimer and Limitation of Liability

The laws, by-laws, and codes enacted by First Nations are reproduced in the First Nations Gazette in the exact form as they were submitted to the Gazette. The Gazette is provided as a public service. All content is provided "as is", and the publisher expressly disclaims all warranties, representations and conditions of any kind respecting the Gazette content, whether express, implied or statutory, including without limitation respecting the validity, accuracy or reliability of any content in the Gazette. All implied warranties or conditions, including without limitation, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title or non-infringement, or arising from a course of dealing, usage, or trade practice, are expressly disclaimed.

Under no circumstances will the publisher be liable to any person or entity for any loss or damage (including, without limitation, loss of profit, loss of contracts and other indirect or consequential loss) arising out of or in connection with that person's access to, use of, or reliance on the Gazette, whether caused by the negligence of the publisher or otherwise.

PRÉFACE
GAZETTE DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS
www.fng.ca

La première édition de la Gazette des premières nations a été publiée en 1997 sous les auspices de la Commission consultative de la fiscalité indienne et du Native Law Centre. La Gazette a été conçue pour donner la notification officielle des textes législatifs des premières nations, en particulier ceux portant sur les questions d'imposition foncière, ainsi que pour assurer l'accès à ces textes. Au cours des dernières années, la Gazette des premières nations a permis d'informer tous les intervenants concernés de l'exercice par des premières nations de leur gouvernance sur les terres de réserve.

À l'heure actuelle, la Gazette des premières nations est publiée par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations en collaboration avec le Native Law Centre. La publication de la Gazette des premières nations relève d'un Comité de rédaction.

En 2014, le passage de la Gazette des premières nations à une publication exclusivement électronique s'est fait avec succès. Bien qu'elle ne soit plus imprimée ou distribuée en format papier, vous pouvez continuer d'y accéder, gratuitement, sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations à l'adresse fng.ca.

La partie II de la Gazette numérique, qui consiste en un registre des lois des Premières nations, est consolidée chaque mois, et le contenu particulier de chaque volume est énuméré dans une table des matières hyperliée. Les lois des Premières nations qui se trouvent dans la partie II comprennent les lois qui doivent être publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations en vertu d'une loi fédérale, et tous autres lois, règlements administratifs et codes adoptés par les Premières nations et soumis à la Gazette aux fins de publication.

Les lois ci-dessous doivent être publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations en vertu d'une loi fédérale :

- les lois sur les recettes locales adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations et approuvées par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations;
- les lois sur l'administration financière adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations et approuvées par le Conseil de gestion financière des Premières Nations;
- les lois adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la taxe sur les produits et services des premières nations.

Les Premières nations peuvent soumettre d'autres lois, règlements administratifs et codes aux fins de publication, comme les suivants :

- les règlements administratifs adoptés en vertu de l'article 81 ou 85.1 de la Loi sur les Indiens;
- les règlements administratifs adoptés en vertu de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens et approuvés par la ministre des Affaires autochtones et du Nord;
- les codes de gestion des terres adoptés en vertu de la Loi sur la gestion des terres des premières nations;
- les codes électoraux adoptés en vertu de la Loi sur les élections au sein de premières nations.

Format

En date de juillet 2015, la Gazette reproduit tous les lois, règlements administratifs et codes dans la forme exacte où ils lui sont soumis, y compris toute erreur ou omission. Ce processus permet de préserver l'authenticité des lois dans la forme où elles sont soumises à la Gazette. Bien que les lois soient reproduites dans leur forme originale à l'aide d'un processus d'imagerie numérique, la Gazette se réserve le droit de modifier la présentation de ces documents aux fins de compilation et de publication. Ces modifications peuvent comprendre, sans s'y limiter, la modification de la taille et de l'orientation des pages et l'ajout de

Renvois aux lois, règlements administratifs et codes

Les renvois aux lois, règlements administratifs ou codes publiés dans la Gazette numérique se font par indication du volume annuel où ils sont publiés, par exemple, Kanaka Bar Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015, F.N. Gaz. 2016.20. La référence contenue dans cet exemple comporte les éléments suivants : Titre, abréviation de la Gazette, année, volume.

Les lois, les règlements administratifs et les codes adoptés par les Premières nations sont reproduits dans la Gazette des premières nations dans la forme exacte où ils lui ont été soumis. La Gazette est offerte à titre de service public. Tout le contenu est fourni « tel quel », et l'éditeur décline expressément toute responsabilité à l'égard de toute garantie, déclaration ou condition de quelque nature que ce soit se rapportant au contenu de la Gazette, qu'elle soit expresse, tacite ou légale, y compris, sans limitation, concernant la validité, l'exactitude ou la fiabilité de tout contenu de la Gazette. Toutes conditions ou garanties implicites, y compris, sans limitation, les garanties implicites de commercialité, d'adaptation à un usage particulier, de propriété ou de non contrefaçon, ou découlant d'une transaction, d'un emploi ou d'une pratique commerciale, sont expressément rejetées.

En aucun cas, l'éditeur ne pourra être tenu responsable envers une personne ou une entité de pertes ou de dommages (y compris, sans limitation, les pertes de profits, les pertes de contrats ou toutes autres pertes indirectes ou consécutives) découlant de son accès à la Gazette, de son utilisation de celle-ci ou de sa confiance dans celle-ci, ou en rapport avec cet accès, cette utilisation ou cette confiance, que ces pertes ou ces dommages aient été causés par la négligence de l'éditeur ou autrement.

STANDARDS FOR FIRST NATION PROPERTY ASSESSMENT LAWS

[Consolidated to 2016-09-14]

PART I PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;

B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and

C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation property assessment laws enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(i) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' property assessment laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to every property assessment law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

PART V
DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

"agricultural property" means an interest in land classified as "non-arable (range)" or "other agricultural" in Saskatchewan;

"assessable property" means property that is subject to assessment under a Law;

"assessment" means a valuation and classification of interests in land;

"Assessment Review Board" means an independent appeal body established by a First Nation to hear and determine assessment appeals;

"assessment roll" means a list setting out interests in land and their assessed values for the purposes of taxation and includes a supplementary assessment roll and any amendments to the assessment roll;

"chair" means a chair of the Assessment Review Board;

"Commission" means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the Act;

"complainant" means a person who commences an appeal of an assessment of assessable property;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"holder" means a person in lawful possession of an interest in land or a person who

(a) is entitled, through a lease, licence or other legal means, to possess or occupy the interest in land,

(b) is in actual occupation of the interest in land,

(c) has any right, title, estate or interest in the interest in land, or

(d) is a trustee of the interest in land;

"interest in land" or "property" means land or improvements, or both, in a reserve and, without limitation, may include any interest in land or improvements, any occupation, possession or use of land or improvements, and any right to occupy, possess or use land or improvements;

"Law" means an assessment law enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(i) of the Act;

"Province" refers to the province in which the assessable property is situated;

"reserve" means any land set apart for the use and benefit of a First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"resolution" means a motion passed and approved by a majority of Council present at a duly convened meeting; and

"taxable area" means the total area of the interest in land or portion of the interest in land, rounded to the nearest acre;

Except as otherwise provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2008-09-17; 2014-09-16; 2016-03-30.]

PART VI

STANDARDS

1. Appointment of Assessor

The Law must

(a) provide for the appointment of an assessor to conduct assessments of assessable property in accordance with the Law and such other duties as set out in the Law; and

(b) provide that any person carrying out valuations of assessable property must be qualified to assess real property for taxation purposes in the Province.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2012-03-29; 2012-10-03.]

2. Assessment Dates

2.1 For those aspects of the assessment process that are set out in Schedule I to these Standards, the Law must incorporate the corresponding dates or time frames in Schedule I, if any.

2.2 Where Schedule I does not provide a date or time frame but allows a First Nation to select a date to be set in its Law, the Law must set a fixed date for that aspect of the assessment process.

2.3 The Law must set a date for mailing assessment notices that is on or before the date for mailing tax notices set in the First Nation's taxation law.

3. Assessment Classification

3.1 The Law must

(a) establish property classes for the purposes of assessment that are the same as those property classes established in the Province; and

(b) require the assessor to classify properties by using the provincial classification rules for each property class.

3.2 As an exception to subsection 3.1, Laws of First Nations located in British Columbia are not required to establish property class 7, managed forest land.

3.3 As an exception to subsection 3.1, Laws of First Nations located in British Columbia are not required to establish property class 3, supportive housing.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2008-12-16; 2009-03-25; 2012-03-29; 2014-06-25.]

4. Assessment Method

4.1 For the purposes of assessing interests in land, the Law must require the use of the

(a) valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation, and

(b) assessment practices used in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve, except where otherwise provided in the Law.

4.2 Without limiting subsection 4.1,

(a) Laws of First Nations located in Manitoba must establish percentages of assessed value for each property class for which such a value is established by the Province, and must require the assessor to determine the portioned value of each property using the applicable percentages of assessed values established in the Law; and

(b) Laws of First Nations located in Saskatchewan must establish percentages of assessed value for each property class for which such a value is established by the Province, and must require the assessor to determine the taxable assessment of each property by multiplying the fair value assessment by the applicable percentage of value established in the Law.

4.3 Despite subsection 4.1, a Law of a First Nation located in Saskatchewan must, for agricultural property taxed on the basis of the taxable area,

(a) direct the assessor to determine the taxable area; and

(b) provide that no valuation is required for the interest in land.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2009-03-25; 2012-10-03; 2014-09-16.]

5. Assessment Roll

5.1 The Law must provide for the completion of an annual assessment roll that contains a list of every interest in land liable to taxation or for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by the Council.

5.1.1 As an exception to subsection 5.1, Laws of First Nations located in Quebec may provide for the completion of an assessment roll every three (3) years, or such other time frame as established or permitted by the Province.

5.2 The Law must require the assessment roll to contain at least the following information, as applicable:

(a) the name and address of the holder of the property;

(b) a description of the property;

(c) the classification of the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the property;

(e) the total assessed value of the property;

(f) the taxable area of agricultural property, where the property is taxed on the basis of taxable area;

(g) for First Nations located in Manitoba, the portioned value of the property;

(h) for First Nations located in Saskatchewan, the taxable assessment of the property; and

(i) for First Nations located in provinces other than Manitoba and Saskatchewan, the total assessed value of the property liable to taxation.

5.3 The Law must provide for

(a) certification of the assessment roll by the assessor that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the Law;

(b) delivery of the certified assessment roll by the assessor to the Council;

(c) inspection of the assessment roll by any person;

(d) a prohibition on using the information contained in the assessment roll for solicitation purposes; and

(e) a procedure where holders can apply to have their name, address or other information about the holder omitted or obscured from the assessment roll for reasons of safety or the mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2009-03-25; 2010-12-16; 2014-09-16.]

6. Correction of Errors and Omissions

The Law must provide procedures for the correction by the assessor of errors and omissions in the assessment roll through the use of one or more of revised, amended or supplementary assessment rolls.

7. Assessment Notice

7.1 The Law must provide for assessment notices to be delivered to all persons named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property.

7.2 The Law must require an assessment notice to contain at least the following information:

(a) the name and address of the holder of the property;

(b) a short legal description of the property;

(c) the assessed value by classification of the property;

(d) the taxable area of agricultural property, where indicated on the assessment roll for that property;

(e) for First Nations located in Manitoba, the portioned value of the property;

(f) for First Nations located in Saskatchewan, the taxable assessment of the property;

(g) for First Nations located in provinces other than Manitoba and Saskatchewan, the total assessed value of the property liable to taxation;

(h) the opportunity to make a request for reconsideration of the assessment by the assessor and the deadline for making such a request; and

(i) the right to appeal the assessment to the Assessment Review Board, how to appeal and the deadline for an appeal.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2009-03-25; 2014-09-16.]

8. Reconsideration

The reconsideration procedures in the Law must

(a) allow a person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessed property to request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property;

(b) provide for at least twenty-one (21) days after the date of delivery of an assessment notice for a person to request a reconsideration by the assessor;

(c) set out the grounds for reconsideration;

(d) require the assessor to complete the reconsideration within a time frame set out in the Law, and

(i) notify the person that made the request that the assessment is confirmed, or

(ii) where the assessor determines that the property should have been assessed differently, offer to modify the assessment; and

(e) where the person that made the request agrees to a modification, provide for the assessor

(i) to amend the assessment roll,

(ii) to give notice of the amendment to the tax administrator and to all persons who received an assessment notice in respect of the assessable property, and

(iii) where a notice of appeal has been given in respect of an assessable property, to give notice of the amendment to the Assessment Review Board.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2016-03-30; 2016-09-14.]

9. Assessment Appeals

9.1 The Law must set out, at a minimum, the following grounds for appeal to the Assessment Review Board:

(a) the assessed value of the assessed property;

(b) the assessment classification of the assessed property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the assessed property; and

(d) an alleged error or omission in the assessment.

9.2 If the Law provides for an administration fee for the filing of an assessment appeal, the fee must not exceed thirty dollars ($30).

10. Assessment Review Board

10.1 The Law must

(a) set out the powers, duties and functions of the chair;

(b) provide for the appointment of members of the Assessment Review Board by Council resolution and for a term of appointment of those members of not less than two (2) years; and

(c) set out when and how members of the Assessment Review Board may be removed from office.

10.2 The Law must establish practices and procedures for the conduct of Assessment Review Board hearings, including respecting

(a) a party's right to be heard, have representation, present evidence and call witnesses;

(b) the manner by which the Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing; and

(c) the evidentiary rules that apply during a hearing.

10.3 In establishing practices and procedures, the Law may

(a) provide for additional practices and procedures to be established in a practices and procedures manual approved by Council resolution; and

(b) permit the Assessment Review Board to determine its own procedure during a hearing to the extent not inconsistent with the Law.

10.4 The Law must provide for, at a minimum, the complainant, the assessor and the holder of the assessable property (if other than the complainant) to be parties to the appeal.

10.5 The Law must set out procedures for updating the assessment roll to reflect decisions of the Assessment Review Board.

11. Confidentiality

The Law must provide for the confidentiality of information and documents obtained by the tax administrator, assessor, the Assessment Review Board and any other person who has custody or control of records obtained or created under the Law, except that disclosure may be made

(a) in the course of administering the Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board or a court of law;

(c) where a holder gives written authorization for his or her agent to obtain confidential information relating to a property;

(d) by the tax administrator to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes, provided the information or documents do not include any information that is in an individually identifiable form; or

(e) by Council to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2016-03-30.]

SCHEDULE II

Repealed. [FNTC Resolution 2009-03-25.]

NORMES RELATIVES AUX LOIS SUR L'ÉVALUATION FONCIÈRE DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS

[Codifiées le 2016-09-14]

PARTIE I
PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;

B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;

C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs sur l'évaluation foncière des premières nations édictés en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(i) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs sur l'évaluation foncière des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III
AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tous les textes législatifs sur l'évaluation foncière soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V
DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent aux présentes normes.

« bien foncier agricole » Intérêt foncier classé dans l'une ou l'autre des catégories de biens fonciers « terres et améliorations non arables » et « autres terres et améliorations agricoles » en Saskatchewan.

a) a le droit de posséder ou d'occuper l'intérêt foncier en vertu d'un bail ou d'un permis ou par tout autre moyen légal;

b) occupe de fait l'intérêt foncier;

c) a des intérêts, titres ou droits sur l'intérêt foncier;

d) est fiduciaire de l'intérêt foncier.

« évaluation » Estimation de la valeur et classification d'intérêts fonciers.

« intérêt foncier » ou « bien foncier » S'entend d'une terre ou des améliorations, ou des deux, dans une réserve, y compris, sans restrictions, tout intérêt dans cette terre ou ces améliorations, toute occupation, possession ou utilisation de la terre ou des améliorations, et tout droit d'occuper, de posséder ou d'utiliser la terre ou les améliorations.

« rôle d'évaluation » Liste faisant état des intérêts fonciers et de leur valeur imposable établie aux fins de l'imposition foncière; s'entend en outre d'un rôle d'évaluation supplémentaire et des modifications apportées au rôle d'évaluation.

« texte législatif » Texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière édicté en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(i) de la Loi.

PARTIE VI

NORMES

1. Nomination d'un évaluateur

Le texte législatif doit :

a) prévoir la nomination d'un évaluateur chargé de faire l'évaluation des biens sujets à évaluation conformément au texte législatif et de remplir toute autre fonction prévue dans celui-ci;

b) prévoir que toute personne qui évalue des biens sujets à évaluation doit posséder les qualifications requises pour effectuer des évaluations de biens fonciers à des fins fiscales dans la province.

2. Dates des évaluations

2.1 En ce qui concerne les aspects du processus d'évaluation mentionnés à l'annexe I des présentes normes, le texte législatif doit intégrer les dates ou périodes correspondantes précisées à cette annexe, le cas échéant.

2.2 Si l'annexe I ne précise pas de date ou d'échéancier, mais permet à une première nation de choisir une date à indiquer dans son texte législatif, celui-ci doit établir une date fixe pour cet aspect du processus d'évaluation.

2.3 Le texte législatif doit prévoir une date d'envoi par la poste des avis d'évaluation qui correspond ou est antérieure à la date d'envoi par la poste des avis d'imposition prévus dans le texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière de la première nation.

3. Catégories d'évaluation foncière

3.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) établir des catégories de biens fonciers aux fins de l'évaluation qui sont les mêmes que celles établies par la province;

b) exiger que l'évaluateur classe les biens fonciers en utilisant les règles de classification provinciales applicables à chaque catégorie de biens fonciers.

3.2 À titre d'exception au paragraphe 3.1, les textes législatifs des premières nations situées en Colombie-Britannique n'ont pas à établir une catégorie 7 (Forêts gérées) de biens fonciers.

3.3 À titre d'exception au paragraphe 3.1, les textes législatifs des premières nations situées en Colombie-Britannique n'ont pas à établir une catégorie 3 (Logements supervisés) de biens fonciers.

4. Méthode d'évaluation

4.1 Aux fins de l'évaluation des intérêts fonciers, le texte législatif doit, sauf disposition contraire qui y est prévue, exiger l'utilisation :

a) des méthodes, taux, règles et formules d'évaluation établis sous le régime des lois provinciales relatives à l'évaluation foncière;

b) des pratiques d'évaluation utilisées dans la province pour les évaluations faites à l'extérieur de la réserve.

4.2 Sans que soit limitée la portée du paragraphe 4.1 :

a) les textes législatifs des premières nations situées au Manitoba doivent prévoir les pourcentages de la valeur imposable de chaque catégorie de biens fonciers pour laquelle la province a établi une telle valeur et exiger que l'évaluateur détermine la valeur fractionnée de chaque bien foncier à l'aide des pourcentages applicables de la valeur imposable prévus dans le texte législatif;

b) les textes législatifs des premières nations situées en Saskatchewan doivent prévoir les pourcentages de la valeur imposable de chaque catégorie de biens fonciers pour laquelle la province a établi une telle valeur et exiger que l'évaluateur détermine l'évaluation imposable de chaque bien foncier en multipliant la juste valeur selon l'évaluation par le pourcentage applicable de la valeur prévu dans le texte législatif.

4.3 Malgré le paragraphe 4.1, le texte législatif d'une première nation située en Saskatchewan doit, quant aux biens fonciers agricoles assujettis à l'impôt sur la base de la superficie imposable :

a) exiger que l'évaluateur détermine la superficie imposable;

b) préciser qu'aucune estimation de la valeur de l'intérêt foncier n'est requise.

5. Rôle d'évaluation

5.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'établissement d'un rôle d'évaluation annuel qui contient une liste de tous les intérêts fonciers assujettis à l'impôt ou pour lesquels le conseil peut accepter des paiements versés en remplacement d'impôts.

5.1.1 À titre d'exception au paragraphe 5.1, les textes législatifs des premières nations situées au Québec peuvent prévoir l'établissement d'un rôle d'évaluation tous les trois (3) ans ou à tout autre intervalle fixé ou permis par la province.

5.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que le rôle d'évaluation contienne au moins les renseignements applicables qui suivent :

a) le nom et l'adresse du détenteur du bien foncier;

b) une description du bien foncier;

c) la classification du bien foncier;

d) la valeur imposable selon la classification du bien foncier;

e) la valeur imposable totale du bien foncier;

f) la superficie imposable du bien foncier agricole, lorsque celui-ci est assujetti à l'impôt sur la base de la superficie imposable;

g) dans le cas d'une première nation située au Manitoba, la valeur fractionnée du bien foncier;

h) dans le cas d'une première nation située en Saskatchewan, l'évaluation imposable du bien foncier;

i) dans le cas d'une première nation située dans une province autre que le Manitoba ou la Saskatchewan, la valeur imposable totale du bien foncier assujetti à l'impôt.

5.3 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que :

a) l'évaluateur doit certifier que le rôle d'évaluation a été établi conformément au texte législatif;

b) l'évaluateur doit remettre au conseil le rôle d'évaluation certifié;

c) toute personne peut consulter le rôle d'évaluation;

d) nul ne peut utiliser les renseignements contenus dans le rôle d'évaluation à des fins de sollicitation;

e) les détenteurs peuvent, en suivant la procédure indiquée, demander que leur nom, adresse ou tout autre renseignement les concernant soit omis ou masqué dans le rôle d'évaluation pour des raisons de sécurité ou pour protéger leur santé physique ou mentale ou celle d'une personne résidant à leur domicile.

[mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2009-03-25; 2010-12-16; 2014-09-16.]

6. Correction des erreurs et omissions

Le texte législatif doit prévoir des procédures permettant à l'évaluateur de corriger les erreurs et omissions dans le rôle d'évaluation au moyen d'un ou de plusieurs rôles d'évaluation révisés, modifiés ou supplémentaires.

7. Avis d'évaluation

7.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'envoi d'un avis d'évaluation à toutes les personnes dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation à l'égard d'un bien sujet à évaluation.

7.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'avis d'évaluation contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et l'adresse du détenteur du bien foncier;

b) une brève description officielle du bien foncier;

c) la valeur imposable selon la classification du bien foncier;

d) la superficie imposable du bien foncier agricole, si elle est indiquée pour celui-ci sur le rôle d'évaluation;

e) dans le cas d'une première nation située au Manitoba, la valeur fractionnée du bien foncier;

f) dans le cas d'une première nation située en Saskatchewan, l'évaluation imposable du bien foncier;

g) dans le cas d'une première nation située dans une province autre que le Manitoba ou la Saskatchewan, la valeur imposable totale du bien foncier assujetti à l'impôt;

h) la possibilité de présenter une demande de réexamen de l'évaluation par l'évaluateur et le délai pour présenter cette demande;

i) le droit d'en appeler de l'évaluation devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, la façon d'en appeler et le délai pour interjeter un appel.

[mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2009-03-25; 2014-09-16.]

8. Réexamen

Le processus de réexamen prévu dans le texte législatif doit :

a) permettre à une personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation à l'égard d'un bien sujet à évaluation de demander que l'évaluateur réexamine l'évaluation de ce bien;

b) accorder à l'intéressé une période d'au moins vingt et un (21) jours après la date d'envoi d'un avis d'évaluation pour demander un réexamen par l'évaluateur;

c) définir les motifs de réexamen;

d) exiger que l'évaluateur effectue le réexamen dans le délai précisé dans le texte législatif et, selon le cas :

(i) qu'il avise le demandeur que l'évaluation est confirmée,

(ii) s'il établit que le bien foncier aurait dû être évalué différemment, qu'il offre au demandeur de modifier l'évaluation;

e) lorsque le demandeur est d'accord avec la modification, indiquer que l'évaluateur doit :

(i) modifier le rôle d'évaluation,

(ii) faire part de la modification à l'administrateur fiscal et à toutes les personnes qui ont reçu l'avis d'évaluation relatif au bien sujet à évaluation,

(iii) si un avis d'appel a été déposé à l'égard du bien sujet à évaluation, aviser de la modification le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières.

[mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2016-03-30; 2016-09-14.]

9. Appels en matière d'évaluation

9.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir au moins les motifs d'appel suivants pour les appels interjetés devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières :

a) la valeur imposable du bien sujet à évaluation;

b) la catégorie d'évaluation foncière du bien sujet à évaluation;

c) l'applicabilité d'une exemption au bien sujet à évaluation;

d) une prétendue erreur ou omission dans l'évaluation.

9.2 Si le texte législatif prévoit des frais administratifs à payer pour le dépôt d'un appel en matière d'évaluation, ces frais ne peuvent excéder trente dollars (30 $).

10. Comité de révision des évaluations foncières

10.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) définir les pouvoirs et fonctions du président;

b) prévoir la nomination de membres du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières par une résolution du conseil, pour un mandat d'au moins deux (2) ans;

c) préciser quand et comment les membres du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières peuvent être révoqués.

10.2 Le texte législatif doit établir des pratiques et procédures pour la tenue des audiences du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, notamment en ce qui concerne :

a) le droit d'une partie d'être entendue, d'être représentée, de soumettre des éléments de preuve et de convoquer des témoins;

b) la manière dont le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières peut tenir une audience;

c) les règles de preuve applicables durant une audience.

10.3 Pour l'établissement des pratiques et procédures, le texte législatif peut :

a) prévoir des pratiques et procédures supplémentaires à définir dans un guide des pratiques et procédures approuvé par une résolution du conseil;

b) permettre au Comité de révision des évaluations foncières d'établir ses propres procédures pendant une audience, dans la mesure où elles ne sont pas incompatibles avec le texte législatif.

10.4 Le texte législatif doit prévoir, à tout le moins, que le plaignant, l'évaluateur et le détenteur du bien sujet à évaluation (s'il n'est pas le plaignant) sont parties à l'appel.

10.5 Le texte législatif doit prévoir une procédure de mise à jour du rôle d'évaluation afin de tenir compte des décisions du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières.

11. Confidentialité

Le texte législatif doit assurer la confidentialité des renseignements et des documents obtenus par l'administrateur fiscal, l'évaluateur, le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières et toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de dossiers obtenus ou créés en vertu du texte législatif; toutefois, ces renseignements et ces documents peuvent être communiqués, selon le cas :

a) dans le cadre de l'application du texte législatif ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou un tribunal judiciaire;

c) lorsqu'un détenteur a autorisé par écrit son agent à obtenir des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier;

d) par l'administrateur fiscal à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que ces renseignements ou documents ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises;

e) par le conseil à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique.

ANNEXE II

Abrogée [Résolution de la CFPN 2009-03-25.]

STANDARDS FOR
FIRST NATION SERVICE TAX LAWS, 2016

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;

B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and

C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation taxation for the provision of services laws enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(iii) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' service tax laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to every service tax law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

PART V
DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

"assessment law" means an assessment law enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(i) of the Act;

"assessment review board" means an independent appeal body established by a First Nation under its assessment law to hear and determine assessment appeals;

"chair" means the chair of a review panel;

"Commission" means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the Act;

"complainant" means a person who commences an appeal of a service tax;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"holder" means a person in lawful possession of an interest in land or a person who

(a) is entitled, through a lease, licence or other legal means, to possess or occupy the interest in land,

(b) is in actual occupation of the interest in land,

(c) has any right, title, estate or interest in the interest in land, or

(d) is a trustee of the interest in land;

"interest in land" or "property" means land or improvements, or both, in a reserve and, without limitation, may include any interest in land or improvements, any occupation, possession or use of land or improvements, and any right to occupy, possess or use land or improvements;

"Law" means a service tax law enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(iii) of the Act;

"local service area" means a defined area of a reserve to which a service is provided under a service tax law;

"Province" refers to the province in which a reserve is situated;

"registered professional" means an individual qualified and licensed as a professional engineer or architect in the Province;

"reserve" means any land set apart for the use and benefit of a First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"resolution" means a motion passed and approved by a majority of Council present at a duly convened meeting;

"review panel" means an independent appeal body established under a Law to hear and determine service tax appeals;

"service" means an activity or work provided by or on behalf of a First Nation for which a service tax will be levied under a Law;

"service tax" means a tax levied under a Law in respect of the provision of a service;

"service tax roll" means a list of persons liable to pay a service tax under a Law;

"tax administrator" means a person appointed by Council to administer and enforce a Law;

"tax roll" means a tax roll prepared under a First Nation's taxation law;

"taxation law" means a taxation law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"taxes" includes all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under a local revenue law, and all penalties, interest and costs added to those taxes.

Except as otherwise provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART VI

STANDARDS

1. Description and Type of Service

1.1 The Law must describe the service to be paid for by the service tax.

1.2 The Law must impose a service tax only to recover all or a portion of the costs relating to the design and construction of infrastructure for the provision of a service.

1.3 The Law must impose a service tax only for a service that is within the categories of services listed in the Schedule to these Standards.

2. Appointment of Tax Administrator

The Law must provide for the appointment by Council, by resolution, of a tax administrator to oversee the administration and enforcement of the Law.

3. Service Tax Liability and Exemptions

3.1 The Law must provide that all property in the reserve or within a local service area is subject to the service tax unless

(a) exempted from the service tax in accordance with the Law;

(b) the First Nation waives or reduces the service tax in accordance with the Law; or

(c) the property will not have the opportunity to benefit from the service.

3.2 Where a First Nation wishes to provide for exemptions from a service tax, those exemptions must be set out in the Law.

3.3 Where a Law exempts a property from a service tax on the basis that the property is held by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation, or a corporation in which shares are held by or on behalf of the First Nation or a member of the First Nation, the Law must require the First Nation to pay from its general revenues the service taxes that would have been levied on the exempted property.

4. Revenues

4.1 The Law must provide that all revenue collected by the First Nation from the service tax, and interest earned on it, is used only for the provision of the service.

4.2 The Law must require the tax administrator to account separately for the service tax revenues.

5. Estimated Costs of Service

5.1 The Law must set out the total estimated cost of the service and the proportion of that estimated cost that the First Nation will recover through the service tax.

5.2 In calculating the total estimated cost of the service for the purposes of subsection 5.1, the First Nation must include only the following costs:

(a) property acquisition costs;

(b) capital costs;

(c) professional services costs, including engineering and legal fees;

(d) debt servicing costs;

(e) administration costs, including costs of the review panel; and

(f) other costs that will be directly incurred in undertaking and financing the service.

5.3 The total estimated cost of the service set out in the Law must be reviewed by a registered professional who must certify that the amount

(a) includes only those costs permitted under subsection 5.2; and

(b) provides a complete and accurate estimate of the total costs of the service.

6. Basis of Service Tax

6.1 The Law must state the basis on which the service tax will be levied, which must be one or more of the following:

(a) a property value tax based on the assessed value of the property as determined under the First Nation's assessment law;

(b) a single amount for each property;

(c) the taxable area of the property; or

(d) the taxable frontage of the property.

6.2 Where a Law levies a service tax on the basis of the taxable area or taxable frontage of a property, the Law must establish how the taxable area or taxable frontage, as the case may be, will be determined based on the physical characteristics of the property.

7. Establishing Service Tax Rates and Prepayment

7.1 The Law must establish the service tax rate to determine the service tax payable in each year the service tax is imposed.

7.2 Where the Law imposes a service tax based on

(a) a property value tax, the Law must establish the rate to be paid per unit of assessed value of a property as determined under the First Nation's assessment law; or

(b) a single rate for each property, the Law must establish the rate to be paid in each year of the service tax.

7.3 Where the Law imposes a service tax based on the taxable area or taxable frontage of a property, the Law must establish either

(a) the rate to be paid per unit of taxable area or taxable frontage; or

(b) the rates of tax to be paid for different ranges of taxable areas or taxable frontages.

7.4 In establishing a tax rate, the Law

(a) may provide for different rates for different property classes established in the First Nation's assessment law; and

(b) must provide for the equal application of tax rates within a property class.

7.5 Where the Law allows a holder to prepay the service tax amount, the Law must set out the prepayment amount or the formula that will be used to calculate the prepayment amount.

8. Duration of Service Tax

The Law must set out the number of years that the service tax will be imposed, which must not exceed the lesser of

(a) thirty (30) years; and

(b) the reasonable life expectancy of the work constructed as part of the service.

9. Service to Local Service Area

Where the Law provides for the service to benefit or be provided to a local service area, the Law must

(a) define the boundaries of the local service area to which the service will be provided and the service tax levied;

(b) set out the portion of the costs of the service that will be recovered by the service tax; and

(c) include a statement indicating the proportion of holders of taxable property within the local service area who support the service and the service tax, and how the First Nation determined the level of support.

10. Construction Schedule

10.1 The Law must

(a) set out a construction schedule that includes the proposed dates for the commencement and completion of all design and construction components of the service;

(b) require the First Nation to commence and complete the construction in accordance with the construction schedule; and

(c) require the First Nation to commence the construction within one (1) year of the date the service tax is due and payable in the first year that it is levied.

10.2 The construction schedule required by subsection 10.1 must be reviewed by a registered professional who must certify that the construction schedule

(a) includes all necessary design and construction components of the service; and

(b) provides a reasonable and achievable time frame for the completion of the work.

10.3 The Law may permit the First Nation to waive or reduce the amount of a service tax in respect of an interest in land only where the holder or a previous holder of that interest in land has

(a) provided all or part of the service at the holder's expense, or

(b) already paid towards the costs of the service, in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the Law.

11. Service Tax Roll

11.1 The Law must provide for the tax administrator to create a service tax roll in the first year that a service tax is levied.

11.2 The Law must require the service tax roll to include the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the property;

(b) a short description of the property;

(c) where the tax is imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the property, the total assessed value of the property as shown on the First Nation's assessment roll;

(d) where the tax is imposed on the basis of taxable area or taxable frontage, the taxable area or taxable frontage of the property, as applicable;

(e) the service tax imposed on the property in the current taxation year;

(f) any unpaid service taxes, penalties, interest and arrears in respect of the property; and

(g) if the name of a holder of a charge is included on the First Nation's assessment roll for a property, the name and address of that person.

11.3 Where the service tax is levied on the basis of taxable area or taxable frontage, the Law must require the service tax roll to be reviewed by a registered professional who must certify that the calculation of the taxable area or taxable frontage of each property is correctly shown on the service tax roll.

11.4 The Law must

(a) provide a process for the service tax roll to be certified that it was completed in accordance with the requirements of the Law;

(b) require the service tax roll to be available for public inspection at the office of the First Nation during regular office hours; and

(c) include a process for updating the service tax roll in each year that the service tax is levied under the Law.

12. Tax Notice and Payment

12.1 The Law must

(a) set the date on which the service taxes are due and payable; and

(b) set out where tax payments must be made and the acceptable forms of payment.

12.2 The Law must require the tax administrator to mail a tax notice in each year to

(a) each holder of an interest in land subject to the service tax, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the service tax roll in respect of a property, by a date set out in the Law, which date must be at least thirty (30) days before the date that the service tax is due.

12.3 The Law must require the tax notice to include

(a) the information shown on the service tax roll in respect of the property; and

(b) where payment must be made, the manner of payment and the date the service tax is due.

12.4 Where the Law provides that the service tax may be prepaid, the Law must require the tax notice that is given in the first year the service tax is levied to set out the amount of the prepayment and the date by which the prepayment must be made.

12.5 The Law may provide for a tax notice under a Law to be combined with a tax notice under the First Nation's taxation law.

13. Establishing a Review Panel

13.1 The Law must provide for Council to establish a review panel to hear and determine service tax appeals.

13.2 The Law must

(a) require the review panel to have at least three (3) members and provide for the appointment of those members by Council resolution;

(b) provide for a term of appointment of members of the review panel of not less than two (2) years;

(c) fix the remuneration for members of the review panel;

(d) prohibit a person from serving on the review panel where the person

(i) has a personal or financial interest in the subject of the appeal,

(ii) is the Chief or a member of Council, or

(iii) has financial dealings with the First Nation that could reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly or impartially with an appeal;

(e) set out when and how members of the review panel may be removed from office;

(f) provide for the appointment of a chair and set out the powers, duties and functions of the chair;

(g) establish practices and procedures for the conduct of review panel hearings, including respecting

(i) a party's right to be heard, have representation, present evidence and call witnesses,

(ii) the manner by which the review panel may conduct a hearing, and

(iii) the evidentiary rules that apply during a hearing;

(h) require the review panel, within ten (10) days after completion of a hearing, to make a record of its decision and advise the tax administrator of the decision; and

(i) require the tax administrator to notify the holder of the property and the complainant of a decision of the review panel.

13.3 In establishing practices and procedures of the review panel, the Law may

(a) provide for additional practices and procedures to be established in a practices and procedures manual approved by Council resolution; and

(b) permit the review panel to determine its own procedure during a hearing to the extent not inconsistent with the Law.

13.4 Despite subsection 13.2, the Law may allow Council to establish a review panel by appointing the First Nation's assessment review board as the review panel.

14. Appeal to Review Panel

14.1 The Law must

(a) provide an opportunity for holders to appeal a service tax before it is imposed for the first time, on one or more of the following grounds:

(i) there is an error or omission respecting a name or address on the service tax roll,

(ii) there is an error or omission respecting the inclusion of a property,

(iii) where the service tax is levied on the basis of taxable area or taxable frontage, that there is an error or omission respecting the taxable area or taxable frontage of a property, and

(iv) where the Law provides for exemptions, that an exemption has been improperly allowed or disallowed;

(b) provide an opportunity in each subsequent year that a service tax is levied for a holder of taxable property to appeal

(i) a change in the service tax levied against that holder's property, or

(ii) the tax administrator's refusal to make a change to the service tax roll respecting a matter referred to in paragraph (a) that is requested by the holder.

14.2 The Law must not impose a fee for appealing a service tax.

14.3 The Law must provide for the complainant, the tax administrator and the holder of the property (if other than the complainant) to be the parties to the appeal.

14.4 The Law must set out procedures for updating the service tax roll to reflect decisions of the review panel.

15. Penalties

Where the Law provides for a penalty to be imposed in respect of unpaid service taxes, the Law must set out the when the penalty will be imposed if the service taxes remain unpaid.

16. Confidentiality

The Law must provide for the confidentiality of information and documents obtained by the tax administrator, a review panel and any other person who has custody or control of records obtained or created under the Law, except that disclosure may be made

(a) in the course of administering the Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before a review panel or a court of law;

(c) where a holder gives written authorization for his or her agent to obtain confidential information relating to a property;

(d) by the tax administrator to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes, provided the information or documents do not include any information that is in an individually identifiable form; or

(e) by Council to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes.

NORMES RELATIVES AUX LOIS SUR LES TAXES SUR LES SERVICES DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS (2016)

PARTIE I
PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales des premières nations édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;

B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;

C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs des premières nations sur l'imposition de taxes pour la fourniture de services, édictés en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(iii) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs relatifs aux taxes sur les services des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III
AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tous les textes législatifs relatifs aux taxes sur les services qui sont soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V

« zone de service désignée » Secteur déterminé d'une réserve auquel un service est fourni aux termes du texte législatif.

Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VI

NORMES

1. Description et type de service

1.1 Le texte législatif doit donner une description du service à financer au moyen de la taxe sur les services.

1.2 Le texte législatif ne peut imposer une taxe sur les services que pour recouvrer tout ou partie des frais liés à la conception et à la construction de l'infrastructure nécessaire à la fourniture d'un service.

1.3 Le texte législatif ne peut imposer une taxe sur les services qu'à l'égard d'un service appartenant à l'une des catégories de services énumérées à l'annexe des présentes normes.

2. Nomination d'un administrateur fiscal

Le texte législatif doit prévoir la nomination par le conseil, par voie de résolution, d'un administrateur fiscal chargé de la surveillance de l'application et du contrôle d'application du texte législatif.

3. Assujettissement à la taxe sur les services et exemptions

3.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que tous les biens fonciers situés dans la réserve ou dans une zone de service désignée sont assujettis à la taxe sur les services, sauf si, selon le cas :

a) ils sont exemptés de cette taxe en vertu du texte législatif;

b) la première nation accorde une dispense ou une réduction de cette taxe conformément au texte législatif;

c) le bien foncier visé ne pourra pas bénéficier du service.

3.2 Lorsque la première nation souhaite accorder des exemptions de la taxe sur les services, ces exemptions doivent être énoncées dans le texte législatif.

3.3 Lorsque le texte législatif exempte des biens fonciers de la taxe sur les services parce qu'il s'agit de biens fonciers détenus par la première nation, par un membre de la première nation ou par une société dont des actions sont détenues par ou pour la première nation ou un membre de celle-ci, le texte législatif doit exiger que la première nation paie à partir de ses recettes générales les taxes sur les services qui auraient été prélevées à l'égard des biens fonciers ainsi exemptés.

4. Recettes

4.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que les recettes provenant de la taxe sur les services que perçoit la première nation, ainsi que les intérêts qu'elles rapportent, ne peuvent servir qu'à la fourniture du service visé.

4.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal tienne une comptabilité distincte pour les recettes provenant de la taxe sur les services.

5. Coût estimatif du service

5.1 Le texte législatif doit faire état du coût estimatif total du service et de la proportion de ce coût que la première nation recouvrera au moyen de la taxe sur les services.

5.2 Dans le calcul du coût estimatif total du service pour l'application du paragraphe 5.1, la première nation ne peut inclure que les coûts et frais suivants :

a) les coûts d'acquisition de biens fonciers;

b) les dépenses en immobilisations;

c) les frais des services professionnels, y compris les honoraires d'ingénieurs et d'avocats;

d) les frais de service de la dette;

e) les frais d'administration, y compris les frais du comité d'examen;

f) tous autres frais qui seront directement engagés pour entreprendre et financer le service.

5.3 Le coût estimatif total du service indiqué dans le texte législatif doit être soumis à l'examen d'un professionnel agréé chargé de certifier que le montant de ce coût :

a) d'une part, ne comprend que les coûts et frais autorisés au titre du paragraphe 5.2;

b) d'autre part, constitue une estimation exhaustive et exacte de l'ensemble des coûts du service.

6. Base de prélèvement de la taxe sur les services

6.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir la base de prélèvement de la taxe sur les services, laquelle est constituée de l'un ou plusieurs des éléments suivants :

a) une taxe sur la valeur foncière qui est basée sur la valeur imposable du bien foncier, déterminée conformément au texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière de la première nation;

b) un montant forfaitaire pour chaque bien foncier;

c) la superficie imposable du bien foncier;

d) la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier.

6.2 Lorsque le texte législatif impose une taxe sur les services basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable d'un bien foncier, il doit établir de quelle façon la superficie ou la façade imposable, selon le cas, sera déterminée d'après les caractéristiques physiques du bien foncier.

7. Établissement des taux de la taxe sur les services et paiement par anticipation

7.1 Le texte législatif doit fixer le taux de la taxe sur les services qui s'applique pour le calcul de la taxe sur les services à payer chaque année où elle est imposée.

7.2 Lorsque le texte législatif impose une taxe sur les services basée :

a) sur la taxe sur la valeur foncière, il doit fixer le taux à payer par unité de la valeur imposable du bien foncier, déterminée conformément au texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière de la première nation;

b) sur un montant forfaitaire pour chaque bien foncier, il doit fixer le taux à payer chaque année où cette taxe est imposée.

7.3 Lorsque le texte législatif impose une taxe sur les services basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable d'un bien foncier, il doit fixer :

a) soit le taux à payer par unité de superficie imposable ou de longueur de façade imposable;

b) soit les taux à payer pour les différents intervalles de superficie imposable ou de longueur de façade imposable.

7.4 Pour l'établissement d'un taux de taxe, le texte législatif :

a) peut prévoir des taux différents pour les diverses catégories de biens fonciers établies dans le texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière de la première nation;

b) doit prévoir l'application uniforme des taux de taxe dans une même catégorie de biens fonciers.

7.5 Lorsque le texte législatif autorise le détenteur à payer par anticipation le montant de la taxe sur les services, il doit prévoir le montant du paiement par anticipation ou la formule servant à le calculer.

8. Durée de la taxe sur les services

Le texte législatif doit fixer le nombre d'années durant lesquelles la taxe sur les services sera prélevée, qui ne peut excéder la moins élevée des durées suivantes :

a) trente (30) ans;

b) la durée de vie utile raisonnable de l'ouvrage construit dans le cadre du service.

9. Service destiné à la zone de service désignée

Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit que la fourniture du service est réservée à une zone de service désignée, il doit :

a) définir les limites de la zone où le service sera fourni et où la taxe sur les services sera prélevée;

b) établir la proportion des coûts du service qui sera recouvrée au moyen de la taxe sur les services;

c) faire mention de la proportion de détenteurs de biens imposables dans la zone de service désignée qui appuient le service et la taxe sur les services, et indiquer la façon dont la première nation a déterminé le degré d'appui.

10. Échéancier de construction

10.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) prévoir un échéancier de construction qui indique notamment les dates projetées pour le début et l'achèvement de tous les éléments de la conception et de la construction du service;

b) obliger la première nation à commencer et à achever la construction conformément à l'échéancier de construction;

c) exiger que la première nation commence la construction dans un délai d'un (1) an suivant la date à laquelle la taxe sur les services est exigible dans la première année où elle est prélevée.

10.2 L'échéancier de construction visé au paragraphe 10.1 doit être soumis à l'examen d'un professionnel agréé chargé de certifier que cet échéancier :

a) englobe tous les éléments essentiels de la conception et de la construction du service;

b) prévoit un délai raisonnable et réalisable pour l'achèvement des travaux.

10.3 Le texte législatif peut autoriser la première nation à accorder, selon les modalités qu'il précise, une dispense ou une réduction de la taxe sur les services à l'égard d'un intérêt foncier dans les seuls cas où le détenteur actuel ou un ancien détenteur de cet intérêt :

a) soit a fourni à ses frais tout ou partie du service visé;

b) soit a déjà fait un paiement à l'égard des coûts du service visé.

11. Rôle de taxes sur les services

11.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal établisse un rôle de taxes sur les services dès la première année où une taxe sur les services est prélevée.

11.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que le rôle de taxes sur les services contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et la dernière adresse connue du détenteur du bien foncier;

b) une brève description du bien foncier;

c) dans le cas où la taxe est basée sur la valeur imposable du bien foncier, la valeur imposable totale du bien foncier figurant sur le rôle d'évaluation de la première nation;

d) dans le cas où la taxe est basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable, la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, selon le cas;

e) la taxe sur les services imposée sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours;

f) les taxes sur les services, pénalités et intérêts impayés ainsi que les arriérés à payer à l'égard du bien foncier, le cas échéant;

g) dans le cas où le nom du titulaire d'une charge est inscrit à l'égard d'un bien foncier sur le rôle d'évaluation de la première nation, le nom et l'adresse de cette personne.

11.3 Lorsque la taxe sur les services est basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable, le texte législatif doit exiger que le rôle de taxes sur les services soit soumis à l'examen d'un professionnel agréé chargé de certifier que le calcul de la superficie imposable ou de la longueur de façade imposable de chaque bien foncier est indiqué correctement sur ce rôle.

11.4 Le texte législatif doit :

a) prévoir une procédure pour certifier que le rôle de taxes sur les services a été établi conformément aux exigences du texte législatif;

b) exiger que ce rôle soit mis à la disposition du public pour consultation au bureau de la première nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales.

b) établir une procédure pour la mise à jour de ce rôle au cours de chaque année où la taxe sur les services est prélevée en vertu du texte législatif.

12. Avis de taxe et paiement

12.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) fixer la date d'exigibilité de la taxe sur les services;

b) préciser l'endroit où les paiements de cette taxe doivent être faits et les modes de paiement acceptables.

12.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis de taxe par la poste chaque année au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée, laquelle est d'au moins trente (30) jours avant la date d'exigibilité de la taxe sur les services, aux personnes suivantes :

a) chaque détenteur d'un intérêt foncier assujetti à la taxe sur les services;

b) chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle de taxes sur les services à l'égard d'un bien foncier.

12.3 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'avis de taxe contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

a) les renseignements figurant sur le rôle de taxes sur les services à l'égard du bien foncier;

b) l'endroit où le paiement doit être fait, le mode de paiement et la date d'exigibilité de la taxe sur les services.

12.4 Si le texte législatif autorise le paiement par anticipation de la taxe sur les services, il doit exiger que l'avis de taxe transmis dans la première année où cette taxe est imposée fasse état du montant et de la date limite du paiement par anticipation.

12.5 Le texte législatif peut permettre que l'avis de taxe exigé par le texte législatif soit intégré à l'avis d'imposition que prévoit le texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière de la première nation.

13. Constitution d'un comité d'examen

13.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que le conseil constitue un comité d'examen chargé d'entendre et de trancher les appels relatifs aux taxes sur les services.

13.2 Le texte législatif doit :

a) exiger que le comité d'examen compte au moins trois (3) membres et que ceux-ci soient nommés par résolution du conseil;

b) fixer la durée du mandat des membres du comité d'examen à au moins deux (2) ans;

c) fixer la rémunération des membres du comité d'examen;

d) interdire aux personnes suivantes de siéger au comité d'examen :

(i) quiconque a un intérêt personnel ou financier dans l'objet de l'appel,

(ii) le chef ou les membres du conseil,

(iii) toute personne qui entretient avec la première nation des relations financières qui pourraient raisonnablement donner lieu à un conflit d'intérêts ou porter atteinte à sa capacité d'agir d'une manière équitable et impartiale dans le règlement d'un appel;

e) préciser à quel moment et de quelle façon un membre du comité d'examen peut être révoqué;

f) prévoir la nomination d'un président et définir ses pouvoirs et fonctions;

g) établir des pratiques et procédures pour la tenue des audiences du comité d'examen, notamment en ce qui concerne :

(i) le droit d'une partie d'être entendue, d'être représentée, de soumettre des éléments de preuve et de convoquer des témoins,

(ii) la manière dont le comité d'examen peut tenir une audience,

(iii) les règles de preuve applicables durant une audience;

h) exiger que le comité d'examen, dans les dix (10) jours suivant le règlement d'un appel, consigne au dossier sa décision et avise l'administrateur fiscal de celle-ci;

i) exiger que l'administrateur fiscal avise le détenteur du bien foncier et le plaignant de la décision du comité d'examen.

13.3 Pour l'établissement des pratiques et procédures du comité d'examen, le texte législatif peut :

a) prévoir des pratiques et procédures supplémentaires à définir dans un guide des pratiques et procédures approuvé par une résolution du conseil;

b) permettre au comité d'examen d'établir ses propres procédures pendant une audience, dans la mesure où elles ne sont pas incompatibles avec le texte législatif.

13.4 Malgré le paragraphe 13.2, le texte législatif peut autoriser le conseil à désigner le comité de révision des évaluations foncières pour agir en tant que comité d'examen.

14. Appel auprès du comité d'examen

14.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) donner aux détenteurs la possibilité d'interjeter appel à l'égard d'une taxe sur les services avant qu'elle soit imposée pour la première fois, pour l'un ou plusieurs des motifs suivants :

(i) un nom ou une adresse figurant sur le rôle de taxes sur les services comporte une erreur ou une omission,

(ii) il y a une erreur ou une omission concernant l'inscription d'un bien foncier sur ce rôle,

(iii) dans le cas où la taxe sur les services est basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable, une erreur ou une omission a été commise à l'égard de cette superficie ou de cette longueur de façade,

(iv) dans le cas où le texte législatif prévoit des exemptions, une exemption a été incorrectement accordée ou refusée;

b) donner au détenteur d'un bien imposable, chaque année subséquente où une taxe sur les services est prélevée, la possibilité d'interjeter appel à l'égard :

(i) d'une modification de la taxe sur les services imposée sur son bien foncier,

(ii) du refus de l'administrateur fiscal d'apporter au rôle de taxes sur les services une modification concernant une question visée à l'alinéa a) que demande le détenteur.

14.2 Le texte législatif ne peut imposer de droits à payer pour le dépôt d'un appel relatif à la taxe sur les services.

14.3 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que le plaignant, l'administrateur fiscal et le détenteur du bien foncier (s'il n'est pas le plaignant) sont les parties à l'appel.

14.4 Le texte législatif doit établir une procédure pour la mise à jour du rôle de taxes sur les services afin de tenir compte des décisions du comité d'examen.

15. Pénalités

Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l'imposition d'une pénalité à l'égard des taxes sur les services impayées, il doit préciser à quel moment la pénalité sera imposée si les taxes sur les services demeurent en souffrance.

16. Confidentialité

Le texte législatif doit assurer la confidentialité des renseignements et des documents obtenus par l'administrateur fiscal, un comité d'examen et toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de dossiers obtenus ou créés en vertu du texte législatif; toutefois, ces renseignements et ces documents peuvent être communiqués :

a) dans le cadre de l'application du texte législatif ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant un comité d'examen ou un tribunal judiciaire;

c) lorsqu'un détenteur a autorisé par écrit son agent à obtenir des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier;

d) par l'administrateur fiscal à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, à la condition que les renseignements ou les documents ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises;

e) par le conseil à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique.

STANDARDS FOR
FIRST NATION OCCUPANCY BUSINESS ACTIVITY TAX LAWS, 2016

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;

B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and

C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(iv) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' business activity tax laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PARTIE I
PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales des premières nations édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;

B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;

C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs sur les recettes locales des premières nations édictés en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(iv) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs relatifs aux taxes sur les activités commerciales des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III
AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent aux textes législatifs relatifs à la taxe sur les activités commerciales qui prévoient l'évaluation des entreprises qui occupent des locaux dans une réserve située au Manitoba et leur assujettissement à cette taxe.

PARTIE V

Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VI
NORMES

1. Application du texte législatif

Le texte législatif doit prévoir, pour la surveillance de l'application et du contrôle d'application de celui-ci :

a) soit la nomination d'un administrateur fiscal par voie de résolution;

b) soit la désignation de l'administrateur fiscal nommé en vertu du texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière de la première nation.

2. Évaluateur

Le texte législatif doit :

a) soit prévoir la nomination, par voie de résolution, d'un évaluateur chargé d'évaluer les biens sujets à évaluation conformément au texte législatif et d'exercer les autres fonctions qui y sont spécifiées;

b) soit charger l'évaluateur nommé en vertu du texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière de la première nation d'évaluer les biens sujets à évaluation conformément au texte législatif et d'exercer les autres fonctions qui y sont spécifiées.

3. Date et méthode d'évaluation

3.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'évaluation des établissements commerciaux chaque année au cours de laquelle une évaluation générale est faite dans la province du Manitoba.

3.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'évaluateur établisse la valeur imposable des établissements commerciaux sur la base de leur valeur locative annuelle à la date de référence, en utilisant :

a) les méthodes, taux, règles et formules d'évaluation établis sous le régime des lois de la province du Manitoba relatives à l'évaluation des établissements commerciaux;

b) les pratiques d'évaluation utilisées par les évaluateurs de la province du Manitoba pour les évaluations d'établissements commerciaux faites à l'extérieur des réserves.

4. Rôle et avis d'évaluation commerciale

4.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'établissement d'un rôle d'évaluation commerciale annuel :

a) dressé au plus tard le 31 décembre de l'année précédant l'année d'imposition;

b) énumérant tous les établissements commerciaux assujettis à la taxe en vertu du texte législatif;

c) contenant au moins les renseignements suivants au sujet de chaque établissement commercial :

(i) le nom et la dernière adresse connue de l'exploitant,

(ii) l'adresse de l'établissement commercial,

(iii) la valeur imposable de l'établissement commercial.

4.2 Le texte législatif peut permettre que le rôle d'évaluation commerciale soit combiné au rôle d'évaluation de la première nation établi en vertu de son texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière.

4.3 Le texte législatif doit prévoir :

a) une certification de l'évaluateur attestant que le rôle d'évaluation commerciale a été établi conformément au texte législatif;

b) la remise au conseil par l'évaluateur du rôle d'évaluation commerciale certifié;

c) la consultation par toute personne du rôle d'évaluation commerciale;

d) l'interdiction d'utiliser les renseignements contenus dans le rôle d'évaluation commerciale à des fins de sollicitation;

e) une procédure selon laquelle les détenteurs peuvent demander que leur nom ou adresse ou tout autre renseignement concernant l'exploitant soit omis ou masqué dans le rôle d'évaluation commerciale pour des raisons de sécurité ou pour protéger la santé physique ou mentale de l'exploitant ou celle d'une personne résidant au domicile de ce dernier.

5. Correction des erreurs et omissions

5.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir des procédures permettant à l'évaluateur de corriger les erreurs et omissions contenues dans le rôle d'évaluation commerciale au moyen d'un ou de plusieurs rôles d'évaluation commerciale modifiés ou supplémentaires.

5.2 Le texte législatif peut prévoir, dans les cas où la première nation a pris un texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière, que les dispositions de ce dernier relatives à la correction des erreurs et omissions dans le rôle d'évaluation s'appliquent à la correction des erreurs et omissions dans le rôle d'évaluation commerciale.

6. Avis d'évaluation commerciale

6.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'envoi par la poste d'un avis d'évaluation commerciale à toutes les personnes dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale à l'égard d'un établissement commercial, au plus tard à la date qu'il précise, laquelle ne peut dépasser la date prévue pour l'envoi par la poste des avis de taxe.

6.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'avis d'évaluation commerciale contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et l'adresse de l'exploitant;

b) l'adresse de l'établissement commercial;

c) la valeur imposable de l'établissement commercial;

d) la possibilité de présenter une demande de réexamen de l'évaluation par l'évaluateur et le délai prévu pour présenter cette demande;

e) le droit d'en appeler de l'évaluation devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, la façon d'en appeler et le délai pour interjeter appel.

7. Réexamen

7.1 Le processus de réexamen prévu dans le texte législatif doit :

a) permettre à toute personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale à l'égard d'un bien foncier de demander que l'évaluateur réexamine l'évaluation de ce bien;

b) accorder à l'intéressé une période d'au moins vingt et un (21) jours après la date de transmission de l'avis d'évaluation commerciale pour demander le réexamen par l'évaluateur;

c) définir les motifs de réexamen;

d) exiger que l'évaluateur effectue le réexamen dans le délai précisé dans le texte législatif – qui ne peut excéder quarante-cinq (45) jours après la réception de la demande de réexamen – et, selon le cas :

(i) qu'il avise le demandeur que l'évaluation est confirmée,

(ii) s'il établit que le bien foncier aurait dû être évalué différemment, qu'il offre au demandeur de modifier l'évaluation;

e) lorsque le demandeur est d'accord avec la modification, indiquer que l'évaluateur doit :

(i) modifier le rôle d'évaluation commerciale,

(ii) donner avis de la modification à toutes les personnes qui ont reçu un avis d'évaluation commerciale relativement au bien sujet à évaluation,

(iii) si un avis d'appel a été déposé à l'égard du bien sujet à évaluation, aviser de la modification le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières.

7.2 Le texte législatif peut prévoir, dans les cas où la première nation a pris un texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière, que les dispositions de ce dernier relatives au processus de réexamen s'appliquent aux demandes de réexamen, pourvu que les exigences énoncées au paragraphe 7.1 soient respectées.

8. Appels en matière d'évaluation

8.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir au moins les motifs d'appel suivants pour les appels interjetés devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières :

a) la valeur imposable du bien foncier en cause;

b) l'applicabilité d'une exemption au bien foncier en cause;

c) une prétendue erreur ou omission dans l'évaluation.

8.2 Si le texte législatif prévoit des frais administratifs à payer pour le dépôt d'un appel en matière d'évaluation, ces frais ne peuvent excéder trente dollars (30 $).

9. Comité de révision des évaluations foncières

9.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) soit prévoir que les dispositions du texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière de la première nation qui se rapportent au Comité de révision des évaluations foncières s'appliquent aux appels, pourvu que les exigences du présent article soient respectées;

b) soit incorporer les dispositions énoncées au présent article.

9.2 Le texte législatif doit :

a) définir les pouvoirs et fonctions du président du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;

b) prévoir la nomination des membres du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières par une résolution du conseil, pour un mandat d'au moins deux (2) ans;

c) préciser quand et comment les membres du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières peuvent être révoqués.

9.3 Le texte législatif doit établir des pratiques et procédures pour la tenue des audiences du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, notamment en ce qui concerne :

a) le droit d'une partie d'être entendue, d'être représentée, de soumettre des éléments de preuve et de convoquer des témoins;

b) la manière dont le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières peut tenir une audience;

c) les règles de preuve applicables durant une audience.

9.4 Pour l'établissement des pratiques et procédures, le texte législatif peut :

a) prévoir des pratiques et procédures supplémentaires à définir dans un guide des pratiques et procédures approuvé par une résolution du conseil;

b) permettre au Comité de révision des évaluations foncières d'établir ses propres procédures pendant une audience, dans la mesure où elles ne sont pas incompatibles avec le texte législatif.

9.5 Le texte législatif doit prévoir, à tout le moins, que le plaignant, l'évaluateur et l'exploitant (s'il n'est pas le plaignant) sont parties à l'appel.

9.6 Le texte législatif doit prévoir une procédure de mise à jour du rôle d'évaluation commerciale afin de tenir compte des décisions du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières.

10. Assujettissement à la taxe

Le texte législatif doit prévoir :

a) qu'il s'applique à tous les établissements commerciaux;

b) que tous les établissements commerciaux sont assujettis à la taxe, sauf s'ils en sont exemptés en conformité avec le texte législatif.

11. Exemptions de taxe

11.1 Lorsqu'une première nation souhaite prévoir des exemptions de taxe dans le cadre du texte législatif, ces exemptions doivent être expressément énoncées dans celui-ci.

11.2 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit des exemptions de taxe, il doit s'agir d'exemptions visant les établissements commerciaux de l'une ou plusieurs des catégories suivantes :

a) les exemptions visant les établissements commerciaux détenus ou occupés par un exploitant qui est membre de la première nation;

b) les exemptions visant les établissements commerciaux détenus ou occupés par un exploitant qui est la première nation ou une société de la première nation;

c) les exemptions faisant partie d'une catégorie d'exemptions de taxes d'affaires qu'utilisent des administrations locales de la province du Manitoba.

11.3 Les exemptions de taxe visées aux alinéas 11.2a) et b) ne peuvent s'appliquer aux établissements commerciaux détenus par un membre de la première nation, la première nation ou une société de la première nation, selon le cas, qui sont de fait occupés par un exploitant qui n'est ni un membre de la première nation, ni la première nation ni une société de la première nation.

12. Rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales

Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal établisse un rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales chaque année au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée.

13. Taux de taxe

13.1 Le texte législatif doit fixer le taux de la taxe sur les activités commerciales, exprimé comme taux pour chaque cent dollars (100 $) de la valeur imposable.

13.2 Le texte législatif doit :

a) fixer un taux de taxe sur les activités commerciales qui est égal ou inférieur à celui établi par le territoire de référence pour l'année en cours à l'égard des taxes d'affaires;

b) si le territoire de référence ne prélève pas de taxe d'affaires, fixer un taux de taxe sur les activités commerciales qui est égal ou inférieur au taux moyen des taxes d'affaires prélevées par toutes les administrations locales de la province du Manitoba.

14. Aucune taxe minimale

Le texte législatif ne peut fixer aucun montant minimum de taxe à prélever sur les établissements commerciaux.

15. Paiement de taxes

15.1 Le texte législatif doit :

a) prévoir la date à laquelle les taxes sont exigibles;

b) préciser à quel endroit les paiements de taxes doivent être faits et les modes de paiement acceptables.

15.2 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit le paiement des taxes par acomptes provisionnels, il doit préciser :

a) la procédure à suivre par le contribuable pour demander de payer les taxes par acomptes provisionnels;

b) la date d'échéance de chaque acompte provisionnel;

c) le mode de calcul du montant de chaque acompte provisionnel;

d) les conséquences du défaut de payer un acompte provisionnel à la date d'échéance;

e) les pénalités ou les intérêts qui seront imposés, le cas échéant, sur les acomptes provisionnels en souffrance et le moment où ils seront imposés.

16. Avis de taxe

16.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de taxe chaque année au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée, laquelle est d'au moins trente (30) jours avant la date à laquelle les taxes sont exigibles.

16.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de taxe aux personnes suivantes :

a) chaque exploitant assujetti à la taxe;

b) chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales à l'égard d'un établissement commercial.

16.3 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'avis de taxe contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

a) une description de l'établissement commercial;

b) le montant de taxes prélevées en vertu du texte législatif pour l'année d'imposition en cours;

c) la date où des pénalités seront ajoutées si les taxes ne sont pas payées;

d) les taxes impayées, les pénalités, les intérêts et les arriérés se rapportant au bien foncier en cause;

e) lorsqu'un paiement doit être fait, le mode de paiement et la date ou les dates auxquelles les taxes sont exigibles, y compris les dates d'échéance des acomptes provisionnels de taxes, le cas échéant.

16.4 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'envoi par la poste d'un avis de taxe modifié dans les cas où le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales est modifié pour tenir compte d'un rôle d'évaluation commerciale modifié ou supplémentaire.

17. Remboursement de taxes

17.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir les procédures applicables aux remboursements de taxes à accorder aux contribuables et les circonstances dans lesquelles un remboursement est accordé.

17.2 Le texte législatif doit comporter au moins les dispositions suivantes :

a) le remboursement du trop-payé de taxes lorsque la modification de l'évaluation d'un établissement commercial entraîne une réduction des taxes à payer sur celui-ci;

b) le paiement d'intérêts à un taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la première nation en vigueur le quinzième jour du mois précédant le calcul des intérêts pour la période subséquente de trois (3) mois.

17.3 Malgré le paragraphe 17.2, le texte législatif peut prévoir que le remboursement du trop-payé de taxes sera appliqué comme crédit à valoir sur les taxes ou autres montants impayés qui sont dus à la première nation.

18. Pénalité

Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l'imposition d'une pénalité sur les taxes impayées, il doit préciser la date à laquelle ou le délai au-delà duquel la pénalité sera imposée si les taxes demeurent en souffrance.

19. Confidentialité

Le texte législatif doit assurer la confidentialité des renseignements et des documents obtenus par l'administrateur fiscal, l'évaluateur, le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières et toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de dossiers obtenus ou créés en vertu du texte législatif; toutefois, ces renseignements et ces documents peuvent être communiqués :

a) dans le cadre de l'application du texte législatif ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou un tribunal judiciaire;

c) lorsqu'une personne a autorisé par écrit son mandataire à obtenir des renseignements confidentiels concernant une entreprise ou un bien foncier;

d) par l'administrateur fiscal à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, à la condition que les renseignements ou les documents ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises;

e) par le conseil à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique.

STANDARDS FOR
FIRST NATION WELL DRILLING BUSINESS ACTIVITY TAX LAWS, 2016

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;

B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and

C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(iv) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' business activity tax laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to business activity tax laws that provide for a tax on business operators undertaking the drilling of Wells on reserves located in the Province of Alberta.

PART V
DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9 and the regulations enacted under that Act;

"annual rate of national inflation" means the change in the Annual Average Consumer Price Index for Canada, All-Items, maintained by Statistics Canada;

"business activity tax" or "tax" means a tax imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under a Law and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes as provided in a Law;

"business operator" means a person who is engaged in the drilling of a Well on a reserve, whether directly or through its employees, agents or contractors;

"Commission" means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the Act;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interest in land" or "property" means land or improvements, or both, in the reserve and, without limitation, includes any interest in land or improvements, any occupation, possession or use of land or improvements, and any right to occupy, possess or use land or improvements;

"Law" means a business activity tax law enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(iv) of the Act to which these Standards apply;

"person" includes a partnership, syndicate, association, corporation and the personal or other legal representatives of a person;

"reporting period" means a time period respecting which a business activity tax will be levied and collected;

"reserve" means any land set apart for the use and benefit of the First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"tax administrator" means the person appointed by Council to administer and enforce a Law;

"tax notice" means a notice of business activity taxes owing sent to a business operator under a Law;

"taxation law" means a law enacted by a First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act respecting the taxation of interests in land; and

"Well" means an orifice in the ground on the reserve completed or being drilled

(a) for the production of oil or gas,

(b) for injection to an underground formation,

(c) as an evaluation well or test hole, or

(d) to or at a depth of more than 150 metres, for any purpose,

but does not include one to discover or evaluate a solid inorganic mineral and that does not or will not penetrate a stratum capable of containing a pool or oil sands deposit.

Except as otherwise provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART VI

STANDARDS

1. Administration and Enforcement of Law

The Law must provide for

(a) the appointment by resolution of a tax administrator, or

(b) the tax administrator appointed under the First Nation's taxation law, to oversee the administration and enforcement of the Law.

2. Tax Liability

2.1 The Law must provide that it applies to all business operators.

2.2 The Law must levy a business activity tax on the business operator's use and occupation of the reserve for the drilling of a Well, including the deepening of an existing Well.

2.3 The Law must provide that the business activity tax is payable by the business operator.

3. No Exemptions

The Law must not exempt any business operator from the business activity tax.

4. Tax Rates

4.1 The Law must establish rates of business activity tax, including any minimum amounts, that are the same as the rates set from to time to time by regulations made under subsection 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act.

4.2 The Law must provide that, if at any time there is no regulation in effect under subsection 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act, the rates of business activity tax must be the rates provided in the most recent regulations made under subsection 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act.

4.3 Where there is no regulation in effect under subsection 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act and a First Nation wishes to increase the rates of business activity tax in the second or any subsequent year that rates are fixed in accordance with subsection 4.2,

(a) the First Nation must amend the Law to set out the new rates; and

(b) the amending Law must establish rates that do not increase the rates from the previous rates by more than the annual rate of national inflation from the previous year.

5. Tax Levy

5.1 The Law must provide for the business activity tax to be collected at least once in each year, and may

(a) establish one (1) or more reporting periods to apply in a year, or

(b) enable the tax administrator to establish one (1) or more reporting periods to apply in a year, provided that each reporting period is at least three (3) consecutive months.

5.2 The Law must provide that

(a) the business activity tax is calculated by multiplying the depth of each Well drilled during the reporting period by the applicable tax rate;

(b) the depth of each Well must be determined by reference to a report obtained by the First Nation from Canada or the Province of Alberta, or from an authorized agent, board, commission, contractor or other representative of Canada or the Province of Alberta; and

(c) a Well must be subject to only one business activity tax, except that if an existing Well is expanded after the business activity tax is paid, it must be subject to an additional business tax levy in respect of the additional depth only.

6. Tax Notice and Payment

6.1 The Law must require the tax administrator to mail a tax notice to each business operator that has undertaken any drilling of a Well during the reporting period.

6.2 The Law must set a due date for the payment of business activity taxes that is at least sixty (60) days after the date of the tax notice.

6.3 The Law must require a tax notice to contain at least the following information:

(a) the name and address of the business operator;

(b) the taxes imposed under the Law for the current reporting period;

(c) when penalties and interest will be added if taxes are not paid;

(d) any unpaid taxes, penalties, interest and arrears in respect of the business operator's drilling of Wells on the reserve; and

(e) where payment must be made, the manner of payment, and the date or dates the taxes are due.

6.4 The Law must provide for the mailing of amended tax notices where the tax administrator determines there has been an error or omission in a tax notice given to a business operator.

7. Tax Refunds

7.1 The Law must set out procedures for providing refunds to a business operator and the circumstances under which refunds will be given.

7.2 The Law must include at least the following provisions:

(a) a refund of excess taxes paid where the tax administrator determines that the business operator was taxed in excess of the proper amount in a reporting period; and

(b) payment of interest at a rate of two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the fifteenth day of the month immediately preceding the calculation of the interest for the following three (3) month period.

7.3 Notwithstanding subsection 7.2, the Law may provide for a refund of excess taxes paid to be applied as a credit on account of business activity taxes that are due or accruing due by the business operator to the First Nation, provided the First Nation gives notice to the business operator.

8. Complaints to Tax Administrator

The Law must provide for a complaints process that allows a business operator to make a complaint to the First Nation respecting an error or omission in a tax notice.

9. Records and Receipts

9.1 The Law must require the tax administrator to keep records of

(a) all business activity taxes levied under the Law;

(b) all tax notices mailed under the Law;

(c) all tax payments made and receipts issued in respect of each business operator;

(d) all refunds paid under the Law; and

(e) all enforcement proceedings taken under the Law.

9.2 The Law must require the tax administrator to issue a receipt to a business operator for each payment made under the Law.

10. Penalties

Where the Law provides for a penalty to be imposed in respect of unpaid taxes, the Law must set out the date on which, or the time period after which, the penalty will be imposed if taxes remain unpaid.

11. Confidentiality

The Law must provide for the confidentiality of information and documents obtained by the tax administrator and any other person who has custody or control of records obtained or created under the Law, except that disclosure may be made

(a) in the course of administering the Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before a court of law;

(c) where a person gives written authorization for his or her agent to obtain confidential information relating to a business or a property;

(d) by the tax administrator to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes, provided the information or documents do not include any information that is in an individually identifiable form; or

(e) by Council to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes.

PARTIE I
PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales des premières nations édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;

B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;

C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs sur les recettes locales des premières nations édictés en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(iv) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs relatifs aux taxes sur les activités commerciales des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III
AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent aux textes législatifs relatifs à la taxe sur les activités commerciales qui prévoient l'imposition d'une taxe aux exploitants qui se livrent au forage de puits sur les réserves situées dans la province d'Alberta.

PARTIE V

DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent aux présentes normes.

« administrateur fiscal » La personne responsable de l'application et du contrôle d'application du texte législatif, qui est nommée par le conseil.

« avis de taxe » Avis indiquant le montant de taxe sur les activités commerciales exigible qui est envoyé à l'exploitant conformément au texte législatif.

« exploitant » Personne qui se livre au forage d'un puits sur une réserve, directement ou par l'entremise de ses employés, mandataires ou entrepreneurs.

a) soit en vue de la production de pétrole ou de gaz;

b) soit aux fins d'injection dans une formation souterraine;

c) soit en tant que puits d'évaluation ou forage d'essai;

d) soit à une profondeur égale ou supérieure à 150 mètres, à quelque fin que ce soit.

Est exclue de la présente définition l'ouverture qui est pratiquée aux fins de la découverte ou de l'évaluation d'un minéral inorganique solide et qui ne pénètre pas ni ne pénétrera une strate susceptible de contenir un réservoir ou un gisement de sables pétrolifères.

« taux d'inflation national annuel » Variation de la moyenne annuelle de l'indice d'ensemble des prix à la consommation pour le Canada, établi par Statistique Canada.

« texte législatif » Texte législatif concernant la taxe sur les activités commerciales qui est édicté en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(iv) de la Loi et auquel s'appliquent les présentes normes.

« texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière » Texte législatif concernant l'impôt sur les intérêts fonciers qui est édicté par une première nation en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)a) de la Loi.

Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VI
NORMES

1. Application du texte législatif

Le texte législatif doit prévoir, pour la surveillance de l'application et du contrôle d'application de celui-ci :

a) soit la nomination d'un administrateur fiscal par voie de résolution;

b) soit la désignation de l'administrateur fiscal nommé en vertu du texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière de la première nation.

2. Assujettissement à la taxe

2.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir qu'il s'applique à tous les exploitants.

2.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'imposition à l'exploitant d'une taxe sur les activités commerciales relativement à l'utilisation et à l'occupation de la réserve pour le forage d'un puits, y compris l'approfondissement d'un puits existant.

2.3 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que la taxe sur les activités commerciales est payable par l'exploitant.

3. Aucune exemption

Le texte législatif ne peut exempter aucun exploitant de la taxe sur les activités commerciales.

4. Taux de taxe

4.1 Le texte législatif doit établir les taux de la taxe sur les activités commerciales, y compris tout montant minimum de taxe, qui sont les mêmes que les taux fixés par règlement pris en vertu du paragraphe 390(1) de la loi de l'Alberta intitulée Municipal Government Act.

4.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que s'il n'y a pas de règlement en vigueur en application du paragraphe 390(1) de la loi de l'Alberta intitulée Municipal Government Act, les taux de la taxe sur les activités commerciales qui s'appliquent sont les taux fixés dans le dernier règlement pris en vertu du paragraphe 390(1) de cette loi.

4.3 S'il n'y a pas de règlement en vigueur en application du paragraphe 390(1) de la loi de l'Alberta intitulée Municipal Government Act et qu'une première nation souhaite augmenter les taux de la taxe sur les activités commerciales la deuxième année ou toute année subséquente où ces taux sont établis conformément au paragraphe 4.2 :

a) la première nation doit modifier le texte législatif pour y prévoir les nouveaux taux;

b) le texte législatif modificatif doit établir des taux dont l'augmentation ne dépasse pas, par rapport aux taux précédents, le taux d'inflation national annuel de l'année précédente.

5. Prélèvement de la taxe

5.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que la taxe sur les activités commerciales est perçue au moins une fois par année et il peut :

a) soit établir une (1) ou plusieurs périodes de rapport pour une année,

b) soit permettre à l'administrateur fiscal d'établir une (1) ou plusieurs périodes de rapport pour une année, pourvu que chaque période de rapport compte au moins trois (3) mois consécutifs.

5.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que :

a) la taxe sur les activités commerciales est calculée par multiplication de la profondeur de chaque puits foré pendant la période de rapport par le taux de taxe applicable;

b) la profondeur de chaque puits est déterminée à partir d'un rapport que la première nation obtient du gouvernement du Canada ou de la province d'Alberta, ou de tout mandataire, conseil, commission, entrepreneur ou autre représentant autorisé du gouvernement du Canada ou de la province d'Alberta;

c) tout puits fait l'objet d'un seul prélèvement de la taxe sur les activités commerciales, sauf dans le cas d'un puits existant qui est agrandi après le paiement de la taxe; dans ce cas, le puits est assujetti à une taxe sur les activités commerciales supplémentaire seulement pour la profondeur additionnelle.

6. Avis de taxe et paiement

6.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de taxe à chaque exploitant qui s'est livré au forage d'un puits pendant la période de rapport.

6.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir la date d'échéance du paiement des taxes sur les activités commerciales, laquelle est postérieure d'au moins soixante (60) jours à la date de l'avis de taxe.

6.3 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'avis de taxe contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et l'adresse de l'exploitant;

b) les taxes imposées en vertu du texte législatif pour la période de rapport en cours;

c) la date où des pénalités et des intérêts seront ajoutés si les taxes ne sont pas payées;

d) les taxes impayées, les pénalités, les intérêts et les arriérés se rapportant aux activités de forage de puits menées par l'exploitant sur la réserve;

e) l'endroit où le paiement doit être fait, le mode de paiement et la date ou les dates auxquelles les taxes sont exigibles.

6.4 Le texte législatif doit exiger l'envoi par la poste d'un avis de taxes modifié dans les cas où l'administrateur fiscal conclut que l'avis de taxe transmis à l'exploitant contient une erreur ou une omission.

7. Remboursement de taxes

7.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir les procédures applicables aux remboursements de taxes à accorder aux exploitants et préciser les circonstances dans lesquelles un remboursement est accordé.

7.2 Le texte législatif doit comporter au moins les dispositions suivantes :

a) le remboursement du trop-payé de taxes lorsque l'administrateur fiscal établit qu'un montant trop élevé de taxes a été imposé à l'exploitant au cours d'une période de rapport;

b) le paiement d'intérêts à un taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la première nation en vigueur le quinzième jour du mois précédant le calcul des intérêts pour la période subséquente de trois (3) mois.

7.3 Malgré le paragraphe 7.2, le texte législatif peut prévoir que le remboursement du trop-payé de taxes sera appliqué comme crédit à valoir sur les taxes sur les activités commerciales qui sont dues par l'exploitant à la première nation ou qui le deviendront, pourvu que celle-ci en donne avis à l'exploitant.

8. Plaintes à l'administrateur fiscal

Le texte législatif doit prévoir une procédure de plainte qui permet à l'exploitant de présenter une plainte à la première nation au sujet d'une erreur ou d'une omission dans un avis de taxe.

9. Dossiers et reçus

9.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal tienne des dossiers de ce qui suit :

a) toutes les taxes sur les activités commerciales prélevées en vertu du texte législatif;

b) tous les avis de taxe envoyés par la poste conformément au texte législatif;

c) tous les paiements de taxes effectués par chaque exploitant et les reçus délivrés à chaque exploitant;

d) tous les remboursements versés en vertu du texte législatif;

e) toutes les mesures de contrôle d'application prises en vertu du texte législatif.

9.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal délivre un reçu à l'exploitant pour chaque paiement effectué sous son régime.

10. Pénalité

Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l'imposition d'une pénalité sur les taxes impayées, il doit préciser la date à laquelle ou le délai au-delà duquel la pénalité sera imposée si les taxes demeurent en souffrance.

11. Confidentialité

Le texte législatif doit assurer la confidentialité des renseignements et des documents obtenus par l'administrateur fiscal et toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de dossiers obtenus ou créés en vertu du texte législatif; toutefois, ces renseignements et ces documents peuvent être communiqués :

a) dans le cadre de l'application du texte législatif ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant un tribunal judiciaire;

c) lorsqu'une personne a autorisé par écrit son mandataire à obtenir des renseignements confidentiels concernant une entreprise ou un bien foncier;

d) par l'administrateur fiscal à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, à la condition que les renseignements ou les documents ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises;

e) par le conseil à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique.

NOTE TO FIRST NATION: This sample law provides alternate wording options to cover a number of different circumstances. When using this sample law, please ensure that the appropriate options are selected to suit the First Nation's specific circumstances, and that all drafting instructions and unused alternate wording are deleted from the final law. When deleting an unwanted section, subsection, paragraph or schedule please sequentially renumber/reletter the remaining provisions or schedules and revise, as appropriate, the numbering or lettering of any internal references affected by the deletion. Drafting instructions are indicated in square brackets and bold type as a "Note to First Nation", while alternate wording is indicated in square brackets with an "OR". Please also ensure that the schedules are fully completed to correspond to the wording of the final version of the law.

Please note that this sample law assumes that the First Nation has enacted its FMA assessment and taxation laws.

_____ FIRST NATION

[INSERT DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE] SERVICE TAX LAW, 20__

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including taxation for the provision of services in respect of reserve lands;

B. The First Nation provides a [Note to First Nation: insert type of service] service to the reserve [OR to a defined area of the reserve] and Council has determined that it is in the best interests of the First Nation to construct [Note to First Nation: describe infrastructure] and to make a law to provide for the costs [OR a portion of the costs] of that service infrastructure to be paid for by a service tax on property within the reserve [OR a defined area of the reserve];

C. The holders of the properties within the area of the reserve that will benefit from the service have shown their support for the service by [Note to First Nation: This recital necessary only if service is to a defined area of the reserve. Insert how holders have shown their support and indicate the proportion of holders that are in favour of the service.]; and

D. The Council of the _____ First Nation has given notice of this Law and has considered representations received by the Council, in accordance with the requirements of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the _____ First Nation duly enacts as follows:

CITATION

(3) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 11(5)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

Special Levy

3. If the First Nation is at any time required, in accordance with paragraph 84(5)(b) of the Act, to pay to the First Nations Finance Authority an amount sufficient to replenish the debt reserve fund, Council must make or amend such property taxation laws as necessary in order to recover the amount payable.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

4.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of [insert title], assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

SERVICE AND SERVICE TAX LEVY

Service Described

5.(1) The service to be provided to the residents of the reserve [OR local service area] that will be paid for by the service tax is [Note to First Nation: describe details of service infrastructure.].

(2) [The local service area is that portion of the reserve shown outlined on the map attached as Schedule VIII and includes those properties listed in Schedule VIII.] [Note to First Nation: This subsection is required only where the service is to be provided to a defined area of the reserve and not the entire reserve. Where included, complete Schedule VIII. Where deleted, delete Schedule VIII as well.]

Estimated Cost of Service

6.(1) The estimated cost of the service is _____ dollars ($ _____). [Note to First Nation: Costs can include land acquisition, capital costs, professional service costs, debt servicing costs and other expenses incidental to undertaking and financing the service. Costs must be certified by a registered professional in accordance with the Standards.]

[(2) The holders' portion of the cost is _____ percent (__%) of the total cost of the service.]

Service Tax Levy

7.(1) A service tax is hereby imposed on all property in the reserve [OR in the local service area] as set out in this Law.

(2) Service taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law or any other property taxation law.

(3) A person liable for a service tax imposed under this Law is liable for the tax even if

(a) that person is also liable to pay taxes imposed under other property taxation laws of the First Nation; or

(b) a person with an interest in the same property is exempt from tax under this Law or from any taxes under other property taxation law enacted by the First Nation.

(4) Any person who shares the same interest in property subject to taxation under this Law is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all service taxes imposed under this Law during the taxation year, and for all unpaid service taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity interest, penalties and costs.

(5) The service tax is based on [Note to First Nation: select the basis for the tax and insert the rates, as applicable. Delete all other options.]

- a property value tax on the assessed value of the property as determined under the Assessment Law, at a rate of _____ dollars ($ ____) per one thousand dollars ($1000) of assessed value [OR at the following rates for each class of property: class 1 – _____ dollars ($ ____) per one thousand dollars ($1000) of assessed value, etc.].
- a fixed amount of _____ dollars ($___) for each property.
- the taxable area of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($___) per square metre of area.
- the taxable area of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($___) per square metre for properties of up to _____ (___) square metres, _____ dollars ($___) per square metre for properties between _____ (__) square metres and _____ (__) square metres, and _____ dollars ($___) per square metre for properties greater than _____ (__) square metres.
- the taxable frontage of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($___) per metre of frontage.
- the taxable frontage of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($___) per metre for properties of up to _____ (___) metres of frontage, _____ dollars ($___) per metre for properties with between _____ (___) metres and _____ (___) metres of frontage, and _____ dollars ($___) per metre for properties with more than _____ (___) metres of frontage.

[(6) The taxable area [frontage] of a property must be determined by the tax administrator using the formula set out in Schedule I.]

(6) The service tax rate or formula set out in this section must not be amended other than by an amendment to this Law.

Duration of Service Tax

8. The service tax will be imposed in each taxation year for not more than _____ (__) years.

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Construction Schedule

9.(1) A construction schedule for the service, certified by a registered professional, is attached as Schedule II to this Law.

(2) The First Nation must commence and complete the construction of the service in accordance with the construction schedule and must in any event commence construction within one (1) year from the date the service tax is due and payable in the first year it is imposed.

Exemptions from Service Taxes [Note to First Nation: Delete this section if no exemptions will be given from the service tax.]

10.(1) The following properties are exempt from the service tax because the holders of the property have provided all or a part of the cost of the service or have already paid towards the cost of the service: [Note to First Nation: insert description of properties].

(2) The following properties are exempt from the service tax and the service tax that would have been paid by the holders of these properties will be paid by the First Nation from general revenues: [Note to First Nation: insert description of properties].

Payment

[Note to First Nation: The sample provides for annual collection of the service tax on the same timetable as the property taxes. A First Nation can choose to follow a different time frame by making appropriate changes to this Law.]

11.(1) The service tax is deemed imposed January 1 of each year in which the service tax is imposed.

(2) The service tax forms part of the taxes due and owing in respect of each property in each year, and is due and payable by the holder on or before [Note to First Nation: insert same date as general property tax due date (July 2 in B.C.)] in each year in which it is levied.

(3) Service taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(4) Payment of service taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the _____ First Nation.

(5) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person, in the same manner as taxes are refunded under the Taxation Law.

Prepayment

[Note to First Nation: Allowing prepayment is optional but recommended. If it is allowed, it will reduce the amount the First Nation will need to finance for the project and will reduce administration in future years.]

12.(1) A holder of property subject to the service tax may prepay the service tax imposed on the property by paying, on or before [Note to First Nation: suggest using same date as tax due date] in the year the service tax is first imposed, the prepayment amount determined by the tax administrator in respect of that property.

(2) The tax administrator must calculate the prepayment amount by multiplying the number of years the service tax is payable, by the amount payable in each year, by a factor of _____ (____). [Note to First Nation: This factor should be calculated to eliminate the financing component of the service tax.]

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Revenues and Expenditures

13.(1) All revenue collected by the First Nation from the service tax, and interest earned on it, must only be used for the provision of the service.

(2) The tax administrator must account separately for the service tax revenues within the local revenue account.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law made under section 5(1)(b) of the Act, or otherwise in accordance with the Act.

PART IV

SERVICE TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Service Tax Roll

14.(1) On or before _____ in the first year of the service tax, the tax administrator must prepare a service tax roll for the purposes of imposing the service tax.

(2) On or before _____ in each subsequent taxation year, the tax administrator must update the service tax roll in accordance with Part VIII.

(3) The service tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) if the tax is imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the interest in land, the total assessed value of the interest in land as shown on the assessment roll; [Note to First Nation: Delete if this paragraph is not applicable.]

(d) the taxable area or the taxable frontage of the interest in land, if applicable;

(e) the service tax to be imposed on the interest in land in the current year;

(f) any unpaid service taxes, penalties, interest and arrears in respect of the interest in land;

(g) whether all or a portion of the interest in land is exempt from the service tax; and [Note to First Nation: Delete this paragraph if no exemptions are given in the Law.]

(h) if the name of a holder of a registered charge is included on the assessment roll for a property, the name and address of that person.

(4) Where the service tax is levied on the basis of taxable area or taxable frontage, the calculation of the taxable area or taxable frontage of each interest in land must be reviewed by a registered professional who must certify that these amounts are correctly shown on the service tax roll. [Note to First Nation: Delete this subsection if it is not applicable.]

(5) The tax administrator may correct errors on the service tax roll at any time before the service tax roll is certified in each year.

(6) Once it has been prepared by the tax administrator, the service tax roll must be available for public inspection at the offices of the First Nation during regular office hours.

(7) If requested by a holder, the tax administrator must amend a service tax roll available for public inspection by omitting or obscuring the address of the holder or other information about the holder in order to protect the privacy and security of the holder.

Tax Notice

15.(1) If property taxes are levied on the property under the Taxation Law, the service tax must be

(a) included in the annual Tax Notice given under the Taxation Law; and

Current ver. 2016 09 14

(b) shown separately from other taxes on the Tax Notice.

(2) If property taxes are not levied on a property under the Taxation Law, the tax administrator must, in each year in which the service tax is levied, mail a Tax Notice to the holder in the same manner as a tax notice would be given under the Taxation Law.

(3) A Tax Notice must be mailed on or before _____ to [Note to First Nation: Must be at least thirty (30) days before the taxes are due.]

(a) each holder of an interest in land subject to the service tax, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the service tax roll in respect of a property.

(4) A tax notice must include

(a) the information shown on the service tax roll in respect of the property; and

(b) where payment must be made, the manner of payment and the date the service tax is due.

(5) In the first year that the service tax is levied, the Tax Notice must include a statement that the holder may prepay the service tax amount, the amount of the prepayment and the date by which the prepayment must be made. [Note to First Nation: Delete this subsection if prepayment is not offered.]

(6) The mailing of the Tax Notice constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the service taxes.

(7) The tax administrator must enter on the service tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

PART V

PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalties and Interest

16. If all or any portion of the service tax remains unpaid after [Note to First Nation: insert tax due date] of the year in which it is levied, the unpaid portion will be subject to the same penalties and interest charges levied on unpaid taxes under the Taxation Law.

Tax Collection and Enforcement

17.(1) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation by the holder, recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction, and may also be recovered by any other method authorized under the _____ First Nation Property Taxation Law, 20__ or other applicable laws, and for this purpose Parts XIII, XIV, XV and XVI [Note to First Nation: Confirm these Parts accurately refer to the collection and enforcement provisions in the First Nation's Taxation Law] of that law apply to the collection and enforcement of unpaid service taxes, including with respect to the recovery of the costs of enforcement incurred by the First Nation.

(2) The use of one method of collection and enforcement does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(3) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

PART VI

REVIEW PANEL

Council to Establish Review Panel

18.(1) Where there is an appeal under Part VII or VIII of this Law, Council must, by resolution, appoint at least three (3) persons as members of the Review Panel to hear and determine appeals and certify the service tax roll as provided in this Law.

Current ver. 2016 09 14

(2) Each member of the Review Panel must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(3) If a member of the Review Panel is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Appointment of Chair

19.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Review Panel as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Review Panel;

(b) determine procedures to be followed at hearings that are consistent with this Law;

(c) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(d) preside at hearings of the Review Panel.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Review Panel as acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

20. The First Nation must

(a) remunerate a member of the Review Panel, other than the chair, for his or her services at a rate of _____ dollars ($_____) per day for time spent on activities related to the Review Panel;

(b) remunerate the chair of the Review Panel for his or her services at a rate of _____ dollars ($_____) per day for time spent on activities related to the Review Panel; and

(c) reimburse a member of the Review Panel for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

21.(1) A person must not serve on the Review Panel if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in the property that is the subject of an appeal.

Duty of Member

22. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Review Panel must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

Removal of Member

23. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Review Panel for cause, including where a member

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Review Panel; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Assessment Review Board Sitting as the Review Panel

24.(1) Despite section 18, Council may, by resolution, appoint the Assessment Review Board established under the Assessment Law to be the Review Panel.

(2) Where Council appoints the Assessment Review Board under subsection (1),

(a) the members of the Review Panel must be the same members that comprise the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the chair must be the same person appointed as chair of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) the members must follow the requirements and procedures set out in this Law when acting as the Review Panel under this Law;

(d) the members must be remunerated and reimbursed for their work on the Review Panel as provided for the Assessment Review Board in the Assessment Law; and

(e) the removal of a member of the Review Panel under section 23 is a removal of that member from the Assessment Review Board.

PART VII
APPEALS TO REVIEW PANEL

[Note to First Nation: Under this model, the Review Panel hears appeals, if any, respecting the service tax roll in the first year the tax is imposed. Thereafter there is an annual opportunity for holders to appeal the service tax to the Review Panel.]

Appeals to Review Panel

25. Before a service tax is imposed for the first time, the Review Panel must hear and determine any appeals respecting the service tax roll and must certify the roll in accordance with this Part.

Tax Administrator to Certify Where No Appeals

26.(1) Where no appeals are filed in accordance with this Part, the tax administrator must

(a) certify in writing that the service tax roll completed under section 14 was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified service tax roll to Council.

Review Panel Sitting

27. At least twenty-one (21) days before the service tax is due in the first year the tax is imposed, Council must establish the proposed date, time and place for the sitting of the Review Panel to hear appeals respecting the service tax roll.

(2) At least fourteen (14) days before the proposed date of the sitting of the Review Panel, the tax administrator must post a notice of the date, time and place of the proposed sitting on the First Nation's website and at the First Nation's administrative offices.

Notice of Service Tax

28. At least fourteen (14) days before the date proposed for the sitting of the Review Panel, the tax administrator must mail to the holder of every property that is to be taxed a Notice of Service Tax stating

Current ver. 2016 09 14

(a) the service in relation to which the service tax is to be imposed;

(b) the taxable area or the taxable frontage of the property, if applicable;

(c) the service tax rate or formula applicable to the property;

(d) the date, time and place of the sitting of the Review Panel if appeals are received; and

(e) that the service tax roll is available for inspection at the offices of the First Nation during its regular office hours.

Grounds for Appeal

29.(1) A person may appeal the service tax to the Review Panel on one or more of the following grounds:

(a) there is an error or omission respecting a name or address on the service tax roll,

(b) there is an error or omission respecting the inclusion of a property,

(c) there is an error or omission respecting the taxable area or the taxable frontage of a property, and [Note to First Nation: Delete this ground for appeal if the tax is not based on area or frontage.]

(d) an exemption has been improperly allowed or disallowed, [Note to First Nation: Delete this ground for appeal if the Law does not provide for any exemptions from the tax.]

by delivering a completed Notice of Appeal and a copy of the Notice of Service Tax to the tax administrator within seven (7) days after the Notice of Service Tax was delivered to the holder of the property.

(2) Where an appeal is received under this section, the tax administrator must immediately advise the Council and the chair, and confirm the sitting of the Review Panel as scheduled.

(3) A Review Panel hearing an appeal under this section only has authority to amend the service tax roll in relation to properties in respect of which an appeal under this section has been made.

Withdrawal of Appeal

30.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the tax administrator.

(2) On receipt, the tax administrator must forward a Notice of Withdrawal to the Review Panel and it must dismiss the appeal.

Hearings

31.(1) A majority of the members of the Review Panel constitutes a quorum.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of the Review Panel is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

(3) The Review Panel may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(4) The Review Panel must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably necessary for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

(7) The Review Panel may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(8) The Review Panel may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(9) The Review Panel may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(10) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(11) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Review Panel, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be in camera.

(12) The Review Panel may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all appeals have been heard and determined;

(b) hear an appeal whether the complainant is present or not; and

(c) at any time during a proceeding, adjourn the proceeding.

(13) If two (2) or more appeals involve the same or similar questions, the Review Panel may combine the appeals, or any part of them, hear the appeals at the same time or one immediately after the other, or stay one or more of the appeals until after the determination of another one of them.

(14) Subject to this Law, the Review Panel has the power to control its own processes to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

Parties to an Appeal

32. The parties to an appeal are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the interest in land, if not the complainant;

(c) the tax administrator; and

(d) any other person who may be affected by the appeal, as determined by the Review Panel.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

33.(1) The Review Panel may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Review Panel may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Review Panel orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

34.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Review Panel, the Review Panel may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Review Panel;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Review Panel must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Review Panel.

Current ver. 2016 09 14

(3) The Review Panel must make a record of its decision for any dismissal made under subsection (1) and provide a copy of the record to all parties.

Decisions of the Review Panel

35.(1) A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Review Panel and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

(2) If a member is unable for any reason to complete the member's duties, the remaining members may continue to hear and determine the appeal and the vacancy does not invalidate the hearing.

(3) The chair must, within ten (10) days after completion of a hearing, make a record of the Review Panel's decision and provide the tax administrator with the information necessary to amend the service tax roll and provide the notices required under section 37.

(4) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the information provided under subsection (3), the tax administrator must amend the service tax roll in accordance with the chair's directions and return the amended service tax roll to the chair.

Certification of Service Tax Roll by Chair

36.(1) The chair must review the amended service tax roll returned under subsection 35(4) to confirm that the directed amendments have been made.

(2) If the chair confirms that the directed amendments have been made, the chair must certify the service tax roll and deliver a copy of the certified service tax roll to the tax administrator.

(3) On receipt of the certified service tax roll under subsection (2), the tax administrator must deliver a copy of the service tax roll to the Council.

Notices to Complainants

37.(1) Within ten (10) days after a service tax roll is certified under section 36, the tax administrator must deliver a notice of the decision made by the Review Panel to

(a) the holder of the property to which the decision relates; and

(b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder of the property.

(2) The notice under subsection (1) must include a statement that the complainant has the right to judicial review of the Review Panel's decision by a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART VIII

UPDATING THE SERVICE TAX ROLL

Tax Administrator may Update Service Tax Roll

38.(1) In each year after the first year in which the service tax is imposed, the tax administrator must update the service tax roll to

(a) reflect any changes from the previous year in relation to matters referred to in subsection 14(3); and

(b) reflect changes where there is

(i) a subdivision affecting a property, or

(ii) a consolidation of two (2) or more properties, such that each of the new properties bears an appropriate share of the service tax.

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Annual Notice to Holders

39. In each year after the first year in which a service tax is imposed, the tax administrator must post a notice on the First Nation's website and at the First Nation's administrative offices stating

(a) that the service tax roll for that year is available for inspection at the First Nation offices during its regular office hours;

(b) that a person who holds property included on the service tax roll may request that the roll be amended respecting a matter referred to in subsection 29(1); and

(c) the date and time by which a request must be made in order to be considered for that year.

Requests for Amendment to the Service Tax Roll

40.(1) A person who holds a property included on a service tax roll may request that the roll be amended respecting a matter referred to in subsection 29(1), by delivering a Request to Amend Service Tax Roll to the tax administrator before the time specified in the notice given under section 39.

(2) A request under subsection (1) may be made only in relation to the person's own property.

(3) A request under subsection (1) must not be made in respect of an amendment that a holder has requested in a previous year.

(3) If the tax administrator does not make the amendment requested under subsection (1), the tax administrator must deliver a Notice of Refusal to Amend Service Tax Roll to the holder of the property in respect of which the request was made.

Appeals to Review Panel

41.(1) A holder who receives a Notice of Refusal to Amend Service Tax Roll may appeal the decision by delivering a completed Notice of Appeal to the tax administrator within thirty (30) days after the date on which the notice was given, provided that the appeal is

(a) on one or more of the grounds set out in subsection 29(1); and

(b) in respect of property held by that person.

(2) If the tax administrator receives an appeal in accordance with subsection (1), the tax administrator must advise Council, and Council must convene a Review Panel to hear and determine the appeal, and for these purposes Part VII applies.

(3) A Review Panel hearing an appeal under this section only has authority to amend the service tax roll in relation to properties in respect of which an appeal under this section has been made.

(4) If no appeals are received under this section, the tax administrator must

(a) certify in writing that the service tax roll as it is amended under this Part was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified service tax roll to Council.

Validity of Service Tax Roll

42. Despite

(a) any omission, defect or error committed in or with respect to a service tax roll,

(b) any defect, error or misstatement in any notice given, or

(c) any omission to mail or deliver a notice,

the initial service tax roll, as certified by the tax administrator or the Review Panel, is valid and binding on all parties concerned until updated under this Law in each subsequent year, and each update to the service tax roll certified by the tax administrator or the chair is valid and binding on all parties concerned until the next certified service tax roll under this Law.

PART IX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

43.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Review Panel, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

44. Notwithstanding section 43,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

45. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a determination made by the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a service tax roll or any notice given under this law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, the tax administrator or the Review Panel to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

46.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

47.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be delivered, given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the service tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the service tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

48.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of this Law and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Coming into Force

49. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the _____ day of _____, 20___, at _____, in the Province of _____.

A quorum of Council consists of (_____) (__) members of Council.

NOTE À LA PREMIÈRE NATION : Le présent modèle de loi offre des choix de dispositions convenant à différentes circonstances. Lorsque vous utilisez ce modèle de loi, veuillez vous assurer de bien choisir le libellé qui convient aux circonstances particulières de la Première Nation et que toutes les instructions de rédaction et les dispositions inutiles sont supprimées dans le texte définitif de la loi. En cas de suppression d'un article, d'un paragraphe, d'un alinéa ou d'une annexe qui n'est pas nécessaire, veuillez renuméroter ou redésigner en conséquence les autres dispositions ou annexes et réviser au besoin la désignation numérique ou alphabétique des renvois internes visés. Les instructions de rédaction sont indiquées en caractères gras entre crochets et sont précédées de la mention « Note à la Première Nation », alors que les libellés facultatifs figurent entre crochets et sont précédés du mot « OU ». Veuillez aussi vous assurer que les annexes sont libellées de manière à correspondre au texte définitif de la loi.

Il convient de noter que ce modèle de loi se fonde sur la prémisse que la Première Nation a déjà édicté sa loi sur l'évaluation foncière et sa loi sur l'imposition foncière en vertu de la LGFPN.

Imposition de la taxe sur les services

7.(1) La taxe sur les services est imposée sur tous les biens fonciers situés dans la réserve [OU la zone de service désignée], conformément à la présente loi.

(2) La taxe sur les services est due et payable aux termes de la présente loi indépendamment de toute action engagée ou de tout recours exercé par le contribuable relativement à son obligation de payer des taxes ou impôts au titre de la présente loi ou de tout autre texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière.

(3) La personne assujettie à la taxe sur les services en vertu de la présente loi est tenue au paiement de cette taxe même si, selon le cas :

a) elle est aussi tenue au paiement des impôts ou taxes imposés sous le régime d'autres textes législatifs relatifs à l'imposition foncière pris par la Première Nation;

b) le détenteur d'un intérêt dans le même bien foncier est exempté de la taxe prévue par la présente loi ou des impôts ou taxes prévus par tout autre texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière pris par la Première Nation.

(4) Quiconque détient une part d'un intérêt dans un bien foncier assujetti à la taxe prévue par la présente loi est solidairement responsable envers la Première Nation de payer les taxes sur les services imposées en vertu de la présente loi pendant l'année d'imposition ainsi que les taxes sur les services impayées imposées au cours d'une année d'imposition antérieure, y compris les intérêts, pénalités et frais y afférents.

(5) La taxe sur les services est basée sur [Note à la Première Nation : Choisir la base d'imposition de la taxe et insérer les taux applicables. Supprimer les options inutiles.]

- une taxe sur la valeur foncière, qui est fondée sur la valeur imposable du bien foncier déterminée conformément à la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, au taux de _____ dollars (_____ $) par tranche de mille dollars (1 000 $) de la valeur imposable [OU aux taux suivants pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers : catégorie 1 - _____ dollars (____ $) par tranche de mille dollars (1 000 $) de la valeur imposable, etc.].
- un montant fixe de _____ dollars (___ $) pour chaque bien foncier.

- la superficie imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré de superficie.
- la superficie imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré pour les biens fonciers ayant une superficie d'au plus _____ (___) mètres carrés, de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré pour les biens fonciers ayant une superficie entre _____ (__) mètres carrés et _____ (__) mètres carrés, et de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré pour les biens fonciers ayant une superficie supérieure à _____ (__) mètres carrés.
- la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre de longueur de façade.
- la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre pour les biens fonciers ayant une longueur de façade d'au plus _____ (___) mètres, de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre pour les biens fonciers ayant une longueur de façade entre _____ (__) mètres et _____ (__) mètres, et de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre pour les biens fonciers ayant une longueur de façade supérieure à _____ (__) mètres.

[(6) La superficie imposable [La longueur de façade imposable] d'un bien foncier est calculée par l'administrateur fiscal au moyen de la formule prévue à l'annexe I.]

(6) Le taux ou la formule de calcul de la taxe sur les services qui est prévu au présent article ne peut être modifié autrement que par la modification de la présente loi.

Durée de la taxe sur les services

8. La taxe sur les services est prélevée à chaque année d'imposition pendant au plus _____ (__) ans.

Échéancier de construction

9.(1) L'échéancier de construction relatif au service, certifié par un professionnel agréé, figure à l'annexe II.

(2) La Première Nation doit commencer et achever la construction du service conformément à l'échéancier de construction et, en tout état de cause, commencer la construction dans un délai d'un (1) an suivant la date à laquelle la taxe sur les services est exigible dans la première année où elle est prélevée.

Exemptions de la taxe sur les services [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer cet article si aucune exemption de la taxe sur les services ne sera accordée.]

10.(1) Les biens fonciers suivants sont exemptés de la taxe sur les services parce que les détenteurs de ces biens ont payé tout ou partie du coût du service ou ont déjà fait un paiement à l'égard du coût de celui-ci : [Note à la Première Nation : insérer la désignation des biens fonciers visés].

(2) Les biens fonciers qui suivent sont exemptés de la taxe sur les services, et la taxe sur les services qui aurait été payée par les détenteurs de ces biens est acquittée par la Première Nation à partir des recettes générales : [Note à la Première Nation : insérer la désignation des biens fonciers visés].

Paiement

[Note à la Première Nation : Le modèle de loi prévoit la perception annuelle de la taxe sur les services selon le même échéancier que celui visant les impôts fonciers. La Première Nation peut choisir de suivre un échéancier différent, en modifiant en conséquence le libellé de la présente loi.]

11.(1) La taxe sur les services est réputée imposée le 1er janvier de chaque année où elle est prélevée.

(2) La taxe sur les services fait partie des impôts annuels exigibles pour chaque bien foncier et doit être payée par le détenteur au plus tard le _____ [Note à la Première Nation : Inscrire la même date que celle à laquelle les impôts fonciers généraux sont exigibles (le 2 juillet en C.-B.)] de chaque année où elle est prélevée.

Modèle

(3) Les paiements de la taxe sur les services doivent être faits au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales, par chèque ou mandat-poste ou en argent comptant.

(4) Les paiements de la taxe sur les services faits par chèque ou mandat-poste sont établis à l'ordre de la Première Nation _____.

(5) Lorsqu'un montant excessif de taxe a été imposé à une personne au cours d'une année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal lui rembourse tout paiement en trop de la taxe de la même façon que le remboursement des impôts payés en trop sous le régime de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière.

Paiement par anticipation

12.(1) Le détenteur d'un bien foncier assujetti à la taxe sur les services peut payer cette taxe par anticipation au plus tard le _____ [Note à la Première Nation : Il est recommandé d'utiliser la même date que la date d'exigibilité des impôts] de la première année où la taxe sur les services est imposée, en acquittant le montant du paiement par anticipation calculé par l'administrateur fiscal à l'égard de ce bien.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal calcule le montant du paiement par anticipation en multipliant le nombre d'années où la taxe sur les services est payable, par le montant payable chaque année, par un facteur de _____ (____). [Note à la Première Nation : Il faut calculer ce facteur de manière à éliminer la composante de la taxe sur les services correspondant au financement.]

Recettes et dépenses

13.(1) Toutes les recettes provenant de la taxe sur les services que perçoit la Première Nation, ainsi que les intérêts qu'elles rapportent, doivent servir uniquement à la fourniture du service visé.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal tient une comptabilité distincte pour les recettes provenant de la taxe sur les services dans le compte de recette locales.

(3) Toute dépense sur les recettes perçues sous le régime de la présente loi doit être faite en vertu d'un texte législatif sur les dépenses pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)b) de la Loi, ou autrement en conformité avec la Loi.

RÔLE DE TAXES SUR LES SERVICES ET AVIS DE TAXE

Rôle de taxes sur les services

14.(1) Au plus tard le _____ de la première année de la taxe sur les services, l'administrateur fiscal établit un rôle de taxes sur les services en vue de l'imposition de cette taxe.

(2) Au plus tard le _____ de chaque année d'imposition subséquente, l'administrateur fiscal met à jour le rôle de taxes sur les services conformément à la partie VIII.

(3) Le rôle de taxes sur les services est établi sur support papier ou sous forme électronique et contient les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et la dernière adresse connue du détenteur de l'intérêt foncier;

b) une brève description de l'intérêt foncier;

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

c) dans le cas où la taxe est basée sur la valeur imposable de l'intérêt foncier, la valeur imposable totale de celui-ci inscrite sur le rôle d'évaluation; [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer cet alinéa s'il est sans objet.]

d) la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable de l'intérêt foncier, s'il y a lieu;

e) la taxe sur les services à imposer sur l'intérêt foncier pour l'année en cours;

f) les taxes sur les services, pénalités et intérêts impayés ainsi que les arriérés à payer à l'égard de l'intérêt foncier;

g) une mention indiquant si la totalité ou une partie de l'intérêt foncier est exemptée de la taxe sur les services; [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer cet alinéa si aucune exemption n'est prévue dans la présente loi.]

h) dans le cas où le nom du titulaire d'une charge est inscrit sur le rôle d'évaluation à l'égard d'un bien foncier, le nom et l'adresse de cette personne.

(4) Lorsque la taxe sur les services est basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable, le calcul de la superficie imposable ou de la longueur de façade imposable de chaque intérêt foncier est examiné par un professionnel agréé qui est tenu de certifier que le résultat du calcul est indiqué correctement sur le rôle de taxes sur les services. [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer ce paragraphe s'il est sans objet.]

(5) L'administrateur fiscal peut corriger des erreurs sur le rôle de taxes sur les services à tout moment avant la certification de ce rôle chaque année.

(6) Une fois qu'il a été établi par l'administrateur fiscal, le rôle de taxes sur les services est mis à la disposition du public pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales.

(7) À la demande d'un détenteur, l'administrateur fiscal modifie le rôle de taxes sur les services mis à la disposition du public pour consultation, en omettant ou en masquant l'adresse du détenteur ou tout autre renseignement le concernant afin de protéger le droit à la vie privée ou la sécurité de celui-ci.

Avis de taxe

15.(1) Si le bien foncier est assujetti à des impôts fonciers en vertu de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, la taxe sur les services est :

a) incluse dans l'avis d'imposition annuel transmis aux termes de cette loi;

b) indiquée séparément des autres impôts sur l'avis d'imposition.

(2) Si le bien foncier n'est pas assujetti à des impôts fonciers selon la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste, chaque année où la taxe sur les services est prélevée, un avis de taxe au détenteur de la même façon qu'un avis d'imposition serait envoyé aux termes de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière.

(3) L'avis de taxe est envoyé par la poste au plus tard le _____ [Note à la Première Nation : Cette date doit précéder d'au moins trente (30) jours la date à laquelle la taxe est exigible] aux personnes suivantes :

a) chaque détenteur d'un intérêt foncier assujetti à la taxe sur les services;

b) chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle de taxes sur les services à l'égard d'un bien foncier.

(4) L'avis de taxe doit contenir les renseignements suivants :

a) les renseignements figurant sur le rôle de taxes sur les services à l'égard du bien foncier;

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

b) l'endroit où le paiement doit être fait, le mode de paiement et la date à laquelle la taxe sur les services est exigible.

(5) Pour la première année où la taxe sur les services est prélevée, l'avis de taxe doit préciser que le détenteur peut payer par anticipation le montant de la taxe sur les services et doit indiquer le montant et la date limite du paiement par anticipation. [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer ce paragraphe si le paiement par anticipation n'est pas offert.]

(6) L'avis de taxe envoyé par la poste constitue un relevé et une demande de paiement des taxes sur les services.

(7) L'administrateur fiscal inscrit sur le rôle de taxes sur les services la date de mise à la poste de l'avis de taxe.

PÉNALITÉS, INTÉRÊTS ET CONTRÔLE D'APPLICATION

Pénalités et intérêts

16. Si la totalité ou une partie de la taxe sur les services est toujours en souffrance après le _____ [Note à la Première Nation : Inscrire la date à laquelle la taxe sur les services est exigible] de l'année où elle est prélevée, la partie impayée est assujettie aux mêmes pénalités et intérêts que ceux frappant les impôts impayés sous le régime de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière.

Perception et contrôle d'application

17.(1) Les taxes prélevées en vertu de la présente loi constituent une créance de la Première Nation recouvrable par elle devant un tribunal compétent, et leur recouvrement peut également être effectué par toute autre méthode autorisée par la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation (20__) ou toute autre loi applicable; à cette fin, les parties XIII, XIV, XV et XVI [Note à la Première Nation : Vérifier que ces parties correspondent aux dispositions sur la perception et le contrôle d'application de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation] de cette loi s'appliquent à la perception des taxes sur les services impayées et aux mesures de contrôle d'application nécessaires, y compris le recouvrement des frais de telles mesures engagés par la Première Nation.

(2) Le recours à une méthode de perception et de contrôle d'application n'empêche pas le recouvrement par une ou plusieurs autres méthodes.

(3) Une copie de l'avis de taxe indiquant les taxes à payer par une personne, certifiée comme copie conforme par l'administrateur fiscal, constitue une preuve de la dette fiscale de la personne.

PARTIE VI
COMITÉ D'EXAMEN

Constitution du Comité d'examen

18.(1) Lorsqu'un appel est interjeté en vertu des parties VII ou VIII, le Conseil nomme, par résolution, au moins trois (3) personnes à titre de membres du Comité d'examen chargé d'entendre et de trancher les appels et de certifier le rôle de taxes sur les services conformément à la présente loi.

(2) Chaque membre du Comité d'examen occupe sa charge pour un mandat de trois (3) ans, sauf s'il démissionne ou est révoqué conformément à la présente loi.

(3) En cas d'absence, de disqualification, d'empêchement ou de refus d'agir d'un membre du Comité d'examen, le Conseil peut nommer comme suppléant une autre personne – par ailleurs qualifiée pour la nomination à titre de membre – qui remplacera le membre jusqu'à ce qu'il reprenne ses fonctions ou que son mandat arrive à expiration, selon la première de ces éventualités à survenir.

Modèle

Désignation du président

19.(1) Le Conseil désigne, par résolution, un des membres du Comité d'examen à titre de président.

(2) Le président exerce les fonctions suivantes :

a) superviser et diriger les travaux du Comité d'examen;

b) définir les procédures à suivre lors des audiences, qui sont compatibles avec la présente loi;

c) faire prêter serment à des personnes ou aux témoins ou recevoir leurs affirmations solennelles avant leur témoignage;

d) présider les audiences du Comité d'examen.

(3) En cas d'absence ou d'empêchement du président, le Conseil désigne un membre du Comité d'examen pour assurer l'intérim pendant la durée de l'absence ou de l'empêchement du président.

Rémunération et remboursement

20. La Première Nation :

a) verse une rémunération à chaque membre du Comité d'examen, autre que le président, pour ses services, au taux de _____ dollars (_____ $) par jour pour le temps consacré aux activités liées au Comité d'examen;

b) verse une rémunération au président du Comité d'examen pour ses services, au taux de _____ dollars (_____ $) par jour pour le temps consacré aux activités liées au Comité d'examen;

c) rembourse aux membres du Comité d'examen leurs frais de déplacement et faux frais raisonnables nécessairement engagés dans l'exercice de leurs fonctions.

Conflits d'intérêts

21.(1) Ne peut être membre du Comité d'examen la personne qui :

a) soit a un intérêt personnel ou financier dans le bien foncier faisant l'objet d'un appel;

b) soit est le chef ou un membre du Conseil;

c) soit est un employé de la Première Nation;

d) soit entretient avec la Première Nation des relations financières qui pourraient vraisemblablement donner lieu à un conflit d'intérêts ou porter atteinte à sa capacité d'agir d'une manière équitable et impartiale dans le règlement d'un appel, comme l'exige la présente loi.

(2) Pour l'application de l'alinéa (1)a), le fait d'être membre de la Première Nation ne signifie pas nécessairement que la personne a un intérêt personnel ou financier dans le bien foncier faisant l'objet d'un appel.

Responsabilité des membres

22. Dans l'exercice de leurs fonctions au titre de la présente loi, les membres du Comité d'examen sont tenus d'agir fidèlement, honnêtement, impartialement et le mieux possible, et ils ne peuvent divulguer à quiconque les renseignements obtenus en leur qualité de membre, sauf dans l'exécution régulière de leurs fonctions.

Révocation d'un membre

23. Le Conseil peut révoquer la nomination d'un membre du Comité d'examen pour un motif valable, notamment si le membre, selon le cas :

a) est reconnu coupable d'une infraction au Code criminel;

b) ne se présente pas à trois (3) audiences consécutives du Comité d'examen;

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

c) n'accomplit pas ses fonctions au titre de la présente loi de bonne foi et en conformité avec les dispositions de celle-ci.

Comité de révision des évaluations foncières agissant comme Comité d'examen

24.(1) Malgré l'article 18, le Conseil peut, par résolution, désigner le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières constitué en vertu de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière pour agir en tant que Comité d'examen.

(2) Lorsque le Conseil désigne, en vertu du paragraphe (1), le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières pour agir en tant que Comité d'examen :

a) les membres du Comité d'examen sont les mêmes membres dont est composé le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;

b) le président est la même personne désignée comme président du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;

c) les membres doivent respecter les exigences et les procédures énoncées dans la présente loi lorsqu'ils agissent en tant que Comité d'examen au titre de celle-ci;

d) les membres du Comité d'examen reçoivent la même rémunération pour leurs services et le même remboursement de frais que ce que prévoit la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière à l'égard du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;

e) la révocation d'un membre du Comité d'examen en vertu de l'article 23 emporte sa révocation du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières.

PARTIE VII

APPELS DEVANT LE COMITÉ D'EXAMEN

[Note à la Première Nation : Selon le présent modèle, le Comité d'examen entend, s'il y a lieu, les appels relatifs au rôle de taxes sur les services au cours de la première année où la taxe sur les services est imposée. Par la suite, les détenteurs se voient accorder annuellement l'occasion d'interjeter appel devant le Comité d'examen à l'égard de la taxe sur les services.]

Appels devant le Comité d'examen

25. Avant que la taxe sur les services soit imposée pour la première fois, le Comité d'examen entend et tranche tous les appels relatifs au rôle de taxes sur les services et certifie le rôle conformément à la présente partie.

Certification du rôle par l'administrateur fiscal en l'absence d'appels

26.(1) Si aucun appel n'est interjeté dans le cadre de la présente partie, l'administrateur fiscal :

a) certifie par écrit que le rôle de taxes sur les services établi aux termes de l'article 14 a été établi en conformité avec les exigences de la présente loi;

b) remet au Conseil une copie du rôle de taxes sur les services certifié.

Avis de l'audience du Comité d'examen

27.(1) Au moins vingt et un (21) jours avant la date à laquelle la taxe sur les services est exigible dans la première année où elle est imposée, le Conseil fixe les date, heure et lieu de l'audience à laquelle le Comité d'examen entendra les appels relatifs au rôle de taxes sur les services.

(2) Au moins quatorze (14) jours avant la date prévue de l'audience du Comité d'examen, l'administrateur fiscal affiche un avis des date, heure et lieu de l'audience sur le site Web de la Première Nation et dans le bureau administratif de celle-ci.

Avis relatif à la taxe sur les services

28. Au moins quatorze (14) jours avant la date prévue pour l'audience du Comité d'examen, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste au détenteur de chaque bien foncier devant être assujetti à la taxe sur les services, un avis relatif à la taxe sur les services qui contient les renseignements suivants :

a) le service auquel se rapporte la taxe sur les services qui sera imposée;

b) la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, s'il y a lieu;

c) le taux ou la formule de calcul de la taxe sur les services qui s'applique au bien foncier;

d) les date, heure et lieu de l'audience du Comité d'examen, si des appels ont été déposés;

e) la mention que le rôle de taxes sur les services est disponible pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales.

Motifs d'appel

29.(1) Toute personne peut interjeter appel de la taxe sur les services auprès du Comité d'examen pour l'un ou plusieurs des motifs suivants :

a) il y a une erreur ou une omission dans un nom ou une adresse figurant sur le rôle de taxes sur les services;

b) un bien foncier a été omis de ce rôle ou y a été inclus par erreur;

c) il y a une erreur ou une omission dans la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable d'un bien foncier; [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer ce motif d'appel si la taxe sur les services n'est pas basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable.]

d) une exemption a été incorrectement accordée ou refusée. [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer ce motif d'appel si la présente loi ne prévoit pas d'exemptions de la taxe sur les services.]

Pour interjeter appel, elle transmet un avis d'appel et une copie de l'avis de taxe sur les services à l'administrateur fiscal dans les sept (7) jours suivant la date de transmission de l'avis de la taxe sur les services au détenteur du bien foncier.

(2) Sur réception d'un appel interjeté en vertu du présent article, l'administrateur fiscal en avise sans délai le Conseil et le président et il confirme la tenue de l'audience du Comité d'examen à la date prévue.

(3) Le Comité d'appel, une fois saisi de l'appel interjeté en vertu du présent article, n'a que le pouvoir de modifier le rôle de taxes sur les services relativement au bien foncier visé par l'appel.

Désistement

30.(1) Le plaignant peut se désister de l'appel interjeté en vertu de la présente partie en remettant un avis de désistement à l'administrateur fiscal.

(2) Dès réception de l'avis de désistement, l'administrateur fiscal l'achemine au Comité d'examen qui rejette l'appel.

Audiences

31.(1) Le quorum est constitué par la majorité des membres du Comité d'examen.

(2) S'il n'y a pas quorum des membres du Comité d'examen à l'heure à laquelle une audience doit avoir lieu, l'audience est reportée au jour ouvrable suivant, et ainsi de suite, de jour en jour, jusqu'à ce qu'il y ait quorum.

(3) Le Comité d'examen peut tenir ses audiences selon toute combinaison de moyens écrits, électroniques et oraux.

(4) Le Comité d'examen donne à toutes les parties l'occasion de se faire entendre à l'audience.

Version courante 2016 09 14

(5) Lors d'une audience orale, toute partie peut convoquer et interroger des témoins, présenter des éléments de preuve et des mémoires et contre-interroger les témoins, selon ce qui est raisonnablement nécessaire pour assurer une divulgation entière et équitable de toutes les questions pertinentes concernant l'objet de l'appel.

(6) Une partie peut être représentée par un conseiller ou un agent et peut soumettre des exposés des faits, du droit et des questions de compétence.

(7) Le Comité d'examen peut limiter de façon raisonnable la durée de l'interrogatoire ou du contre-interrogatoire d'un témoin s'il est convaincu qu'elle est suffisante pour assurer une divulgation entière et équitable de toutes les questions pertinentes concernant l'objet de l'appel.

(8) Le Comité d'examen peut interroger tout témoin qui présente un témoignage à l'audience.

(9) Le Comité d'examen peut recevoir et accepter tous renseignements qu'il juge pertinents, nécessaires et appropriés, que ces renseignements soient admissibles ou non devant un tribunal judiciaire.

(10) Dans un appel, le fardeau de la preuve incombe à la personne qui interjette appel.

(11) L'audience orale est publique à moins que le Comité d'examen ne décide, à la demande d'une partie, de tenir l'audience à huis clos.

(12) Le Comité d'examen peut :

a) entendre tous les appels le même jour ou ajourner à l'occasion jusqu'à ce que tous les appels aient été entendus et tranchés;

b) entendre un appel même en l'absence du plaignant;

c) ajourner une audience à tout moment pendant celle-ci.

(13) Si deux (2) ou plusieurs appels visent la même question ou des questions semblables, le Comité d'examen peut combiner les appels, en tout ou en partie, entendre les appels en même temps ou l'un immédiatement à la suite de l'autre, ou suspendre un ou plusieurs des appels jusqu'à ce qu'une décision soit rendue à l'égard d'un autre de ces appels.

(14) Sous réserve des autres dispositions de la présente loi, le Comité d'examen a le pouvoir de régir ses propres procédures pour faciliter le règlement juste et rapide des questions dont il est saisi.

Parties à un appel

32. Les parties à un appel sont les suivantes :

a) le plaignant;

b) le détenteur de l'intérêt foncier s'il ne s'agit pas du plaignant;

c) l'administrateur fiscal;

d) toute personne qui, de l'avis du Comité d'examen, peut être touchée par l'appel.

Maintien de l'ordre pendant l'audience

33.(1) Le Comité d'examen peut, lors d'une audience orale, rendre les ordonnances ou donner les directives qu'il juge nécessaires pour maintenir l'ordre à l'audience.

(2) Sans que soit limitée la portée du paragraphe (1), le Comité d'examen peut, par ordonnance, imposer des restrictions sur la participation ou la présence d'une personne à une audience et il peut interdire à une personne de continuer à participer ou à assister à une audience jusqu'à nouvel ordre de sa part.

Rejet sans préavis

34.(1) À tout moment après avoir reçu l'avis d'appel, le Comité d'examen peut rejeter l'appel en tout ou en partie s'il juge, selon le cas :

Version courante 2016 09 14

a) que l'appel ne relève pas de sa compétence;

b) que l'appel n'a pas été déposé dans le délai applicable;

c) que le plaignant n'a pas poursuivi l'appel avec diligence.

(2) Avant de rejeter l'appel en tout ou en partie en vertu du paragraphe (1), le Comité d'examen donne au plaignant la possibilité de lui présenter des observations.

(3) Le Comité d'examen consigne dans un dossier sa décision de rejeter l'appel en vertu du paragraphe (1) et transmet copie du dossier à toutes les parties.

Décisions du Comité d'examen

35.(1) Une décision de la majorité des membres constitue une décision du Comité d'examen et, en cas d'égalité, la décision du président l'emporte.

(2) Si un membre du Comité d'examen est empêché pour quelque raison d'exercer ses fonctions, les autres membres peuvent continuer à entendre et trancher l'appel, et le siège vacant n'invalide pas l'audience.

(3) Dans les dix (10) jours suivant la fin de l'audience, le président consigne dans un dossier la décision du Comité d'examen et transmet à l'administrateur fiscal les renseignements nécessaires pour qu'il modifie le rôle de taxes sur les services et envoie les avis prévus à l'article 37.

(4) Dans les dix (10) jours suivant la réception des renseignements visés au paragraphe (3), l'administrateur fiscal modifie le rôle de taxes sur les services conformément aux instructions du président et transmet à ce dernier la version modifiée du rôle de taxes sur les services.

Certification du rôle de taxes sur les services par le président

36.(1) Le président examine la version modifiée du rôle de taxes sur les services transmise conformément au paragraphe 35(4) afin de vérifier que les modifications ordonnées ont été apportées.

(2) Si le président confirme que les modifications ordonnées ont été apportées, il certifie le rôle de taxes sur les services et transmet à l'administrateur fiscal une copie du rôle de taxes sur les services certifié.

(3) Sur réception du rôle de taxes sur les services certifié conformément au paragraphe (2), l'administrateur fiscal en remet une copie au Conseil.

Avis aux plaignants

37.(1) Dans les dix (10) jours suivant la certification du rôle de taxes sur les services conformément à l'article 36, l'administrateur fiscal transmet un avis de la décision du Comité d'examen aux personnes suivantes :

a) le détenteur du bien foncier visé par la décision;

b) le plaignant s'il ne s'agit pas du détenteur du bien foncier.

(2) L'avis visé au paragraphe (1) indique également que le plaignant a le droit de demander la révision judiciaire, par un tribunal compétent, de la décision du Comité d'examen.

PARTIE VIII

MISE À JOUR DU RÔLE DE TAXES SUR LES SERVICES

Mise à jour par l'administrateur fiscal

38. Chaque année suivant la première année où la taxe sur les services est imposée, l'administrateur fiscal met à jour le rôle de taxes sur les services afin de tenir compte :

a) de tout changement survenu depuis l'année précédente relativement aux questions mentionnées au paragraphe 14(3);

Model

Version courante 2016 09 14

b) des changements résultant de l'un ou l'autre des événements suivants, de sorte que chaque nouveau bien foncier soit assujetti à sa juste part de la taxe sur les services :

(i) le lotissement d'un bien foncier,

(ii) la consolidation de deux (2) ou plusieurs biens fonciers.

Avis annuel aux détenteurs

39. Chaque année suivant la première année où la taxe sur les services est imposée, l'administrateur fiscal affiche sur le site Web de la Première Nation ou dans le bureau administratif de celle-ci un avis indiquant :

a) que le rôle de taxes sur les services de cette année est mis à la disposition du public pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales;

b) que la personne qui détient un bien foncier inscrit sur le rôle de taxes sur les services peut demander que le rôle soit modifié relativement à une question mentionnée au paragraphe 29(1);

c) la date et l'heure limites auxquelles une demande peut être présentée afin d'être prise en considération pour cette année.

Demandes de modification du rôle de taxes sur les services

40.(1) La personne qui détient un bien foncier inscrit sur le rôle de taxes sur les services peut demander que le rôle soit modifié relativement à une question mentionnée au paragraphe 29(1), en transmettant une demande de modification du rôle de taxes sur les services à l'administrateur fiscal avant la date et l'heure limites indiquées dans l'avis donné en application de l'article 39.

(2) La demande présentée en vertu du paragraphe (1) ne peut viser que le bien foncier détenu par le demandeur.

(3) Le détenteur ne peut présenter une demande au titre du paragraphe (1) à l'égard d'une modification qu'il a demandée dans une année antérieure.

(4) S'il n'apporte pas la modification demandée en vertu du paragraphe (1), l'administrateur fiscal transmet un avis du refus de modifier le rôle de taxes sur les services au détenteur du bien foncier visé par la demande.

Appels devant le Comité d'examen

41.(1) Le détenteur qui reçoit un avis du refus de modifier le rôle de taxes sur les services peut interjeter appel de la décision en transmettant un avis d'appel à l'administrateur fiscal dans les trente (30) jours suivant la date de réception de l'avis, pourvu que l'appel :

a) soit fondé sur l'un ou plusieurs des motifs énumérés au paragraphe 29(1);

b) vise le bien foncier qu'il détient.

(2) Une fois saisi d'un appel interjeté conformément au paragraphe (1), l'administrateur fiscal en avise le Conseil et ce dernier réunit un Comité d'examen pour entendre et trancher l'appel; la partie VII s'applique alors à cette fin.

(3) Le Comité d'examen chargé d'entendre l'appel interjeté en vertu du présent article n'a que le pouvoir de modifier le rôle de taxes sur les services relativement aux biens fonciers visés par l'appel.

(4) Si aucun appel n'est interjeté selon le présent article, l'administrateur fiscal :

a) certifie par écrit que le rôle de taxes sur les services dans sa version modifiée conformément à la présente partie a été établi en conformité avec les exigences de la présente loi;

b) remet au Conseil une copie du rôle de taxes sur les services certifié.

Validité du rôle de taxes sur les services

42. Le rôle de taxes sur les services initial, dans sa version certifiée par l'administrateur fiscal ou le président, est valide et lie les parties visées jusqu'à ce qu'il soit mis à jour conformément à la présente loi à chaque année subséquente; toute mise à jour du rôle certifiée par l'administrateur fiscal ou le président est valide et lie les parties visées jusqu'au prochain rôle de taxes sur les services certifié conformément à la présente loi, indépendamment :

a) de tout défaut, erreur ou omission qu'il peut contenir ou qui s'y rapporte;

b) de tout défaut, erreur ou inexactitude dans un avis donné;

c) de toute omission de poster ou de donner un avis.

PARTIE IX

DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES

Communication de renseignements

43.(1) L'administrateur fiscal ou toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de renseignements ou d'archives obtenus ou créés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut communiquer ces renseignements ou archives sauf, selon le cas :

a) dans le cadre de l'application de la présente loi ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celle-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité d'examen ou un tribunal judiciaire, ou aux termes d'une ordonnance judiciaire;

c) en conformité avec le paragraphe (2).

(2) L'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier à l'agent du détenteur du bien si la communication de ces renseignements a été autorisée par écrit par le détenteur.

(3) L'agent ne peut utiliser les renseignements communiqués aux termes du paragraphe (2) qu'aux fins autorisées par écrit par le détenteur du bien foncier.

Communication aux fins de recherche

44. Malgré l'article 43 :

a) l'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que ces renseignements et archives ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ni de renseignements commerciaux permettant d'identifier des entreprises;

b) le Conseil peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises, pourvu que les conditions suivantes soient réunies :

(i) la recherche ne peut vraisemblablement être effectuée que si les renseignements sont fournis sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises,

(ii) le tiers a signé une entente avec le Conseil dans laquelle il s'engage à se conformer aux exigences du Conseil concernant l'utilisation, la confidentialité et la sécurité des renseignements.

Validité

45. Aucune disposition de la présente loi ne peut être annulée ou invalidée, et l'obligation d'une personne de payer des taxes ou autres montants exigés aux termes de la présente loi ne peut être modifiée, en raison :

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

a) d'une erreur ou d'une omission dans une décision prise par l'administrateur fiscal;

b) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans le rôle de taxes sur les services ou tout avis donné sous le régime de la présente loi;

c) du défaut de la part de la Première Nation, de l'administrateur fiscal ou du Comité d'examen de prendre des mesures dans le délai prévu.

Restriction

46.(1) Nul ne peut engager une action ou une procédure en vue du remboursement des sommes versées à la Première Nation, que ce soit dans le cadre d'une contestation ou autrement, au titre d'une demande, valide ou invalide, concernant les taxes ou tout autre montant payé aux termes de la présente loi, après l'expiration d'un délai de six (6) mois suivant la date du fait générateur du litige.

(2) Si aucune action ou procédure n'est engagée dans le délai prévu au présent article, les sommes versées à la Première Nation sont réputées avoir été versées de plein gré par l'intéressé.

Avis

47.(1) Lorsque la présente loi exige la remise ou la transmission par la poste d'un avis ou qu'elle ne précise pas le mode de transmission, l'avis est transmis, selon le cas :

a) par la poste, à l'adresse postale habituelle du destinataire ou à son adresse indiquée sur le rôle de taxes sur les services;

b) si l'adresse du destinataire est inconnue, par affichage d'une copie de l'avis dans un endroit bien en vue sur le bien foncier du destinataire;

c) par remise de l'avis en mains propres ou par service de messagerie au destinataire, ou à son adresse postale habituelle ou à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle de taxes sur les services.

(2) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi :

a) l'avis transmis par la poste est réputé reçu le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste;

b) l'avis affiché sur un bien foncier est réputé reçu le deuxième jour après avoir été affiché;

c) l'avis remis en mains propres est réputé reçu au moment de sa remise.

Interprétation

48.(1) Les dispositions de la présente loi sont dissociables. Si une disposition de la présente loi est pour quelque raison déclarée invalide par une décision d'un tribunal compétent, elle est alors retranchée de la présente loi et la décision du tribunal ne porte pas atteinte à la validité des autres dispositions de la présente loi.

(2) Les dispositions de la présente loi exprimées au présent s'appliquent à la situation du moment.

(3) Dans la présente loi, le pluriel ou le singulier s'appliquent, le cas échéant, à l'unité et à la pluralité.

(4) La présente loi est censée apporter une solution de droit et s'interprète de la manière la plus équitable et la plus large qui soit compatible avec la réalisation de ses objectifs.

(5) Les renvois dans la présente loi à un texte législatif sont réputés se rapporter à sa version éventuellement modifiée et visent tous les règlements d'application de ce texte.

(6) Les intertitres ne font pas partie de la présente loi, n'y figurant que pour faciliter la consultation.

Entrée en vigueur

49. La présente loi entre en vigueur le jour suivant son agrément par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations.

PART II
DEFINITIONS AND REFERENCES

Definitions and References

2.(1) In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

"Activity Report" means a Well drilling activity report created by the Province of Alberta or Indian Oil and Gas Canada, setting out all Well drilling activity on the reserve during the time period covered by the report;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"drilling operator" means a person who is engaged in the drilling of a Well on the reserve, whether directly or through employees, agents or contractors;

"First Nation" means the _____ First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interest in land" or "property" means land or improvements, or both, in the reserve and, without limitation, includes any interest in land or improvements, any occupation, possession or use of land or improvements, and any right to occupy, possess or use land or improvements;

"person" includes a partnership, syndicate, association, corporation and the personal or other legal representatives of a person;

"Request for Information" means a request containing the information set out in Schedule II;

"reporting period" means a time period determined by the tax administrator respecting which the well drilling tax will be levied and collected;

"reserve" means any land set apart for the use and benefit of the First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"tax administrator" means the person appointed under subsection 3(1) for the purposes of this Law;

"Tax Notice" means a notice containing the information set out in Schedule I;

"tax rate" means the tax rates provided in section 6;

"Well" means an orifice in the ground on the reserve completed or being drilled

(a) for the production of oil or gas,

(b) for injection to an underground formation,

(c) as an evaluation well or test hole, or

(d) to or at a depth of more than one hundred and fifty (150) metres, for any purpose, but does not include one to discover or evaluate a solid inorganic mineral and that does not or will not penetrate a stratum capable of containing a pool or oil sands deposit; and

"well drilling tax" or "tax" means a tax imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under this Law and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes as provided in this Law;

(2) Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation Law.

(3) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 6(2)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to oversee the administration and enforcement of this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and such other duties assigned to the tax administrator by the First Nation from time to time.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of [insert title], assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

Revenues and Expenditures

4. Well drilling taxes collected by the First Nation must be placed in the local revenue account of the First Nation and expended only in accordance with an expenditure law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act

PART IV
TAX LIABILITY AND LEVY

Application of Law

5.(1) This Law applies to all drilling operators and every drilling operator is subject to a well drilling tax in accordance with this Law.

Tax Liability

6.(1) A well drilling tax is levied and imposed on each drilling operator's use and occupation of the reserve for the drilling of one (1) or more Wells, including deepening of an existing Well, and must be paid by the drilling operator in accordance with this Law.

(2) A person on whom a tax is imposed under this Law is liable for the tax even if

(a) that person is also liable to pay property taxes imposed under other property taxation laws of the First Nation; or

(b) a person with an interest in the same property is exempt from tax under this Law or from any taxes under other property taxation law enacted by the First Nation.

(3) Where there is more than one drilling operator engaging in the drilling of a Well, each drilling operator is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all well drilling taxes imposed under this Law in respect of that Well.

(4) Well drilling taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding a complaint or any proceeding initiated or remedy sought respecting a well drilling operator's liability for taxes under this Law.

Tax Rates and Levy

7.(1) The tax rates to be applied are the rates that are established from time to time by regulations made under subsection 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act.

(2) For clarity, the rates established as set out in subsection (1) include any minimum tax amount set in those regulations.

(3) As an exception to subsection (1), if at any time there are no regulations in force and effect under subsection 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act, the tax rates are those that were most recently set out in such regulations.

(4) The well drilling tax is calculated by multiplying the depth of each Well drilled during the reporting period, as set out in the Activity Report, by the applicable tax rate.

(5) The well drilling tax must be levied at least once in each taxation year.

(6) For clarity, a Well is subject to only one well drilling tax levy, except that where an existing Well is expanded in a later reporting period, it must be subject to an additional well drilling tax levy, calculated by determining the tax applicable for the expanded Well and subtracting the taxes previously paid for that Well.

PART V
TAX NOTICE AND PAYMENT

Reporting Period

8. The tax administrator must set one (1) or more reporting periods to apply in a taxation year, provided that each reporting period must be at least three (3) consecutive months.

Tax Notice

9. (1) At the end of each reporting period, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to each drilling operator that has undertaken any drilling of a Well during that reporting period.

(2) The tax administrator must determine the well drilling taxes owing by each drilling operator for the reporting period by using the information contained in all Activity Reports applicable to that reporting period.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If at any time the tax administrator determines that there has been an error or omission in a Tax Notice, the tax administrator may issue and mail an amended Tax Notice to the drilling operator, and any additional taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given sixty (60) days to pay those taxes and interest and penalties must not be added in that period.

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Tax Payment

10.(1) Taxes are due and payable within sixty (60) days from the date of the Tax Notice given in respect of the taxes.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the _____ First Nation.

Receipts for Payments

11. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the drilling operator.

Tax Refunds

12. (1) Where a drilling operator is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that drilling operator any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) As an exception to subsection (1), if further well drilling taxes payable by the drilling operator are due or accruing due, the tax administrator may apply the amount of the overpayment to those taxes, provided notice is given to the drilling operator.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART VI
RECORDS, INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Record of Taxes Levied

13. The tax administrator must keep the following records in respect of the administration of this Law:

(a) all taxes levied;

(b) all Tax Notices issued;

(c) all tax payments made and receipts issued;

(d) all refunds paid; and

(e) all enforcement proceedings taken.

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Drilling Operator Records

14. A drilling operator must maintain accurate and complete books of account and other records containing all the information necessary to enable the First Nation to verify the drilling operator's drilling of Wells on the reserve and its compliance with this Law.

Request for Information

15. The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information requesting that a current or former drilling operator, or other person who may have information relevant to the administration of this Law, provide to the tax administrator information or documentation that relates to the administration of this Law, including the information required to be kept under section 14, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, the requested information.

Inspections

16.(1) A person authorized by the First Nation may during normal business hours enter onto property on the reserve to

(a) determine whether or not

(i) a person is a drilling operator,

(ii) the person is engaged in drilling a Well, or

(iii) this Law is being and has been complied with; and

(b) inspect, audit and examine books of account and records related to Well drilling on the reserve.

(2) As part of an inspection under this section, the drilling operator must give access to the books of accounts and other records required to be kept by this Law, and allow the First Nation to take copies and extracts as necessary, and the drilling operator must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VII
PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalty

17. If all or part of the taxes are not paid as required by subsection 10(1), a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

18. If all or any portion of the taxes are not paid as required by subsection 10(1), the unpaid portion accrues interest at fifteen percent (15%) per year.

Application of Taxes Paid

19. The tax administrator must credit payments for taxes first, to taxes, including penalties and interest, from previous reporting periods, second, to a penalty added in the current reporting period and third to unpaid taxes and interest for the current reporting period.

SAMPLE

Tax Collection and Enforcement

20.(1) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation by the drilling operator, recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction or in any manner permitted by law.

[Note to First Nation: If the First Nation has a property taxation law, the following subsection could be inserted instead of the above subsection (1), and subsection (4) and Schedule IV should be deleted:

(1) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation by the drilling operator, recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction, and may also be recovered by any other method authorized under the _____ First Nation Property Taxation Law, 20__ or other applicable laws, and for this purpose Parts XIII, XIV, XV and XVI [Note to First Nation: Confirm these Parts accurately refer to the collection and enforcement provisions in the First Nation's Taxation Law] of that law apply to the collection and enforcement of unpaid well drilling taxes, including with respect to the recovery of the costs of enforcement incurred by the First Nation.

(2) The use of one method of collection and enforcement does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(3) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(4) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes are

(a) recoverable by the First Nation as set out in Schedule IV; and

(b) payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

PART VIII
COMPLAINTS TO TAX ADMINISTRATOR

Complaints to Tax Administrator

21.(1) A drilling operator may, within thirty (30) days of the date of a Tax Notice, deliver a complaint to the tax administrator in the form set out in Schedule III, in respect of an alleged error or omission in the Tax Notice.

(2) Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a complaint, the tax administrator must review the matter and attempt to resolve the complaint.

(3) If the tax administrator concludes that there was an error or omission in the Tax Notice, the tax administrator must mail an amended Tax Notice correcting the error or omission.

(4) Where the tax administrator mails an amended Tax Notice, subsection 9(4) and section 12 apply.

(5) The tax administrator must advise Council of each complaint received under this section, including the nature of the complaint and the resolution of the complaint, if any.

PART VIII

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Disclosure of Information

22.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in court proceedings or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a drilling operator confidential information relating to the business or property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the drilling operator.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the drilling operator in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

23. Notwithstanding section 22,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

24. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a determination made by the First Nation or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a Tax Notice or other notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation or the tax administrator to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

25.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit described in this section, then money paid to the First Nation is deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

Current ver. 2016 09 14

26.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the business premises;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property or the business premises; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the business premises.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

27.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of this Law and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

28. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the _____ day of _____ , 20___ , at _____, in the Province of_____.

commerciales de la Première Nation _____ applicable au forage de puits (20__).

DÉFINITIONS ET RENVOIS

Définitions et renvois

2.(1) Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent à la présente loi.

« administrateur fiscal » La personne nommée à ce titre en vertu du paragraphe 3(1) pour l'application de la présente loi.

« avis de taxe » Avis contenant les renseignements prévus à l'annexe I.

« exploitant de forage » Personne qui se livre au forage d'un puits sur la réserve, directement ou par l'entremise de ses employés, mandataires ou entrepreneurs.

« intérêt foncier » ou « bien foncier » S'entend d'une terre ou des améliorations, ou des deux, dans une réserve, y compris, sans restrictions, tout intérêt dans cette terre ou ces améliorations, toute occupation, possession ou utilisation de la terre ou des améliorations, et tout droit d'occuper, de posséder ou d'utiliser la terre ou les améliorations.

« période de rapport » Période, établie par l'administrateur fiscal, pour laquelle la taxe sur le forage de puits est prélevée et perçue.

a) soit en vue de la production de pétrole ou de gaz;

b) soit aux fins d'injection dans une formation souterraine;

c) soit en tant que puits d'évaluation ou forage d'essai;

d) soit à une profondeur égale ou supérieure à cent cinquante (150) mètres, à quelque fin que ce soit.

Est exclue de la présente définition l'ouverture qui est pratiquée aux fins de la découverte ou de l'évaluation d'un minéral inorganique solide et qui ne pénètre pas ni ne pénétrera une strate susceptible de contenir un réservoir ou un gisement de sables pétrolifères.

« rapport d'activités » Rapport d'activités de forage de puits, établi par la province d'Alberta ou l'organisme Pétrole et gaz des Indiens du Canada, qui fait état des activités de forage de puits menées sur la réserve au cours de la période visée par le rapport.

« taxe sur le forage de puits » ou « taxe » Taxe imposée, prélevée, évaluée ou évaluable en vertu de la présente loi, ainsi que tous les intérêts, pénalités et frais qui y sont ajoutés conformément à celle-ci.

(2) Les termes utilisés dans la présente loi qui n'y sont pas définis s'entendent au sens de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière.

(3) Dans la présente loi, le renvoi à une partie (p. ex. la partie I), un article (p. ex. l'article 1), un paragraphe (p. ex. le paragraphe 2(1)), un alinéa (p. ex. l'alinéa 6(2)a)) ou une annexe (p. ex. l'annexe I) constitue, sauf indication contraire, un renvoi à la partie, à l'article, au paragraphe, à l'alinéa ou à l'annexe de la présente loi.

ADMINISTRATION

Administrateur fiscal

3.(1) Le Conseil nomme, par résolution, un administrateur fiscal chargé de surveiller l'application et le contrôle d'application de la présente loi, aux conditions énoncées dans la résolution.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal s'acquitte des responsabilités qui lui sont attribuées par la présente loi et remplit toute autre fonction que lui confie la Première Nation en tant que de besoin.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal peut, avec le consentement de [insérer le titre], déléguer l'une ou l'autre de ses fonctions à tout dirigeant, employé, entrepreneur ou mandataire de la Première Nation.

Recettes et dépenses

4. Les taxes sur le forage de puits que perçoit la Première Nation sont placées dans son compte de recettes locales et ne peuvent être dépensées qu'en vertu d'un texte législatif sur les dépenses édicté par elle en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)b) de la Loi ou qu'en conformité avec l'article 13.1 de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
ASSUJETTISSEMENT À LA TAXE ET PRÉLÈVEMENT

Application de la loi

5. La présente loi s'applique à tous les exploitants de forage, et chacun d'eux est assujetti à la taxe sur le forage de puits en vertu de la présente loi.

Assujettissement à la taxe

6.(1) La taxe sur le forage de puits est prélevée et imposée à chaque exploitant de forage relativement à l'utilisation et à l'occupation de la réserve pour le forage d'un (1) ou de plusieurs puits, y compris l'approfondissement d'un puits existant, et doit être payée par lui conformément à la présente loi.

Version courante 2016 09 14

(2) La personne assujettie à la taxe imposée en vertu de la présente loi est tenue au paiement de cette taxe même si, selon le cas :

a) elle est aussi tenue au paiement des impôts fonciers imposés en vertu d'autres textes législatifs relatifs à l'imposition foncière pris la Première Nation;

b) la personne qui détient un intérêt dans le même bien foncier est exemptée de la taxe prévue par la présente loi ou des impôts ou taxes prévus par tout autre texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière pris par la Première Nation.

(3) Si plus d'un exploitant de forage participe au forage d'un puits, tous les exploitants de forage sont solidairement responsables de payer à la Première Nation les taxes sur le forage de puits imposées en vertu de la présente loi à l'égard de ce puits.

(4) Les taxes sur le forage de puits sont dues et payables aux termes de la présente loi indépendamment de toute plainte déposée, de toute action engagée ou de tout recours exercé relativement à l'obligation de l'exploitant de forage de payer des taxes au titre de la présente loi.

Taux de taxe et prélèvement

7.(1) Les taux de taxe à appliquer sont les taux fixés par règlement pris en vertu du paragraphe 390(1) de la loi de l'Alberta intitulée Municipal Government Act.

(2) Il est entendu que les taux visés au paragraphe (1) comprennent tout montant minimum de taxe prévu par le règlement mentionné à ce paragraphe.

(3) À titre d'exception au paragraphe (1), s'il n'y a pas de règlement en vigueur en application du paragraphe 390(1) de la loi de l'Alberta intitulée Municipal Government Act, les taux de taxe qui s'appliquent sont les taux fixés dans le dernier règlement pris en vertu du paragraphe 390(1) de cette loi.

(4) La taxe sur le forage de puits est calculée par multiplication de la profondeur de chaque puits foré pendant la période de rapport – comme en fait état le rapport d'activités – par le taux de taxe applicable.

(5) La taxe sur le forage de puits est prélevée au moins une fois au cours de chaque année d'imposition.

(6) Il est entendu qu'un puits fait l'objet d'un seul prélèvement de la taxe sur le forage de puits, sauf s'il est agrandi au cours d'une période de rapport ultérieure; dans ce cas, le puits est assujetti à une taxe sur le forage de puits supplémentaire qu'on calcule en déterminant la taxe applicable au puits agrandi et en soustrayant le montant de taxe déjà payé à l'égard de ce puits.

PARTIE V
AVIS DE TAXE ET PAIEMENT

Période de rapport

8. L'administrateur fiscal établit une (1) ou plusieurs périodes de rapport pour une année d'imposition; chaque période de rapport compte au moins trois (3) mois consécutifs.

Avis de taxe

9.(1) À la fin de chaque période de rapport, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de taxe à chaque exploitant de forage qui s'est livré au forage d'un puits au cours de cette période.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal calcule les taxes sur le forage de puits que chaque exploitant de forage doit payer pour la période de rapport en utilisant les renseignements contenus dans tous les rapports d'activités applicables à cette période.

(3) L'avis de taxe envoyé par la poste par l'administrateur fiscal constitue un relevé et une demande de paiement des taxes.

(4) S'il détermine qu'une erreur ou une omission a été commise dans un avis de taxe, l'administrateur fiscal peut délivrer et envoyer par la poste un avis de taxe modifié à l'exploitant de forage; les taxes supplémentaires, le cas échéant, sont dues et payables à la date de mise à la poste de l'avis de taxe modifié. Cependant, l'exploitant dispose d'un délai de soixante (60) jours pour payer ces taxes, et aucun intérêt ni pénalité ne peuvent y être ajoutés pendant cette période.

Paiement de taxes

10.(1) Les taxes sont dues et payables dans les soixante (60) jours suivant la date de l'avis de taxe transmis à l'égard de celles-ci.

(2) Les paiements de taxes sont faits au bureau de la Première Nation, pendant les heures d'ouverture normales, par chèque ou mandat ou en argent comptant.

(3) Les paiements de taxes faits par chèque ou mandat sont établis à l'ordre de la Première Nation _____.

Reçus de paiement

11. L'administrateur fiscal délivre un reçu à l'exploitant de forage sur réception de tout paiement de taxes.

Remboursement de taxes

12.(1) Lorsqu'un montant trop élevé de taxes a été imposé à un exploitant de forage, l'administrateur fiscal lui rembourse le trop-payé de taxes.

(2) À titre d'exception au paragraphe (1), si d'autres taxes sur le forage de puits payables par l'exploitant de forage sont dues ou deviennent exigibles, l'administrateur fiscal peut appliquer le trop-payé à ces taxes, pourvu qu'il en donne avis à celui-ci.

(3) Lorsqu'une personne a droit à un remboursement de taxes au titre de la présente loi, l'administrateur fiscal lui paie des intérêts de la façon suivante :

a) l'intérêt commence à courir à la date à laquelle les taxes ont initialement été payées à la Première Nation;

b) le taux d'intérêt applicable à chaque période successive de trois (3) mois, commençant le 1er janvier, le 1er avril, le 1er juillet et le 1er octobre de chaque année, est le taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la Première Nation en vigueur le 15e jour du mois précédant la période de trois mois;

c) l'intérêt n'est pas composé;

d) l'intérêt cesse de courir le jour où le paiement de la somme due est remis ou envoyé par la poste au destinataire ou est effectivement versé.

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

PARTIE VI
DOSSIERS, RENSEIGNEMENTS ET INSPECTIONS

Dossiers sur les taxes

13. L'administrateur fiscal tient, relativement à l'application de la présente loi, des dossiers sur ce qui suit :

a) toutes les taxes prélevées;

b) tous les avis de taxe délivrés;

c) tous les paiements de taxes effectués et les reçus délivrés;

d) tous les remboursements versés;

e) toutes les mesures de contrôle d'application prises.

Dossiers de l'exploitant de forage

14. L'exploitant de forage doit tenir des registres comptables complets et exacts et d'autres dossiers contenant les renseignements nécessaires pour permettre à la Première Nation de vérifier les activités de forage de puits menées par lui sur la réserve et d'assurer leur conformité aux exigences de la présente loi.

Demandes de renseignements

15. L'administrateur fiscal peut transmettre une demande de renseignements dans laquelle il demande que l'exploitant de forage – actuel ou ancien – ou toute autre personne pouvant détenir des renseignements pertinents quant à l'application de la présente loi lui fournisse des renseignements ou des documents ayant trait à l'application de la présente loi, notamment les renseignements visés à l'article 14, et cette personne doit alors lui fournir les renseignements demandés dans les quatorze (14) jours suivants ou dans le délai supérieur indiqué dans la demande.

Inspections

16.(1) Toute personne autorisée par la Première Nation peut, au cours des heures d'ouverture normales, entrer sur un bien foncier dans la réserve afin de :

a) déterminer si, selon le cas :

(i) une personne est un exploitant de forage,

(ii) la personne se livre au forage d'un puits,

(iii) la présente loi est et a été respectée;

b) faire l'inspection, la vérification et l'examen des registres comptables et des dossiers relatifs aux activités de forage de puits sur la réserve.

(2) Dans le cadre de l'inspection visée au présent article, l'exploitant de forage doit donner accès aux registres comptables et autres dossiers dont la tenue est exigée par la présente loi et permettre à la Première Nation de faire des copies et de prendre des extraits, au besoin; il doit fournir, sur demande, les installations et l'aide nécessaires à l'entrée et à l'examen.

Version courante 2016 09 14

PARTIE VII

Pénalité

17. Si la totalité ou une partie des taxes ne sont pas acquittées comme l'exige le paragraphe 10(1), une pénalité égale à dix pour cent (10 %) du montant impayé est ajoutée au montant des taxes impayées et la pénalité ainsi ajoutée est réputée, à toutes fins utiles, faire partie des taxes.

Intérêts

18. Si la totalité ou une partie des taxes ne sont pas acquittées comme l'exige le paragraphe 10(1), des intérêts sont imposés sur le montant impayé, au taux de quinze pour cent (15 %) par année.

Application des paiements de taxes

19. L'administrateur fiscal applique les paiements de taxes d'abord au solde impayé des taxes, y compris les pénalités et intérêts, des périodes de rapport précédentes, puis à la pénalité imposée pendant la période de rapport en cours et, en dernier lieu, aux taxes et intérêts exigibles pour la période de rapport en cours.

Perception et contrôle d'application

20.(1) Les taxes prélevées aux termes de la présente loi constituent une créance de la Première Nation à la charge de l'exploitant de forage qui est recouvrable par elle devant un tribunal compétent ou par toute autre méthode permise par la loi.

[Note à la Première Nation : Si la Première Nation dispose d'une loi sur l'imposition foncière, le paragraphe suivant peut être inséré au lieu du paragraphe (1) ci-dessus, auquel cas le paragraphe (4) et l'annexe IV doivent être supprimés.]

(1) Les taxes prélevées aux termes de la présente loi constituent une créance de la Première Nation à la charge de l'exploitant de forage qui est recouvrable par elle devant un tribunal compétent; leur recouvrement peut aussi être effectué par toute autre méthode autorisée par la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation (20__) ou tout autre texte législatif applicable et, à cette fin, les parties XIII, XIV, XV et XVI [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ces parties correspondent aux dispositions sur la perception et le contrôle d'application de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation] de cette loi s'appliquent à la perception des taxes impayées et aux mesures de contrôle d'application nécessaires, y compris le recouvrement des frais de telles mesures engagés par la Première Nation.

(2) Le recours à une méthode de perception et de contrôle d'application n'empêche pas le recouvrement par une ou plusieurs autres méthodes.

(3) Une copie de l'avis de taxe indiquant les taxes à payer par une personne, certifiée comme copie conforme par l'administrateur fiscal, constitue une preuve de la dette fiscale de la personne.

(4) Les frais engagés par la Première Nation pour le recouvrement des taxes impayées et les mesures de contrôle d'application nécessaires sont :

a) recouvrables par elle selon ce qui est prévu à l'annexe IV;

Version courante 2016 09 14

b) payables par le débiteur à titre de taxes impayées.

PARTIE VIII

Plaintes présentées à l'administrateur fiscal

21.(1) L'exploitant de forage peut, dans les trente (30) jours suivant la date d'un avis de taxe, présenter une plainte, en la forme prévue à l'annexe III, à l'administrateur fiscal au sujet d'une prétendue erreur ou omission dans l'avis de taxe.

(2) Dans les quatorze (14) jours suivant la réception de la plainte, l'administrateur fiscal procède à l'examen de la question et tente de régler la plainte.

(3) S'il conclut que l'avis de taxe contient une erreur ou une omission, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de taxe modifié qui corrige l'erreur ou l'omission.

(4) Lorsque l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis de taxe modifié, le paragraphe 9(4) et l'article 12 s'appliquent.

(5) L'administrateur fiscal avise le Conseil de chaque plainte reçue au titre du présent article, en faisant mention de la nature de la plainte et de la solution retenue, le cas échéant, pour la régler.

PARTIE IX
DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES

Communication de renseignements

22.(1) L'administrateur fiscal ou toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de renseignements ou d'archives obtenus ou créés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut communiquer ces renseignements ou archives sauf, selon le cas :

a) dans le cadre de l'application de la présente loi ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celle-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant un tribunal judiciaire ou aux termes d'une ordonnance judiciaire;

c) en conformité avec le paragraphe (2).

(2) L'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer au mandataire d'un exploitant de forage des renseignements confidentiels concernant l'entreprise ou un bien foncier si la communication de ces renseignements a été autorisée par écrit par l'exploitant de forage.

(3) Le mandataire ne peut utiliser les renseignements communiqués aux termes du paragraphe (2) qu'aux fins autorisées par écrit par l'exploitant de forage.

Communication aux fins de recherche

23. Malgré l'article 22 :

a) l'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que ces renseignements et archives ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ni de renseignements commerciaux permettant d'identifier des entreprises;

Version courante 2016 09 14

b) le Conseil peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises, pourvu que les conditions suivantes soient réunies :

(i) la recherche ne peut vraisemblablement être effectuée que si les renseignements sont fournis sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises,

(ii) le tiers a signé une entente avec le Conseil dans laquelle il s'engage à se conformer aux exigences du Conseil concernant l'utilisation, la confidentialité et la sécurité des renseignements.

Validité

24. Aucune disposition de la présente loi ne peut être annulée ou invalidée, et l'obligation d'une personne de payer des taxes ou autres montants imposés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut être modifiée, en raison :

a) d'une erreur ou d'une omission dans une décision prise par la Première Nation ou l'administrateur fiscal;

b) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans un avis de taxe ou tout autre avis donné sous le régime de la présente loi;

c) du défaut de la part de la Première Nation ou de l'administrateur fiscal de prendre des mesures dans le délai prévu.

Restriction

25.(1) Nul ne peut engager une action ou une procédure en vue du remboursement des sommes versées à la Première Nation, que ce soit dans le cadre d'une contestation ou autrement, au titre d'une demande, valide ou invalide, concernant les taxes ou tout autre montant payé aux termes de la présente loi, après l'expiration d'un délai de six (6) mois suivant la date du fait générateur du litige.

(2) Si aucune action ou procédure n'est engagée dans le délai prévu au présent article, les sommes versées à la Première Nation sont réputées avoir été versées de plein gré par l'intéressé.

Avis

26.(1) Lorsque la présente loi exige la transmission d'un avis, cet avis est transmis, selon le cas :

a) par la poste, à l'adresse postale habituelle du destinataire ou à l'adresse du lieu d'exploitation de l'entreprise;

b) si l'adresse du destinataire est inconnue, par affichage d'une copie de l'avis dans un endroit bien en vue sur le bien foncier du destinataire ou le lieu d'exploitation de l'entreprise;

c) par remise de l'avis en mains propres ou par service de messagerie au destinataire, ou à son adresse postale habituelle ou à l'adresse du lieu d'exploitation de l'entreprise.

(2) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi :

a) l'avis transmis par la poste est réputé reçu le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste;

b) l'avis affiché sur un bien foncier est réputé reçu le deuxième jour après avoir été affiché;

Version courante 2016 09 14

c) l'avis remis en mains propres est réputé reçu au moment de sa remise.

Interprétation

27.(1) Les dispositions de la présente loi sont dissociables. Si une disposition de la présente loi est pour quelque raison déclarée invalide par une décision d'un tribunal compétent, elle est alors retranchée de la présente loi et la décision du tribunal ne porte pas atteinte à la validité des autres dispositions de la présente loi.

(2) Les dispositions de la présente loi exprimées au présent s'appliquent à la situation du moment.

(3) Dans la présente loi, le pluriel ou le singulier s'appliquent, le cas échéant, à l'unité et à la pluralité.

(4) La présente loi est censée apporter une solution de droit et s'interprète de la manière la plus équitable et la plus large qui soit compatible avec la réalisation de ses objectifs.

(5) Les renvois dans la présente loi à un texte législatif sont réputés se rapporter à sa version éventuellement modifiée et visent tous les règlements d'application de ce texte.

(6) Les intertitres ne font pas partie de la présente loi, n'y figurant que pour faciliter la consultation.

Entrée en vigueur

28. La présente loi entre en vigueur le jour suivant son agrément par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations.

LA PRÉSENTE LOI EST DÛMENT ÉDICTÉE par le Conseil en ce _____ jour de _____ 20___, à _____, dans la province de _____.

(2) Any person, including, without limitation, the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal a business assessment or a reconsideration of a business assessment to the Assessment Review Board, and for this purpose Part X of the Assessment Law applies. [Note to First Nation: Ensure this reference is accurate.]

PART VIII

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Tax Liability and Levy

20.(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, every business operator is subject to a business occupancy tax in accordance with this Law.

(2) A business occupancy tax is levied on business premises and must be paid by the business operator in accordance with this Law.

(3) A person on whom a tax is imposed under this Law is liable for the tax even if

(a) that person is also liable to pay property taxes imposed under the Taxation Law; or

(b) a person with an interest in the same property is exempt from tax under this Law or from any taxes under other property taxation law enacted by the First Nation.

(4) Where there is more than one business operator in respect of a business, each business operator is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all business occupancy taxes imposed under this Law in the current and in any previous taxation year, including interest, penalties and costs.

(5) Business occupancy taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding a complaint or any proceeding initiated or remedy sought respecting a business operator's liability for taxes under this Law.

Tax Rate

21.(1) The business occupancy tax rate to be applied to business premises is _____ percent (__%).

(2) The business occupancy tax is calculated by multiplying the assessed value of the business premises by the business occupancy tax rate.

(3) Business occupancy taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

Part Year Use or Occupancy

22. A business operator who uses or occupies business premises for part of a year is liable to pay, for each month of use or occupation, one-twelfth (1/12) of the business occupancy tax imposed in respect of the business premises for the year and, for this purpose, use or occupation for any one-half (1/2) or greater part of a month is deemed to be use or occupation for the entire month.

Tax Payments

23.(1) Business occupancy taxes are due and payable on or before ____ of the year in which they are levied.

(2) Business occupancy taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of business occupancy taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the _____ First Nation.

Receipts for Payment

Current ver. 2016 09 14

24. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the business tax roll opposite the business premises for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

25.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of a property, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is _____ dollars ($___) for each business tax roll folio searched.

Tax Refunds

26.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART IX
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

27. The following are exempt from business occupancy taxes under this Law:

(a) the business premises of a political, friendly, trade, professional or labour organization or association, whether or not incorporated, where the organization or association is not operated for profit or for the personal gain of its members;

(b) [Note to First Nation: consider and insert additional exemptions if any. If none, eliminate the subdivisioning of this section and restructure the section accordingly.]

PART X
BUSINESS TAX ROLL AND NOTICES

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Business Tax Roll and Notices

28.(1) No later than August 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a business tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The business tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and address of the business operator entered on the business assessment roll;

(b) the address of the business premises;

(c) the assessed value of the business premises, exclusive of any exemptions;

(d) the amount of business occupancy taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year; and

(e) the amount of any unpaid business occupancy taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may combine the business tax roll and the business assessment roll by adding the following information to the business assessment roll:

(a) the amount of business occupancy taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid business occupancy taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) The tax administrator may combine the business tax roll with the tax roll prepared under the Taxation Law.

(5) The fact that information required to be shown on the business tax roll is omitted or that information shown contains an error does not invalidate the roll or any other information shown on the roll.

Annual Business Tax Notice

29.(1) On or before August 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Business Tax Notice to each business operator to the address shown on the business tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the business tax roll the date of mailing of the Business Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Business Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of taxes.

(4) Business Tax Notices for a number of businesses may be combined, and may also be combined with Tax Notices under the Taxation Law, if the same person is the taxpayer in respect of each of them.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge and the assessor enters the holder's name on the business assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Business Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

Amendments to Business Tax Roll

30.(1) The tax administrator may correct the business tax roll and cancel or reduce taxes in respect of a business premises if, after the business tax roll has been created, the assessor reports to the First Nation that

SAMPLE

(a) the business is entitled to exemption from taxation due to a change in ownership or use; or

(b) the business has ceased to operate and is no longer subject to a business assessment.

(2) If an error or omission in the business tax roll or business assessment roll

(a) resulted from a taxpayer knowingly providing false information to the assessor, and

(b) resulted in no tax being imposed or in the imposition of less tax than would have been imposed if the taxpayer had provided the correct information to the assessor, the tax administrator may, for each year in which the business assessment or the imposition of or exemption from tax was based on the false information, correct the business tax roll, and impose business occupancy taxes, penalties and interest from the time that the taxes would have been payable had it not been for the false information.

Supplementary Taxes

31.(1) Where a supplementary business assessment has been created, the tax administrator must correct the business tax roll and impose supplementary taxes in respect of that business.

(2) Supplementary taxes in respect of a business for a year or part of a year must be calculated using the applicable business occupancy tax rate set by the First Nation for that taxation year.

(3) Supplementary taxes imposed under subsection (1) are payable for the period beginning on the date a supplementary business assessment is effective under this Law, and ending December 31 of the year in which the supplementary business assessment was created by the assessor.

Amended and Supplementary Business Tax Notices

32.(1) If a correction or other change is made to the business tax roll, the tax administrator must send an amended Business Tax Notice to every person entitled to a Business Tax Notice under section 29.

(2) If supplementary taxes are imposed, the tax administrator must send a supplementary Business Tax Notice to every person entitled to a Business Tax Notice under section 29.

(3) Where an amended Business Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 26.

(4) Where an amended Business Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Business Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

(5) Where supplementary taxes are imposed, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing the supplementary Business Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given ninety (90) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

PART XI
PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

SAMPLE

Current ver. 2016 09 14

Penalties and Interest on Unpaid Taxes

33. If all or part of a business occupancy tax remains unpaid after [Note to First Nation: insert tax due date] of the year in which it is levied, the unpaid portion will be subject to the same penalties and interest charges levied on unpaid taxes under the Taxation Law, and for this purpose Part XI of the Taxation Law applies. [Note to First Nation: Ensure this reference is accurate.]

Tax Collection and Enforcement

34.(1) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation by the business operator, recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction, and may also be recovered by any other method authorized under the Taxation Law or other applicable laws, and for this purpose Parts XIII, XIV, XV and XVI [Note to First Nation: Confirm these Parts accurately refer to the collection and enforcement provisions in the First Nation's Taxation Law] of that law apply to the collection and enforcement of unpaid business occupancy taxes, including with respect to the recovery of the costs of enforcement incurred by the First Nation.

(2) The use of one method of collection and enforcement does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

PART XII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

35.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a business operator confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the business operator in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

36. Notwithstanding section 35,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

37. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a business assessment roll, business tax roll, Business Assessment Notice, Business Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

38.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit described in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

39.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the business assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the business assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

40.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of this Law and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

41. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the _____ day of _____ , 20___ , at _____ , in the Province of Manitoba.

un paragraphe (p. ex. le paragraphe 2(1)), un alinéa (p. ex. l'alinéa 6(4)a)) ou une annexe (p. ex. l'annexe I) constitue, sauf indication contraire, un renvoi à la partie, à l'article, au paragraphe, à l'alinéa ou à l'annexe de la présente loi.

PARTIE III
ADMINISTRATION

Évaluateur et administrateur fiscal

3.(1) L'évaluateur fait l'évaluation des biens sujets à évaluation conformément à la présente loi et remplit toute autre fonction prévue par celle-ci ou ordonnée par le Conseil.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal s'acquitte des responsabilités qui lui sont attribuées par la présente loi et remplit toute autre fonction que lui confie la Première Nation en tant que de besoin.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal peut, avec le consentement de [insérer le titre], déléguer l'une ou l'autre de ses fonctions au titre de la présente loi à tout dirigeant, employé, entrepreneur ou mandataire de la Première Nation.

Recettes et dépenses

4. Les taxes d'occupation commerciale que perçoit la Première Nation sont placées dans son compte de recettes locales et ne peuvent être dépensées qu'en vertu d'un texte législatif sur les dépenses édicté par elle en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)b) de la Loi ou qu'en conformité avec l'article 13.1 de la Loi.

Application

5. La présente loi s'applique à tous les exploitants et les établissements commerciaux.

PARTIE IV
ÉVALUATION

Évaluation générale

6.(1) Chaque année au cours de laquelle une évaluation générale est faite en vertu de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, l'évaluateur procède à l'évaluation de tous les établissements commerciaux en conformité avec la présente loi.

(2) Sous réserve des modifications apportées conformément à la présente loi, l'évaluation générale s'applique, quant aux évaluations commerciales, à chaque année subséquente jusqu'à l'année de l'évaluation générale suivante.

Évaluations

7.(1) L'évaluateur fait l'évaluation d'un établissement commercial au nom de l'exploitant.

(2) L'évaluateur détermine la valeur imposable d'un établissement commercial en se fondant sur sa valeur locative annuelle à la date de référence.

(3) Pour déterminer la valeur locative annuelle aux fins de l'évaluation commerciale, l'évaluateur utilise les méthodes ou démarches qui font en sorte que la valeur locative annuelle soit juste et équitable par rapport à la valeur locative annuelle des autres biens sujets à évaluation.

Version courante 2016 09 14

(4) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi, l'évaluateur utilise pour l'évaluation des établissements commerciaux :

a) les méthodes, taux, règles et formules d'évaluation établis sous le régime des lois provinciales relatives à l'évaluation foncière qui sont en vigueur au moment de l'évaluation commerciale;

b) les règles et pratiques d'évaluation que suivent les évaluateurs de la province pour les évaluations commerciales faites à l'extérieur de la réserve.

PARTIE V
RÔLE ET AVIS D'ÉVALUATION COMMERCIALE

Rôle d'évaluation commerciale

8.(1) Au plus tard le 31 décembre de chaque année, l'évaluateur établit un nouveau rôle d'évaluation commerciale contenant la liste de tous les établissements commerciaux soumis à l'évaluation au titre de la présente loi.

(2) Le rôle d'évaluation commerciale est établi sur support papier ou sous forme électronique et contient les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et la dernière adresse connue de l'exploitant;

b) l'adresse des établissements commerciaux;

c) la valeur imposable des établissements commerciaux.

(3) Le rôle d'évaluation commerciale peut être combiné au rôle d'évaluation établi en vertu de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, pourvu que les exigences de la présente loi applicables au rôle d'évaluation commerciale soient respectées.

(4) Toute personne qui détient une charge grevant un établissement commercial peut, à tout moment, en donner avis à l'évaluateur en précisant en détail la nature, la portée et la durée de la charge, et demander que son nom soit ajouté sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale relativement à cet établissement pour la durée de la charge.

(5) Sur réception d'un avis et d'une demande présentés conformément au paragraphe (4), l'évaluateur inscrit le nom et l'adresse de la personne sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale et lui remet des copies de tous les avis d'évaluation commerciale émis à l'égard de l'établissement commercial.

Certification par l'évaluateur

9.(1) Une fois le rôle d'évaluation commerciale établi et au plus tard le 31 décembre de l'année en cours, l'évaluateur :

a) certifie par écrit, essentiellement en la forme prévue à l'annexe III, que le rôle d'évaluation commerciale a été établi conformément à la présente loi;

b) remet au Conseil une copie du rôle d'évaluation commerciale certifié.

(2) Dès sa réception par le Conseil, le rôle d'évaluation commerciale certifié est celui à utiliser pour l'imposition de la taxe d'occupation commerciale pendant l'année.

Modification du rôle d'évaluation commerciale

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

10.(1) S'il corrige le rôle d'évaluation commerciale en vigueur ou fait une évaluation commerciale supplémentaire conformément à l'article 14, ou s'il modifie ce rôle pour tenir compte des décisions découlant des réexamens ou pour mettre en œuvre les décisions du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, l'évaluateur :

a) date et paraphe les modifications apportées au rôle d'évaluation commerciale;

b) fait rapport des modifications ou des corrections au Conseil.

(2) Lorsque le rôle d'évaluation commerciale est modifié conformément à la présente loi, les modifications apportées font partie intégrante de ce rôle et sont réputées prendre effet à la date de la certification de celui-ci aux termes de l'article 9.

(3) L'évaluateur ne peut modifier le rôle d'évaluation commerciale d'une façon contraire à une décision rendue par le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou un tribunal compétent.

Validité du rôle d'évaluation commerciale

11. Le rôle d'évaluation commerciale prend effet dès sa certification et, sauf s'il est modifié conformément à la présente loi ou par suite d'une décision du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou d'une ordonnance d'un tribunal compétent :

a) il est valide et lie toutes les parties visées, indépendamment :

(i) de tout défaut, erreur ou omission qu'il peut contenir ou qui s'y rapporte,

(ii) de tout défaut, erreur ou inexactitude dans un avis obligatoire,

(iii) de toute omission de poster un avis obligatoire;

b) il constitue, à toutes fins utiles, le rôle d'évaluation commerciale de la Première Nation jusqu'à la certification du prochain rôle d'évaluation commerciale.

Consultation et utilisation du rôle d'évaluation commerciale

12.(1) Dès sa réception par le Conseil, le rôle d'évaluation commerciale est accessible à toute personne pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales.

(2) Nul ne peut, directement ou indirectement, utiliser le rôle d'évaluation commerciale ou les renseignements qu'il contient :

a) pour obtenir des noms, adresses ou numéros de téléphone à des fins de sollicitation, que celle-ci soit faite par téléphone, par courrier ou par tout autre moyen;

b) pour harceler un individu.

(3) L'évaluateur peut exiger de la personne qui souhaite consulter le rôle d'évaluation commerciale qu'elle remplisse une déclaration, essentiellement en la forme prévue à l'annexe IV, dans laquelle elle :

a) indique à quelles fins les renseignements serviront;

b) atteste que les renseignements contenus dans le rôle d'évaluation commerciale ne seront pas utilisés d'une manière interdite par le présent article.

Protection des renseignements personnels figurant sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale

Version courante 2016 09 14

13.(1) À la demande d'un particulier dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale, l'administrateur fiscal peut omettre ou masquer le nom ou l'adresse de ce dernier ou tout autre renseignement le concernant qui figurerait habituellement sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale si, à son avis, la présence du nom, de l'adresse ou du renseignement peut vraisemblablement menacer la sécurité ou la santé physique ou mentale du particulier ou d'une personne résidant au domicile de celui-ci.

(2) Si l'administrateur fiscal omet ou masque des renseignements en vertu du paragraphe (1), ces renseignements sont masqués dans tous les rôles d'évaluation commerciale mis à la disposition du public pour consultation conformément au paragraphe 12(1) ou autrement accessibles au public.

Modification et correction du rôle d'évaluation commerciale

14.(1) L'évaluateur peut apporter des corrections au rôle d'évaluation commerciale en vigueur et apporter des modifications au prochain rôle d'évaluation commerciale annuel au cours d'une année pour laquelle une évaluation générale n'est pas requise, en procédant de la même manière que celle prévue pour les rôles d'évaluation dans la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, auquel cas la partie VII de cette loi s'applique à cette fin. [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ce renvoi est exact.]

(2) L'évaluateur procède à une évaluation commerciale supplémentaire à l'égard d'un établissement commercial si, après la certification du rôle d'évaluation commerciale aux termes de l'article 9, il conclut que, selon le cas :

a) l'exploitant est assujetti à la taxe mais n'a pas été évalué;

b) l'exploitant est assujetti à la taxe par suite d'un changement de propriétaire ou d'un changement d'utilisation;

c) l'évaluation d'une amélioration apportée à l'établissement commercial doit être majorée en raison d'un changement de l'état matériel de l'amélioration.

(3) Le plus tôt possible après avoir effectué l'évaluation commerciale supplémentaire visée au paragraphe (2), l'évaluateur envoie par la poste un avis d'évaluation commerciale supplémentaire à l'administrateur fiscal et à chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale à l'égard de l'établissement commercial visé.

(4) L'évaluation commerciale supplémentaire :

a) prend effet à celle des dates suivantes qui s'applique, pourvu qu'elle ne soit pas antérieure au 1er janvier de l'année précédant celle où l'évaluation commerciale supplémentaire est effectuée :

(i) la date de l'assujettissement de l'exploitant à la taxe au titre de l'alinéa (2)a),

(ii) la date du changement visé aux alinéas (2)b) ou c);

b) cesse d'avoir effet le 31 décembre de l'année où elle est effectuée.

(5) Lorsqu'il fait une évaluation commerciale supplémentaire aux termes du présent article, l'évaluateur modifie l'évaluation sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale qu'il est à établir conformément au paragraphe 8(1).

Version courante 2016 09 14

Avis d'évaluation commerciale

15.(1) Au plus tard le _____ de chaque année, l'évaluateur envoie par la poste un avis d'évaluation commerciale à chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale à l'égard de chaque bien sujet à évaluation, à l'adresse qui y est indiquée.

(2) À la demande du destinataire, l'avis d'évaluation commerciale peut être envoyé par courrier électronique à la personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale, auquel cas il est réputé avoir été transmis à la date à laquelle l'évaluateur a envoyé le courriel.

(3) Les avis d'évaluation commerciale de plus d'une entreprise peuvent être réunis en un seul avis et également être combinés aux avis d'évaluation prévus par la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, s'il s'agit du même contribuable visé par chacun de ces avis.

(4) La personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale est tenue d'aviser par écrit l'évaluateur de tout changement d'adresse.

PARTIE VI
DEMANDES DE RENSEIGNEMENTS ET INSPECTIONS

Demandes de renseignements

16.(1) L'administrateur fiscal ou l'évaluateur peut transmettre une demande de renseignements dans laquelle il demande que l'exploitant ou toute personne qui détient ou utilise un établissement commercial lui fournisse des renseignements ou des documents ayant trait à l'application de la présente loi, notamment des renseignements et des documents concernant l'évaluation de l' établissement commercial.

(2) Sans que soit limitée la portée du paragraphe (1), la demande peut aussi viser des renseignements ou des documents pour chaque année depuis la dernière évaluation générale, concernant :

a) la vente de l'établissement commercial, le cas échéant;

b) le coût des constructions effectuées dans l'établissement commercial, le cas échéant;

c) les revenus et les dépenses liés à l'utilisation ou à l'exploitation de l'établissement commercial.

(3) La personne qui reçoit la demande visée au paragraphe (1) doit, dans les vingt et un (21) jours qui en suivent la réception, fournir les renseignements ou les documents demandés dans la mesure où ils sont en sa possession ou sous son contrôle, et y annexer une déclaration écrite, signée par elle, attestant qu'à sa connaissance les renseignements ou les documents fournis sont complets, véridiques et exacts.

(4) Lorsqu'il fait une demande en vertu du paragraphe (1), l'évaluateur peut dans tous les cas évaluer l'établissement commercial en se fondant sur les renseignements dont il dispose et il n'est pas lié par les renseignements et les documents fournis en application du présent article.

Inspections

17. L'évaluateur peut, à toute fin liée à l'évaluation, entrer sur une terre ou dans des améliorations et en faire l'inspection, auquel cas la partie V de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière s'applique à ces fins. [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ce renvoi est exact.]

Version courante 2016 09 14

PARTIE VII

RÉEXAMEN ET APPEL EN MATIÈRE D'ÉVALUATION

Réexamen par l'évaluateur

18. Toute personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale à l'égard d'un bien sujet à évaluation peut demander que l'évaluateur réexamine l'évaluation de ce bien, auquel cas la partie VIII de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière s'applique à cette fin. [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ce renvoi est exact.]

Appel devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières

19.(1) Le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières entend et tranche les appels interjetés à l'égard des évaluations d'établissements commerciaux.

(2) Toute personne, notamment la Première Nation et l'évaluateur, peut interjeter appel d'une évaluation commerciale ou du réexamen de celle-ci auprès du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, auquel cas la partie X de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière s'applique à cette fin. [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ce renvoi est exact.]

PARTIE VIII

ASSUJETTISSEMENT À LA TAXE ET PRÉLÈVEMENT

Assujettissement à la taxe et prélèvement

20.(1) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi, chaque exploitant est assujetti à la taxe d'occupation commerciale en vertu de la présente loi.

(2) La taxe d'occupation commerciale est imposée sur les établissements commerciaux et doit être payée par l'exploitant conformément à la présente loi.

(3) La personne assujettie à la taxe imposée en vertu de la présente loi est tenue au paiement de cette taxe même si, selon le cas :

a) elle est aussi tenue au paiement des impôts fonciers imposés en vertu de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière;

b) la personne qui détient un intérêt dans le même bien foncier est exemptée de la taxe prévue par la présente loi ou des impôts ou taxes prévus par tout autre texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière pris par la Première Nation.

(4) S'il y a plus d'un exploitant pour une entreprise, tous les exploitants sont solidairement responsables de payer à la Première Nation les taxes d'occupation commerciale imposées en vertu de la présente loi pendant l'année d'imposition en cours et toute année d'imposition antérieure, ainsi que tous les intérêts, pénalités et frais y afférents.

(5) Les taxes d'occupation commerciale sont dues et payables aux termes de la présente loi indépendamment de toute plainte déposée, de toute action engagée ou de tout recours exercé relativement à l'obligation de l'exploitant de payer des taxes au titre de la présente loi.

Version courante 2016 09 14

Taux de taxe

21.(1) Le taux de la taxe d'occupation commerciale qui s'applique aux établissements commerciaux est fixé à ____ pour cent (___ %).

(2) La taxe d'occupation commerciale est calculée par multiplication de la valeur imposable de l'établissement commercial par le taux de cette taxe.

(3) Les taxes d'occupation commerciale prélevées en vertu de la présente loi sont réputées avoir été imposées le 1er janvier de l'année d'imposition dans laquelle le prélèvement est initialement fait.

Utilisation ou occupation pendant une partie de l'année

22. L'exploitant qui utilise ou occupe un établissement commercial pendant une partie de l'année est tenu de payer, pour chaque mois d'utilisation ou d'occupation, un douzième (1/12) de la taxe d'occupation commerciale imposée sur l'établissement commercial pour l'année et, à cette fin, l'utilisation ou l'occupation de cet établissement pendant la moitié (1/2) ou plus d'un mois est considérée comme l'utilisation ou l'occupation pendant le mois entier.

Paiement de taxes

23.(1) Les taxes d'occupation commerciale sont dues et payables au plus tard le _____ de l'année au cours de laquelle elles sont prélevées.

(2) Les paiements de taxes d'occupation commerciale sont faits au bureau de la Première Nation, pendant les heures d'ouverture normales, par chèque ou mandat ou en argent comptant.

(3) Les paiements de taxes d'occupation commerciale faits par chèque ou mandat sont établis à l'ordre de la Première Nation _____.

Reçus de paiement

24. Sur réception d'un paiement de taxes d'occupation commerciale, l'administrateur fiscal délivre un reçu au contribuable et inscrit le numéro du reçu sur le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales en regard de l'établissement commercial visé par le paiement.

Certificat de taxes

25.(1) Sur réception d'une demande écrite accompagnée du paiement du droit prévu au paragraphe (2), l'administrateur fiscal délivre un certificat de taxes indiquant si les taxes relatives à un bien foncier ont été payées ou, dans le cas contraire, le montant des taxes en souffrance.

(2) Le droit à payer pour l'obtention d'un certificat de taxes est de _____ dollars (____ $) pour chaque rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales faisant l'objet d'une recherche.

Remboursement de taxes

26.(1) Lorsqu'un montant trop élevé de taxes a été imposé à une personne dans une année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal lui rembourse le trop-payé de taxes.

(2) Lorsqu'une personne a droit à un remboursement de taxes, le Conseil peut ordonner à l'administrateur fiscal de rembourser la totalité ou une partie du montant en l'appliquant comme crédit à valoir sur les taxes ou autres montants impayés dus à la Première Nation ou qui deviennent exigibles relativement au bien imposable détenu par la personne.

(3) Lorsqu'une personne a droit à un remboursement de taxes au titre de la présente loi, l'administrateur fiscal lui paie des intérêts de la façon suivante :

a) l'intérêt commence à courir à la date à laquelle les taxes ont initialement été payées à la Première Nation;

b) le taux d'intérêt applicable à chaque période successive de trois (3) mois, commençant le 1er janvier, le 1er avril, le 1er juillet et le 1er octobre de chaque année, est le taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la Première Nation en vigueur le 15e jour du mois précédant la période de trois mois;

c) l'intérêt n'est pas composé;

d) l'intérêt cesse de courir le jour où le paiement de la somme due est remis ou envoyé par la poste au destinataire ou est effectivement versé.

EXEMPTIONS DE TAXE

Exemptions

27. Sont exemptés de la taxe d'occupation commerciale en vertu de la présente loi :

a) l'établissement commercial d'une association d'employés, d'une association ou d'un organisme politique ou professionnel ou d'un organisme de bienfaisance, de métier ou de commerce, constitué ou non en personne morale et qui n'est pas exploité dans un but lucratif ou afin de permettre à ses membres d'en tirer profit;

b) [Note à la Première Nation : Prévoir et insérer d'autres exemptions, s'il y a lieu; sinon, remanier l'article en supprimant le découpage en alinéas.]

PARTIE X
RÔLE ET AVIS DE TAXES SUR LES ACTIVITÉS COMMERCIALES

Rôle et avis de taxes sur les activités commerciales

28.(1) Au plus tard le 31 août de chaque année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal établit un rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales pour cette année d'imposition.

(2) Le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales est établi sur support papier ou sous forme électronique et contient les renseignements suivants :

a) le nom et l'adresse de l'exploitant inscrit sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale;

b) l'adresse des établissements commerciaux;

c) la valeur imposable des établissements commerciaux, compte non tenu des exemptions;

d) le montant des taxes d'occupation commerciale prélevées sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours;

e) le montant impayé de taxes d'occupation commerciale se rapportant aux années d'imposition antérieures, le cas échéant.

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

(3) L'administrateur fiscal peut combiner le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales avec le rôle d'évaluation commerciale s'il ajoute à ce dernier les renseignements suivants :

a) le montant des taxes d'occupation commerciale prélevées sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours;

b) le montant impayé de taxes d'occupation commerciale se rapportant aux années d'imposition antérieures, le cas échéant.

(4) L'administrateur fiscal peut combiner le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales avec le rôle d'imposition établi en vertu de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière.

(5) Le fait que des renseignements devant paraître sur le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales ont été omis ou que des renseignements y figurant sont erronés n'invalide pas le rôle ni les autres renseignements s'y trouvant.

Avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales

29.(1) Au plus tard le 31 août de chaque année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales à chaque exploitant, à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal inscrit sur le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales la date de mise à la poste de l'avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales.

(3) L'avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales envoyé par la poste par l'administrateur fiscal constitue un relevé des taxes et une demande de paiement de celles-ci.

(4) Les avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales destinés à plus d'une entreprise peuvent être réunis en un seul avis et également être combinés aux avis d'imposition prévus par la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, s'il s'agit du même contribuable visé par chacun de ces avis.

(5) Lorsque le titulaire d'une charge grevant un bien imposable donne avis de la charge à l'évaluateur et que ce dernier inscrit le nom du titulaire sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste au titulaire de la charge une copie de tous les avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales émis relativement à ce bien pendant la durée de la charge.

Modification du rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales

30.(1) L'administrateur fiscal peut corriger le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales et annuler ou réduire les taxes frappant un établissement commercial si, après l'établissement de ce rôle, l'évaluateur informe la Première Nation que l'entreprise :

a) soit est admissible à une exemption de taxe par suite d'un changement de propriétaire ou d'un changement d'utilisation;

b) soit a cessé son exploitation et n'est plus soumise à une évaluation commerciale.

(2) Si une erreur ou une omission dans le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales ou le rôle d'évaluation commerciale :

a) d'une part, est attribuable au fait que le contribuable a sciemment fourni de faux renseignements à l'évaluateur,

b) d'autre part, a eu pour conséquence l'imposition d'aucune taxe ou l'imposition d'un

montant de taxe inférieur à celui qui aurait été calculé si le contribuable avait fourni les renseignements exacts à l'évaluateur, l'administrateur fiscal peut corriger le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales pour chaque année où l'évaluation commerciale, le montant de taxe d'occupation commerciale ou l'exemption de taxe était fondé sur les faux renseignements, et imposer des taxes d'occupation commerciale, des pénalités et des intérêts à compter de la date à laquelle les taxes auraient été exigibles n'eussent été les faux renseignements.

Taxes supplémentaires

31.(1) Lorsqu'une entreprise fait l'objet d'une évaluation commerciale supplémentaire, l'administrateur fiscal corrige le rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales et impose des taxes supplémentaires à cette entreprise.

(2) Les taxes supplémentaires applicables à une entreprise pour une année d'imposition ou une partie de celle-ci sont calculées à l'aide du taux de taxe d'occupation commerciale applicable qu'a fixé la Première Nation pour cette année.

(3) Les taxes supplémentaires imposées en vertu du paragraphe (1) sont payables pour la période commençant à la date de prise d'effet de l'évaluation commerciale supplémentaire au titre de la présente loi et se terminant le 31 décembre de l'année où elle a été faite par l'évaluateur.

Avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales – modifié ou supplémentaire

32.(1) Si une correction ou autre modification est apportée au rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales, l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales modifié à chaque personne devant recevoir un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales aux termes de l'article 29.

(2) Si des taxes supplémentaires sont imposées, l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales supplémentaire à chaque personne devant recevoir un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales aux termes de l'article 26.

(3) Dans le cas où un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales modifié indique une réduction du montant de taxes exigibles, l'administrateur fiscal rembourse sans délai, conformément à l'article 26, le trop-payé de taxes.

(4) Dans le cas où un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales modifié indique une augmentation du montant de taxes exigibles, ces taxes sont dues et payables à la date de mise à la poste de l'avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales modifié; cependant, le contribuable dispose d'un délai de trente (30) jours pour payer ces taxes, et aucun intérêt ni pénalité ne peuvent y être ajoutés pendant cette période.

(5) Lorsque des taxes supplémentaires sont imposées, ces taxes sont dues et payables à la date de mise à la poste de l'avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales supplémentaire; cependant, le contribuable dispose d'un délai de quatre-vingt-dix (90) jours pour payer ces taxes, et aucun intérêt ni pénalité ne peuvent y être ajoutés pendant cette période.

PARTIE XI

Pénalités et intérêts sur les taxes impayées

33. Si la totalité ou une partie des taxes d'occupation commerciale est toujours en souffrance après le [Note à la Première Nation : Insérer la date d'exigibilité] de l'année dans laquelle elles sont imposées, le montant impayé est assujetti aux mêmes pénalités et intérêts que ceux frappant les impôts impayés au titre de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, et la partie XI de celle-ci s'applique à cette fin. [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ce renvoi est exact.]

Perception et contrôle d'application

34.(1) Les taxes prélevées aux termes de la présente loi constituent une créance de la Première Nation à la charge de l'exploitant qui est recouvrable par elle devant un tribunal compétent; leur recouvrement peut aussi être effectué par toute autre méthode autorisée par la Loi sur l'imposition foncière ou tout autre texte législatif applicable et, à cette fin, les parties XIII, XIV, XV et XVI [Note à la Première Nation : Confirmer que ces parties correspondent aux dispositions sur la perception et le contrôle d'application de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation] de cette loi s'appliquent à la perception des taxes d'occupation commerciale impayées et aux mesures de contrôle d'application nécessaires, y compris le recouvrement des frais de telles mesures engagés par la Première Nation.

(2) Le recours à une méthode de perception et de contrôle d'application n'empêche pas le recouvrement par une ou plusieurs autres méthodes.

PARTIE XII

Communication de renseignements

35.(1) L'administrateur fiscal, l'évaluateur ou toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de renseignements ou d'archives obtenus ou créés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut communiquer ces renseignements ou archives sauf, selon le cas :

a) dans le cadre de l'application de la présente loi ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celle-ci;

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou un tribunal judiciaire, ou aux termes d'une ordonnance judiciaire;

c) en conformité avec le paragraphe (2).

(2) L'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer au mandataire d'un exploitant des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier si la communication de ces renseignements a été autorisée par écrit par l'exploitant.

(3) Le mandataire ne peut utiliser les renseignements communiqués aux termes du paragraphe (2) qu'aux fins autorisées par écrit par l'exploitant.

Communication aux fins de recherche

Modèle

Version courante 2016 09 14

36. Malgré l'article 35 :

a) l'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que ces renseignements et archives ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ni de renseignements commerciaux permettant d'identifier des entreprises;

b) le Conseil peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises, pourvu que les conditions suivantes soient réunies :

(i) la recherche ne peut vraisemblablement être effectuée que si les renseignements sont fournis sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises,

(ii) le tiers a signé une entente avec le Conseil dans laquelle il s'engage à se conformer aux exigences du Conseil concernant l'utilisation, la confidentialité et la sécurité des renseignements.

Validité

37. Aucune disposition de la présente loi ne peut être annulée ou invalidée, et l'obligation d'une personne de payer des taxes ou autres montants imposés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut être modifiée, en raison :

a) d'une erreur ou d'une omission dans une estimation, ou d'une estimation fondée uniquement sur les renseignements dont dispose l'évaluateur ou l'administrateur fiscal;

b) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans un rôle d'évaluation commerciale, un rôle de taxes sur les activités commerciales, un avis d'évaluation commerciale, un avis de taxe sur les activités commerciales ou tout autre avis donné sous le régime de la présente loi;

c) du défaut de la part de la Première Nation, de l'administrateur fiscal ou de l'évaluateur de prendre des mesures dans le délai prévu.

Restriction

38.(1) Nul ne peut engager une action ou une procédure en vue du remboursement des sommes versées à la Première Nation, que ce soit dans le cadre d'une contestation ou autrement, au titre d'une demande, valide ou invalide, concernant les taxes ou tout autre montant payé aux termes de la présente loi, après l'expiration d'un délai de six (6) mois suivant la date du fait générateur du litige.

(2) Si aucune action ou procédure n'est engagée dans le délai prévu au présent article, les sommes versées à la Première Nation sont réputées avoir été versées de plein gré par l'intéressé.

Avis

39.(1) Lorsque la présente loi exige la transmission d'un avis par la poste ou qu'elle ne précise pas le mode de transmission, l'avis est transmis, selon le cas :

a) par la poste, à l'adresse postale habituelle du destinataire ou à son adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale;

b) si l'adresse du destinataire est inconnue, par affichage d'une copie de l'avis dans un endroit

Version courante 2016 09 14

bien en vue sur le bien foncier du destinataire;

c) par remise de l'avis en mains propres ou par service de messagerie au destinataire, ou à son adresse postale habituelle ou à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'évaluation commerciale.

(2) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi :

a) l'avis transmis par la poste est réputé reçu le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste;

b) l'avis affiché sur un bien foncier est réputé reçu le deuxième jour après avoir été affiché;

c) l'avis remis en mains propres est réputé reçu au moment de sa remise.

Interprétation

40.(1) Les dispositions de la présente loi sont dissociables. Si une disposition de la présente loi est pour quelque raison déclarée invalide par une décision d'un tribunal compétent, elle est alors retranchée de la présente loi et la décision du tribunal ne porte pas atteinte à la validité des autres dispositions de la présente loi.

(2) Les dispositions de la présente loi exprimées au présent s'appliquent à la situation du moment.

(3) Dans la présente loi, le pluriel ou le singulier s'appliquent, le cas échéant, à l'unité et à la pluralité.

(4) La présente loi est censée apporter une solution de droit et s'interprète de la manière la plus équitable et la plus large qui soit compatible avec la réalisation de ses objectifs.

(5) Les renvois dans la présente loi à un texte législatif sont réputés se rapporter à sa version éventuellement modifiée et visent tous les règlements d'application de ce texte.

(6) Les intertitres ne font pas partie de la présente loi, n'y figurant que pour faciliter la consultation.

Entrée en vigueur

41. La présente loi entre en vigueur le jour suivant son agrément par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations.

LA PRÉSENTE LOI EST DÛMENT ÉDICTÉE par le Conseil en ce _____ jour de _____ 20___, à _____, dans la province du Manitoba.

PROCEDURES RESPECTING THE APPROVAL OF FIRST NATION LOCAL REVENUE LAWS

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

A. Subsection 5(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish procedures respecting the approval of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;

B. Procedures are established by the Commission to provide transparent and efficient processes for the approval of local revenue laws by the Commission to assist the Commission in fulfilling its statutory obligations under the Act; and

C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Procedures apply to the approval of local revenue laws submitted to the Commission under the Act.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Procedures are established under subsection 35(2) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Procedures apply to every local revenue law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act. The requirements set out in these Procedures are in addition to any requirements set out in the Act.

PART V
DEFINITIONS

In these Procedures:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

"Commission" means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the Act;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means a First Nation submitting a law to the Commission for approval;

"law" means a local revenue law made under subsection 5(1) of the Act; and

"standards" means any standards established by the Commission under subsection 35(1) of the Act.

Except as otherwise provided in these Procedures, words and expressions used in these Procedures have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART VI

PROCEDURES

1. Review and Approval Consideration by Commission

1.1 When the Commission receives a law for approval consideration, the Commission will, in accordance with the Act, review the law, any written representations received by the Commission in accordance with section 7 of the Act, and any other information it considers relevant in order to make an approval decision.

1.2 The Commission may adjourn its review of the law until it receives such further information requested from a First Nation under subsection 8(5) of the Act in order to review and approve the law.

2. Approval Where Compliance

Where a law complies with the Act and the standards, the Commission will approve the law as required by the Act.

3. Non-compliance with Legislative Requirements

Where a law does not comply with the Act and the standards, the Commission may decide not to approve the law.

4. Adjournment of Law Review where Non-compliance with Legislative Requirements

4.1 Where a law does not comply with the Act and the standards, the Commission may adjourn its review of the law and request that the Council consider amending the law to comply with the Act and the standards.

4.2 Where the Commission adjourns a law review under subsection 4.1, the Commission may

(a) notify the First Nation of the amendments necessary to comply with the legislative requirements;

(b) advise the First Nation whether the Commission considers that the identified amendments are not significant within the meaning of subsections 6(2) and 8(2) of the Act; and

(c) set a time frame for the First Nation to make an amending law and submit the amending law to the Commission for review and approval in conjunction with the original law submitted to the Commission.

5. Proceeding with Review and Approval Consideration of Original Law

5.1 Where a First Nation notified under subsection 4.2 does not submit an amending law within the stipulated time frame, the Commission may without notice resume its review and approval consideration of the law originally submitted to the Commission for review and approval.

5.2 If the Commission did not set a time frame under subsection 4.2, the Commission may at any time give notice to the First Nation of its intention to resume its review and approval consideration of the law originally submitted on or after the date set out in that notice.

5.3 Where a First Nation notified under subsection 5.2 does not submit an amending law on or before the date set out in the notice, the Commission may without further notice resume its review and approval consideration of the law originally submitted to the Commission for review and approval.

6. Submitting an Amending Law

6.1 Where the Commission has adjourned a law review under subsection 4.1, the First Nation may, within the stipulated time frame, if any, make an amending law and submit the amending law to the Commission for review and approval consideration.

6.2 Where the First Nation submits an amending law under subsection 6.1, the Commission may proceed with the review and approval consideration of the amending law in conjunction with the review and approval of the original law submitted to the Commission.

6.3 Except where the Commission has exempted a First Nation from subsections 6(1) and 8(1) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with the requirements in those subsections when making and submitting an amending law.

7. Compliance with Sections 6 and 8 of the Act

A First Nation submitting an amending law for review and approval may request an exemption from subsections 6(1) and 8(1) of the Act by submitting a written request to the Commission and reasons in support of the request, either

(a) at the time of submitting the amending law for review and approval; or

(b) before making the amending law, provided a copy of the proposed amending law is included with the request.

8. Exemption Decisions under Subsections 6(2) and 8(2) of the Act

8.1 When the Commission receives an exemption request under subsections 6(2) and 8(2) of the Act concurrently with a request for the review and approval of an amending law, the Commission will consider the exemption request before beginning its review and approval process.

8.2 Without limiting the Commission's discretion, the Commission may consider the following as part of its decision under subsections 6(2) and 8(2) of the Act:

(a) whether the amendments are solely technical or typographical;

(b) whether the amendments are necessary to bring the original law into compliance with the Act or the standards; and

(c) the nature and extent of any impact on taxpayers, members of the First Nation or others who may be affected by the amending law.

8.3 Where the Commission gives an exemption under subsections 6(2) or 8(2) of the Act,

(a) the Commission may immediately proceed with its review and approval decision if the First Nation has concurrently submitted the amending law for review and approval; or

(b) the Commission will advise the First Nation of the exemption so that the First Nation may proceed with the proposed amending law.

9. Notification to Person Making a Section 7 Representation

Where the Commission receives a written representation in accordance with section 7 of the Act, the Commission will

(a) notify the person who made the representation that the Commission has received the representation; and

(b) notify that person of the Commission's law approval decision.

10. Notice and Certificate of Approval

10.1 Where the Commission approves a law, the Commission will notify the First Nation of the decision and provide a certificate of that approval.

PROCÉDURE D'AGRÉMENT DES TEXTES LÉGISLATIFS SUR LES RECETTES LOCALES DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS

PRÉAMBULE

ATTENDU :

A. que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir la procédure applicable à l'agrément des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales pris en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;

B. que cette procédure est établie par la Commission afin d'instaurer un processus transparent et efficace pour l'agrément des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales et ainsi de l'aider à s'acquitter de ses obligations découlant de la Loi;

C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

La présente procédure s'applique à l'agrément des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales qui sont présentés à la Commission dans le cadre de la Loi.

AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

La présente procédure est établie en vertu du paragraphe 35(2) de la Loi et est publiée dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans la présente procédure s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

APPLICATION

La présente procédure s'applique à tous les textes législatifs sur les recettes locales qui sont soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V
DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent à la présente procédure.

« texte législatif » Texte législatif sur les recettes locales pris en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi.

Sauf disposition contraire prévue dans la présente procédure, les termes utilisés dans celle-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PROCÉDURE

1. Examen et décision de la Commission sur l'agrément

1.1 Lorsque la Commission reçoit un texte législatif soumis pour agrément, elle procède, en conformité avec la Loi, à l'examen du texte législatif, des observations écrites qui lui ont été présentées, le cas échéant, conformément à l'article 7 de la Loi, ainsi que de tout autre renseignement qu'elle juge pertinent, afin de prendre une décision sur l'agrément.

1.2 La Commission peut ajourner l'examen du texte législatif jusqu'à ce qu'elle reçoive les autres renseignements qu'elle a demandés à la première nation en vertu du paragraphe 8(5) de la Loi aux fins d'examen et d'agrément du texte législatif.

2. Agrément en cas de conformité

Si le texte législatif est conforme à la Loi et aux normes, la Commission agrée celui-ci comme l'exige la Loi.

3. Non-conformité aux exigences législatives

Si le texte législatif n'est pas conforme à la Loi et aux normes, la Commission peut décider de ne pas l'agréer.

4. Ajournement de l'examen en cas de non-conformité aux exigences législatives

4.1 Dans le cas où le texte législatif n'est pas conforme à la Loi et aux normes, la Commission peut en ajourner l'examen et demander au Conseil d'envisager de modifier le texte législatif afin de le rendre conforme à la Loi et aux normes.

4.2 Lorsqu'elle ajourne l'examen du texte législatif en vertu du paragraphe 4.1, la Commission peut :

a) aviser la première nation des modifications qui sont nécessaires pour rendre le texte législatif conforme aux exigences législatives;

b) indiquer à la première nation si elle estime que les modifications en question ne sont pas importantes au sens des paragraphes 6(2) et 8(2) de la Loi;

c) fixer le délai dans lequel la première nation doit prendre un texte législatif modificatif et le soumettre à la Commission pour examen et agrément conjointement avec l'examen et l'agrément du texte législatif original présenté à celle-ci.

5. Examen et décision sur l'agrément du texte législatif original

5.1 Lorsque la première nation ayant reçu l'avis prévu au paragraphe 4.2 ne soumet pas un texte législatif modificatif dans le délai fixé, la Commission peut sans préavis poursuivre l'examen, en vue d'une décision sur l'agrément, du texte législatif original qui lui a été soumis pour examen et agrément.

5.2 Si la Commission n'a pas fixé de délai selon le paragraphe 4.2, elle peut à tout moment aviser la première nation de son intention de poursuivre, à la date indiquée dans l'avis ou après celle-ci, l'examen du texte législatif original en vue de prendre une décision sur l'agrément de celui-ci.

5.3 Lorsque la première nation ayant reçu l'avis prévu au paragraphe 5.2 ne soumet pas un texte législatif modificatif au plus tard à la date indiquée dans l'avis, la Commission peut, sans autre avis, poursuivre l'examen, en vue d'une décision sur l'agrément, du texte législatif original qui lui a été soumis pour examen et agrément.

6. Présentation d'un texte législatif modificatif

6.1 Dans le cas où la Commission a ajourné l'examen du texte législatif en vertu du paragraphe 4.1, la première nation peut, dans le délai fixé, prendre un texte législatif modificatif et le soumettre à la Commission pour examen et agrément.

6.2 Si la première nation soumet un texte législatif modificatif conformément au paragraphe 6.1, la Commission peut procéder à l'examen de ce texte en vue d'une décision sur l'agrément de celui-ci conjointement avec l'examen et l'agrément du texte législatif original qui lui a été soumis.

6.3 Sauf dans le cas où la Commission l'a exemptée de l'application des paragraphes 6(1) et 8(1) de la Loi, la première nation est tenue de se conformer aux exigences énoncées à ces paragraphes lorsqu'elle prend et soumet un texte législatif modificatif.

7. Conformité aux articles 6 et 8 de la Loi

La première nation qui soumet un texte législatif modificatif pour examen et agrément peut demander d'être exemptée de l'application des paragraphes 6(1) et 8(1) de la Loi en présentant par écrit à la Commission une demande à cet effet avec les raisons à l'appui :

a) soit au moment de soumettre le texte législatif modificatif pour examen et agrément;

b) soit avant de prendre le texte législatif modificatif, pourvu qu'une copie du projet de ce texte accompagne la demande.

8. Décisions relatives aux exemptions visées aux paragraphes 6(2) et 8(2) de la Loi

8.1 Lorsque la Commission reçoit une demande d'exemption au titre des paragraphes 6(2) et 8(2) de la Loi conjointement avec une demande d'examen et d'agrément d'un texte législatif modificatif, elle traite la demande d'exemption avant d'entreprendre le processus d'examen et d'agrément.

8.2 Sans que soit limité le pouvoir discrétionnaire de la Commission, celle-ci peut considérer les éléments suivants comme faisant partie de la décision qu'elle prend en vertu des paragraphes 6(2) et 8(2) de la Loi :

a) le fait que les modifications sont ou non uniquement de nature technique ou typographique;

b) le fait que les modifications sont nécessaires ou non pour rendre le texte législatif original conforme à la Loi ou aux normes;

c) la nature et l'ampleur des répercussions sur les contribuables, les membres de la première nation ou d'autres personnes qui peuvent être touchées par le texte législatif modificatif.

8.3 Lorsque la Commission accorde une exemption en vertu des paragraphes 6(2) ou 8(2) de la Loi :

a) elle peut entreprendre immédiatement le processus d'examen et de décision sur l'agrément, si la première nation a soumis conjointement le texte législatif modificatif pour examen et agrément;

b) sinon, elle avise la première nation de l'exemption afin que celle-ci puisse procéder à la prise du texte législatif modificatif proposé.

9. Avis aux personnes qui présentent des observations au titre de l'article 7

Lorsqu'elle reçoit des observations écrites conformément à l'article 7 de la Loi, la Commission :

a) avise la personne qui a présenté ces observations qu'elle les a reçues;

b) avise cette personne de sa décision sur l'agrément du texte législatif.

10. Avis et certificat d'agrément

10.1 Si la Commission agrée le texte législatif, elle avise la première nation de sa décision et lui remet un certificat d'agrément.

10.2 Si la Commission décide de ne pas agréer le texte législatif, elle avise la première nation de sa décision.

PARTIE VII
ENTRÉE EN VIGUEUR

La présente procédure est établie et entre en vigueur le 10 juin 2009.

Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Bigstone Cree First Nation in the Province of Alberta,

Bigstone Cree First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 10th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

BIGSTONE CREE FIRST NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Bigstone Cree First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Bigstone Cree First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by paragraph 10(b) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Bigstone Cree First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation Bylaw;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Bigstone Cree First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

"Taxation Law" means the Bigstone Cree First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016 and ending December 31, 2016 is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017 and ending December 31, 2017 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 8, and section 10, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

10. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 19 day of May, 2016 at Wabasca in the Province of Alberta.

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, which include for greater certainty the inherent treaty and aboriginal right to self-determination, as well as section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands;

B. The Council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation deems it to be in the best interests of the First Nation to make a law for such purposes;

C. The Council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation has given notice of this law and has considered any representations received by the Council, in accordance with the requirements of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act; and

D. Nothing in this Law is to be construed to assert or affect in any way any treaty or aboriginal rights of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation, or to limit, derogate from, expand or recognize any treaty or aboriginal rights of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

PART I
CITATION

1. This Law may be cited as the Beaver Lake Cree Nation Property Assessment Law, 2016.

"taxes" includes

(a) all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under the Taxation Law, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under the Taxation Law, and

(b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any other local revenue law of the First Nation, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a law.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(2)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 6(3)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3. (1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5. (1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) An assessment must be an estimate of the value of an interest in land on July 1 of the assessment year.

(3) For the purposes of assessing interests in land, the assessor must, in a fair and equitable manner,

(a) follow the procedures set out in the Provincial assessment legislation, or

(b) where there are no such procedures, the assessor must take into consideration assessments of property on the reserve that are similar to the property being assessed.

(4) Each assessment of non-linear property must reflect the

(a) characteristics and physical condition of the interest in land on December 31 of the assessment year; and

(b) valuation standard that would apply under the Provincial regulations for that interest in land if it were located off the reserve.

(5) Each assessment of a railway must be based on a report provided by December 31 to the First Nation by the holder or the person that operates the railway, showing the

(a) amount of land on the reserve occupied by the railway for roadway; and

(b) amount of land on the reserve occupied by the railway for purposes other than roadway.

(6) If the person who received the request does not provide the report required by subsection (5), the assessor must prepare the assessment using whatever information is available about the railway.

(7) Unless subsection (6) applies, an assessment must be prepared for an improvement whether or not it is complete or capable of being used for its intended purpose.

(8) No assessment is to be prepared for

(a) linear property that is under construction but not completed on or before October 31 of the assessment year, unless it is capable of being used for the transmission of gas, oil or electricity;

(b) new improvements that are intended to be used for or in connection with a manufacturing or processing operation and are not completed or in operation on or before December 31 of the assessment year; or

(c) new improvements that are intended to be used for the storage of materials manufactured or processed by the improvements referred to in paragraph (b), if the improvements are not completed or in operation on or before December 31 of the assessment year.

(9) Each assessment of linear property must reflect

(a) the valuation standard that would apply under the Provincial regulations for that interest in land if it were located off the reserve; and

(b) the specifications and characteristics of the linear property on October 31 of the assessment year in respect of the linear property, as contained in

(i) the records of the Alberta Utilities Commission, the Energy Resources Conservation Board or the Alberta Energy Regulator or any of their respective predecessors or successors; or

(ii) the report requested by the assessor under subsection (10).

(10) If the assessor considers it necessary, the assessor may request the holder or the operator of linear property to provide a report relating to that property setting out the information requested by the assessor.

(11) On receiving a request under subsection (10), the person who received the request must provide the report not later than December 31 of the assessment year.

(12) If the person who received the request does not provide the report in accordance with subsection (11), the assessor must prepare the assessment using whatever information is available about the linear property.

(13) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(14) The assessor must provide, to any holder of assessable property who requests it, sufficient information to show how the assessor prepared the assessment of that person's interest in land.

(15) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, standards, rates, rules and formulas established under Provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules, practices and guidelines used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Property Classes

6. (1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) When preparing an assessment of property, the assessor must assign one or more of the property classes to the property.

(4) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

PART V
REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

7. (1) The assessor may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide the requested information to the assessor within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery, or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

8. (1) After giving reasonable notice to the holder of any property, an assessor may at any reasonable time, for the purpose of preparing an assessment of the property or determining if the property is to be assessed,

(a) enter on and inspect the property,

(b) request anything to be produced to assist the assessor in preparing the assessment or determining if the property is to be assessed; and

(c) make copies of anything necessary to the inspection.

(2) A person must provide, on request by the assessor, any information necessary for the assessor to prepare an assessment or determine of property is to be assessed.

PART VI
ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

9. (1) On or before April 15 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

Certification by Assessor

10. On completion of an assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

11. (1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll to correct errors and omissions, reflect reconsideration decisions and implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment roll is amended under this Law, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

(3) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to an order or direction of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to give any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

13. (1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule II

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14. (1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under section 14 or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15. (1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

16. (1) The assessor must, on or before May 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice, to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) If there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on an Assessment Notice, the assessor may prepare and send an amended Assessment Notice to all persons named on the assessment roll in respect of that interest in land.

(7) Subject to subsection 13(2) and subsection (8), the assessor must provide to any person who requests it the information contained in the current Assessment Notice.

(8) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (7).

(9) The Assessment Notice and the Tax Notice required under the Taxation Law relating to the same property may be mailed together or combined into one notice.

PART VII
CORRECTIONS TO ASSESSMENT ROLL

Corrections to Assessment Roll

17. (1) Where the assessor determines that:

(a) there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the assessment roll,

(b) no assessment has been prepared for an assessable property, or

(c) property that was exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law has become taxable or taxable property has become exempt from taxation, the assessor must make the necessary correction or amendment to the assessment roll and mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(2) The assessor must not make an amendment to the assessment roll after December 31 of the current taxation year.

Supplementary Assessments

18. (1) The assessor must prepare supplementary assessments for machinery and equipment used in manufacturing and processing if those improvements are completed or begin to operate during the taxation year.

(2) The assessor must prepare supplementary assessments for other improvements if

(a) they are completed in the taxation year;

(b) they are occupied during all or any part of the taxation year; or

(c) they are moved onto the reserve during the taxation year.

(3) A supplementary assessment must reflect the

(a) value of an improvement that has not been previously assessed; or

(b) increase in the value of an improvement since it was last assessed.

(4) Supplementary assessments must be prepared in the same manner as assessments prepared under this Law, but must be prorated to reflect only the number of months during which the improvement is complete, occupied, in operation or located on the reserve, including the whole of the first month in which the improvement was completed, occupied, began to operate or was moved onto the reserve.

(5) The assessor must prepare a supplementary assessment roll on or before December 31 in the taxation year in which supplementary assessments are prepared.

(6) A supplementary assessment roll must include the same information required to be shown on the assessment roll, and the date that the improvement

(a) was completed, occupied, or moved onto the reserve, or

(b) began to operate.

(7) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessments and assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessments and supplementary assessment rolls.

(8) The assessor must, no later than December 31 in the taxation year in which a supplementary assessment roll is prepared,

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) prepare a supplementary Assessment Notice for every assessed improvement shown on the supplementary assessment roll; and

(c) mail a supplementary Assessment Notice to every person named on the supplementary assessment roll in respect of each assessed improvement affected.

(9) A supplementary Assessment Notice must contain the information

(a) set out in Schedule IV; and

(b) required under subsection (6).

(10) For clarity, this section does not apply to linear property and the assessor must not prepare supplementary assessments for linear property.

PART VIII
RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

19. (1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within twenty-one (21) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX
ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

20. (1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a practicing or non-practising member in good standing of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

21. (1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair for his or her services at a rate of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00) per day, and

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than the chair at a rate of five hundred dollars ($500.00) per day, for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board, including a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

22. (1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

23. (1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must:

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

24. (1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

25. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

26. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X
APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

27. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

28. (1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal;

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within forty-five (45) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) An appeal is commenced by delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor at the address set out in the Assessment Notice.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an assessment amended under section 17, the appeal must be confined to the amendment.

(5) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment under section 18, the appeal must be confined to the supplementary assessment.

(6) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

29. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

30. (1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least ten (10) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

32. The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

33. Subject to section 46, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

34. (1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

35. (1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

36. (1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

37. (1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

38. (1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there shall not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

39. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

40. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

41. (1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

42. (1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board, by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

43. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

44. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

45. (1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

46. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

47. (1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

48. (1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the day on which a hearing is completed, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the assessor on request and payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10).

(3) The assessor may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to the assessment roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

49. (1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the first nation's administrative office, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

50. (1) An appeal lies to a court of competent jurisdiction from a decision of the Assessment Review Board on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be made within thirty (30) days after the day on which the decision is delivered under subsection 48(1).

PART XI
EXTENSION OF DEADLINES

Extension of Deadlines

51. (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this Law, the provisions set out in this section apply to the 2016 taxation year.

(2) The taxation year for 2016 is from the date this Law comes into force until December 31, 2016.

(3) Under subsection 9(1), the assessor must complete a new assessment roll on or before September 23, 2016.

(4) Under subsection 16(1), the assessor must mail Assessment Notices on or before October 3, 2016.

PART XII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

52. (1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

53. Notwithstanding section 52,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, indlucing statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

54. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

55. (1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

56. (1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

57. This Law comes into force and effect the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 18 day of July, 2016, at the Beaver Lake Cree Nation, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of three (3) members of Council.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3. (1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5. (1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraphs 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity, penalties, interest and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6. (1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7. (1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property, other than a student dormitory, used in connection with school purposes, not operated for profit;

(d) property held by a religious body and used chiefly for divine service, public worship or religious education, and any property held by the religious body and used only as a parking area in connection with these purposes;

(e) property, other than a student dormitory, used in connection with a hospital, not operated for profit;

(f) property, other than a student dormitory, used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit;

(g) property used to provide housing accommodation for senior citizens, not operated for profit; and

(h) property consisting of the following:

(i) land, to a maximum of 10 hectares, that is used as a cemetery; and

(ii) any improvement on land described in subparagraph (i) that is used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

(3) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(c) to (h) apply only to that portion of a property that is used for the purposes for which the exemption is given.

(4) Where a property contains one or more parts that are exempt from taxation, the taxes are recoverable against the entire property.

PART VI
GRANTS

Annual Grants

8. (1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder if the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements and offsets; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

9. (1) On or before May 15 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

10. (1) Taxes are due and payable on or before June 30 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order, electronic bank transfer or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Beaver Lake Cree Nation.

PART VIII
TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

11. (1) On or before May 15 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) An error, omission or misdescription on the tax roll does not invalidate any other information on the tax roll or the tax roll itself.

Annual Tax Notices

12. (1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(6) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice required under the Assessment Law relating to the same property may be mailed together or may be combined into one notice.

(7) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on a Tax Notice, the tax administrator may prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection (1).

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

13. (1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law the tax administrator must amend the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(2) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the tax roll

(a) the tax administrator may correct the tax roll for the current taxation year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll, the tax administrator must mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(3) If it is discovered that no tax has been imposed on a taxable property, the First Nation may impose the tax for the current year only and the tax administrator must prepare and send a Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(4) If property that was exempt from taxation becomes taxable or taxable property becomes exempt from taxation, the tax administrator must correct the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(5) Where the taxable status of a property changes, the tax imposed in respect of it must be prorated so that the tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is not exempt.

(6) The tax administrator must record on the tax roll the date of every entry made under this section.

(7) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

(8) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes, and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Supplementary Taxes

14. (1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is prepared under the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must prepare a supplementary tax roll, which may be a continuation of the supplementary assessment roll or may be separate from that roll.

(2) A supplementary tax roll must show

(a) the same information that is required to be shown on the tax roll; and

(b) the date for determining the tax that may be imposed on the improvements.

(3) The tax administrator must, no later than December 31 in the taxation year in which a supplementary tax roll is prepared,

(a) prepare supplementary Tax Notices for all taxable property shown on the supplementary tax roll; and

(b) send the supplementary Tax Notices to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(4) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

Subdivision

15. (1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before a Tax Notice is mailed in respect of that property, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under the Assessment Law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor must provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

16. (1) The tax administrator may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide the requested information to the tax administrator within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX
PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

17. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

18. (1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X
PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalties

19. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to the part of the taxes.

Interest

20. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at one percent (1%) per month or portion of month, compounded monthly, and the interest added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Application of Payments

21. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including penalties and interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes, including interest, for the current taxation year.

PART XI
REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

22. (1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed in a special account or accounts, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including for clarity, penalties, interest and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 3.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

23. (1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, money in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the money and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation, the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII
COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

24. (1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

25. (1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

26. (1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

27. (1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII
SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

28. (1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

29. (1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

30. (1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

31. (1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 30(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

32. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

33. (1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV
SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

34. (1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

35. (1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 39(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

36. (1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

37. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

38. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 39(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(a) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(b) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

39. (1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 36(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

40. (1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 39(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 39(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

41. (1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

42. (1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 36(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

43. (1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
EXTENSION OF DEADLINES AND PRORATED TAX LEVY

Extension of Deadlines and Prorated Tax Levy

44. (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this Law, the provisions set out in this section apply to the 2016 taxation year.

(2) The taxation year for 2016 is from the date this Law comes into force until December 31, 2016.

(3) Under subsection 9(1), the Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class on or before September 30, 2016.

(4) The taxes determined under subsection 9(3) must be pro-rated to the number of days in the 2016 taxation year, using the following formula:

$$(\text{tax rate} \times \text{assessed value}) \times \frac{\text{(\# days in 2016 taxation year)}}{365}$$

(5) Under subsection 9(4), taxes levied under this Law in the 2016 taxation year are deemed to be imposed on the date this Law comes into force.

(6) A minimum tax must not be established for the 2016 taxation year.

(7) Under subsection 10(1), taxes are due and payable on or before November 2, 2016.

(8) Under subsection 11(1), the tax administrator must create a tax roll on or before October 3, 2016.

(9) Under subsection 12(1), the tax administrator must mail Tax Notices on or before October 3, 2016.

(10) Under section 19, the date after which penalties will become payable on unpaid taxes is November 2, 2016

(11) Under section 20, the date after which interest will be levied on unpaid taxes is November 2, 2016.

PART XVII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

45. (1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that section.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

46. Notwithstanding section 45,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form; and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

47. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

48. (1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

49. (1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

50. (1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 18 day of July, 2016, at the Beaver Lake Cree Nation, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of three (3) members of Council.

SCHEDULE VIII

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____

(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____

(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to section 35 of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

(a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

(b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, penalties and interest payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Beaver Lake Cree Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Enoch Cree Nation in the Province of Alberta,

Enoch Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 15th day of November, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

ENOCH CREE NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a First Nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Enoch Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Enoch Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Enoch First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2016;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Enoch Cree Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Enoch Cree Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

3. The First Nation's annual property tax budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017 is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized, and for the interim budget year beginning April 1, 2017 and ending March 31, 2018, the schedule will also serve as the interim budget.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

5. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

6. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

8. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

9. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

10.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

11. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 29th day of July, 2016, at Enoch, in the Province of Alberta.

(b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any other local revenue law of the First Nation, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a law.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(2)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 5(3)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) An assessment must be an estimate of the value of an interest in land on July 1 of the assessment year.

(3) For the purposes of assessing interests in land, the assessor must, in a fair and equitable manner,

(a) follow the procedures set out in the Provincial assessment legislation, or

(b) where there are no such procedures, the assessor must take into consideration assessments of property on the reserve that are similar to the property being assessed.

(4) Each assessment of non-linear property must reflect the

(a) characteristics and physical condition of the interest in land on December 31 of the assessment year; and

(b) valuation standard that would apply under the Provincial regulations for that interest in land if it were located off the reserve.

(5) Each assessment of a railway must be based on a report provided by December 31 to the First Nation by the holder or the person that operates the railway, showing the

(a) amount of land on the reserve occupied by the railway for roadway; and

(b) amount of land on the reserve occupied by the railway for purposes other than roadway.

(6) If the person who received the request does not provide the report required by subsection (5), the assessor must prepare the assessment using whatever information is available about the railway.

(7) Unless subsection (6) applies, an assessment must be prepared for an improvement whether or not it is complete or capable of being used for its intended purpose.

(8) No assessment is to be prepared for

(a) linear property that is under construction but not completed on or before October 31 of the assessment year, unless it is capable of being used for the transmission of gas, oil or electricity;

(b) new improvements that are intended to be used for or in connection with a manufacturing or processing operation and are not completed or in operation on or before December 31 of the assessment year; or

(c) new improvements that are intended to be used for the storage of materials manufactured or processed by the improvements referred to in paragraph (b), if the improvements are not completed or in operation on or before December 31 of the assessment year.

(9) Each assessment of linear property must reflect

(a) the valuation standard that would apply under the Provincial regulations for that interest in land if it were located off the reserve; and

(b) the specifications and characteristics of the linear property on October 31 of the assessment year in respect of the linear property, as contained in

(i) the records of the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board; or

(ii) the report requested by the assessor under subsection (10).

(10) If the assessor considers it necessary, the assessor may request the holder or the operator of linear property to provide a report relating to that property setting out the information requested by the assessor.

(11) On receiving a request under subsection (10), the person who received the request must provide the report not later than December 31 of the assessment year.

(12) If the person who received the request does not provide the report in accordance with subsection (11), the assessor must prepare the assessment using whatever information is available about the linear property.

(13) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(14) The assessor must provide, to any holder of assessable property who requests it, sufficient information to show how the assessor prepared the assessment of that person's property.

(15) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, standards, rates, rules and formulas established under Provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules, practices and guidelines used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Property Classes

6.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) When preparing an assessment of property, the assessor must assign one or more of the property classes to the property.

(4) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

7.(1) The assessor may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide the requested information to the assessor within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery, or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

8.(1) After giving reasonable notice to the holder of any property, an assessor may at any reasonable time, for the purpose of preparing an assessment of the property or determining if the property is to be assessed,

(a) enter on and inspect the property,

(b) request anything to be produced to assist the assessor in preparing the assessment or determining if the property is to be assessed; and

(c) make copies of anything necessary to the inspection.

(2) A person must provide, on request by the assessor, any information necessary for the assessor to prepare an assessment or determine if property is to be assessed.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

9.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For greater certainty, an assessment roll prepared under the enactment repealed by section 56 is and continues to be an assessment roll under this Law and must be used until such time as the next assessment roll is prepared and certified in accordance with this Law.

Certification by Assessor

10. On completion of an assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

11.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll to correct errors and omissions, reflect reconsideration decisions and implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment roll is amended under this Law, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

(3) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to an order or direction of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to give any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

13.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

15.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under section 13 or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The tax administrator [assessor] must, on or before May 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice, to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the tax administrator [assessor].

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the tax administrator [assessor] of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) If there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on an Assessment Notice, the tax administrator [assessor] may prepare and send an amended Assessment Notice to all persons named on the assessment roll in respect of that interest in land.

(7) Subject to subsection 13(2) and subsection (8), the tax administrator [assessor] must provide to any person who requests it the information contained in the current Assessment Notice.

(8) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (7).

(9) The Assessment Notice and the Tax Notice required under the Taxation Law relating to the same property may be mailed together or combined into one notice.

PART VII

CORRECTIONS TO ASSESSMENT ROLL

Corrections to Assessment Roll

17.(1) Where the assessor determines that

(a) there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the assessment roll,

(b) no assessment has been prepared for an assessable property, or

(c) property that was exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law has become taxable or taxable property has become exempt from taxation,

the assessor must make the necessary correction or amendment to the assessment roll and mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(2) The assessor must not make an amendment to the assessment roll after December 31 of the current taxation year.

Supplementary Assessments

18.(1) The assessor must prepare supplementary assessments for machinery and equipment used in manufacturing and processing if those improvements are completed or begin to operate during the taxation year.

(2) The assessor must prepare supplementary assessments for other improvements if

(a) they are completed in the taxation year;

(b) they are occupied during all or any part of the taxation year; or

(c) they are moved onto the reserve during the taxation year.

(3) A supplementary assessment must reflect the

(a) value of an improvement that has not been previously assessed; or

(b) increase in the value of an improvement since it was last assessed.

(4) Supplementary assessments must be prepared in the same manner as assessments prepared under this Law, but must be prorated to reflect only the number of months during which the improvement is complete, occupied, in operation or located on the reserve, including the whole of the first month in which the improvement was completed, occupied, began to operate or was moved onto the reserve.

(5) The assessor must prepare a supplementary assessment roll on or before December 31 in the taxation year in which supplementary assessments are prepared.

(6) A supplementary assessment roll must include the same information required to be shown on the assessment roll, and the date that the improvement

(a) was completed, occupied, or moved onto the reserve, or

(b) began to operate.

(7) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessments and assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessments and supplementary assessment rolls.

(8) The assessor must, no later than December 31 in the taxation year in which a supplementary assessment roll is prepared,

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) prepare a supplementary Assessment Notice for every assessed improvement shown on the supplementary assessment roll; and

(c) mail a supplementary Assessment Notice to every person named on the supplementary assessment roll in respect of each assessed improvement affected.

(9) A supplementary Assessment Notice must contain the information

(a) set out in Schedule IV; and

(b) required under subsection (6).

(10) For clarity, this section does not apply to linear property and the assessor must not prepare supplementary assessments for linear property.

PART VIII
RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

19.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within twenty-one (21) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

20.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a practising or non-practising member in good standing of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province and at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

21.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair for his or her services at a rate of One hundred dollars ($100.00) per hour,

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than those referenced in paragraph (a) at a rate of Seventy Five dollars ($75.00) per hour [or day], for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board, including a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

22.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

23.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

24.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

25. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

26. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

27. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

28.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within forty-five (45) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) An appeal is commenced by delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor at the address set out in the Assessment Notice.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an assessment amended under section 17, the appeal must be confined to the amendment.

(5) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment under section 18, the appeal must be confined to the supplementary assessment.

(6) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

29. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

30.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least ten (10) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

32. The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

33. Subject to section 46, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

34.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

35.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

36.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

37.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

38.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there shall not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

39. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

40. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

41.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

42.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

43. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

44. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

45.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

46. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

47.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

48.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, not more than ninety (90) days after the day on which a hearing is completed, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator [assessor] on request and payment of a fee of Twenty Five dollars ($25.00).

(3) The tax administrator [assessor] may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to the assessment roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

49.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the first nation's administrative office, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

50.(1) An appeal lies to a court of competent jurisdiction from a decision of the Assessment Review Board on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be made within thirty (30) days after the day on which the decision is delivered under subsection 48(1).

PART XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

51.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

52. Notwithstanding section 51,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

53. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

54.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

55.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

56. The Enoch Band Taxation and Business Licensing By-law as passed on September 15, 1986, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

57. This Law comes into force and effect the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 29th day of July, 2016, at Enoch Cree Nation in the Province of Alberta.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity, penalties, interest and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V

EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property, other than a student dormitory, used in connection with school purposes, not operated for profit;

(d) property held by a religious body and used chiefly for divine service, public worship or religious education, and any property held by the religious body and used only as a parking area in connection with these purposes;

(e) property, other than a student dormitory, used in connection with a hospital, not operated for profit;

(f) property, other than a student dormitory, used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit;

(g) property used to provide housing accommodation for senior citizens, not operated for profit; and

(h) property consisting of the following:

(i) land, to a maximum of 10 hectares, that is used as a cemetery; and

(ii) any improvement on land described in subparagraph (i) that is used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

(3) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(c) to (h) apply only to that portion of a property that is used for the purposes for which the exemption is given.

(4) Where a property contains one or more parts that are exempt from taxation, the taxes are recoverable against the entire property.

PART VI

GRANTS

Annual Grants

8.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(b) to promote economic development.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements and offsets; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law. All grants approved by Council must be approved by Council in meeting of Council and affirmed in a second meeting of Council with a time period of not less than 7 days between meetings.

PART VII

LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

9.(1) On or before May 28th in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

10.(1) Taxes are due and payable within thirty (30) days from the date of the Tax Notice given in respect of the taxes.

(2) Payments must be made at the offices of the Enoch Cree Nation, located at the Enoch Business Centre located on the Enoch Cree Nation Reserve during normal business hours. Payment must be by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payments maybe be made by mail addressed to the: 'Tax Administrator' at Box 539 Enoch Alberta, AB, T7X 3Y3. Payments are received as of the actual date of receipt.

(4) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Enoch Cree Nation.

PART VIII

TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

11.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) An error, omission or misdescription on the tax roll does not invalidate any other information on the tax roll or the tax roll itself.

Annual Tax Notices

12.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(6) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice required under the Assessment Law relating to the same property may be mailed together or may be combined into one notice.

(7) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on a Tax Notice, the tax administrator may prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection (1).

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

13.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law the tax administrator must amend the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(2) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the tax roll

(a) the tax administrator may correct the tax roll for the current taxation year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll, the tax administrator must mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(3) If it is discovered that no tax has been imposed on a taxable property, the First Nation may impose the tax for the current year only and the tax administrator must prepare and send a Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(4) If property that was exempt from taxation becomes taxable or taxable property becomes exempt from taxation, the tax administrator must correct the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(5) Where the taxable status of a property changes, the tax imposed in respect of it must be prorated so that the tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is not exempt.

(6) The tax administrator must record on the tax roll the date of every entry made under this section.

(7) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.

(8) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes, and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Supplementary Taxes

14.(1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is prepared under the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must prepare a supplementary tax roll, which may be a continuation of the supplementary assessment roll or may be separate from that roll.

(2) A supplementary tax roll must show:

(a) the same information that is required to be shown on the tax roll; and

(b) the date for determining the tax that may be imposed on the improvements.

(3) The tax administrator must, no later than December 31 in the taxation year in which a supplementary tax roll is prepared,

(a) prepare supplementary Tax Notices for all taxable property shown on the supplementary tax roll; and

(b) send the supplementary Tax Notices to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 12(1).

(4) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

Subdivision

15.(1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before a Tax Notice is mailed in respect of that property, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under the Assessment Law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor must provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

16.(1) The tax administrator may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide the requested information to the tax administrator within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

17. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

18.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalties

19. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

20. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at one percent (1%) per month or portion of month, compounded monthly, and the interest added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Application of Payments

21. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including penalties and interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes, including interest, for the current taxation year.

PART XI

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

22.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed in a special account or accounts, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including for clarity, penalties, interest and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

23.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, money in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the money and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation,

the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

24.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

25.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

26.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

27.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

28.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

29.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

30.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

31.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 30(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

32. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

33.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

34.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

35.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 39(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

36.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

37. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

38. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 39(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

39.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 36(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

40.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 39(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 39(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

41.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

42.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 36(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV

DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

43.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

44.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that section.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

45. Notwithstanding section 44,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

46. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

47.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

48.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

49.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

50. Repeal The Enoch Band Taxation and Business Licensing By-law as passed on September 15, 1986, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the later of _____ and the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

[general description of the personal property to be seized].

2. The tax administrator may retain a sheriff, bailiff or bylaw enforcement officer to seize the property and the seized property will be held in the possession of the tax administrator, at your cost, such cost being added to the amount of the unpaid taxes.

3. If the unpaid taxes, penalties, interest and costs of seizure are not paid in full within sixty (60) days following the seizure of the property, the tax administrator may

(a) publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the _____ newspaper; and

(b) at any time after the second publication of the notice, sell the seized property by public auction.

AND TAKE NOTICE that the tax administrator will conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice will be published.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO:

(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____

(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to Part XIV of the Enoch Cree Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [or auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [or auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Enoch Cree Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, penalties and interest payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [or auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [or auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [or auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the _____ First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Enoch Cree Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the O'Chiese First Nation in the Province of Alberta,

O'Chiese First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 10th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

O'CHIESE FIRST NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the O'Chiese First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the O'Chiese First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the O'Chiese First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the O'Chiese First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"Taxation Law" means the O'Chiese First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016 and ending December 31, 2016 is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017 and ending December 31, 2017 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 7, and all of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 11th day of July, 2016 at Tsuutina in the Province of Alberta.

(a) for the production of oil or gas,

(b) for injection to an underground formation,

(c) as an evaluation well or test hole, or

(d) to or at a depth of more than 150 metres, for any purpose,

but does not include one to discover or evaluate a solid inorganic mineral and that does not or will not penetrate a stratum capable of containing a pool or oil sands deposit.

(2) Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Act.

(3) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 5(3)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to oversee the administration and enforcement of this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and such other duties assigned to the tax administrator by the First Nation from time to time.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

PART IV
TAX LIABILITY AND LEVY

Tax Liability

4.(1) This Law applies to all business operators and every business operator is subject to a business activity tax in accordance with this Law.

(2) A business activity tax is levied and imposed on the business operator's use and occupation of the reserve for the drilling of one (1) or more Wells, including deepening of an existing Well, and must be paid by the business operator in accordance with this Law.

(3) A person on whom a tax is imposed under this Law is liable for the tax even if

(a) that person is also liable to pay property taxes imposed under other property taxation laws of the First Nation; or

(b) a holder of an interest in the same property is exempt from tax under this Law or any other property taxation law enacted by the First Nation.

(4) Where there is more than one business operator engaging in the drilling of a Well, each business operator is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all business activity taxes imposed under this Law in respect of that Well.

(5) Business activity taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) Business activity taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding that a complaint or other proceeding respecting the taxes is pending.

Tax Rates and Levy

5.(1) The tax rates to be applied are the rates that are established from time to time by regulations made under section 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act.

(2) For clarity, the rates established as set out in subsection (1) include any minimum tax amount set in those regulations.

(3) As an exception to subsection (1), if at any time there are no regulations in force and effect under section 390(1) of the Alberta Municipal Government Act, the tax rates are those that were most recently set out in such regulations.

(4) The business activity tax is calculated by multiplying the depth of each Well drilled during the reporting period, as set out in the Activity Report, by the applicable tax rate.

(5) The business activity tax must be levied at least once in each taxation year.

(6) For clarity, a Well is subject to only one business activity tax levy, except that where a Well is later expanded it must be subject to an additional business activity tax levy, calculated by determining the tax applicable for the expanded Well and subtracting the business activity taxes previously paid for that Well.

PART V
TAX NOTICE AND PAYMENT

Reporting Period

6. The tax administrator must set one (1) or more reporting periods to apply in a taxation year, provided that each reporting period must be at least three (3) consecutive months.

Tax Notice

7.(1) At the end of each reporting period, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to each business operator that has undertaken any drilling of a Well during that reporting period.

(2) The tax administrator must determine the business activity taxes owing by each business operator for the reporting period by using the information contained in all Activity Reports applicable to that reporting period.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If at any time the tax administrator determines that there has been an error or omission in a Tax Notice, the tax administrator may issue and mail an amended Tax Notice to the business operator, and any additional taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given sixty (60) days to pay those taxes and interest and penalties must not be added in that period.

Tax Payment

8.(1) Taxes are due and payable within sixty (60) days from the date of the Tax Notice given in respect of the taxes.

(2)Payments must be made at the offices of the O'Chiese First Nation, located at the O'Chiese Business Centre located on the O'Chiese First Nation Reserve during normal business hours. Payment must be by cheque, money order or cash.

(3)Payments may also be made by mail addressed to the: 'Tax Administrator' at Box 2127, Rocky Mountain House, AB, T4T 1B6. Payments are received as of the actual date of receipt.

(4)Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the O'Chiese First Nation.

Tax Refunds

9.(1) Where a business operator is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) As an exception to subsection (1), if further business activity taxes payable by the business operator are due or accruing due, the tax administrator may apply the amount of the overpayment to those taxes provided notice is given to the business operator.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

Receipts for Payments

10. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the business operator and must keep a record of all Tax Notices issued, and all payments made and receipts issued in respect of that business operator.

Records, Request for Information and Inspections

11.(1) A business operator must maintain accurate and complete books of account and other records containing all the information necessary to enable the First Nation to verify the business operator's drilling of Wells on the reserve and compliance with this Law.

(2) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information requesting that a current or former business operator, or other person who may have information relevant to the administration of this Law, provide to the tax administrator information or documentation that relates to the administration of this Law, including the information required to be kept under subsection (1), and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, the requested information.

Inspections

12.(1) A person authorized by the First Nation may during normal business hours enter onto property on the reserve to

(a) determine whether or not

(i) a person is a business operator,

(ii) the person is engaged in drilling a Well, or

(iii) this Law is being and has been complied with; and

(b) inspect, audit and examine books of account and records related to drilling on the reserve.

(2) As part of an inspection under this section, the holder must give access to the books of accounts and other records required to be kept by this Law, and allow the First Nation to take copies and extracts as necessary, and the holder must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI
PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalty

13. If all or part of the taxes are not paid as required by subsection 8(1), a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

14. If all or any portion of the business activity taxes are not paid as required by subsection 8(1), the unpaid portion accrues interest at fifteen percent (15%) per year.

Tax Collection and Enforcement

15.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 4(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule V; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes..

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under this Part the tax administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

16.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under this Part and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

17.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the property of the business operator located on reserve and attach to the property of the business operator.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the property.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

18.(1) This section applies to this Part.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

19.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

20.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 19(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale in the form as set out in Schedule VI.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

21.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in the form set out in Schedule VII in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

22.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 21(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

23. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

24.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART VII
COMPLAINTS TO TAX ADMINISTRATOR

Complaints to Tax Administrator

25.(1) A business operator may, within thirty (30) days of the date of a business tax notice, deliver a complaint to the tax administrator in the form set out in Schedule III, in respect of an error or omission in the business tax notice.

(2) Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a complaint, the tax administrator must review the matter and attempt to resolve the complaint.

(3) If the tax administrator concludes that there was an error or omission in the business tax notice, the tax administrator must mail an amended business tax notice correcting the error or omission.

(4) Where the tax administrator mails an amended business tax notice, subsection 7(4) and section 9 apply.

(5) The tax administrator must advise Council of each complaint received under this section, including the nature of the complaint and the resolution of the complaint, if any.

PART VIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Revenues and Expenditures

26. Business activity taxes collected by the First Nation must be placed in the local revenue account of the First Nation and expended only in accordance with an expenditure law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Disclosure of Information

27.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in court proceedings or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

28. Notwithstanding section 27, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

29. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a determination made by the First Nation or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a Tax Notice or other notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation or the tax administrator to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

30.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit described in this section, then money paid to the First Nation is deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

31.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the business premises;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property or the business premises; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the business premises.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

32.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

33. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression "must" is to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least ten (10) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"entity" means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the chief financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the band manager and the chief financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The band manager or the chief financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the band manager or the chief financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the band manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

(c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

(d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;

(e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;

(f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

(h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;

(b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;

(c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;

(d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;

(e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;

(f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;

(g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

(j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;

(k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

(l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Band Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as band manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the band manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;

(b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;

(c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the band manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;

(d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;

(e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;

(f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;

(g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;

(h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(i) to perform any other duties of the band manager under this Law; and

(j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the band manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The band manager may assign the performance of any of the band manager's duties or functions

(a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the band manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Chief financial officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as chief financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the band manager, the chief financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the chief financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the band manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the chief financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the band manager, the chief financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the chief financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the chief financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the chief financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

(a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;

(b) to recommend to the chief financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;

(c) to recommend to the chief financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;

(d) on request, to provide advice to the band manager, chief financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;

(e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and

(f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the band manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

(a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;

(b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

(c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,

(ii) the band manager, the chief financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the band manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the band manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the chief financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the chief financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution; and

(c) authorized by the band manager or the chief financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);

(b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

(c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and

(e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The chief financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The chief financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The band manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the band manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure oflocal revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The band manager or the chief financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the band manager or chief financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the band manager or the chief financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The band manager or the chief financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account;

(b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and

(c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the chief financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the chief financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the chief financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the band manager or the chief financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the chief financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the chief financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 105;

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the chief financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or

(e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

(a) government transfer funds;

(b) local revenues; and

(c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the chief financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the chief financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the band manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the band manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The chief financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the chief financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the chief financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The chief financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the chief financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The chief financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the chief financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The chief financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within ninety (90) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) The chief financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The chief financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);

(e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and

(f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenuesreferred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the chief financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

(a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or

(b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The band manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the band manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The band manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The band manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the chief financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the band manager must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The band manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the band manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the chief financial officer must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The band manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the band manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

(a) the First Nation is

(i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or

(ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the band manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the band manager under subsection 101(3), the band manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the band manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The band manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 5th day of December, 2016, at Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of four (4) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

"spouse" means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

"this Law" means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a "conflict of interest" when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an "apparent conflict of interest" if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual's private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual's "private interests" means the individual's personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual's spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the band manager:

(a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The band manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the band manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the band manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The band manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the band manager or, in the case of the band manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the band manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the band manager or, in the case of the band manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Siksika Nation in the Province of Alberta,

Siksika Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 27th day of May, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

SIKSIKA NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the SIKSIKA NATION duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Siksika Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Siksika Nation Property Assessment Law, 2015;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Siksika Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Siksika Nation Property Taxation Law, 2015.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) all of Part 2 of the Schedule, except section 4.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 17th day of May, 2016, at Siksika, in the Province of AB.

A quorum of Council consists of seven (7) members of Council.

SIKSIKA NATION

ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the SIKSIKA NATION duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Siksika First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Siksika Nation Property Assessment Law, 2015;

"First Nation" means the SIKSIKA NATION, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

ʔAKISQ̓NUK FIRST NATION

BORROWING AGREEMENT
(Property Tax Revenues)

This Borrowing Agreement, hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement", is made the ___ day of _____, 2016

BETWEEN:

FIRST NATIONS FINANCE AUTHORITY, a non-profit corporation with a head office at 202-3500 Carrington Road, Westbank, British Columbia

(the "Authority")

AND

ʔAKISQ̓NUK FIRST NATION, being a band named in the schedule to the Act, (referred to as "ʔAKISQ̓NUK FIRST NATION" in the schedule to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9), with an office at 3050 Hwy 93/95, Windermere, B.C., V0B 2L2 as represented by its Chief and Council,

(the "First Nation")

WHEREAS:

A. First Nations have lacked the institutional framework by which to gain access to private capital at affordable rates;

B. The Act creates a mechanism of financing for First Nations;

C. Section 58 of the Act creates the Authority as a non-profit corporation without share capital;

D. One of the purposes of the Authority under paragraph 74(a) of the Act is to secure for its Borrowing Members, through the use of Property Tax Revenues, long-term financing of capital infrastructure for the provision of local services on reserve lands;

E. Section 75 of the Act gives the FNFA Board powers in relation to the issuance of securities;

F. The Authority reviews outstanding requests for financing from Borrowing Members and, in consideration of the relevant market and economic conditions, authorizes the issue and sale of securities to raise a specified amount in the manner determined by the FNFA Board;

G. The Authority can provide Interim Long Term Financing to Borrowing Members in anticipation of including the applicable Borrowing Member's financing request in an issue of debt securities by the Authority;

H. The Act sets out a procedure for First Nations to become Borrowing Members of the Authority;

I. The Act also sets out the requirements for Borrowing Members to enact Borrowing Laws and to obtain the necessary certifications and approvals as part of the borrowing process;

J. The First Nation is a Borrowing Member of the Authority;

K. The First Nation, as part of the process of obtaining financing from the Authority, will enact one or more

Form of Borrowing Agreement

Borrowing Laws;

L. This Agreement sets out the contractual terms and conditions of the First Nation being a Borrowing Member and the contractual terms and conditions under which the Authority agrees to provide financing to the First Nation using the First Nation's Property Tax Revenues; and

M. The First Nation intends to use its Property Tax Revenues, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, to pay interest on and repay principal of financing provided by the Authority to the First Nation pursuant to this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, THE AUTHORITY AND THE FIRST NATION AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

Form of Borrowing Agreement

1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires, words and expressions used in this Agreement and not otherwise defined have the same meaning as in the Act.

1.3 Any computation of days or business hours in relation to borrowing under this Agreement shall be determined based on days and hours during which banks are open for general banking business in the Province of Ontario.

1.4 Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include the neuter, feminine and masculine genders.

1.5 The division of this Borrowing Agreement into articles (1), sections (1.1), paragraphs (1.1(a)), subparagraphs (1.1(a)(i)) and sub-subparagraphs (1.1(a)(i)(A)) and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

1.6 In the event that any day on or before which any action is required to be taken under this Agreement is not a Business Day, then such action shall be required to be taken on or before the requisite time on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day.

2.0 APPLICATION OF THE ACT

2.1 The Authority and the First Nation agree that the Act and this Agreement shall apply to the relationship between the Authority and the First Nation and to any borrowing by the First Nation from the Authority using Property Tax Revenues.

2.2 In the event of a conflict between the Act and this Agreement, the Act shall prevail to the extent of the conflict.

3.0 AUTHORIZATION FOR AGREEMENT AND THE FIRST NATION BORROWING

3.1 The First Nation and the Authority acknowledge and agree that entering into this Agreement establishing the contractual terms and conditions of the First Nation being a Borrowing Member and the contractual terms and conditions for borrowing from the Authority by the First Nation is authorized by the Borrowing Agreement Law and the contractual terms so established are in addition to any terms and conditions contained in a Borrowing Law, a Security Issuing Council Resolution, an Undertaking Agreement and a Promissory Note.

4.0 CONSIDERATION

4.1 In consideration of the Authority agreeing to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and agreeing to consider, under section 9.1, the First Nation's request for the Authority to raise monies to lend to the First Nation to finance a Capital Infrastructure Project by the issuance of securities, the First Nation agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4.2 Without limiting the generality of section 4.1, if the Authority provides financing to the First Nation in accordance with the Act, a Borrowing Law, or a Security Issuing Council Resolution for a Capital Infrastructure Project, the First Nation agrees to make payments as set out in the Promissory Note and this Agreement and to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

5.0 TERM OF AGREEMENT

5.1 This Agreement shall remain in force until the First Nation ceases to be a Borrowing Member under section 77 of the Act.

6.0 FIRST NATION REPRESENTATIONS & WARRANTIES

Form of Borrowing Agreement

6.1 The First Nation represents and warrants to the Authority as set forth in this section, and acknowledges that the Authority is relying on such representations and warranties without independent inquiry in entering into this Agreement:

(a) the Financial Administration Law has been approved by the Board and the First Nation has not repealed or amended its provisions without Board approval;

(b) before becoming a Borrowing Member, the First Nation obtained a Financial Management System Certificate or a Financial Performance Certificate and provided the Authority with a copy of the Financial Management System Certificate or Financial Performance Certificate and a copy of the Board's report given under subsection 50(2) of the Act in relation to that certificate;

(c) the First Nation has obtained all approvals necessary, including all approvals necessary from the Commission, to enact the Borrowing Agreement Law;

(d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance by the First Nation of its obligations in this Agreement and the transactions contemplated under this Agreement are all within the First Nation's powers, and have been duly authorized under the Borrowing Agreement Law;

(e) all information provided by or on behalf of the First Nation in writing to the Authority, Commission and Board in connection with this Agreement, the certification and approval of the First Nation becoming a Borrowing Member, and the enacting of the Borrowing Agreement Law was true and correct in all material respects as at the date such information was provided and was not misleading or deceptive in any material respect whether by its inclusion or by omission of any other information, and did not omit any material fact necessary in order to make such information not misleading, and any further information provided by the First Nation to the Authority, Commission and Board will be true and correct as at the date such information is provided to the Authority, Commission and Board and will not be misleading or deceptive in any material respect whether by its inclusion or by omission of any other information and will not omit any material fact necessary to make such information not misleading;

(f) all material financial transactions of the First Nation have been recorded by the First Nation and accurately reflect in all material respects the basis for the financial condition of the First Nation shown in the most recent audited consolidated annual financial statements and other information provided by the First Nation to the Authority, Commission and Board;

(g) no Material Adverse Change has occurred since the date of the First Nation's most recent audited consolidated annual financial statements, except as has been expressly disclosed in writing to the Authority, Commission and Board;

(h) there are no current or pending actions, suits, arbitrations, proceedings or claims, nor to the best of the First Nation's knowledge are any threatened, which in any such case could result in a Material Adverse Change;

(i) the First Nation is not in breach or violation in any material respect of any of the terms of any material agreement, contract, instrument, lease or other commitment to which it is a party which could result in a Material Adverse Change;

(j) the First Nation is in compliance in all material respects with its Financial Administration Law, Local Revenue Laws and all applicable standards of the Board and Commission in relation to any approvals or certifications issued by the Board or Commission;

(k) the First Nation is in compliance in all material respects with the Act;

(l) in addition to compliance under paragraphs (j) and (k) above, the First Nation is in compliance in all material respects with all other applicable provisions of laws, rules, regulations, licenses, permits,

Form of Borrowing Agreement

approvals and orders of any applicable governmental authority in relation to the Capital Infrastructure Project or any of the First Nation's obligations under this Agreement; and

(m) there is no current or pending investigation, proceeding, complaint, order, directive, claim, citation or notice by any governmental authority or any other Person, nor to the best of the First Nation's knowledge are any threatened, with respect to any non-compliance with or violation of the requirements of any environmental law by the First Nation or the threatened or actual release, spill or discharge of any hazardous material or the generation, use, storage, treatment, transportation, manufacture, handling, production or disposal of any hazardous materials or any other environmental, health or safety matter.

7.0 COVENANTS OF THE FIRST NATION

7.1 The First Nation covenants and agrees that for the term of this Agreement it shall:

(a) comply with applicable Board and Commission standards made under the Act and obtain and maintain in good standing all necessary certifications and approvals from the Board and Commission;

(b) provide the Authority with a copy of the Financial Management System Certificate within 36 months after the First Nation receives financing (other than Interim Long Term Financing) from the Authority;

(c) notify the Authority, Board and Commission promptly in writing if there is a Material Adverse Change to any of the information provided by the First Nation under this Agreement or during the process of becoming a Borrowing Member, entering into this Agreement, obtaining any necessary certifications and approvals from the Board and Commission or passing a Security Issuing Council Resolution;

(d) not, on or after the date the First Nation enacts a Borrowing Law, grant a security interest in the Local Revenue Account to any Person other than the Authority without the prior written consent of the Authority;

(e) not, on or after the date the First Nation enacts a Borrowing Law, change the financial institution at which the Local Revenue Account is located or change the account number of the Local Revenue Account without the prior written consent of the Authority;

(f) comply with the Financial Administration Law and the Local Revenue Laws;

(g) comply in all material respects with the Act and all of the Authority's by-laws, rules, regulations, orders and policies, as amended from time to time, and make all payments required in relation thereto;

(h) advise the Authority in writing as soon as possible if there is a change in the First Nation's representative to the Authority and provide the Authority with a copy of the resolution of Council designating a new representative;

(i) use the funds loaned by the Authority to the First Nation only for the payment of permitted expenditures in relation to the Capital Infrastructure Project, provided that any funds loaned by the Authority that are used for an unauthorized purpose shall not affect the obligations of the First Nation under the Act, this Agreement, a Borrowing Law, a Security Issuing Council Resolution, a Promissory Note or an Undertaking Agreement;

(j) in construction of a Capital Infrastructure Project comply in all material respects with all applicable provisions of laws, rules, regulations, licenses, permits, approvals and orders of any applicable governmental authority and with all applicable conditions and standards issued by the Commission in approving a Borrowing Law;

Form of Borrowing Agreement

(k) deliver to the Authority:

(i) the First Nation's annual budget including the component respecting its Local Revenue Account applicable to the borrowing for the First Nation's current year, and a five year capital expenditure plan, in each case in a form acceptable to the Authority, within 120 days after the First Nation's last fiscal year end,

(ii) the First Nation's audited consolidated annual financial statements and audited Local Revenue Account financial statements within 120 days after its fiscal year end together with an opinion on such financial statements by an independent auditor who is a member in good standing of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants or an association of accountants or auditors incorporated under the laws of a province or territory in Canada,

(iii) an executed Borrowing Room Calculation Certificate within 120 days after the First Nation's fiscal year end,

(iv) the First Nation's most recent taxable assessment valuation by property classification and applicable property tax rates by property classification,

(v) promptly upon receipt of notice thereof, a report of any current, pending or threatened actions, suits, arbitrations, proceedings or claims against the First Nation, and

(vi) a copy of the current strategic plan and multi-year financial plan, a copy of any existing operating plans and any other financial information or statistics of the First Nation as the Authority may reasonably request from time to time;

(l) if required by the Authority, execute such documents and agreements as the Authority considers necessary to grant to the Authority a security interest in the Local Revenue Account (including, for greater certainty, all sums at any time on deposit in the Local Revenue Account); the Authority may also require the First Nation to obtain an agreement from any Person (in this paragraph called a "third party") that has a security interest in the Local Revenue Account as of the date the First Nation becomes a Borrowing Member in form satisfactory to the Authority under which the security interest held by the third party in the Local Revenue Account is subordinated and postponed to any security interest held by the Authority in the Local Revenue Account;

(m) permit representatives of the Board (including accountants, counsel, financial advisors, technical advisors and consultants, and other representatives) to visit the First Nation's premises at all reasonable business hours and to have access to and take copies and excerpts, where applicable, from all of the First Nation's books, accounts, records, reports, files, properties and assets in whatever form they take as are deemed appropriate by the Board, acting honestly and in good faith, relating to compliance with Board standards, the First Nation's status as a Borrowing Member, or any obligation under the Act, this Agreement, a Borrowing Law, Security Issuing Council Resolution, Promissory Note or an Undertaking Agreement and to the receipt of and administration of the funds borrowed under this Agreement or a Borrowing Law, as may be reasonably necessary to conduct a review and make a report under subsections 86(2) and (3) of the Act, to enter into and carry out a co-management arrangement under section 52 of the Act or to act as third-party manager under section 53 of the Act;

(n) upon request by the Authority, do, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered every and all such further acts and deeds as the Authority shall deem necessary or appropriate to give effect to the purposes of

(i) this Agreement,

(ii) the Act,

Form of Borrowing Agreement

(iii) a Borrowing Law,

(iv) a Security Issuing Council Resolution,

(v) an Undertaking Agreement,

(vi) a Promissory Note, and

(vii) by-laws or policies of the Authority, and the First Nation shall promptly provide the Authority with evidence of the foregoing satisfactory to the Authority; and

(m) if the Authority provides Interim Long Term Financing to the First Nation, the First Nation must, and hereby covenants to, by the earlier of five years after the date on which the first advance of such Interim Long Term Financing is provided to the First Nation, or Completion of the Capital Infrastructure Project, either:

(i) replace such Interim Long Term Financing by inclusion and replacement of such financing in and by an issue of debt securities by the Authority, or

(ii) prepay all unpaid principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on such Interim Long Term Financing in full in accordance with sections 12.11 and 12.12 of this Agreement.

8.0 SECURITY ISSUING COUNCIL RESOLUTION

8.1 When, from time to time, the First Nation wishes to borrow all or a portion of the amount authorized under a Borrowing Law, the Council will pass a Security Issuing Council Resolution approving the borrowing of the specified amount and either:

(a) request the Authority to include that amount as part of its next issue of debt securities, or

(b) request the Authority to provide the specified amount by way of Interim Long Term Financing to the First Nation.

8.2 The Security Issuing Council Resolution shall specify the date by which the First Nation requests the amount specified in the Security Issuing Council Resolution be loaned by the Authority to the First Nation, it being acknowledged by the First Nation that there can be no assurance that the Authority will loan such amount by such date.

8.3 The First Nation shall promptly send an originally executed or a certified copy of the Security Issuing Council Resolution to the Authority, and, for their information to the Commission. If the Security Issuing Council Resolution requests the Authority to include the specified amount in the Authority's next issue of debt securities, an originally executed or a certified copy of the Security Issuing Council Resolution must be delivered to the Authority and the Commission by the date specified in writing by the Authority in order for the First Nation to participate in the Authority's next issue of debt securities.

8.4 If financing is provided by the Authority to the First Nation by way of Interim Long Term Financing, the Authority may by written notice to the First Nation specify the date by which the First Nation must give written notice to the Authority by way of a new Security Issuing Council Resolution to confirm that the First Nation intends such Interim Long Term Financing to be replaced by inclusion of such financing in the next issue of debt securities by the Authority.

Form of Borrowing Agreement

9.0 COVENANTS OF THE AUTHORITY

9.1 If the First Nation has obtained all necessary certifications and approvals from the Board and the Commission and complied with this Agreement, the Act, the by-laws and policies of the Authority, a Borrowing Law, and an Undertaking Agreement, the Authority shall review the request for financing of the First Nation set out in a Security Issuing Council Resolution and, in consideration of relevant market and economic conditions may, in accordance with the Act, authorize the issue and sale of debt securities to raise funds requested by the First Nation or provide Interim Long Term Financing to the First Nation, in either case to be loaned to the First Nation to finance a specified Capital Infrastructure Project.

9.2 The Authority agrees that for the term of this Agreement it shall:

(a) provide the First Nation full opportunity to participate in the governance of the Authority in accordance with the Act and the by-laws of the Authority;

(b) provide the First Nation with notice of any significant changes to the borrowing regime, requirements for Borrowing Members and other material information that could significantly affect the First Nation's rights as a Borrowing Member or its obligations to the Authority; and

(c) provide the First Nation with notice of any changes of fees or charges.

10.0 FINANCING BY THE AUTHORITY

10.1 The Authority is authorized to finance a Capital Infrastructure Project from time to time, at the sole cost and on behalf of the First Nation as set out in a Security Issuing Council Resolution, up to but not exceeding the least of:

(a) the amount authorized in a Borrowing Law;

(b) the amount remaining in the authorization in a Borrowing Law after previous loans for a Capital Infrastructure Project have been made to the First Nation by the Authority; or

(c) the amount of the unused annual debt servicing capacity as calculated in the most recent Borrowing Room Calculation Certificate.

10.2 The financing by the Authority shall be in lawful money of Canada (provided that the First Nation may borrow all or part of such amount in such currency as the FNFA Board shall determine but the aggregate amount in lawful money of Canada and in Canadian dollar equivalents so borrowed shall not exceed the limits set out in section 10.1 in Canadian dollars) together with interest and at such interest rates and with such discounts or premiums and expense as the Authority may deem appropriate in consideration of the market and economic conditions of the time.

10.3 Recognizing that the term to maturity of debt securities issued by the Authority may not be the same as the First Nation's requested term for financing from the Authority for a Capital Infrastructure Project, the First Nation may by resolution of the Council request that the Authority fix the interest rate on the loan from the Authority to the First Nation at the time of the borrowing described in the Security Issuing Council Resolution for the full term of the borrowing.

10.4 If the Authority provides Interim Long Term Financing to the First Nation, the amount of the loan withheld under subsection 84(2) of the Act and deposited in the Debt Reserve Fund in relation to the Interim Long Term Financing will be credited to the First Nation in determining the amount to be withheld under subsection 84(2) of the Act upon the subsequent issue of debt securities by the Authority to raise the funds requested by the First Nation.

Form of Borrowing Agreement

11.0 CONDITIONS OF FINANCING

11.1 In addition to the provisions of sections 9.1, 10.1 and 10.2 of this Agreement, any decision of the Authority to provide financing to the First Nation under those sections is conditional upon the following:

(a) execution of this Agreement by the First Nation and compliance by the First Nation with all terms of this Agreement;

(b) receipt by the Authority of a Borrowing Law, together with supporting information requested by the Authority with respect to the Capital Infrastructure Project for which the First Nation is requesting financing from the Authority, approved by the Commission;

(c) receipt by the Authority of supporting documentation relating to the establishment of the Local Revenue Account by the First Nation;

(d) receipt by the Authority of executed copies of the documents and agreements required by the Authority pursuant to paragraph 7.1(l) of this Agreement;

(e) execution of an Undertaking Agreement by the First Nation as requested by the Authority;

(f) receipt by the Authority of a First Nation Security Issuing Council Resolution signed by the Council;

(g) receipt by the Authority of a current Borrowing Room Calculation Certificate;

(h) receipt by the Authority of the First Nation's most recent audited consolidated annual financial statements;

(i) receipt by the Authority of a Financial Performance Certificate or a Financial Management System Certificate issued to the First Nation and a copy of the Board's report prepared in respect of that certificate under subsection 50(2) of the Act; and

(j) receipt by the Authority of such other financial information of the First Nation as the Authority may reasonably require.

11.2 In addition to requirements under section 11.1, any decision of the Authority to provide financing to the First Nation after the financing authorized by the First Nation's first Borrowing Law is conditional upon receipt by the Authority of a Financial Management System Certificate issued to the First Nation and a copy of the Board's report prepared in respect of that certificate under subsection 50(2) of the Act.

12.0 PAYMENT BY THE FIRST NATION

12.1 Upon completion by the Authority of any financing undertaken pursuant to a Security Issuing Council Resolution, the First Nation shall, at a time that the Authority requests, execute and deliver a Promissory Note to the Authority.

12.2 The Promissory Note issued under section 12.1 shall be executed on behalf of the First Nation in accordance with the Security Issuing Council Resolution. The Promissory Note shall provide for payment by the First Nation to the Authority of the amounts required to meet the obligations of the Authority with respect to each of its borrowings undertaken pursuant to the First Nation's Borrowing Law and applicable Security Issuing Council Resolution.

12.3 The Promissory Note issued under section 12.1 shall be dated and payable in Canadian dollars and shall set out the schedule of repayment by the First Nation of the principal amount together with interest as determined by the Authority.

Form of Borrowing Agreement

12.4 The obligations under a Promissory Note shall bear interest from the date specified in the Promissory Note, which date shall be determined by the Authority, at rates to be determined by the Authority.

12.5 The obligations under a Promissory Note as to both principal and interest shall be payable in such manner and at such time or times as determined from time to time by the Authority and as provided for in the Promissory Note.

12.6 The First Nation shall, in each fiscal year after a Promissory Note has been signed, provide in its annual budget for payment of all amounts payable to the Authority during the fiscal year to which its annual budget applies.

12.7 The First Nation shall pay the amounts to the Authority set forth in, or attached as a schedule to, a Promissory Note during a fiscal year and shall make such payments in priority to other creditors of the First Nation during that fiscal year.

12.8 No law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act shall authorize the expenditure of moneys raised under a Local Revenue Law unless the First Nation's annual budget provides for the payment of all amounts payable to the Authority during the budget period.

12.9 The First Nation shall provide and pay over to the Authority such sums as are required to discharge its obligations in accordance with the terms of a Promissory Note, provided that if sums provided for in a Promissory Note are not sufficient to meet the obligations of the Authority in relation to the issuance of securities or the provision of Interim Long Term Financing to raise the funds requested by the First Nation, any deficiency in meeting such obligations shall be a liability of the First Nation to the Authority and shall be paid to the Authority by the First Nation.

12.10 If the First Nation's requested repayment term for a borrowing described in a Borrowing Law does not match the term for debt securities issued by the Authority to provide for the First Nation's borrowing, the First Nation may, by way of a Council Resolution, authorize the Authority to use a derivative product to fix the loan interest rate for the full repayment term, or if no such Council Resolution is provided to the Authority, then the First Nation's loan will be refinanced by the Authority as needed to meet the First Nation's desired term of repayment set out in its Borrowing Law. Any refinancing described in this section shall take place at the Authority's calculated interest rate in issuing new securities at the time of the refinancing.

12.11 In the event the First Nation wishes to prepay the amount owing under a Promissory Note the prepayment shall include the full amount of the principal and interest due on the maturity of the Promissory Note, or another amount as calculated by the Authority to fully discharge the First Nation's obligations and any additional cost incurred by the Authority in relation to the prepayment.

12.12 The parties acknowledge that the Authority may fund advances of Interim Long Term Financing to the First Nation by the issuance of bankers' acceptances in the Canadian bank market or by the issuance of commercial paper in the Canadian capital markets. The First Nation may not prepay any amount of Interim Long Term Financing unless such prepayment is made on the maturity date of the bankers' acceptance or issue of commercial paper utilized by the Authority to fund the applicable advance of such Interim Long Term Financing, and the amount of such prepayment is sufficient to repay the relevant bankers' acceptance or commercial paper in full.

12.13 All payments by the First Nation to the Authority shall be made to an account specified by the Authority on the due date as set out in the Promissory Note, or if the due date is not a Business Day then on the next Business Day.

Form of Borrowing Agreement

13.0 DEFAULT BY THE FIRST NATION

13.1 The occurrence of any one or more of the following events or conditions is a default under this Agreement:

(a) the First Nation defaults on a payment owing to the Authority under this Agreement, a Borrowing Law, Security Issuing Council Resolution or Promissory Note;

(b) the First Nation fails to comply with the Act in any material respect;

(c) the First Nation defaults in the observance or performance of any of the terms, conditions or covenants to be observed or performed by the First Nation under this Agreement;

(d) the First Nation or a Person on its behalf made a representation, warranty or statement to the Authority that was untrue in any material respect at the time it was made or deemed to be made;

(e) the First Nation defaults in payment of any indebtedness to any Person other than the Authority, or defaults in the performance of any term, provision or condition created in any agreement under which that indebtedness was created or is governed, where that default would allow that Person to cause the indebtedness to become due prior to its stated maturity, or any such indebtedness is declared to be due and payable other than by a regularly scheduled payment;

(f) the First Nation commits or threatens to commit any act of bankruptcy or becomes insolvent;

(g) the holder of a security interest delivers a notice of intention to enforce its security or take possession of all or any part of the First Nation's property including the Local Revenue Account or any part of it, or an execution or other process of any court becomes enforceable against the First Nation;

(h) in the opinion of the Authority, a Material Adverse Change has occurred;

(i) the First Nation fails to carry out the terms of an Undertaking Agreement;

(j) the First Nation fails or refuses to exercise its rights and remedies to enforce collection of outstanding property tax revenues in a manner that is acceptable to the Authority to meet the First Nation's obligations to the Authority under this Agreement or a Promissory Note;

(k) the First Nation grants a security interest in the Local Revenue Account to any Person other than the Authority without the prior written consent of the Authority; or

(l) the First Nation changes the financial institution at which the Local Revenue Account is located or changes the account number of the Local Revenue Account without the prior written consent of the Authority.

13.2 If a default under section 13.1 occurs, the Authority, in its sole and absolute discretion, may declare all or any part of the First Nation's obligations under this Agreement or a Promissory Note immediately due and payable, without any further demand or notice of any kind.

13.3 Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, no use of the Debt Reserve Fund or payment by other Borrowing Members to replenish the Debt Reserve Fund following a default by the First Nation on a loan payment to the Authority relieves the First Nation of its obligations under this Agreement, a Promissory Note, an Undertaking Agreement or the Act.

13.4 If a default under section 13.1 occurs, in addition to any other remedies the Authority has under the Act or this Agreement, the Authority may take one or both of the following actions under section 86 of the Act:

Form of Borrowing Agreement

(a) request the Board to conduct a review and make a report to the Authority of the reasons for the First Nation's default, including any recommendation for an intervention under section 52 or 53 of the Act; or

(b) require the Board to either (at the Board's discretion) impose a co-management arrangement on the First Nation or assume third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues under section 52 or 53 of the Act.

13.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Board may, at its discretion, give notice to the First Nation under section 52 of the Act requiring the First Nation to enter into a co-management arrangement in respect of the First Nation's local revenues, including its Local Revenue Account, if, in the opinion of the Board, there is a serious risk that the First Nation will default on an obligation to the Authority.

13.6 In addition to any other remedies or obligations under the Act or this Agreement, where the First Nation defaults on a loan payment to the Authority under paragraph 13(1)(a) and that default leads to a reduction in the Debt Reserve Fund which other Borrowing Members are called upon to replenish, the First Nation shall make payments to the Authority in order to repay amounts to other Borrowing Members who have been called upon to replenish the Debt Reserve Fund, together with amounts on account of investment income that would have been earned on the amount of the First Nation's default and any costs incurred by the Authority.

13.7 In each year following a default by the First Nation that led to the reduction in the balance of the Debt Reserve Fund, the Authority shall send to the Council a notice imposing a charge on the First Nation in an amount required to repay amounts outstanding under section 13.6.

13.8 Upon receipt of the notice from the Authority sent under section 13.7, the First Nation shall forthwith pay to the Authority the amounts set out in the notice.

13.9 Upon receipt of payments from the First Nation under section 13.8, the Authority shall pay to each of those Borrowing Members who have been called upon to replenish the Debt Reserve Fund a share of monies received from the First Nation proportionate to the amount of the total replenishment of the Debt Reserve Fund paid by each such Borrowing Member.

13.10 The First Nation agrees that all costs and interest incurred by the Authority as a result of a default by the First Nation under section 13.1, including all fees and disbursements paid by the Authority to its solicitors and counsel and any other Persons in connection with advising the Authority with respect to a default by the First Nation, enforcement of this Agreement and collection of monies owing, shall be payable by the First Nation to the Authority forthwith.

14.0 REPAYMENTS FROM DEBT RESERVE FUND

14.1 Where upon default by another Borrowing Member that led to a reduction in the Debt Reserve Fund, the First Nation has contributed to replenishment of the Debt Reserve Fund, any repayment to the First Nation under subsection 84(6) of the Act shall be reduced by an amount equal to the repayment monies received by the First Nation from the Authority in respect of such contribution.

15.0 INDEMNITY

15.1 The Authority does not agree to undertake or assume any responsibility or duty to the First Nation to select, review, inspect, supervise, pass judgment upon, or inform the First Nation of any matter in connection with a Capital Infrastructure Project. The First Nation shall rely entirely upon its own judgment with respect to such matters; and any review, inspection, supervision, exercise of judgment or supply of information undertaken or assumed by the Authority in connection with such matters is solely for the protection of the Authority and neither the First Nation nor any other Person is entitled to rely thereon.

Form of Borrowing Agreement

15.2 The Authority shall not be responsible or liable to any Person for any loss, damage, liability or claim of any kind relating to injury or death to such Person or damage to any Person's property caused by the action, inaction or negligence of the First Nation.

15.3 The First Nation shall indemnify and save harmless the Authority from and against all claims, demands, actions and costs that arise out of the performance by the First Nation of the Capital Infrastructure Project or this Agreement or by reason of any matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the First Nation or by its employees or agents in connection with their performance in relation to the Capital Infrastructure Project or this Agreement, whether occasioned by negligence or otherwise. Such indemnification shall survive termination of this Agreement.

16.0 ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT

16.1 Nothing in this Agreement or any procedures or remedies in this Agreement shall prevent or restrict the Authority from exercising or relying upon any other legal or equitable remedies or procedures available to the Authority in addition to any remedies or procedures in this Agreement, in relation to enforcement of this Agreement or a Promissory Note.

17.0 SHARING OF INFORMATION

17.1 The First Nation consents to the sharing of information that it may provide to the Authority, Commission and Board between those institutions as may be required by them to carry out their duties, responsibilities and functions under the Act or as may be required in relation to this Agreement, and further acknowledges and consents to the disclosure of such information to such third parties in the financial industry by the Authority as is reasonably necessary for the Authority to engage in the issuance of securities or the provision of Interim Long Term Financing secured by the First Nation's Property Tax Revenues.

18.0 WAIVER

18.1 No provision of this Agreement and no breach by either party of any such provision will be deemed to have been waived unless such waiver is in writing signed by the party that has not committed the breach.

18.2 A written waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement will not be deemed to be a general waiver of such provision or of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision of this Agreement.

19.0 APPLICABLE LAW

19.1 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of British Columbia and the laws of Canada applicable therein and the parties submit and attorn to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of British Columbia.

20.0 TIME OF THE ESSENCE

20.1 Time is of the essence of this Agreement and forbearance by the Authority of a strict application of this provision shall not operate as a continuing or subsequent forbearance.

21.0 SURVIVAL OF WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS

21.1 All representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and shall be deemed to have been made again to the Authority on the date of each loan by the Authority to the First Nation and shall be conclusively presumed to have been relied on by the Authority regardless of any investigation made or information possessed by the Authority.

Form of Borrowing Agreement

21.2 The representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement shall be cumulative and in addition to any other representations or warranties which the First Nation shall now or hereafter give, or cause to be given, to the Authority.

21.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, articles 15, 16, 19, 21, 22 and 23 shall survive the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

22.0 SEVERABILITY

22.1 If any article or portion of any article in this Agreement is determined to be unenforceable or invalid for any reason whatsoever, that unenforceability or invalidity shall not affect the enforceability or validity of the remaining portions of this Agreement and such unenforceable or invalid article or portion thereof shall be severed from the remainder of the Agreement.

23.0 SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

23.1 This Agreement shall ensure to the benefit of and be binding upon the First Nation and the Authority and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

24.0 NOTICES

24.1 Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, all notices, requests, demands, consents or other communications to be given or made under this Agreement shall be in writing and are deemed to be well and sufficiently given if hand delivered, mailed or sent by facsimile as follows:

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the Council of a First Nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including taxation for the provision of services in respect of reserve lands;

B. The Council of the ?Akisq̓nuk First Nation has determined that it is in the best interests of AFN to make a law for the provision of a water system replacement service to a defined area of the reserve known as Indian Beach Estates and to provide for the costs of the service to be paid for by a service tax on property within that area of the reserve;

C. The Indian Beach Estates Management Corporation has requested, on behalf of the property holders, that AFN provide the service and that the costs of the service be paid for by the service tax, and the property holders have shown their support for the service and the service tax at an informational meeting held on June 30, 2016 where approximately fifty percent of the holders attended and indicated, by a show of hands, unanimous support for the service; and

D. The Council of the ?Akisq̓nuk First Nation has given notice of this Law and has considered representations received by the Council, in accordance with the requirements of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act,

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the ?Akisq̓nuk First Nation duly enacts as follows:

PART I

(3) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 9(5)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

(4) Unless otherwise referenced, all references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Special Levy

3. If AFN is at any time required, in accordance with paragraph 84(5)(b) of the Act, to pay to the First Nations Finance Authority an amount sufficient to replenish the debt reserve fund, the Council must make or amend such property taxation laws as necessary in order to recover the amount payable.

PART III

SERVICE AND SERVICE TAX LEVY

Service Described

4.(1) The service to be provided to the residents of the local service area is the removal of the existing water distribution infrastructure, and the installation of new water distribution infrastructure to the curb stop of each lot, including all main lines, pipes, connections, hydrants and other associated works, but does not include connections from curb stops to homes.

(2) The local service area is that portion of the reserve described as Indian Beach Estates, shown outlined on the map attached as Schedule VII, and includes those specific properties listed in Schedule VII.

Estimated Cost of Service

5. The estimated cost of the service is two million dollars ($ 2,000,000).

Service Tax Levy

6.(1) A service tax is hereby imposed on all property in the local service area as set out in this Law.

(2) Any person who shares the same interest in property subject to taxation under this Law is jointly and severally liable to AFN for all service taxes imposed under this Law during the taxation year, and for all unpaid service taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity interest, penalties and costs.

(3) The service tax is based on a fixed amount of eight hundred and sixty-four dollars ($864) for each property in each year that the service tax is levied, subject to subsection (4).

(4) The service tax amount rate set out in this section shall not be amended other than by an amendment to this Law.

Duration of Service Tax

7. The service tax shall be imposed in each taxation year for not more than twenty-five (25) years.

Construction Schedule

8.(1) A construction schedule for the service, certified by a registered professional, is attached as Schedule I to this Law.

(2) AFN shall commence and complete the construction of the service in accordance with the construction schedule and shall in any event commence construction within one (1) year from the date the service tax is due and payable in the first year it is imposed.

Payment

9.(1) The service tax is deemed imposed January 1 of each year in which the service tax is imposed.

(2) The service tax forms part of the taxes due and owing in respect of each property in each year, and is due and payable by the holder on or before July 2 in each year in which it is levied.

(3) Service taxes shall be

(a) paid at the AFN administration office during normal business hours, by cheque, money order, or cash; or

(b) paid by electronic payment.

(4) Payment of service taxes made by cheque or money order shall be made payable to the ?Akisqnuk First Nation.

(5) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator shall refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person, in the same manner as taxes are refunded under the Taxation Law.

Revenues and Expenditures

10.(1) All revenue collected by AFN from the service tax, and interest earned on it, shall only be used to pay for the service.

(2) The tax administrator shall account separately for the service tax revenues within the local revenue account.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law shall be made under the authority of an expenditure law under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

PART IV
SERVICE TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Service Tax Roll

11.(1) On or before June 1 in the first year of the service tax, the tax administrator shall prepare a service tax roll for the purposes of imposing the service tax.

(2) On or before June 1 in each subsequent taxation year, the tax administrator shall update the service tax roll in accordance with Part VIII.

(3) The service tax roll shall be in paper or electronic form and shall contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the service tax to be imposed on the property in the current taxation year;

(d) any unpaid service taxes, penalties, interest and arrears in respect of the interest in land; and

(e) if the name of a holder of a registered charge is included on the assessment roll for a property, the name and address of that person.

(4) The tax administrator may correct errors on the service tax roll at any time before the service tax roll is certified under Part VII.

(5) Once it has been prepared by the tax administrator, the service tax roll shall be available for public inspection at the offices of AFN during regular office hours.

(6) If requested by a holder, the tax administrator shall amend a service tax roll available for public inspection by omitting or obscuring the address of the holder or other information about the holder in order to protect the privacy and security of the holder.

Tax Notice

12.(1) In each year, the service tax shall be

(a) included in the annual tax notice given under the Taxation Law; and

(b) shown separately from other taxes on the tax notice.

(2) A tax notice shall be mailed on or before June 1 to

(a) each holder of an interest in land subject to the service tax, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the service tax roll in respect of a property.

(3) A tax notice shall

(a) include the information shown on the service tax roll in respect of the property; and

(b) state where payment shall be made, the manner of payment and the date the service tax is due.

(4) The mailing of the tax notice constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the service taxes.

(5) The tax administrator shall enter on the service tax roll the date of mailing a tax notice.

PART V
PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalties and Interest

13. If all or any portion of the service tax remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which it is levied, the unpaid portion shall be subject to the same penalties and interest charges levied on unpaid taxes under the Taxation Law.

Tax Collection and Enforcement

14.(1) Taxes imposed under this Law, together with any applicable interest and penalties, are a debt due to AFN by the holder, recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction and by any other method authorized under the Taxation Law or other applicable laws, and for this purpose Parts XII, XIII, XIV and XV of the Taxation Law apply to the collection and enforcement of unpaid services taxes.

(2) The use of one method of collection and enforcement does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(3) A copy of the tax notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

PART VI

REVIEW PANEL

Council to Establish Review Panel

15.(1) Where there is an appeal under Part VII or VIII of this Law, the Council shall, by resolution, appoint three (3) persons as members of the Review Panel to hear and determine appeals and certify the service tax roll as provided in this Law.

(2) Each member of the Review Panel shall hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(3) If a member of the Review Panel is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, the Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Assessment Review Board Sitting as the Review Panel

16.(1) Despite section 15, the Council may, by resolution, appoint the Assessment Review Board established under the Assessment Law to be the Review Panel.

(2) Where the Council appoints the Assessment Review Board under subsection (1),

(a) the members of the Review Panel shall be the same members that comprise the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the chair shall be the same person appointed as chair of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) the removal of a member of the Review Panel under section 21 is a removal of that member from the Assessment Review Board; and

(d) the members must follow the requirements and procedures set out in this Law when acting as the Review Panel under this Law.

Appointment of Chair

17.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Review Panel as chair.

(2) The chair shall

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Review Panel;

(b) determine procedures to be followed at hearings that are consistent with this Law;

(c) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(d) preside at hearings of the Review Panel.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, the Council shall designate a member of the Review Panel as acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

18. The members of the Review Panel shall be remunerated and reimbursed for their work on the Review Panel as provided for the Assessment Review Board in the Assessment Law.

Conflicts of Interest

19.(1) A person shall not serve on the Review Panel if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief or a member of the Council;

(c) is an employee of AFN; or

(d) has financial dealings with AFN which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in AFN does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in the property that is the subject of an appeal.

Duty of Member

20. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Review Panel shall act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and shall not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

Removal of Member

21. The Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Review Panel for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) has absences from three (3) hearings of the Review Panel, which absences have not been excused by the chair or, in the case of the chair's absences, have not been excused by the Council; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

PART VII
APPEALS TO REVIEW PANEL

Appeals to Review Panel

22. Before a service tax is imposed for the first time, the Review Panel shall hear and determine any appeals respecting the service tax roll and shall certify the roll in accordance with this Part.

Tax Administrator to Certify Where No Appeals

23.(1) Where no appeals are filed in accordance with this Part, the tax administrator shall

(a) certify in writing that the service tax roll completed under section 11 was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified service tax roll to the Council.

(2) Unless amended under Part VIII, the service tax roll certified under subsection (1) or section 32 is the service tax roll for each year in which the service tax is imposed under this Law.

Review Panel Sitting and Notice of Service Tax

24.(1) The tax administrator shall establish the date, time and place for the proposed sitting of the Review Panel to hear appeals respecting the service tax roll under this Part.

(2) At least fourteen (14) days before the date proposed for the sitting of the Review Panel under subsection (1), the tax administrator shall

(a) prepare a Notice of Service Tax stating

(i) the service in relation to which the service tax is to be imposed,

(ii) the service tax amount applicable to each property in the service area,

(iii) the date, time and place of the sitting of the Review Panel, and

(iv) that the service tax roll is available for inspection at the offices of AFN during its regular office hours; and

(b) ensure that the Notice of Service Tax is

(i) posted in a public place at AFN's administration office,

(ii) posted in a public place within the local service area, and

(iii) published on AFN's website.

Grounds for Appeal

25.(1) Before a service tax is imposed for the first time, a person may appeal the service tax to the Review Panel on one or both of the following grounds:

(a) there is an error or omission respecting a name or address on the service tax roll, and

(b) there is an error or omission respecting the inclusion of a property, by delivering a completed Notice of Appeal to the tax administrator within seven (7) days after the Notice of Service Tax was given in accordance with paragraph 24(2)(b).

(2) Where an appeal is received under this section, the tax administrator shall immediately advise the Council and the chair, and confirm the sitting of the Review Panel as scheduled in accordance with section 24.

(3) A Review Panel hearing an appeal under this section only has authority to amend the service tax roll in relation to properties in respect of which an appeal under this section has been made.

Withdrawal of Appeal

26.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the tax administrator.

(2) On receipt, the tax administrator shall forward a Notice of Withdrawal to the Review Panel and it shall dismiss the appeal.

Hearings

27.(1) A majority of the members of the Review Panel constitutes a quorum.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of the Review Panel is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing shall be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

(3) The Review Panel may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(4) The Review Panel shall give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably necessary for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(7) The Review Panel may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(8) The Review Panel may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(9) The Review Panel may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(10) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(11) An oral hearing shall be open to the public unless the Review Panel, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be in camera.

(12) The Review Panel may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all appeals have been heard and determined;

(b) hear an appeal whether the complainant is present or not; and

(c) at any time during a proceeding, adjourn the proceeding.

(13) If two (2) or more appeals involve the same or similar questions, the Review Panel may combine the appeals, or any part of them, hear the appeals at the same time or one immediately after the other, or stay one or more of the appeals until after the determination of another one of them.

(14) Subject to this Law, the Review Panel has the power to control its own processes to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

Parties to an Appeal

28. The parties to an appeal are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the interest in land, if not the complainant;

(c) the tax administrator; and

(d) any other person who may be affected by the appeal, as determined by the Review Panel.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

29.(1) The Review Panel may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Review Panel may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Review Panel orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

30.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Review Panel, the Review Panel may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Review Panel;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Review Panel shall give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Review Panel.

(3) The Review Panel shall make a record of its decision for any dismissal made under subsection (1) and provide a copy of the record to all parties.

Decisions of the Review Panel

31.(1) A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Review Panel and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

(2) If a member is unable for any reason to complete the member's duties, the remaining members may continue to hear and determine the appeal and the vacancy does not invalidate the hearing.

(3) The chair shall, within ten (10) days after completion of a hearing, make a record of the Review Panel's decision and provide the tax administrator with the information necessary to amend the service tax roll and provide the notices required under section 33.

(4) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the information provided under subsection (3), the tax administrator shall amend the service tax roll in accordance with the chair's directions and return the amended service tax roll to the chair.

Certification of Service Tax Roll by Chair

32.(1) The chair shall review the amended service tax roll returned under subsection 31(4) to confirm that the directed amendments have been made.

(2) If the chair confirms that the directed amendments have been made, the chair shall certify the service tax roll and deliver a copy of the certified service tax roll to the tax administrator.

(3) On receipt of the certified service tax roll under subsection (2), the tax administrator shall deliver a copy of the service tax roll to the Council.

Notices to Complainants

33.(1) Within ten (10) days after a service tax roll is certified under section 32, the tax administrator shall deliver a notice of the decision made by the Review Panel to

(a) the holder of the property to which the decision relates; and

(b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder of the property.

(2) The notice under subsection (1) shall include a statement that the complainant has the right to judicial review of the Review Panel's decision by a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART VIII

UPDATING THE SERVICE TAX ROLL

Tax Administrator may Update Service Tax Roll

34. In each year after the first year in which the service tax is imposed, the tax administrator shall update the service tax roll to

(a) reflect changes from the previous year in relation to matters referred to in subsection 11(3); and

(b) reflect changes where there is

(i) a subdivision affecting a property, or

(ii) a consolidation of two (2) or more properties,

such that each of the new properties bears an appropriate share of the service tax.

Annual Notice to Holders

35. In each year after the first year in which a service tax is imposed, the tax administrator shall post a notice on the AFN website and at AFN's administrative offices stating

(a) that the service tax roll is available for inspection at the AFN offices during its regular office hours;

(b) that a person who holds property included on the service tax roll may request that the roll be amended respecting a matter referred to in subsection 25(1); and

(c) the date by which a request must be made in order to be considered for that year.

Requests for Amendment to the Service Tax Roll

36.(1) A person who holds a property included on a service tax roll may request that the roll be amended on one or both of the grounds set out in subsection 25(1) by delivering a Request to Amend Service Tax Roll to the tax administrator on or before the date specified in the notice given under section 35.

(2) A request under subsection (1) may be made only in relation to the person's own property.

(3) If the tax administrator does not make the amendment requested under subsection (1), the tax administrator shall deliver a Notice of Refusal to Amend Service Tax Roll to the holder of the property in respect of which the request was made.

Appeals to Review Panel

37.(1) A holder who receives a Notice of Refusal to Amend Service Tax Roll may appeal the decision by delivering a completed Notice of Appeal to the tax administrator within thirty (30) days after the date on which the notice was given, provided that the appeal is

(a) on one or both of the grounds set out in subsection 25(1); and

(b) in respect of property held by that person.

(2) If the tax administrator receives an appeal in accordance with subsection (1), the tax administrator shall advise the Council, and the Council shall convene a Review Panel to hear and determine the appeal, and for these purposes Part VII applies.

(3) A Review Panel hearing an appeal under this section only has authority to amend the service tax roll in relation to properties in respect of which an appeal under this section has been made.

(4) If no appeals are received under this section, the tax administrator shall

(a) certify in writing that the service tax roll as it is amended under this Part was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified service tax roll to the Council.

Validity of Service Tax Roll

38. Despite

(a) any omission, defect or error committed in or with respect to a service tax roll,

(b) any defect, error or misstatement in any notice given, or

(c) any omission to mail or deliver a notice,

the initial service tax roll, as certified by the tax administrator or the chair , is valid and binding on all parties concerned until updated under this Law in each subsequent year, and each update to the service tax roll certified by the tax administrator or the chair is valid and binding on all parties concerned until the next service tax roll under this Law.

PART IX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

39.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law shall not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Review Panel, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent shall not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

40. Notwithstanding section 39,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) the Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with the Council to comply with the Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

41. Nothing under this Law shall be rendered void or invalid, nor shall the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a determination made by the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a service tax roll or any notice given under this law; or

(c) a failure of AFN, the tax administrator or the Review Panel to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

42.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to AFN, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to AFN shall be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

43.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be delivered, given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it shall be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the service tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the service tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

44.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion shall be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law shall be construed as being remedial and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Coming into Force

45. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by the Council on the 26th day of October, 2016, at Windermere, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of (three) (3) members of the Council.

PART III

ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An appointment under subsection (1) is on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(3) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

345-01\00027

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV

ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

6.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year during which the assessment roll is completed.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest in land was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest in land was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to property referred to in paragraphs 18(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of property referred to in that subsection for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the property was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in land at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

345-01\00027

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

(a) present use;

(b) location;

(c) original cost;

(d) replacement cost;

(e) revenue or rental value;

(f) selling price of the interest in land and comparable interests in land;

(g) economic and functional obsolescence; and

(h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest in land.

(8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in land used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise must be valued as the property of a going concern.

(9) Where a lease or other instrument granting an interest in land places a restriction on the use of the property, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest in land, the assessor must consider the restriction.

(10) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(11) The property classes established under subsection (10) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the classification criteria for each property class shall be determined using the corresponding provincial classification rules.

(12) As an exception to subsection (11), Class 7 (Forest land) must include only lands respecting which a licence or permit to cut timber has been issued under the Indian Act.

(13) The assessor must assess interests in land according to the property classes established under this Law.

(14) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

345-01\00027

(15) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of assessable property, the assessor may choose to assess the property in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.

(16) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) property, those properties, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one property and assessed accordingly.

(17) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the land, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the land.

(18) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Exemption from Assessment

7. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Law, improvements designed, constructed or installed to provide emergency protection for persons or domestic animals in the event of a disaster or emergency within the meaning of the Emergency Program Act (BC) are exempt from assessment under this Law.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8.(1) The assessor may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

345-01\00027

Inspections

9.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) Where the assessor wishes to conduct an inspection of assessable property for the purpose of assessing its value, the assessor must deliver a Notice of Assessment Inspection by personal delivery, mail, fax or e-mail to the person named on the assessment roll at the address indicated on the assessment roll.

(3) Personal delivery of a Notice of Assessment Inspection is made

(a) in the case of delivery to a residential dwelling, by leaving the notice with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing there; and

(b) in the case of delivery to any other assessable property, by leaving the notice with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, on those premises.

(4) A Notice of Assessment Inspection is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, at the time personal delivery is made;

(b) if sent by mail, five (5) days after the day on which the notice is postmarked;

(c) if sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; and

(d) if sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(5) Where an assessable property is occupied by a person other than the person named on the assessment roll, the person named on the assessment roll must make arrangements with the occupant to provide access to the assessor.

(6) Unless otherwise requested by the person named on the assessment roll, inspections of an assessable property must be conducted between 09:00 and 17:00 local time.

(7) If the assessor attends at an assessable property to inspect it and no occupant eighteen (18) years of age or older is present or permission to inspect the property is denied, the assessor may assess the value of the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor.

(8) As part of an inspection under this section, the assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals respecting the assessable property and the occupant must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

10.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For greater certainty, an assessment roll prepared under the enactment repealed by section 57 is and continues to be an assessment roll under this Law and shall be used until such time as the next assessment roll is prepared and certified in accordance with this Law.

Certification by Assessor

11. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

345-01\00027

Assessor to Prepare and Certify Revised Assessment Roll

12.(1) No later than March 31 of the year following certification of the assessment roll under section 11, the assessor must

(a) modify the assessment roll to reflect all reconsideration decisions, corrections of errors and omissions, and decisions received by the assessor from the Assessment Review Board;

(b) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll under this subsection; and

(c) prepare a revised assessment roll.

(2) On completion of the revised assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the revised assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified revised assessment roll to Council and to the chair.

(3) On certification under this section, the revised assessment roll becomes the assessment roll for the taxation year and it is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 11.

Validity of Assessment Roll

13. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite

(i) any omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,
(ii) any defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or
(iii) any omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll or certified revised assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

14.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

345-01\00027

(2) In addition to inspection under subsection (1), Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(3) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll

(a) to obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) to harass an individual.

(4) The assessor may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule IV

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

15.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

16.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

345-01\00027

Assessment Notice

17.(1) The assessor must, on or before December 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice will be deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) The assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of six dollars ($6), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice sent by the assessor.

PART VII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

18.(1) Before March 16 of the year following the certification of an assessment roll under section 11, the assessor must notify and recommend correction to the Assessment Review Board of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2).

(2) Before March 16 of the year following the certification of an assessment roll under section 11, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

(a) holder of the interest in land; and

(b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

345-01\00027

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor must give notice to the Assessment Review Board and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

(a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in

(i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation become subject to taxation, or
(ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation cease to be subject to taxation;

(b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;

(c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and

(d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that

(i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and
(ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 19, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor must not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year.

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

19.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or

345-01\00027

(b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment, the assessor must assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this subsection must not be prepared after December 31 of the year following certification of the assessment roll under section 11.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or

(b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest in land, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

(c) a holder's failure to disclose,

(d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,

(e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 8(1), or

(f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 8(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1) and (2), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the year following certification of the assessment roll under section 11, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(5) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

345-01\00027

(6) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(8) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) where the supplementary assessment roll reflects a decision of the Assessment Review Board, deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the chair; and

(c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(9) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 11 in respect of the assessable property affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

20.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule VI; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

345-01\00027

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within fourteen (14) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

21.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to

(a) consider and determine all recommendations from the assessor under subsection 18(1); and

(b) hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a member of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(4) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

345-01\00027

Remuneration and Reimbursement

22.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) a member of the Assessment Review Board and a replacement member appointed to act, other than the chair, for his or her services at a rate of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) per day, and

(b) the chair for his or her services at a rate of three hundred dollars ($300.00) per day, for time spent on activities related to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board and a replacement member for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

23.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

24.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

345-01\00027

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law; administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(d) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

25.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

26. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

27. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

345-01\00027

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals and Assessor Recommendations

28. The Assessment Review Board

(a) must consider and determine assessor recommendations made under subsection 18(1) for changes to the assessment roll; and

(b) must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

29.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within sixty (60) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) The address for delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor is 117 Cranbrook Street N, Suite 200, Cranbrook, BC V1C 3P8.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment, the appeal must be confined to the supplementary assessment.

345-01\00027

Agents and Solicitors

30. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

31.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, or on receipt of a recommendation from the assessor under subsection 18(1), the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal or the assessor recommendation.

(2) The chair must, at least thirty (30) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the chair is not required to deliver a Notice of Hearing to a holder of a property affected by an assessor recommendation under subsection 18(1) where the recommendation

(a) results in a decrease in the assessed value of the property;

(b) does not change the classification of the property; and

(c) does not result in the removal of an exemption.

Parties

32. The parties in a hearing, except as provided in subsection 31(3), are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal or assessor recommendation, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

33. The assessor must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to a hearing to all other parties.

345-01\00027

Timing for Hearing

34. Subject to section 47, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor or receipt of an assessor recommendation under subsection 18(1), unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

35.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals and assessor recommendations in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

36.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

345-01\00027

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

37.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

38.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

345-01\00027

Quorum

39.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there shall not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

40. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

41. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals or assessor recommendations related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

42. Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

Orders to Attend/Provide Documents

43.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Provide Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the hearing.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

345-01\00027

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Provide Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the hearing; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

44. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals or assessor recommendations on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

45. The Assessment Review Board may make orders

(a) requiring a party to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) requiring a party to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

46. At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

345-01\00027

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

47. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

48.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

49.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the completion of a hearing, deliver a written decision on the appeal or assessor recommendation to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

345-01\00027

Delivery of Documents under this Part

50.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the administrative office of the first nation; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document must be considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) if sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) if sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day must be considered to have been delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

51.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction, on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be commenced within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Assessment Review Board's decision under subsection 49(1).

345-01\00027

28

PART XI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

52.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

53. Notwithstanding section 52, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

345-01\00027

Validity

54. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

55.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

56.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

345-01\00027

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

57. The Columbia Lake Indian Band Assessment By-law, dated November 6, 1991, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

58. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council at a duly convened meeting held on the 8 day of July, 2008 in the Ktunaxa Nation Territory.

A quorum of Council consists of (3) members of Council.

"taxable property" means an interest in land that is subject to taxation under this Law;

"taxation year" means the calendar year to which an assessment roll applies for the purposes of taxation;

"taxes" include

(a) all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under this Law, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under this Law, and

(b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any other local revenue law of AFN, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a law; and

"taxpayer" means a person liable for taxes in respect of taxable property.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 3(4)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

(3) Unless otherwise specified, all references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator shall fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of the senior financial officer, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of AFN.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of AFN's local revenue account.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to AFN, recoverable by AFN in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to AFN for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator shall refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, the Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to AFN in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator shall pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to AFN;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to AFN on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest shall not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of AFN;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by AFN;

(c) a building used for public school purposes or for a purpose ancillary to the operation of a public school, and the land on which the building stands;

(d) a building used or occupied by a religious body and used for public worship, religious education or as a church hall, and the land on which the building stands;

(e) a building used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(f) a building used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(g) an institutional building used to provide housing accommodation for the elderly or persons suffering from physical or mental disability, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands; and

(h) that land of a cemetery actually used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by AFN or a member of AFN, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than AFN or a member of AFN.

(3) An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

PART VI
GRANTS

Grants for Surrounding Land

8. Where a building is exempted from taxation under this Law, the Council may provide to the holder a grant equivalent to the taxes payable on that area of land surrounding the building determined by the Council to be reasonably necessary in connection with it.

Annual Grants

9.(1) The Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and the Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(b) where the holder would be entitled to a grant under the provisions of the Home Owner Grant Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 194 if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) shall be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants; and

(c) shall be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) A grant under paragraph (1)(b) shall be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Home Owner Grant Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 194 if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(4) The Council shall in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and shall authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

10.(1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, the Council shall adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes shall be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Special Levy

11. If AFN is at any time required, in accordance with paragraph 84(5)(b) of the Act, to pay to the First Nations Finance Authority an amount sufficient to replenish the debt reserve fund, the Council must make or amend such property taxation laws as necessary in order to recover the amount payable.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before July 2 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes shall be

(a) paid at the AFN administration office during normal business hours, by cheque, money order, or cash; or

(b) paid by electronic payment.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order shall be made payable to the ?Akisq̓nuk First Nation.

PART VIII
TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

13.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator shall create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll shall be in paper or electronic form and shall contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before June 1 in each taxation year, the tax administrator shall mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator shall enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator shall mail a copy of all tax notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been revised in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall amend the tax roll, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the tax roll

(a) the tax administrator may correct the tax roll for the current taxation year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll, the tax administrator must mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(3) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator shall forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.

(4) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer shall be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest shall not be added in that period.

Taxation Based on Supplementary Assessment

16.(1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall make the necessary changes to the tax roll and mail a Tax Notice to every person affected by the supplementary assessment roll.

(2) If a supplementary assessment roll has been prepared under the Assessment Law because, in the current taxation year, property that was exempt from taxation has become taxable, the tax levied in respect of the property shall be prorated so that tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is taxable.

(3) Where subsection (2) applies, taxes levied for part of the taxation year are imposed on the date that the property has become taxable, despite subsection 10(4).

(4) Where a Tax Notice is given under this section, the Tax Notice shall indicate that the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest shall not be added in that period.

Subdivision

17.(1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before June 1 in the taxation year, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under the Assessment Law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor shall provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

18.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person shall provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

19. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator shall issue a receipt to the taxpayer and shall enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

20.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator shall issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is fifty dollars ($50) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X
PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

21. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid shall be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

22. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at fifteen percent (15%) per year.

Application of Payments

23. Payments for taxes shall be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI
REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

24.(1) All revenues raised under this Law shall be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of AFN.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law shall be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

25.(1) Reserve funds established by the Council shall

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund shall be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it shall be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) The Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that AFN repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to AFN, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) assumed third-party management of AFN's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys shall be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of AFN, the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of the Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) The Council shall authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator shall invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII
COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

26.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by AFN in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by AFN in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator shall request authorization from the Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

27.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator shall issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate shall not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

28.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator shall maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator shall register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

29.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a First Nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the First Nation, or with the First Nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices shall be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

30.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

31.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 30(1), the tax administrator shall deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property shall deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

32.(1) The tax administrator shall publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property shall not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

33.(1) A sale of personal property shall be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator shall conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice shall be published in the manner set out in subsection 32(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale shall be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

34. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

35.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property shall be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to AFN in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator shall retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

36.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator shall serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) The Council shall, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

37.(1) The tax administrator shall set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 41(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

38.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property shall be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator shall conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice shall be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, AFN is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister and Lands Manager

39. The tax administrator shall, without delay, provide to the Minister and the Lands Manager written notice of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

40. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 41(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

41.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to AFN the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, AFN shall, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator shall provide, to the Minister and the Lands Manager, written notice of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property shall be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, AFN shall assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 38(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

42.(1) Taxable property shall not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator shall register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 41(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 41(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

43.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property shall be paid

(a) first, to AFN, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator shall retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by AFN

44.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by AFN under subsection 38(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

45.(1) Subject to this section, AFN may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by AFN are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator shall deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) AFN shall not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

46.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law shall not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent shall not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

47. Notwithstanding section 46,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) the Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with the Council to comply with the Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

48. Nothing under this Law shall be rendered void or invalid, nor shall the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of AFN, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

49.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to AFN, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to AFN shall be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

50.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it shall be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

51.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion shall be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law shall be construed as being remedial and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

51. The Akisqnuk First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2008, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

52. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by the Council on the 26th day of October, 2016, at Windermere, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of (three) (3) members of the Council.

SCHEDULE VIII

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to section 36 of the ?Akisq'nuk First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the ?Akisq'nuk First Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, AFN will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to AFN the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, AFN will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, AFN will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. The Council of the ?Akisq'nuk First Nation will, without delay, provide to the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and the Lands Manager written notice of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or AFN, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to AFN, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the ?Akisq̓nuk First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of the Akisqnuk Chief and Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

345-01\00028

PART IV

LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax liability

6.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is not subject to taxation, the liability for taxation of any other interest in the same property is not affected.

(4) Where a person alleges that he or she is not liable to pay taxes imposed under this Law, the person may seek a remedy from the Assessment Review Board, Council, or the Commission, or initiate proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding a proceeding under subsection (4).

(6) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

7.(1) Where

(a) the Assessment Review Board, Council, the Commission or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that a person is not liable for taxes under this Law, or

(b) it is determined under this Law that a person was taxed in excess of the proper amount, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on April 1, July 1, October 1 and January 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V

EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

8.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) a building used for public school purposes or for a purpose ancillary to the operation of a public school, and the land on which the building stands;

(d) a building used or occupied by a religious body and used for public worship, religious education or as a church hall, and the land on which the building stands;

(e) an institutional building used to provide housing accommodation for the elderly or persons suffering from physical or mental disability, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands; and

(f) that land of a cemetery actually used for burial purposes.

345-01\00028

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

(3) An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

PART VI

GRANTS AND TAX ABATEMENT

Grants for Surrounding Land

9. Where a building is exempted from taxation under this Law, Council may provide to the holder a grant equivalent to the taxes payable on that area of land surrounding the building determined by Council to be reasonably necessary in connection with it.

Annual Grants

10.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder, equivalent to or less than the taxes payable on a property, where

(a) the holder of the property is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation; and

(b) Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation.

(2) Council may provide for a grant to holders who would be entitled to a grant under the provisions of the Home Owner Grant Act (BC) if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(3) A grant under subsection (2) must be in an amount equal to the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Home Owner Grant Act (BC) if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(4) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

345-01\00028

PART VII

LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

11.(1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land, provided that the minimum tax must not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before July 2 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Akisqnuk First Nation.

PART VIII

TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

13.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

345-01\00028

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before June 1 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

345-01\00028

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all tax notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(6) Where applicable, a Tax Notice must state that taxes are payable in conjunction with periodic lease payments under Part IX.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been revised in accordance with the Assessment Law, or where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll or create a supplementary tax roll, as necessary, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

(3) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

(4) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Subdivision

16.(1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before June 1 in the taxation year, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under the Assessment Law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor must provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

345-01\00028

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PERIODIC PAYMENTS

Taxes as Percentage of Rental Payment

18.(1) Council, with the consent of the locatee where applicable, may by resolution declare that taxes respecting an interest in land that is leased be expressed as a percentage of the rent payment and collected with it in accordance with the terms of a lease agreement or the terms of an agreement with the landlord.

(2) Where the First Nation has entered an agreement with the Crown or with any person entitled to receive rents, for the collection of tax under this Part, the receipt by the Crown or such person of payment on account of tax will be a discharge of the liability for tax to the extent of the payment.

(3) Where taxes are due and payable in conjunction with payment of rent under this Part, the proportionate payment is due and payable on the date that the rent is due and payable.

PART X

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

19. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

20.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each tax roll folio searched.

345-01\00028

13

PART XI

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

21. If all or part of the taxes remain unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

22. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid on July 2 of the year levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at ten percent (10%) per annum, compounded annually.

Application of Payments

23. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XII

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

24.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including for clarity interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law.

Reserve Funds

25.(1) Council may establish reserve funds for one or more of the following purposes:

(a) capital infrastructure replacement; and

(b) capital infrastructure improvement.

345-01\00028

(2) Except as provided in this section, money in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the money and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) For capital purpose reserve funds, Council may

(a) under an expenditure law, transfer moneys in a reserve fund to another reserve fund or account only where all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed; and

(b) by resolution, borrow money from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the money is needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) For non-capital purpose reserve funds, transfers or borrowing of reserve funds must be authorized by Council in an expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

345-01\00028

15

PART XIII

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

26.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 6(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(4) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIV, XV or XVI, the tax administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

27.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XIV, XV or XVI of this Law and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

28.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

345-01\00028

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

29.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIV, XV and XVI.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

345-01\00028

17

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

30.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

(3) The costs payable by the debtor under this section are set out in Schedule III to this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

31.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 30(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

32.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

33.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

345-01\00028

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 32(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

34. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

35.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

36.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

345-01\00028

Upset Price

37.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 41(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

38.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

39. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

40. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 41(1);

345-01\00028

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and
(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

41.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 38(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

42.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

345-01\00028

(3) An assignment under subsection (2) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon registration under subsection (2), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

43.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

44.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 38(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

345-01\00028

22

PART XVI

DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

45.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

46.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

345-01\00028

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

47. Notwithstanding section 46, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

48. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

49.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the making of the payment.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit described in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

345-01\00028

Notices

50.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

51.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

345-01\00028

Repeal

52. The Columbia Lake Indian Band Taxation By-law, dated November 6, 1991, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

53. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council at a duly convened meeting held on the 8th day of July, 2008 in the Ktunaxa Nation Territory.

A quorum of Council consists of three members of Council.

(Subsection 36(2))

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____(the "debtor")
ADDRESS: _____
DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties, and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to subsection __ of the Akisqnuk First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2008, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Akisqnuk First Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the Akisqnuk First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Akisqnuk First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2008.

6. Council of the Akisqnuk First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to assignment of the taxable property.

7. The tax administrator will register an assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

8. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

9. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

10. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Akisqnuk First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2008.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3. (1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

6. (1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year before the taxation year for which the assessment applies.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest in land was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest in land was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to property referred to in paragraphs 18(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of property referred to in that section for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the property was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in land at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

(a) present use;

(b) location;

(c) original cost;

(d) replacement cost;

(e) revenue or rental value;

(f) selling price of the interest in land and comparable interests in land;

(g) economic and functional obsolescence; and

(h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest in land.

(8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in land used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise must be valued as the property of a going concern.

(9) Where a lease or other instrument granting an interest in land places a restriction on the use of the property, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest in land, the assessor must consider the restriction.

(10) Council hereby establishes those property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes that are set out in Schedule I, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(11) The assessor must

(a) assess interests in land according to the property classes established under subsection (10); and

(b) use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(12) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

(13) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of assessable property, the assessor may choose to assess the property in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.

(14) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) property, those properties, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one property and assessed accordingly.

(15) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the land, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the land.

(16) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Exemption from Assessment

7. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Law, improvements designed, constructed or installed to provide emergency protection for persons or domestic animals in the event of a disaster or emergency within the meaning of the Emergency Program Act (BC) are exempt from assessment under this Law.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8. (1) The assessor may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

9. (1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) Where the assessor wishes to conduct an inspection of assessable property for the purpose of assessing its value, the assessor must deliver a Notice of Assessment Inspection by personal delivery, mail, fax or e-mail to the person named on the assessment roll at the address indicated on the assessment roll.

(3) Personal delivery of a Notice of Assessment Inspection is made

(a) in the case of delivery to a residential dwelling, by leaving the notice with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing there; and

(b) in the case of delivery to any other assessable property, by leaving the notice with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, on those premises.

(4) A Notice of Assessment Inspection is considered to have been delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by mail, five (5) days after the day on which the notice is postmarked;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; and

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(5) Where an assessable property is occupied by a person other than the person named on the assessment roll, the person named on the assessment roll must make arrangements with the occupant to provide access to the assessor.

(6) Unless otherwise requested by the person named on the assessment roll, inspections of an assessable property must be conducted between 09:00 and 17:00 local time.

(7) If the assessor attends at an assessable property to inspect it and no occupant eighteen (18) years of age or older is present or permission to inspect the property is denied, the assessor may assess the value of the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor.

(8) As part of an inspection under this section, the assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals respecting the assessable property and the occupant must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

10. (1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For greater certainty, an assessment roll prepared under the enactment repealed by section 57 is and continues to be an assessment roll under this Law and must be used until such time as the next assessment roll is prepared and certified in accordance with this Law.

Certification by Assessor

11. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Assessor to Prepare and Certify Revised Assessment Roll

12. (1) No later than March 31 after the certification of the assessment roll under section 11, the assessor must

(a) modify the assessment roll to reflect all reconsideration decisions, corrections of errors and omissions, and decisions received by the assessor from the Assessment Review Board;

(b) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll under this section; and

(c) prepare a revised assessment roll.

(2) On completion of the revised assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the revised assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified revised assessment roll to Council and to the chair.

(3) On certification under this section, the revised assessment roll becomes the assessment roll for the taxation year and it is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 11.

Validity of Assessment Roll

13. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll or certified revised assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

14. (1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule IV

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

15. (1) On application by a holder, the assessor may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the assessor's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the assessor omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

16. (1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

17. (1) The assessor must, on or before December 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) Subject to subsection 14(2) and subsection (7), the assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of six dollars ($6), the information contained in the current

Assessment Notice sent by the assessor.

(7) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 15(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (6).

PART VII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

18. (1) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 11, the assessor must notify and recommend correction to the Assessment Review Board of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2) or section 20.

(2) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 11, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

(a) holder of the interest in land; and

(b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor must give notice to the Assessment Review Board and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

(a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in

(i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation becoming subject to taxation, or

(ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation ceasing to be subject to taxation;

(b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;

(c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and

(d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that

(i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and

(ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 19, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor must not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year.

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

19. (1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or

(b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this section must not be prepared after December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 11 applies.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or

(b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest in land, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

(c) a holder's failure to disclose,

(d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,

(e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 8(1), or

(f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 8(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1) and (2), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 11 applies, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(5) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

(6) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(8) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) where the supplementary assessment roll reflects a decision of the Assessment Review Board, deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the chair; and

(c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(9) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 11 in respect of the assessable property affected.

PART VIII
RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

20. (1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule VI; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within fourteen (14) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that the assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX
ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

21. (1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to

(a) consider and determine all recommendations from the assessor under subsection 18(1); and

(b) hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a member of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

22. (1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair (or acting chair) at one hundred and twenty-five percent (125%) of the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province of British Columbia via its Treasury Board Directive on Remuneration Guidelines For Appointees To Administrative Tribunals for a part-time chair of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 1,

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than the chair, who meets the criteria set out in subsection 21(2), at one hundred and twenty-five percent (125%) of the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province of British Columbia via its Treasury Board Directive on Remuneration Guidelines For Appointees To Administrative Tribunals for a part-time vice-chair of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 1, and

(c) any member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than those referenced in paragraphs (a) and (b), at the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province of British Columbia via its Treasury Board Directive on Remuneration Guidelines For Appointees To Administrative Tribunals for a part-time member of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 1,

for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board, and a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties, provided that the member has not been reimbursed by a third party for these same travel and out of pocket expenses.

Conflicts of Interest

23. (1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

24. (1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

25. (1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

26. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

27. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties, and, further, the members of the Assessment Review Board must take and subscribe to the oath of office found in Schedule XII before entering into their duties.

PART X
APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals and Assessor Recommendations

28. The Assessment Review Board must

(a) consider and determine assessor recommendations made under subsection 18(1) for changes to the assessment roll; and

(b) hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

29.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, or extract of the information found therein, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30), to the assessor within sixty (60) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or emailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) The address for delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor is 300 - 1631 Dickson Avenue, Kelowna, BC V1Y 0B5.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment, the appeal must be confined to the supplementary assessment.

Agents and Solicitors

30. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

31. (1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, or on receipt of a recommendation from the assessor under subsection 18(1), the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal or the assessor recommendation.

(2) The chair must, at least thirty (30) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the chair is not required to deliver a Notice of Hearing to a holder of a property affected by an assessor recommendation under subsection 18(1) where the recommendation

(a) results in a decrease in the assessed value of the property;

(b) does not change the classification of the property; and

(c) does not result in the removal of an exemption.

Parties

32. The parties in a hearing, except as provided in subsection 31(3), are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal or assessor recommendation, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

33. The assessor must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to a hearing to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

34. Subject to section 47, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor or receipt of an assessor recommendation under subsection 18(1), unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

35. (1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals and assessor recommendations in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

36. (1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

37. (1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

38. (1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

39. (1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

40. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

41. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals or assessor recommendations related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

42. (1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

43. (1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

44. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals or assessor recommendations on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

45. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

46. (1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

47. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

48. (1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

49. (1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the completion of a hearing, deliver a written decision on the appeal or assessor recommendation to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

50. (1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the administrative office of the first nation; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

51. (1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be commenced within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Assessment Review Board's decision under subsection 49(1).

PART XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

52. (1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order;

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

53. Notwithstanding section 52, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

54. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

55. (1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

56. (1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

57. The Adams Lake Indian Band Property Assessment Bylaw PR-95-01, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

58. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 24 day of November, 2015, at Adams Lake Indian Band Administration Office, Sahhaltkum I.R. #4, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of four (4) members of Council.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3. (1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of the General Manager, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

6. (1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is not subject to taxation, the liability for taxation of any other interest in the same property is not affected.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

7. (1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

8. (1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) a building used for public school purposes or for a purpose ancillary to the operation of a public school, and the land on which the building stands;

(d) a building used or occupied by a religious body and used for public worship, religious education or as a church hall, and the land on which the building stands;

(e) a building used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(f) a building used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(g) an institutional building used to provide housing accommodation for the elderly or persons suffering from physical or mental disability, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands; and

(h) that land of a cemetery actually used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

(3) An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

Revitalization Tax Exemption

9. (1) A revitalization program is hereby established to encourage one or more of the following objectives:

(a) economic revitalization;

(b) environmental revitalization; and

(c) social or cultural revitalization, of land within the reserve.

(2) Under the revitalization program, an interest in land in the reserve may be granted a complete or partial exemption from taxation, for a maximum duration of ten (10) years where:

(a) a proponent taxpayer and the Council enter into a revitalization agreement regarding the interest in land; and

(b) subject to subsection (5), the revitalization agreement obligates the proponent taxpayer to invest in the rehabilitation or development of the interest in land to the following minimum amounts:

(i) $1,000,000, if the objective provided for in the revitalization agreement is economic revitalization;

(ii) $250,000, if the objective provided for in the revitalization agreement is environmental revitalization; and

(iii) $125,000, if the objective provided for in the revitalization agreement is cultural or social revitalization.

(3) A revitalization agreement must be finalized prior to October 31st in the year before the taxation exemption is to go into effect and must:

(a) describe the interest in land, or proposed interest in land, which is the subject of the revitalization agreement by reference to an assessment roll folio number, or by reference to lot number and survey plan, or by other sufficient and reliable form of description;

(b) provide the details of the nature and time-table of the investment to be made by the proponent in the reserve lands which are the subject of the revitalization agreement;

(c) detail the taxation year that the exemption will go into effect, any conditions precedent to the agreement going into force, the duration of the revitalization agreement, and the percentage of exemption provided in regard to the interest in land which is the subject of the revitalization agreement;

(d) include a provision that the exemption from taxation will end if the proponent does not actually carry out the investment described in the revitalization agreement, or otherwise breaches the revitalization agreement or fails to continue to meet the criteria in subsection (5); and

(e) provide that the tax administrator shall be responsible for the implementation of the revitalization agreement on behalf of the First Nation, and provide the name of the individual responsible for the implementation of the revitalization agreement on behalf of the proponent taxpayer.

(4) Council may sign more than one revitalization agreement with a proponent taxpayer for the same interest in land in subsequent years provided that a new investment meeting the criteria in subparagraph (2)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) is made.

(5) A proponent for an exemption under this section further to the category of economic revitalization will be deemed to have made the qualified level of investment prescribed under subparagraph (2)(b)(i) if it is a corporation, of which one hundred percent (100%) of its shares are owned by a member or members of the First Nation, and is a holder of an interest in land used for business purposes.

(6) Council may, from time to time, by resolution prescribe any procedures, application forms, or other materials required for the proper promotion and administration of the revitalization program.

(7) The tax administrator will provide a copy of any revitalization agreement to the assessor within ten (10) days of its final approval and signing by Council and the proponent taxpayer.

(8) Where a revitalization agreement has gone into effect, the Council may only terminate the agreement by resolution:

(a) at the request of the holder; or

(b) if the holder ceases to meet the criteria for the exemption under subsection (5), or fails to make the investment described in the revitalization agreement, or otherwise breaches the revitalization agreement.

(9) Upon termination of the revitalization agreement by Council under subsection (8):

(a) the tax administrator must, within 10 days, notify the holder of the cancellation and of the date on which it took effect or will take effect;

(b) where terminated under paragraph (8)(b), the holder is liable for all taxes that would have been payable in respect of the interest in the land from the date of the breach or the date that the holder ceased to meet the subsection (5) criteria; and

(c) the tax administrator must give written notice to the holder of:

(i) any taxes due from the date of cancellation; or

(ii) any taxes due from the date that the holder breached the agreement or ceased to meet the subsection (5) criteria;

(d) the holder is liable and must, within thirty (30) days, pay the First Nation all amounts owing as set out in paragraph (c); and

(e) penalties are assessable and payable under Part X for any outstanding taxes or monies owing under paragraph (c) that are not paid within thirty (30) days in accordance with paragraph (d).

(10) In this section "proponent taxpayer" includes a person who is not a holder at the time of signing the revitalization agreement but who makes a commitment in the revitalization agreement to acquire an identified interest in land in the reserve subsequent to the execution of the revitalization agreement.

(11) In this section "holder" means a person holding an interest in land which is subject to a revitalization agreement which has gone into effect.

PART VI
GRANTS AND TAX ABATEMENT

Grants for Surrounding Land

10. Where a building is exempted from taxation under this Law, Council may provide to the holder a grant equivalent to the taxes payable on that area of land surrounding the building determined by Council to be reasonably necessary in connection with it.

Annual Grants

11. (1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation;

(b) where the holder would be entitled to a grant under the provisions of the Home Owner Grant Act (BC) if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government; and

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements and offsets; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) A grant under paragraph (1)(b) must be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Home Owner Grant Act (BC) if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(4) The tax administrator may require a holder applying for a grant under paragraph (1)(b) to provide documentation proving their eligibility to receive a grant under the provisions of the Home Owner Grant Act (BC), and the tax administrator may deny a grant under paragraph 1(a) to a holder where the documentation is not provided or where the documentation does not establish eligibility under the Home Owner Grant Act (BC).

(5) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

12. (1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class, and may establish different tax rates for different reserves.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Special Levy

13. If the First Nation is at any time required, in accordance with 84(5)(b) of the Act, to pay to the First Nations Finance Authority an amount sufficient to replenish the debt reserve fund, Council must make such property taxation laws or amend this Law as necessary in order to recover the amount payable.

Tax Payments

14. (1) Taxes are due and payable on or before August 1st of the taxation year in which they are levied, or the next business day, if August 1st is a weekend or a holiday.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Adams Lake Indian Band.

PART VIII
TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

15. (1) On or before June 30th in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

Annual Tax Notices

16. (1) On or before June 30th in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all tax notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

17. (1) Where the assessment roll has been revised in accordance with the Assessment Law, or where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll or create a supplementary tax roll, as necessary, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

(3) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

(4) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Subdivision

18. (1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before June 30th in the taxation year, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under the Assessment Law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor must provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

19. (1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX
PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

20. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

21. (1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X
PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

22. If all or any portion of the taxes remain unpaid after August 1st of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

23. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after August 1st of the year levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year.

Application of Payments

24. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI
REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

25. (1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law.

Reserve Funds

26. (1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the FMB has

(i) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(ii) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation, the FMB may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII
COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

27. (1) The liability referred to in subsection 6(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(4) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator must request and receive authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

28. (1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

29. (1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

30. (1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

31. (1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

(3) The costs payable by the debtor under this section are set out in Schedule III.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

32. (1) Before proceeding under subsection 31(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

(4) The person who seizes personal property must deliver it up immediately to the tax administrator.

(5) The tax administrator must ensure the seized personal property is safely secured and stored until it is redeemed by the debtor or sold further to this Part.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

33. (1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

34. (1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 33(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

35. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

36. (1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined or, pursuant to any applicable rules of court, pay it into a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART XIV
SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

37. (1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

38. (1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 42(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

39. (1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

40. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

41. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 42(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

42. (1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 39(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

43. (1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 42(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 42(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

44. (1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined or, pursuant to any applicable rules of court, pay it into a court of competent jurisdiction.

Resale by First Nation

45. (1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 39(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

46. (1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

47. (1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

48. Notwithstanding section 47, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

49. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

50. (1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

51. (1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

52. (1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

53. The Adams Lake Indian Band Property Taxation Bylaw PR-95-02, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

54. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 24 day of November, 2015, at Adams Lake Indian Band Administration Office, Sahhaltkum I.R. #4, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of four (4) members of Council.

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the Adams Lake Indian Band will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Adams Lake Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2015.

Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Aitchelitz First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 27th day of May, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

AITCHELITZ FIRST NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Aitchelitz First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Aitchelitz First Nation Assessment Law, 2012;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Aitchelitz First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Aitchelitz First Nation Taxation Law, 2012.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) all of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 20th day of May, 2016, at Chilliwack, in the Province of BC.

A quorum of Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

AITCHELITZ FIRST NATION

ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Aitchelitz First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

PART III

ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An appointment under subsection (1) is on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(3) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

345-01\00027

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV

ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

6.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year during which the assessment roll is completed.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest in land was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest in land was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to property referred to in paragraphs 18(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of property referred to in that subsection for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the property was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in land at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

345-01\00027

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

(a) present use;

(b) location;

(c) original cost;

(d) replacement cost;

(e) revenue or rental value;

(f) selling price of the interest in land and comparable interests in land;

(g) economic and functional obsolescence; and

(h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest in land.

(8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in land used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise must be valued as the property of a going concern.

(9) Where a lease or other instrument granting an interest in land places a restriction on the use of the property, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest in land, the assessor must consider the restriction.

(10) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(11) The property classes established under subsection (10) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the classification criteria for each property class shall be determined using the corresponding provincial classification rules.

(12) As an exception to subsection (11), Class 7 (Forest land) must include only lands respecting which a licence or permit to cut timber has been issued under the Indian Act.

(13) The assessor must assess interests in land according to the property classes established under this Law.

(14) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

345-01\00027

(15) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of assessable property, the assessor may choose to assess the property in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.

(16) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) property, those properties, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one property and assessed accordingly.

(17) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the land, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the land.

(18) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Exemption from Assessment

7. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Law, improvements designed, constructed or installed to provide emergency protection for persons or domestic animals in the event of a disaster or emergency within the meaning of the Emergency Program Act (BC) are exempt from assessment under this Law.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8.(1) The assessor may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

345-01\00027

Inspections

9.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) Where the assessor wishes to conduct an inspection of assessable property for the purpose of assessing its value, the assessor must deliver a Notice of Assessment Inspection by personal delivery, mail, fax or e-mail to the person named on the assessment roll at the address indicated on the assessment roll.

(3) Personal delivery of a Notice of Assessment Inspection is made

(a) in the case of delivery to a residential dwelling, by leaving the notice with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing there; and

(b) in the case of delivery to any other assessable property, by leaving the notice with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, on those premises.

(4) A Notice of Assessment Inspection is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, at the time personal delivery is made;

(b) if sent by mail, five (5) days after the day on which the notice is postmarked;

(c) if sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; and

(d) if sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(5) Where an assessable property is occupied by a person other than the person named on the assessment roll, the person named on the assessment roll must make arrangements with the occupant to provide access to the assessor.

(6) Unless otherwise requested by the person named on the assessment roll, inspections of an assessable property must be conducted between 09:00 and 17:00 local time.

(7) If the assessor attends at an assessable property to inspect it and no occupant eighteen (18) years of age or older is present or permission to inspect the property is denied, the assessor may assess the value of the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor.

(8) As part of an inspection under this section, the assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals respecting the assessable property and the occupant must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

10.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For greater certainty, an assessment roll prepared under the enactment repealed by section 57 is and continues to be an assessment roll under this Law and shall be used until such time as the next assessment roll is prepared and certified in accordance with this Law.

Certification by Assessor

11. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

345-01\00027

Assessor to Prepare and Certify Revised Assessment Roll

12.(1) No later than March 31 of the year following certification of the assessment roll under section 11, the assessor must

(a) modify the assessment roll to reflect all reconsideration decisions, corrections of errors and omissions, and decisions received by the assessor from the Assessment Review Board;

(b) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll under this subsection; and

(c) prepare a revised assessment roll.

(2) On completion of the revised assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the revised assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified revised assessment roll to Council and to the chair.

(3) On certification under this section, the revised assessment roll becomes the assessment roll for the taxation year and it is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 11.

Validity of Assessment Roll

13. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite

(i) any omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,
(ii) any defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or
(iii) any omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll or certified revised assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

14.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

345-01\00027

(2) In addition to inspection under subsection (1), Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(3) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll

(a) to obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) to harass an individual.

(4) The assessor may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule IV

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

15.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

16.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

345-01\00027

Assessment Notice

17.(1) The assessor must, on or before December 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice will be deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) The assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of six dollars ($6), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice sent by the assessor.

PART VII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

18.(1) Before March 16 of the year following the certification of an assessment roll under section 11, the assessor must notify and recommend correction to the Assessment Review Board of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2).

(2) Before March 16 of the year following the certification of an assessment roll under section 11, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

(a) holder of the interest in land; and

(b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

345-01\00027

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor must give notice to the Assessment Review Board and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

(a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in

(i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation become subject to taxation, or
(ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation cease to be subject to taxation;

(b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;

(c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and

(d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that

(i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and
(ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 19, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor must not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year.

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

19.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or

345-01\00027

(b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment, the assessor must assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this subsection must not be prepared after December 31 of the year following certification of the assessment roll under section 11.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or

(b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest in land, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

(c) a holder's failure to disclose,

(d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,

(e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 8(1), or

(f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 8(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1) and (2), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the year following certification of the assessment roll under section 11, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(5) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

345-01\00027

(6) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(8) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) where the supplementary assessment roll reflects a decision of the Assessment Review Board, deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the chair; and

(c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(9) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 11 in respect of the assessable property affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

20.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule VI; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

345-01\00027

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within fourteen (14) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

21.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to

(a) consider and determine all recommendations from the assessor under subsection 18(1); and

(b) hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a member of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(4) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

345-01\00027

Remuneration and Reimbursement

22.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) a member of the Assessment Review Board and a replacement member appointed to act, other than the chair, for his or her services at a rate of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) per day, and

(b) the chair for his or her services at a rate of three hundred dollars ($300.00) per day,

for time spent on activities related to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board and a replacement member for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

23.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

24.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

345-01\00027

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law; administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(d) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

25.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

26. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

27. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

345-01\00027

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals and Assessor Recommendations

28. The Assessment Review Board

(a) must consider and determine assessor recommendations made under subsection 18(1) for changes to the assessment roll; and

(b) must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

29.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within sixty (60) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) The address for delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor is 117 Cranbrook Street N, Suite 200, Cranbrook, BC V1C 3P8.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment, the appeal must be confined to the supplementary assessment.

345-01\00027

Agents and Solicitors

30. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

31.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, or on receipt of a recommendation from the assessor under subsection 18(1), the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal or the assessor recommendation.

(2) The chair must, at least thirty (30) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the chair is not required to deliver a Notice of Hearing to a holder of a property affected by an assessor recommendation under subsection 18(1) where the recommendation

(a) results in a decrease in the assessed value of the property;

(b) does not change the classification of the property; and

(c) does not result in the removal of an exemption.

Parties

32. The parties in a hearing, except as provided in subsection 31(3), are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal or assessor recommendation, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

33. The assessor must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to a hearing to all other parties.

345-01\00027

Timing for Hearing

34. Subject to section 47, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor or receipt of an assessor recommendation under subsection 18(1), unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

35.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals and assessor recommendations in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

36.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

345-01\00027

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

37.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

38.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

345-01\00027

Quorum

39.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there shall not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

40. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

41. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals or assessor recommendations related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

42. Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

Orders to Attend/Provide Documents

43.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Provide Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the hearing.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

345-01\00027

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Provide Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the hearing; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

44. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals or assessor recommendations on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

45. The Assessment Review Board may make orders

(a) requiring a party to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) requiring a party to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

46. At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

345-01\00027

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

47. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

48.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

49.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the completion of a hearing, deliver a written decision on the appeal or assessor recommendation to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

345-01\00027

27

Delivery of Documents under this Part

50.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the administrative office of the first nation; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document must be considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) if sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) if sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day must be considered to have been delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

51.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction, on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be commenced within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Assessment Review Board's decision under subsection 49(1).

345-01\00027

28

PART XI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

52.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

53. Notwithstanding section 52, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

345-01\00027

Validity

54. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

55.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

56.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

345-01\00027

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

57. The Columbia Lake Indian Band Assessment By-law, dated November 6, 1991, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

58. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council at a duly convened meeting held on the 8 day of July, 2008 in the Ktunaxa Nation Territory.

A quorum of Council consists of (3) members of Council.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Beecher Bay First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Beecher Bay Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 15th day of November, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

BEECHER BAY

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Sc'ianew Council has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Sc'ianew Council wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE Sc'ianew Council duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Beecher Bay Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Beecher Bay Property Assessment Law, 2016;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"Sc'ianew" means Beecher Bay, being a band within the meaning of the Indian Act and which is named in the schedule to the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Beecher Bay Property Taxation Law, 2016.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1 2017, and ending December 31, 2017 is comprised of

(a) Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 4 and section 6, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

10. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 26th day of October, 2016, at Beecher Bay, in the Province of British Columbia.

"taxes" includes

(a) all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under the Taxation Law, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under the Taxation Law, and

(b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any other local revenue law of Sc'ianew, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a law.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 5(3)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

(3) Unless otherwise specified, all references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) The Council shall appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by the Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by the Council shall be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor shall assess

(a) all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law;

(b) all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by the Council; and

(c) non-taxable interests in land, as directed by the Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year before the taxation year for which the assessment applies.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in land for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest in land was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest in land was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to property referred to in paragraphs 17(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of property referred to in that section for an assessment roll shall be determined as if on the valuation date the property was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor shall assess interests in land at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor shall determine the assessed value of an interest in land and shall enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

(a) present use;

(b) location;

(c) original cost;

(d) replacement cost;

(e) revenue or rental value;

(f) selling price of the interest in land and comparable interests in land;

(g) economic and functional obsolescence; and

(h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest in land.

(8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in land used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise shall be valued as the property of a going concern.

(9) Where Sc'ianew, in a lease or other instrument granting an interest in land, places a restriction on the use of the property, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest in land, the assessor shall consider the restriction.

(10) The Council hereby establishes those property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes that are set out in Schedule I, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(11) The assessor shall

(a) assess interests in land according to the property classes established under subsection (10); and

(b) use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(12) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor shall determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

(13) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of assessable property, the assessor may choose to assess the property in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.

(14) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) property, those properties, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one property and assessed accordingly.

(15) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the land, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the land.

(16) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor shall use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Exemption from Assessment

6. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Law, improvements designed, constructed or installed to provide emergency protection for persons or domestic animals in the event of a disaster or emergency within the meaning of the Emergency Program Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 111 are exempt from assessment under this Law.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

7.(1) The assessor may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person shall provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

8.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) The assessor may enter onto any property and may examine any property

(a) to determine an assessment of land and improvements, in respect of which the assessor thinks a person may be liable to assessment; or

(b) to confirm an assessment.

(3) The assessor shall be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals of the person referred to in paragraph (2)(a) who shall, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

9.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor shall complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll shall be in paper or electronic form and shall contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For greater certainty, an assessment roll prepared under the enactment repealed by section 56 is and continues to be an assessment roll under this Law and shall be used until such time as the next assessment roll is prepared and certified in accordance with this Law.

Certification by Assessor

10. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor shall

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to the Council.

Assessor to Prepare and Certify Revised Assessment Roll

11.(1) No later than March 31 after the certification of the assessment roll under section 10, the assessor shall

(a) modify the assessment roll to reflect all reconsideration decisions, corrections of errors and omissions, and decisions received by the assessor from the ARB;

(b) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll under this section; and

(c) prepare a revised assessment roll.

(2) On completion of the revised assessment roll, the assessor shall

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the revised assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified revised assessment roll to the Council and to the chair.

(3) On certification under this section, the revised assessment roll becomes the assessment roll for the taxation year and it is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the ARB or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of Sc'ianew until the next certified assessment roll or certified revised assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

13.(1) On receipt by the Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the Sc'ianew office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) In addition to inspection under subsection (1), the Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(3) A person shall not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(4) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder, the assessor may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the assessor's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the assessor omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information shall be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 13(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor shall enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The assessor shall, on or before December 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll shall give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) Subject to subsection 13(3) and subsection (7), the assessor shall provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee prescribed from time to time under the Assessment Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 20, the information contained in the current Assessment Notice sent by the assessor.

(7) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor shall omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (6).

PART VII
ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

17.(1) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor shall notify and recommend correction to the ARB of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2) or section 19.

(2) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

(a) holder of the interest in land; and

(b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor shall give notice to the ARB and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

(a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in

(i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation become subject to taxation, or

(ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation cease to be subject to taxation;

(b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;

(c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and

(d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that

(i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and

(ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 18, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor shall not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year.

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor shall mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

18.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or

(b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment, the assessor shall assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this section shall not be prepared after December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in land

(a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or

(b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor shall assess the interest in land on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest in land, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

(c) a holder's failure to disclose,

(d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,

(e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 7(1), or

(f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 7(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) Where, before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, the assessor determines that property that was exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law has become taxable, the assessor shall make an entry on a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1), (2) and (3), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(5) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(6) Where the assessor receives a decision of the ARB after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor shall create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the ARB and this section applies.

(7) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the ARB or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the ARB or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the ARB.

(9) The assessor shall, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) where the supplementary assessment roll reflects a decision of the ARB, deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the chair; and

(c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(10) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10 in respect of the assessable property affected.

PART VIII
RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

19.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment shall

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor shall consider the request for reconsideration and, within twenty-one (21) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor shall

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the ARB of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person shall not appeal the modified assessment and shall withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX
ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

20.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, establish an ARB to

(a) consider and determine all recommendations from the assessor under subsection 17(1); and

(b) hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The ARB shall consist of three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a practising or non-practising member in good standing of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) Each member of the ARB shall hold office for a period of four (4) years, unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(4) If a member of the ARB is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, the Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

21.(1) Sc'ianew shall remunerate

(a) the chair (or acting chair) at the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province for a part-time chair of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 1,

(b) a member or replacement member appointed to act, other than the chair, who meets the criteria set out in subsection 20(2), at the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province for a part-time vice-chair of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 1, and

(c) any member or replacement member appointed to act, other than those referenced in paragraphs (a) and (b), at the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province for a part-time member of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 1,

for time spent on activities of the ARB required under this Law or expressly authorized by the Council.

(2) Sc'ianew shall reimburse a member and a replacement member of the ARB for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the member's duties.

Conflicts of Interest

22.(1) A person shall not serve as a member of the ARB if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is a member of the Council;

(c) is an employee of Sc'ianew; or

(d) has financial dealings with Sc'ianew, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in Sc'ianew does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

23.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the ARB as chair.

(2) The chair shall

(a) supervise and direct the work of the ARB;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the ARB;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before their evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the ARB.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, the Council shall designate a member of the ARB as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

24.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the ARB.

(2) The secretary of the ARB shall

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the ARB; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the ARB.

Removal of Member

25. The Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the ARB for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) has absences from three (3) hearings of the ARB, which absences have not been excused by the chair or, in the case of the chair's absences, have not been excused by the Council; or

(c) fails to perform any of their duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

26. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the ARB shall act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and shall not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals and Assessor Recommendations

27. The ARB shall

(a) consider and determine assessor recommendations made under subsection 17(1) for changes to the assessment roll; and

(b) hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

28.(1) Any person, including without limitation Sc'ianew and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the ARB by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice or information contained in the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within forty-five (45) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) An appeal is commenced by delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor at the address set out in the Assessment Notice.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment, the appeal shall be confined to the supplementary assessment.

Agents and Solicitors

29. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

30.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, or on receipt of a recommendation from the assessor under subsection 17(1), the chair shall, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal or the assessor recommendation.

(2) The chair shall, at least ten (10) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the chair is not required to deliver a Notice of Hearing to a holder of a property affected by an assessor recommendation under subsection 17(1) where the recommendation

(a) results in a decrease in the assessed value of the property;

(b) does not change the classification of the property; and

(c) does not result in the removal of an exemption.

(4) In any year where the ARB will conduct more than one (1) hearing, the chair and the assessor shall, where possible, schedule the hearings consecutively.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing, except as provided in subsection 30(3), are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the ARB determines may be affected by the appeal or assessor recommendation, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

32. The chair shall, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

33. Subject to section 46, the ARB shall commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor or receipt of an assessor recommendation under subsection 17(1), unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

34.(1) The chair shall

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the ARB; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the ARB is to meet.

(2) The ARB shall proceed to deal with appeals and assessor recommendations in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the ARB considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

35.(1) The ARB shall give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The ARB may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the ARB for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The ARB may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The ARB may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The ARB may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The ARB may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing shall be open to the public unless the ARB, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

36.(1) The ARB may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the ARB may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the ARB orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

37.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the ARB, the ARB may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the ARB;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the ARB.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the ARB shall give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the ARB.

(3) The ARB shall give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

38.(1) A majority of the members of the ARB constitutes a quorum, provided that there shall not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an ARB is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing shall be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

39. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the ARB.

Combining Hearings

40. The ARB may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals or assessor recommendations related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

41.(1) Subject to this Law, the ARB has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the ARB may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

42.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the ARB may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the ARB, by issuing an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the ARB shall pay to the person the witness fee for Supreme Court civil matters prescribed from time to time under the Court Rules Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 80, plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the ARB.

(3) A party may request that the ARB make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair shall sign and issue an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and the party shall serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness shall pay to the person the witness fee for Supreme Court civil matters prescribed from time to time under the Court Rules Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 80, plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the ARB.

(5) The ARB may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

43. The ARB may

(a) hear all appeals or assessor recommendations on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

44. The ARB may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the ARB in respect of the appeal, where the ARB considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

45.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the ARB, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case shall be in writing and filed with the court registry and shall include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The ARB shall

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

46. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing shall be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing shall be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision shall be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

47.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the ARB.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the ARB shall dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

48.(1) The ARB shall, at the earliest opportunity after the day on which a hearing is completed, deliver a written decision on the appeal or assessor recommendation to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the ARB from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for the first ten (10) pages and fifty cents ($0.50) for each additional page.

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information shall not be obscured or omitted.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

49.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a First Nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the First Nation's administrative office, or with the First Nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 5:00 P.M. local time on a business day is considered delivered at 9:00 A.M. on the next business day.

Appeals

50.(1) An appeal lies to a court of competent jurisdiction from a decision of the ARB on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) shall be made within thirty (30) days after the day on which the decision is delivered under subsection 48(1).

PART XI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

51.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the ARB, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law shall not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the ARB, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent shall not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

52. Notwithstanding section 51,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) the Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

53. Nothing under this Law shall be rendered void or invalid, nor shall the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of Sc'ianew, the tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

54.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it shall be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

55.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion shall be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law shall be construed as being remedial and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Repeal

56. The Beecher Bay Property Assessment Law, 2014, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

57. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by the Council on the 15th day of August, 2016, at Beecher Bay, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of the Council consists of two (2) members of the Council.

(3) Unless otherwise specified, all references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator shall fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of the administrator, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of Sc'ianew.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of Sc'ianew's local revenue account.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to Sc'ianew, recoverable by Sc'ianew in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting their liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to Sc'ianew for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator shall refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, the Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to Sc'ianew in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator shall pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to Sc'ianew;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to Sc'ianew on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest shall not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of Sc'ianew;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by Sc'ianew or a Sc'ianew Corporation;

(c) a building used for public school purposes or for a purpose ancillary to the operation of a public school, and the land on which the building stands;

(d) a building used or occupied by a religious body and used for public worship, religious education or as a church hall, and the land on which the building stands;

(e) a building used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(f) a building used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(g) an institutional building used to provide housing accommodation for the elderly or persons suffering from physical or mental disability, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands; and

(h) that land of a cemetery actually used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by Sc'ianew, a member of Sc'ianew, or a Sc'ianew Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than Sc'ianew, a member of Sc'ianew, or a Sc'ianew Corporation.

(3) An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

PART VI
GRANTS AND TAX ABATEMENT

Grants for Surrounding Land

8. Where a building is exempted from taxation under this Law, the Council may provide to the holder a grant equivalent to the taxes payable on that area of land surrounding the building determined by the Council to be reasonably necessary in connection with it.

Annual Grants

9.(1) The Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and the Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(b) where the holder would be entitled to a grant under the provisions of the Home Owner Grant Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 194 if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) shall be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements and offsets; and

(c) shall be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) For clarity, taxpayers may apply for a grant under paragraph 1(b) by submitting to the tax administration an application in the form prescribed by the tax administrator

(a) by July 2 of the current tax year; or

(b) after July 2 and on or before December 31 of the current taxation year, provided that where the application is made after July 2, a penalty and interest will be levied on any unpaid taxes after July 2 in accordance with sections 21 and 22.

(4) A grant under paragraph (1)(b) shall be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Home Owner Grant Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 194 if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(5) The Council shall in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and shall authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

10.(1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, the Council shall adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes shall be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Special Levy

11. If Sc'ianew is at any time required, in accordance with paragraph 84(5)(b) of the Act, to pay to the FNFA an amount sufficient to replenish the debt reserve fund, the Council shall make or amend such property taxation laws as necessary in order to recover the amount payable.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before July 2 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes shall be paid at the office of Sc'ianew during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order shall be made payable to Beecher Bay.

PART VIII

TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

13.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator shall create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll shall be in paper or electronic form and shall contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before June 1 in each taxation year, the tax administrator shall mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator shall enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator shall mail a copy of all tax notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been revised in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall amend the tax roll, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the tax roll

(a) the tax administrator may correct the tax roll for the current taxation year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll, the tax administrator shall mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(3) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator shall forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.

(4) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer shall be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest shall not be added in that period.

Taxation Based on Supplementary Assessment

16.(1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall make the necessary changes to the tax roll and mail a Tax Notice to every person affected by the supplementary assessment roll.

(2) If a supplementary assessment roll has been prepared under the Assessment Law because, in the current taxation year, property that was exempt from taxation has become taxable, the tax levied in respect of the property shall be prorated so that tax is payable only for that part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is taxable.

(3) Where subsection (2) applies, taxes levied for part of a taxation year are imposed on the date that the property has become taxable, despite subsection 10(4).

(4) Where a Tax Notice is given under this section, the Tax Notice shall indicate that the taxes are due and payable on the date of the mailing of the Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer shall be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest shall not be added in that period.

Subdivision

17.(1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before June 1 in the taxation year, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under the Assessment Law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor shall provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

18.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person shall provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

19. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator shall issue a receipt to the taxpayer and shall enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

20.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator shall issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is thirty dollars ($30) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

21. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid shall be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes, and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

22. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at fifteen percent (15%) per year.

Application of Payments

23. Payments for taxes shall be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

24.(1) All revenues raised under this Law shall be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of Sc'ianew.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law shall be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

25.(1) Reserve funds established by the Council shall

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund shall be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it shall be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) The Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that Sc'ianew repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to Sc'ianew, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the FMB has

(a) assumed third-party management of Sc'ianew's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys shall be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of Sc'ianew, the FMB may, acting in the place of the Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) The Council shall authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator shall invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

26.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by Sc'ianew in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by Sc'ianew in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove their improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator shall request authorization from the Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

27.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures under Parts XIII, XIV and XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator shall issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate shall not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

28.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator shall maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator shall register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

29.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a First Nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the First Nation, or with the First Nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices shall be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

30.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

31.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 30(1), the tax administrator shall deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property shall deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

32.(1) The tax administrator shall publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property shall not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

33.(1) A sale of personal property shall be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator shall conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice shall be published in the manner set out in subsection 32(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale shall be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

34. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

35.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property shall be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to Sc'ianew in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator shall retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

36.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator shall serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) The Council shall, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

37.(1) The tax administrator shall set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 41(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

38.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property shall be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator shall conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice shall be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, Sc'ianew is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister and Lands Manager

39. The tax administrator shall, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and the Lands Manager in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

40. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 41(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

41.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to Sc'ianew the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, Sc'ianew shall, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator shall notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and the Lands Manager in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property shall be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, Sc'ianew shall assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 38(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

42.(1) Taxable property shall not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator shall register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 41(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 41(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

43.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property shall be paid

(a) first, to Sc'ianew, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator shall retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by Sc'ianew

44.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by Sc'ianew under subsection 38(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

45.(1) Subject to this section, Sc'ianew may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by Sc'ianew are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator shall deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) Sc'ianew shall not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

46.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law shall not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the ARB, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent shall not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

47. Notwithstanding section 46,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) the Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with the Council to comply with the Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

48. Nothing under this Law shall be rendered void or invalid, nor shall the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of Sc'ianew, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

49.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to Sc'ianew, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to Sc'ianew shall be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

50.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it shall be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

51.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion shall be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law shall be construed as being remedial and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Transitional Provisions

52.(1) If, during the 2016 taxation year, a property that was taxable becomes exempt from taxation, the tax levied in respect of the property shall be prorated so that tax is payable only for that part of the year during which the property, or part of it, is taxable.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies, taxes levied are imposed from January 1, 2016 to the date that the property became exempt from taxation, despite subsection 10(4).

Repeal

53. The Beecher Bay Property Taxation Law, 2014, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

54. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by the Council on the 8th day of August, 2016, at Beecher Bay, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of the Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to section 36 of the Beecher Bay Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Sc'ianew Council, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, Sc'ianew will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to Sc'ianew the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, Sc'ianew will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, Sc'ianew will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. The Sc'ianew Council will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and the Lands Manager, in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or Sc'ianew, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to Sc'ianew, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Beecher Bay Property Taxation Law, 2016.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Campbell River Indian Band in the Province of British Columbia,

Campbell River Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 27th day of May, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

CAMPBELL RIVER INDIAN BAND

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Campbell River Indian Band duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Campbell River Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Campbell River Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2011;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Campbell River Indian Band, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Campbell River Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2011.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The annual budget attached as a Schedule is the First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 25th day of April, 2016, at Campbell River, in the Province of British Columbia.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression "must" is to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"entity" means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

(c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

(d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;

(e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;

(f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

(h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;

(b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;

(c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;

(d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;

(e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;

(f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;

(g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

(j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;

(k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

(l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;

(b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;

(c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;

(d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;

(e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;

(f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;

(g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;

(h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and

(j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

(a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

(a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;

(b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;

(c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;

(d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;

(e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and

(f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

(a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;

(b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

(c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,

(ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to the local revenue account;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenue Account Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to the local revenue account must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution; and

(c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);

(b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

(c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and

(e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that permitted under a local revenue law.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not permit an expenditure from the local revenue account.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from the local revenue account in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account;

(b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and

(c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) The First Nation must not obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any person other than the First Nations Finance Authority.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 105;

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or

(d) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority:

(a) government transfer funds;

(b) local revenues; and

(c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in section 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenue Account Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account of the First Nation in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of the local revenue account.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of the local revenue account.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);

(e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and

(f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in section 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the senior financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 74(1) must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

(a) the First Nation is

(i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or

(ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 14 day of Jan, 2016, at Chawathil, in the Province of BC at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of four (4) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

"spouse" means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

"this Law" means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a "conflict of interest" when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an "apparent conflict of interest" if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual's private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual's "private interests" means the individual's personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual's spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

(a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Coldwater Indian Band in the Province of British Columbia,

Coldwater Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 25th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

COLDWATER INDIAN BAND

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The council of the Coldwater Indian Band has enacted the Coldwater Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2012 and Coldwater Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2012;

C. Section 10 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Coldwater Indian Band duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Coldwater Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this Law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by paragraph 10(b) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Coldwater Indian Band Property Assessment, 2012;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Coldwater Indian Band, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

"Taxation Law" means the Coldwater Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2012;

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2016 and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 7, and section 9, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

10. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of, and is integral to this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 8th day of August, 2016, at Coldwater IR#1, in the Province of British Columbia.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Cook's Ferry Indian Band in the Province of British Columbia,

Cook's Ferry Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 25th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

COOK'S FERRY
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Cook's Ferry duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Cook's Ferry Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"Annual Budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"Annual Expenditure Law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Cook's Ferry Indian Band Assessment By-Law, 1993;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means Cook's Ferry, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"Interim Budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"Local Revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"Property Taxation Law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Cook's Ferry Indian Band Taxation By-Law, 1993.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016 and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2017 and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 9, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

10. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 8th day of August, 2016, at Spences Bridge, in the Province of BC.

A quorum of Council consists of Three (3) members of Council.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Cook's Ferry Indian Band in the Province of British Columbia,

Cook's Ferry Annual Rates Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 25th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

COOK'S FERRY

ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of Cook's Ferry duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Cook's Ferry Annual Rates Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Cook's Ferry Assessment By-Law, 1993;

"First Nation" means Cook's Ferry, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

"Taxation Law" means the Cook's Ferry Property Taxation By-Law, 1993.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2016 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than One Hundred dollars ($100.00), the taxable property shall be taxed at One Hundred dollars ($100.00) for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

6. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

7. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

8. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

9. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 8th day of August, 2016, at Spences Bridge, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of three (3) members of Council.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expressions "must" and "shall" are to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation and on the First Nation's website.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

(3) The accidental omission to post public notice of any meeting on the First Nation's website does not invalidate any proceeding at that meeting if the public notice is posted at the other required location.

(4) A failure to post notice of any meeting on the First Nation's website in a timely manner due to circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the person responsible, does not invalidate any proceeding at that meeting provided all reasonable steps are taken to remove, curtail, or contain the cause of the failure and to post the notice on the website with minimal delay.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) For greater certainty, and subject to this Law, the First Nation may enter into contracts, agreements, and transactions relating to financial administration of the First Nation which are not otherwise prohibited by this Law, another First Nation law, or the Act, provided such contracts, agreements and transactions are approved or ratified by Council or are otherwise authorized by this Law.

(3) If Council is permitted to authorize a contract, agreement, or transaction, Council may exercise its power by passing a resolution or by passing a law.

(4) The Council shall meet regularly for the dispatch of business relating to financial administration of the First Nation, and shall conduct such meetings and pass its resolutions in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) the Council chair shall preside as chair of the Council meetings;

(b) subject to this Law, the Councillors may regulate their meetings as they think fit;

(c) unless otherwise provided, a motion on a resolution or a law or on any other question before Council must be decided by a majority of votes of the councillors present at the meeting; and

(i) unless a councillor is prohibited from voting by this law due to a conflict of interest, each councillor present and participating in a meeting shall be entitled to speak and have one vote thereat; and

(ii) in the case of an equality of votes the Council chair shall not have a second or casting vote and the resolution or motion shall be defeated;

(d) any councillor may call a meeting of the Council upon fifteen (15) days notice of such meeting being given to all of the councillors specifying the place, day, and time of such meeting and the proposed agenda, which notice must be given by email, mail, other means of communication previously consented to by each councillor, or by leaving the notice at the councillor's usual business or residential address; and

(i) a councillor may provide a written waiver of notice of any past, present, or future Council meeting;

(e) councillors may participate in a Council meeting by means of conference telephones or other communications facilities by which all councillors participating in the meeting can hear each other;

(f) a councillor prohibited from voting at a Council meeting due to a conflict of interest shall still be counted in the quorum for the meeting;

(g) a contract, transaction, or other matter in respect of which one (1) or more councillors have a conflict of interest may be approved:

(i) by the rest of the councillors present at and participating in the meeting, provided there are at least two (2) councillors that do not have a conflict of interest in the matter; or

(ii) subject to subsection (6), by a resolution at a meeting of members of the First Nation for which fifteen (15) days notice is provided and at which at least 10% of the First Nation's adult members participate in person, or by teleconference, video conference, or other means of registering their vote;

(h) a resolution of the Council maybe passed at a meeting of the Council or may be passed without a meeting if consented to in writing, whether by document or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages, by all of the councillors, or in the case of a resolution to approve a contract, transaction or matter in respect of which a councillor has or may have a conflict of interest, if each of the other councillors (a minimum of two (2)) consents in writing to the resolution; and

(i) such written consent resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Council duly called and held;

(ii) such resolution may be in two or more counterparts which together shall be deemed to constitute one resolution in writing; and

(iii) such resolutions shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Council and shall be effective on the date stated thereon or on the latest date stated on any counterpart;

(i) subject to this Law, all acts done by any meeting of the councillors shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the qualification or election of a councillor or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly elected and was qualified to be a councillor.

(5) A contract or transaction with the First Nation is not invalid merely because

(a) a councillor or officer of the First Nation has or had an interest, direct or indirect, in the contract or transaction;

(b) a councillor or officer of the First Nation has not disclosed an interest he or she has in the contract or transaction; or

(c) the Council or members of the First Nation have not approved the contract or transaction in which the councillor or officer of the First Nation has or had an interest, provided the contract or transaction is authorized by the Band Manager in compliance with this Law and the Band Manager is not conflicted with respect to the contract or transaction.

(6) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) The Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions, and monitor their implementation, respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of the First Nation's assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must establish and monitor the implementation of human resources policies and procedures that are designed to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) The Council may, after considering any recommendations of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Band Manager, authorize the remuneration paid by the First Nation to each councillor for acting in the capacity of a councillor.

(3) If Council has authorized the payment of remuneration under subsection (2), Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the remuneration paid by the First Nation to each councillor for acting in the capacity of a councillor, and by any related body to a councillor who is also a director or other similar capacity of a related body.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the expenses paid by the First Nation to each councillor while acting in the capacity of a councillor, and by any related body to a councillor who is also a director or other similar capacity of a related body.

(5) Annually, within forty five (45) days of the end of the fiscal year, each councillor must provide a written report to the Council and the financial officer separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by any related body to the councillor.

(6) Annually the financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any related body, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division,

(1) "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) For the purposes of section 12 an individual does not lose independency nor have a financial relationship with the First Nation or its related bodies as a result of the individual's receipt of any of the following payments from the First Nation or any of its related bodies

(a) remuneration for acting in his or her capacity as a councillor, a member of the Committee or other committee of the Council or First Nation, or as a director of a related body;

(b) fixed retirement compensation;

(c) payments or benefits paid in common with all members of the First Nation;

(d) payments or benefits under a program or service universally available to all members of the First Nation on published terms and conditions; and

(e) payments from a trust arrangement according to the terms and conditions of the trust agreement.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Council must establish the Committee of the First Nation, which shall be a standing committee, to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Committee must have three (3) members appointed by Council, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) Notwithstanding anything else in this Law, an individual is considered to not be independent if the individual:

(a) or the individual's spouse is or has been an officer of the First Nation at any time in the last two (2) fiscal years of the First Nation;

(b) or the individual's spouse has or had a direct or indirect material financial relationship with the First Nation or any of its related bodies at any time in the last two (2) fiscal years of the First Nation; or

(c) or the individual's spouse is or has been the First Nation's accountant, auditor, lawyer or financial consultant at any time in the last two (2) fiscal years of the First Nation.

(5) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a voting member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential voting member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each voting member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(6) The Committee must have at least two (2) councillors as its members.

(7) Council must also appoint two (2) ex officio members of the Committee, one of whom must be a youth member of the First Nation between the ages of fourteen (14) and twenty four (24), and one of whom must be an elder member of the First Nation that is 60 years or older.

(8) The ex officio members shall be entitled to speak at the Committee meetings, but they must not be counted in the quorum, nor shall they have a vote on questions or motions before the Committee. The ex officio members of the Committee do not need to be financially competent, nor independent of the First Nation.

(9) Subject to subsection (10), the voting members of the Committee must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years, provided that the terms of appointment at the initial set up of the Committee may be for less than three (3) years.

(10) A Committee member may be removed from the Committee by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee;

(b) the member ceases to meet the eligibility criteria; or

(c) the majority of the Committee members recommend removal.

(11) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is a simple majority of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee shall not have a second tiebreaking vote, and the resolution or motion is defeated.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the Band Manager and the financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The Band Manager or the financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the Band Manager or the financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

25. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

26. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

27.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) If the First nation has a code in force, the revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's reserve lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's reserve lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's reserve lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

28.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the Band Manager must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 30 of each year, the Band Manager must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before July 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 31 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

29. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues; and

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

30.(1) Forthwith upon the Band Manager becoming aware of the need to amend the annual budget the Band Manager shall prepare a report and recommendations to Council and the Finance and Audit Committee for amendment of the budget.

(2) The annual budget of the First Nation may only be amended by resolution of the Council following receipt of a report of the Band Manager or the Finance and Audit Committee recommending the amendment.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

31. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

32.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions, and monitor their implementation, respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

33.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution;

(c) authorized by the Council; and

(d) requires that all cheques and withdrawals are authorized by

(i) the Band Manager together with any one councillor that is not an employee or officer in the finance or accounting departments of the First Nation, nor the tax administrator; or

(ii) any two (2) councillors, neither of whom are, an employee or officer in the finance or accounting departments of the First Nation, nor the tax administrator.

(2) The Council shall cause the following accounts to be established and maintained for and in the name of the First Nation with a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);

(b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

(c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's reserve lands if the First Nation has a land code; and

(e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The Council may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

34.(1) The financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The financial officer must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 33.

(3) The Band Manager, the financial officer, and a councillor must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 33 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

35.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

Prohibited Agreements

36. (1) The Council must not approve or authorize the First Nation entering into a contract, agreement or transaction which requires the First Nation to expend money if

(a) the expenditure is for a purpose or transaction prohibited by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law, or the Act; or

(b) the expenditure is not authorized under an appropriation in a budget. For greater certainty, this does not apply to an expenditure due to an unforeseen event in relation to a program or project provided the total budget for that program or project is not exceeded, nor an emergency expenditure under section 38.

(2) The Band Manager (or his or her designate) must not approve or authorize the First Nation entering into a contract, agreement or transaction which requires the First Nation to expend money if

(a) the expenditure is for a purpose or transaction prohibited by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law, or the Act; or

(b) the expenditure is not authorized under an appropriation in a budget. For greater certainty, this does not apply to an expenditure due to an unforeseen event in relation to a program or project provided the total budget for that program or project is not exceeded, nor an emergency expenditure under section 38.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

37.(1) Subject to subsection 38(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation. For greater certainty, this does not apply to an expenditure due to an unforeseen event in relation to a program or project provided the total budget for that program or project is not exceeded.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

38.(1) The Band Manager or Council may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) An expenditure authorized by the Band Manager under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the Band Manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

39.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any program, project or purposes other than that described in the appropriation. For greater certainty, this does not apply to an expenditure due to an unforeseen event in relation to a program or project provided the total budget for that program or project is not exceeded.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation. For greater certainty, this does not apply to an expenditure due to an unforeseen event in relation to a program or project provided the total budget for that program or project is not exceeded.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

40.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

41.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a charge against an appropriation, an expenditure under subsection 38(1), or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it without written notification being given to the Band Manager and the financial officer as soon as practicable.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this Law and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The Band Manager (or his or her designate) must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the Band Manager (or his or her designate) may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

Form of Payment

42. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by

(i) the Band Manager together with any one (1) councillor that is not an employee or officer in the finance or accounting departments of the First Nation, nor the tax administrator; or

(ii) any two (2) councillors, neither of whom are, an employee or officer in the finance or accounting departments of the First Nation, nor the tax administrator.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

43.(1) The Band Manager may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The person performing tax administration may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

44. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

45.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

46.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 33(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 33(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account;

(b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and

(c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

47.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

48. (1) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the write off of debts owed to the First Nation.

(2) All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) by the Band Manager, subject to paragraph 18(2)(d), if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

49. (1) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the forgiveness of debts owed to the First Nation.

(2) All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) by the Band Manager, subject to paragraph 18(2)(d), if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

50.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 33(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

51.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the borrowing of money, obtaining an overdraft or line of credit, credit card limits, or granting of security must first be authorized by Council.

(3) Council may authorize the Band Manager to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation as specifically approved by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

52.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if such debts will be repaid on or before the due date without the need for a separate borrowing of money, with money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

Financial Agreements

53.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

54.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 33(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the Band Manager recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

55.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Notice of Borrowing

56.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of the First Nation borrowing moneys or granting security, including borrowing for new capital projects.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing of money or granting of security is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

57. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

Use of Borrowed Money

58.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 64(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

59.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by at least two (2) councillors or a councillor and the Band Manager as designated by the Council.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by at least two (2) councillors or a councillor and the tax administrator as designated by the Council.

Operational Controls

60. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions, and monitor their implementation, for a system of internal controls designed to ensure the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

61.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and(3), neither the Council, nor any officer shall authorize or permit the First Nation to directly

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may, as a proprietor or general partner, carry on a business, or act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business, that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's reserve lands, crown lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may directly carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not pose a risk of material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

62.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the Band Manager under subsection (2) and Council specifically authorizes the giving of the guarantee.

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the Band Manager must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 106; or

(b) incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) The Council may make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities (other than indemnities authorized under section 106) as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

63.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the investment must first be authorized by Council. Council may authorize the Band Manager to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

64.(1) Money in an account described in section 33 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's reserve lands are located.

(3) The First Nation may invest money in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner;

(e) an interest in crown lands or fee simple lands; or

(f) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following types of funds in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

(a) government transfer funds;

(b) local revenues; and

(c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

65.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes or changes a program under this section, the Band Manager must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a program or changes to a program under this section are presented for Council approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (3) are being considered.

(5) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all persons in the category of persons for which the loan program is designed, or in the case of payroll advances to all full-time employees of the First Nation or agencies of the First Nation;

(b) the recipients of loans or advances must consent in advance of receiving the loans or advances to the disclosure of their names, the terms of the loan, and outstanding amount of the loans, to the members of the First Nation in the event the loans or advances are not repaid on the due date;

(c) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(d) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(e) the report referenced in subsection (5)(d) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(f) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(6) Before the Council establishes a program under this section the Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

66.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, subject to Council authorizations required under this Law, the Band Manager may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(3) If Council authorizes an investment under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which the investment may be made, continued, or disposed of.

Risk Assessment and Management

67.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the Band Manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the Band Manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee or Council on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

68.(1) The Council, after consideration of recommendations from the Band Manager or the Finance and Audit Committee must procure and maintain in force insurance coverage for any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation and may procure and maintain public liability coverages in relation to the operations of the First Nation and its related bodies.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer of the First Nation or a director or officer of a related body.

Fraud Risks

69.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

70. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

71.(1) The financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

72.(1) At the end of each month, the financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

73.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 75(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's reserve lands referred to in subsection 27(2) if the First Nations has a code in force.

(5) The financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

JD PH

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

75.(1) The financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

76.(1) The financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities, including indemnities under section 106, for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 65(5)(d);

(e) if the First Nation has a code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation reserve lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation reserve lands;

(f) a report on all of the First Nation's investments in capital assets other than the assets described in subsection (d) describing the type and amount of the investment; and

(g) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

(2) The financial officer must provide the special reports referred to in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than sixty (60) days after the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The special reports referred to in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval not more than ninety (90) days after the end of the fiscal year; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year.

(4) After receiving Council approval, the special reports referred to in subsection (1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Appointment of Auditor

77.(1) The Council shall make recommendations to the First Nation members on the appointment of the auditor for the First Nation. The members of the First Nation shall appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters and

(c) to comply with subsection (4).

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the First Nation reserve lands are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

78.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the Council, Band Manager and financial officer must ensure the auditor is given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

79.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in section 74 must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 75 must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both sections 74 and 75 in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 76.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 75.

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

81.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both sections 74 and 75 may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council; and

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair;

(ii)the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(iii) the financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in section 74 must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

(a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in section 75, or

(b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in section 74 if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

82.(1) Not later than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 74 for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 76, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The Band Manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the Band Manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and any Council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

83.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions, and monitor their implementation, for the storage and preservations of the records referred to in subsection (1).

Operations Manual

84.(1) The Band Manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

PH

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

85.(1) The Band Manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

86.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, applicable laws and the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all applicable laws and policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

87.(1) The person performing the tax administration functions must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the Band Manager must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

88. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions, and monitor their implementation, respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations that are designed to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

89. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 93;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

90. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's reserve lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

91. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

92. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the Band Manager must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

93.(1) The Band Manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the Band Manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the Band Manager must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

94.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 93 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

95.(1) The Council must establish, and monitor the implementation of, policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

96. The Band Manager, subject to paragraph 18(2)(d), may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the Band Manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

97. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

98.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

99.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

(a) the First Nation is

(i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or

(ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

100.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's reserve lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

101. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

102.(1) If any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law, the person may disclose the circumstances to the Band Manager and if the matter involves the Band manager then to the Council and to the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the other councillors and to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the Band Manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

103.(1) If a report is made to the Band Manager under section 102, the Band Manager must inquire into the circumstances reported as soon as practicable and report the findings to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 102, the Finance and Audit Committee must inquire into the circumstances reported as soon as practicable and report its findings and recommendations to the Council as soon as practicable.

(3) If a report is made to the Council under section 102 or subsection 103(1), the Council must inquire into the circumstances reported as soon as practicable and

(a) give directions and/or take measures to correct or remediate the situation as soon as practicable; and

(b) notify the Band Manager and the Finance and Audit Committee of the Council's directions and measures taken to correct or remediate the situation.

Protection of Parties

104.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the Band Manager and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report or disclosure under section 102 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 102 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The Band Manager must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 102 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 102; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 102.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

105.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used in a manner contrary to, or for a purpose prohibited by, this Law or the Act or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) A councillor is not liable under subsection (1) if the councillor relied, in good faith, on

(a) financial statements of the First Nation represented to the councillor by an officer of the First Nation or in a written report of the auditor of the First Nation to fairly reflect the financial position of the First Nation;

(b) a written report of a lawyer, accountant, engineer, appraiser or other person whose profession lends credibility to the a statement made by that person;

(c) a statement of fact represented to the councillor by an officer or employee of the First Nation to be correct; or

(d) the councillor honestly, in good faith, and reasonably held the belief that the expenditure, investment, or use was lawful.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) A member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation that is successful in recovering an amount for the First Nation under section 104 must be indemnified by the First Nation for their proper and reasonable legal expenses incurred in doing so.

PH

(5) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

106.(1) In this section:

"eligible proceeding" means an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions;

"indemnify" or "indemnification" means to pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an eligible proceeding, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an eligible proceeding;

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) to (6), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

(4) The Council may provide indemnification to a First Nation official, if, in relation to the subject matter of the eligible proceeding

(a) the First Nation official acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the First Nation; or

(b) in the case where the First Nation official has or had a direct or indirect personal interest in a contract or transaction that is the subject matter of the eligible proceeding, the First Nation Official acted honestly, disclosed the conflict of interest and abstained from voting on the matter when it was approved by Council, or the First Nation official acted honestly and the Council or the Court determine contract or transaction in question is or was fair and reasonable to the First Nation.

(5) Where the Council provides for indemnification of a First Nation official in advance of the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, the First Nation must not make any such indemnity payments unless the First Nation first receives from the First Nations official a written undertaking that if it is ultimately determined by a court that the First Nation official does not meet the criteria in subsection (4), the First Nation official will repay the amounts advanced.

(6) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the provision of indemnification in advance of the final disposition of an action or prosecution against a First Nation official.

Immunity from Prosecution

107. (1) Subject to subsection (2), neither the Council nor the First Nation may seek indemnity against a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation, in respect of any conduct of the person that results in a claim for damages against the First Nation.

(2) The restriction in subsection (1) does not apply if a court makes a finding in the action that the person has been guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or wilfully unlawful misconduct.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

108.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

109. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

110. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-8, 9(1), 9(3), 9(5), 10, 18 – 20, 22, 23(1)-(2), 23(4)-(5), 24(1)-(2), 24(4)-(5), 25, 27, 28, 30, 31, 33 – 35, 36(1)(a), 36(2)(a), 42 – 44, 46 – 47, 50, 51 – 55, 57 – 59, 61 – 65, 67 – 68, 70- 81, 82(1)-(3), 86 - 87, 91 – 92, 98 – 103, 104(1) – (3), 105 –

107, 109, 110 and Schedule A come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force by resolution of the Council or on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 10th day of December, 2016, at Spences Bridge, in the Province of British Columbia at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of three (3) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE A – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

"spouse" means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship and the individual and his or her spouse are not separated permanently; and

"this Law" means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) In this Schedule a reference to a particular section or subsection is a reference to that numbered section or subsection of this Schedule.

(4) For greater certainty, Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(5) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) An individual has a "conflict of interest" when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function in respect of a matter and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests in respect of the matter.

(2) An individual has an "apparent conflict of interest" if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position in respect of a matter must be affected by the individual's private interests in respect of the matter or the individual's personal or business relationship with one of the persons listed in paragraphs (3)(a) to (f).

(3) An individual's "private interests" means the individual's financial and business interests and include the financial and business interests of

(a) the individual's spouse,

(b) a person under the age of nineteen (19) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) the individual's parents, adult children and their spouses, and brothers and sisters;

(e) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(f) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has an interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests or personal or business relationship with one of the persons listed in subsection (3)(a) to (f) do not give rise to a conflict of interest or "apparent conflict of interest" if those interests or relationship

(a) relate to a general indemnity agreement for all councillors under section 106 of this Law or insurance for all councillors under section 68 of this Law being approved by Council;

(b) relate to rates of remuneration, expense reimbursement policies, or scope of benefits payable to all of the councillors being approved by Council;

(c) relate to a contract or transaction between the First Nation and a related body being approved by the Council and the conflict arises solely because one (1) or more of the councillors are also a director or officer of the related body;

(d) are a financial interest in common with a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member;

(e) relate to the individual being entitled to receive any service, commodity or other benefit offered by the First Nation, directly or indirectly, in like matter and subject to the like conditions as are applicable to persons who are not a councillor or official of the First Nation;

(f) rise by reason of being eligible for appointment, or having been appointed, by the Council to a committee of the Council or to a board or senior office of a related body; or

(g) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all voting members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must take all reasonable steps to avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, and in circumstances of a conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest, must comply with the requirements of, and otherwise be in compliance with, the other provisions of this Schedule A: Dealing with Conflicts of Interest.

(2) The Councillors must take all reasonable steps to avoid placing themselves in circumstances where a reasonably well informed person would find that their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of

(a) any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who has offered or given them a benefit or advantage; or

(a) any person listed in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (f) who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them as a result of their personal or business relationship with the Councillor, and

(b) if such circumstances arise, the councillor must comply with the requirements of, and otherwise be in compliance with, the other provisions in this Schedule for dealing with a conflict of interest, and for greater certainty, circumstances arising under paragraphs 4(2)(a) and (b) shall be consider a "private interest" for the purposes of the application of subsection 2(4) to such circumstances.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In subsection (2) "property" includes an interest in the First Nation reserve lands held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must disclose their private interest, defined for purposes of this subsection only as relevant information with respect to any office the councillor holds and any property, right or interest that the councillor holds that could result, directly or indirectly, in the creation of a duty or interest that conflicts with that individual's duty or interest as a councillor of the First Nation.

(3) The disclosure required from a councillor under subsection (2) must be made to the other councillors promptly

(a) after the individual becomes a councillor and annually thereafter; or

(b) if that individual is already a councillor, as soon as practicable after that individual begins to hold the office or possess the property, right or interest for which disclosure is required or becomes aware of a conflict or potential conflict of interest.

(4) The disclosure must be evidenced in the minutes of a Council meeting, a consent resolution, or any other written record provided to the Council.

(5) The Band Manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(6) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the Band Manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (5).

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

6.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting. References to conflicts of interest in this section shall be read to include "apparent conflict of interest"

| 54

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

7.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 6, the Council must seek legal advice on the matter from a lawyer acceptable to the Council and the councillor alleged to have a conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest, and Council must, in accordance with the legal advice so obtained, determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any acknowledgement by a Councillor of having a conflict of interest or any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 6, and references to conflicts of interest in section 6 shall be read to include "apparent conflict of interest".

Gifts and Benefits

8.(1) A councillor must not directly or indirectly, or through the persons referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (c) and (e) of this Schedule, accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) is of a value of $300 or less;

(b) its acceptance is approved by the Council; or

(c) it is a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

(3) Where a gift is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must as soon as practicable make a written disclosure of the gift to the Band Manager under section 5, and, if the gift does not meet the conditions in subsection (2) the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation unless the Council determines otherwise.

Confidential Information

9.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any non-public information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Obligation to Account for Gains

10.(1) If a councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation has contravened this Schedule and realized financial gain in relation to that contravention, the councillor, officer or employee is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation or a member of the First Nation.

(3) A member of the First Nation that is successful in recovering an amount for the First Nation under this section must be indemnified by the First Nation for their proper and reasonable legal expenses incurred in doing so.

(4) A councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation is not liable to account to the First Nation for any financial gain referred to in subsection (1) of this section in any of the following circumstances:

(a) the contract, transaction or matter in question is approved by the councillors (other than the councillor in question) after the nature and extent of the conflict of interest is disclosed to the councillors;

(b) the contract, transaction or matter in question is approved by the members of the First Nation after the nature and extent of the conflict of interest is disclosed to the members by a resolution at a meeting of members of the First Nation for which fifteen (15) days notice is provided and at which at least 10% of the First Nation's adult members participate in person, or by teleconference, video conference, or other means of registering their vote; or

(c) a court determines that the contract, transaction or matter in which the councillor is interested was fair and reasonable to the First Nation and order the councillor is not liable to account for any financial gain that accrues to the councillor as a result of the contract, transaction, or matter.

Business Opportunities

11. A councillor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the councillor becomes aware of while serving as councillor unless the Council has determined not to pursue the opportunity and the councillor's pursuit of the business or investment opportunity is approved by the members of the First Nation at a meeting of members of the First Nation for which fifteen (15) days notice is provided and at which at least 10% of the First Nation's adult members participate in person, or by teleconference, video conference, or other means of registering their vote.

Obligations of Committee Members

12.(1) This section applies to all voting members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 to 11 apply to a voting member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a voting member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

13. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

14. The Band Manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that officers and employees comply with these obligations.

General Obligations

15.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must take all reasonable steps to avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, and in circumstances of a conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest, must comply with the requirements of, and otherwise be in compliance with, the other provisions of this Schedule A: Dealing with Conflicts of Interest.

(3) An officer or employee must take all reasonable steps to avoid placing themselves in circumstances where a reasonably well informed person would find that their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of

(a) any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who has offered or given them a benefit or advantage; or

(b) any person listed in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (f) who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them as a result of their personal or business relationship with the officer or employee, and

(c) if such circumstances arise, must comply with the requirements of, and otherwise be in compliance with, the other provisions of this Schedule for dealing with a conflict of interest, and for greater certainty, circumstances arising under paragraphs 15(3)(a) and (b) shall be consider a "private interest" for the purposes of the application of subsection 2(4) to such circumstances.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

16. (1) If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the Band Manager or, in the case of the Band Manager, to the Council and Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the Band Manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

(2) The Band Manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by an officer or employee under this section.

Gifts or Benefits

17.(1) An officer or employee must not directly or indirectly, or through the persons referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (c) and (e) of this Schedule, accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) is of a value of $300 or less;

(b) its acceptance is approved by the Council or Council policies; or

(c) it is a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

(3) Where a gift is given to a person referred to in subsection (1), the person must as soon as practicable make a written disclosure of the gift to the Band Manager, and if the gift does not meet the conditions in subsection (2), the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation unless the Council determines otherwise.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

18.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the Band Manager or, in the case of the Band Manager, to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

19.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any non-public information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

20. An officer must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the officer becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the Council has determined not to pursue the opportunity and the officer's pursuit of the business or investment opportunity is ratified by the members of the First Nation at a meeting of members of the First Nation for which fifteen (15) days notice is provided and at which at least 10% of the First Nation's adult members participate in person, or by teleconference, video conference, or other means of registering their vote.

First Nation Property and Services

21.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

22.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

23. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

24.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

25.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any non-public information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

26. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

27. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

28.(1) If an contractor believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the contractor must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the Band Manager; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making as a representative of the First Nation respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the Band Manager, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

(2) The Band Manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a contractor under this section.

Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Gitsegukla First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Gitsegukla First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia the 27th day of July, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

GITSEGUKLA FIRST NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Gitsegukla First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Gitsegukla First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Gitsegukla First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2013;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Gitsegukla First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Gitsegukla First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2013.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) all of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 18 day of July, 2016, at Gistegukla, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of five (5) members of Council.

GITSEGUKLA FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Gitsegukla First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Gitsegukla First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2016.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression "must" is to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"entity" means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

(c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

(d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;

(e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;

(f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

(h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;

(b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;

(c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;

(d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;

(e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;

(f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;

(g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

(j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;

(k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

(l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;

(b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;

(c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;

(d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;

(e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;

(f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;

(g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;

(h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and

(j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

(a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

(a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;

(b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;

(c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;

(d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;

(e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and

(f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

(a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;

(b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

(c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,

(ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to the local revenue account;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenue Account Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to the local revenue account must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution; and

(c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);

(b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

(c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and

(e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that permitted under a local revenue law.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not permit an expenditure from the local revenue account.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from the local revenue account in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account;

(b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and

(c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) The First Nation must not obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any person other than the First Nations Finance Authority.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 105;

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or

(d) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority:

(a) government transfer funds;

(b) local revenues; and

(c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in section 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenue Account Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account of the First Nation in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of the local revenue account.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of the local revenue account.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);

(e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and

(f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in section 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the senior financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 74(1) must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

(a) the First Nation is

(i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or

(ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 25 day of NOV, 2015, at GITSEGUKLA, in the Province of BC at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of FIVE (5) members of Council was present throughout.
