(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

6.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in land, the valuation date is January 1 of the year during which the assessment and tax roll is completed.

(3) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in land at their real and true value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(4) The assessor must not apply any discretionary assessment reductions.

(5) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment and tax roll.

(6) Where there is an undivided interest in property other than that of a deceased person, and where the assessor cannot ascertain the several names and interests of the holders, the assessor may assess the property in the names of the holders known to the assessor or last registered as the holder of the property.

(7) The assessor must assess installations, machinery, equipment, apparatus, structures, pipes or pipe lines forming part of a gas holding, storage, transportation, transmission or distribution system, or any oil pipe line, in the name of its owner.

(8) Where the owner of a mobile home does not hold the land on which it is located, the assessor may assess the mobile home in the name of its owner.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Property Classes

7.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) The assessor must assess interests in land according to the property classes established under this Law.

(4) Where a property falls into more than one (1) property class, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8.(1) The assessor may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide the requested information to the assessor within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery, or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

9.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) Where the assessor wishes to conduct an inspection of assessable property for the purpose of assessing its value, the assessor must deliver a Notice of Assessment Inspection by personal delivery, mail, fax or e-mail to the person named on the assessment and tax roll at the address indicated on the assessment and tax roll.

(3) Personal delivery of a Notice of Assessment Inspection is made

(a) in the case of delivery to a residential dwelling, by leaving the notice with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing there; and

(b) in the case of delivery to any other assessable property, by leaving the notice with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, on those premises.

(4) A Notice of Assessment Inspection is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by mail, five (5) days after the day on which the notice is postmarked;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; and

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(5) Where an assessable property is occupied by a person other than the person named on the assessment and tax roll, the person named on the assessment and tax roll must make arrangements with the occupant to provide access to the assessor.

(6) Unless otherwise requested by the person named on the assessment and tax roll, inspections of an assessable property must be conducted between 09:00 and 17:00 local time.

(7) If the assessor attends at an assessable property to inspect it and no occupant eighteen (18) years of age or older is present or permission to inspect the property is denied, the assessor may assess the value of the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor.

(8) As part of an inspection under this section, the assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals respecting the assessable property and the occupant must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT AND TAX ROLL AND ASSESSMENT AND TAX NOTICE

Assessment and Tax Roll

10.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment and tax roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment and tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law;

(g) the tax rate applicable to the interest in land;

(h) the amount of taxes levied on the interest in land in the current taxation year under the Taxation Law;

(i) the amount of any unpaid taxes, include for clarity, penalties and interest from previous taxation years; and

(j) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

Certification by Assessor

11. On completion of an assessment and tax roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the assessment information in the assessment and tax roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment and tax roll to Council.

Amending the Assessment and Tax Roll

12.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment and tax roll to correct errors and omissions, reflect reconsideration decisions and implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment and tax roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment and tax roll is amended under this Law, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment and tax roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment and tax roll was certified under section 11.

(3) The assessor must not amend the assessment and tax roll contrary to an order or direction of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment and Tax Roll

13. An assessment and tax roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment and tax roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment and tax roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment and tax roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment and Tax Roll

14.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment and tax roll, as modified under subsection (2), is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) The assessment and tax roll available for inspection under subsection (1) must not include information respecting

(a) the amount of taxes levied on each property in the current taxation year; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes on each property, include penalties and interest, from previous taxation years.

(3) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment and tax roll or information contained in the assessment and tax roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(4) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment and tax roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule IV

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment and tax roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment and Tax Roll

15.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment and tax roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment and tax rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

16.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment and tax roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment and tax roll and provide copies of all Assessment and Tax Notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment and Tax Notice

17.(1) The tax administrator must, on or before March 1 of each taxation year, mail an Assessment and Tax Notice to every person named in the assessment and tax roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment and tax roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment and Tax Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment and tax roll, and the Assessment and Tax Notice will be deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the tax administrator.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment and tax roll must give written notice to the tax administrator of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment and Tax Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment and Tax Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment and tax roll.

(6) The tax administrator must enter on the assessment and tax roll the date of mailing an Assessment and Tax Notice.

(7) The mailing of the Assessment and Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes by the First Nation.

(8) Where applicable, an Assessment and Tax Notice must state that taxes are payable in conjunction with periodic lease payments under Part IX of the Taxation Law.

(9) Subject to subsection 14(3) and subsection (10), the tax administrator must provide, to any person who requests it and pays the fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00), the information contained in the current Assessment and Tax Notice.

(10) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 15(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (9).

(11) The assessor may correct an Assessment and Tax Notice that contains an error, omission or misdescription and may mail an amended Assessment and Tax Notice, notwithstanding the fact that the time for issuance of the Assessment and Tax Notice has passed, and an Assessment and Tax Notice so amended is valid and effective from the date on which the original Assessment and Tax Notice was mailed.

(12) No Assessment and Tax Notice is irregular, incomplete or otherwise invalid and no exemption from assessment or taxation is conferred by reason of an error, omission or misdescription in an Assessment and Tax Notice or by reason of the non-receipt of an Assessment and Tax Notice by any person.

PART VII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT AND TAX ROLL

Corrections of Errors and Omissions in Assessment and Tax Roll

18.(1) If at any time the assessor discovers that there is an error in any part of the assessment and tax roll, the assessor must correct the error and amend the assessment and tax roll accordingly.

(2) If at any time assessable property has been in whole or in part omitted from the assessment and tax roll, the assessor must make any assessment necessary to rectify the omission and must enter the assessable property on the assessment and tax roll.

(3) Where the assessment and tax roll is amended under subsection (1) or (2), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment and Tax Notice to every person named in the assessment and tax roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

19.(1) A person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment and Tax Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule VI; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within fourteen (14) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment and tax roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all persons who received the Assessment and Tax Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

20.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a member of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province and at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(3) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(4) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

21.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) a member of the Assessment Review Board, and a replacement member appointed to act, other than the chair, for his or her services at a rate of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) per day, an

(b) the chair for his or her services at a rate of three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00) per day, for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board, and a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

22.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation that might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

23.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

24.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

25. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

26. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

27. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

28.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment and Tax Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within sixty (60) days after the date on which the Assessment and Tax Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) The address for delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor is 61 Indian Drive, Indian Island, NB E4W 1S9.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment and Tax Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an assessment amended under section 18, the appeal must be confined to the amendment.

(5) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

29. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

30.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least thirty (30) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

32. The assessor must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

33. Subject to section 46, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

34.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

35.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

36.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

37.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

38.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

39. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

40. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

41.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

42.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

43. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

44. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

45.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

46. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

47.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the appeal.

Delivery of Decisions

48.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the completion of a hearing, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of thirty five dollars ($35.00).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to the assessment and tax roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment and Tax Notice to every person named in the assessment and tax roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

49.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the administrative office of the first nation; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

50.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction, on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be commenced within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Assessment Review Board's decision under subsection 48(1).

PART XI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

51.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

52. Notwithstanding section 51, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

53. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation, or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment and tax roll, Assessment and Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

54.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail, or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

55.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

56. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 15th day of November, 2016, at Indian Island First Nation, in the Province of New Brunswick.

A quorum of Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 3(4)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of [insert title], assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

6.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is not subject to taxation, the liability for taxation of any other interest in the same property is not affected.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

7.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

8.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property held by a church for use as a residence for priests, ministers or rabbis;

(d) subject to subsection (3), property held by a church or religious order and used by that body solely for religious, educational or charitable purposes, including burying grounds and church halls from which only revenue for church purposes is derived;

(e) property held by a university, not operated for profit, and excluding any portion of the property used for commercial purposes; and

(f) subject to subsection (3), property used for a cemetery by a corporation not organized, incorporated or operated for profit.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

(3) The exemptions in paragraph (1)(d) for burying grounds and in paragraph (1)(f) do not apply to property or any portion of property not actually in use for the interment of the dead.

(4) An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

PART VI
GRANTS AND TAX CREDITS

Annual Grants

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(b) where the holder owns residential property and

(i) is aged sixty-five or older;

(ii) with a physical or mental disability; or

(iii) with financial need.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) must be applied for in writing by a holder each year;

(b) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(c) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants or credits; and

(d) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

Residential Tax Credit

10.(1) Council may provide for a tax credit to holders of residential property who would be entitled to a credit under the provisions of the Residential Property Tax Relief Act (New Brunswick) if the holder's property were located off the reserve.

(2) A credit under subsection (1) must be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Residential Property Tax Relief Act (New Brunswick) if the holder's property was subject to property taxation by the Province.

Annual Authorization

11. Council will in each taxation year determine all grants and credits that will be given under this Part and will authorize those amounts in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

12.(1) On or before December 14 in the year prior to each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

13.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before May 31 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to Indian Island.

PART VIII

ASSESSMENT AND TAX ROLL AND ASSESSMENT AND TAX NOTICE

Assessment and Tax Roll

14.(1) On or before November 30 in the year before the taxation year, the tax administrator must provide to the assessor the taxation information required to create the assessment and tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) If at any time the tax administrator discovers that there is an error or omission in any part of the assessment and tax roll, the tax administrator must advise the assessor of the error or omission.

Assessment and Tax Notices

15.(1) The mailing of the Assessment and Tax Notice under the Assessment Law constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes by the First Nation.

(2) Where the tax administrator mails an amended Assessment and Tax Notice under the Assessment Law that indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

Amended Assessment and Tax Notices

16. Where the tax administrator mails an amended Assessment and Tax Notice under the Assessment Law that indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Assessment and Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide the requested information to the tax administrator within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection 17(1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

18. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the assessment and tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

19.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each assessment and tax roll folio searched.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

20. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after May 31 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after May 31 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year.

Application of Payments

22. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

23.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law.

Reserve Funds

24.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the FMB has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation, the FMB may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

25.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 6(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Assessment and Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(4) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

26.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

27.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

29.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

(3) The costs payable by the debtor under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule II.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

30.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

31.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

32.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 31(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

33. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

34.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

35.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

36.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 40(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

37.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

38. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

39. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 40(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

40.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 37(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

41.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 40(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 40(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

42.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

43.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 37(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV

DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

44.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

45.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that section.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

46. Notwithstanding section 45, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

47. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment and tax roll, Assessment and Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

48.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

49.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail, or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

50.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 15th day of November, 2016, at Indian Island First Nation, in the Province of New Brunswick.

A quorum of Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

SCHEDULE VII

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties, and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to section __ of the Indian Island Property Taxation Law, 2016 , seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of Indian Island, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of Indian Island will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Indian Island Property Taxation Law, 2016 .

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessors

3.(1) Council must appoint one (1) or more assessors to undertake the duties of the assessor as set out in this Law and such other duties as directed by Council.

(2) In appointing assessors under subsection (1), Council may allocate to an assessor specified duties to be undertaken by that assessor.

(3) Where Council allocates responsibility for valuations to a specified assessor, that assessor must undertake all valuations and must undertake or advise on any changes to a valuation.

(4) An assessor who carries out valuations under this Law must be qualified to conduct appraisals of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in land, the valuation date is January 1 of the year during which the assessment and tax roll is completed.

(3) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in land at their real and true value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(4) The assessor must not apply any discretionary assessment reductions.

(5) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment and tax roll.

(6) Where there is an undivided interest in property other than that of a deceased person, and where the assessor cannot ascertain the several names and interests of the holders, the assessor may assess the property in the names of the holders known to the assessor or last registered as the holder of the property.

(7) The assessor must assess installations, machinery, equipment, apparatus, structures, pipes or pipe lines forming part of a gas holding, storage, transportation, transmission or distribution system, or any oil pipe line, in the name of its owner.

(8) Where the owner of a mobile home does not hold the land on which it is located, the assessor may assess the mobile home in the name of its owner.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Property Classes

6.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) The assessor must assess interests in land according to the property classes established under this Law.

(4) Where a property falls into more than one (1) property class, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

7.(1) The assessor may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide the requested information to the assessor within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery, or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

8.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) Where the assessor wishes to conduct an inspection of assessable property for the purpose of assessing its value, the assessor must deliver a Notice of Assessment Inspection by personal delivery, mail, fax or e-mail to the person named on the assessment and tax roll at the address indicated on the assessment and tax roll.

(3) Personal delivery of a Notice of Assessment Inspection is made

(a) in the case of delivery to a residential dwelling, by leaving the notice with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing there; and

(b) in the case of delivery to any other assessable property, by leaving the notice with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, on those premises.

(4) A Notice of Assessment Inspection is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by mail, five (5) days after the day on which the notice is postmarked;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; and

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(5) Where an assessable property is occupied by a person other than the person named on the assessment and tax roll, the person named on the assessment and tax roll must make arrangements with the occupant to provide access to the assessor.

(6) Unless otherwise requested by the person named on the assessment and tax roll, inspections of an assessable property must be conducted between 09:00 and 17:00 local time.

(7) If the assessor attends at an assessable property to inspect it and no occupant eighteen (18) years of age or older is present or permission to inspect the property is denied, the assessor may assess the value of the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor.

(8) As part of an inspection under this section, the assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals respecting the assessable property and the occupant must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT AND TAX ROLL AND ASSESSMENT AND TAX NOTICE

Assessment and Tax Roll

9.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment and tax roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment and tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under the Taxation Law;

(g) the tax rate applicable to the interest in land;

(h) the amount of taxes levied on the interest in land in the current taxation year under the Taxation Law;

(i) the amount of any unpaid taxes, include for clarity, penalties and interest from previous taxation years; and

(j) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

Certification by Assessor

10. On completion of an assessment and tax roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the assessment information in the assessment and tax roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment and tax roll to Council.

Amending the Assessment and Tax Roll

11.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment and tax roll to correct errors and omissions, reflect reconsideration decisions and implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment and tax roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment and tax roll is amended under this Law, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment and tax roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment and tax roll was certified under section 10.

(3) The assessor must not amend the assessment and tax roll contrary to an order or direction of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment and Tax Roll

12. An assessment and tax roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment and tax roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment and tax roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment and tax roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment and Tax Roll

13.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment and tax roll, as modified under subsection (2), is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) The assessment and tax roll available for inspection under subsection (1) must not include information respecting

(a) the amount of taxes levied on each property in the current taxation year; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes on each property, include penalties and interest, from previous taxation years.

(3) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment and tax roll or information contained in the assessment and tax roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(4) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment and tax roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule IV

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment and tax roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment and Tax Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment and tax roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment and tax rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 13(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment and tax roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment and tax roll and provide copies of all Assessment and Tax Notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment and Tax Notice

16.(1) The tax administrator must, on or before March 1 of each taxation year, mail an Assessment and Tax Notice to every person named in the assessment and tax roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment and tax roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment and Tax Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment and tax roll, and the Assessment and Tax Notice will be deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the tax administrator.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment and tax roll must give written notice to the tax administrator of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment and Tax Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment and Tax Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment and tax roll.

(6) The tax administrator must enter on the assessment and tax roll the date of mailing an Assessment and Tax Notice.

(7) The mailing of the Assessment and Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes by the First Nation.

(8) Where applicable, an Assessment and Tax Notice must state that taxes are payable in conjunction with periodic lease payments under Part IX of the Taxation Law.

(9) Subject to subsection 13(3) and subsection (10), the tax administrator must provide, to any person who requests it and pays the fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00), the information contained in the current Assessment and Tax Notice.

(10) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (9).

(11) The assessor may correct an Assessment and Tax Notice that contains an error, omission or misdescription and may mail an amended Assessment and Tax Notice, notwithstanding the fact that the time for issuance of the Assessment and Tax Notice has passed, and an Assessment and Tax Notice so amended is valid and effective from the date on which the original Assessment and Tax Notice was mailed.

(12) No Assessment and Tax Notice is irregular, incomplete or otherwise invalid and no exemption from assessment or taxation is conferred by reason of an error, omission or misdescription in an Assessment and Tax Notice or by reason of the non-receipt of an Assessment and Tax Notice by any person.

PART VII
ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT AND TAX ROLL

Corrections of Errors and Omissions in Assessment and Tax Roll

17.(1) If at any time the assessor discovers that there is an error in any part of the assessment and tax roll, the assessor must correct the error and amend the assessment and tax roll accordingly.

(2) If at any time assessable property has been in whole or in part omitted from the assessment and tax roll, the assessor must make any assessment necessary to rectify the omission and must enter the assessable property on the assessment and tax roll.

(3) Where the assessment and tax roll is amended under subsection (1) or (2), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment and Tax Notice to every person named in the assessment and tax roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

PART VIII
RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

18.(1) A person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment and Tax Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule VI; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within fourteen (14) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment and tax roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all persons who received the Assessment and Tax Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX
ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

19.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a member of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province and at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(3) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(4) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

20.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) a member of the Assessment Review Board, and a replacement member appointed to act, other than the chair, for his or her services at a rate of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) per day, and

(b) the chair for his or her services at a rate of three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00) per day, for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board, and a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

21.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation that might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

22.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

23.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

24. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

25. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X
APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

26. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

27.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment and Tax Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within sixty (60) days after the date on which the Assessment and Tax Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) The address for delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor is: Assessor for the Tobique First Nation, 13094 RTE 105, TOBIQUE FIRST NATION, NB E7H 3Y4

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment and Tax Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an assessment amended under section 18, the appeal must be confined to the amendment.

(5) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

28. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

29.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least thirty (30) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

30. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

31. The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

32. Subject to section 45, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

33.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

34.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

35.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

36.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

37.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

38. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

39. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

40.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

41.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

42. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

43. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

44.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

45. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

46.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the appeal.

Delivery of Decisions

47.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the completion of a hearing, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to the assessment and tax roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment and Tax Notice to every person named in the assessment and tax roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

48.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the administrative office of the first nation; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

49.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction, on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be commenced within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Assessment Review Board's decision under subsection 47(1).

PART XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

50.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

51. Notwithstanding section 50, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

52. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation, or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment and tax roll, Assessment and Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

53.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail, or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

54.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

55. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 24 day of August, 2016, at Tobique, in the Province of New Brunswick.

A quorum of Council consists of Five (5) members of Council.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

Authorization of Financial Management Board

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the FMB gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the FMB to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

5. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

6.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is not subject to taxation, the liability for taxation of any other interest in the same property is not affected.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

7.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

8.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property held by a church for use as a residence for priests, ministers or rabbis;

(d) subject to subsection (3), property held by a church or religious order and used by that body solely for religious, educational or charitable purposes, including burying grounds and church halls from which only revenue for church purposes is derived;

(e) property held by a university, not operated for profit, and excluding any portion of the property used for commercial purposes; and

(f) subject to subsection (3), property used for a cemetery by a corporation not organized, incorporated or operated for profit.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

(3) The exemptions in paragraph (1)(d) for burying grounds and in paragraph (1)(f) do not apply to property or any portion of property not actually in use for the interment of the dead.

(4) An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

PART VI
GRANTS AND TAX CREDITS

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(b) where the holder owns residential property and

(i) is aged sixty-five or older;

(ii) with a physical or mental disability; or

(iii) with financial need.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) must be applied for in writing by a holder each year;

(b) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(c) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants or credits; and

(d) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

Residential Tax Credit

10.(1) Council may provide for a tax credit to holders of residential property who would be entitled to a credit under the provisions of the Residential Property Tax Relief Act (New Brunswick) if the holder's property were located off the reserve.

(2) A credit under subsection (1) must be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Residential Property Tax Relief Act (New Brunswick) if the holder's property was subject to property taxation by the Province.

Annual Authorization

11. Council will in each taxation year determine all grants and credits that will be given under this Part and will authorize those amounts in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

12.(1) On or before December 14 in the year prior to each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

13.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before May 31 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to Tobique.

PART VIII

ASSESSMENT AND TAX ROLL AND ASSESSMENT AND TAX NOTICE

Assessment and Tax Roll

14.(1) On or before November 30 in the year before the taxation year, the tax administrator must provide to the assessor the taxation information required to create the assessment and tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) If at any time the tax administrator discovers that there is an error or omission in any part of the assessment and tax roll, the tax administrator must advise the assessor of the error or omission.

Assessment and Tax Notices

15.(1) The mailing of the Assessment and Tax Notice under the Assessment Law constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes by the First Nation.

(2) Where the tax administrator mails an amended Assessment and Tax Notice under the Assessment Law that indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

Amended Assessment and Tax Notices

16. Where the tax administrator mails an amended Assessment and Tax Notice under the Assessment Law that indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Assessment and Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide the requested information to the tax administrator within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection 17(1).

PART IX
PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

18. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the assessment and tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

19.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each assessment and tax roll folio searched.

PART X
PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

20. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after May 31 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after May 31 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year.

Application of Payments

22. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI
REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

23.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law.

Reserve Funds

24.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the FMB has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation, the FMB may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII
COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

25.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 6(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Assessment and Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(4) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

26.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

27.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the assessment and tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII
SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

29.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

(3) The costs payable by the debtor under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule II.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

30.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

31.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

32.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 31(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

33. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

34.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV
SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

35.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

36.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 40(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

37.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

38. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

39. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 40(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

40.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 37(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

41.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 40(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments,

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 40(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

42.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

43.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 37(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

44.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

45.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that section.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

46. Notwithstanding section 45, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

47. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment and tax roll, Assessment and Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

48.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

49.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail, or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the

assessment and tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment and tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

50.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 24 day of August, 2016 at Tobique, in the Province of New Brunswick.

A quorum of Council consists of Five (5) members of Council.

SCHEDULE VII

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties, and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to section __ of the Tobique Property Taxation Law, 2016 , seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of Tobique, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of Tobique will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Tobique Property Taxation Law, 2016 .

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Millbrook Band in the Province of Nova Scotia,

Millbrook First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 15th day of November, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

Clarence Jules

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

MILLBROOK FIRST NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The council of the Millbrook First Nation has made the Millbrook Band of Indians Land Tax By-Law in 1996 which by-law, by operation of section 145 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, has been deemed to be a property taxation law made further to the Act;

C. Section 10 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Millbrook First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Millbrook First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1) (b) of the Act as required by paragraph 10(b) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Millbrook Band of Indians Land Tax By-law;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Millbrook First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1) (b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1) (a) of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

"Taxation Law" means the Millbrook Band of Indians Land Tax By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) all of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11. (1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 11th day of October 2016, at Millbrook Band Administration Office, 820 Willow Street, Truro, in the Province of Nova Scotia.
A quorum of Council consists of five (5) members of Council.

ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the Millbrook First Nation has made the Millbrook Band of Indians Land Tax By-Law in 1996 which by-law, by operation of section 145 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, has been deemed to be a property taxation law made further to the Act;

C. Section 10 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Millbrook First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Millbrook First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations made under that Act;

ANISHINAABEG OF KETTLE & STONY POINT FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the Council of a First Nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the Anishinaabeg of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation (also known as the Chippewas of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation) has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a First Nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Anishinaabeg of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Anishinaabeg of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Anishinaabeg of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2016;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Anishinaabeg of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation, (also known as the Chippewas of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation) being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Anishinaabeg of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016 and ending March 31, 2017 is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

Current ver. 2016 01 04

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 8, and section 10, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. A Capital Reserve Fund is hereby established for the funding of water and sewer infrastructure, public works and equipment replacement for the following types of local services: water and sewer services, and the provision and maintenance of public facilities.

8. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

9. This Law authorizes the expenditures from the Capital Reserve Fund as indicated in the annual budget, for the purposes of water and sewer, public facilities and equipment maintenance and replacement.

10. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

11. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

12. Notwithstanding section 10 of this law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

13. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

14. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

15. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

16.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

17. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression "must" is to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"entity" means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the chief financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the first nation manager and the chief financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The first nation manager or the chief financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the first nation manager or the chief financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the first nation manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

(c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

(d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;

(e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;

(f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

(h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;

(b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;

(c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;

(d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;

(e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;

(f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;

(g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

(j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;

(k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

(l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

First Nation Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as first nation manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the first nation manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;

(b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;

(c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the first nation manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;

(d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;

(e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;

(f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;

(g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;

(h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(i) to perform any other duties of the first nation manager under this Law; and

(j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the first nation manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The first nation manager may assign the performance of any of the first nation manager's duties or functions

(a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the first nation manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Chief Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as chief financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the first nation manager, the chief financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the chief financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the first nation manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the chief financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the first nation manager, the chief financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the chief financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the chief financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the chief financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

(a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;

(b) to recommend to the chief financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;

(c) to recommend to the chief financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;

(d) on request, to provide advice to the first nation manager, chief financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;

(e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and

(f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the first nation manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

(a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;

(b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

(c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,

(ii) the first nation manager, the chief financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the first nation manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the first nation manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the chief financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the chief financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to the local revenue account;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenue Account Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to the local revenue account must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenue account;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution; and

(c) authorized by the first nation manager or the chief financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);

(b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

(c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and

(e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The chief financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The chief financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that permitted under a local revenue law.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The first nation manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the first nation manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not permit an expenditure from the local revenue account.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The first nation manager or the chief financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the first nation manager or chief financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the first nation manager or the chief financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The first nation manager or the chief financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from the local revenue account in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account;

(b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and

(c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the chief financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the chief financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the chief financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) The First Nation must not obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any person other than the First Nations Finance Authority.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the first nation manager or the chief financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the chief financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the chief financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 105;

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the chief financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or

(d) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority:

(a) government transfer funds;

(b) local revenues; and

(c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the chief financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the chief financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the first nation manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the first nation manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The chief financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the chief financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the chief financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The chief financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the chief financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The chief financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in section 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the chief financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The chief financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenue Account Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) The chief financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account of the First Nation in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of the local revenue account.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of the local revenue account.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The chief financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);

(e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and

(f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account referred to in section 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the chief financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 74(1) must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The first nation manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the first nation manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The first nation manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The first nation manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the chief financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the first nation manager must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The first nation manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the first nation manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the chief financial officer must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The first nation manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the first nation manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

(a) the First Nation is

(i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or

(ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the first nation manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the first nation manager under subsection 101(3), the first nation manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the first nation manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The first nation manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 1 day of March, 2016, at Rama, in the Province of Ontario at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of _____ ( ) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

"spouse" means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

"this Law" means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a "conflict of interest" when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an "apparent conflict of interest" if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual's private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual's "private interests" means the individual's personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual's spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the first nation manager:

(a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The first nation manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the first nation manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than one hundred dollars ($100) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the first nation manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The first nation manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the first nation manager or, in the case of the first nation manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the first nation manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the first nation manager or, in the case of the first nation manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression "must" is to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions referenced in this Law that Council must establish and otherwise does establish and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"entity" means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to the Chief and each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the Chief and or councillor while acting in that capacity, or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be the Chief or a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must consist of either the Chief and a councillor or two (2) councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice-chair of the Committee, one of whom must be the Chief or a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-council member as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least the Chief or one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the band administrator and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The band administrator or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the band administrator or the senior financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the band administrator, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

(c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

(d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including any special purpose reports;

(e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the Chief, councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;

(f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(g) conduct a review of this Law under section 103 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

(h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;

(b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;

(c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;

(d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;

(e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;

(f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;

(g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

(j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;

(k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

(l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Band Administrator

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as band administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the band administrator is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following:

(a) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;

(b) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 20;

(d) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;

(e) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (d) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(f) to perform any other duties of the band administrator under this Law; and

(g) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the band administrator's duties specified in this Law or the Saugeen First Nation Governance Law.

(3) The band administrator may assign the performance of any of the BA's duties or functions

(a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the band administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the band administrator, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 69, the quarterly financial statements required in section 70 and the draft annual financial statements required in section 71;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend to Council procedures for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the band administrator that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the band administrator, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

20.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

(a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;

(b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

(c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,

(ii) the band administrator, the senior financial officer and other officers of the First Nation, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the band administrator must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to the Chief, a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the band administrator must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of the Chief and Councillors

21.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, the Chief and a councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest, comply with this law and the conflict of interest provisions set out in the Saugeen First Nation Governance Law.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Chief and or a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

22.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not the Chief or a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not the Chief or a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

23. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

24. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

25.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

26.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

27. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when this deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(b) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

28.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to section 35, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

29.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

30.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution; and

(c) authorized by the band administrator or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (d);

(b) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(c) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and

(d) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 87.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

31.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 30; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 30 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

32.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

33. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

34.(1) Subject to subsection 35(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

35.(1) The band administrator may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the band administrator the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

Appropriations

36.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

37.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

38.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The band administrator or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The band administrator or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(10) Subject to subsection (8), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

39. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a signing officer designated by the Council and by either the band administrator or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

40. The band administrator or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

41. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

42.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

43.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 30(2), other than a trust account or tangible capital asset reserve account, must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 30(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account; and

(b) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

45. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

46. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

(1) Subject to subsection (2), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 30(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

48.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a law made under paragraph 5(1)(d) of the Act, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

49.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

50.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

51.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 30(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

52. Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

53.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 90(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 90(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

54. Subject to this Law and a law made under paragraph 5(1)(d) of the Act, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 51(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

55.(1) Subject to this section and any law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 61(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

56. A security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a signing officer designated by the Council and by either the band administrator or the senior financial officer.

Operational Controls

57. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

58.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

59.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 102;

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 102, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

60 (1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

61.(1) Money in an account described in section 30 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or, if the trust is silent on that matter, under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 30, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or

(e) a member investment program described in section 62.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

(a) government transfer funds; and

(b) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

62.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation that are eighteen (18) years of age or older;

(b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

63.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

64.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the band administrator, in consultation with the senior financial officer, must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the band administrator, with the support of the senior financial officer, must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

65.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 64 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of the Chief, a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been the Chief a councillor or an officer.

66.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

67. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

68. If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

69.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

70.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

71.(1) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(2) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 25(2).

(4) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(5) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within ninety (90) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Special Purpose Reports

72. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 62(3)(c);

(e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and

(f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

73.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board Standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, the Chief, councillors, officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

74.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) the Chief, any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

75.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(3) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 72.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

76.(1) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(2) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

77.(1) Before the annual financial statements may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the senior financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Annual Report

78.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 72, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The band administrator must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the band administrator to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

79.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

80.(1) The band administrator must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to the Chief, councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

81.(1) The band administrator must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

82.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

83. If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

84. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

85. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 89;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

86. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

87. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

88. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the band administrator must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 91 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

89.(1) The band administrator, with the support of the senior financial officer, must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the band administrator, with the support of the senior financial officer, must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the band administrator, with the support of the senior financial officer, must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

90.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 89 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

91.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

92. The band administrator may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the band administrator, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

93. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

94.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

95. Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

96.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

97. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

98.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If the Chief or a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the Chief or councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the band administrator or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

99.(1) If a report is made to the band administrator under subsection 98(3), the band administrator must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 98, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

100.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the band administrator, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the Chief and or councillor to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 98 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 98 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation, the Chief, a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The band administrator and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 98 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 98; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 98.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

101.(1) The Chief or a councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or a law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) or (d) of the Act is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the Chief or councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

102.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former Chief or councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

103.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

104. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

105. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 23, 25, 26, 28, 67-71, 73-77, 83, 94 and 95 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 12 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 28th day of Nov, 2016, at Saugeen, in the Province of Ontario at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of five (5) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

"spouse" means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

"this Law" means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a "conflict of interest" when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an "apparent conflict of interest" if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual's private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual's "private interests" means the individual's personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual's spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to the Chief and all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) The Chief and all councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) The Chief and all councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(3) the Chief and each councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the Band Administrator:

(a) the names of the Chief's and each councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the Chief and each councillor and the Chief and each councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the the Chief and each councillor or the Chief's and each councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the Chief and each councillor or the Chief's and each councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(4) the Chief and each councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (3) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the the Chief and each councillor holds office.

(5) The senior financial officer must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by the Chief and each councillor under this section and section 6.

(6) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the band administrator must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (5).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) The Chief or a councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that Chief or councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the Chief or a councillor in the exercise of the Chief or a councillor's powers or performance of the Chiefs or councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the Chief's or councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to the Chief or a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the Chief or councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the Band administrator under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) The Chief and all councillors must keep confidential all information that the Chief and all councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(3) The Chief and all councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the Chief and all councillors.

(4) The Chief and all councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the Chief and all councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as the Chief or a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the Chief or councillor has a conflict of interest, the Chief or councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) The Chief or councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the Chief or councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the Chief's or councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the Chief's or councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the Chief or councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) The Chief or councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the Chief or councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) The Chief or councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the Chief or councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If the Chief or a councillor has reason to believe that the Chief or another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the Chief or another councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), the Chief or a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the Chief or councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the Chief or a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that the Chief or a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the Chief or councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) The Chief or a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The band administrator must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the band administrator or, in the case of the band administrator, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the band administrator or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the band administrator or, in the case of the band administrator, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(3) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(4) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that the Chief, a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that the Chief, a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor and Assessment Appraiser

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake the duties of the assessor as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) Council may designate an assessment appraiser to carry out valuations as set out in this Law.

(3) A person who carries out valuations under this Law must be qualified to conduct assessment appraisals of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Property Assessable

5.(1) All property that is subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all property for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council must be assessed in accordance with this Law.

(2) A valuation must be prepared for each assessable property in accordance with this Law.

(3) The assessor must prepare an assessment for each assessable property using the valuation prepared for that property.

(4) An assessment must be prepared for an improvement whether or not it is complete or capable of being used for its intended purpose.

Assessment and Valuation

6.(1) All property must be assessed as of the applicable base date.

(2) Each property must be assessed using only mass appraisal.

(3) Regulated property assessments must be determined according to the regulated property assessment valuation standard.

(4) Non-regulated property assessments must be determined according to the market valuation standard.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (3) and (4), the rules for preparing assessments apply to the assessment of all property unless stated to apply only to regulated property assessments or only to non-regulated property assessments.

(6) Land and improvements may be assessed separately in circumstances where separate values are required.

(7) The dominant and controlling factor in the assessment of property is equity.

(8) Equity in regulated property assessments is achieved by applying the regulated property assessment valuation standard uniformly and fairly.

(9) Equity in non-regulated property assessments is achieved by applying the market valuation standard so that the assessments bear a fair and just proportion to the market value of similar properties as of the applicable base date.

(10) The assessed value must reflect all the facts, conditions and circumstances affecting the property as of January 1 of each year as if they had existed on the applicable base date.

(11) The assessed value of land through which a pipeline runs is not to be reduced if the pipeline is buried in the land and the surface rights are not held by the owner of the pipeline.

(12) Notwithstanding the disposal of lots or plots in a cemetery, the holder of property used as a cemetery must be assessed with respect to all the lands included in the cemetery.

(13) After the assessed value of a property is determined, the assessor must determine the taxable assessment of the property by multiplying the assessed value by the percentage of value applicable to the property class to which the property belongs.

(14) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation, the assessment manual, and any guidelines established by the agency to determine the assessed value of a property, existing at the time of assessment, and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve, must be used.

Property Classes

7.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) The assessor must in each year as of January 1 determine to which property class a property belongs.

(4) If there is a change to the use of a property, the assessor must classify the property as of the date that the change is made to the assessment roll in accordance with this Law.

(5) If one use of any property is clearly distinct from the property's predominant use and is not integrated with or directly related to the property's predominant use, the assessor may

(a) determine that portions of the property that include more than one use, or portions of the property's assessment, belong to different property classes; and

(b) apportion the assessed value of the property among those property classes.

(6) If the assessor determines that portions of any property, or portions of the property's assessment, belong to different property classes, the property may be entered more than once in the assessment roll for the purpose of indicating the assessed value of each portion within a property class.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8.(1) The assessor or the assessment appraiser may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, requesting that a person who owns, uses, occupies, manages or disposes of a property provide information or documents that relate to or might relate to the value of a property, and that person must provide to the assessor or the assessment appraiser, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice

(a) all of the requested information and documents relating to or affecting the determination of the value that are in the possession or under the control of the person; and

(b) a written declaration signed by the person stating that the information provided by the person is complete, true and accurate to the best of his or her knowledge.

(2) A holder of property that is liable to assessment must

(a) provide an assessment appraiser with the particulars required by the assessment appraiser for the purpose of making a valuation of the property or the fixtures, machinery or other equipment valuation; and

(b) if required by the assessment appraiser, deliver to the assessment appraiser a written statement, signed by the person, containing the particulars mentioned in clause (a).

(3) Every year, the assessor may request the holder of property to provide information respecting

(a) the persons who are carrying on business on the property; and

(b) the nature of the business being carried on.

Annual Requirements to Provide Information to Assessor

9.(1) On or before October 1 in each year, every railway company must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of January 1 in the current year:

(a) the total number of kilometres of the railway roadway situated on the reserve;

(b) the description and area in hectares of land on the reserve held by the company, other than a railway roadway;

(c) the description and location of any improvements on the reserve, other than railway superstructures, owned or occupied by the company;

(d) any change in the ownership of a railway roadway and any abandonment of a railway roadway; and

(e) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(2) On or before November 1 in each year, every holder of a petroleum oil or gas well must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of September 1 in the current year:

(a) the holder's name and address;

(b) a list of the resource production equipment situated on the reserve that is subject to assessment and its location;

(c) any change in the resource production equipment situated on the reserve that has occurred since the last information was furnished to the assessor;

(d) the cost of any equipment included and not covered in the schedules of values prepared by the agency;

(e) any change in the ownership or operation of the well, and any abandonment of operation of the well, situated on the reserve; and

(f) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(3) On or before March 1 in each year, every holder of a pipeline must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of January 1 in the current year:

(a) the total number of kilometres of the pipeline right of way situated on the reserve;

(b) the total number of kilometres and the diameter of main and additional pipeline laid on or under the pipeline right of way within the reserve;

(c) the description and area in hectares of land within the reserve held by the holder, other than the pipeline right of way;

(d) the description and location of any improvements within the reserve held by the holder;

(e) any change in the ownership of the pipeline and any abandonment of the pipeline; and

(f) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(6) In all cases, property may be assessed based on the information available and the assessor and assessment appraiser are not bound by the information provided under this section.

Inspections

10.(1) The assessor, for any purposes related to assessment, and the assessment appraiser for valuation purposes, may, after making reasonable efforts to notify the holder of a property, enter that property at any reasonable time.

(2) The assessor or assessment appraiser must display or produce on request identification showing that he or she is authorized to make the entry.

(3) If a person refuses to allow or interferes with an assessment or valuation, or if a person fails to respond to a reasonable request for access to a property under subsection (1), the assessor or assessment

appraiser may

(a) apply ex parte to a justice of the peace or a provincial court judge for a warrant authorizing a person named in the warrant to enter the property; or

(b) determine the assessment or the valuation based on the information available.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3), an assessor or assessment appraiser must not enter any place that is a private dwelling without

(a) the consent of the holder of the private dwelling; or

(b) a warrant issued pursuant to paragraph (3)(a) from a justice of the peace or a provincial court judge authorizing the entry.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

11.(1) On or before May 1 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessor must enter the assessed value of each interest in land, as determined under this Law, in the assessment roll.

(3) The assessor may prepare the assessment roll required under subsection (1) on or after September 1 in the year before the year to which the assessment roll relates.

(4) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information, as applicable:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) whether the property is land, improvements, or land and the improvements to it;

(d) the classification of the interest in land;

(e) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(f) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(g) the taxable assessment of the interest in land; and

(h) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(5) If two or more persons are the holders of assessable property, the name of each of those persons is to be entered on the assessment roll with respect to the person's share of or interest in the property.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (2), if two or more assessable properties have the same holder, the assessor may combine the assessment of those properties into a single assessment for the purposes of the assessment roll.

Certification by Assessor

12. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before May 1 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

13.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll under sections 19 or 20, or amends the assessment roll to reflect reconsideration decisions or implement decisions of the Assessment Review

Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment roll is amended under this Law, other than under section 20, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 12.

(3) Where the assessment roll is amended under section 20, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date of the amendment.

(4) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

14.(1) An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

(2) The fact that any information on the assessment roll contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate any other information on the assessment roll or the assessment roll itself.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

15.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

16.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

17.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

18.(1) The assessor must, within fifteen (15) days after the assessment roll is completed and certified, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) The Assessment Notice may be sent by any means to the mailing address of the assessed person, or if requested by an assessed person, by facsimile or electronic mail at the number or address provided by the person.

(3) If a person purchases property or in any other manner becomes liable to be shown on the assessment roll as an assessed person, that person must give the assessor written notice of a mailing address to which Assessment Notices may be sent.

(4) An Assessment Notice may include a number of assessed properties if the same person is the assessed person for all of them.

(5) No assessment is invalid by reason of any error in the Assessment Notice or by reason of the non-receipt of the notice by the person to whom it was addressed.

(6) The Assessment Notice and the tax notice given under the Taxation Law relating to the same property may be sent together or may be combined on one notice.

(7) If an error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on an Assessment Notice, the assessor may prepare an amended Assessment Notice and send it to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property.

(8) Subject to subsection 15(2) and subsection (9), the assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of ten dollars ($10), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice.

(9) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 16(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (8).

PART VII

CORRECTION AND AMENDMENT OF ASSESSMENT ROLL

Corrections and Additions to Assessment Roll

19.(1) If an error or omission in any of the information shown on the assessment roll is discovered, the assessor may, in consultation with the assessment appraiser if the error or omission relates to the assessed value, correct the assessment roll for the current year only.

(2) If the assessor makes a correction on the assessment roll respecting the property class, the assessed value, or the applicability of an exemption to the property, the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the property affected.

(3) A correction made under subsection (1) is effective from January 1 of the year with respect to which the assessment is made.

(4) If, after certification of the assessment roll, a property is subdivided, the assessor may cancel the assessment of the property, reassess the resulting properties and amend the assessment roll accordingly.

(5) Where assessments are made under subsection (4), the assessor must mail an Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of each new property.

(6) A person whose name is entered in the assessment roll may apply in writing to the assessor to have the name of any other person entered in the same assessment roll if that other person's name should have been entered in the roll.

(7) The assessor must comply with an application made pursuant to subsection (6) after verifying that the person named in the application is entitled to have his or her name entered in the assessment roll.

Supplementary Assessments

20.(1) The assessor must make any supplementary assessment that may be necessary to reflect a change if, after Assessment Notices are sent but on or before November 1 of the taxation year for which taxes are levied on the assessment mentioned in the notice, it is discovered that the assessed value of any property is not the same as the assessed value entered on the assessment roll by reason of

(a) the destruction of or damage to the property;

(b) the demolition, alteration or removal of an improvement;

(c) the construction of an improvement; or

(d) a change in the use of the property.

(2) A supplementary assessment must reflect

(a) the assessed value of any property that has not been previously assessed; or

(b) the change in the assessed value of any property since it was last assessed.

(3) If any property exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law ceases to be exempt on or before November 1 of the taxation year for which taxes are levied, the assessor must assess the person liable to assessment and enter a supplementary assessment on the assessment roll.

(4) If a supplementary assessment is made to the assessment roll under this section, the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the property affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

21.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration, including by asking the assessment appraiser to advise on valuation matters, and, within twenty-one (21) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

22.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a practicing or non-practicing member in good standing of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

23.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair (or acting chair) at a rate of one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125) per hour ,

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than the chair, who meets the criteria set out in subsection 22(2), at a rate of one hundred dollars ($100) per hour, and

(c) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than those referenced in paragraphs (a) and (b), at a rate of seventy-five dollars ($75) per hour

for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law, or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member, of the Assessment Review Board, including a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

24.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

25.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

26.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

27. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

28. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

29. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

30.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within forty-five (45) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) An appeal is commenced by delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor at the address set out in the Assessment Notice.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(d) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an amended or supplementary assessment, the appeal must be confined to the amended or supplementary assessment, as the case may be.

(5) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

31. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

32.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least fourteen (14) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

33. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

34. The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

35. Subject to section 48, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

36.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

37.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

38.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

39.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

40.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

41. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

42. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

43.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

44.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the

Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

45. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

46. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal, where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

47.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

48. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

49.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

50(1) The Assessment Review Board must, not more than ninety (90) days after the day on which a hearing is completed, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to its assessment roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

51.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the first nation's administrative office, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

52.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction from a decision of the Assessment Review Board on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be made within thirty (30) days after the day on which the decision is delivered under subsection 50(1).

PART XI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

53.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

54. Notwithstanding section 53,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

55. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

56.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

57.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

58. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 6th day of June, 2016, at Flying Dust First Nation, in the Province of Saskatchewan.

A quorum of Council consists of five (5) members of Council.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of the Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property that is held and occupied by, and used for, an independent school, not operated for profit;

(d) property that is held and occupied by, and used for, a public school;

(e) a place of public worship and the land used in connection with it, subject to the following limits:

(i) the maximum amount of land is the greater of 0.81 hectare, and 10 square metres of land for every one square metre of occupied building space,

(ii) the place of public worship and land must be held by a religious organization, and

(iii) the exemption does not apply to any portion of property that is used as a residence or for any purpose other than as a place of public worship;

(f) property used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and excluding doctors' or nurses' residences;

(g) property held by a university and used for university purposes, not operated for profit;

(h) property used as a cemetery that is not operated for profit.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

Taxation Agreements

8.(1) For the purposes of advancing the economic development, the social development, or environmental rehabilitation or protection of the reserve, the Council, subject to subsection (2), may enter into an agreement with a taxpayer reducing or eliminating the taxpayer's liability to taxation under this Law.

(2) An agreement under subsection (1) must be in writing, approved by resolution of Council, signed and formally executed by the Chief on behalf of the First Nation and signed and formally executed by the taxpayer, and must:

(a) be limited to a duration of five taxation years or less;

(b) detail the nature and amount of the investment to be undertaken by the taxpayer in furtherance of one or more of the purposes set out in subsection (1);

(c) state the percentage of exemption from taxation liability to be provided to the taxpayer during the time the agreement is in effect;

(d) provide for the cancellation of the agreement by the First Nation and the re-establishment of the liability to taxation of the taxpayer if the investment described in paragraph "b" is not actually made;

(e) be entered into prior to November 30th of the year before the taxation year is to go into effect; and

(f) make the tax administrator responsible for administering the agreement on behalf of the First Nation, and name the person responsible for administering the agreement on behalf of the taxpayer.

(3) An agreement entered into pursuant to this section may provide for any other terms and conditions that Council and taxpayer think advisable in the circumstances which do not contradict the provisions of this Law or the Flying Dust Property Assessment Law, 2016 or any other enactment of the First Nation.

(4) The Council may, from time to time, establish by resolution any forms, policies, or publications required to administer or publicize the tax agreement provision in this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "taxpayer" includes any person proposing to acquire an interest in land on the reserve in relation to a specific development.

PART VI
GRANTS

Annual Grants

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

Annual Authorization

10. Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

11.(1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the taxable assessment of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to supplementary taxes levied under section 16.

(6) Despite subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(7) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (6) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before June 30 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Flying Dust First Nation.

PART VIII
TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

13.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information, as applicable:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value and the taxable assessment by classification of property as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) The fact that any information shown on the tax roll contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate any other information on the tax roll.

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) If requested by a recipient, the tax administrator may provide a Tax Notice by facsimile or e-mail at the number or address provided by that person and the Tax Notice is deemed to have been mailed as required under subsection (1).

(4) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(5) A Tax Notice may include a number of taxable properties if the same person is the taxpayer for all of them.

(6) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice required under the Assessment Law relating to the same property may be sent together or may be combined into one notice.

(7) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(8) If a material error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on a Tax Notice, the tax administrator must prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(9) No defect, error or omission in the form or substance of a Tax Notice, or in its service, transmission or receipt, invalidates any subsequent proceedings for the recovery of taxes.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) If an error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on the tax roll, the tax administrator

(a) may correct the tax roll for the current year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll must prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(3) If it is discovered that no tax has been imposed on taxable property, the tax administrator may impose the tax for the current year only and must prepare and send a Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(4) If exempt property becomes taxable or taxable property becomes exempt under this Law, the tax administrator must

(a) correct the tax roll; and

(b) send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(5) Where the taxable status of property changes under subsection (4), the tax administrator must prorate the tax imposed so that the tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property is not exempt.

(6) The date of every entry made on the tax roll under this section must be shown on the tax roll.

(7) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.

(8) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Supplementary Tax Roll

16.(1) Where a supplementary assessment is prepared under the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must prepare a supplementary tax roll.

(2) A supplementary tax roll must be in the same form and contain the same information shown on the tax roll with respect to each property on the supplementary tax roll, and must show the date for determining the tax that may be imposed for the taxation year.

(3) The tax administrator must

(a) prepare supplementary Tax Notices for all taxable property shown on the supplementary tax roll; and

(b) send the supplementary Tax Notices to every person entitled to a Tax Notice in respect of that property.

(4) Where a supplementary assessment is made in accordance with the Assessment Law, the amount of taxes levied in that taxation year is to be adjusted to correspond with

(a) the portion of the year following the date on which construction of the building was completed, unless the building or a portion of the building was occupied before that date, in which case the amount levied is to be adjusted to correspond with the portion of the year following the date of occupancy;

(b) the portion of the year that elapsed before the completion of the removal or demolition of the building; or

(c) the portion of the year that has elapsed since the value of the property changed.

(5) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

(6) Where a supplementary Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the supplementary Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

18. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

19.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

20. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year.

Application of Payments

22. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

23.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

24.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation,

the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII
COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

25.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV the tax administrator must request and receive authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

26.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

27.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

29.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

30.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

31.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

32.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 31(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

33. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

34.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV
SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

35.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

36.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 40(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

37.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

38. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

39. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 40(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

40.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 37(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

41.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 40(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 40(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

42.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

43.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 37(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

44.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

45.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

46. Notwithstanding section 45,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

47. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

48.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

49.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

50.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 10 day of June 2016, at Flying Dust First Nation, in the Province of Saskatchewan.

A quorum of Council consists of five (5) members of Council.

SCHEDULE VIII

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to Part XIV of the Flying Dust First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [or auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [or auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Flying Dust First Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [or auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [or auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [or auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [or auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the Flying Dust First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Flying Dust First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [or auction] in respect of the taxable property (referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

5. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

6. Council of the Flying Dust First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to assignment of the taxable property.

7. The tax administrator will register an assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

8. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

9. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

10. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Flying Dust First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 7(5)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor and Assessment Appraiser

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake the duties of the assessor as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) Council may designate an assessment appraiser to carry out valuations as set out in this Law.

(3) A person who carries out valuations under this Law must be qualified to conduct assessment appraisals of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Property Assessable

5.(1) All property that is subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all property for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council must be assessed in accordance with this Law.

(2) A valuation must be prepared for each assessable property in accordance with this Law.

(3) The assessor must prepare an assessment for each assessable property using the valuation prepared for that property.

(4) An assessment must be prepared for an improvement whether or not it is complete or capable of being used for its intended purpose.

Assessment and Valuation

6.(1) All property must be assessed as of the applicable base date.

(2) Each property must be assessed using only mass appraisal.

(3) Regulated property assessments must be determined according to the regulated property assessment valuation standard.

(4) Non-regulated property assessments must be determined according to the market valuation standard.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (3) and (4), the rules for preparing assessments apply to the assessment of all property unless stated to apply only to regulated property assessments or only to non-regulated property assessments.

(6) Land and improvements may be assessed separately in circumstances where separate values are required.

(7) The dominant and controlling factor in the assessment of property is equity.

(8) Equity in regulated property assessments is achieved by applying the regulated property assessment valuation standard uniformly and fairly.

(9) Equity in non-regulated property assessments is achieved by applying the market valuation standard so that the assessments bear a fair and just proportion to the market value of similar properties as of the applicable base date.

(10) The assessed value must reflect all the facts, conditions and circumstances affecting the property as of January 1 of each year as if they had existed on the applicable base date.

(11) The assessed value of land through which a pipeline runs is not to be reduced if the pipeline is buried in the land and the surface rights are not held by the owner of the pipeline.

(12) Notwithstanding the disposal of lots or plots in a cemetery, the holder of property used as a cemetery must be assessed with respect to all the lands included in the cemetery.

(13) After the assessed value of a property is determined, the assessor must determine the taxable assessment of the property by multiplying the assessed value by the percentage of value applicable to the property class to which the property belongs.

(14) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation, the assessment manual, and any guidelines established by the agency to determine the assessed value of a property, existing at the time of assessment, and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve,

must be used.

Property Classes

7.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) The assessor must in each year as of January 1 determine to which property class a property belongs.

(4) If there is a change to the use of a property, the assessor must classify the property as of the date that the change is made to the assessment roll in accordance with this Law.

(5) If one use of any property is clearly distinct from the property's predominant use and is not integrated with or directly related to the property's predominant use, the assessor may

(a) determine that portions of the property that include more than one use, or portions of the property's assessment, belong to different property classes; and

(b) apportion the assessed value of the property among those property classes.

(6) If the assessor determines that portions of any property, or portions of the property's assessment, belong to different property classes, the property may be entered more than once in the assessment roll for the purpose of indicating the assessed value of each portion within a property class.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8.(1) The assessor or the assessment appraiser may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, requesting that a person who owns, uses, occupies, manages or disposes of a property provide information or documents that relate to or might relate to the value of a property, and that person must provide to the assessor or the assessment appraiser, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice

(a) all of the requested information and documents relating to or affecting the determination of the value that are in the possession or under the control of the person; and

(b) a written declaration signed by the person stating that the information provided by the person is complete, true and accurate to the best of his or her knowledge.

(2) A holder of property that is liable to assessment must

(a) provide an assessment appraiser with the particulars required by the assessment appraiser for the purpose of making a valuation of the property or the fixtures, machinery or other equipment valuation; and

(b) if required by the assessment appraiser, deliver to the assessment appraiser a written statement, signed by the person, containing the particulars mentioned in clause (a).

(3) Every year, the assessor may request the holder of property to provide information respecting

(a) the persons who are carrying on business on the property; and

(b) the nature of the business being carried on.

Annual Requirements to Provide Information to Assessor

9.(1) On or before October 1 in each year, every railway company must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of January 1 in the current year:

(a) the total number of kilometres of the railway roadway situated on the reserve;

(b) the description and area in hectares of land on the reserve held by the company, other than a railway roadway;

(c) the description and location of any improvements on the reserve, other than railway superstructures, owned or occupied by the company;

(d) any change in the ownership of a railway roadway and any abandonment of a railway roadway; and

(e) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(2) On or before November 1 in each year, every holder of a petroleum oil or gas well must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of September 1 in the current year:

(a) the holder's name and address;

(b) a list of the resource production equipment situated on the reserve that is subject to assessment and its location;

(c) any change in the resource production equipment situated on the reserve that has occurred since the last information was furnished to the assessor;

(d) the cost of any equipment included and not covered in the schedules of values prepared by the agency;

(e) any change in the ownership or operation of the well, and any abandonment of operation of the well, situated on the reserve; and

(f) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(3) On or before March 1 in each year, every holder of a pipeline must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of January 1 in the current year:

(a) the total number of kilometres of the pipeline right of way situated on the reserve;

(b) the total number of kilometres and the diameter of main and additional pipeline laid on or under the pipeline right of way within the reserve;

(c) the description and area in hectares of land within the reserve held by the holder, other than the pipeline right of way;

(d) the description and location of any improvements within the reserve held by the holder;

(e) any change in the ownership of the pipeline and any abandonment of the pipeline; and

(f) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(4) In all cases, property may be assessed based on the information available and the assessor and assessment appraiser are not bound by the information provided under this section.

Inspections

10.(1) The assessor, for any purposes related to assessment, and the assessment appraiser for valuation purposes, may, after making reasonable efforts to notify the holder of a property, enter that property at any reasonable time.

(2) The assessor or assessment appraiser must display or produce on request identification showing that he or she is authorized to make the entry.

(3) If a person refuses to allow or interferes with an assessment or valuation, or if a person fails to respond to a reasonable request for access to a property under subsection (1), the assessor or assessment appraiser may

(a) apply ex parte to a justice of the peace or a provincial court judge for a warrant authorizing a person named in the warrant to enter the property; or

(b) determine the assessment or the valuation based on the information available.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3), an assessor or assessment appraiser must not enter any place that is a private dwelling without

(a) the consent of the holder of the private dwelling; or

(b) a warrant issued pursuant to paragraph (3)(a) from a justice of the peace or a provincial court judge authorizing the entry.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

11.(1) On or before May 1 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessor must enter the assessed value of each interest in land, as determined under this Law, in the assessment roll.

(3) The assessor may prepare the assessment roll required under subsection (1) on or after September 1 in the year before the year to which the assessment roll relates.

(4) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information, as applicable:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) whether the property is land, improvements, or land and the improvements to it;

(d) the classification of the interest in land;

(e) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(f) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(g) the taxable assessment of the interest in land; and

(h) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(5) If two or more persons are the holders of assessable property, the name of each of those persons is to be entered on the assessment roll with respect to the person's share of or interest in the property.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (2), if two or more assessable properties have the same holder, the assessor may combine the assessment of those properties into a single assessment for the purposes of the assessment roll.

Certification by Assessor

12. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before May 1 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

13.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll under sections 19 or 20, or amends the assessment roll to reflect reconsideration decisions or implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment roll is amended under this Law, other than under section 20, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 12.

(3) Where the assessment roll is amended under section 20, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date of the amendment.

(4) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

14.(1) An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

(2) The fact that any information on the assessment roll contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate any other information on the assessment roll or the assessment roll itself.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

15.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

16.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

17.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

18.(1) The assessor must, within fifteen (15) days after the assessment roll is completed and certified, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) The Assessment Notice may be sent by any means to the mailing address of the assessed person, or if requested by an assessed person, by facsimile or electronic mail at the number or address provided by the person.

(3) If a person purchases property or in any other manner becomes liable to be shown on the assessment roll as an assessed person, that person must give the assessor written notice of a mailing address to which Assessment Notices may be sent.

(4) An Assessment Notice may include a number of assessed properties if the same person is the assessed person for all of them.

(5) No assessment is invalid by reason of any error in the Assessment Notice or by reason of the non-receipt of the notice by the person to whom it was addressed.

(6) The Assessment Notice and the tax notice given under the Taxation Law relating to the same property may be sent together or may be combined on one notice.

(7) If an error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on an Assessment Notice, the assessor may prepare an amended Assessment Notice and send it to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property.

(8) Subject to subsection 15(2) and subsection (9), the assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of ten dollars ($10), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice.

(9) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 16(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (8).

PART VII

CORRECTION AND AMENDMENT OF ASSESSMENT ROLL

Corrections and Additions to Assessment Roll

19.(1) If an error or omission in any of the information shown on the assessment roll is discovered, the assessor may, in consultation with the assessment appraiser if the error or omission relates to the assessed value, correct the assessment roll for the current year only.

(2) If the assessor makes a correction on the assessment roll respecting the property class, the assessed value, or the applicability of an exemption to the property, the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the property affected.

(3) A correction made under subsection (1) is effective from January 1 of the year with respect to which the assessment is made.

(4) If, after certification of the assessment roll, a property is subdivided, the assessor may cancel the assessment of the property, reassess the resulting properties and amend the assessment roll accordingly.

(5) Where assessments are made under subsection (4), the assessor must mail an Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of each new property.

(6) A person whose name is entered in the assessment roll may apply in writing to the assessor to have the name of any other person entered in the same assessment roll if that other person's name should have been entered in the roll.

(7) The assessor must comply with an application made pursuant to subsection (6) after verifying that the person named in the application is entitled to have his or her name entered in the assessment roll.

Supplementary Assessments

20.(1) The assessor must make any supplementary assessment that may be necessary to reflect a change if, after Assessment Notices are sent but on or before November 1 of the taxation year for which taxes are levied on the assessment mentioned in the notice, it is discovered that the assessed value of any property is not the same as the assessed value entered on the assessment roll by reason of

(a) the destruction of or damage to the property;

(b) the demolition, alteration or removal of an improvement;

(c) the construction of an improvement; or

(d) a change in the use of the property.

(2) A supplementary assessment must reflect

(a) the assessed value of any property that has not been previously assessed; or

(b) the change in the assessed value of any property since it was last assessed.

(3) If any property exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law ceases to be exempt on or before November 1 of the taxation year for which taxes are levied, the assessor must assess the person liable to assessment and enter a supplementary assessment on the assessment roll.

(4) If a supplementary assessment is made to the assessment roll under this section, the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the property affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

21.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration, including by asking the assessment appraiser to advise on valuation matters, and, within twenty-one (21) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

22.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a practicing or non-practicing member in good standing of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

23.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair (or acting chair) at a rate of one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125) per hour ,

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than the chair, who meets the criteria set out in subsection 22(2), at a rate of one hundred dollars ($100) per hour, and

(c) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than those referenced in paragraphs (a) and (b), at a rate of seventy-five dollars ($75) per hour

for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law, or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member, of the Assessment Review Board, including a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

24.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

25.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

26.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

27. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

28. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X
APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

29. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

30.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within forty-five (45) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) An appeal is commenced by delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor at the address set out in the Assessment Notice.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an amended or supplementary assessment, the appeal must be confined to the amended or supplementary assessment, as the case may be.

(5) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

31. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

32.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least fourteen (14) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

33. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

34. The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

35. Subject to section 48, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

36.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

37.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

38.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

39.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

40.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

41. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

42. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

43.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

44.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

45. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

46. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal,

where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

47.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

48. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

49.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

50.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, not more than ninety (90) days after the day on which a hearing is completed, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to its assessment roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

51.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the first nation's administrative office, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

52.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction from a decision of the Assessment Review Board on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be made within thirty (30) days after the day on which the decision is delivered under subsection 50(1).

PART XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

53.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

54. Notwithstanding section 53,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

55. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

56.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

57.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

58. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 27th day of June, 2016, at Cando in the Province of Saskatchewan.

A quorum of Council consists of four (4) members of Council.

PART III

ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

PART IV

LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V

EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property that is held and occupied by, and used for, an independent school, not operated for profit;

(d) property that is held and occupied by, and used for, a public school;

(e) a place of public worship and the land used in connection with it, subject to the following limits:

(i) the maximum amount of land is the greater of 0.81 hectare, and 10 square metres of land for every one square metre of occupied building space,

(ii) the place of public worship and land must be held by a religious organization, and

(iii) the exemption does not apply to any portion of property that is used as a residence or for any purpose other than as a place of public worship;

(f) property used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and excluding doctors' or nurses' residences;

(g) property held by a university and used for university purposes, not operated for profit;

(h) property used as a cemetery that is not operated for profit.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

Taxation Agreements

8.(1) For the purposes of advancing the economic development, the social development, or environmental rehabilitation or protection of the reserve, the Council, subject to subsection (2), may enter into an agreement with a taxpayer reducing or eliminating the taxpayer's liability to taxation under this Law.

(2) An agreement under subsection (1) must be in writing, approved by resolution of Council, signed and formally executed by the Chief on behalf of the First Nation and signed and formally executed by the taxpayer, and must:

(a) be limited to a duration of five taxation years or less;

(b) detail the nature and amount of the investment to be undertaken by the taxpayer in furtherance of one or more of the purposes set out in subsection (1);

(c) state the percentage of exemption from taxation liability to be provided to the taxpayer during the time the agreement is in effect;

(d) provide for the cancellation of the agreement by the First Nation and the re-establishment of the liability to taxation of the taxpayer if the investment described in paragraph "b" is not actually made;

(e) be entered into prior to November 30th of the year before the taxation year is to go into effect; and

(f) make the tax administrator responsible for administering the agreement on behalf of the First Nation, and name the person responsible for administering the agreement on behalf of the taxpayer.

(3) An agreement entered into pursuant to this section may provide for any other terms and conditions that Council and taxpayer think advisable in the circumstances which do not contradict the provisions of this Law or the Mosquito, Grizzly Bear's Head, Lean Man First Nations Property Assessment Law, 2016 or any other enactment of the First Nation.

(4) The Council may, from time to time, establish by resolution any forms, policies, or publications required to administer or publicize the tax agreement provision in this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "taxpayer" includes any person proposing to acquire an interest in land on the reserve in relation to a specific development.

PART VI
GRANTS

Annual Grants

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

Annual Authorization

10. Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

11.(1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the taxable assessment of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to supplementary taxes levied under section 16.

(6) Despite subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(7) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (6) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before June 30 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Mosquito, Grizzly Bear's Head, Lean Man First Nations.

PART VIII
TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

13.(1) On or before June 1st in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information, as applicable:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value and the taxable assessment by classification of property as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) The fact that any information shown on the tax roll contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate any other information on the tax roll.

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) If requested by a recipient, the tax administrator may provide a Tax Notice by facsimile or e-mail at the number or address provided by that person and the Tax Notice is deemed to have been mailed as required under subsection (1).

(4) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(5) A Tax Notice may include a number of taxable properties if the same person is the taxpayer for all of them.

(6) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice required under the Assessment Law relating to the same property may be sent together or may be combined into one notice.

(7) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(8) If a material error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on a Tax Notice, the tax administrator must prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(9) No defect, error or omission in the form or substance of a Tax Notice, or in its service, transmission or receipt, invalidates any subsequent proceedings for the recovery of taxes.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) If an error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on the tax roll, the tax administrator

(a) may correct the tax roll for the current year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll must prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(3) If it is discovered that no tax has been imposed on taxable property, the tax administrator may impose the tax for the current year only and must prepare and send a Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(4) If exempt property becomes taxable or taxable property becomes exempt under this Law, the tax administrator must

(a) correct the tax roll; and

(b) send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(5) Where the taxable status of property changes under subsection (4), the tax administrator must prorate the tax imposed so that the tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property is not exempt.

(6) The date of every entry made on the tax roll under this section must be shown on the tax roll.

(7) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.

(8) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Supplementary Tax Roll

16.(1) Where a supplementary assessment is prepared under the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must prepare a supplementary tax roll.

(2) A supplementary tax roll must be in the same form and contain the same information shown on the tax roll with respect to each property on the supplementary tax roll, and must show the date for determining the tax that may be imposed for the taxation year.

(3) The tax administrator must

(a) prepare supplementary Tax Notices for all taxable property shown on the supplementary tax roll; and

(b) send the supplementary Tax Notices to every person entitled to a Tax Notice in respect of that property.

(4) Where a supplementary assessment is made in accordance with the Assessment Law, the amount of taxes levied in that taxation year is to be adjusted to correspond with

(a) the portion of the year following the date on which construction of the building was completed, unless the building or a portion of the building was occupied before that date, in which case the amount levied is to be adjusted to correspond with the portion of the year following the date of occupancy;

(b) the portion of the year that elapsed before the completion of the removal or demolition of the building; or

(c) the portion of the year that has elapsed since the value of the property changed.

(5) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

(6) Where a supplementary Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the supplementary Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

18. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

19.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

20. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year.

Application of Payments

22. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

23.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

24.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation,

the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

25.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV the tax administrator must request and receive authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

26.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

27.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

29.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

30.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

31.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

32.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 31(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

33. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

34.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

35.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

36.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 40(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

37.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

38. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

39. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 40(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

40.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 37(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

41.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 40(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 40(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

42.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

43.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 37(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

44.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

45.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

46. Notwithstanding section 45,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

47. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

48.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

49.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

50.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 27th day of June, 2016, at Cando in the Province of Saskatchewan.

A quorum of Council consists of four (4) members of Council.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to Part XIV of the Mosquito, Grizzly Bear's Head, Lean Man First Nations Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [or auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [or auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Mosquito, Grizzly Bear's Head, Lean Man First Nations, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [or auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [or auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [or auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [or auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the Mosquito, Grizzly Bear's Head, Lean Man First Nations will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Mosquito, Grizzly Bear's Head, Lean Man First Nations Property Taxation Law, 2016.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation in the Province of Saskatchewan,

Muskeg Lake Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 25th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

MUSKEG LAKE CREE NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure law" means a law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Bylaw No. 1 in Respect to Muskeg Lake Indian Reserve #102A;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Bylaw No. 1 in Respect to the Muskeg Lake Indian Reserve #102A.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017 is comprised of

(a) all of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) all of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation in the Province of Saskatchewan,

Muskeg Lake Cree Nation Annual Rates Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 25th day of August, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

MUSKEG LAKE CREE NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation Annual Rates Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Bylaw No. 1 in Respect to the Muskeg Lake Indian Reserve #102A;

"First Nation" means the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

"Taxation Law" means the Bylaw No. 1 in Respect to the Muskeg Lake Indian Reserve #102A.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2016 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

5. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

6. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

7. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

8. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 10th day of August, 2016, at Muskeg Lake, in the Province of Saskatchewan.

"taxation year" means the calendar year to which an assessment roll applies for the purposes of taxation;

"taxes" includes

(a) all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under the Taxation Law, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under the Taxation Law, and

(b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any other local revenue law of the First Nation, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a law; and

"valuation" means the determination of the assessed value of an interest in land.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 7(5)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor and Assessment Appraiser

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake the duties of the assessor as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) Council may designate an assessment appraiser to carry out valuations as set out in this Law.

(3) A person who carries out valuations under this Law must be qualified to conduct assessment appraisals of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Property Assessable

5.(1) All property that is subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all property for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council must be assessed in accordance with this Law.

(2) A valuation must be prepared for each assessable property in accordance with this Law.

(3) The assessor must prepare an assessment for each assessable property using the valuation prepared for that property.

(4) An assessment must be prepared for an improvement whether or not it is complete or capable of being used for its intended purpose.

Assessment and Valuation

6.(1) All property must be assessed as of the applicable base date.

(2) Each property must be assessed using only mass appraisal.

(3) Regulated property assessments must be determined according to the regulated property assessment valuation standard.

(4) Non-regulated property assessments must be determined according to the market valuation standard.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (3) and (4), the rules for preparing assessments apply to the assessment of all property unless stated to apply only to regulated property assessments or only to non-regulated property assessments.

(6) Land and improvements may be assessed separately in circumstances where separate values are required.

(7) The dominant and controlling factor in the assessment of property is equity.

(8) Equity in regulated property assessments is achieved by applying the regulated property assessment valuation standard uniformly and fairly.

(9) Equity in non-regulated property assessments is achieved by applying the market valuation standard so that the assessments bear a fair and just proportion to the market value of similar properties as of the applicable base date.

(10) The assessed value must reflect all the facts, conditions and circumstances affecting the property as of January 1 of each year as if they had existed on the applicable base date.

(11) The assessed value of land through which a pipeline runs is not to be reduced if the pipeline is buried in the land and the surface rights are not held by the owner of the pipeline.

(12) Notwithstanding the disposal of lots or plots in a cemetery, the holder of property used as a cemetery must be assessed with respect to all the lands included in the cemetery.

(13) After the assessed value of a property is determined, the assessor must determine the taxable assessment of the property by multiplying the assessed value by the percentage of value applicable to the property class to which the property belongs.

(14) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation, the assessment manual, and any guidelines established by the agency to determine the assessed value of a property, existing at the time of assessment, and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve,

must be used.

Property Classes

7.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I to this Law, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) The assessor must in each year as of January 1 determine to which property class a property belongs.

(4) If there is a change to the use of a property, the assessor must classify the property as of the date that the change is made to the assessment roll in accordance with this Law.

(5) If one use of any property is clearly distinct from the property's predominant use and is not integrated with or directly related to the property's predominant use, the assessor may

(a) determine that portions of the property that include more than one use, or portions of the property's assessment, belong to different property classes; and

(b) apportion the assessed value of the property among those property classes.

(6) If the assessor determines that portions of any property, or portions of the property's assessment, belong to different property classes, the property may be entered more than once in the assessment roll for the purpose of indicating the assessed value of each portion within a property class.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

8.(1) The assessor or the assessment appraiser may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, requesting that a person who owns, uses, occupies, manages or disposes of a property provide information or documents that relate to or might relate to the value of a property, and that person must provide to the assessor or the assessment appraiser, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice

(a) all of the requested information and documents relating to or affecting the determination of the value that are in the possession or under the control of the person; and

(b) a written declaration signed by the person stating that the information provided by the person is complete, true and accurate to the best of his or her knowledge.

(2) A holder of property that is liable to assessment must

(a) provide an assessment appraiser with the particulars required by the assessment appraiser for the purpose of making a valuation of the property or the fixtures, machinery or other equipment valuation; and

(b) if required by the assessment appraiser, deliver to the assessment appraiser a written statement, signed by the person, containing the particulars mentioned in clause (a).

(3) Every year, the assessor may request the holder of property to provide information respecting

(a) the persons who are carrying on business on the property; and

(b) the nature of the business being carried on.

Annual Requirements to Provide Information to Assessor

9.(1) On or before October 1 in each year, every railway company must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of January 1 in the current year:

(a) the total number of kilometres of the railway roadway situated on the reserve;

(b) the description and area in hectares of land on the reserve held by the company, other than a railway roadway;

(c) the description and location of any improvements on the reserve, other than railway superstructures, owned or occupied by the company;

(d) any change in the ownership of a railway roadway and any abandonment of a railway roadway; and

(e) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(2) On or before November 1 in each year, every holder of a petroleum oil or gas well must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of September 1 in the current year:

(a) the holder's name and address;

(b) a list of the resource production equipment situated on the reserve that is subject to assessment and its location;

(c) any change in the resource production equipment situated on the reserve that has occurred since the last information was furnished to the assessor;

(d) the cost of any equipment included and not covered in the schedules of values prepared by the agency;

(e) any change in the ownership or operation of the well, and any abandonment of operation of the well, situated on the reserve; and

(f) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(3) On or before March 1 in each year, every holder of a pipeline must furnish the assessor with a certified statement showing the following information as of January 1 in the current year:

(a) the total number of kilometres of the pipeline right of way situated on the reserve;

(b) the total number of kilometres and the diameter of main and additional pipeline laid on or under the pipeline right of way within the reserve;

(c) the description and area in hectares of land within the reserve held by the holder, other than the pipeline right of way;

(d) the description and location of any improvements within the reserve held by the holder;

(e) any change in the ownership of the pipeline and any abandonment of the pipeline; and

(f) the address to which Assessment Notices are to be sent.

(4) In all cases, property may be assessed based on the information available and the assessor and assessment appraiser are not bound by the information provided under this section.

Inspections

10.(1) The assessor, for any purposes related to assessment, and the assessment appraiser for valuation purposes, may, after making reasonable efforts to notify the holder of a property, enter that property at any reasonable time.

(2) The assessor or assessment appraiser must display or produce on request identification showing that he or she is authorized to make the entry.

(3) If a person refuses to allow or interferes with an assessment or valuation, or if a person fails to respond to a reasonable request for access to a property under subsection (1), the assessor or assessment appraiser may

(a) apply ex parte to a justice of the peace or a provincial court judge for a warrant authorizing a person named in the warrant to enter the property; or

(b) determine the assessment or the valuation based on the information available.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3), an assessor or assessment appraiser must not enter any place that is a private dwelling without

(a) the consent of the holder of the private dwelling; or

(b) a warrant issued pursuant to paragraph (3)(a) from a justice of the peace or a provincial court judge authorizing the entry.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

11.(1) On or before May 1 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessor must enter the assessed value of each interest in land, as determined under this Law, in the assessment roll.

(3) The assessor may prepare the assessment roll required under subsection (1) on or after September 1 in the year before the year to which the assessment roll relates.

(4) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information, as applicable:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) whether the property is land, improvements, or land and the improvements to it;

(d) the classification of the interest in land;

(e) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(f) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(g) the taxable assessment of the interest in land; and

(h) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(5) If two or more persons are the holders of assessable property, the name of each of those persons is to be entered on the assessment roll with respect to the person's share of or interest in the property.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (2), if two or more assessable properties have the same holder, the assessor may combine the assessment of those properties into a single assessment for the purposes of the assessment roll.

Certification by Assessor

12. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before May 1 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

13.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll under sections 19 or 20, or amends the assessment roll to reflect reconsideration decisions or implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment roll is amended under this Law, other than under section 20, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 12.

(3) Where the assessment roll is amended under section 20, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date of the amendment.

(4) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

14.(1) An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

(2) The fact that any information on the assessment roll contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate any other information on the assessment roll or the assessment roll itself.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

15.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

16.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 14(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

17.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

18.(1) The assessor must, within fifteen (15) days after the assessment roll is completed and certified, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) The Assessment Notice may be sent by any means to the mailing address of the assessed person, or if requested by an assessed person, by facsimile or electronic mail at the number or address provided by the person.

(3) If a person purchases property or in any other manner becomes liable to be shown on the assessment roll as an assessed person, that person must give the assessor written notice of a mailing address to which Assessment Notices may be sent.

(4) An Assessment Notice may include a number of assessed properties if the same person is the assessed person for all of them.

(5) No assessment is invalid by reason of any error in the Assessment Notice or by reason of the non-receipt of the notice by the person to whom it was addressed.

(6) The Assessment Notice and the tax notice given under the Taxation Law relating to the same property may be sent together or may be combined on one notice.

(7) If an error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on an Assessment Notice, the assessor may prepare an amended Assessment Notice and send it to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property.

(8) Subject to subsection 15(2) and subsection (9), the assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of ten dollars ($10), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice.

(9) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 16(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (8).

PART VII

CORRECTION AND AMENDMENT OF ASSESSMENT ROLL

Corrections and Additions to Assessment Roll

19.(1) If an error or omission in any of the information shown on the assessment roll is discovered, the assessor may, in consultation with the assessment appraiser if the error or omission relates to the assessed value, correct the assessment roll for the current year only.

(2) If the assessor makes a correction on the assessment roll respecting the property class, the assessed value, or the applicability of an exemption to the property, the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the property affected.

(3) A correction made under subsection (1) is effective from January 1 of the year with respect to which the assessment is made.

(4) If, after certification of the assessment roll, a property is subdivided, the assessor may cancel the assessment of the property, reassess the resulting properties and amend the assessment roll accordingly.

(5) Where assessments are made under subsection (4), the assessor must mail an Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of each new property.

(6) A person whose name is entered in the assessment roll may apply in writing to the assessor to have the name of any other person entered in the same assessment roll if that other person's name should have been entered in the roll.

(7) The assessor must comply with an application made pursuant to subsection (6) after verifying that the person named in the application is entitled to have his or her name entered in the assessment roll.

Supplementary Assessments

20.(1) The assessor must make any supplementary assessment that may be necessary to reflect a change if, after Assessment Notices are sent but on or before November 1 of the taxation year for which taxes are levied on the assessment mentioned in the notice, it is discovered that the assessed value of any property is not the same as the assessed value entered on the assessment roll by reason of

(a) the destruction of or damage to the property;

(b) the demolition, alteration or removal of an improvement;

(c) the construction of an improvement; or

(d) a change in the use of the property.

(2) A supplementary assessment must reflect

(a) the assessed value of any property that has not been previously assessed; or

(b) the change in the assessed value of any property since it was last assessed.

(3) If any property exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law ceases to be exempt on or before November 1 of the taxation year for which taxes are levied, the assessor must assess the person liable to assessment and enter a supplementary assessment on the assessment roll.

(4) If a supplementary assessment is made to the assessment roll under this section, the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the property affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

21.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration, including by asking the assessment appraiser to advise on valuation matters, and, within twenty-one (21) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

22.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a practicing or non-practicing member in good standing of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

23.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair (or acting chair) at a rate of one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125) per hour ,

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than the chair, who meets the criteria set out in subsection 22(2), at a rate of one hundred dollars ($100) per hour, and

(c) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than those referenced in paragraphs (a) and (b), at a rate of seventy-five dollars ($75) per hour

for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law, or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member, of the Assessment Review Board, including a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

24.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

25.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this Law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

26.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

27. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this Law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Law.

Duty of Member

28. In performing their duties under this Law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X
APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

29. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

30.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30),

to the assessor within forty-five (45) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) An appeal is commenced by delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor at the address set out in the Assessment Notice.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under the Taxation Law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an amended or supplementary assessment, the appeal must be confined to the amended or supplementary assessment, as the case may be.

(5) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

31. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

32.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least fourteen (14) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

33. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

34. The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

35. Subject to section 48, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

36.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

37.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

38.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

39.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

40.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

41. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

42. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

43.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

44.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board,

by issuing an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

45. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

46. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal,

where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

47.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

48. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

49.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

50.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, not more than ninety (90) days after the day on which a hearing is completed, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to its assessment roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

51.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the first nation's administrative office, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the corporation's head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation, or with the corporation's legal counsel.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

52.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction from a decision of the Assessment Review Board on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be made within thirty (30) days after the day on which the decision is delivered under subsection 50(1).

PART XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

53.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

54. Notwithstanding section 53,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form, where

(i) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

55. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under the Taxation Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, Assessment Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Notices

56.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice

(a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

57.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

58. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 26th day of July, 2016, at Pheasant Rump Nakota Indian Reserve, in the Province of Saskatchewan.

A quorum of Council consists of three (3) members of Council.

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands;

B. The Council of the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation deems it to be in the best interests of the First Nation to make a law for such purposes; and

C. The Council of the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation has given notice of this law and has considered any representations received by the Council, in accordance with the requirements of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation duly enacts as follows:

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of a quorum of Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

(a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and

(b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

PART IV
LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property that is held and occupied by, and used for, an independent school, not operated for profit;

(d) property that is held and occupied by, and used for, a public school;

(e) a place of public worship and the land used in connection with it, subject to the following limits:

(i) the maximum amount of land is the greater of 0.81 hectare, and 10 square metres of land for every one square metre of occupied building space,

(ii) the place of public worship and land must be held by a religious organization, and

(iii) the exemption does not apply to any portion of property that is used as a residence or for any purpose other than as a place of public worship;

(f) property used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and excluding doctors' or nurses' residences;

(g) property held by a university and used for university purposes, not operated for profit;

(h) property used as a cemetery that is not operated for profit.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

Taxation Agreements

8.(1) For the purposes of advancing the economic development, the social development, or environmental rehabilitation or protection of the reserve, the Council, subject to subsection (2), may enter into an agreement with a taxpayer reducing or eliminating the taxpayer's liability to taxation under this Law.

(2) An agreement under subsection (1) must be in writing, approved by resolution of Council, signed and formally executed by the Chief on behalf of the First Nation and signed and formally executed by the taxpayer, and must:

(a) be limited to a duration of five taxation years or less;

(b) detail the nature and amount of the investment to be undertaken by the taxpayer in furtherance of one or more of the purposes set out in subsection (1);

(c) state the percentage of exemption from taxation liability to be provided to the taxpayer during the time the agreement is in effect;

(d) provide for the cancellation of the agreement by the First Nation and the re-establishment of the liability to taxation of the taxpayer if the investment described in paragraph "b" is not actually made;

(e) be entered into prior to November 30th of the year before the taxation year it is to go into effect; and

(f) make the tax administrator responsible for administering the agreement on behalf of the First Nation, and name the person responsible for administering the agreement on behalf of the taxpayer.

(3) An agreement entered into pursuant to this section may provide for any other terms and conditions that Council and taxpayer think advisable in the circumstances which do not contradict the provisions of this Law or the Pheasant Rump Nakota Property Assessment Law, 2016 or any other enactment of the First Nation.

(4) The Council may, from time to time, establish by resolution any forms, policies, or publications required to administer or publicize the tax agreement provision in this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "taxpayer" includes any person proposing to acquire an interest in land on the reserve in relation to a specific development.

PART VI
GRANTS

Annual Grants

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation.

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

Annual Authorization

10. Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

PART VII
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

11.(1) On or before May 25 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the taxable assessment of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to supplementary taxes levied under section 16.

(6) Despite subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(7) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (6) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before June 30 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation.

PART VIII
TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

13.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information, as applicable:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value and the taxable assessment by classification of property as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) The fact that any information shown on the tax roll contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate any other information on the tax roll.

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before May 31 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this Law, and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) If requested by a recipient, the tax administrator may provide a Tax Notice by facsimile or e-mail at the number or address provided by that person and the Tax Notice is deemed to have been mailed as required under subsection (1).

(4) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(5) A Tax Notice may include a number of taxable properties if the same person is the taxpayer for all of them.

(6) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice required under the Assessment Law relating to the same property may be sent together or may be combined into one notice.

(7) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(8) If a material error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on a Tax Notice, the tax administrator must prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(9) No defect, error or omission in the form or substance of a Tax Notice, or in its service, transmission or receipt, invalidates any subsequent proceedings for the recovery of taxes.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) If an error, omission or misdescription is discovered in any of the information shown on the tax roll, the tax administrator

(a) may correct the tax roll for the current year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll must prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(3) If it is discovered that no tax has been imposed on taxable property, the tax administrator may impose the tax for the current year only and must prepare and send a Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(4) If exempt property becomes taxable or taxable property becomes exempt under this Law, the tax administrator must

(a) correct the tax roll; and

(b) send an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(5) Where the taxable status of property changes under subsection (4), the tax administrator must prorate the tax imposed so that the tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property is not exempt.

(6) The date of every entry made on the tax roll under this section must be shown on the tax roll.

(7) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.

(8) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Supplementary Tax Roll

16.(1) Where a supplementary assessment is prepared under the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must prepare a supplementary tax roll.

(2) A supplementary tax roll must be in the same form and contain the same information shown on the tax roll with respect to each property on the supplementary tax roll, and must show the date for determining the tax that may be imposed for the taxation year.

(3) The tax administrator must

(a) prepare supplementary Tax Notices for all taxable property shown on the supplementary tax roll; and

(b) send the supplementary Tax Notices to every person entitled to a Tax Notice in respect of that property.

(4) Where a supplementary assessment is made in accordance with the Assessment Law, the amount of taxes levied in that taxation year is to be adjusted to correspond with

(a) the portion of the year following the date on which construction of the building was completed, unless the building or a portion of the building was occupied before that date, in which case the amount levied is to be adjusted to correspond with the portion of the year following the date of occupancy;

(b) the portion of the year that elapsed before the completion of the removal or demolition of the building; or

(c) the portion of the year that has elapsed since the value of the property changed.

(5) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

(6) Where a supplementary Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the supplementary Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART IX

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

18. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

19.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X
PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

20. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after June 30 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year.

Application of Payments

22. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XI
REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

23.(1) All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include

(a) taxes, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Reserve Funds

24.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation,

the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

(5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.

(6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XII

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

25.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 5(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV the tax administrator must request and receive authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

26.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures under Parts XIII, XIV or XV and subject to subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

27.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

29.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

30.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

31.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

32.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 31(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

33. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

34.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIV

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

35.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

36.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 40(1), plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

37.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to Minister

38. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

Subsisting Rights

39. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 40(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

40.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to a redemption under subsection (2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 37(3).

Assignment of Taxable Property

41.(1) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(2) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(3) An assignment under subsection 40(4) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

(4) Upon assignment under subsection 40(4), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

42.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

43.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection

37(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

44.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

45.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

46. Notwithstanding section 45,

(a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form;

(b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where

(i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and

(ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

47. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

48.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

49.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

50.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 26th day of July, 2016, at Pheasant Rump Nakota Indian Reserve, in the Province of Saskatchewan.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to Part XIV of the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [or auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [or auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [or auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If at the public tender [or auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [or auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [or auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

"record" means anything on which information is recorded or stored by any means whether graphic, electronic, mechanical or otherwise;

"related body" means

(a) any agency of the First Nation,

(b) any corporation in which the First Nation has a material or controlling interest,

(c) any partnership in which the First Nation or another related body of the First Nation is a partner with a material or controlling interest, or

(d) a trust of the First Nation;

"senior financial officer" means the person appointed senior financial officer under section 19;

"senior manager" means the person appointed senior manager under section 18;

"special purpose report" means a report described in subsection 72; and

"standards" means the standards established from time to time under the Act.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

(a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

(b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;

(c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression "must" is to be construed as imperative, and the expression "may" is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, "including" means "including, but not limited to", and "includes" means "includes, but not limited to"; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

(a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;

(b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and

(d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

"entity" means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

"expenses" includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

"remuneration" means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity, or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice-chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

(c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

(d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including any special purpose reports;

(e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;

(f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(g) conduct a review of this Law under section 103 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

(h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;

(b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;

(c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;

(d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;

(e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;

(f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;

(g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;

(i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

(j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;

(k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

(l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;

(b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;

(c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;

(d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;

(e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;

(f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 20;

(g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;

(h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;

(i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and

(j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

(a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 69, the quarterly financial statements required in section 70 and the draft annual financial statements required in section 71;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend to Council procedures for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

20.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

(a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;

(b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

(c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,

(ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer and other officers of the First Nation, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

21.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

22.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

23. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

24. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

(a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;

(b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

(c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;

(d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;

(e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;

(f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and

(g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

25.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

(a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;

(b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and

(c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

26.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

27. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when this deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(b) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

28.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to section 35, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

29.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget;

(b) the multi-year financial plan; and

(c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

(a) the multi-year financial plan;

(b) the annual budget; and

(c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

30.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

(a) in the name of the First Nation;

(b) opened in a financial institution; and

(c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

(a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (d);

(b) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;

(c) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and

(d) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 87.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

31.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 30; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 30 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

32.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

33. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

34.(1) Subject to subsection 35(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

35.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

Appropriations

36.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

37.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

38.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(10) Subject to subsection (8), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

39. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

40. The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

41. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

42.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

(a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and

(b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

43.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 30(2), other than a trust account or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 30(2)(a).

(3) All interest earned on

(a) a trust account must be retained in that account; and

(b) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(4) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

45. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

46. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

(a) if approved by the Council; or

(b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

47.(1) Subject to subsection (2), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 30(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

48.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a law made under paragraph 5(1)(d) of the Act, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

49.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

50.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

51.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 30(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

52. Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

53.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 90(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 90(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

54. Subject to this Law and a law made under paragraph 5(1)(d) of the Act, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 51(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

55.(1) Subject to this section and any law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 61(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

56. A security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

Operational Controls

57. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

58.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

(a) carry on business as a proprietor;

(b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or

(c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

(a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

(b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of

(i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or

(ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

(a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or

(b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

59.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 103;

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 103, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

60.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council; or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

61.(1) Money in an account described in section 30 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;

(c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;

(d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;

(e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or

(f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 30, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

(a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;

(b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;

(c) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or

(d) a member investment program described in section 62.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority:

(a) government transfer funds; and

(b) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

62.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

(a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;

(c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about

(i) the amounts loaned,

(ii) the purposes of the loans,

(iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and

(iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

63.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

64.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

65.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 64 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

66.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(a) fraudulent financial reporting;

(b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;

(c) misappropriation of assets; and

(d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

67. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

68. If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

(a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and

(b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

69.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

70.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

71.(1) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(2) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 25(2).

(4) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(5) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Special Purpose Reports

72. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

(a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

(b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;

(c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;

(d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 62(3)(c);

(e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and

(f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

73.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board Standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

74.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

75.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(3) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 72.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

76.(1) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(2) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

77.(1) Before the annual financial statements may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the senior financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Annual Report

78.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

(a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 72, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

79.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

80.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

81.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

82.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

83. If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

84. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

85. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 89;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

86. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

(a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

87. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

88. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

(a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

(b) the status of a capital project, including

(i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,

(ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and

(iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

(c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 91 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

89.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

(a) location and purpose of the asset;

(b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

(c) year of acquisition;

(d) last inspection date of the asset;

(e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;

(f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;

(g) estimated residual value of the asset;

(h) insurance coverage for the asset; and

(i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

(a) its present use;

(b) its condition and state of repair;

(c) its suitability for its present use;

(d) its estimated remaining life;

(e) its estimated replacement cost;

(f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

90.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 89 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

91.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

(a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

(b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;

(c) project and contractor bidding requirements;

(d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;

(e) course of construction insurance;

(f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

(g) project control, including contract management; and

(h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

92. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

93. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

94.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

95. Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

96.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

97. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

98.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

99.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 98(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 98, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

100.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 98 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 98 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 98 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 98; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 98.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

101.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or a law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) or (d) of the Act is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

102.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review of Law

103.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

104. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

105. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 23, 25, 26, 28, 67-71, 73-77, 83, 94 and 95 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS ADMINISTRATIVE LAW FOR THE KEY FIRST NATION IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 17th day of March, 2016, at Key First Nation, in the Province of Saskatchewan at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of three (3) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

"spouse" means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

"this Law" means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a "conflict of interest" when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an "apparent conflict of interest" if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual's private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual's "private interests" means the individual's personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual's spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

(a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the White Bear First Nations in the Province of Saskatchewan,

White Bear First Nations Annual Expenditure Law, 2016

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 15th day of November, 2016.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

WHITE BEAR FIRST NATIONS ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nation Fiscal Management Act, the Council of a First Nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purpose of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nations has made a Property Assessment Law and a Property Taxation Law;

C. Section 10 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a First Nation that has made a Property Taxation Law to, at least once a year; make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its Property Taxation Law; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council for the White Bear First Nations duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the White Bear First Nations Annual Expenditure Law, 2016.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"annual expenditure laws" means a law enacted under a paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by paragraph 10(b) of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the White Bear First Nations Property Assessment and Taxation By-Law 1997;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the White Bear First Nations, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law exacted under the paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a Property Taxation Law; and

"Taxation Law" means the White Bear First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-Law 1997.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016 and ending March 31, 2017 is attached as a Schedule and that expenditures provided for in the Schedule for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. (1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is compromised of

   (a) section 1 of part 1 of the Schedule; and

   (b) all of Part 2 of the Schedule.

   (2) The expenditures provided for in the subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. Expenditures of local revenues must be made in accordance with the annual budget.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in this present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

    (a) The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

    (b) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

11. This law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 5th day of October 2016, at White Bear First Nations, in the province of Saskatchewan.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

"reside" means to live in a dwelling, otherwise than as a visitor to the ANSN;

"resident" means a person who is entitled to reside on the reserve, as provided by section 3;

"spouse" means a person who is married to, or who co-habits in a relationship of some permanence and commitment, akin to a conjugal relationship, with a resident.

3.0 ENTITLEMENT TO RESIDE ON RESERVE AS OF MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

3.1 A person is entitled to reside on the reserve only if the following criteria are met:

(a) has his/her principal residence on the reserve at the time this By-law comes into force;

(b) is authorized to reside on the reserve pursuant to one of the following provisions of the Indian Act: sections 18.1, 20 and 24 and subsections 28(2) and 58(3); (See Appendix 1 A)

3.2

(1) Any non-resident spouse or dependent child of a person who has been granted permission to reside on the reserve for a defined period is not entitled to reside on the reserve after the end of that defined period.

(2) Notwithstanding (1), in the event that an individual wishes to reside on the ANSN after the expiration of the defined period, the individual may be eligible to reapply for residence.

4.0 RESIDENCY BY-LAW ENFORCEMENT COMMITTEE

4.1 Council shall appoint a Residency By-Law Enforcement Committee ("RBEC") comprised of 5 members to provide for the administration of applications and petitions made under this By-law and to maintain records related to residents.

4.2 The RBEC shall meet at least once every month.

4.3 The role of the RBEC shall include:

(a) identifying policing issues and concerns on the ANSN Community and bring them to the attention of the RCMP;

(b) working with the RCMP to develop the objectives, priorities, goals and strategies; and

(c) identifying and deciding on residency issues on the reserve including the residence status of violent offenders, former residents and non-members.

4.4 The RBEC shall maintain a Residents List, on which is recorded:

(a) the name of each resident and proper identification;

(b) an indication as to whether each resident is a resident for an indefinite or defined period;

(c) the length of any defined period of residence;

(d) the location of each resident's dwelling;

(e) whether the resident is a Treaty Indian or a Non-Treaty Indian;

(f) records of all applications.

5.0 APPLICATION TO BE A RESIDENT

5.1 Any person may apply to the RBEC for permission to be a resident or to extend any defined period for which permission was previously granted to the person by the RBEC as appointed by Council to be a resident.

5.2 The application shall be filed with the RBEC and shall include:

(a) the applicant's reasons for applying to be a resident;

(b) if the applicant proposes to reside on the reserve for a limited time, the approximate duration of the proposed residence;

(c) the location at which the applicant proposes to reside;

(d) the name of the applicant's spouse, if any;

(e) the names of the applicant's dependent children, if any;

(f) any additional information the applicant wishes to provide relating to the considerations listed in subsection 7(2);

(g) criminal records check from RCMP;

6.0 HEARING

6.1 Within thirty (30) days after the filing of a properly completed application prepared pursuant to 5.0, the RBEC shall hold a hearing with respect to the application.

6.2 At least fourteen (14) days prior to the hearing, the RBEC shall:

(a) give written notice to the applicant of the date, time and place of the hearing and inform the applicant that he/she may appear at the hearing and make representations and present evidence in support of the application; and

(b) post in the Band Administration office a copy of the notice.

6.3 At the hearing, the RBEC shall:

(a) provide the applicant with an opportunity to present evidence and to make oral and written submissions, or both, in support of the application;

(b) Provide any member present at the hearing with an opportunity to be heard.

6.4 The RBEC may make additional rules of procedure governing the hearing of applications and shall keep records of its proceedings.

7.0 DECISION

7.1 After it has heard all of the evidence and submissions, the RBEC shall meet in private to consider the application under Section 5.0.

7.2 In making its decision, the RBEC shall take into consideration each of the following:

(a) whether the applicant has arranged for a place to reside on the reserve;

(b) whether the applicant's residing on the reserve would be compatible with the culture, society and community of the Band and welfare of the members of the Band residing on the reserve;

(c) whether the applicant is of good moral character;

(d) the extent to which the applicant is prepared to commit his/her personal and economic resources to the welfare and advancement of the community residing on the reserve;

(e) the availability on the reserve of adequate housing, land and services;

(f) whether the applicant is or will be employed on the reserve;

(g) a criminal records check.

7.3 Where the applicant is a member, the RBEC shall consider only the criteria enumerated in Section 3.0

7.4 Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the RBEC shall notify the applicant, or the offender, in writing of their decision by:

(a) granting the applicant permission to be a resident for an indefinite period until such time as the applicant ceases to reside on the reserve;

(b) granting the applicant permission to be a resident for a defined period;

(c) extending any defined period for which permission was previously granted to the person by the RBEC to be a resident; or

(d) determining the application is denied.

7.5 Within five (5) days after the RBEC has given the applicant or the offender as the case may be, their decision. The RBEC shall also post a notice of its decision in the Band Administration office.

7.6 Any applicant whose application is refused under this section may appeal to Council pursuant to section 13.

8.0 REAPPLICATION

Where an application made under section 5 is refused pursuant to the provisions of section 7, the RBEC is not required to consider any further application by that person for a period of one (1) year or indefinitely as may be determined by the RBEC or Council.

9.0 SPECIAL EMERGENCY HEARINGS:

9.1 The RBEC or Council shall hold a special emergency hearing where:

(a) a resident has been asked to leave a residence, been evicted by a tenant or a marriage or common law union has broken down, and seeking permission to continue to reside on the reserve and has made application for a special emergency hearing;

(b) two (2) or more members of the RBEC have requested a special emergency hearing to consider taking action with respect to a resident who has been charged with a violent offence or a drug related offence under the Criminal Code of Canada which may put the safety and security of the residents, or visitors to the reserve, at risk (an "offender").

9.2 At least forty-eight (48) hours prior to a special emergency hearing, the RBEC shall:

(a) give written notice to the applicant or the offender, whatever the case may be, of the date, time and place of the hearing and inform the applicant or offender that he/she may appear at the hearing and make representations in support of his/her position; and

(b) Post in the Band Administration office a copy of the notice.

9.3 At the special emergency hearing, the RBEC shall:

(a) provide the applicant or offender, whatever the case may be, with an opportunity to present evidence and to make oral and written submissions, or both, in support of their position at the hearing; and

(b) provide any resident present at the hearing with an opportunity to be heard.

9.4 Where an offender under 9.1(b) is a minor who is in the legal care or custody of a resident within the Alexis Nakota Sioux Nation Housing Authority, the parent(s) and or legal guardian(s) as well as the offender may appear before the RBEC at the special emergency hearing;

9.5 After the conclusion of the special emergency hearing, the RBEC shall meet in private to discuss the evidence and arguments presented in the special emergency hearing.

9.6 If the RBEC concludes that the applicant under 9.1(a) is law abiding, that there are available accommodations, and that their continued residence on the reserve is not detrimental to the best interests of ANSN, the RBEC may permit the person to continue to reside on the reserve.

9.7 If the RBEC concludes that an offender under 9.1(b) has in fact been charged with a violent offence or a drug related offence under the Criminal Code of Canada which may put the safety and security of the residents, or visitors to the reserve, at risk and has not received a pardon or record suspension for that crime, the RBEC may do one or more of the following:

(a) refuse to provide housing, including but not limited to eviction from any band owned housing; and/or

(b) banish the offender for a period of time to be determined by the RBEC, up to and including permanent banishment;

(i) Any banishment of a resident shall require a quorum of the RBEC, voting in favor of the petition and shall incorporate written reasons in support thereof.

9.8 Within five (5) days of the special emergency hearing, the RBEC shall notify the applicant or the offender, whatever the case may be, of its decision in writing. The decision shall also be posted in the Band Administration office.

9.9 The RBEC may make rules of procedure governing the hearing of petitions under this section and shall keep records of its proceedings.

9.10 Any offender or applicant, whatever the case may be, may appeal a decision under this section to Council under Section 12.

10.0 PETITIONS

10.1 On the petition in writing of any resident including a detailed outline as to an with a violent offence or a drug related offence under the Criminal Code of Canada which may put the safety and security of the residents, or visitors to the reserve, at risk committed by another resident for which a pardon or a record suspension has not been granted, the RBEC may holding a hearing for the banishment of a resident.

10.2 Within thirty (30) days after the petition referred to in subsection 11.1 is received by the RBEC, the RBEC shall hold a hearing into the matter.

10.3 At least fourteen (14) days prior to the hearing, the RBEC shall:

(a) give written notice to each petitioner and to the affected resident of the date, time and place of the hearing and informing the petitioner and the affected resident that he/she has to appear at the hearing and can be heard;

(b) Post in the Band Administration office a copy of the notice.

10.4 At the hearing, the RBEC shall:

(a) provide each petitioner and the affected resident with an opportunity to present evidence and to make oral and written submissions, or both, on the petition;

(b) Provide any member present at the hearing with an opportunity to be heard.

10.5 The RBEC may make rules of procedure governing the hearing of petitions under this section and shall keep records of its proceedings.

10.6 After it has heard all of the evidence and submissions, the RBEC shall meet in private to consider the petition.

10.7 Any banishment of a resident shall require a quorum of the RBEC, voting in favor of the petition and shall incorporate written reasons in support thereof.

10.8 Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the RBEC shall render its decision in writing to the petitioner(s) and the affected resident(s).

10.9 Within five (5) days after the RBEC's decision, the RBEC shall post a notice of the decision in the Band Administration office.

10.10 No revocation of a resident's entitlement to reside on the reserve shall affect the entitlement of the spouse and children of that resident to continue to reside on the reserve.

10.11 A resident whose entitlement to reside on the reserve has been revoked by the RBEC under this section may appeal the decision of RBEC to the Council under section 12.

11.0 APPEALS BODY

11.1 IIG will hear all appeals and shall appoint 1 (one) or 2 (two) Elders to assist in hearing appeals and to make recommendations to IIG.

11.2 Any recommendations from the Elders will be given strong consideration in IIG's decision making process.

11.3 IIG may make rules of procedure governing the hearing of appeals and shall keep records of its proceedings

12.0 APPEALS

12.1 Within thirty (30) days after the posting of a notice of the RBEC's decision in the Band Administration office, the applicant in the case of section 6, or the affected resident in the case of section 11, may appeal the RBEC's decision to Council by filing a written request with the RBEC that Council hear the appeal.

12.2 Within thirty (30) days after the filing of the request, IIG shall conduct a hearing with respect to the appeal.

12.3 At least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the hearing, IIG shall:

(a) give written notice to the appellant of the date, time and place of the hearing and shall inform the appellant that he/she has to appear and can make oral or written submissions, or both, at the hearing in support of the appeal. Written submissions or any documentation must be submitted to the appeals committee seven (7) days prior to the hearing;

(b) post in the Band Administration office a copy of the notice.

12.4 At the hearing, IIG shall:

(a) provide the appellant with an opportunity to present evidence and to make oral or written submissions, or both, at the hearing in support of the appeal;

(b) provide any member present at the hearing with the opportunity to be heard.

12.5 After it has heard all of the evidence and submissions, IIG shall meet in private to consider the appeal.

12.6 In determining whether an appeal should be allowed, IIG shall take into consideration the criteria set out in subsections 6 (2) in the case of a section 6 appeal, and the criteria set out in subsection 11 (1) in the case of a section 11 appeal

12.7 IIG shall give written notice of its decision to the appellant by:

(a) granting the applicant permission to be a resident for an indefinite period until such time as the applicant ceases to reside on the reserve;

(b) granting the applicant permission to be a resident for a defined period;

(c) extending any defined period for which permission was previously granted to the person by IIG to be a resident of the reserve; or

(d) refusing the application.

12.8 Within five (5) days after notifying the applicant, IIG shall post a notice of its decision in the Band Administration office.

13.0 POWERS OF THE OFFICER & ENFORCEMENT

13.1 An officer who finds an individual who is or, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, appears to be residing on the reserve contrary to this By-law or a decision of the RBEC or Council under this By-law, may order the individual to be removed.

13.2 Any person who fails or refuses to comply with an order made under Section 10.1 commits an offence and is subject to applicable penalties.

13.3 Anyone who assists a person who has been ordered to cease to reside on the reserve, to continue to reside on the ANSN commits an offence.

13.4 It is acknowledged and agreed by Council and the members that an officer as defined in section 2.1, has full and sufficient authority to enforce this By-law to the best of his / her ability.

14.0 SEVERABILITY

14.1 Should a court determine that a provision of this By-law is invalid for any reason, the provision shall be severed from the By-law and the validity of the rest of the By-law shall not be affected.

15.0 PENALTIES

15.1 Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this By-law commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($I,000.00) or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days or to both a fine and imprisonment.

DENE THA' FIRST NATION
ANNUAL PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a band may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Dene Tha' First Nation has enacted the Dene Tha' Property Assessment and Taxation Bylaw, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve;

AND WHEREAS Section 55 of the Dene Tha' Property Assessment and Taxation Bylaw requires a first nation that has made a property taxation by-law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-laws;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Dene Tha' First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Dene Tha' First Nation Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this by-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. c-i-5 as amended from time to time, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" or "Band" means the Dene Tha' First Nation, being a band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"property taxation by-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under section 83 of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation by-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Dene Tha' Property Assessment and Taxation Bylaw.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by- law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedures and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon being approved by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 16th day of May, 2016, at Chateh, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of 5 (five) members of Council.

FORT MCKAY FIRST NATION
ANNUAL PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a band may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Fort McKay First Nation has enacted the Fort McKay First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve;

AND WHEREAS Section 24 of the Fort McKay First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, requires a first nation that has made a property taxation by-law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-laws;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Fort McKay First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Fort McKay First Nation Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this by-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. c-I-5 as amended from time to time, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" or "Band" means the Fort McKay First Nation, being a band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"property taxation by-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under section 83 of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation by-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Fort McKay First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by-law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedures and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon being approved by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

Assessor and Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this By-law and such other duties as set out in this By-law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

(3) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this By-law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(4) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this By-law.

(5) The tax administrator's responsibilities include the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this By-law.

(6) The tax administrator may, with the consent of Council, assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

Application of By-law

4. This By-law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under this By-law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) An assessment must be an estimate of the value of an interest in land on July 1 of the assessment year.

(3) For the purposes of assessing interests in land, the assessor must, in a fair and equitable manner,

(a) follow the procedures set out in the Provincial assessment legislation, or

(b) where there are no such procedures, the assessor must take into consideration assessments of property on the reserve that are similar to the property being assessed.

(4) Each assessment of non-linear property must reflect the

(a) characteristics and physical condition of the interest in land on December 31 of the assessment year; and

(b) valuation standard that would apply under the Provincial regulations for that interest in land if it were located off the reserve.

(5) Each assessment of a railway must be based on a report provided by December 31 to the First Nation by the holder or the person that operates the railway, showing the

(a) amount of land on the reserve occupied by the railway for roadway; and

(b) amount of land on the reserve occupied by the railway for purposes other than roadway.

(6) If the person who received the request does not provide the report required by subsection (5), the assessor must prepare the assessment using whatever information is available about the railway.

(7) Unless subsection (6) applies, an assessment must be prepared for an improvement whether or not it is complete or capable of being used for its intended purpose.

(8) No assessment is to be prepared for

(a) linear property that is under construction but not completed on or before October 31 of the assessment year, unless it is capable of being used for the transmission of gas, oil or electricity;

(b) new improvements that are intended to be used for or in connection with a manufacturing or processing operation and are not completed or in operation on or before December 31 of the assessment year; or

(c) new improvements that are intended to be used for the storage of materials manufactured or processed by the improvements referred to in paragraph (b), if the improvements are not completed or in operation on or before December 31 of the assessment year.

(9) Each assessment of linear property must reflect

(a) the valuation standard that would apply under the Provincial regulations for that interest in land if it were located off the reserve; and

(b) the specifications and characteristics of the linear property on October 31 of the assessment year in respect of the linear property, as contained in

(i) the records of the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board; or

(ii) the report requested by the assessor under subsection (10).

(10) If the assessor considers it necessary, the assessor may request the holder or the operator of linear property to provide a report relating to that property setting out the information requested by the assessor.

(11) On receiving a request under subsection (10), the person who received the request must provide the report not later than December 31 of the assessment year.

(12) If the person who received the request does not provide the report in accordance with subsection (11), the assessor must prepare the assessment using whatever information is available about the linear property.

(13) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(14) The assessor must provide, to any holder of assessable property who requests it, sufficient information to show how the assessor prepared the assessment of that person's property.

(15) Except as otherwise provided in this By-law, for the purposes of assessing interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, standards, rates, rules and formulas established under Provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules, practices and guidelines used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Property Classes

6.(1) Council hereby establishes the property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes, for the purposes of assessment and taxation under this By-law.

(2) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule I, and the assessor must use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(3) When preparing an assessment of property, the assessor must assign one or more of the property classes to the property.

(4) Where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

7.(1) The assessor may, for any purpose related to the administration of this By-law, deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide the requested information to the assessor within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery, or a longer period as specified in the notice.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

8.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) Where the assessor wishes to conduct an inspection of assessable property for the purpose of assessing its value, the assessor must deliver a Notice of Assessment Inspection by personal delivery, mail, fax or e-mail to the person named on the assessment roll at the address indicated on the assessment roll.

(3) Personal delivery of a Notice of Assessment Inspection is made

(a) in the case of delivery to a residential dwelling, by leaving the notice with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing there; and

(b) in the case of delivery to any other assessable property, by leaving the notice with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, on those premises.

(4) A Notice of Assessment Inspection is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by mail, five (5) days after the day on which the notice is postmarked;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; and

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(5) Where an assessable property is occupied by a person other than the person named on the assessment roll, the person named on the assessment roll must make arrangements with the occupant to provide access to the assessor.

(6) Unless otherwise requested by the person named on the assessment roll, inspections of an assessable property must be conducted between 09:00 and 17:00 local time.

(7) If the assessor attends at an assessable property to inspect it and no occupant eighteen (18) years of age or older is present or permission to inspect the property is denied, the assessor may assess the value of the assessable property based on the information available to the assessor.

(8) As part of an inspection under this section, the assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals respecting the assessable property and the occupant must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI
ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

9.(1) On or before May 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in land that is liable to assessment under this By-law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) the classification of the interest in land;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest in land;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest in land;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest in land subject to taxation under this By-law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

Certification by Assessor

10. On completion of an assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule XI that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this By-law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

11.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll to correct errors and omissions, reflect reconsideration decisions and implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor must

(a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll; and

(b) report the change or correction to Council.

(2) Where the assessment roll is amended under this By-law, the amendments are an integral part of the assessment roll and are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

(3) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to an order or direction of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this By-law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to give any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

13.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule IV

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder, the tax administrator may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the tax administrator omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under section 13 or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The tax administrator must, on or before May 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the tax administrator.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the tax administrator [assessor] of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) If there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on an Assessment

Notice, the tax administrator may prepare and send an amended Assessment Notice to all persons named on the assessment roll in respect of that interest in land.

(7) Subject to subsection 13(2) and subsection (8), the tax administrator must provide to any person who requests it the information contained in the current Assessment Notice.

(8) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (7).

(9) The Assessment Notice and the Tax Notice relating to the same property may be mailed together or combined into one notice.

PART VII

CORRECTIONS TO ASSESSMENT ROLL

Corrections to Assessment Roll

17.(1) Where the assessor determines that

(a) there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the assessment roll,

(b) no assessment has been prepared for an assessable property, or

(c) property that was exempt from taxation under this By-law has become taxable or taxable property has become exempt from taxation, the assessor must make the necessary correction or amendment to the assessment roll and mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

(2) The assessor must not make an amendment to the assessment roll after December 31 of the current taxation year.

Supplementary Assessments

18.(1) The assessor must prepare supplementary assessments for machinery and equipment used in manufacturing and processing if those improvements are completed or begin to operate during the taxation year.

(2) The assessor must prepare supplementary assessments for other improvements if

(a) they are completed in the taxation year;

(b) they are occupied during all or any part of the taxation year; or

(c) they are moved onto the reserve during the taxation year.

(3) A supplementary assessment must reflect the

(a) value of an improvement that has not been previously assessed; or

(b) increase in the value of an improvement since it was last assessed.

(4) Supplementary assessments must be prepared in the same manner as assessments prepared under this By-law, but must be prorated to reflect only the number of months during which the improvement is complete, occupied, in operation or located on the reserve, including the whole of the first month in which the improvement was completed, occupied, began to operate or was moved onto the reserve.

(5) The assessor must prepare a supplementary assessment roll on or before December 31 in the taxation year in which supplementary assessments are prepared.

(6) A supplementary assessment roll must include the same information required to be shown on the assessment roll, and the date that the improvement

(a) was completed, occupied, or moved onto the reserve, or

(b) began to operate.

(7) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this By-law relating to assessments and assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessments and supplementary assessment rolls.

(8) The assessor must, no later than December 31 in the taxation year in which a supplementary assessment roll is prepared,

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) prepare a supplementary Assessment Notice for every assessed improvement shown on the supplementary assessment roll; and

(c) mail a supplementary Assessment Notice to every person named on the supplementary assessment roll in respect of each assessed improvement affected.

(9) A supplementary Assessment Notice must contain the information

(a) set out in Schedule V; and

(b) required under subsection (6).

(10) For clarity, this section does not apply to linear property and the assessor must not prepare supplementary assessments for linear property.

PART VIII
RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

19.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this By-law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule VI; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within fourteen (14) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

20.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to hear and determine assessment appeals under this By-law.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must consist of not less than three (3) members, including at least one (1) member who is a member of the law society of the Province and at least one (1) member who has experience in assessment appeals in the Province.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this By-law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

21.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

(a) the chair for his or her services at a rate of 250 dollars ($250) per day,

(b) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than the chair, who meets the criteria set out in subsection 20(2), for his or her services at a rate of 200 dollars ($200) per day, and

(c) a member (or replacement member appointed to act), other than those referenced in paragraphs (a) and (b), at a rate of 200 dollars ($200) per day, for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this By-law or expressly authorized by Council.

(2) The First Nation must reimburse a member of the Assessment Review Board, including a replacement member, for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

22.(1) A person must not serve as a member of the Assessment Review Board if the person

(a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;

(b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council;

(c) is an employee of the First Nation; or

(d) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this By-law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

23.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

(a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) undertake administrative duties as necessary to oversee and implement the work of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) determine procedures to be followed at hearings consistent with this By-law;

(d) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and

(e) preside at hearings of the Assessment Review Board.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Assessment Review Board as the acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Appointment of Secretary

24.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a secretary of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) The secretary of the Assessment Review Board must

(a) have the custody and care of all records, documents, orders and decisions made by or pertaining to the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) fulfill such other duties as directed by the chair and the Assessment Review Board.

Removal of Member

25. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Assessment Review Board for cause, including where a member

(a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;

(b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Assessment Review Board; or

(c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this By-law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this By-law.

Duty of Member

26. In performing their duties under this By-law, the members of the Assessment Review Board must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

PART X

APPEAL TO ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Appeals

27. The Assessment Review Board must hear and determine appeals made under this Part.

Notice of Appeal

28.(1) Any person, including without limitation the First Nation and the assessor, may appeal an assessment or a reconsideration of an assessment of assessable property to the Assessment Review Board by delivering

(a) a completed Notice of Appeal,

(b) a copy of the Assessment Notice, and

(c) an administration fee of thirty dollars ($30), to the assessor within sixty (60) days after the date on which the Assessment Notice was mailed or e-mailed to the persons named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(2) The address for delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor is the First Nation office.

(3) The grounds for an appeal may be in respect of one or more of the following:

(a) the assessed value of the property;

(b) the assessment classification of the property;

(c) the applicability of an exemption to the property;

(d) any alleged error or omission in an assessment or Assessment Notice; and

(e) the liability of the holder to taxation under this By-law.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to an assessment amended under section 17, the appeal must be confined to the amendment.

(5) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment under section 18, the appeal must be confined to the supplementary assessment.

(6) No appeal may be brought respecting an assessment amended to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Agents and Solicitors

29. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

30.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal.

(2) The chair must, at least thirty (30) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;

(c) the assessor; and

(d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

32. The assessor must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

Timing for Hearing

33. Subject to section 46, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within ninety (90) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor, unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

34.(1) The chair must

(a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and

(b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

35.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this By-law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

36.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

37.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

38.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there shall not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

39. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

40. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

41.(1) Subject to this By-law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

42.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

(a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or

(b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board, by issuing an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(3) A party may request that the Assessment Review Board make an order under subsection (1) to a person specified by the party.

(4) Where a party makes a request under subsection (3),

(a) the chair must sign and issue an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and the party must serve it on the witness at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be; and

(b) a party requesting the attendance of a witness must pay a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to the witness to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(5) The Assessment Review Board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with an order under this section.

Adjournments

43. The Assessment Review Board may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all matters have been heard and determined; and

(b) at any time during a hearing, adjourn the hearing.

Costs

44. The Assessment Review Board may make orders requiring a party

(a) to pay all or part of the costs of another party in respect of the appeal,

(b) to pay all or part of the costs of the Assessment Review Board in respect of the appeal,

where the Assessment Review Board considers the conduct of a party has been improper, vexatious, frivolous or abusive.

Reference on Question of Law

45.(1) At any stage of a proceeding before it, the Assessment Review Board, on its own initiative or at the request of one or more of the parties, may refer a question of law in the proceeding to a court of competent jurisdiction in the form of a stated case.

(2) The stated case must be in writing and filed with the court registry and must include a statement of the facts and all evidence material to the stated case.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must

(a) suspend the proceeding as it relates to the stated case and reserve its decision until the opinion of the court has been given; and

(b) decide the appeal in accordance with the court's opinion.

Matters before the Courts

46. If a proceeding with respect to liability to pay taxes in respect of assessable property that is the subject of an appeal is brought before a court of competent jurisdiction

(a) before the hearing is to commence, the hearing must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court;

(b) during the hearing, the hearing must be adjourned until the matter is decided by the court; or

(c) after the hearing has concluded but before a decision on the appeal is given, the decision must be deferred until the matter is decided by the court.

Withdrawal of Appeal

47.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Upon receipt of a Notice of Withdrawal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must dismiss the matter set for its consideration.

Delivery of Decisions

48.(1) The Assessment Review Board must, at the earliest opportunity after the completion of a hearing, deliver a written decision on the appeal to all parties.

(2) Any person may obtain a copy of a decision of the Assessment Review Board from the tax administrator on request and payment of a fee of 6 dollars ($6).

(3) The tax administrator may obscure or omit personal information (other than name and address) and financial business information from decisions provided under subsection (2), provided that assessment and property tax information must not be obscured or omitted.

(4) The assessor must make any changes to the assessment roll that are necessary to reflect a decision of the Assessment Review Board and must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected.

Delivery of Documents under this Part

49.(1) Delivery of a document under this Part may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail, fax or e-mail.

(2) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with the individual or with a person at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at the individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the administrative office of the first nation; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the person apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or a branch office of the corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a document is considered delivered if

(a) delivered personally, at the time that personal delivery is made;

(b) sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed;

(c) sent by fax, at the time indicated on the confirmation of transmission; or

(d) sent by e-mail, at the time indicated in the electronic confirmation that the e-mail has been opened.

(4) A document delivered on a non-business day or after 17:00 local time on a business day is considered delivered at 09:00 on the next business day.

Appeals

50.(1) An appeal lies from the Assessment Review Board to a court of competent jurisdiction on a question of law.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be commenced within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Assessment Review Board's decision under subsection 48(1).

PART XI

LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Tax Liability

51.(1) Except as provided in Part XII, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this By-law.

(2) Taxes levied under this By-law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this By-law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Where an interest in land is not subject to taxation, the liability for taxation of any other interest in the same property is not affected.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this By-law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this By-law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this By-law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest and costs as provided in this By-law.

Tax Refunds

52.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this By-law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART XII
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

53.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this By-law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) property, other than a student dormitory, used in connection with school purposes, not operated for profit;

(d) property held by a religious body and used chiefly for divine service, public worship or religious education, and any property held by the religious body and used only as a parking area in connection with these purposes;

(e) property, other than a student dormitory, used in connection with a hospital, not operated for profit;

(f) property, other than a student dormitory, used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit;

(g) property used to provide housing accommodation for senior citizens, not operated for profit; and

(h) property consisting of the following:

(i) land, to a maximum of 10 hectares, that is used as a cemetery; and

(ii) any improvement on land described in subparagraph (i) that is used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where the interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.]

(3) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(c) to (h) apply only to that portion of a property that is used for the purposes for which the exemption is given.

(4) Where a property contains one or more parts that are exempt from taxation, the taxes are recoverable against the entire property.

PART XIII
GRANTS AND TAX ABATEMENT

Annual Grants

54.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(b) [set out qualifying criteria for other grant programs].

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

(a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;

(b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements and offsets; and

(c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure by-law.

PART XIV
LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

55.(1) On or before May 15 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a By-law pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A By-law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this By-law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual By-law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

56.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before June 30 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Saddle Lake Cree Nation.

Tax Roll

57.(1) On or before May 15 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must create a tax roll for that taxation year.

(2) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;

(b) the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(c) the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the land and the improvements as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;

(e) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this By-law; and

(f) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(a) the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this By-law; and

(b) the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years.

(4) The fact that information required to be shown on the tax roll is omitted or that information shown contains an error, omission or misdescription does not invalidate the roll or any other information shown on the tax roll.

Annual Tax Notices

58.(1) On or before May 31 of each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(a) each holder of taxable property under this By-law; and

(b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property, to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

(2) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under section 15 and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(6) Where applicable, a Tax Notice must state that taxes are payable in conjunction with periodic lease payments under section 63.

(7) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice relating to the same property may be mailed together or may be combined into one notice.

(8) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on a Tax Notice, the tax administrator may prepare and send an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection (1).

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

59.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with this By-law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 58(1).

(2) If it is discovered that there is an error, omission or misdescription in any of the information shown on the tax roll

(a) the tax administrator may correct the tax roll for the current taxation year only; and

(b) on correcting the tax roll, the tax administrator must mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 58(1).

(3) If it is discovered that no tax has been imposed on a taxable property, the First Nation may impose the tax for the current year only and the tax administrator must prepare and send a Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 58(1).

(4) If property that was exempt from taxation becomes taxable or taxable property becomes exempt from taxation, the tax administrator must correct the tax roll and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 58(1).

(5) Where the taxable status of a property changes, the tax imposed in respect of it must be prorated so that the tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is not exempt.

(6) The tax administrator must record on the tax roll the date of every entry made under this section.

(7) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 52.

(8) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and interest must not be added in that period.

Supplementary Taxes

60.(1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is prepared, the tax administrator must prepare a supplementary tax roll, which may be a continuation of the supplementary assessment roll or may be separate from that roll.

(2) A supplementary tax roll must show

(a) the same information that is required to be shown on the tax roll; and

(b) the date for determining the tax that may be imposed on the improvements.

(3) The tax administrator must, no later than December 31 in the taxation year in which a supplementary tax roll is prepared,

(a) prepare supplementary Tax Notices for all taxable property shown on the supplementary tax roll; and

(b) send the supplementary Tax Notices to every person to whom a Tax Notice must be sent under subsection 58(1).

(4) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this By-law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

Subdivision

61.(1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before a Tax Notice is mailed in respect of that property, the tax administrator may

(a) apportion the taxes payable in that year among the properties created by the subdivision in the same proportions as taxes would have been payable in respect of the properties had the subdivision occurred on or before the assessment roll was certified under this By-law; and

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor must provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

62.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information by Tax Administrator to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this By-law.

(2) The tax administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

PART XV
PERIODIC PAYMENTS

Taxes as a Percentage of Rental Payment

63.(1) Council, with the consent of the locatee where applicable, may by resolution declare that taxes respecting an interest in land that is leased be expressed as a percentage of the rent payment and collected with it in accordance with the terms of a lease agreement or the terms of an agreement with the landlord.

(2) Where the First Nation has entered an agreement with the Crown or with any person entitled to receive rents, for the collection of tax under this Part, the receipt by the Crown or such person of payment on account of tax will be a discharge of the liability for tax to the extent of the payment.

(3) Where taxes are due and payable in conjunction with payment of rent under this Part, the proportionate payment is due and payable on the date that the rent is due and payable.

PART XVI
PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Receipts for Payments

64.(1) On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

Tax Certificate

65.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is 6 dollars ($6) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART XVII
INTEREST

Interest

66. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at one percent (1%) per month or portion of month, compounded monthly, and the interest added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Application of Payments

67. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to interest added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART XVIII
REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

Revenues and Expenditures

68.(1) All revenues raised under this By-law must be placed in a separate account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) Revenues raised include:

(a) taxes, including for clarity interest and costs as set out in this By-law; and

(b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this By-law must be made under authority of an expenditure by-law.

Reserve Funds

69.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must

(a) be established in an expenditure by-law; and

(b) comply with this section.

(2) Except as provided in this section, money in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the money and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

(3) Council may, by expenditure by-law,

(a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;

(b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and

(c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure by-law.

(5) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

PART XIX
COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

70.(1) The liability referred to in subsection 51(2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this By-law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this By-law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(4) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XX, XXI, XXII, XXIII or XXIV of this By-law, the tax administrator must obtain authorization from Council by resolution.

Tax Arrears Certificate

71.(1) Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XX, XXI, XXII, XXIII or XXIV, the tax administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.

(2) A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

Creation of Lien

72.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this By-law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or registration in a register.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

73.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XX, XXI, XXII, XXIII and XXIV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(3) Personal delivery of a document is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;

(b) in the case of a first nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the first nation, or with the first nation's legal counsel; and

(c) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.

(4) A document is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) Copies of notices must be delivered

(a) where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and

(b) where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XX

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

74.(1) If taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this By-law.

(3) The costs payable by the debtor under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule XVI.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

75.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 74(1), the tax administrator must deliver a Notice of Seizure and Sale of Personal Property to the debtor.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale of Personal Property, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or By-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property that is located on the reserve and described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale of Personal Property, except for property exempt from seizure under subsection 74(2).

(3) The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

Notice of Seized Personal Property

76.(1) The tax administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.

(2) The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

Conduct of Sale

77.(1) A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

(3) The tax administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection 76(1).

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

78. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

79.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XXI

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

80.(1) If taxes remain unpaid for more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

(2) Before proceeding under subsection (1), the tax administrator must

(a) deliver a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property to the debtor;

(b) deliver a copy of the Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property;

(c) deliver a copy of the Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property to any holder of a charge registered in the registry against the taxable property that may be extinguished under paragraph 86(4)(b); and

(d) deliver to the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development a copy of the Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property, and a request for consent from the Minister to the seizure and assignment of taxable property, if required.

(3) Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator may, with the consent of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development if required, sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

(4) Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

Upset Price

81.(1) The tax administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 85(1) plus five percent (5%) of that total.

(2) The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

82.(1) A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

(a) published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

(b) posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

(2) The tax administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (1).

(3) If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

Notice to the Minister

83. The tax administrator must without delay notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this By-law.

Subsisting Rights

84. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

(a) the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 85(1);

(b) the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to:

(i) impeachment for waste, and

(ii) the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

(c) an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right of way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

(d) during the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

Redemption Period

85.(1) At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1)

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

Assignment of Taxable Property

86.(1) Subject to a redemption under subsection 85(1), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 82(3).

(2) Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

(3) The tax administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this By-law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

(4) An assignment under subsection (1) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is deemed final under subsection (1), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right of way registered against the interest in land.

(5) Upon an assignment under subsection (1), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

Proceeds of Sale

87.(1) At the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property must be paid

(a) first, to the First Nation, and

(b) second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law,

and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by the First Nation

88.(1) If the right to assignment of the taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 82(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

(2) A sale under subsection (1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this By-law.

PART XXII

CANCELLATION OF INTEREST IN LAND

Authorization

89. Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may, in accordance with this Part, cancel the interest in land held by the debtor in respect of which the taxes are due.

Notice of Cancellation of Interest in Land

90. Before proceeding under section 89, the tax administrator must deliver a Notice of Cancellation of Interest in Land to the debtor, and deliver a copy of the Notice to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property and to any holder of a charge registered in the registry against the taxable property that may be extinguished under paragraph 91(2)(c).

Cancellation of Interest

91.(1) If the debtor does not pay all taxes owing, including interest and costs, within six (6) months after the Notice of Cancellation of Interest in Land is delivered to the debtor, the tax administrator must

(a) obtain the consent of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development to the cancellation, if required;

(b) register a Certificate of Cancellation of Interest in Land in the registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time the Certificate is issued; and

(c) deliver the Certificate of Cancellation of Interest in Land to the debtor, and deliver a copy of the Certificate to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property and to any holder of a charge registered in the registry against the taxable property that may be extinguished under paragraph (2)(c).

(2) Once the tax administrator has fulfilled the requirements under subsection (1), and without further notice,

(a) the interest in land held by the debtor is cancelled;

(b) the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, is extinguished; and

(c) all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, are extinguished, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right of way registered against the interest in land.

(3) On cancellation under subsection (2), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is cancelled.

(4) The costs payable by the debtor under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule XVI.

PART XXIII

FORFEITURE

Authorization

92. Where taxes remain unpaid for more than twenty-four (24) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the tax administrator may, in accordance with this Part, levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the forfeiture of the interest in land in respect of which taxes are due.

Notice of Forfeiture

93. Before proceeding under section 92, the tax administrator must deliver a Notice of Forfeiture to the debtor, and deliver a copy of the Notice to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property and to any holder of a charge registered in the registry against the taxable property that may be extinguished under paragraph 94(3)(b).

Forfeiture

94.(1) If the debtor does not pay all taxes owing, including interest and costs, on or before the later of December 1 of the year in which the Notice of Forfeiture is delivered, and forty (40) days after the Notice is delivered, the tax administrator must

(a) obtain the consent of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development to the forfeiture, if required;

(b) register a Certificate of Forfeiture in the registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time the Certificate is issued; and

(c) deliver the Certificate of Forfeiture to the debtor, and deliver a copy of the Certificate to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property and to any holder of a charge registered in the registry against the taxable property that may be extinguished under paragraph (3)(b).

(2) Once the tax administrator has fulfilled the requirements under subsection (1), the interest in land is absolutely forfeited to, and vested in, the First Nation.

(3) A forfeiture and vesting under subsection (2) operates

(a) as a transfer of the taxable property to the First Nation from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of the debtor, every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time of forfeiture under subsection (2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right of way registered against the interest in land.

(4) If any taxes remain unpaid on the deadline referenced in subsection (1), the payment of those taxes does not prevent forfeiture unless the payment

(a) includes all taxes then due and payable, including interest and costs; and

(b) is made before forfeiture occurs under subsection (2).

(5) The costs payable by the debtor under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule XVI.

Payment and Extinguishment of Debt

95. Upon forfeiture under subsection 94(2), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

PART XXIV
DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

Discontinuance of Services

96.(1) Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if

(a) revenues from this By-law or any property taxation by-law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and

(b) taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.

(3) The First Nation must not discontinue

(a) fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;

(b) water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or

(c) electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XXV
SERVICE AND LOCAL IMPROVEMENT TAXES

Service and Local Improvement Taxes

97. Council may, by by-law pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, impose service and local improvement taxes to all or any part of the reserve, and the exemptions in Part XII do not apply to such taxes except as specifically provided in such a by-law.

PART XXVI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

98.(1) The tax administrator, the assessor, a member of the Assessment Review Board, the secretary or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this By-law must not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this By-law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator or the assessor may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

99. Notwithstanding section 98, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

(a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or

(b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

100. Nothing under this By-law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay taxes or amounts levied under this By-law be affected by

(a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;

(b) an error or omission in an assessment roll, the tax roll or any notice given under this By-law; or

(c) a failure of the First Nation, tax administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

101.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this By-law after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit described in subsection (1), then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

102.(1) Where in this By-law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

(a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll for matters relating to assessment, and on the taxation roll for matters relating to taxation;

(b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or

(c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the assessment roll for matters relating to assessment, and on the taxation roll for matters relating to taxation.

(2) Except where otherwise provided in this By-law,

(a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

(b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and

(c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

103.(1) The provisions of this By-law are severable, and where any provision of this By-law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this By-law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this By-law.

(2) Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this By-law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this By-law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Force and Effect

104. This By-law comes into force and effect on approval by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 2 day of June, 2015, at Saddle Lake, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of (5) members of Council.

SCHEDULE XIX

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____

(the "debtor")

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____

(the "taxable property")

TAKE NOTICE that taxes and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the tax administrator, pursuant to the _____ First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, 20__, and with the consent of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, if required, seizing and selling the taxable property by public auction or tender as follows:

1. The public auction or tender, including any conditions that are attached to the acceptance of a bid to purchase the taxable property, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the _____ First Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the tax administrator.

2. The tax administrator will

   (a) publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and

   (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.

3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.

4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes and interest payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.

5. The tax administrator will conduct the public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.

6. If the First Nation does not receive a bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

7. The debtor may redeem the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%) any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public auction or tender in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the "redemption period"). Where the taxable property is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of taxable property by public auction or tender is not complete, and no transfer of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will transfer the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable.

The taxable property will not be transferred to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

9. Council of the _____ First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development in writing of any sale of the right to the assignment of taxable property and of any redemption of the taxable property.

10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of assignment.

11. An assignment of the taxable property operates

(a) as a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and

(b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the transfer is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right of way registered against the interest in land.

12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests that the debtor held in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.

13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, and then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor in accordance with the _____ First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, 20__.

I, Minister of Indigenous and Northern Affairs, HEREBY APPROVE, pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the following by-law made by the Stoney Tribal Administration, in the Province of Alberta, at a meeting held on the 12th day of May 2016.

- Stoney Tribal Administration
  Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016

Dated at Ottawa, Ontario, this 14 day of June 2016.

Hon. Carolyn Bennett, M.D., P.C., M.P.

Canada

STONEY TRIBAL ADMINISTRATION
ANNUAL PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS the Stoney Tribal Council is empowered to act for and on behalf of the people of the Bearspaw, Chiniki and Wesley Bands; and

WHEREAS pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a band may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues; and

WHEREAS the Council of the Stoney Tribal Administration has enacted the Stoney Property Tax By-law, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve; and

WHEREAS Section 56 of the Stoney Property Tax By-law, requires a first nation that has made a property taxation by-law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-laws;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Stoney Tribal Administration duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Stoney Tribal Administration Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this by-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. c-I-5 as amended from time to time, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" or "Band" means the Stoney First Nation, being a band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"property taxation by-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under section 83 of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation by-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Stoney Property Tax By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by- law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedures and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon being approved by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 12th day of May, 2016, at Calgary, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of (9) members of Council.

STURGEON LAKE CREE NATION
ANNUAL PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a band may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation has enacted the Sturgeon Lake Band Taxation and Business Licensing By-law respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve;

AND WHEREAS Section 21 of the Sturgeon Lake Band Taxation and Business Licensing By-law requires a first nation that has made a property taxation by-law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-laws;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this by-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. c-I-5 as amended from time to time, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" or "Band" means the Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, being a band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"property taxation by-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under section 83 of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation by-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Sturgeon Lake Band Taxation and Business Licensing By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by- law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedures and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon being approved by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 20th day of May, 2016, at Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of 4 (Four) members of Council.

BOSTON BAR FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a First Nation may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the Boston Bar First Nation has enacted Boston Bar First Nation Taxation By-law, 2004, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve; and

C. The Council of the Boston Bar First Nation wishes to enact this expenditure by-law to establish a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-law in the current taxation year, and an interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Boston Bar First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Boston Bar First Nation Annual Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this By-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the same meaning as "council of the band" in subsection 2(1) of the Act;

"First Nation" means the Boston Bar First Nation, being a band under the Act;

"By-law" means this annual expenditure by-law enacted under paragraph 83(2) of the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under the Taxation By-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Boston Bar First Nation Property Taxation By-law, 2004.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule to this By-law and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 8, and section 10, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by-law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this By-law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this By-law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon the approval of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 25th day of May, 2016, at Boston Bar, in the Province of British Columbia.

AUTHORIZATION OF EXPENDITURE OF PROPERTY TAX REVENUE

4.(1) This bylaw authorizes the expenditure of property tax revenue by council on behalf of the band for local purposes.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) but for greater certainty, this bylaw authorizes the expenditure of property tax revenue by council on behalf of the band on community works, community services, general government services, permitted property taxation bylaw expenditures, public works and utility services.

ANNUAL PROPERTY TAX BUDGET

5.(1) On or before October 31st in each fiscal year, the surveyor of taxes shall prepare and table with council a draft annual property tax budget for the then current fiscal year and a draft band council resolution approving the budget, and Council shall endeavour to consider such budget and resolution on or before December 15th of the same fiscal year.

(2) An annual property tax budget may, but is not required to, be in the form of that draft annual property tax budget attached as Schedule A to this bylaw.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), all expenditures made out of property tax revenue that Council is authorized to make under this bylaw shall be made pursuant to an annual property tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution.

(4) For greater certainty:

(a) band council may at any time and from time to time amend any annual property tax budget and any band council resolution approving an annual property tax budget, and

(b) nothing in this bylaw shall have the effect of amending section 12 of the Property Taxation Bylaw or of limiting the authorization of, or requiring additional procedures to permit, expenditures of property tax revenue thereunder.

PROPERTY TAX REVENUE ACCOUNTS

6.(1) All property tax revenue shall be deposited in a special account or accounts maintained in the name of the band and be invested until required to be expended pursuant to an annual property tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution.

(2) Any surplus property tax revenue raised during a fiscal year that is not required for expenditure during that fiscal year pursuant to an annual property tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution, shall be set aside in a special surplus fund account or accounts maintained in the name of the band and be invested until required for such expenditure in a future fiscal year.

ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

7. The surveyor of taxes shall administer this bylaw.

BYLAW REMEDIAL

8. This bylaw shall be construed as being remedial, and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

MISCELLANEOUS

9.(1) Headings form no part of this bylaw but shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

(2) A finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that a section or provision of this bylaw is void or invalid shall not affect or bear upon the validity or invalidity of any other section or part of this bylaw or this bylaw as a whole.

(3) Where a provision in this bylaw is expressed in the present tense, future tense or in the past tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(4) In this bylaw words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

COMING INTO FORCE

10. This bylaw shall come into force immediately upon being approved by the Minister.

This bylaw is hereby enacted by Council at a duly called and convened Burns Lake Band Council meeting held on the 23 day of August, 2016.

FORT NELSON FIRST NATION
ANNUAL PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a band may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of land, or interests in land, in the reserve, including rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Fort Nelson First Nation has enacted the Fort Nelson Indian Band Property Taxation Bylaw, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve;

AND WHEREAS Section 64 of the Fort Nelson Indian Band Property Taxation Bylaw requires a First Nation that has made a property taxation by-law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-laws;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Fort Nelson First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Fort Nelson First Nation Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this by-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. c.I-5 as amended from time to time, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" or "Band" means the Fort Nelson First Nation, being a band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"Taxation By-law" means the Fort Nelson Indian Band Property Taxation Bylaw.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by-law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedures and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon the being approved by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

HAISLA NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a First Nation may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the Haisla Nation has enacted the Haisla Nation Properly Assessment and Taxation By-law, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve; and

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Haisla Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Haisla Nation Annual Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this By-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, S.C. 1985, c.1-5, and the regulations made under that Act;

"Annual Budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget period;

"Interim Budget" means the budget attached as a Schedule to this By-Law setting out, on an interim basis, the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of these local revenues during the year following the present budget period;

"Band Council or Council" has the meaning given to that term within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act as elected by the Band members from time to time pursuant to the custom of the Band;

"By-law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 83(2) of the Act;

"First Nation" means the Haisla Nation, being a band under the Act;

"Local Revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"Property Assessment and Taxation By-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 83(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Haisla Nation Property Taxation and Assessment By-law No.1.

3. The First Nation's Annual Budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule to this By-law.

4. The First Nation's Interim Budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2017 and ending March 31, 2018 is attached as a Schedule to this By-law.

5. This By-law authorizes the expenditures provided for in the Annual Budget and the Interim Budget.

6. Those amounts Indicated in the Annual Budget and the Interim Budget must be credited to the following reserve funds: (a) the Gas Bar Economic Development fund; and (b) the Community Infrastructure Fund.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the Annual Budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the Annual Budget or the Interim Budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Properly Assessment and Taxation Bylaw.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedules attached to this By-law form part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon the approval of the Minister of Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development.

This By-law is HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 11th day of October, 2016 at Kitamaat Village, in the Province of British Columbia.

Halfway River First Nation

By-law No. 2016-003

A By-law for the Care and Control of Animals on the Reserve

WHEREAS section 81, paragraph (a), (d), (e), (q), (r); 81(2); and 81(3) of the Indian Act empower the council of the Halfway River First Nation to pass by-laws to provide for the health of residents on the Halfway River First Nation Reserve No. 168 (the "reserve") the prevention of nuisances, the protection against and the prevention of trespass by domestic animals, matters arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under section 81, and the imposition of a penalty for the violation of any such by-law;

AND WHEREAS the council is of the opinion that the uncontrolled ownership, breeding, and running at large of animals may be detrimental to the health of the residents on the reserve, and a nuisance to such residents;

NOW THEREFORE, the council of the Halfway River First Nation hereby enacts the following by-law:

SHORT TITLE

1. This by-law may be cited as the "Halfway River First Nation Animal Control By-law".

DEFINITIONS

2. In this by-law:

"abandoned animal" includes an animal that

(a) is apparently ownerless,
(b) is found at large,
(c) is found in a rental unit after expiry of the tenancy agreement in respect of the rental unit, or
(d) if a person agreed to care for the animal, is not retrieved from that person within 4 days following the end of that agreement;

"animal" means traditionally domesticated animals, including cattle, cats, chickens, dogs, donkeys, horses, mules, sheep, and pigs, but not including bees;

"animal control officer" means an animal control officer appointed by council for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this by-law, and includes any by-law enforcement officer, peace officer, or law enforcement officer employed on the reserve or in another jurisdiction who exercises the powers of an animal control officer under this by-law whether or not that person has been appointed by council as an animal control officer;

"animal registry" means the registry kept by the registrar of animals for the purpose of the registration of all animals on the reserve;

"at large" or "running at large" means off of the owner's property, and not

(a) secured inside a crate, fence, pen, or building,
(b) on a leash that is held firmly by a person, or
(c) otherwise under the control of the owner or a responsible person;

"authorized agent" means a person appointed as an authorized agent under the Provincial Act;

"band" means Halfway River First Nation, which is a band under the Indian Act;

"cat" means a domesticated cat;

"Council" means the Chief and Council of the Halfway River First Nation as defined in the Indian Act and lawfully elected in accordance with the Indian Act or custom election code, as the case may be;

"critical distress" means distress in an animal of such a nature that

(a) immediate veterinary treatment cannot prolong the animal's life, or
(b) prolonging the animal's life would result in the animal suffering unduly;

"dangerous dog" means a dog that has been designated as a dangerous dog under section 28;

"distress" means, with respect to an animal, that the animal is

(a) deprived of adequate food, water, shelter, ventilation, light, space, exercise, care or veterinary treatment,
(b) kept in conditions that are unsanitary,
(c) not protected from excessive heat or cold,
(d) injured, sick, in pain or suffering, or
(e) abused or neglected;

"dog" means a domesticated dog, and includes an animal that is a cross between a dog and a wolf;

"euthanize" means to destroy an animal by lethal intravenous injection of an approved barbiturate, or by any other humane method that causes the least possible pain and distress and meets generally-accepted Canadian veterinary standards;

"horse" means a horse, a pony or another similar animal;

an "information" includes

(a) a count in an information; and
(b) a complaint in respect of which a justice is authorized to make an order;

"justice" means a justice of the peace, and includes 2 or more justices, if 2 or more justices act or have jurisdiction, and a judge of the Provincial Court or any person who has the power or authority of 2 or more Justices of the Peace;

"livestock" means animals that are used or raised on a farm for the production of food, including, but not limited to, donkeys, cattle, horses, mules, sheep and pigs;

"medical officer of health" means

(a) a medical officer of health appointed by council resolution or the First Nations Health Authority, or
(b) a medical health officer appointed under the Public Health Act, SBC 2008, c. 28;

"muzzle" means a device that covers or secures the mouth of an animal and is designed to prevent the animal from biting;

"neutered" means sexually sterile regardless of sex and includes a dog or a cat that has been certified by a veterinarian as too old, or physically unable, to be neutered;

"owner" means any person, partnership, association, or corporation that owns, possesses, harbours, or has control, care, or custody over an animal;

"pound" means any premises used to keep animals impounded under this by-law, and includes an animal shelter or pound located off-reserve;

"Provincial Act" means the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, RSBC 1996, c. 372;

"reserve" means the Halfway River Indian Reserve No. 168, any land held for the use and benefit of the First Nation pursuant to section 36.1 of the Indian Act, and any future reserve set aside by Her Majesty for the use and benefit of the First Nation;

"residence" means any Band Housing, or other dwelling, house, apartment, mobile home, travel trailer, or room located therein, situated on the reserve, which a person is lawfully entitled to occupy;

"registrar of animals" means an individual or an animal control officer, appointed by resolution of council, responsible for maintaining a registry of all animals over 4 months of age (excluding chickens and other birds) that are possessed, or harboured on the reserve.

"resolution" means a decision made at a duly-convened meeting of a quorum of council, and recorded in writing; and

"veterinarian" means a person licensed as a veterinarian in Canada.

APPLICATION

3. This by-law applies to all owners of animals, and all persons who have possession of animals, where the animals either reside on, or are present on the reserve.

4. This by-law does not limit the Aboriginal or Treaty rights of any person.

AUTHORIZED OFFICERS

5. (1) Council may appoint, by resolution, one or more animal control officers to provide for the administration and enforcement of this by-law, including:

(a) assuming responsibility for the receipt of registration applications and maintenance of the animal registry from the registrar of animals; and
(b) the licence registry as well as the issuance of licence tags.

(2) Council may, by resolution, provide for reasonable remuneration to be paid to an animal control officer.

6. (1) A peace officer or an authorized agent may perform any duty or power ascribed to an animal control officer under this by-law.

(2) Council may, by resolution, authorize a person who is not an animal control officer, peace officer, or authorized agent to perform one or more duties or powers ascribed to an animal control officer under this by-law, and may provide that such authorization is only valid for a particular case or period of time.

ANIMAL CARE

7. (1) A person responsible for an animal must care for the animal, including protecting the animal from circumstances that are likely to cause the animal to be in distress.

(2) A person responsible for an animal must not cause or permit the animal to be, or to continue to be, in distress.

(3) This section applies even if a person satisfies the requirements of sections 8 through 14.

8. Every owner shall provide his or her animal with, at minimum:

(a) clean potable drinking water and food of sufficient quantity and quality to allow for healthy growth and the maintenance of healthy body weight;
(b) food and water receptacles that are clean and disinfected and located so as to avoid contamination from excreta;
(c) the opportunity for regular exercise sufficient to maintain good health, including daily opportunities to be free of a confined area and under appropriate control;
(d) adequate shelter from heat, cold, and dampness; and
(e) necessary veterinary care when the animal exhibits signs of pain, injury, illness, or suffering.

9. Every owner who keeps an animal that normally resides outdoors, or that is kept outdoors for extended periods of time, shall provide the animal with an outdoor shelter which, at minimum:

(a) has an area for the use of that animal that is at least twice the length of the animal in all directions, and that also allows the animal to turn around freely and adopt normal resting postures;
(b) ensures protection from heat, cold, and dampness that is appropriate to the weight and type of animal;
(c) provides sufficient shade to protect the animal from the direct rays of the sun at all times; and
(d) is regularly cleaned and sanitized, and removed of feces and other waste daily.

10. (1) No person shall cause an animal to be hitched, tied, or fastened to a fixed object where a choke collar, choke chain, or pinch collar forms part of the securing apparatus, or where a rope or cord is tied directly around the animal's neck.

(2) No person shall cause an animal to be hitched, tied, or fastened to a fixed object for longer than 6 hours within a 24 hour period.

11. No person shall cause an animal to be confined in an enclosed space or vehicle without adequate ventilation.

12. No person shall transport an animal outside the passenger compartment of any motor vehicle or trailer unless the animal is adequately confined or secured to prevent the animal from falling off the vehicle or otherwise injuring itself.

13. (1) No owner shall keep his or her animal in an unsanitary environment.

(2) For the purposes of this section, an environment is considered unsanitary when it:

(a) contains objects that may cause injury to any person or animal;
(b) contains an accumulation of excreta;
(c) is infested with insects or rodents;
(d) has an offensive odour, or causes the animal to have an offensive odour; or

(e) otherwise exhibits conditions which endanger the health of any person or animal, or which disturb or are likely to disturb the comfort of any person or animal.

14. Except as permitted under this by-law, no person shall kill, wound, poison, or otherwise harm an animal on the reserve.

REGISTRATION AND LICENSING

15. (1) No person shall own, possess, or harbour an animal aged 4 months or more on the reserve unless the animal is registered on the animal registry.

(2) Every owner of an animal on the reserve shall register the animal on the animal registry within 60 days of the coming into force of this by-law.

(3) The registration provisions of this by-law do not apply to chickens and other birds.

(4) Every animal that is not registered on the animal registry in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) shall be deemed to be an abandoned animal.

16. (1) Every owner of an animal on the reserve shall register the animal-with the registrar of animals, or otherwise as directed by council, and shall provide the following information if required:

(a) the owner's name;
(b) the owner's address or lot number;
(c) a description of the animal, including species, date of birth, sex, name, and breed, if known;
(d) the number of animals in the household;
(e) the animal's rabies immunization record, including the date of such immunization, the name of the person who administered the immunization, the name of the manufacturer of the vaccine, and the vaccine batch number; and
(f) such other information as may be reasonably required by council or the animal control officer.

(2) The owner of any registered animal shall notify the registrar of animals of any change to the information, including any change of address, provided under this section within 30 days of such change.

(3) The registrar of animals shall keep a complete and current animal registry of all animals registered under this by-law.

(4) An owner shall notify the registrar of animals if his or her animal registered under this by-law dies, is sold, or otherwise permanently leaves the reserve.

(5) Only an animal control officer shall be responsible for licensing dogs and for keeping a complete list of dogs licensed under this by-law.

17. (1) In addition to complying with the sections 15 and 16, the owner of a dog shall obtain from an animal control officer an annual licence for the dog by paying the applicable annual licence fee in Schedule 1.

(2) If an owner of a dog has registered his or her dog and paid the applicable annual licence fee in Schedule 1, and if the animal control officer is satisfied that the dog has been immunized against rabies, the animal control officer shall issue a licence tag to the owner.

(3) A licence tag issued under this by-law is valid for 1 full year from the date of issuance.

(4) The owner of a dog duly licensed under this by-law may obtain a licence tag to replace a lost tag upon payment of the replacement licence tag fee in Schedule 1 to the animal control officer.

(5) Every owner of a dog on the reserve shall cause the dog to wear at all times a collar or harness bearing a current licence tag issued in respect of that dog under this by-law.

(6) No person shall use a licence tag on a dog to which the licence is not registered.

18. (1) For species of animals other than dogs, council or an animal control officer may prescribe a form of identifying mark to be attached or applied to each animal on registration.

(2) Where an identifying mark has been prescribed for a particular species under this section, every owner of an animal of that species shall cause the mark to be attached or applied to the animal.

ANIMAL CONTROL

19. (1) No owner shall permit his or her animal to run at large on the reserve.

(2) An animal that is running at large on the reserve is deemed to be acting with the consent of its owner.

(3) An animal is not considered to be at large if the animal has been trained to

(a) hunt;
(b) work with livestock; or
(c) serve as a guide animal, and if the animal is engaged in the work for which it was trained.

20. No person shall own at one time more than 3 dogs and 3 cats, aged 4 months or more, without express permission by resolution of council.

21. There is no limit on the number of horses an individual owner can keep; however, council may require an owner to demonstrate that they are capable of feeding, caring for and exercising the horses to keep them in reasonable health.

22. If an animal defecates, vomits, or otherwise leaves waste on any public or private property other than the property of its owner, then the owner shall remove such feces, vomit, or waste immediately.

23. (1) Every owner of a female dog or cat in heat shall confine the animal in such a manner as to prevent the animal from coming into contact with a male of that species.

(2) Such confinement shall continue for the whole period the female dog or cat is in heat, except that such animal may be released from such confinement for controlled breeding purposes and for the purpose of exercising or defecating on the owner's property.

24. No owner shall permit his or her animal to:

(a) vocalize excessively, or otherwise make excessive noise, in any manner which might reasonably disturb any person;
(b) chase, bite, snap at, or attack any person or animal without provocation;
(c) tip over garbage containers or food containers;
(d) cause damage to any public or private property, including moveable property, lawns, gardens, bushes, trees, flowers, vegetables, or flower beds.

25. (1) Council may, by resolution and at any time, prohibit the keeping of animals within any area of the reserve.

(2) Council shall post in the band office, in a clearly visible location, notice of any prohibition made under this section.

(3) No person shall keep an animal in an area prohibited under this section.

26. No person may establish, own, or operate an establishment or facility for the boarding or treatment of animals within the limits of the reserve, except with express permission by resolution of council.

INFECTIOUS DISEASE CONTROL

27. (1) Every owner shall ensure that all of his or her dogs and cats, in addition to any other animal specified by council resolution, have been immunized against rabies in accordance with generally accepted veterinary standards.

(2) Every owner shall ensure that all of his or her horses are immunized in accordance with generally accepted veterinary standards.

(3) The owner of any animal that has been exposed to rabies or another communicable disease shall, upon demand, surrender the animal to be held in quarantine by an animal control officer for a period of no less than 14 days.

(4) The animal control officer shall not release an animal that has been exposed to rabies or another communicable disease from quarantine without the written permission of a medical officer of health or a resolution of council.

(5) Any animal found to be infected with rabies or another communicable disease shall be treated by a veterinarian or euthanized by its owner or by the animal control officer, at the owner's expense.

DANGEROUS DOGS

28. (1) An animal control officer may designate a dog as a dangerous dog if the dog

(a) bites a human or animal without provocation,
(b) has a known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack a human or animal without provocation, or
(c) has previously been designated as a dangerous dog and endangers the safety of a human or animal.

(2) A designation under subsection (1) may be for any time period that an animal control officer considers appropriate, considering

(a) the circumstances of the incident,
(b) the severity of the incident, and
(c) any previous incidents.

(3) After designating a dog as a dangerous dog, an animal control officer must inform the owner of the dog in writing of

(a) the designation and its length, and
(b) the responsibilities of the owner of a dangerous dog.

29. (1) Except as allowed under subsection (2) and subject to subsection (3), the owner of a dangerous dog must not allow the dangerous dog to be in a public place or on any private lands and premises unless the dog is

(a) firmly held by a person competent to restrain the dog on a leash not exceeding 2.4 metres in length, and
(b) properly fitted with a humane basket muzzle that allows the dog to pant and drink.

(2) A person may allow a dangerous dog to be in areas of private lands or premises that are exclusively owned or occupied by that person so long as the dog is securely confined

(a) indoors,
(b) on a deck that is no less than 3 metres above ground level, or
(c) in a rear yard and inside a pen, enclosure or fenced area that
    (i) is adequately constructed to prevent the dog from escaping,
    (ii) is locked to prevent casual entry by another person, and
    (iii) has been inspected and approved by an animal control officer.

(3) A person must not allow a dangerous dog that is not securely confined to be within 30 meters of:

(a) any building or facility used as a wellness centre or health facility;
(b) any daycare;
(c) any outdoor public areas where children are either known to, or are likely to gather.

30. (1) The owner of a dangerous dog must display a sign at each entrance to the property and at each entrance to the building in which the dog is kept, which declares in legible writing and with a recognizable symbol that the dog is dangerous.

(2) A sign displayed in accordance with subsection (1) must be

(a) attached so that it cannot be removed easily by passersby, and
(b) visible and capable of being read from any adjacent sidewalk, street or lane.

(3) A person must not deface or remove a sign that is required to be displayed under subsection (1).

31. The owner of a dangerous dog must:

(a) within 2 working days of acquiring the dog or receiving notice that the dog has been designated under section 28, license the animal as a dangerous dog under this by-law;
(b) within 1 month after acquiring the dog or receiving notice that the dog has been designated under section 28, have the dog neutered;
(c) allow an animal control officer to photograph the dog, on demand;
(d) within 2 working days of moving to a new residence, provide an animal control officer with the owner's new address;
(e) within 2 working days of selling or giving away the dog, provide an animal control officer with the name, address and telephone number of the new owner;
(f) within 2 working days of the death of the dog, provide an animal control officer with a veterinarian's certificate of the death; and
(g) immediately advise an animal control officer if the dog is loose or has bitten or attacked any person or animal.

IMPOUNDMENT AND ENFORCEMENT

32. (1) If an animal control officer is of the opinion that an animal is an abandoned animal, the animal control officer may take custody of the animal and arrange for food, water, shelter, care, and veterinary treatment for it.

(2) If an animal control officer is of the opinion that an animal is in distress and the person responsible for the animal

(a) does not promptly take steps that will relieve its distress, or
(b) cannot be found immediately and informed of the animal's distress, the animal control officer may, in accordance with sections 33 or 34, take any action that the animal control officer considers necessary to relieve the animal's distress, including, without limitation, taking custody of the animal and arranging for food, water, shelter, care and veterinary treatment for it.

(3) If, in the opinion of

(a) a veterinarian, or
(b) an animal control officer, if a veterinarian is not readily available, an animal is in critical distress, the animal control officer may euthanize the animal or have the animal euthanized immediately without regard to either the holding period set out subsection 36(1)(a) or the notice periods set out in subsections 36(1)(b)(ii) and 37(b).

(4) If an animal control officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the seizure of a dangerous dog is necessary for public safety or the protection of property, then the animal control officer may, in accordance with section 33, take custody of the dangerous dog.

33. (1) An animal control officer who believes, on reasonable grounds,

(a) that there is an animal in distress in any premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel,
(b) that there is a dangerous dog in any premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel, and that the seizure of the dangerous dog is necessary for public safety or the protection of property, or
(c) that an offence under this by-law has been committed and that there is in any premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel, any thing that will afford evidence of that offence, may enter the premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel with a warrant issued under subsection (2) for the purpose of

(d) determining whether any action authorized by this by-law should be taken to relieve the animal's distress or to protect public safety or property, or

(e) searching for, and seizing, any thing that will afford evidence of an offence under this by-law.

(2) A justice who is satisfied by an information on oath that there are reasonable grounds

(a) under subsection (1)(a), may issue a warrant authorizing an animal control officer to enter the premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this by-law to relieve the animal's distress,
(b) under subsection (1)(b), may issue a warrant authorizing an animal control officer to enter the premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this by-law to protect public safety or property, and
(c) under subsection (1)(c), may issue a warrant authorizing an animal control officer to enter the premises, residence, vehicle, aircraft or vessel for the purpose of searching for, and seizing, a thing that will afford evidence of an offence under this by-law.

(3) If an animal control officer believes that it would be impracticable to appear personally before a justice to apply for a warrant under this section, the animal control officer may submit an information on oath by telephone or other means of telecommunication and, for this purpose, section 22 of the Offence Act, RSBC 1996, c. 338 applies.

(4) A justice may issue a warrant under subsection (2) or (3) for either or both of the purposes referred to in subsection (2).

(5) A warrant issued under subsection (2) or (3) is subject to the conditions specified in the warrant.

34. If an animal control officer believes on reasonable grounds that an animal in any premises (other than a residence) or in any vehicle, aircraft or vessel, is

(a) in critical distress, or
(b) in distress such that immediate veterinary intervention is necessary to prevent the imminent death of the animal

the animal control officer may enter the premises, vehicle, aircraft or vessel without a warrant for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this by-law to relieve that distress.

35. (1) Any person may seize any dog or cat found at large and deliver it to the pound or to a location or person as specified by council through a resolution or an animal control officer.

(2) An animal control officer who receives an animal seized under this section shall take custody of the animal as an abandoned animal under section 32(1).

36. (1) If an animal is taken into custody under section 32(1) and

(a) the owner is unknown, the animal control officer may euthanize, sell or otherwise dispose of the animal after the animal control officer has held the animal for a period of at least 4 days, or
(b) the owner is known, the animal control officer
(i) must give to the owner notice, in accordance with section 39, that the animal control officer may euthanize, sell or otherwise dispose of the animal and that a review of the decision may be requested under section 43, and
(ii) may, no earlier than 4 days after giving notice, euthanize, sell or otherwise dispose of the animal.

37. If an animal is taken into custody under section 32(2) or (4), the animal control officer

(a) must give notice, in accordance with section 39, to
(i) the person from whom the animal was taken, and
(ii) if the person from whom the animal was taken is not the owner and the owner is known, the owner that the animal control officer may euthanize, sell, or otherwise dispose of the animal and that a review of the decision may be requested under section 43, and
(b) may, no earlier than 14 days after giving notice, euthanize, sell or otherwise dispose of the animal.

38. An animal control officer must not sell or otherwise dispose of a dangerous dog, including by returning it to the owner, if the animal control officer believes on reasonable grounds that doing so would endanger public safety.

39. The notice referred to in sections 36 and 37 must be in writing and

(a) mailed to or served personally on the person to whom notice must be given, or
(b) if it cannot be mailed to or served personally on the person to whom notice must be given, posted in a conspicuous place at either the last known address of the person to whom notice must be given or the location at which the animal was taken into custody.

40. If an animal has been sold or otherwise disposed of under section 36 or 37, all rights and interests in the animal

(a) vest in the person to whom it has been sold or otherwise disposed of, and
(b) the former owner ceases to have any of those rights and interests.

41. (1) The owner of an animal taken into custody or euthanized under this by-law is liable to the band for the reasonable costs incurred by the band under this by-law with respect to the animal.

(2) Before releasing an animal to its owner, an animal control officer may require the owner to:

(a) provide proof of ownership of the animal;
(b) register the animal, if the animal is not yet registered; and
(c) pay all or part of the costs, with or without conditions, for which the owner is liable under subsection (1).

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the band may retain the proceeds of a sale or other disposition of an animal under section 36 or 37.

(4) If the proceeds of a sale or other disposition exceed the costs referred to in subsection (1), the owner of the animal may, within 6 months of the date the animal was taken into custody, claim the balance from the band.

42. The animal control officer responsible for a pound on the reserve shall keep records of all animals impounded on the reserve, including the following information, as applicable:

(a) whether an impounded animal was released, adopted, or euthanized;
(b) for how long an animal was impounded;
(c) if an animal was ill or injured, a description of the illness or injury and any veterinary treatment provided;
(d) if an animal was released or adopted, to whom it was released or adopted;
(e) if an animal was euthanized, the manner in which it was euthanized; and
(f) any other information that is relevant in the opinion of the animal control officer.

REVIEWS

43. (1) Council may review a decision of an animal control officer to take custody of an animal under section 32

(a) on request of a person who owns, or is an operator in relation to, the animal,
(b) on request of a person from whom custody of the animal was taken under section 32, or
(c) on its own initiative.

(2) A request for a review may be made to council

(a) in the form required by council, and
(b) within,
    (i) if section 36 (b) applies, 4 days after notice is given as required by that section, or
    (ii) if section 37 applies, 14 days after notice is given as required by that section.

(3) If a review is requested in accordance with subsection (2), council

(a) must review the decision.

(4) Council, following a review, must either

(a) return the animal to its owner or to the person from whom custody was taken, with or without conditions respecting
  (i) the food, water, shelter, care or veterinary treatment to be provided to that animal, and
  (ii) any matter that council considers necessary to maintain the well-being of that animal, or
(b) affirm the notice that the animal will be euthanized, sold or otherwise disposed of.

(5) Council must provide to the person who requested the review written reasons for an action taken under subsection (4).

(6) If council affirms a notice under subsection (4) (b), the animal control officer must not euthanize, sell or otherwise dispose of the animal for at least 4 days after reasons are provided under subsection (5).

(7) A person may not request further review under this section of the same decision.

(8) Where appropriate in the circumstances, council may delegate its powers and responsibilities under this section to the British Columbia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

LIABILITY

44. (1) The owner of an animal is liable for:

(a) damages resulting from a bite, attack, or other harm done by the animal to another person or animal, and
(b) damages to personal property done by the animal resulting from any person's noncompliance with this by-law.

(2) Where there is more than one owner of an animal, the owners are jointly and severally liable under this section.

(3) An owner may not recover damages or compensation as a result of the seizure, impoundment, or euthanasia of a dangerous dog by an animal control officer under this by-law.

OFFENCES

45. A person shall not remove, or attempt to remove, from the pound an impounded animal except as permitted under this by-law.

46. No person shall interfere with, resist, or otherwise obstruct an animal control officer or other person authorized under this by-law in the performance of his or her duties.

47. (1) A person who contravenes any of sections 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16(1), 16(2), 16(4), 17(1), 17(5), 17(6), 18(2), 19(1), 20, 22, 23, 24, 25(3), 26, 27(1), 27(2), 27(3), 29, 30, 31, 45, or 46 commits an offence, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $1000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 30 days, or to both a fine and imprisonment.

(2) Each day that a contravention of this by-law persists constitutes a separate offence.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

48. Council may obtain a court order, pursuant to section 81(3) of the Indian Act, restraining a person from acting in contravention of this by-law.

49. Sections 8 through 33 of Halfway River First Nation's Law and Order By-law apply with respect to commencing and proceeding with enforcement of this by-law.

REPEAL, ENACTMENT AND AMENDMENT

50. Any previous Halfway River First Nation Animal Control By-laws are repealed and replaced by this by-law: By-law No. 2016-003 A By-law for the Care and Control of Animals on the Reserve.

51. (1) This by-law comes into force after it is executed by a quorum of Council of Halfway River First Nation and on the date that the by-law is first published in either the First Nations Gazette or on Halfway River First Nation's website.

(2) Sections 17, 18, and 31(a) [Licensing and Identifying Marks] come into force at a time specified by resolution of Council.

52. If a court determines that a provision of this by-law is invalid for any reason, then the provision shall be severed from the by-law and the validity of the rest of the by-law shall not be affected.

53. This by-law may only be amended by a quorum of council at a duly convened council meeting.

The quorum of council is two (2).

The following members of the council, constituting a majority, voted in favour of this by-law at a duly convened meeting held this 8 day of MARCH, 2016:

Chief Darlene Hunter

William Field
Councillor William Field

Councillor Cynthia Wolter

Halfway River First Nation

By-law No. 2016-001

A By-law for the Observance of Law and Order

WHEREAS the Council of the Halfway River First Nation desires to make a by-law governing the observance of law and order of Members and other persons on the Halfway River Reserve No. 168 (the "Reserve") with respect to any matter arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under section 81 of the Indian Act, and for the imposition of a penalty for a violation thereof;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Halfway River First Nation is empowered to make such a by-law pursuant to section 81(1) paragraphs (c), (d), (p), (p.1), (q), (r); 81(2); and 81(3) of the Indian Act, R.S.C., c. I-5;

AND WHEREAS it is considered to be expedient and necessary for the benefit, comfort and safety of the inhabitants of the Halfway River First Nation Reserve to provide for the observance of law and order by Members and other persons on the Reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Halfway River First Nation hereby enacts the following by-law:

1. SHORT TITLE

1.1. This by-law may be cited as the "Halfway River First Nation Law and Order By-law".

2. INTERPRETATION

2.1. In this by-law:

"Council" means the Chief and Council of the Halfway River First Nation, as defined in the Indian Act and lawfully elected in accordance with the Indian Act or custom election code, as the case may be;

"Criminal History Information Check" means a search being made by a police enforcement agency of the automated criminal records retrieval system maintained by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police ("RCMP").

"Criminal History Information Request" means a request issued by Council for an individual to obtain a Criminal Information History Check from the RCMP or other appropriate policing agency.

"Dangerous Person" means a person that has been convicted, without receiving a pardon and/or a record suspension, of one or more of the offences listed in s. 752 of the Criminal Code of Canada as a "designated primary offence" and any person designated as a "dangerous person" pursuant to this by-law;[i]

"First Nation" means the Halfway River First Nation, a band within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"Information" includes

(a) a count in an Information; and

(b) a complaint in respect of which a justice is authorized to make an order;

"Justice" means a Justice of the Peace, and includes 2 or more Justices, if 2 or more Justices act or have jurisdiction, and a judge of the Provincial Court or any person who has the power or authority of 2 or more Justices of the Peace;

"Legal Justification" means, an individual entitled to be present on Reserve, either by being a Resident on Reserve, being a member of the Halfway River First Nation, or on an implied invitation to the public;

"Occupier" means, in relation to premises:

(a) Chief and Council of the First Nation, or

(b) a person lawfully entitled to occupation of those premises;

"Officer" means any peace officer or other person charged with the duty to preserve and maintain the public peace, a by-law enforcement officer, or any other person appointed by the Council for the purpose of maintaining law and order on the Reserve;

"Order" includes an Order for the payment of money;

"Proceedings" means:

(a) proceedings in respect of offences, and

(b) proceedings in which a Justice is authorized by an enactment to make an Order;

"Prohibited Purpose" means for the purpose of conducting illegal activities, including any activity that is contrary to a by-law of the First Nation, law of Canada, or law of British Columbia applicable on Reserve. For greater certainty, this does not apply to a person who is a Member or a lawful Resident, unless that person is otherwise prohibited from entering the Reserve by operation of a by-law of the First Nation;

"Prosecutor" means an informant, Council, or the Attorney General or their respective counsel or agents;

"Reserve" means the Halfway River Indian Reserve No. 168, any land held for the use and benefit of the First Nation pursuant to section 36.1 of the Indian Act, and any future reserve set aside by Her Majesty for the use and benefit of the First Nation;

"Resolution" means a decision made at a duly-convened meeting of a quorum of Council, and recorded in writing;

"Resident" means any person that ordinarily resides on the Reserve pursuant to the provisions of By-law No.2016-002 the Halfway River First Nation Residency By-law;

"Territorial Division" means a district, county, township, city, town or other judicial division or place; and

"Trial" includes the hearing of a complaint.

3. CRIMINAL HISTORY INFORMATION PRODUCTION ORDER

3.1. If Council reasonably believes that the presence of a person on the Reserve may pose a threat to the observance of law and order on the Reserve, Council may, by Resolution, order a Criminal History Information Request requiring that person to provide to Council, within 30 days of receiving the Order:

(a) a completed Criminal History Information Check (also referred to as a Police Information Check) provided by the RCMP or other appropriate policing agency; or

(b) a signed declaration indicating whether the person been convicted, without receiving a pardon and/or a record suspension, of one or more of the offences listed as a "designated offence" in s. 752 of the Criminal Code of Canada, and where the person has been so convicted, a signed declaration listing which of these offences the person has received a conviction.

3.2. If:

(a) Council believes on the basis of a Criminal History Information Check conducted pursuant to section 3.1(a) or a written declaration received pursuant to section 3.1(b) that a person has been convicted of one or more of the offences listed as a "designated offence" in s. 752 of the Criminal Code of Canada; or

(b) a person fails or refuses within 30 days to comply with an Order to complete a Criminal History Information Request pursuant to section 3.1;

then Council may, by Resolution pursuant to this by-law, designate such a person as a Dangerous Person.

4. DANGEROUS PERSONS ON RESERVE

4.1. Subject to the limitations imposed by law and subject to sections 4.2 and 4.3, Council may, by Resolution, do one or more of the following to restrict or prohibit the residence of a Dangerous Person on Reserve:

(a) post the name of a Dangerous Person in a public place, or otherwise inform Residents of the presence of a Dangerous Person on the Reserve;

(b) issue a direction to:

i. prohibit or restrict the Dangerous Person from attending specified locations or events on the Reserve;

ii. prohibit a Dangerous Person from being within a prescribed distance from a particular person or persons;

iii. limit the duration for which a Dangerous Person may occupy the Reserve on a given visit;

iv. limit the number of times a Dangerous Person may frequent the Reserve within a specified period of time;

v. remove a Dangerous Person from housing on Reserve;

vi. restrict a Dangerous Person from using, occupying, or possessing land on the Reserve, either for a specified duration or until express permission is granted in the form of a Resolution, for a period not exceeding one (1) year; or

vii. obtain a court Order, pursuant to subsection 81(3) of the Indian Act, restraining a person from acting in contravention of this by-law.

4.2. When considering whether to impose any prohibitions or conditions pursuant to subsection 4.1, Council may consider the following:

(a) whether the behaviour for which the conviction was received, if repeated, poses any threat to the peace or safety of Residents or to Council's ability to ensure the observation of law and order on Reserve;

(b) the circumstances and the particulars of the offence or offences for which the Dangerous Person has been convicted, including:

i. whether the offence or offences occurred on the Reserve;

ii. whether the offence or offences involved a Resident;

iii. the age of the Dangerous Person when the offence or offences occurred;

iv. any extenuating circumstances;

v. the length of time that has elapsed between the commission of the offence or offences, including:

a) what the Dangerous Person has done during that period of time;

b) whether the Dangerous Person has shown any tendencies to repeat the kind of behaviour for which he or she received the conviction or convictions;

vi. whether the Dangerous Person has shown a firm intention to rehabilitate himself or herself;

vii. whether the Dangerous Person has failed to comply with previous Orders issued pursuant to section 4; and viii. any other factor that Council reasonably believes is relevant to the determination of whether the residence of the Dangerous Person on the Reserve represents a threat to the peace and safety of Residents or to the observance of law and order on the Reserve.

4.3. Prior to imposing any prohibitions or conditions pursuant to section 4, Council shall give a reasonable opportunity for and shall consider the views of the Dangerous Person and Residents concerning whether the Dangerous Person represents a threat to the peace and safety of Residents or to the observance of law and order on the Reserve.

5. TRESPASSING

5.1. A person commits an offence of trespass if the person does any of the following:

(a) enters the Reserve without Legal Justification;

(b) frequents the Reserve for a Prohibited Purpose;

(c) enters premises without the Occupier's permission;

(d) has been directed, either orally or in writing to leave the premises and does not vacate the premises as soon as practicable after receiving the direction;

(e) engages in an activity on or in a premise after the person has had notice from the Occupier of the premises that the activity is prohibited; or

(f) re-enters the premises or resumes the activity on or in the premises.

5.2. An Officer may take such reasonable measures as may be necessary to remove a person from the Reserve who is trespassing pursuant to subsection 5.1 or where a person fails or refuses to comply with an Order revoking or limiting a person from occupying the Reserve under section 4 of this by-law, or where a Person Resides on the Reserve without being entitled to do so pursuant to section 4 of the Halfway First Nation Residency By-law, or where a Resident fails or refuses to comply with an Order revoking their right to Reside on the Reserve pursuant to subsection 9(1) of the Halfway First Nation Residency By-law.

6. OFFENCE AND PENALTY

6.1. A person commits an offence who fails or refuses to comply with a request, Resolution or direction made under sections 4 or 5 of this by-law.

6.2. A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000) or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days, or to both fine and imprisonment.

6.3. Each day that a contravention of this by-law persists constitutes a separate offence.

7. BY-LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

7.1. Council may, by Resolution, provide for the appointment and the reasonable remuneration of a by-law enforcement officer.

8. COMMENCING ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

8.1. Proceedings alleging a contravention of this by-law must be commenced by the laying of an Information in the form set out in Form 1 attached to this by-law.

8.2. Proceedings alleging a contravention of this by-law must not be instituted more than six (6) months after the time when the subject matter of the proceedings arose

9. FORMALITIES OF AN INFORMATION

9.1. An Information:

(a) must be in writing and must be under oath; and

(b) may charge more than one offence or relate to more than one matter of complaint, but if more than one offence is charged or the Information relates to more than one matter of complaint, each offence or matter of complaint must be set out in a separate count.

9.2. An Information in respect of an offence for which, because of previous convictions, a greater punishment may be imposed must not contain any reference to previous convictions.

10. POWER TO LAY INFORMATION OR COMPLAINT

10.1. A person may, on reasonable and probable grounds,

(a) lay an Information before a Justice;

i. that any person, being within the jurisdiction of that Justice, has committed or is suspected of having committed an offence or act in contravention of this by-law for which the person is liable by law, on conviction, to be fined or imprisoned, or otherwise punished; or 10.2. The Information or complaint may be in Form 1 of this by-law or of similar effect.

11. JUSTICE TO HEAR INFORMANT OR WITNESSES AND ISSUE A SUMMONS OR WARRANT

11.1. A Justice who receives an Information must:

(a) hear and consider without the necessity of notice to any other person;

i. the allegations of the informant; and

ii. the evidence of witnesses if the Justice considers it desirable or necessary; and

(b) if the Justice considers that a case for doing so is made out, issue a summons or warrant to compel the defendant to attend before the Justice.

12. SUMMONS

12.1. A summons may be in one of the prescribed forms and must:

(a) be directed to the defendant;

(b) set out briefly the offence in respect of which the defendant is charged; and

(c) require the defendant to appear at a time and place stated in the summons.

13. SERVICE ON INDIVIDUAL

13.1. Subject to subsection 13.3, a summons must be served by an Officer or enforcement officer, who must deliver it personally to the person to whom it is directed, or, if that person cannot conveniently be found, must leave it for the person at the person's last or usual residence with an occupant of it who appears to be at least 16 years of age.

13.2. A summons in respect of an alleged offence under this by-law may be served in the manner set out in subsection 13.1 by a person appointed for that purpose by Council.

13.3. For the purposes of this section, a person appointed under subsection 13.2 has the legal status of an Officer.

14. SERVICE OF A COPY

14.1. If there is any reference in this by-law to service of a summons, or to a summons, being served, a summons is sufficiently served if a copy of it is served.

14.2. If a copy of a summons is served, the certificate referred to in section 15.1(b) may be endorsed on another copy of, or on the summons.

15. PROOF OF SERVICE

15.1. Service of a summons, may be proved by:

(a) the oral evidence given under oath of a person who served it; or

(b) the certificate of a person who served it, if the certificate is endorsed on a copy of the summons.

15.2. The certificate referred to in subsection 15.1(b) is proof of the authority of the person who signed it.

16. SERVICE ON SUNDAY OR HOLIDAY

16.1. A warrant or summons authorized may be issued or executed on a Sunday or statutory holiday.

17. COPY OF WARRANT TO BE SERVED

17.1. If a warrant is issued for the arrest of a defendant, a copy of it must be served on the person who is arrested under it.

18. CONTENTS OF A WARRANT TO ARREST

18.1. A warrant may be in Form 2 attached to this by-law and must:

(a) name or describe the defendant;

(b) set out briefly the offence in respect of which the defendant is charged; and

(c) Order that the defendant be arrested and brought before the Justice who issued the warrant or before another Justice who has jurisdiction in the same Territorial Division, to answer to the charge and be further dealt with according to law.

18.2. A warrant remains in force until it is executed and need not be made returnable at any particular time.

19. FORMALITIES OF A WARRANT

19.1. A warrant must be signed by a Justice and may be directed:

(a) to an Officer by name;

(b) to an Officer by name and all other Officers in the Territorial Division of the Justice; or

(c) generally to all Officers within the Territorial Division of the Justice.

20. SUMMONS NOT TO PREVENT A WARRANT

20.1. A Justice may issue a warrant:

(a) in Form 2 attached to this by-law, for the arrest of a defendant even if a summons has already been issued to require the appearance of the defendant; or

(b) in the prescribed forms; if i. service of a summons is proved and the defendant does not appear; or

ii. it appears that a summons cannot be served because the defendant is evading service.

21. EXECUTION OF A WARRANT

21.1. A warrant may be executed by arresting the defendant wherever the defendant is found within the territorial jurisdiction of the Justice who issued the warrant.

21.2. A warrant may be executed by a person who is the Officer named in the warrant or one of the Officers to whom it is directed, whether or not the place in which the warrant is to be executed is in the territory for which the person is an Officer.

22. ENDORSEMENT OF WARRANT

22.1. If a warrant for the arrest of a defendant cannot be executed in accordance with section 21, a Justice in whose jurisdiction the defendant is, or is believed to be, must, on application and on proof on oath, or by affidavit, of the signature of the Justice who issued the warrant, authorize the execution of the warrant in his or her jurisdiction by making an endorsement, which may be in Form 3 attached to this by-law, on the warrant.

22.2. An endorsement made on a warrant under subsection 21.1 is sufficient authority to the Officers to whom it was originally directed and to all Officers in the Territorial Division of the Justice by whom it is endorsed to execute the warrant and to take the defendant before the Justice who issued the warrant or before another Justice for the same Territorial Division.

23. PROMISE TO APPEAR

23.1. In this section, "officer in charge" means:

(a) the officer in command of the police force or police department, or of the designated policing unit or designated law enforcement unit as those terms are defined in section 1 of the Police Act [R.S.B.C. 1996] c.37, who is responsible for the lockup or other place to which a defendant is taken after arrest; or

(b) an Officer designated by the officer referred to in subsection 23.1(a) for this section who is in charge of the lockup or other place at the time the defendant is taken to that place to be detained in custody.

23.2. If a Justice issues a warrant under this by-law for the arrest of a defendant, the Justice may authorize the release of the defendant under subsection 23.3 by making an endorsement on the warrant in Form 4 attached to this by-law.

23.3. If a person who has been arrested with a warrant issued under this by-law is taken into custody, the officer in charge may, if the warrant has been endorsed by a Justice under subsection 23.2, release the defendant on the defendant giving his or her promise to appear.

23.4. A promise to appear must be in a prescribed form.

23.5. A person who fails to comply with the conditions set out in a promise to appear commits an offence.

24. ADJOURNMENT

24.1. A Justice may in his or her discretion, before or during a Trial, adjourn the Trial.

(a) The parties to a Trial adjourned under subsection 24.1 must be notified of the time and place appointed for their next appearance before the court.

24.2. If the Justice adjourns a Trial, the Justice may, on condition that the defendant appear at the time and place set for resumption of the Trial,

(a) permit the defendant to be at large;

(b) commit the defendant by warrant, in Form 5 attached to this by-law to a prison in the Territorial Division for which the Justice has jurisdiction, or to any other safe custody the Justice thinks fit; or

(c) discharge the defendant on the defendant's recognizance, in Form 6 attached to this by-law

i. with or without sureties; or

ii. on depositing a sum of money the Justice directs.

25. ABSENCE OF DEFENDANT

25.1. If the defendant does not appear at the time and place appointed for the Trial, and service of the summons within a reasonable period before the appearance was required is proved, or if the defendant does not appear for the resumption of a Trial that has been adjourned in accordance with section 24, the Justice may:

(a) proceed to hear and determine the Proceedings in the absence of the defendant as fully and effectually as if the defendant had appeared; or

(b) if the Justice thinks fit, issue a warrant in a prescribed form or Form 7 for the arrest of the defendant, and adjourn the Trial to await the defendant's appearance to it.

26. ABSENCE OF PROSECUTOR

26.1. If the Prosecutor does not appear at the time and place appointed for the resumption of an adjourned Trial, the Justice may dismiss the Information, with or without costs.

27. CONVICTION ORDER OR DISMISSAL

27.1. When the Justice has heard the Prosecutor, defendant and witnesses, the Justice must, after considering the matter:

(a) convict the defendant;

(b) make an Order against the defendant; or

(c) dismiss the Information.

28. POWER TO RESTRAIN

28.1. In addition to any other remedy or any other penalty imposed by this by-law, any court of competent jurisdiction may make an Order prohibiting the continuation or repetition of offence by any person convicted of contravening this by-law.

29. MEMORANDUM OF CONVICTION OR ORDER

29.1. If a defendant is convicted or if an Order is made against the defendant:

(a) a minute or memorandum of the conviction or Order may be made, without fee, but whether or not a minute or memorandum is made, the conviction or Order must be drawn up by the Justice in Form 9 or Form10 attached to this by-law; and

(b) the Justice must issue a warrant of committal in Form 8 attached to this by-law and section 22 of this by-law applies to the warrant of committal.

30. EXECUTION OF WARRANT OF COMMITTAL

30.1. An Officer or other person to whom a warrant of committal authorized by this by-law must convey the person named or described in the warrant to the jail or other prison mentioned in the warrant and deliver the person, together with the warrant, to the keeper of the jail or prison, who must then give to the Officer or other person who delivers the prisoner a receipt, in Form 11, setting out the state and condition of the prisoner when delivered into his or her custody.

30.2. It is not necessary to give a receipt to an Officer or other person delivering a prisoner to the custody of the keeper or other person in charge of a municipal lockup or of a prison which is not a common jail of any county.

31. ORIGINATING DOCUMENT MUST CONTAIN SUBSTANCE OF EVIDENCE

31.1. An Information, complaint, warrant, conviction or other proceeding under this by-law must in general apply to a single transaction, and must contain, and is sufficient if it contains in substance, a statement that the defendant committed an offence or act specified in the proceeding and punishable on summary conviction.

31.2. The statement referred to in subsection 31.1 may be:

(a) in popular language without technical averments or allegations of matters that are not essential to be proved;

(b) in the words of the enactment that describes the offence or declares the matters charged to be an offence or act punishable on summary conviction; or

(c) in words that are sufficient to give to the defendant notice of the offence with which the defendant is charged.

31.3. An Information must contain sufficient detail of the circumstances of the alleged offence to give to the defendant reasonable information with respect to the act or omission to be proved against the defendant and to identify the transaction referred to, but otherwise the absence or insufficiency of details does not vitiate the Information.

31.4. An Information may refer to any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph or clause of the enactment that creates the offence charged, and for determining whether an Information is sufficient, consideration must be given to any such reference.

31.5. Nothing in this by-law relating to matters that do not render an Information insufficient is deemed to restrict or limit the application of this section.

32. INFORMATION SUFFICIENT DESPITE CERTAIN OMISSIONS

32.1. No Information, complaint, warrant, conviction or other proceeding under this by-law is insufficient because of the absence of details if, in the opinion of the Justice, the Information otherwise fulfils the requirements of section 31.

32.2. Without restricting subsection 32.1, no Information is insufficient merely because it fails to:

(a) name the person injured or intended or attempted to be injured;

(b) name the person who owns or has a special property or interest in property mentioned in the Information;

(c) specify the means by which the alleged offence was committed;

(d) name or describe with precision any person, place or thing; or

(e) if the consent of a person, official or authority is required before proceedings may be instituted for an offence, state that the consent has been obtained.

32.3. The Justice may, if satisfied that it is necessary for a fair Trial, Order that a particular, further describing any matter relevant to the proceedings, be furnished to the defendant.

33. NO ACTION AGAINST OFFICIAL WHEN CONVICTION, ORDER OR PROCEEDING QUASHED

33.1. If an application is made to quash a conviction, Order or other proceeding made or held by a Justice on the ground that the Justice exceeded his or her jurisdiction, the court to which the application is made may, in quashing the conviction, Order or other proceeding, order that civil proceedings must not be taken against the Justice or against any Officer who acted under the conviction, Order or other proceeding, or under any warrant issued to enforce it.

34. FORMS

34.1. No Justice is required to attach or affix a seal to any writing or process that the Justice is authorized to issue and in respect of which a form is set out in the attached Schedule.

35. AMENDMENT

35.1. This by-law may only be amended by a quorum of the Council at a duly convened Council meeting.

36. REPEAL

36.1. Any previous Halfway River First Nation Law and Order By-laws are repealed and replaced by this by-law: By-law No. 2016-001 A By-law for the Observance of Law and Order.

37. ENACTMENT

37.1. This by-law comes into force after it is executed by a quorum of Council of Halfway River First Nation and on the date that the by-law is first published in either the First Nations Gazette or on Halfway River First Nation's website.

37.2. If a court determines that a provision of this by-law is invalid for any reason, then the provision shall be severed from the by-law and the validity of the rest of the by-law shall not be affected.

The quorum of Council is two (2).

The following members of the Council, constituting a majority, voted in favour of this by-law at a duly convened meeting held this 8 day of MARCH, 2016:

Chief Darlene Hunter

Councillor William Field

Councillor Cynthia Wolter

Halfway River First Nation

By-law No. 2016-002

A By-law Governing Residency of Members and Other Persons on Reserve

WHEREAS the Council of the Halfway River First Nation desires to make a by-law governing the residency of Members and other persons on the Halfway River Reserve No. 168 (the "Reserve") with respect to any matter arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under section 81 of the Indian Act, and for the imposition of a penalty for a violation thereof;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Halfway River First Nation is empowered to make such a by-law pursuant to section 81(1) paragraphs (c), (d), (p), (p.1), (q), (r); 81(2); and 81(3) of the Indian Act, R.S.C., c. I-5;

AND WHEREAS it is considered to be expedient and necessary for the benefit, comfort and safety of the inhabitants of the Halfway River First Nation Reserve to provide for the residency of Members and other persons on the Reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Halfway River First Nation hereby enacts the following by-law:

PART 1 - INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION

Short title

1. This by-law may be cited as the "Halfway River First Nation Residency By-law".

Application

2. This by-law applies to all Members and Residents on the Reserve.

Interpretation

3. In this by-law:

"Band Housing" means any Residence located on the Reserve that is owned by Halfway River First Nation;

"Council" means the Chief and Council of the Halfway River First Nation, as defined in the Indian Act and lawfully elected in accordance with the Indian Act or custom election code, as the case may be;

"Criminal History Information Check" means a search being made by a police enforcement agency of the automated criminal records retrieval system maintained by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police ("RCMP").

"Halfway River First Nation" means the Halfway River First Nation, a band within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"Legal Justification" means, an individual entitled to be present on The Reserve, either by being a Resident on The Reserve, being a Member of the Halfway River First Nation, or on an implied invitation to the public;

"Member" means a registered Member of the Halfway River First Nation as recorded in the membership list maintained by Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada;

"Officer" means any peace officer or other person charged with the duty to preserve and maintain the public peace, a by-law enforcement officer, or any other person appointed by the Council for the purpose of maintaining law and order on the Reserve;

"Order" includes an order for the payment of money;

"Proceedings" means:

(a) proceedings in respect of offences, and

(b) proceedings in which a Justice is authorized by an enactment to make an order;

"Reserve" means Halfway River Indian Reserve No. 168, any land held for the use and benefit of the Halfway River First Nation pursuant to section 36.1 of the Indian Act, and any future Reserve set aside by Her Majesty for the use and benefit of the First Nation;

"Reside" means to live in a Residence as one's primary place of abode;

"Residence" means any Band Housing, or other dwelling, house, apartment, mobile home, travel trailer, or room located therein, situated on The Reserve, which the Member or other person is lawfully entitled to occupy;

"Resident" means:

(a) a Member who was residing on the Reserve prior to the date of enactment of this by-law;

(b) a Member who applied pursuant to the provisions contained within this by-law and who was granted permission by Council to Reside on the Reserve;

(c) a non-Member who has been granted permission by Council to Reside on the Reserve; and

(d) Resident Members who are temporarily absent from their Residence on the Reserve because of schooling, work, travel, medical treatment, or similar purposes;

"Resolution" means a decision made at a duly-convened meeting of a quorum of Council, and recorded in writing;

"Specified Use" in relation to a Residence means use of the Residence:

(a) for the production, manufacture, supply, sale, transfer, or exchange of an intoxicating substance where there is a reasonable basis to believe that the recipient will use or consume the substance as an intoxicant, or cause or permit the substance to be used or consumed as an intoxicant;

(b) for the possession, use, production, consumption, sale, transfer, or exchange of, or traffic in, a controlled substance as defined in the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (Canada) in contravention of that Act; or

(c) for prostitution or activities related to prostitution.

PART 2 - ENTITLEMENT TO RESIDE ON RESERVE

Entitlement to Reside on Reserve

4. A person is entitled to Reside on the Reserve only if the person is a Resident and:

(a) Resides on the Reserve at the time this by-law comes into force and that person's right to so Reside does not expire and is not revoked either pursuant to this by-law or pursuant to the Halfway River First Nation Law and Order By-law2016-001 (the "Law and Order By-law");

(b) is authorized to Reside on the Reserve pursuant to one of the following provisions of the Indian Act: sections 18.1, 20, and 24, and subsections 28(2) and 58(3); or

(c) is authorized to Reside on the Reserve pursuant to subsections 7(4)(a),(b),(c), or (d) of this by-law.

Registrar of Residents on Reserve

5. (1) Council may appoint a Registrar of Residents to provide for the administration of applications, and reapplications made under this by-law and to maintain records related to Reserve residency.

(2) Council or the Registrar of Residents, as the case may be, shall maintain a Resident list, on which is recorded:

(a) the name of each Resident;

(b) an indication as to whether each Resident is a Resident for an indefinite or defined period;

(c) the length of any defined period of residency;

(d) the location of each Resident's Residence; and

(e) whether each Resident is a Status Indian.

Application to be a Resident

6. (1) Any person or family who wishes to become a Resident of the Reserve must apply to Council or the Registrar of Residents, as the case may be, for permission to Reside on the Reserve or to extend any defined period for which permission was previously granted to the person or family to Reside on the Reserve.

(2) An application for residency shall include:

(a) the applicant's reasons for applying to be a Resident;

(b) if the applicant proposes to Reside on the Reserve for a limited time, the approximate duration of the proposed residency;

(c) the location at which the applicant proposes to Reside, if known;

(d) the name of any spouse with whom the applicant proposes to Reside;

(e) the names of any dependent children with whom the applicant proposes to Reside;

(f) the names of any additional persons with whom the applicant proposes to Reside;

(g) any additional information the applicant wishes to provide relating to the considerations listed in subsection 7(1);

(h) copies of a Criminal History Information Checks provided by the applicant for themselves and for all persons over the age of eighteen (18) years who are likely to Reside with the applicant; and

(i) copies of driver's licenses, and Status Cards, if any for each person who is included in the application to Reside on the Reserve.

Decision on Application for Residency

7. (1) In determining whether an application for permission to be a Resident of the Reserve should be granted, Council shall take into consideration each of the following:

(a) whether the applicant has arranged for a place to Reside on the Reserve;

(b) whether the applicant residing on the Reserve would be compatible with the culture, society and community of Halfway River First Nation and welfare of the Members of Halfway River First Nation residing on the Reserve;

(c) whether the applicant is of good moral character;

(d) the extent to which the applicant is prepared to commit their personal and economic resources to the welfare and advancement of the community residing on the Reserve;

(e) the availability of adequate housing, land and services on the Reserve;

(f) whether the applicant is or will be employed on the Reserve;

(g) whether the entitlement of the applicant to Reside on the Reserve has previously been revoked, the circumstances surrounding any such revocation, any change in the applicant's circumstances;

(h) whether the person has previously been issued an Order under the Law and Order By-law; or

(i) whether the presence of the applicant on the Reserve presents or would present a danger to the health or safety of the community.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection 7(1), where the applicant is a Member, Council shall only consider the criteria enumerated in subsections 7(1)(a),(e),(g),(h) and (i).

(3) Prior to making a determination regarding an application for residency under section 7(1) Council shall give a reasonable opportunity for and shall consider the views of the applicant and Reserve Residents.

(4) Within thirty (30) days after receiving an application for residency and after hearing and considering the views of the applicant and Reserve Residents, Council shall, by Resolution, dispose of the application by either expressly:

(a) granting the applicant permission to be a Resident of the Reserve until such time as the applicant ceases to Reside on the Reserve;

(b) granting the applicant permission to be a Resident of the Reserve for a defined period;

(c) granting the applicant provisional permission to be a Resident of the Reserve, on the condition that suitable Band Housing becomes available to the applicant within one (1) year, after which time the provisional permission to be a Resident will automatically expire;

(d) extending any defined period for which permission was previously granted to the person by Council to be a Resident of the Reserve; or

(e) dismissing the application; and Council shall give written notice of its decision to the applicant, incorporating the reasons in support of its decision.

(5) A decision by Council pursuant to subsection 7(4) shall be final and not subject to appeal.

Reapplication for Residency

8. (1) A person can re-apply for permission to be a Resident upon the expiry of:

(a) any provisional permission to be a Resident that was previously granted by Council pursuant to subsection 7(4)(c); or

(b) any extension of a defined period for which permission was previously granted to the person by Council to be a Resident on Reserve pursuant to subsection 7(4)(d).

(2) Where an application for residency is dismissed pursuant to subsection 7(4)(e), unless a material change in circumstances has occurred, Council is not required to consider a further application for residency by that person for a period of one (1) year from the date of dismissal of the application for residency.

Revocation of Resident Status

9. (1) Council may, by Resolution, issue an Order revoking the right of a person to Reside on the Reserve where activities occurring at or near their Residence gives rise to a reasonable inference that the Residence is being habitually used for a Specified Use, or where unreasonable damage to Band Housing is occurring.

(2) Prior to making a determination regarding revocation of a person's right to Reside on the Reserve under section 9(1), Council shall give a reasonable opportunity for and shall consider the views of the person whose Resident status is at issue, as well as the views of other Reserve Residents.

(3) Council's Order revoking a person's right to Reside on the Reserve pursuant to subsection 9(1) may be either of a fixed or indeterminate duration.

(4) A decision by Council pursuant to subsection 9(1) shall be final and not subject to appeal.

(5) A person whose right to Reside on the Reserve was revoked under subsection 9(1) may submit an application to regain their Resident status either:

a) upon the expiry of the initial subsection 9(2) Order revoking their right to Reside on the Reserve; or

b) upon the expiry of one (1) year from the date upon which the Order revoking the person's right to Reside on the Reserve was issued by Council.

(6) A copy of Council's decision to revoke a person's right to Reside on the Reserve pursuant to subsection 9(1) shall be sent to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police ("RCMP") detachment in Fort St. John, and to any other relevant police agency.

Effective Time of Revocation

10. (1) Where the right of a person to Reside on the Reserve has been revoked by a Resolution pursuant to subsection 9(1) of this by-law or revoked or limited by sections 4 or 5 of the Law and Order By-law, the Resident's right to Reside on the Reserve shall expire twenty-four (24) hours from the time that the decision is communicated to the Resident.

(2) A person whose right to Reside on the Reserve has been revoked pursuant to subsection 9(1) of this by-law or revoked or limited by sections 4 or 5 of the Law and Order By-law, shall not attend on the Reserve for any purposes whatsoever without obtaining the prior written consent of Council in accordance with section 11.

Visits

11. (1) A person whose entitlement to Reside on the Reserve has been revoked pursuant to subsection 9(1) of this by-law or where their ability to occupy the Reserve is revoked or limited by section 4 of the Law and Order By-law may apply to Council for permission to visit the Reserve for the purposes of funerals, ceremonies, and other special occasions.

(2) A person making application to attend on the Reserve for a visit under subsection 11(1) shall include in his or her application the dates upon which the person proposes to visit the Reserve, the purpose of the visit, where on Reserve the person will be present, and any additional information or submissions the person wishes Council to consider.

(3) Council shall use its best efforts to consider and determine applications under this section expeditiously, and in advance of the proposed visitation dates.

(4) Council may, without holding a hearing into the matter, consider and determine applications to visit submitted pursuant to subsection 11(1) on the basis of the written application, and by Resolution, issue an Order either granting or dismissing the application.

(5) A decision by Council under this subsection is final and not subject to appeal.

PART 3 - ENFORCEMENT

Removal of Trespassers by an Officer

12. (1) A person will have entered on the Reserve without Legal Justification and will be deemed to be trespassing on the Reserve in accordance with Section 5 of the Law and Order By-law or the where a person Resides on the Reserve without being entitled to do so pursuant to subsection 4 of this by-law, or where a Resident fails or refuses to comply with an Order revoking their right to Reside on the Reserve pursuant to subsection 9(1) of this by-law, or refuses to comply with an Order revoking or limiting a person from occupying the Reserve under section 4 of the Law and Order By-law.

(2) An Officer may take such reasonable measures as may be necessary to remove a person from the Reserve who is trespassing pursuant to subsection 12(1).

Offences

13. (1) A person commits an offence who:

(a) fails or refuses to comply with an order dismissing an application for residency issued pursuant to subsection 7(4)(e), revoking their right to Reside on Reserve pursuant to subsection 9(1) or dismissing an application to visit on the Reserve pursuant to subsection 11(4); or

(b) resists or interferes with an Officer acting under subsection 12(2).

(2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days, or to both fine and imprisonment.

(3) Each day that a contravention of this by-law persists constitutes a separate offence.

Enforcement Proceedings

14. Council may obtain a court order, pursuant to s. 81(3) of the Indian Act, restraining a person from acting in contravention of this by-law.

15. Sections 8 through 33 of Halfway River First Nation's Law and Order By-law apply with respect to commencing and proceeding with enforcement of this by-law.

PART 4 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Enactment

16. This by-law comes into force after it is executed by a quorum of Council of Halfway River First Nation and on the date that the by-law is first published in either the First Nations Gazette or on Halfway River First Nation's website.

17. If a court determines that a provision of this by-law is invalid for any reason, then the provision shall be severed from the by-law and the validity of the rest of the by-law shall not be affected.

Amendment

18. This by-law may only be amended by a quorum of the Council at a duly convened Council meeting.

Repeal

19. Any previous Halfway River First Nation Residency By-laws are repealed and replaced by this by-law: By-law No 2016-002 A By-law Governing Residency of Members and Other Persons on Reserve.

The quorum of Council is two (2).

The following members of the Council, constituting a majority, voted in favour of this by-law at a duly convened meeting held this 8 day of MARCH, 2016:

I, Minister of Indigenous and Northern Affairs, HEREBY APPROVE, pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the following by-law made by the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation, in the Province of British Columbia, at a meeting held on the 6th day of September 2016.

Little Shuswap Lake First Nation
Annual Expenditure By-law, 2016

Dated at Ottawa, Ontario, this 15th day of November 2016.

Hon. Carolyn Bennett, M.D., P.C., M.P.

Canada

LITTLE SHUSWAP LAKE FIRST NATION

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a first nation may make By-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues.

B. The Council of the Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band has enacted By-Law 2016 T02 respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve; and

C. The Council of Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band wishes to enact this expenditure by-law to establish a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation in the current taxation year, and a n interim budget for the next taxation year;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation Annual Expenditure By-Law, 2016.

2. In this By-Law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, S.C. 1985, c.I-5, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year;

"By-law" means this annual expenditure by-law enacted under paragraph 83(2) of the Act;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation law;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation the Taxation By-law; and

"Taxation By-Law" means the Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band Property Taxation By-law PR-95-02.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year April 1, 2017, and ending March 31, 2018 is comprised of

(a) section 1 of Part 1 of the Schedule; and

(b) sections 1 to 8, and section 10, of Part 2 of the Schedule.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-Law.

6. This by-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this By-law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this By-law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 6th day of September, 2016 at Chase, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

Bylaw No. LSLIB FD-1-2016

Skwlax Volunteer Fire Department Bylaw

A bylaw to provide for the establishment and operation of a Fire Department

Interpretation

1 (a) In this Bylaw, words and phrases hereunder will be construed as:

Apparatus – refers to any vehicle provided with machinery, devices, equipment or materials for fire fighting or assistance purposes or responses as well as vehicles used to transport fire fighters or supplies.

Band – means the Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band.

Council – means Chief and Council of the Band .

Equipment – means any tools, contrivances, devices or materials used by the Fire Department to combat an incident or other such emergency.

Fire Chief – means the member appointed by Council to be the head of the Fire Department.

Fire Department – means the fire department established by the Council under this Bylaw.

Fire Protection – means all aspects of fire safety including but not limited to fire prevention, fire fighting or suppression, pre-fire planning, fire investigation, public education/information, training or other types of staff development.

Fire Protection District – means all lands within the Quaaout IR #1 and Chum Creek IR #2.

Incident – means a fire or situation where a fire or explosion is imminent and includes assistance response circumstances as described in Sections 11 and 12 of this Bylaw or any other situation presenting a danger or possible danger to life or property and to which the Fire Department has responded.

Member – means any person who is a current volunteer or salaried member of the Fire Department.

Officer – means a Member who has been appointed by the Fire Chief to fulfil a specific or general supervisory role.

Person -- means natural persons of either sex, associations, corporations or co-partnerships, whether acting by themselves or by a servant, agent or employee, and the heirs, executors and administrators or assigns or other legal representatives of such persons to whom the context will apply according to law.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the wording of the singular will include the plural and the words referring masculine gender will include the feminine and the converse will apply.

Establishment of the Fire Department

2 There is hereby established a Fire Department known as Skwlax Volunteer Fire Department. Subject to section 6, the Fire Department is to provide Fire Protection for the Fire Protection District.

The Fire Chief and the Operation of the Fire Department

3 The Fire Chief is to be appointed by Council, and may be removed or replaced by Council at any time.

4 The Fire Chief may appoint Members and Officers, subject to the approval of Council.

5 The Fire Chief may designate Officers to act as a deputy Fire Chief on his/her behalf, until such time as the Fire Chief revokes such designation.

6 All members of the Fire Department shall be physically fit residents of the Quaoout Indian Reserve No. 1 or Chum Creek Indian Reserve No, 2, or physically fit persons who reside within 5 kilometres of said Reserves, and shall be of good reputation, eighteen years or older and not more than 65 years for a Member.

7 The Fire Chief shall appoint a Training Officer, who shall be responsible for all phases of fire training and shall establish a scheduled training program in accordance with normal fire fighting practices, he/she will report to the Fire Chief of any training concerns or needs.

8 Officers and Members will carry out the instructions of the Fire Chief or designate.

9 Members and Officers shall respond promptly to all fire calls and attend a minimum of two practices per calendar month. Absence from fire calls or training nights without justifiable reasons may result in suspension or dismissal.

10 The Fire Chief may suspend or discharge any Member of the Fire Department at any time the Fire Chief deems such action is necessary. A Member suspended or discharged by the Fire Chief may, within seven days of the Fire Chief's decision, appeal in writing to Council, who must, within two weeks of receiving the appeal, hold a hearing and either confirm, vary or discharge the Member's suspension or order that the Member be reinstated.

11 In addition to any agreement to provide Fire Protection services beyond the Fire Protection District, at the discretion of the Fire Chief, the Fire Department may respond to requests for assistance beyond such Fire Protection District.

12 Authority given in Section 11 may only be exercised in relation to the following:

- fire suppression
- search and rescue
- medical first responder response
- hazardous material response, risk of immediate harm to persons or property
- motor vehicle incidents

13 The Fire Chief has complete responsibility and authority over the Fire Department, subject to the direction of Council.

14 The Fire Chief, subject to ratification by Council, will establish rules, regulations, policies and committees necessary for the proper organization and administration of the Fire Department, including, but not limited to:

- use, care and protection of Fire Department property.
- conduct and discipline of Members and Officers of Fire Department.
- efficient operation of Fire Department.
- day to day management of the Fire Department's budget and finances
- record keeping

15 The Fire Chief will take responsibility for all Fire Protection matters within the Fire Protection District including the enforcement of the Fire Services Act as that mya be applicable to the Fire Protection District. For greater clarity, to the extent that the Fire Services Act is found not to extend to the Fire Protection District, by this Bylaw, the same powers and responsibilities imposed by sections 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 18, 20, 21, 22, 23, 25, 26, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35 and 36 of the Fire Services

Act are hereby conferred and bestowed on the Fire Chief or, in his absence, his designated deputy Fire Chief, mutatis mutandi.

16 Officers and Members of the Fire Department will carry out duties and responsibilities assigned to the Fire Department by Council and the Fire Chief will report to Council on the operations of the Fire Department.

17 Council will determine the remuneration of the Fire Chief and all members of the Fire Department.

18 Budget concerns are to addressed on a regular basis with the Council and capital budget issues for the forthcoming year are to be addressed each September.

19 Members of the Fire Department may organize for social or other purposes events that increase the awareness of the Fire Department, and may provide additional revenue for Fire Department related needs. Subject to the direction and approval of Council, the Fire Department may use the fire hall for such social events.

Powers of the Fire Chief at an Incident

20 The Fire Chief or in his absence, his designated deputy Fire Chief, will have control, direction and management of all Fire Department Apparatus, Equipment, Members or other human resources assigned to an Incident and where a designate is in charge, he will continue to act until relieved by the Fire Chief.

21 The Fire Chief or Member in charge at a fire scene may cause a building, structure or other object to be pulled down, demolished or moved if he deems necessary to prevent spread of fire to another building, structure or object.

22 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an Incident, may enter premises or property where the Incident is occurring and may permit any Member, Apparatus or Equipment of the Fire Department to enter as deemed necessary in order to control or deal with the Incident.

23 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an Incident, may enter and pass through or over buildings or properties adjacent to an Incident and may permit Members of the Fire Department and the Apparatus and Equipment of the Fire Department to enter or pass through or over buildings or properties, where the Fire Chief deems it necessary to gain access to the Incident or to protect any persons or property.

24 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an Incident, may at his discretion establish boundaries or limits and keep Persons from entering that area, unless requested to do so by the Fire Chief or Member in charge.

25 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an Incident, may request of a peace officer to enforce restriction as described in Section 24.

26 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an incident, may request assistance from other Persons as he deems necessary to carry out their duties as per this Bylaw.

27 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an Incident, may request Persons who are not Members to assist in extinguishing a fire, removing furniture, goods and merchandise from any building that is on fire or in danger thereof, securing or guarding of such goods, demolishing a building or structure at or near the fire or Incident.

28 The Fire Chief, or any other Member in charge at an Incident, is empowered to commandeer privately owned equipment which he deems necessary to deal with the Incident. Compensation for equipment commandeered in this manner will be determined by Council.

Prohibitions

29 No Person at an Incident will impede, obstruct or hinder a Member of the Fire Department or other person assisting the Fire Department.

30 No Person will destroy or intentionally damage Fire Department Apparatus, Equipment or property.

31 No Person at an Incident will drive a vehicle over any Equipment without permission from the Fire Chief or Member in charge.

32 No Person will falsely represent himself as a Fire Department Member.

33 No Person will obstruct or otherwise interfere with access roads or streets or pathways or other approaches to any fire incident, fire hydrant, body of water, fire hall or other such requirements for fire fighting purposes.

34 Every Person who violates any of the provisions of this Bylaw, or who suffers or permits any act or thing to be done in contravention or violation of any of the provisions of this Bylaw, or who neglects to do or refrains from doing anything required to be done by any of the provisions of this Bylaw, or who does any act or thing or omits an act or thing thus violating any of the provisions in this Bylaw will be deemed to have committed an offence, and upon a summary conviction is liable to a penalty in accordance with the Offence Act.

Bylaw No. LSLIB FD-2-2016

A bylaw to indemnify the Fire Chief and Members of Skwlax Volunteer Fire Department against claims for damages arising out of the performance of their duties and to pay legal costs incurred in court proceedings arising out of those claims.

The Chief and Council of Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band enact as follows:

Interpretation

a. The definitions adopted in the Fire Department Establishment and Operations Bylaw are adopted and used unless otherwise specified;

b. In this Bylaw, the term "Member" means:

- A volunteer fire fighter of the Fire Department
- A salaried employee of the Fire Department
- Any individual recruited to assist the Fire Department at an Incident, who is under the supervision of an Officer of the Fire Department.

Indemnification

2 a) The Band will indemnify its Members against a claim for damages against them arising out of the performance of their duties and in addition pay the actual costs incurred by the Member in a court proceeding arising out of the claim.

b) Section 2 (a) applies in respect to a person who was a Member at the time he or she performed the duties out of which the claim arose, whether or not he or she is a Member at the time the claim for damages arises or the court proceeding arising out of the claim is commenced, prosecuted or concluded.

c) Where any action of an officer results in a claim for damages against the Little Shuswap Lake Indian Band, Chief and Council will seek indemnity or reimbursement from the Member only where:

- the claim arises out of the deliberate actions of the Member to cause the damages or the Member's wilful blindness as to whether he or she caused such damages or not; or
- the Member acted contrary to the terms of his or her employment or volunteer position.

FOR DEPARTMENTAL USE ONLY

LITTLE SHUSWAP LAKE FIRST NATION
PROPERTY TAX RATES BY-LAW, NO. 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83(1)(a) of the Indian Act, the First Nation has enacted a Property Taxation By-law for the taxation for local purposes of land, or interests in land, in the Reserve, including rights to occupy, possess or use land in the Reserve;

B. Section 8.1 of the Property Taxation By-law requires the First Nation, in each taxation year, to enact a by-law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each class of taxable property; and

C. The Council of the First Nation deems it to be in the best interests of the First Nation to set the tax rates as set out in this By-law;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation at a duly convened meeting, enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation, Property Tax Rates By-law, No. 2016.

2. In this By-law:

"By-law" means this property tax rates by-law;

"First Nation" means the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation, being a band as defined under the Indian Act;

"Property Taxation By-law" means the Little Shuswap Lake First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, No. 2016;

"Reserve" means land set apart for the use and benefit of the First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act, and

"taxable property" means property in the Reserve that is subject to taxation under the Property Taxation By-law.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Property Taxation By-law for the taxation year 2016 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule for each property class established in the Property Taxation By-law, upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than $ 500.00, the taxable property shall be taxed at $ 500.00 for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Property Taxation By-law.

6. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

7. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

8. The schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

9. This By-law comes into force and effect on approval by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY ENACTED by Council at a duly convened meeting held on the 30th day of November, 1996, at Chase, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

DANGEROUS PERSONS BYLAW

Feb. 22, 2016

W:\0170 Chief and Council - General\0170-02 Policies, Procedures, Guidelines\By-Laws\MIB Bylaws\Approved and In Force Bylaws\Dangerous Persons Bylaw\Dangerous Persons By-law-approved 2016-02-22.doc – 3rd Read approval FEB. 22, 2016

Whereas section 81, paragraphs, (c), (d), (p),(p.1) (q) and (r) of the Indian Act empower the Council of an Indian Band to pass bylaws to provide for the observance of law and order, the prevention of disorderly conduct and nuisances, the removal and punishment of persons trespassing on the reserve or frequenting the reserve for prohibited purposes the residence of band members and other persons on the reserve in addition to matters arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under this section and the imposition of a penalty for the violation of any such bylaw;

And whereas the Council of the Musqueam Indian Band is of the opinion that it is in the best interest of the Band to exercise such powers.

THEREFORE, the Council of the Musqueam Indian Band enacts as follows:

1. Name

1.1 This By-law may be cited as the "Dangerous Persons By-law".

2. Interpretation

2.1 In this By-law, unless the context otherwise requires

(a) "Band' means the Musqueam Indian Band,

(b) "Band Manager" means the person appointed by the Band Council as the Band Manager or senior administrative officer or similar position,

(c) "Police Officer" means a peace officer or constable as provided under the Police Act employed by the Vancouver Police Board or a member of the R.C.M.P.,

(d) "Reserve" means any reserve of the Band.

3. Designation of Dangerous Person

The Council may designate a person residing or visiting the Reserve to be a dangerous person if it is satisfied:

(a) that an offence for which the person has been convicted within the last ten years is a serious personal injury offence described in paragraph (a) of the definition of that expression in section 752 of the Criminal Code and the person constitutes a threat to the life, safety or physical or mental well-being of other persons resident on the Reserve on the basis of evidence establishing:

(i) a pattern of repetitive behaviour by the person, of which the offence for which he or she has been convicted forms a part, showing a failure to restrain his or her behaviour and a likelihood of causing death or injury to other persons, or inflicting severe psychological damage on other persons, through failure in the future to restrain his or her behaviour,

(ii) a pattern of persistent aggressive behaviour by the person, of which the offence for which he or she has been convicted forms a part, showing a substantial degree of indifference on the part of the person respecting the reasonably foreseeable consequences to other persons of his or her behaviour, or

(iii) any behaviour by the person, associated with the offence for which he or she has been convicted, that is of such a brutal nature as to compel the conclusion that the person's behaviour in the future is unlikely to be inhibited by normal standards of behavioural restraint; or

(b) that the offence for which the person has been convicted within the last ten years is a serious personal injury offence described in paragraph (b) of the definition of that expression in section 752 of the Criminal Code and the person, by his or her conduct in any sexual matter including that involved in the commission of the offence for which he or she has been convicted, has shown a failure to control his or her sexual impulses and a likelihood of causing injury, pain or other evil to other persons through failure in the future to control his or her sexual impulses.

4. Notice of Dangerous Person Designation

If the Council finds a person to be a dangerous person, it will direct the Band Manager to deliver a Notice to a Police Officer which advises the person that he or she has been found to be a dangerous person by the Council and orders him or her to remove himself or herself from the Reserve and to immediately cease to reside on the Reserve and which authorizes the Police Officer to take all steps that may be reasonably required in his or her opinion to cause the person designated as a dangerous person to remove himself or herself from the Reserve and to immediately cease to reside on the Reserve including taking proceedings under any applicable statute to obtain a court order to enforce the Notice.

Upon receipt by the person of the Notice, any entitlement of that person to reside on a Reserve shall immediately cease including any entitlement under the provisions of the Indian Act

5. Authority of Police Officer

A notice received under section 4 will constitute authority to any Police Officer to take all steps that may be reasonably required in his or her opinion to cause the person designated as a dangerous person to remove himself or herself from the Reserve and to immediately cease to reside on the Reserve including taking proceedings under any applicable statute to obtain a court order to enforce the Notice.

6. Offences and Penalties

6.1 No person shall disobey a Notice under section 4 of which he or she has knowledge.

6.2 No person shall interfere with, resist or otherwise obstruct a Police officer who is enforcing this By-law.

6.3 Every person who violates any of the provisions of this By-law, or who suffers or permits any act or thing to be done in contravention or in violation of any of the provisions of this By-law, or who neglects to do or refrains from doing anything required to be done by any of the provisions of this By-law, or who does any act which violates any of the provisions of this By-law, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this By-law and liable to the penalties hereby imposed.

6.4 Every person who commits an offence against this By-law is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than $1,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days, or both.

6.5 Any person who has been designated under this By-law as a dangerous person who fails to obey a Notice under section 4 of which he or she has knowledge is trespassing on the Reserve and subject to proceedings under sections 30 to31 of the Indian Act.

7. General

7.1 It is the intention of Band Council that each separate provision of this By-law shall be deemed independent of all other provisions, and if any provision of this By-law is declared invalid all other provisions shall remain valid and enforceable.

7.2 This Bylaw shall apply to all Reserves.

7.3 This Bylaw shall come into force when it a copy of it is first published on the Band's Internet site, in the First Nations Gazette or in a newspaper that has general circulation in the Reserve whichever the Council considers appropriate in the circumstances pursuant to section 86 of the Indian Act and the Council hereby confirms that any of these forms of publication are appropriate in the circumstance.

7.4 Without limiting other means of knowledge, a person shall be deemed to have knowledge of a Notice under section 4 after the Notice is posted at the Band Office for at least one week.

THIS BYLAW IS HEREBY made at a duly convened meeting of the Council of the Musqueam Indian Band this 22nd day of February 2016.

Voting in favour of the bylaw are the following members of the Council:

MUSQUEAM INDIAN BAND

UNSAFE PREMISES BYLAW

FEBRUARY 22, 2016

000370-0017.0001 00281037.2

WHEREAS: section 81, paragraphs, (c), (d), (h),(p),(p.1) (q) and (r) of the Indian Act empower the Council of an Indian Band to pass bylaws to provide for the observance of law and order; the prevention of disorderly conduct and nuisances; the regulation of the construction, repair and use of buildings; the removal and punishment of persons trespassing on the reserve or frequenting the reserve for prohibited purposes; the residence of band members and other persons on the reserve in addition to matters arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under this section and the imposition of a penalty for the violation of any such bylaw;

AND WHEREAS: the Council of the Musqueam Indian Band is of the opinion that it is in the best interest of the Band to exercise such powers.

THEREFORE, the Council of the Musqueam Indian Band enacts as follows:

1. Name

1.1 This By-law may be cited as the "Unsafe Premises By-law".

2. Interpretation

2.1 In this By-law, unless the context otherwise requires

(a) "Band' means the Musqueam Indian Band,

(b) "Band Manager" means the person appointed by the Band Council as the Band Manager or senior administrative officer or similar position,

(c) "Police Officer" means a peace officer or constable as provided under the Police Act,

(d) "Re-occupancy Permit" means a permission or authorization in writing by the Band Manager to re-occupy any premises in respect of which the Council has made an unsafe premises designation,

(e) "Reserve" means any reserve of the Band,

(f) "unsafe condition or unsafe activities" mean any condition or activities carried on at premises that could cause undue hazard or risk to life, limb or health of any person or to their security or to their enjoyment of their premises or use of areas of the Reserve open to members of the Band generally including, without limitation, activities that involve the illegal sale or use of drugs, violence or disorderly conduct,

(g) "unsafe premises" means any premises on a Reserve in respect of which the Council has made an unsafe premises designation.

3. Designation of Unsafe Premises

3.1 The Council may designate premises on the Reserve to be unsafe premises if it is satisfied that the condition or activities carried on at the premises could cause undue hazard or risk to life, limb or health of any person or to their security or to their enjoyment of their premises or use of areas of the Reserve open to members of the Band generally including, without limitation, activities that involve the illegal sale or use of drugs, violence or disorderly conduct.

4. Notice of Unsafe Premises Designation

4.1 If the Council designates premises to be unsafe premises, it will direct the Band Manager or a Police Officer to deliver a notice to the premises addressed to any known holder of a certificate of certificate of possession for the premises and to "the Occupier(s)." Such notice will be sufficiently delivered if placed in the letter-box for the premises or posted on the premises.

5. Prohibition of Unsafe Conditions and Activities

5.1 No person shall permit premises to be in an unsafe condition or permit unsafe activities to take place in any premises. Any certificate of possession holder, tenant, lessee or occupier of such premises shall forthwith take all necessary action that is within his or her control to put and maintain the premises in a safe condition.

6. Order to Correct Unsafe Conditions or Activities

6.1 When premises have been designated by Council as unsafe premises, the Band Manager may issue a written order to any certificate of possession holder, tenant, lessee or occupier of the premises requiring correction of the unsafe condition or unsafe activities within a specified time that may be immediately.

6.2 If the Band Manager has issued an order in accordance with this section and it has not been complied with, the Band Manager may authorize demolition, closure, termination of occupancy, posting of security guards or fire wardens, or enclosure of premises, or part thereof, at the expense of the certificate of possession holder, tenant, lessee or occupier and take such other measures as may be necessary to protect members of the Band or the public.

6.3 When immediate measures must be taken to avoid an imminent danger or risk, the Band Manager may take such action as is appropriate, without prior notice and at the expense of the certificate of possession holder, tenant, lessee or occupier of the premises.

6.4 Upon issue of an order under this section, any entitlement of any person to occupy the premises, including entitlement under the provisions of the Indian Act , a lease or rental agreement, shall be governed by the provisions of the order unless and until a re-occupancy permit is granted.

7. Re-Occupancy Permit

7.1 The certificate of possession holder or tenant, lessee or occupier shall obtain a re-occupancy permit prior to any occupancy of any unsafe premises in respect of which the Band Manager has issued an order to terminate occupancy.

8. Authority of Police Officer and Band Manager

8.1 A notice under section 4 or an order under section 6 will constitute authority to any Police Officer and the Band Manager, or anyone authorized by the Band Manager, to take all steps that may be reasonably required in his or her opinion to cause compliance with the notice or order including taking proceedings under any applicable statute to obtain a court order to enforce the notice or order.

8.2 Any Police Officer and the Band Manager, or anyone authorized by the Band Manager may enter any premises at any reasonable time for the purpose of administering this Bylaw, or if there is reason to believe that unsafe conditions or unsafe activities exist with respect to any premises on the Reserve.

9. Offences and Penalties

9.1 No person shall disobey a notice under section 4 or order under sections 6 of which he or she has knowledge.

9.2 No person shall interfere with, resist or otherwise obstruct the Band Manager or a person authorized by the Band Manager or a Police officer who is enforcing this By-law.

9.3 Every person who violates any of the provisions of this By-law, or who suffers or permits any act or thing to be done in contravention or in violation of any of the provisions of this By-law, or who neglects to do or refrains from doing anything required to be done by any of the provisions of this By-law, or who does any act which violates any of the provisions of this By-law, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this By-law and liable to the penalties hereby imposed.

9.4 Every person who commits an offence against this By-law is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than $1,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days, or both.

10. General

10.1 It is the intention of Band Council that each separate provision of this By-law shall be deemed independent of all other provisions, and if any provision of this By-law is declared invalid all other provisions shall remain valid and enforceable.

10.2 This Bylaw shall apply to all Reserves.

10.3 This Bylaw shall come into force when it a copy of it is first published on the Band's Internet site, in the First Nations Gazette or in a newspaper that has general circulation in the Reserve whichever the Council considers appropriate in the circumstances pursuant to section 86 of the Indian Act and the Council hereby confirms that any of these forms of publication are appropriate in the circumstance.

000370-0017.0001 00281037.2

10.4 Without limiting other means of knowledge, a person shall be deemed to have knowledge of a notice under section 4 or order under section 6 after the notice or order is posted at the Band Office for at least one week.

THIS BYLAW IS HEREBY made at a duly convened meeting of the Council of the Musqueam Indian Band this 22nd day of February 2016.

Peters Band

CONTROL OF ANIMALS BY-LAW

A by-law concerning the control of animals and to provide for the health and safety of all residents on Peters Band's reserve lands.

Preamble

WHEREAS section 81(1) of the Indian Act (Canada) provides that the Peters Band Council may make by-laws to provide for the health of residents on the reserve, for the protection against and prevention of trespass by domestic animals, and with respect to any matter arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of these powers;

AND WHEREAS the Peters Band Council is empowered to exercise all legislative and executive authority for the Peters Band;

AND WHEREAS the Peters Band Council is of the opinion that the uncontrolled ownership and running at large of domestic animals may be detrimental to the health and safety of, and a nuisance to, the residents of the reserves;

AND WHEREAS the Peters Band Council accordingly wishes to establish a comprehensive by-law to regulate the care and control of domestic animals to prevent nuisance and trespass by such animals on the reserve lands;

NOW THEREFORE the Peters Band Council, at a duly convened meeting of the Peters Band Council, enacts the following by-law:

Article 1
Title

1.1 This By-law may be cited as the "Peters Band Control of Animals By-law".

CONTROL OF ANIMALS BY-LAW

Article 4
Administration

4.1 The Council may appoint a person to act as an Animal Control Officer and any assistants to the Animal Control Office as the Council deems necessary.

4.2 The Animal Control Officer is authorized and directed to carry out the provisions set out in this By-law.

4.3 Council may, from time to time, enter into an agreement with an individual or an authorized agent of any corporation, society, governmental body or other organization to carry out any of the following:

a) carry out the provisions of this By-law;

b) enforce the provisions set out in this By-law;

c) act as the Animal Control Officer; and

d) maintain and operate a Pound.

4.4 Council may, by Resolution, establish a charge or fees payable in respect of any matter administered under this By-law.

Article 5
Dogs

5.1 Every Owner of a female Dog that is in heat must either:

(a) tie that Dog up in the yard of the Owner's property; or

(b) keep that Dog in the Owner's fenced yard, for the time in which the Dog is in heat.

5.2 In addition to the general requirements that apply to Dogs under this By-law, any Owner of a Dangerous Dog must:

a) clearly post warning signs to that effect at any premises where the Dangerous Dog regularly resides; and

b) ensure that the Dangerous Dog wears a Muzzle if it is not confined.

5.3 The Owner of a Dog is responsible and liable for any and all damages caused by that Dog to any other person and to personal or real property.

Peters Band
CONTROL OF ANIMALS BY-LAW

5.4 Every Owner of a Dog is responsible for the care and control of the Dog and must:

a) ensure that the Dog does not become a nuisance;

b) provide sufficient food and water for the Dog's humane survival;

c) refrain from punishing and abusing the Dog unnecessarily, or in a manner that amounts to cruelty; and

d) provide a clean and sanitary living environment for the Dog.

5.5 Council may prohibit the keeping of any Dogs on any area of the Reserves for health and safety reasons provided it provides Public Notice of such prohibition and also posts such notice in a visible location at the prohibited area of the Reserves.

Article 6
Other Animals

6.1 The Owner of an Animal is responsible and liable for any and all damages caused by that Animal to any other person and to personal and real property.

6.2 Every Owner of an Animal is responsible for the care and control of the Animal and must:

a) ensure that the Animal does not become a nuisance;

b) provide sufficient food and water for the Animal's humane survival;

c) refrain from punishing or abusing the Animal unnecessarily or in a matter that amounts to cruelty; and

d) provide a clean and sanitary living environment for the Animal.

6.3 Council may prohibit the keeping of any Animals on any area of the Reserves for health and safety reasons, provided it gives Public Notice of such prohibition.

Article 7
Seizure, Sale and Disposal of Animals

7.1 The Animal Control Officer may seize and impound any Dog or Animal that is not cared for in accordance with sections 5.4 and 6.3 of this By-law on the Reserves.

7.2 If reasonably possible, the Animal Control Officer will, in a timely manner, notify the Owner of the impoundment of the Dog or Animal.

Peters Band

CONTROL OF ANIMALS BY-LAW

7.3 The Animal Control Officer may detain any Dog or Animal seized on the Reserves until the following amounts are paid to Peters Band:

a) all actual costs incurred by Peters Band in administering this By-law with respect to the Dog or Animal, including costs for impounding, boarding and transporting the Dog or Animal seized from the Reserves;

b) any veterinarian fees incurred by Peters Band under section 7.5; and

c) any penalties or fees established under the By-law by Council from time to time.

7.4 An Owner must sign a receipt for any Dog or Animal prior to the release of the Dog or Animal from the Pound.

7.5 The Animal Control Officer may request the attendance of a veterinarian to the Pound if, in the view of the Animal Control Officer, the Dog or Animal is suffering from any illness, injury, disease or sickness or for any other valid reason as deemed necessary by the Animal Control Officer acting in good faith.

7.6 If five (5) days have passed since day on which the Animal Control Officer notified an Owner that his Dog or Animal has been seized, and the Owner has not reclaimed the Dog or Animal, then the Animal Control Officer may, at his sole discretion:

a) sell the Dog or Animal in accordance with this Article 7; or

b) have the Dog or Animal destroyed in a humane manner.

7.7 If more than one (1) Dog, Animal or both (the "Impounded Animals") have been Impounded and:

a) the Owner of the Impounded Animals is known, then the Animal Control Officer must not sell or cause to be sold any more of such Impounded Animals than is necessary to realize from the sale the total amount owing by the Owner under section 7.3, and the Owner of the Impounded Animals is entitled to any surplus funds; or

b) the Owner of the Impounded Animals is not known, then the Animal Control Officer may sell all the Impounded Animals.

7.8 The Animal Control Officer must give prior Public Notice of a sale under this By-law, describing each Dog and Animal to be sold and the date, time and location of the sale.

7.9 If, in the reasonable opinion of the Animal Control Officer, a Dog or Animal seized under this By-law is so severely injured or diseased that the Dog or Animals needs to be destroyed for humane or health and safety reasons, then the Animal Control Officer may cause the Dog or Animal to be destroyed.

Peters Band
CONTROL OF ANIMALS BY-LAW

7.10 No Owner or person will be allowed to reclaim, purchase or adopt a Dog or Animal that has been determined under section 7.9 to need to be destroyed.

7.11 Any person is permitted to destroy a Dog or Animal that is At Large and in the act of pursuing, attacking, injuring, damaging, killing or destroying a person, or another Dog or Animal that is in an Enclosure.

7.12 No damages or compensation are recoverable against the Peters Band or any member, contractor, Agent, representative or employee of the Peters Band as a result of a Dog or Animal being destroyed under the provisions of this By-law.

Article 8
Regulations, Policies and Procedures

8.1 Council is authorized to establish such regulations, policies and procedures as it requires to administer this By-law. Such regulations, policies, and procedures are to be consistent with the provisions of this By-law and approved by Resolution.

Article 9
General Provisions

9.1 Notice.

a) Any Notice to Peters Band must be in writing to the Peters Band and mailed, postage prepaid or personally delivered to the Administration Office.

b) Any Notice from the Peters Band to an Owner must be in writing and mailed postage pre-paid or personally delivered to the last known address of the Owner.

9.2 Severability: A finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that a section or provision of this By-law is void or invalid will not affect or bear upon the validity or invalidity of any other section or part of this By-law or this By-law as a whole.

9.3 Gender and Plurality: In this By-law, any words in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular and the masculine includes the feminine and neuter where the context applies.

9.4 Amendments and Repeal. This By-law may be amended or repealed by Resolution, after the following procedure involving consultation with Membership is concluded:

a) Council identifies a need for amendment or repeal of this By-law;

b) If an amendment is recommended, Council drafts proposed amendment provision(s);

c) Council calls a Membership meeting to be held within at least one (1) calendar month

Peters Band
CONTROL OF ANIMALS BY-LAW

of Council identifying the need for amendment or repeal of the By-law;

d) Council posts a notice of the proposed amendment(s) or repeal at the Administration Office, and mails such notice to each Member over the age of eighteen (18) for which an address has been provided to the Peters Band; and

e) A Membership meeting is subsequently held for presentation of the proposed change or repeal, discussion thereon, review by the Membership and vote. The proposed amendment(s) or repeal of the By-law requires a majority vote by those present at the meeting. If approved, the proposed amendment(s) or repeal will be enacted by Resolution.

9.5 Coming into force: This By-law will come into force and effect once it has been approved by Council and notice of the By-law has been posted publically.

Approved and passed at a duly convened meeting of the Peters Band Council this 22 day of July, 2016.

NICOMEN INDIAN BAND

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to subsection 83 of the Indian Act, the council of the First Nation may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;
B. The Council of the Nicomen First Nation has enacted this by-law pursuant to the provisions of the Indian Act and in particular subsections 83(1) and (2) thereof, for the purpose of authorizing expenditures to be made out of property tax revenue.

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Nicomen First Nation duly enacts as follows;

1. This by-law may be cited as the Nicomen First Nations Annual Expenditure By-law, 2016.
2. In this By-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, S.C. 1985, c 5, and the regulations made under that Act;

A. Pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a First Nation may make By-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues; .

B. The Council of the Spuzzum First Nation (also known as the Spuzzum Indian Band) has enacted the Spuzzum Indian Band Property Assessment and Taxation By-law dated March 9, 1992, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve; and

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Spuzzum First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Spuzzum First Nation Annual Expenditure By-law, 2015.

2. In this By-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, S.C. 1985, c 5, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget period;

"Band Council or Council" has the meaning given to that term within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act as elected by the Band members from time to time pursuant to the custom of the Band;

"First Nation" means the Spuzzum First Nation, being a band under the Act;

"By-law" means this annual expenditure by-law enacted under paragraph 83(2) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"property assessment and taxation by-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 83(1)(a) of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property assessment and taxation by-law or taxation by-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Spuzzum Indian Band Property Assessment and Taxation By-law dated March 9, 1992.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2015, and ending March 31, 2016 as well as the Interim Budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2016 to March 31, 2017, are attached as a Schedule to this Spuzzum First Nation Annual Expenditure By-law, 2015.

4. This By-law authorizes the expenditures provided for in the annual budget for the current year.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Property Assessment and Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12. The Schedule for Annual Budget attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

13. This By-law comes into force and effect upon the approval of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS By-law IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 1 day of June 2015, at Spuzzum in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of (2) members of Council.

TL'AZT'EN NATION
PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW
BY-LAW NO. 1 - 2016

WHEREAS the Property Taxation By-law was made pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c.I-5, for the purpose of taxation for local purposes of land, or interests in land, in the "reserve" (as defined in the Property Taxation By-law), including rights to occupy, possess or use land in the "reserve";

Subsection 83(2) of the Indian Act provides that an expenditure made out of moneys raised pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Indian Act must be made under the authority of a by-law of the council of the band;

Section 55(3) and Section 56 of the Property Taxation By-law authorizes the making of certain expenditures out of property tax revenue and, in addition, the Taxation Expenditure By-law was enacted for the purpose, inter alia, of establishing procedures for the authorization of expenditures to be made out of property tax revenue from time to time;

Council wishes to authorize expenditures (in addition to those authorized under section Section 55(3) and Section 56 of the Property Taxation By-law) to be made out of property tax revenue from time to time in this by-law.

NOW BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the following by-law be and is hereby enacted pursuant to the provisions of the Indian Act and in particular subsections 83(1) and (2) thereof, for the purpose of authorizing expenditures to be made out of property tax revenue.

SHORT TITLE

"community services" includes, without limitation, programs and services (other than utility services), operated, controlled, managed, administered, provided or financially supported, wholly or in part, by the Band or Council on behalf of the Band and of benefit to any residents of Reserve (whether in common with any non-residents of Reserve or not) including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, social, public health, cultural, recreation, education, daycare, library, park, playground, police or fire protection programs and services;

" or Indian Band

"Council" means the Council of the Tl'azt'en Nation Indian Band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act as elected by the Band members from time to time pursuant to the custom of the Band;
"fiscal year" means April 1 of a calendar year through March 31 of the following calendar year;
"general government services" includes, without limitation, government and administrative programs, services and operations of the Band or Council on behalf of the Band including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the operations of Council and the development, preparation, enforcement and administration of Council or Band policies, by-laws and programs and the administration and operation of departments of the Band;
"Minister" means the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and includes a person designated in writing by the Minister;
"permitted property taxation by-law expenditures" means those expenditures out of property tax revenue authorized to be made under section 55 and 56 of the Property Taxation By-law;
"property taxation by-law" means the Tl'azt'en Nation Indian Band Property Taxation By-law passed by the Council on May 30, 1996, and approved by the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development on October 25, 1996, and as amended from time to time;
"property tax revenue" includes all taxes and other moneys raised under the Property Taxation By-law, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all interest earned thereon and other accumulations thereto from time to time;
"public works" includes

(a) designing, constructing, reconstructing, creating, replacing, enlarging, extending, removing, moving, repairing, maintaining or operating

(i) roads, streets, overpasses, underpasses, sidewalks, foot crossings, curbing bridges, tunnels, culverts, embankments and retaining walls;

(ii) equipment, wires, works and facilities, including standards and conduits, necessary to supply public lighting within reserve, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all necessary poles, towers, cross-arms, encasements, transformer structures and other related works and facilities;

(iii) conduits for wires, fibre-optics and pipes for purposes other than providing public lighting within Reserve, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all necessary poles, towers, cross-arms, encasements, transformer structures and other related works and facilities;

(iv) storm or sanitary sewer or water lines, works and facilities, including service connections to sewer or water lines on land abutting a main;

(v) sewage treatment and water treatment works, facilities and plants;

(vi) retaining walls, rip-rap, sheet-piling, sea-walls, pilings, dykes and breakwaters in, along or adjacent to the sea, a lake or a river, and

(vii) any buildings, works or facilities related or ancillary to anything referred to in subparagraphs (i) through (vi), together with reserve lands appurtenant thereto;

(b) remediating environmentally contaminated Reserve lands; and

(c) creating new lands by any lawful means including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, by the placement and compaction of permitted soils and other fill materials;

"Reserve" means those lands the legal title to which is vested in Her Majesty, that have been set apart by Her Majesty for the use and benefit of the Band, whether they be designated lands or conditionally surrendered lands or otherwise;
"Tax Administrator" means the tax administrator appointed by Council under the Tl'azt'en Nation Property Taxation By-law;
"utility services" includes water, storm sewer, sanitary sewer, garbage collection, garbage disposal, solid waste disposal, sewage treatment and water treatment programs, services and operations.

AUTHORIZATION OF EXPENDITURE OF PROPERTY TAX REVENUE

3.(1) This By-law authorizes the expenditure of property tax revenue by Council on behalf of the Band for local purposes.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) but for greater certainty, this By-law authorizes the expenditure of property tax revenue by Council on behalf of the Band on community works, community services, general government services, permitted property taxation by-law expenditures, public works and utility services.

ANNUAL PROPERTY TAX BUDGET

4.(1) On or before July 31 in each fiscal year, the tax administrator shall prepare and table with Council a draft annual property tax budget for the then current fiscal year and a draft band council resolution approving the budget, and Council shall endeavor to consider such budget and resolution on or before August 31 of the same fiscal year.

(2) An annual property tax budget may, but is not required to, be in the form of that draft annual property tax budget attached as Schedule AA@ to this By-law.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), all expenditures made out of property tax revenue that Council is authorized to make under this By-law shall be made pursuant to an annual property tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution.

(4) For greater certainty

(a) Band Council may at any time and from time to time amend any annual property tax budget and any band council resolution approving an annual property tax budget; and

(b) nothing in this By-law shall have the effect of amending section 55 and 56 of the Property Taxation By-law or of limiting the authorization of, or requiring additional procedures to permit, expenditures of property tax revenue thereunder.

PROPERTY TAX REVENUE ACCOUNTS

5.(1) All property tax revenue shall be deposited in a special account or accounts maintained in the name of the Band and be invested until required to be expended pursuant to an annual property tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution.

(2) Any surplus property tax revenue raised during a fiscal year that is not required for expenditure during that fiscal year pursuant to an annual property tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution, shall be set aside in a special surplus fund account or accounts maintained in the name of the Band and be invested until required for such expenditure in a future fiscal year.

ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

6. The tax administrator shall administer this By-law.

BY-LAW REMEDIAL

7. This By-law shall be construed as being remedial, and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

MISCELLANEOUS

8.(1) Headings form no part of this By-law but shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

(2) A finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that a section or provision of this By-law is void or invalid shall not affect or bear upon the validity or invalidity of any other section or part of this By-law or this By-law as a whole.

(3) Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, future tense or in the past tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(4) In this By-law words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

COMING INTO FORCE

9. This By-law shall come into force immediately upon being approved by the Minister.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 2nd day of August 2016, at Tache, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of five (5) members of Council.

WESTBANK FIRST NATION
SENSISYUSTEN GYM AUDIO EQUIPMENT UPGRADES CAPITAL EXPENDITURE BY-LAW NO. 16-TX-04

To authorize the expenditure of a maximum of Thirty Five Thousand Five Hundred and Fifty Dollars (35,550.00) from money raised pursuant to section 83(1) of the Indian Act, for the purpose of audio equipment upgrades in Sensisyusten Gym project.

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to Section 83(1) of the Indian Act and the Westbank First Nation's inherent right of self-government, the Westbank First Nation has enacted the Westbank First Nation Property Taxation By-law, 95-TX-08 (the "Taxation By-law");

B. In accordance with section 12(3)(l) of the Taxation By-law, the Westbank First Nation annually deposits Ten (10%) percent of annual gross taxes in a cumulative capital projects fund (the "Cumulative Fund") to be used from time to time for such capital projects as may be authorized by separate by-law;

C. Pursuant to the Westbank First Nation Expenditure By-law, 1995, amended by By-law 97-TX-03 (the "Expenditure By-law"), the Westbank First Nation is authorized to expend moneys raised pursuant to the Taxation By-law for local purposes, including the provision of Local Services on Reserve and capital projects;

D. The Council of the Westbank First Nation deems it desirable and in the best interest of all residents and the Band members to advance funds to complete the Sensisyusten Gym audio equipment upgrades capital project.

E. The Westbank First Nation has concluded the total cost of purchasing audio equipment upgrades for Sensisyusten Gym capital project to be not more than $35,550.00 as outlined in Schedule "A" to this By-law.

NOW THEREFORE, the Council of the Westbank First Nation hereby enacts the following by-law;

SHORT TITLE

1. This By-law may be cited for all purposes as purchase of capital audio equipment for Sensisyusten Gym, audio equipment upgrades Capital Expenditure By-law No. 16-TX-04.

EXPENDITURE AUTHORIZATION

2. The Westbank First Nation hereby acknowledges that it is in the best interests of all residents and members of the Westbank First Nation to purchase capital equipment upgrades for audio equipment upgrades as summarized in Schedule "A" to this By-law.

3. The Westbank First Nation hereby approves the expenditure of not more than Thirty Five Thousand Five Hundred and Fifty ($35,550.00) Dollars from the Cumulative Fund for the purposes of purchasing audio equipment upgrades for Sensisyusten Gym Project (the "Project Funds").

4. The Westbank First Nation also authorizes the expenditure of all or a portion of the Project Funds to acquire all such lands, easements, rights-of-way, licences, permits, rights and authorities as may be required or desirable for or in connection with Sensisyusten Gym, audio equipment upgrades project.

5. Any of the Project Funds not expended on the Sensisyusten Gym audio equipment upgrades project or incidental costs related thereto, will be reimbursed to and deposited in the Cumulative Fund upon completion of the Sensisyusten Gym audio equipment upgrades project.

6. All revenue collected related to this By-law will be reimbursed to "the Cumulative Fund".

WESTBANK FIRST NATION
CAPITAL EXPENDITURE BY-LAW NO. 15-TX-09

To authorize the expenditure of a maximum of Twenty Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($22,500.00) from money raised pursuant to section 83(1) of the Indian Act, for the purposes of renovating the second floor of the Lindley Government Building within the Tsinstikeptum Indian Reserve No.10.

WHEREAS: Pursuant to Section 83(1) of the Indian Act and Westbank First Nation's inherent right of self-government, Westbank First Nation has enacted the Westbank First Nation Property Taxation By-law, 95-TX-08 (the "Taxation By-law");

A. Pursuant to the Westbank First Nation Expenditure By-law, 1995, amended by By-law 97-TX-03 (the "Expenditure By-law"), Westbank First Nation is authorized to expend moneys raised pursuant to the Taxation By-law for local purposes, including the provision of Local Services on Reserve and capital projects;

B. In accordance with section 12(3)(l) of the Taxation By-Law, Westbank First Nation annually deposits ten percent (10%) of annual gross taxes into the " accumulative capital projects fund", (the "Cumulative Fund") to be used from time to time for such capital projects as may be authorized by a separate by-law;

C. In accordance with section 4.4 of the WFN Expenditure By-law 1995, all surplus monies remaining in the Taxation Fund at the end of the Fiscal Year specified in the Expenditure By-law Annual Budget Schedule may be transferred into the Stabilization Fund, and may be applied towards the operation and administration costs for the next Fiscal Year, overruns on existing Capital projects or for any other contingencies, (the "Stabilization Fund");

D. Westbank First Nation deems it desirable and in the best interest of all community members to advance funds to complete the second floor renovations to the Lindley Government Building on Tsinstikeptum Indian Reserve No.10;

E. Westbank First Nation has estimated the total cost of the construction of the second floor renovations to the Lindley Government Building on Tsinstikuptum Indian Reserve No.10 to be not more than $22,500 as outlined in Schedule "A" to this By-law.

NOW THEREFORE, THE Council of Westbank First Nation hereby enacts the following by-law:

SHORT TITLE

1. This By-law may be cited for all purposes as the IR No.10 Lindley Government Building Second Floor Renovation Capital Expenditure By-law No. 15-TX-09.

EXPENDITURE AUTHORIZATION

2. Westbank First Nation hereby acknowledges that it is in the best interests of the community members of Westbank First Nation to proceed with the second floor renovations to the Lindley Government Building as summarized in Schedule "A" to this By-law.

3. Westbank First Nation hereby approves the expenditure of not more than Twenty Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($22,500) from the Stabilization Fund for the purposes of designing and constructing the IR No.10 Lindley Government Building Second Floor Renovation Capital Expenditure Project (the "Project Funds");

4. Westbank First Nation also authorizes the expenditure of all or a portion of the Project Funds to acquire all such lands, easements, rights-of-ways, license, permits, rights and authorities as may be required or desirable for or in connection with the renovation of the IR No.10 Lindley Government Building Second Floor Renovation Capital Expenditure Project.

5. Any of the project funds not expended on the "second floor renovation project" or incidental costs related thereto will be reimbursed to the Stabilization fund at the end of the project.

EFFECTIVE

This By-law comes into full force and effect upon approval by the Minister of Indigenous Affairs and Northern Development Canada.

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED AND AGREED:

That this By-law, entitled IR No.10 Government Building (Lindley Building) Second Floor Renovation Capital Expenditure By-law No. 15-TX-09 being read for the first, second and third and final time by the Council of Westbank First Nation held at duly convened meetings.

(b) together with reserve lands appurtenant thereto,

(c) remediating environmentally contaminated reserve lands and

(d) creating new lands by any lawful means including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, by the placement and compaction of permitted soils and other fill materials,

"reserve" means those lands the legal title to which is vested in Her Majesty, that have been set apart by Her Majesty for the use and benefit of OCN, whether they be designated lands or conditionally surrendered lands or otherwise,

"utility services" includes water, storm sewer, sanitary sewer, garbage collection, garbage disposal, solid waste disposal, sewage treatment and water treatment programs, services and operations.

Authorization of Expenditure of Land Tax Revenue

3. (1) This by-law authorizes the expenditure of land tax revenue by council on behalf of the band for local purposes.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) but for greater certainty, this by-law authorizes the expenditure of land tax revenue by council on behalf of OCN on community works, community services, general government services, permitted Land Tax By-Law expenditures, public works and utility services.

Annual Property Tax Budget

4. (1) On or before July 31st in each fiscal year, the Land Tax Administrator shall prepare and table with council a draft annual land tax budget for the then current fiscal year and a draft Band Council Resolution approving the budget, and council shall endeavor to consider such budget and resolution on or before August 31st of the same fiscal year.

(2) An annual land tax budget may, but is not required to, be in the form of the draft annual land tax budget attached as Schedule A to this by-law.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), all expenditures made out of land tax revenue that council is authorized to make under this by-law shall be made pursuant to an annual land tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution.

(4) For greater certainty:

(a) council may at any time and from time to time amend any annual land tax budget and any band council resolution approving an annual land tax budget, and

(b) nothing is this by-law shall have the effect of amending section 5.2 of the Land Tax By-law or of limiting the authorization of, or requiring additional procedures to permit, expenditures of land tax revenue thereunder.

Land Tax Revenue Accounts

5. (1) All land tax revenue shall be deposited in a special account or accounts maintained in the name of OCN and shall be invested until required to be expended pursuant to an annual land tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution.

(2) Any surplus land tax revenue raised during a fiscal year that is not required for expenditure during that fiscal year pursuant to an annual land tax budget that has been approved by band council resolution, shall be set aside in a special surplus fund account or accounts maintained in the name of OCN and shall be invested until required for such expenditure in a future fiscal year.

Administration and Enforcement

6. The Land Tax Administrator shall administer this by-law.

By-law Remedial

7. This by-law shall be construed as being remedial, and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

Miscellaneous

8. (1) Provision headings form no part of this by-law but shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

(2) A finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that a session or provision of this by-law is void or invalid shall not affect or bear upon the validity or invalidity of any other section or provision of this by-law or this by-law as a whole.

(3) Where a provision in this by-law is expressed in the present tense, future tense or past tense, the provision of this by-law or this by-law as a whole.

(4) In this by-law words in singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

Coming into Force

9. This by-law shall come into force immediately upon being approved by the minister.

Replacing Previous By-Law

10. This By-Law shall, as of the date of enactment, replace and repeal the Opaskwayak Cree Nation OCN Land Tax Expenditure By-Law 1998;

CARRY THE KETTLE FIRST NATION
ANNUAL PROPERTY TAXATION EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016

WHEREAS pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a band may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

AND WHEREAS the Council of The Carry The Kettle First Nation has enacted the Carry The Kettle Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve;

AND WHEREAS Section 56 of the Carry The Kettle Property Assessment and Taxation By-law, requires a first nation that has made a property taxation by-law to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation by-laws;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Carry The Kettle First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Carry The Kettle First Nation Annual Property Taxation Expenditure By-law, 2016.

2. In this by-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C. c-I-5 as amended from time to time, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means the budget, attached as a Schedule to this By-law, setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" or "Band" means the Carry The Kettle First Nation, being a band within the meaning of subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

"interim budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, that is intended to have effect only until replaced with an annual budget for that budget year;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"property taxation by-law" means a by-law enacted by the First Nation under section 83 of the Act;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation by-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Carry The Kettle Property Assessment and Taxation By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2016, and ending December 31, 2016, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4.(1) The First Nation's interim budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2017, and ending December 31, 2017, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

(2) The expenditures provided for in subsection (1) are authorized until the First Nation's annual expenditure by- law for the budget year referenced in subsection (1) comes into force and effect, at which time the interim budget ceases to have force and effect.

5. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation By-law.

6. This By-law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

7. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

8. Notwithstanding section 7 of this By-law, Council may at any time amend the annual budget by amending this By-law in accordance with Council procedures and the requirements of the Act.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

10. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

OCEAN MAN FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE BY-LAW, 2016-02

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83 of the Indian Act, the council of a First Nation may make By-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including by-laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the Ocean Man First Nation has enacted the Ocean Man First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation Bylaw in 1999, respecting taxation for local purposes on reserve; and

C. The Council of the Ocean Man First Nation wishes to enact this expenditure by-law to establish a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under its property taxation in the current taxation year;

NOW, THEREFORE the Council of the Ocean First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Ocean Man First Nation Annual Expenditure By-law.

2. In this By-law:

"Act" means the Indian Act, S.C. 1985, c. I-5, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during the budget year;

"Council" has the same meaning as "council of the band" in subsection 2(1) of the Act;

"First Nation" means the Ocean Man First Nation, being a band under the Act;

"By-law" means this annual expenditure by-law enacted under paragraph 83(2) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a property taxation by-law;

"taxable property" means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under the Taxation By-law; and

"Taxation By-law" means the Ocean Man First Nation Property Taxation and Assessment By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the fiscal year beginning April 01, and ending March 31, is attached as a Schedule "A" to this By-law and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget.

5. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this By-law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this By-law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

6. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Taxation By-law.

7. Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

8. This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

9. The Schedule attached to this By-law forms part of and is an integral part of this By-law.

10. This By-law comes into force and effect upon the approval of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS By-law IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 19th day of October 2016, at Ocean Man First Nation in the Province of Saskatchewan.

OCEAN MAN FIRST NATION

PROPERTY TAX RATES BY-LAW, NO. 2016-01

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83(1)(a) of the Indian Act, the First Nation has enacted a Property Taxation By-law for the taxation for local purposes of land, or interests in land, in the Reserve, including rights to occupy, possess or use land in the Reserve;

B. Section 8.1 of the Property Taxation By-law requires the First Nation, in each taxation year, to enact a by-law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each class of taxable property; and

C. The Council of the First Nation deems it to be in the best interests of the First Nation to set the tax rates as set out in this By-law;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Ocean Man First Nation, at a duly convened meeting, enacts as follows:

1. This By-law may be cited as the Ocean Man First Nation Property Tax Rates By-law.

2. In this By-law:

"By-law" means this property tax rates by-law;

"First Nation" means the Ocean Man First Nation, being a band as defined under the Indian Act;

"Property Taxation By-law" means the Ocean Man First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law;

"Reserve" means land set apart for the use and benefit of the First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act; and

"taxable property" means property in the Reserve that is subject to taxation under the Property Taxation By-law.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Property Taxation By-law for the taxation year 2016 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule for each property class established in the Property Taxation By-law, upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than $ 1.00, the taxable property shall be taxed at $ 0.00 for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this By-law have the meanings given to them in the Property Taxation By-law.

TK'EMLUPS TE SECWEPEMC

MATRIMONIAL REAL PROPERTY LAW

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc are Secwepemc people, who maintain a self-sufficient government with a sustainable economy, a distinctive language, a powerful spirituality, and a rich culture within a defined territory which pre-dates the establishment of Canada and continues to exist;

WHEREAS the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc has a sacred duty, in the spirit of our ancestors, to protect and enhance our traditional laws and teachings to create and maintain a harmonious, respectful and balanced self-sustaining community for the well-being and long term benefit of all our members and future generations;

WHEREAS Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc's inherent right of self-government, including its right to adopt this Law, is an existing Aboriginal right recognized and affirmed under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 and is confirmed by the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and in particular Articles 3, 4, 5, 8(1) and 34;

WHEREAS Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc, as an aspect of its inherent right of self-government, has established and maintained its own laws and processes for resolving real property issues such as disputes that arise regarding the division and distribution of matrimonial property upon the breakdown of marriage and common law relationships since time immemorial and continues to have the authority to do so;

WHEREAS Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc encourages its members to resolve any matrimonial property issues internally, with the assistance of traditional counseling, family or other community members, or through mediation;

WHEREAS Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc wishes to see matrimonial real property disputes resolved in a way that, first, is in keeping with the best interests of our children, second, does not jeopardize the ability of our members to reside on our reserves and to hold real property on reserve, and third, is fair to both spouses; and

WHEREAS the federal government of Canada has enacted Bill S-2, the Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act, to address certain family law matters on First Nation reserves that are not addressed by any provincial or territorial law, or by the Indian Act, and Bill S-2 empowers First Nations to enact their own laws to address these same matters;

NOW THEREFORE Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc hereby enacts the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc Matrimonial Real Property Law.

PART 1 TITLE

1.1 This Law may be cited as the "Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc Matrimonial Real Property Law." or the "TteS Matrimonial Real Property Law".

PART 2 DEFINITIONS

2.1 In this law:

"child" means a person who is under the age of 19 and who has not withdrawn from parental control, or who is over the age of 19 but unable, by reason of illness, disability or other cause, to withdraw from parental control or to obtain the necessities of life, and who is:

(a) the biological child of at least one spouse,

(b) adopted, under Canadian law or Aboriginal custom, by at least one spouse,

(c) the step-child of at least one spouse where that spouse is the primary caregiver of the child, or

(d) any child for whom either or both spouses stand in the place of parents, and "children" shall have a corresponding meaning;

"council" means the duly elected chief and council of Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc;

"court" means any federal or provincial court of competent jurisdiction, or any traditional court or tribunal of Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc or of the Secwépemc people;

"dependent" means any person residing with a member who is over the age of 19 but unable, by reason of illness, disability or other cause, to withdraw from parental control or to obtain the necessities of life, and is dependent upon the member for his or her care and wellbeing.

"divorce proceeding" has the meaning ascribed to it in s. 2(1) of the Divorce Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. 3;

"domestic contract" means an agreement made between two persons who are spouses or who intend to become spouses, in which they agree on their respective rights and obligations under the relationship or on separation, on the annulment or dissolution of the relationship, or on death, including:

(a) ownership in or division of matrimonial property,

(b) support obligations,

(c) the right to direct the education and moral training of their children,

(d) the right to custody of or access to their children, and

(e) any other matter in the settlement of their affairs, and includes an agreement between the spouses to amend or rescind a domestic contract.

"family home" means a dwelling where the spouses habitually reside, or which was mutually intended by the spouses to be the family home where one or both of them would habitually reside, or if the spouses have ceased to cohabit or one of them has died, the dwelling where they habitually resided on the day on which they ceased to cohabit or the death occurred and is:

(a) owned exclusively by one or both Spouses, and

(b) need not be affixed but is situated on TteS land, but does not include a dwelling that is ordinarily used for a family purpose and was inherited by or gifted to only one spouse, regardless of when it was inherited or gifted;

"family member", with respect to a person, means:

(a) the person's spouse or former spouse,

(b) a person with whom the person is living, or has lived, in a marriage-like relationship for a period of at least one year,

(c) a parent or guardian of the person's child or dependent,

(d) a person who lives with, and is related to:

(i) the person, or
(ii) a person referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (c), or
(iii) the person's child, and includes a child or dependent who is living with, or whose parent or guardian is, a person referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (d);

"family violence" includes:

(a) physical abuse of a family member, including forced confinement or deprivation of the necessities of life, but not including the use of reasonable force to protect oneself or others from harm;

(b) sexual abuse of a family member;

(c) psychological or emotional abuse of a family member by any means whether directly or indirectly, including, without limitation, through social media, technological devices or other communication technologies, where such abuse includes without limitation:

(i) intimidation, harassment, coercion or threats, including threats respecting other persons, pets or property,
(ii) unreasonable restrictions on, or prevention of, a family member's financial or personal autonomy,
(iii) stalking or following of the family member, and
(iv) intentional damage to property; and

(d) in the case of a child or dependent, direct or indirect exposure to family violence;

"interest in TteS land" means any certificate of possession, allotment, lease, permit or any other equivalent instrument, but does not include rental agreements for homes owned by TteS or other TteS property. For greater certainty, where there is a family home affixed to TteS land that is the subject of an interest in TteS land, the interest includes both the land and the family home;

"life estate" means the grant of an interest in TteS land that is limited to or measured by the life of the person holding it;

"matrimonial property" means:

(a) an interest in TteS land that is held by one or both spouses and that includes a family home,

(b) an interest in TteS land that does not include a family home, is held by one or both spouses, was acquired during the relationship, and was not gifted to or inherited by only one spouse, or

(c) any increase in value of an interest in TteS land that was acquired by either spouse prior to the relationship, except for a family home or an interest in TteS land that was gifted to or inherited by only one spouse, where the increase in value occurred during the course of the relationship;

"mediation process" means a dispute resolution process in which a third party assists the parties to a dispute to negotiate a resolution to their dispute where the third party may be:

(a) a family law mediator who is qualified in accordance with the Family Law Act Regulation BC Reg 347/2012, as amended from time to time; or

(b) a person recognized by the parties as having authority under TteS laws and traditions to assist the parties in negotiating and formalizing a resolution to their dispute.

"member" means a person whose name appears or is entitled to appear on the TteS membership list;

"rented family home" means a rental unit owned by TteS that is the dwelling where the spouses habitually reside, or if the spouses have ceased to cohabit, the dwelling where they habitually resided on the day on which they ceased to cohabit;

"spouse" means a person who:

(a) is married to another person, whether by a customary Aboriginal, religious, civil or other ceremony, or

(b) is living or has lived with another person in a marriage-like relationship for a continuous period of at least one year (i.e. "common-law partners"), and includes a former spouse.

"TteS" or "First Nation" means Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc, a "band" within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"TteS land" means all lands currently set apart by Canada for the use and benefit of TteS and any future additions to TteS's reserves.

Relationship Between Spouses

2.2 A relationship between spouses begins on the earlier of the following:

(a) the date on which they began to live together in a marriage-like relationship; or

(b) the date of their marriage.

2.3 For the purposes of this law,

(a) spouses may be separated despite continuing to live in the same residence; and

(b) the court may consider, as evidence of separation:

(i) communication, by one spouse to the other spouse, of an intention to separate permanently, and

(ii) an action, taken by a spouse, that demonstrates the spouse's intention to separate permanently.

PART 3 APPLICATION OF LAW

Only to Reserve Land

3.1 This law only applies to TteS land and does not apply to the remainder of TteS's territory.

Only to Members and Their Spouses

3.2 This law only applies where at least one spouse is a member.

3.3 This law only applies to members and their spouses in relation to a break-down of a marriage or a common-law relationship, or the death of a spouse.

3.4 This law does not apply to a family home or matrimonial property on TteS land that is held by either spouse, or both spouses, where neither spouse is a member.

Only to Family Homes and Matrimonial Property

3.5 This law applies only to family homes and matrimonial property, except where explicitly stated, and not to other interests in or on TteS land.

Federal and Provincial Laws

3.6 Subject to this law, existing TteS laws, Secwepemc customs and traditional laws, the common law, federal and provincial laws relating to divorce and separation still apply and, for greater certainty:

(a) the British Columbia Family Law Act, SBC 2011, c. 25, as amended, and the Canada Divorce Act, 1985, c. 3 (2nd Supp.), as amended, apply as modified by this law and to the extent possible subject to this law and the Indian Act, RSC 1985, c. I-5;

(b) nothing in this law limits the application of valid and applicable federal or provincial laws in respect of matrimonial causes or any rights or remedies available in those laws, except to the extent that such laws deal expressly or implicitly with family homes or TteS land, and to that extent this law shall apply; and

(c) unless otherwise specified in this law, nothing in this law relieves either spouse of the requirement to observe the rules and procedures of a court in relation to matrimonial causes.

3.7 Despite section 3.6, the fact that a family home does not include future or contingent interests in TteS land shall not be taken to confer jurisdiction upon a court over those interests under this law.

Does Not Apply to Wills and Estates

3.8 Unless otherwise provided in a specific provision, this law does not apply to wills and estates.

3.9 For greater certainty, a spouse does not have an election, on the death of the other spouse, to claim, take or pursue an interest in TteS land held by the other spouse under this law, and his or her interest will be determined by the will or administration of the estate of the deceased spouse.

Continuation Where Spouse Dies During Proceedings

3.10 Despite sections 3.8 and 3.9, where a proceeding has been commenced under Part 3 of this law, and either spouse dies before all issues relating to the matrimonial home have been determined by a court, the surviving spouse may continue the proceeding.

Subsection 89(1) of the Indian Act

3.11 This law applies despite subsection 89(1) of the Indian Act.

PART 4 DOMESTIC CONTRACTS

4.1 Subject to this law and all applicable laws, a provision in a domestic contract that reflects the agreement of the spouses with respect to an interest in TteS land, including a family home or matrimonial property, is valid, binding and enforceable providing it has been:

(a) made in writing,

(b) signed by the parties, and

(c) witnessed by one or more persons who are at least 19 years of age.

4.2 A domestic contract may provide an interest in TteS land, including the right to exclusively occupy a family home, to a spouse, child or dependent who is not a member, but such interest and such rights shall not in any case be greater than a life estate measured by the life of the individual intended to enjoy it.

4.3 A provision in a domestic contract is void if it purports to give, transfer, award, acknowledge or create an allotment, certificate of possession, or any interest in TteS land equivalent to an allotment or certificate of possession, that is greater than a life estate for a person who is not a member.

Court May Set Aside or Vary Agreements

4.4 Subject to this law, a court may, on application, set aside or vary a domestic contract or any provision therein concerning an interest in TteS land or a family home upon making a determination that:

(a) a spouse failed to disclose to the other spouse all of that spouse's interests in TteS land or a family home, or any material information in respect of those interests;

(b) a spouse did not understand the nature or consequences of the domestic contract or provision;

(c) there is evidence of abuse, coercion, undue influence or fraud, or that a spouse did not voluntarily enter into the domestic contract or provision; or

(d) otherwise in accordance with the common law or the law of equity of contract.

4.5 Subject to section 4.6, section 4.4 only applies to

(a) married spouses;

(b) common-law spouses;

(c) formerly married spouses who have been divorced for less than 2 years; and

(d) former common-law Spouses who have been living separate and apart for less than 2 years.

4.6 Where the time limit described in section 4.5 has expired:

(a) a formerly married spouse or former common law spouse may apply to the court for permission to bring a late claim under section 4.5 on the basis of compelling circumstances;

(b) the court shall determine whether the evidence establishes sufficiently compelling reasons for the delay to allow it to proceed, taking into account any prejudice that the other spouse will suffer from the delay in the application; but

(c) in no case shall the court allow late claims to proceed where the formerly married spouses have been divorced for over 5 years or where the former common law spouses have been living separate and apart for over 5 years.

Past and Future Agreements Valid

4.7 This Part applies whether the parties entered into the domestic contract on, before, or after the date that this law comes into force and effect.

PART 5 ACCESS TO THE COURT

Cooperative Dispute Resolution Encouraged

5.1 Before proceeding to court, spouses are strongly encouraged to try to resolve their differences regarding any matter addressed in this law by agreement, including through cooperative discussion, participation in a mediation process or participation in any other form of alternative dispute resolution, unless one spouse is experiencing or has recently experienced family violence.

5.2 Any spouse may contact the TteS Social Development Department for counselling referrals and resources and for information and resources relating to mediation and dispute resolution, but for greater certainty, neither the TteS Social Development Department nor TteS has any obligation to ensure or provide mediation processes or alternative dispute resolution services and spouses who participate in any mediation processes or other alternative dispute resolution processes are solely responsible for any costs incurred in respect thereof.

5.3 No materials submitted by spouses to the mediation process for the purpose of resolving a dispute under this law shall be released to any person or agency, except where such disclosure is required under a court order or the express wording of a statute.

General Access to Court

5.4 Where spouses are unable to resolve their differences regarding any matter addressed in this law, they may apply to the court for a resolution of their dispute.

5.5 In the event of the breakdown of a marriage or a common-law relationship, a spouse may apply to a court to:

(a) enforce a domestic contract;

(b) determine a dispute in relation to a family home; or

(c) deal with any matter provided for under this law.

5.6 When a proceeding related to the consequences of the breakdown of a spouse's relationship is pending, including a divorce proceeding, the court that has jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter, or that is seized of the matter, has jurisdiction to hear and determine an application made under this law.

5.7 The court shall adjudicate a dispute under this law with regard to any decisions and orders previously rendered by Canadian courts that settle related family law matters for the spouses, such as divorce, child custody, spousal support, child support, division of personal property or division of real property off-reserve.

Time Limit for Bringing an Application

5.8 A spouse seeking to apply for an order under this Part must apply:

(a) before his or her divorce, or within one year after his or her divorce has been granted by a court; or

(b) before his or her separation, or within two years after the date on which the spouses ceased to cohabitate.

Notice to All Affected Persons

5.9 Any person initiating a proceeding or making an application to the court under this law, in addition to complying with the notice provisions set out in the rules regarding the practice and procedure in the court, must also provide notice of the proceeding or application to all affected persons, for greater certainty:

(a) to any person against whom the applicant is seeking to have an order made and to any other person who would be specified in or bound by such an order;

(b) to council and to any person who holds an interest or right in or to the family home, rented family home, matrimonial property, or interest in TteS land that is the subject matter of the proceeding or application; and

(c) where the proceeding or application involves a deceased person:

(i) if the applicant is the survivor, to the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate of the deceased person, or to the Minister if applicable, or

(ii) if the applicant is the executor of the will or administrator of the estate, to the survivor, and to the Minister if applicable.

5.10 Section 5.9 does not apply in the case of ex parte applications for emergency protection orders made under Part 9 of this law.

Court Orders

5.11 Regardless of which spouse holds a family home, a court may, on application:

(a) order the delivering up, safekeeping and preservation of the family home;

(b) direct that one spouse be given exclusive possession, consistent with this law, of the family home, for such period as the court may direct to a maximum of the

(c) time limits set out in sections 8.1, 8.2, 9.4 and 9.5 and release any other aspect or encumbrance relating to the family home from the application of this Part;

(d) authorize a disposition or encumbrance consistent with TteS law of a spouse's interest in a family home, subject to the other spouse's right of exclusive possession as ordered;

(e) make any interim or temporary order to give effect to the purposes of this law or to protect the rights of a spouse; and

(f) make any ancillary order, including an order as to costs, that the court deems necessary to give effect to this law.

Certain Orders Prohibited

5.12 No order shall be made under this Part:

(a) in respect of a certificate of possession or allotment in favour of a spouse who is not a member; or

(b) that results in a sale, partition or transfer of a certificate of possession or allotment.

Court May Vary Orders

5.13 A court may, on application, vary any declaration or order granted under this Part if:

(a) there is a material change in circumstance;

(b) there is evidence of fraud, abuse or coercion; or

(c) the court determines that fairness or equity justify a variance.

Council May Make Representations

5.14 At the request of council, the court that is seized of the application must, before making its decision, allow the council to make representations with respect to the cultural, social and legal context that pertains to the application and to present its views about whether or not the order sought should be made.

5.15 When the court makes any decision or order under this law, the spouse in whose favour the decision is made shall promptly provide a copy of the decision or order to the council.

PART 6 FAMILY HOME

How to Determine Family Home

6.1 Whether or not a structure or interest is a family home is a question of fact.

6.2 Where part of a family home is normally used for a purpose other than residential purposes, including carving or cultural uses, storage, rental, or commercial purposes, the family home includes only that part of the structure or structures that may reasonably be regarded as necessary for use and enjoyment as a family residence.

Equal Rights

6.3 Subject to the limitations inherent in the nature of TteS land, paragraphs 4.3 and 5.12, and to other factors set out in this law;

(a) both spouses have an equal right to possession of a family home; and

(b) each spouse is entitled to half the value of the family home.

6.4 A spouse with rights under section 6.3 also has equal rights of redemption or relief against forfeiture.

6.5 Where a person or entity proceeds to realize upon an encumbrance or execution against a family home or an interest that affects the family home, both spouses have a right of redemption or relief against forfeiture for the family home and both are entitled to notice respecting the claim and its enforcement or realization.

Limits on Sales and Encumbrances

6.6 No spouse shall dispose of or encumber a family home unless:

(a) the other spouse consents;

(b) the other spouse joins in the instrument of disposal or encumbrance;

(c) the other spouse has released all rights in respect of the disposition or encumbrance by domestic contract;

(d) a court order has authorized the transaction; or

(e) a court has released the family home from the application of this section.

6.7 If a spouse disposes of or encumbers a family home in contravention of section 6.6, the court may, on application:

(a) set aside the disposal or encumbrance, or

(b) order the spouse to pay compensation to the other spouse.

6.8 Section 6.7(a) does not apply where the person holding the disposition or encumbrance at the time of the application to the court acquired the disposition or encumbrance for value, in good faith and without notice at the time of acquiring, or making an agreement to acquire the disposition or encumbrance, that the property was a family home.

6.9 A court may, on application authorize a disposition or encumbrance of a family home, provided that such disposition or encumbrance is otherwise authorized under this law, if the court finds that the spouse whose consent is required cannot be found or is not available, is not capable or giving or withholding consent, or is unreasonably withholding consent, and the court may prescribe conditions including the provision of other comparable accommodation, or payment in place of it, that the court deems appropriate.

PART 7 DIVISION OF MATRIMONIAL PROPERTY OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU

7.1 Subject to section 7.2, Part 7 only applies to:

(a) formerly married spouses who have been divorced for less than 1 year; and

(b) former common-law spouses who cohabited in a marriage-like relationship for at least 1 year and who have been living separate and apart for less than 1 year.

7.2 Where a time limit described in section 7.1 has expired:

(a) a spouse may apply to the court for permission to bring a late claim under Part 7 on the basis of compelling circumstances; and

(b) the court shall determine whether the evidence establishes sufficiently compelling reasons for the delay to allow it to proceed, taking into account any prejudice that the other spouse will suffer from the delay in the proceeding; but

(c) in no case will the court allow late claims to proceed where the spouses have been divorced for over 5 years or have been living separate and apart for over 5 years.

7.3 Subject to this law, the court may make determinations concerning interests in and the division of value of matrimonial property and may make orders that are necessary, reasonable or ancillary to give effect to the determination, including, but not necessarily limited to:

(a) a declaration as to whether people are spouses or former spouses;

(b) a declaration as to whether the property at issue is in fact matrimonial property;

(c) a declaration as to whether a structure is in fact a family home;

(d) a declaration as to the ownership of an interest in TteS land;

(e) where both spouses own the matrimonial property, order that one spouse transfer the matrimonial property to the other spouse exclusively;

(f) where both spouses are members, an order that one spouse lease an interest in TteS land or a family home to the other spouse for a fixed period of time, subject to such conditions as the court deems just in all the circumstances and taking into account the best interests of any children living in the family home;

(g) an order granting an easement or access for a specified period of time across a certificate of possession or allotment held of shared by one spouse for the purpose of enabling the other spouse to access the family home;

(h) an order that restrains either spouse from disposing of or transferring his or her interest in the matrimonial property, either legally or beneficially, pending the resolution of the spouses' matrimonial property dispute; or

(i) an order directing one or both spouses to pay specified amounts of money in relation to rent, lease, mortgage, tax, utilities or other payments relating to the family home;

(j) an order that one spouse pay compensation to the other spouse to recognize the contribution which the other spouse has made to the acquisition, upkeep and/or improvement of the family home or matrimonial property;

(k) an order that one spouse pay compensation to the other spouse if the family home or matrimonial property has been encumbered or disposed of;

(l) any appropriate equitable order where one spouse has intentionally, recklessly, or fraudulently damaged, encumbered or disposed of the family home or matrimonial property.

7.4 In making any order under sections 7.3(e), (h), (j), and (l) the court shall begin with the presumption that each spouse is entitled to an equal share of the value of the family home or the matrimonial property, and then shall consider whether this presumption should be varied in light of any of the following factors:

(a) the date on which the matrimonial property was acquired or disposed of;

(b) the duration of the relationship;

(c) the duration of the period during which the spouses have lived separate and apart;

(d) the needs of each spouse to become or remain economically independent;

(e) direct or indirect financial contributions of each spouse toward the acquisition, upkeep, improvement or increased value of the matrimonial property;

(f) the direct or indirect non-financial contribution of each spouse to the acquisition, upkeep, improvement or increased value of the matrimonial property, including through child-rearing responsibilities;

(g) the amount of any outstanding debt or other liabilities assumed by either spouse to acquire, maintain, or improve the matrimonial property;

(h) any relevant order or award by a court regarding the spouses' family law matters;

(i) any other factor that the court considers relevant to an equitable division of the family home or matrimonial property.

7.5 In making any compensation order under section 7.3(k), the court shall:

(a) not make any order until it has been provided with at least one valuation of the family home or matrimonial property that has been prepared by a qualified appraiser, and which accounts for the limitations on the ownership rights associated with the family home or matrimonial property and, in particular, the feasibility of selling or leasing the family home or matrimonial property or replacing it with a new interest in TteS land; and

(b) not make an order if the spouse who holds the interest(s) in TteS land demonstrates that the order is likely to force him or her to sell or otherwise alienate the family home or matrimonial property.

7.6 Prior to making an order under sections 7.3(e), (h),or (j), the court may require the spouses to provide it with at least one valuation of the matrimonial property or any component thereof.

7.7 All appraisals provided pursuant to section 7.6 must be prepared by a qualified appraiser and account for the limitations on the ownership rights associated with the matrimonial property and, in particular, the feasibility of selling or leasing the matrimonial property or replacing it with a new interest in TteS land.

7.8 The spouses are responsible to pay the costs of any appraisals obtained pursuant to subsection 7.6 and shall share such costs equally unless otherwise ordered by the court.

7.9 The court may vary the apportionment of the costs of any appraisal required pursuant to subsection 7.6 between the spouses if in the court's reasonable opinion the presumptive equal division would result in undue hardship or inequity to one of the spouses.

7.10 Where the interest of a spouse in matrimonial property is held through a corporation, the court may order that he or she transfer shares in the corporation to the other spouse.

PART 8 EXCLUSIVE OCCUPATION ORDERS

8.1 A court may, on application by a spouse, make an order that the applicant be granted exclusive occupation of and reasonable access to a family home or rented family home subject to any conditions and for the period of time specified by the court.

8.2 An order made under section 8.1 in relation to a rented family home may be for a period of time specified by the court, or up to the end of the term of the rental agreement, whichever period of time is shorter, and must require compliance with the rental agreement for the duration of the order.

8.3 A spouse making an application under section 8.1 must provide the court with:

(a) any domestic contract made between the spouses;

(b) any relevant order or award made by a court regarding the spouses' family law matters, including any order concerning custody of and/or access to any child;

(c) any further evidence required to establish that the applicant is the primary caregiver of any child; and

(d) in the case of a rented family home, a copy of the rental agreement.

8.4 An order made under section 8.1 may specify any terms that the court deems appropriate, including:

(a) a provision requiring the applicant's spouse and any specified person to vacate the family home immediately, or within a specified period, and prohibiting them from re-entering the home;

(b) a provision requiring the applicant's spouse to preserve the condition of the family home until that person vacates it;

(c) the extent to which the contents of the family home are to remain in the family home for the duration of the exclusive occupation order;

(d) a provision directing the applicant to make payments to the other spouse toward the reasonable costs of other accommodation;

(e) a provision requiring either spouse to pay for all or part of the repair and maintenance of the family home and of other liabilities arising in respect of the family home, or to make payments to the other spouse for these purposes; and

(f) a provision that the order is subject to variation if there is a change of primary caregiver for a child affected by the order.

8.5 In making an order under section 8.1, the court must consider, among other things:

(a) the best interests of any children who habitually reside in the family home, including the interest of any child who is a member to maintain a connection with TteS;

(b) the age of any children for whom the applicant spouse is the caregiver;

(c) the terms of any domestic contract or other agreement between the spouses;

(d) the collective interests of TteS members in TteS land and any representations made by council with respect to the cultural, social and legal context that pertains to the application;

(e) the period during which the applicant has habitually resided on TteS land;

(f) the financial situation and the medical condition of the spouses;

(g) the availability of other suitable accommodation that is situated on TteS land;

(h) any existing order made on a matter related to the consequences of the breakdown of the relationship;

(i) any family violence, including any acts or omissions by one of the spouses that reasonably constitute psychological abuse against the other spouse, any child in the charge of either spouse, or any other family member who habitually resides in the family home;

(j) the existence of exceptional circumstances that necessitate the removal of a person other than the applicant's spouse from the family home in order to give effect to the granting to the applicant of exclusive occupation of that home;

(k) the interests of any dependent, elderly person or person with a disability who habitually resides in the family home and for whom either spouse is the caregiver;

(l) the fact that a person, other than the spouses, holds an interest or right in or to the family home;

(m) the views of any person who received a copy of the application, presented to the court in any form that the court allows; and

(n) in the case of a rented family home, the terms of the rental agreement.

8.6 Any person in whose favour or against whom an order is made under sections 8.1 to 8.5, any person specified in the order, or the holder of an interest or right in or to the family home may apply to the court to have the order varied or revoked if there has been a material change in circumstances. The court may, by order, confirm, vary or revoke the order.

PART 9 EMERGENCY PROTECTION ORDER

9.1 The court may, on ex parte application by a spouse, make an emergency exclusive occupation order for the family home, rented family home or other dwelling where that person habitually resides in favour of that spouse, whether or not the spouse is a member and whether or not a child is involved, if the judge is satisfied that:

(a) family violence has occurred; and

(b) the order should be made without delay, because of the seriousness or urgency of the situation, to ensure immediate protection of the person who is at risk of harm or property that is at risk of damage.

9.2 The spouse may make the application even if that person has been forced to vacate the matrimonial home as a result of family violence.

9.3 A peace officer or other person may also make the application on behalf of the spouse with that person's consent, or if that person does not consent, with leave of the court granted in accordance with this law.

9.4 An order made under section 9.1 in relation to a family home may be for a period of up to 90 days.

9.5 An order made under section 9.1 in relation to a rented family home may be for a period of up to 90 days, or to the end of the term of the rental agreement, whichever period of time is shorter.

9.6 An order made under section 9.1 must include a provision directing a peace officer to enforce any provision of the order if requested to do so by the applicant spouse.

9.7 An order made under section 9.1 may include any or all of the following additional provisions:

(a) a provision required the respondent spouse and any other person to vacate the family home or rented family home and prohibiting them from returning to the home for the duration of the order;

(b) a provision directing a peace officer to remove the respondent spouse and any other person from the family home or rented family home;

(c) a restraining order;

(d) a provision directing a peace officer to escort the person who is required to vacate back to the family home or rented family home to supervise the removal of personal belongings; or

(e) any other provision that the court considers necessary for the immediate protection of any person who is at risk.

9.8 In making an order under sections 9.1 to 9.7 , the court must consider, among other things:

(a) the history and nature of the family violence;

(b) the existence of immediate danger to the person who is at risk of harm or property that is at risk of damage;

(c) the best interests of any child in the charge of either spouse, including the interest of any child who is a member to maintain a connection with TteS;

(d) the interests of any dependent, elderly person or person with a disability who habitually resides in the family home or rented family home and for whom either spouse is the caregiver;

(e) the fact that a person, other than the spouses, holds an interest or right in the family home or rented family home;

(f) the period during which the applicant has habitually resided on TteS land; and

(g) the existence of exceptional circumstances that necessitate the removal of a person other than the applicant's spouse from the family home or rented family home in order to give effect to the granting of the order, including the fact that the person has committed acts or omissions constituting family violence against the applicant, any child in the charge of either spouse, or any other person who habitually resides in the family home or rented family home.

9.9 In deciding whether to grant an order under sections 9.1 to 9.7, the court is not bound by the terms of any domestic contract made between the spouses.

9.10 Any person in whose favour or against whom an order is made under sections 9.1 to 9.7, or any person specified in the order may apply to the court to have the order varied or revoked within the time determined by the court or, if no time limit is stipulated, within 30 days of written notice of the order having been received, or at any time if there has been a material change in circumstances..

9.11 Where an order made under sections 9.1 to 9.7 concerns a rented family home or other dwelling where the applicant spouse habitually resides, the council or the owner of the interest in TteS land subject to the order may apply to the court at any time to have the order varied or revoked, subject to any restrictions imposed on those parties by the terms of the order.

9.12 The court may, by order, confirm, vary or revoke the order, and may extend the duration of the order beyond the maximum period of time referred to in sections 9.3 and 9.5.

PART 10 OCCUPATION OF FAMILY HOME UPON DEATH OF A SPOUSE

10.1 When a spouse dies, the surviving spouse and any child and/or dependent for whom the surviving spouse is primary caregiver, may continue to occupy the family home for a period of 180 days after the day on which the death occurs, regardless of whether the spouse is a member or holds an interest in or right to the family home.

PART 11 AMENDING AND REPEALING PROCEDURES

11.1 The council may make amendments to this law that do not change the substance of this law by band council resolution made at a duly convened meeting of council. Such revisions include, but are not necessarily limited to:

(a) corrections to clerical, grammatical or typographical errors;

(b) minor improvements to the language of the Law that bring out more clearly the intent of TteS without changing the substance of any provision;

(c) changes as may be required to reconcile seemingly inconsistent provisions;

(d) amendments to reference any relevant new or amended TteS laws; and

(e) amendments ordered by any court of competent jurisdiction.

11.2 Council may make substantive amendments to this law as long as the following steps have been followed:

(a) council approves the proposed amendment in principle at a duly convened meeting of council;

(b) council makes the wording of the proposed amendment available for members to review;

(c) council consults with members about the proposed amendments by holding a minimum of two community meetings over a period of at least three months;

(d) council finalizes the wording of the proposed amendment in response to the consultation with members and the proposed amendment receives at least one reading in a duly convened meeting of council;

(e) the proposed amendment receives at least one reading at a duly convened general band meeting and is approved by a quorum of the members in attendance at the general band meeting; and

(f) council adopts the amendments by band council resolution made at a duly convened meeting of council.

11.3 An amendment to this law comes into force upon passage of the band council resolution adopting the amendment in accordance with section 11.1 in the case of a minor amendment, and section 11.2 in the case of a substantive amendment.

11.4 This law may be repealed in its entirety if a majority of at least 25 percent of TteS's eligible voters vote in favour of repealing the law.

11.5 If TteS intends on repealing this law under section 11.4, the council must before proceeding with the repeal vote, take reasonable measures that are in accordance with TteS's practices to locate eligible voters and inform them of their right to vote, the means of exercising that right and the consequences of repealing the law.

PART 12 OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

12.1 A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes an order made by a court pursuant to this law is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than three months, or to both.

12.2 A fine payable under section 12.1 shall be remitted to TteS by the court, after reasonable court costs have been deducted.

PART 13 GENERAL PROVISIONS Interpretation

13.1 Headings in this law are for reference only and do not form part of this law.

13.2 All provisions of this law are severable. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this law is invalid or inapplicable, the provision shall be severed from the law and the remainder of the law shall remain in force with any necessary revisions.

Certain Pre-Relationship Gifts and Inheritances Exempt

13.3 An interest and the value of the interest in TteS land:

(a) received prior to the relationship, and

(b) received as a gift or inheritance by one spouse only from a third person who is a family member, or by one spouse only together with one or more family members, shall be deemed, subject to proof to the contrary, to have been transferred with the intention that the interest in TteS land should continue to be held within that family exempt from any claim of the other spouse.

13.4 The exemption in subsection 13.3:

(a) does not apply with respect to an interest in TteS land that is a family home, and

(b) only applies to the value of the gift or inheritance prior to the relationship.

Rights of Non-Members Non-Transferable

13.5 A non-member who is granted interim occupation or possession rights on TteS land under this law cannot dispose of, transfer, or assign those rights or pass them to heirs in a will.

13.6 As soon as the non-member ceases to personally use or occupy the subject lands, or the term of the order expires, the non-member's rights of use and occupancy in the subject lands are deemed to be terminated.

Date Law Comes Into Force

13.7 This law shall come into force on the date it is approved in accordance with the Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act, SC 2013, c. 20.

BE IT KNOWN that this Law, cited as the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc ("TteS") First Nation Matrimonial Real Property Law, is hereby ENACTED by Council at a duly convened meeting held this 25th day of August, 2015.

PART 14 COMING INTO FORCE 39

WHEREAS

A. Membertou is a part of the Mi'kmaw Nation whose ancestors have used and occupied Mi'kma'ki from time immemorial;

B. Membertou has an unextinguished right to self-determination, as affirmed by the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People, which includes a right to govern itself, its members and its lands;

C. Membertou has an unextinguished and inherent right of self-governance which emanates from its people, culture, language, land and aboriginal and treaty rights, which are recognized by section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982;

D. Membertou, as an aspect of its unextinguished right to self-determination and its unextinguished and inherent right of self-governance, has jurisdiction to create rules for the resolution of issues regarding family homes and real property located on Membertou lands upon the breakdown of a marriage or common-law relationship;

E. Section 7 of the Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act provides a First Nation with the power to enact a First Nation law that applies during a relationship, when that relationship breaks down or on the death of a spouse or common-law partner, respecting the use, occupation and possession of family homes on its reserves and the division of the value of any interests or rights held by spouses or common-law partners in or to family homes on its reserves;

F. Nova Scotia laws respecting family homes and real property do not apply to Membertou lands;

G. Membertou has always resolved issues relating to family homes and real property located on Membertou lands in accordance with its own customs, traditions and practices, which have evolved over time;

H. Membertou does not wish to be bound by the default provisions of the Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act;

I. Membertou desires to provide a law appropriate to Membertou culture and traditions that applies during a relationship, when that relationship breaks down or on the death of a spouse or common-law partner, respecting the use, occupation and possession of family homes on Membertou lands and the division of the value of any interests or rights held by spouses or common-law partners in or to family homes located on Membertou lands;

J. Upon the breakdown of a marriage or common-law relationship, Membertou intends to provide rights and remedies, without discrimination on the basis of sex, to spouses and common-law partners who have or claim interests or rights to family homes located on Membertou lands;

K. Membertou recognizes that spouses and common-law partners have a right to enter into domestic agreements that set out their respective rights and obligations upon separation, divorce or death with regard to their family home located on Membertou lands and to resolve their disputes regarding such matters amicably; and

L. Membertou believes that the best interests and welfare of all children shall be paramount when determining the interests and rights of spouses and common-law partners, and that family homes shall be a place of safety and comfort for children:

NOW THEREFORE the Chief and Council of Membertou enacts the Membertou Family Homes Law as follows:

PART 1
CITATION

1. This Law may be cited as "Membertou Family Homes Law, 2016".

PART 2
DEFINITIONS, INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION

Definitions

2. Unless the context indicates the contrary, in this Law the following definitions will apply:

"child" or "children" means any child or each child of the spouses or common-law partners who is under the age of nineteen (19), whether they are:

(a) born in or out of wedlock;

(b) legally adopted by the spouses or common-law partners; or

(c) adopted by the spouses or common-law partners in accordance with Mi'kmaw custom;

"common-law partners" means:

(a) two (2) persons who are not married to each other or in a domestic partnership and who have lived together for a period of not less than five (5) years in a conjugal relationship; and

(b) two (2) people who are not married to each other or in a domestic partnership and who live together in a conjugal relationship and who have a child or children of the relationship;

"conjugal relationship" means a relationship between spouses or common-law partners;

"Council" means the Chief and Councillors of Membertou or any successor elected government of Membertou;

"court" means a court having jurisdiction in accordance with Part 10;

"dispose" includes to give, to sell, to exchange and to conduct any other method of disposal or to execute any land instrument, including a will, that has the effect of transferring an interest or right;

"domestic agreement" means a written agreement that is signed by two (2) parties in front of a witness in which the parties agree on their respective rights and obligations with regard to their family home:

(a) during their marriage or relationship;

(b) on separation;

(c) on the annulment or dissolution of their marriage; or

(d) on the death of one (1) or both of them;

"domestic partnership" means a conjugal relationship between two (2) persons who have registered a valid domestic partners declaration in accordance with Part II of the Vital Statistics Act R.S., c. 494, s. 1;

"ex parte" means without having to give notice or an opportunity for argument to the other party;

"family home" means an interest or right in real property located on Membertou lands that:

(a) is registered in the name of at least one (1) spouse or common-law partner in the Lands Register;

(b) is not a Membertou-owned or guaranteed home;

(c) two (2) spouses or common-law partners habitually reside in or, if they have separated or one (1) of them has died, they habitually resided in on the day on which they separated or the death of one (1) of them occurred; and

(d) was either:

(i) acquired during the relationship; or

(ii) acquired before the relationship, but in specific contemplation of the marriage or relationship, however, "family home" does not include any real property in Membertou lands that is received through inheritance or gift, unless it can be shown that the inheritance or gift was intended to be held by the spouses or common-law partners together;

"family violence" means any of the following acts or omissions committed by a spouse or common-law partner against the other spouse or common-law partner, any child in the charge of either spouse or common-law partner, or any other person who habitually resides in the family home, whether or not such act or omission occurs in the family home:

(a) an intentional application of force without lawful authority or consent, excluding any act committed in self-defence;

(b) an intentional or reckless act or omission that causes bodily harm or damage to property;

(c) an intentional, reckless or threatened act or omission that causes a reasonable fear of bodily harm or damage to property;

(d) sexual assault, sexual abuse or the threat of either;

(e) forcible confinement without lawful authority; or
(f) criminal harassment;

"INAC" means the federal department of Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada;

"Indian Act" means the Indian Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. I-5;

"interest or right" means:

(a) a right to possession, with or without a Certificate of Possession or Certificate of Occupation, allotted in accordance with section 20 of the Indian Act; and

(b) a lease under section 53 or 58 of the Indian Act.

"Lands Register" means the lands register established and maintained by INAC as required under section 21 of the Indian Act and section 22(2) of the First Nations Land Management Act;

"Law" means this Membertou Family Homes Law, 2016;

"member" means a person whose name appears on Membertou Membership List;

"Membertou" means Membertou within the meaning of the Indian Act for whose use and benefit in common Membertou lands have been set apart by Canada;

"Membertou council resolution" means a formal, documented decision made by a majority of Council at a duly convened meeting of Council;

"Membertou lands" means any and all of the following reserve lands:

(a) Sydney 28A;

(b) Membertou 28B;

(c) Caribou Marsh 29;

(d) Malagawatch 4; and

(e) lands set apart by Canada in the future as lands reserved for the use and benefit of Membertou, within the meaning of subsection 91(24) of the Constitution Act, 1867 and section 2(1) of the Indian Act.

"Membertou-owned or guaranteed home" means either:

(a) a home occupied by spouses or common-law partners registered in the name of Membertou; or

(b) a home occupied by spouses or common-law partners which is subject to an undischarged housing loan that names Membertou as a guarantor;

"real property" means immovable property such as land or a building or an object that, though at one time a chattel, has become permanently affixed to land or a building;

"spouse" means a person who:

(a) is married to another person, whether by a traditional, religious or civil ceremony;

(b) is in a domestic partnership; or

(c) has entered into a marriage that is voidable or void, in good faith on the part of a person relying on this clause to assert any right under this Law.

For greater certainty, the definitions of spouse and references to marriage in this Law include:

(a) spouses of the same gender;

(b) relationships entered into before this Law takes effect; and

(c) former spouses:

(i) for the purposes of enforcing rights or obligations under a court order or domestic agreement as defined in this Law, or

(ii) for asserting rights or obligations under this Law, so long as an application by a former spouse is commenced within one (1) year of divorce of the spouses;

"survivor" means the person who is still alive after the death of their spouse or common-law partner; and

"Vital Statistics Act" means the Vital Statistics Act, R.S., c. 494, s. 1.

Interpretation

3. This Law shall be interpreted in a fair, large and liberal manner.

4. The principles set out in the preamble to this Law may be used to interpret this Law.

5. In this Law:

(a) the use of the word "shall" denotes an obligation that, unless this Law provides to the contrary, shall be carried out as soon as practicable after this Law comes into effect or the event that gives rise to the obligation occurs;

(b) unless it is otherwise clear from the context, the use of the word "including" means "including, but not limited to", and the use of the word "includes" means "includes, but is not limited to";

(c) headings and subheadings are for convenience only, do not form a part of this Law and in no way define, limit, alter or enlarge the scope or meaning of any provision of this Law;

(d) a reference to a statute includes every amendment to it, every regulation made under it and any law enacted in substitution for it or in replacement of it;

(e) unless it is otherwise clear from the context, the use of the singular includes the plural, and the use of the plural includes the singular; and

(f) unless it is otherwise clear from the context, the use of the masculine includes the feminine, and the use of the feminine includes the masculine.

6. Where any law or regulation of Canada or the Province of Nova Scotia or any other Membertou law applies to any matter covered by this Law, compliance with this Law does not relieve any person from also complying with the provisions of the other applicable laws or regulations.

7. This law does not limit or preclude any right or remedy otherwise available to persons who are or may be affected by it pursuant to any other law applicable on the breakdown of a marriage or relationship with respect to property other than the family home and real property located on Membertou lands, or other entitlements or obligations of spouses.

8. This law does not limit or preclude the use of any method of alternative dispute resolution by spouses or common-law partners.

9. The structures, organizations and procedures established by or under this Law shall be interpreted in accordance with the culture, traditions and customs of the Mi'kmaw, unless otherwise provided.

10. The Mi'kmaw language may be used to clarify the meaning of any provision in this Law, if the meaning of that provision is not otherwise clear in English.

11. This Law does not abrogate or derogate from any Aboriginal or Treaty rights or freedoms that pertain to Membertou or its members.

Application

12. This Law applies in respect of:

(a) the use, enjoyment, occupation and possession of family homes located on Membertou lands; and

(b) the interests and rights of spouses and common-law partners in or to family homes located on Membertou lands.

13. This Law only applies to spouses and common-law partners if at least one (1) of them is a member.

14. This Law applies in respect of interests and rights acquired both before and after this Law takes effect.

15. This Law does not apply to bank accounts, household goods or other personal property. It only applies to a family home that is located on Membertou lands.

16. For greater certainty, this Law does not apply to an interest or right in or to a family home that is held by either spouse or common-law partner, or both spouses or common-law partners, where neither spouse or common-law partner is a member.

17. For greater certainty, this law does not apply to Membertou-owned or guaranteed homes, except for the purposes of emergency protection orders.

18. If any provision of this Law is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid provision shall be severed from and shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Law.

PART 3
DOMESTIC AGREEMENTS AND MEDIATION

Domestic Agreements

19. Spouses and common-law partners may make a domestic agreement that sets out the division of the value of their interests and rights in or to a family home in a manner that is different than the manner provided for under this Law.

Variation of Domestic Agreements

20. The court shall have authority, on application by a spouse or common-law partner who is a party to a domestic agreement, to vary the terms of that domestic agreement where the court is satisfied that the division of the value of interests and rights in or to a family home under that domestic agreement would be unfair or unconscionable because:

(a) a party to that agreement failed to disclose to the other party all of that party's interests and rights in or to a family home or other real property located on or off Membertou lands;

(b) a party to that agreement failed to disclose to the other party any material information in respect of that party's interests and rights in or to a family home or real property located on or off Membertou lands;

(c) a party to that agreement did not understand the nature or consequences of the provision in that agreement.

21. A domestic agreement is only enforceable if:

(a) it is made in writing;

(b) it is signed and dated by the parties;

(c) the parties had legal capacity at the time of execution; and

(d) the signatures of the parties are witnessed.

22. Notwithstanding section 19, a provision in a domestic agreement that gives, awards or acknowledges lawful possession in a family home to a person who is not a member is void.

23. In applying section 19, a provision in a domestic agreement that grants exclusive occupation of a family home to a person for their lifetime will be measured by the life of the person intended to enjoy it.

24. This part applies whether the parties entered into a domestic agreement on, before or after the date that this Law comes into force and effect.

Registration of Spousal Interest

25. A spouse or common-law partner who is a party to a domestic agreement may sign and register in the Lands Register, in a form prescribed by Council, a notice that sets out:

(a) the full name and last known address of each spouse or common-law partner who is a party to the domestic agreement;

(b) a description of the family home to which the domestic agreement relates; and

(c) the provisions of the domestic agreement that relate to the family home.

Mediation

26. Spouses and common-law partners who have a dispute about matters under this Law shall make a reasonable attempt to resolve that dispute through the use of a mutually agreed upon mediator in a process that accords with the traditions, customs and practices of the Mi'kmaw.

27. Mediation does not prevent a party from seeking a remedy from the court, especially in urgent circumstances.

PART 4
FAMILY HOMES

Occupation During Relationship

28. Subject to any Membertou laws regulating the use and occupation of Membertou lands, each spouse and common-law partner has a right to occupy the family home during the relationship, whether or not that person is a member.

Occupation after Death

29. (1) When a spouse or common-law partner dies, a survivor who does not hold an interest or right in or to the family home has a right to occupy the family home for a period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) days after the day on which the death occurs, whether or not the survivor is a member.

(2) A survivor or common-law partner who exercises their right under subsection (1) to occupy the family home following the death of their spouse or common-law partner shall, until the date they vacate the family home:

(a) maintain reasonable health, cleanliness, and sanitary standards throughout the family home;

(b) maintain the family home in substantially the same condition as it is in at the time that person begins to exercise their right under subsection (1);

(c) make minor repairs not identified in subsection 29(3);

(d) repair damage to the family home that is caused by the actions, omissions, recklessness or neglect of the survivor or a person permitted in the family home by the survivor; and

(e) if relevant, pay all property taxes and mortgage payments owed on the family home.

(3) For certainty, where a survivor exercises their right under subsection (1) to occupy the family home following the death of their spouse or common-law partner, the person who acquires lawful possession of the family home as a beneficiary either under a will, by order of a court or by intestacy shall make any repairs that:

(a) are urgent;

(b) are necessary for the health or safety of anyone or for the preservation or use of the family home as a residential property;

(c) are made for the purpose of repairing:

(i) major leaks in pipes or the roof,

(ii) damaged or blocked water or sewer pipes or plumbing fixtures,

(iii) the primary heating system,

(iv) damaged or defective locks that give access to the family home, or

(v) the electrical systems of the family home.

Common-law Partner Consent Not Required for Disposal of Family Home

30. Unless otherwise provided for in a domestic agreement, a common-law partner who holds an interest or right in or to a family home may dispose of or encumber their interest during the relationship without the free and informed written consent of their common-law partner, whether or not that person is a member.

Spousal Consent Required for Disposal of Family Home

31. Unless otherwise provided for in a domestic agreement, a spouse who holds an interest or right in or to a family home shall not dispose of or encumber their interest during the relationship without the free and informed written consent of their spouse whether or not that person is a member.

Disposal of Family Home without Consent

32. (1) If a spouse or common-law partner disposes of or encumbers their interest or right in or to a family home without the free and informed written consent of their spouse or common-law partner as required under either a domestic agreement or section 31, a court may, on application by the spouse or common-law partner who did not provide consent, grant an order:

(a) setting aside the transaction; and

(b) setting conditions on any future disposition or encumbrance of that interest by the spouse or common-law partner to whom the interest reverts.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the court may not set aside a disposition or encumbrance if the other contracting party to that disposition or encumbrance acquired it for value and acted in good faith.

Application for Damages

33. A spouse or common-law partner who has not provided free and informed written consent to a transaction for which such consent is required either by this Law or by a domestic agreement may, without prejudice to any other right, claim damages from the other spouse or common-law partner.

Burden to Prove Consent

34. A spouse or common-law partner who disposes of or encumbers their interest or right in or to a family home has the burden of proving that the other spouse or common-law partner provided free and informed written consent to the disposition or encumbrance in accordance with either a domestic agreement or section 31.

Order Allowing Disposal of Family Home without Consent

35. (1) A court may, on application by a spouse or common-law partner who holds an interest or right in or to a family home, grant an order authorizing that person to dispose of or encumber the family home without the required consent of their spouse or common-law partner subject to any conditions the court considers appropriate.

(2) A court may only make an order under subsection (1) in favour of a spouse or common-law partner if it is satisfied that the other spouse or common-law partner:

(a) cannot be found;

(b) is not capable of consenting; or

(c) is unreasonably withholding consent.

PART 5
EMERGENCY PROTECTION ORDERS

Application for Emergency Protection Order

36. A spouse or common-law partner may make an ex parte application for an emergency protection order and may do so even if that person has been forced to vacate the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home as a result of family violence.

37. A peace officer or other person may apply for an emergency protection order on behalf of a spouse or common-law partner either:

(a) with that spouse or common-law partner's consent; or

(b) if that spouse or common-law partner does not consent, with leave of the court.

Emergency Protection Order

38. A court may make an emergency protection order for a period of up to ninety (90) days if the court is satisfied that:

(a) family violence has occurred; and

(b) the order must be made without delay because of the seriousness or urgency of the situation to ensure the immediate protection of the person who is at risk of harm or property that is at risk of damage.

Conditions in Emergency Protection Order

39. An emergency protection order made under section 38 may include any of the following conditions:

(a) a provision granting the applicant exclusive occupation of the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home and reasonable access to that home;

(b) a provision requiring the applicant's spouse or common-law partner and any specified person who habitually resides in the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home — whether or not they are members — to vacate the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home, immediately or within a specified period, and prohibiting them from re-entering the home;

(c) a provision directing a peace officer, immediately or within a specified period, to remove the applicant's spouse or common-law partner and any specified person who habitually resides in the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home — whether or not they are members — from the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home;

(d) a provision prohibiting any person who is required to vacate the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home under a provision referred to in paragraph (b) from attending within a specified distance from the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home;

(e) a provision directing a peace officer, within a specified period, to accompany the applicant's spouse or common-law partner or any specified person to the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home or other location in order to supervise the removal of personal belongings; and

(f) any other provision that the court considers necessary for the immediate protection of the person who is at risk of harm or property that is at risk of damage.

Considerations

40. (1) In making an order under section 38, the best interests of any child or children who may be affected by the order shall be the paramount consideration.

(2) To determine what is in the best interests of a child, all of the child's rights, needs and circumstances shall be considered, including the following:

(a) the child's health and emotional well-being;

(b) the child's views, unless it would be inappropriate to consider them;

(c) the nature and strength of the relationships between the child and significant persons in the child's life;

(d) the history of the child's care;

(e) the child's right to stability, given the child's age and stage of development;

(f) the child's right to reside on Membertou lands and not to be removed or relocated from Membertou lands without their free, prior and informed consent;

(g) the impact of any family violence on the child's right to safety, security or well-being, whether the family violence is directed toward the child or another family member;

(h) whether the actions of a person responsible for family violence indicate that the person may be impaired in his or her ability to care for the child and meet the child's needs; and

(i) the child's right to recover, use, enjoy, preserve and pass on to future generations Membertou histories and language, oral traditions and culture.

(2) In making an order under section 38, the court shall also consider:

(a) the history and nature of the family violence;

(b) the existence of immediate danger to the person who is at risk of harm or property that is at risk of damage;

(c) the interests of any elderly person or person with a disability who habitually resides in the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home and for whom either spouse or common-law partner is the caregiver;

(d) the fact that a person, other than the spouses or common-law partners, holds an interest or right in or to the family home;

(e) the period during which the applicant has habitually resided on Membertou lands; and

(f) the existence of exceptional circumstances that necessitate the removal of a person other than the applicant's spouse or common-law partner from the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home in order to give effect to the granting to the applicant of exclusive occupation of that home, including the fact that the person has committed family violence against the applicant, any child in the charge of either spouse or common-law partner, or any other person who habitually resides in the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home.

Emergency Protection Order Binding

41. Any person against whom an order is made under section 38 and any person specified in an order made under section 38 are bound by it on receiving notice of it.

Notice of Emergency Protection Order

42. (1) A peace officer shall serve a copy of an order made under section 38 on the person against whom the order is made and any other person named in the order.

(2) Service under subsection (1) shall be by personal service unless the court authorizes service in another manner.

(3) The peace officer who serves a notice under subsection (1) shall, without delay, after such service is effected inform the person in whose favour the emergency protection order is made that the person against whom the order is made, and any other person named in the order, has been served.

Application to Vary or Revoke Emergency Protection Order

43. Any person in whose favour, or against whom, an order is made under section 38, or any person specified in an order under section 38, may apply to the court to have the order varied or revoked:

(a) within twenty one (21) days after the day on which notice under section 42 is served or with leave of the court; and

(b) only if there has been a material change in circumstances.

Notice of Application

44. (1) An applicant under section 43 shall, without delay, serve a copy of the

application:

(a) if the applicant is a person in whose favor the order under section 38 is made, to the person against whom the order is made and to any other person named in the order; and

(b) if the applicant is a person against whom the order under section 38 is made, to the person in whose favor the order is made and to any other person named in the order.

(2) Any person who is entitled to be served a copy of an application under subsection (1) has a right to appear before the court and make submissions with regard to their interests or rights in or to the family home or Membertou-owned or guaranteed home.

Confirm, Vary or Revoke Order

45. The court may confirm, vary or revoke an emergency protection order made under section 38 and may extend the duration of the emergency protection order beyond the period of ninety (90) days.

Considerations

46. In confirming, varying or revoking an order made under section 38, the court shall consider:

(a) all evidence that was relied on at the hearing in which the order was made under section 38;

(b) all evidence regarding a change in material circumstances; and

(c) the considerations set out in section 40.

Order Binding

47. Any person against whom an order under section 45 is made, and any person named in an order under section 45, is bound by it on receiving notice of it.

Notice of Emergency Protection Order

48. (1) If a person against whom an emergency protection order under section 45 is made, or another person named in an emergency protection order under section 45, is not present at the hearing, a peace officer shall serve a copy of the emergency protection order made under section 45 on that person.

(2) Service under subsection (1) shall be by personal service unless the court authorizes service in another manner.

(3) The peace officer who serves a notice under subsection (1) shall, without delay, after such service is effected inform the person in whose favour the emergency protection order is made that the person against whom the emergency protection order is made, and any person who is affected by the emergency protection order, has been served.

Exclusion of Public from Emergency Protection Order Hearing

49. (1) Subject to subsection (2), on application by either of the parties or on its own motion, a court may make one (1) or more of the following orders, subject to any conditions that the court specifies:

(a) an order excluding members of the public, other than the parties, from all or part of a hearing to grant an emergency protection order under sections 38 or 45;

(b) an order prohibiting the publication or broadcasting of any information from a hearing to grant an emergency protection order under sections 38 or 45, including the name of a party, witness or child in the charge of either party or any information likely to identify any of those persons; or

(c) an order prohibiting disclosure to the public of any information in a court document or record related to a hearing to grant an emergency protection order under sections 38 or 45.

(2) The court may only make an order under subsection (1) if it is satisfied that the order is necessary for:

(a) the safety of a party or witness;

(b) safety, physical or emotional well-being of a child; or

(c) protecting a party, witness or child from an undue hardship or adverse effect that could be caused by making the information public, and the need for such protection outweighs the public's right to the information.

PART 6
EXCLUSIVE OCCUPATION ORDER
(AT BREAKDOWN OF RELATIONSHIP)

Application for Exclusive Occupation Order

50. (1) A spouse may apply to the court for an order granting that person exclusive occupation of a family home that is not Membertou-owned or guaranteed upon breakdown of the relationship, whether or not that person is a member.

(2) A common-law partner may only apply to the court for an order granting that person exclusive occupation of a family home that is not Membertou-owned or guaranteed upon breakdown of the relationship where there are dependent children of the relationship.

Copy of an Application

51. (1) An applicant under section 50 shall, without delay, serve a copy of the application on:

(a) Council;

(b) any person who is nineteen (19) years of age or older, whom the applicant is seeking to have vacated from the family home; and

(c) any person who holds an interest or right in or to the family home.

(2) Any person who has been served a copy of an application under subsection (1) has a right to appear before the court and make submissions with regard to their interests or rights in or to the family home.

Exclusive Occupation Order

52. (1) A court may make an order that grants the applicant exclusive occupation of a family home that is not Membertou-owned or guaranteed, and reasonable access to that home, subject to any conditions set out in section 53, and for any period of time that the court determines is reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) Pending the determination of an application made under section 50, the court may make an interim order to the same effect as an order under subsection (1).

Content of Exclusive Occupation Order

53. An order under section 52 may contain a provision requiring any or all of the following:

(a) the applicant's spouse or common-law partner and any specified person — whether or not they are members — to vacate the family home, immediately or within a specified period of time, and prohibiting them from re-entering the home;

(b) the applicant's spouse or common-law partner to preserve the condition of the family home until that person vacates it;

(c) the applicant to make payments to their spouse or common-law partner toward the cost of other accommodation; or

(d) either spouse or common-law partner to pay for all or part of the repair and maintenance of the family home and for other liabilities arising in respect of the family home, or to make payments to the other spouse or common-law partner for those purposes.

Considerations

54. (1) In making an exclusive occupation order under section 52, the best interests of any child who may be affected by the order shall be the paramount consideration.

(2) To determine what is in the best interests of a child, all of the child's rights, needs and circumstances shall be considered, including the following:

(a) the child's health and emotional well-being;

(b) the child's views, unless it would be inappropriate to consider them;

(c) the nature and strength of the relationships between the child and significant persons in the child's life;

(d) the history of the child's care;

(e) the child's right to stability, given the child's age and stage of development;

(f) the child's right to reside on Membertou lands and not to be removed or relocated from Membertou lands without their free, prior and informed consent;

(g) the impact of any family violence on the child's right to safety, security or well-being, whether the family violence is directed toward the child or another family member;

(h) whether the actions of a person responsible for family violence indicate that the person may be impaired in his or her ability to care for the child and meet the child's needs; and

(i) the child's right to recover, use, enjoy, preserve and pass on to future generations Membertou histories and language, oral traditions and culture.

(2) In making an exclusive occupation order, the court shall also consider:

(a) the terms of any domestic agreement;

(b) the collective interests of members in their Membertou lands;

(c) any representations made by Council with respect to the cultural, social and legal context that pertains to the application;

(d) the period during which the applicant has habitually resided on Membertou lands;

(e) the financial situations and the medical conditions of the spouses or common-law partners;

(f) the availability of other suitable accommodation that is situated on Membertou lands;

(g) any existing order made on a matter related to the consequences of the breakdown of the relationship;

(h) any family violence;

(i) any acts or omissions by one of the spouses or common-law partners that reasonably constitute psychological abuse against the other spouse or common-law partner, any child in the charge of either spouse or common-law partner, or any other family member who habitually resides in the family home;

(j) the existence of exceptional circumstances that necessitate the removal of a person other than the applicant's spouse or common-law partner from the family home in order to give effect to the granting to the applicant of exclusive occupation of that home, including the fact that the person has committed acts or omissions that constitute family violence, or reasonably constitute psychological abuse, against the applicant, any child in the charge of either spouse or common-law partner, or any other family member who habitually resides in the family home;

(k) the interests of any elderly person or person with a disability who habitually resides in the family home and for whom either spouse or common-law partner is the caregiver;

(l) the fact that a person, other than the spouses or common-law partners, holds an interest or right in or to the family home; and

(m)the views of any person who received a copy of the application, presented to the court in any form that the court allows.

Emergency Protection Order Revoked

55. An existing emergency protection order in favour of or against one of the spouses or common-law partners is revoked when the court makes an order under section 52, except to the extent specified by the court in either order.

Notice of Exclusive Occupation Order

56. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who is granted an order under section 52 shall, without delay serve a copy of the order on those persons who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

(2) If directed by the court, a peace officer shall serve a copy of an order made under section 52 on those persons who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

Application to Vary or Revoke Exclusive Occupation Order

57. If there has been a material change in circumstances, any of the following persons may apply to a court to have an order made under section 52 or 59 varied or revoked:

(a) any person in whose favour or against whom an order made under section 52 or 59 is made;

(b) any person specified in order made under section 52 or 59; or

(c) the holder of an interest or right in or to the family home to which an order made under section 52 or 59 relates.

Notice of Application

58. (1) An applicant under section 57 shall, without delay, send a copy of the application to:

(a) Council;

(b) if the applicant is a person in whose favour an order was made under section 52 or 59, to the person against whom the order was made;

(c) if the applicant is a person against whom an order was made under section 52 or 59, to the person in whose favour the order was made;

(d) any person who is named in the order made under section 52 or 59; and

(e) any person who holds an interest or right in or to the family home to which the order made under section 52 or 59 relates.

(2) Any person who is entitled to be served a copy of an application under subsection (1) has a right to appear before the court and make submissions with regard to their interests or rights in or to the family home.

Court Order

59. The court may, by order, confirm, vary or revoke an order made under section 52 or this section.

Considerations

60. In confirming, varying or revoking an order under section 59, the court shall consider:

(a) all evidence that was relied on at the hearing in which the order was made under section 52 or 59;

(b) all evidence regarding a change in material circumstances; and

(c) the considerations set out in section 54.

Notice of Order

61. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who is granted an order under section 59 shall, without delay serve a copy of the order on those persons who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

(2) If directed by the court, a peace officer shall serve a copy of an order made under section 59 on those persons who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

PART 7
EXCLUSIVE OCCUPATION ORDER
(AFTER DEATH OF A SPOUSE OR COMMON-LAW PARTNER)

Application for an Exclusive Occupation Order after Death of a Spouse or Common-law Partner

62. A survivor may apply to the court for an order granting the survivor exclusive occupation of a family home that is not Membertou-owned or guaranteed, whether or not that person is a member.

Notice of Application

63. (1) An applicant under section 62 shall, without delay serve a copy of the application on:

(a) Council;

(b) the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate, if the applicant knows who those persons are;

(c) the Minister;

(d) any person who is of the age of majority or over, whom the applicant is seeking to have the court order to vacate the family home; and

(e) any person who holds an interest or right in or to the family home.

(2) Any person who has a right to be served a copy of the application has a right to appear before the court and make submissions with regard to their interests or rights in or to the family home.

Court Order

64. (1) A court may make an order granting a survivor exclusive occupation of a family home that is not Membertou-owned or guaranteed, and reasonable access to that home, subject to any conditions set out in section 65, and for any period that the court determines is reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) Pending the determination of an application made under section 62, the court may make an interim order to the same effect as an order under subsection (1).

Content of Order

65. An order under section 64 may contain provisions requiring any or all of the following:

(a) the survivor to preserve the condition of the family home;

(b) any specified person, whether or not that person holds an interest or right in or to the family home to vacate it immediately, or within a specified period, and prohibiting them from re-entering the home;

(c) the survivor, executor of the will, the administrator of the estate, or the holder of an interest or right in or to the family home to pay for all or part of the repair and maintenance of the family home and of other liabilities arising in respect of it; or

(d) any other condition the court considers is just and appropriate in the circumstances.

Considerations

66. (1) In making an order under section 64, the best interests of any child who may be affected by the order shall be the paramount consideration.

(2) To determine what is in the best interests of a child, all of the child's rights, needs and circumstances shall be considered, including the following:

(a) the child's health and emotional well-being;

(b) the child's views, unless it would be inappropriate to consider them;

(c) the nature and strength of the relationships between the child and significant persons in the child's life;

(d) the history of the child's care;

(e) the child's right to stability, given the child's age and stage of development;

(f) the child's right to reside on Membertou lands and not to be removed or relocated from Membertou lands without their free, prior and informed consent;

(g) the impact of any family violence on the child's right to safety, security or well-being, whether the family violence is directed toward the child or another family member;

(h) whether the actions of a person responsible for family violence indicate that the person may be impaired in his or her ability to care for the child and meet the child's needs; and

(i) the child's right to recover, use, enjoy, preserve and pass on to future generations Membertou histories and language, oral traditions and culture;

(3) In making an exclusive occupation order, the court shall also consider:

(a) the terms of the deceased spouse or common-law partner's will;

(b) the terms of any domestic agreement;

(c) the collective interests of members in Membertou lands;

(d) any representations made by Council with respect to the cultural, social and legal context that pertains to the application;

(e) the financial and medical condition of the survivor;

(f) the period during which the survivor has habitually resided on Membertou lands;

(g) the fact that the family home is the only property of significant value in the estate;

(h) the interests of any person who holds or may have a right to an interest or right in or to the family home;

(i) the interests of any elderly person or person with a disability who habitually resides in the family home and for whom the survivor is the caregiver;

(j) the existence of exceptional circumstances that necessitate the removal of a person from the family home in order to give effect to the granting to the survivor of exclusive occupation of that home, including the fact that the person has committed acts or omissions that constitute family violence, or reasonably constitute psychological abuse, against the survivor, any child in the charge of the survivor, or any other family member who habitually resides in the family home; and

(k) the views of any person who received a copy of the application, that were presented to the court in any form that the court allows.

Notice of Order

67. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a survivor who is granted an order under section 64 shall, without delay, serve notice of the order on those persons who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

(2) If directed by the court, a peace officer shall serve a copy of an order under section 64 on those persons who received a copy of the application.

Application to Vary or Revoke Exclusive Occupation Order after Death of a Spouse or Common Law Partner

68. If there has been a material change in circumstances, the following persons may apply to the court to have an order granted under section 64 or 70 varied or revoked:

(a) the survivor to whom the order under section 64 or 70 is granted;

(b) the executor of the will or administrator of the deceased spouse or common-law partner's estate;

(c) any person specified in an order made under section 64 or 70; or

(d) the holder of an interest or right in or to the family home.

Copy of an Application

69. (1) An applicant under section 68 shall, without delay send a copy of the application to every person who is entitled to receive an application under section 63.

(2) Any person who is entitled to be served a copy of the application has a right to appear before the court and make submissions with regard to their interests or rights in or to the family home.

Court Order

70. The court may make an order that confirms, varies or revokes an order made under section 64 or this section and may include in such order any provisions set out in section 65.

Considerations

71. In confirming, varying or revoking an order under section 70 the court shall consider:

(a) all evidence that was relied on at the hearing in which the order was made under section 64 or 70;

(b) all evidence regarding a change in material circumstances; and

(c) the considerations set out in section 66.

Notice of Order

72. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who is granted an order under section 70 shall, without delay serve a copy of the order on those who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

(2) If directed by the court, a peace officer shall serve a copy of an order made under section 70 on those persons who are entitled to receive a copy of the application.

PART 8
DIVISION OF THE VALUE OF A FAMILY HOME (UPON BREAKDOWN OF MARRIAGE OR DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIP)

Notice of Applications Made Under This Part

73. An applicant under this Part shall, without delay, serve a copy of the application they are making on their spouse.

Application by Spouse

74. A spouse may apply to the court for a determination of each spouse's entitlement under section 78.

75. An application under section 74 shall be made within three (3) years after the day on which the relationship ended.

Court Order

76. A court may make an order to determine any matter in respect of each spouse's entitlements under section 78, including:

(a) the amount payable by one spouse or common-law partner to the other; and

(b) that the amount payable be settled by

(i) payment of the amount in a lump sum,

(ii) payment of the amount by installments,

(iii) the set-off or compensation of any amounts owed by one spouse or common-law partner to the other, or

(iv) any combination of the methods referred to in subparagraphs (i) to (iii).

Valuation Date

77. For the purposes of section 78, "valuation date" means the earliest of the following days:

(a) the day on which they separated with no reasonable prospect of reconciliation;

(b) the day on which a judgment granting they divorce is rendered;

(c) the day on which their marriage is declared a nullity;

(d) the day on which one of the spouses made an application related to the consequences of the breakdown of the marriage; and

(e) the day on which one of the spouses is granted an order under section 80.

Entitlement on Breakdown of Relationship

78. (1) When a relationship breaks down

(a) each spouse is entitled to an amount equal to one half (1/2) of the appreciation of the family home from the date that the spouses became spouses to the valuation date.

(b) a common-law partner is only entitled to a division of the value of a family home granted through a domestic agreement on the terms set out in the domestic agreement.

Assessing Value

79. (1) Subject to subsection (2), an assessment of the value of a family home is the amount that a buyer would reasonably be expected to pay for a family home on Membertou lands that is comparable to the family home in question on the valuation date, less the amount:

(a) of any outstanding debts or other liabilities assumed for acquiring the family home or for improving or maintaining the family home; and

(b) that a buyer would have reasonably have been expected to pay for a family home on Membertou lands that is comparable to the family home in question on the date the spouses became spouses.

(2) Despite subsection (1), spouses may enter a domestic agreement determining the value of a family home on any basis they desire to make such determination.

(3) A party to a domestic agreement made under subsection (2) has a right to register that domestic agreement in the Lands Register.

Interim Order to Protect and Preserve an Interest

80. On application by a spouse who has initiated an application under this Part, a court may make any order it considers necessary to protect and preserve an interest or right in or to the family home until a final determination is made under this Part.

Enforcement of Domestic Agreements

81. (1) If spouses or common-law partners enter into a domestic agreement that:

(a) sets out the amount to which each is entitled with respect to the family home and how to settle the amount payable by one of the methods referred to in subparagraphs 76(b)(i), (ii) or (iiii) or any combination of those methods; or

(b) sets out that one of the spouses or common-law partners will have a right to exclusive occupation of the family home for a specified period of time following the separation of the spouses or common-law partners or the death of a spouse or common-law partner, a court may, on application by one of them, make an order to enforce that domestic agreement if the court is satisfied that the consent of both parties to the domestic agreement is free and informed, and that the domestic agreement is not unconscionable, having regard to the factors listed in section 20.

(2) A court may on application by a party to a domestic agreement, set aside a provision in a domestic agreement with respect to a family home:

(a) if a party to that contract failed to disclose to the other party all of their interests in Membertou land, or any material information in respect of those interests;

(b) if a party did not understand the nature or consequences of the provision; or

(c) otherwise in accordance with the law of contract.

(3) A party to a domestic agreement made under subsection (1) has a right to register that domestic agreement in the Reserve Lands Register.

PART 9
GENERAL

Representations by Council

82. (1) On the request of Council, the court that is seized of any application shall allow Council to make representations with respect to the cultural, social and legal context that pertains to the application and to present its views about whether or not the order shall be made.

(2) Where Council makes representations under subsection (1), the Court shall consider such representations in making an order under this Law.

Notice of Order to Council

83. Unless otherwise required by this Law, when the court makes an order under this Law that is not an order under section 49, the person in whose favour the order is made shall send, without delay, a copy of the order to the Council.

Liability of Peace Officer Limited

84. An action or other proceeding shall not be instituted against a peace officer for any act or omission done in good faith in the execution or intended execution of the peace officer's duties under this Law.

Interest or Right Not Affected

85. An order made under any of Parts 5 to 7 will not:

(a) change who holds an interest or right in or to the family home; or

(b) prevent an executor of a will or an administrator of an estate from transferring an interest or right in or to the family home to a named beneficiary under the will or to a beneficiary on intestacy.

Effect of Order on Obligations under a Lease

86. When an order made under any of Parts 5 to 7 grants exclusive occupation of the family home to a spouse, common-law partner or survivor who is not a lessee under the lease for the family home, the spouse, common-law partner or survivor is bound by the lease during the period of the order and is responsible to the lessor for the obligations under the lease of the lessee.

Offence

87. Any person who contravenes one of the following orders is guilty of an offence:

(a) an emergency protection order made section 38 or 45;

(b) a provision referred to in paragraph 53(a) contained in an exclusive occupation order made under section 52 or 59; or

(c) a provision referred to in paragraph 65(b) contained in an order made under section 64 or 70.

88. (1) A person who is found guilty of an offence under section 87 is punishable on summary conviction and liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000) or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three (3) months, or to both.

(2) A fine imposed under subsection (1) is payable directly to Membertou.

PART 10
JURISDICTION OF COURTS

Divorce Proceeding Pending

89. When a divorce proceeding — as defined in subsection 2(1) of the Divorce Act — between spouses is pending, the court that has jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter has jurisdiction to hear and determine an application by one of the spouses under this Law.

Other Family Proceedings Pending

90. When a proceeding, other than a divorce proceeding, related to the consequences of the breakdown of a relationship is pending, the court that is seized of the matter has jurisdiction to hear and determine an application by the spouse or common-law partner.

No Pending Family Proceedings

91. If no divorce proceeding is pending and no court is seized of a matter related to the consequences of the breakdown of a relationship, the court that has jurisdiction to hear and determine an application by a spouse or common-law partner under this Law is the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia.

Proceedings on Death Pending

92. A court that is seized of a matter related to the distribution of property on the death of a spouse has jurisdiction to hear and determine an application made under this Law by the survivor, the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate.

No Proceedings on Death Pending

93. If no court is seized of a matter referred to in section 92, the courts that have jurisdiction to hear and determine an application made under this Law by the survivor, the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate are:

(a) the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia; and

(b) the Probate Court of Nova Scotia.

Possibility of Joinder

94. An application made under this Law, except under Part 5, may be heard in the same proceeding as another application related to the consequences of the breakdown of the relationship or the death of one of the spouses or common-law partners.

Right of Appeal — Divorce Proceeding

95. An order made under this Law in a divorce proceeding as defined in subsection 2(1) of the Divorce Act is deemed, for the purposes of section 21 of that Act, to be an order made under that Act.

Right of Appeal — Other Proceeding

96. Any other order made under this Law, except under Parts 4 and 5, may be appealed to the court exercising appellate jurisdiction over the court that made the order.

PART 11
RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Definitions

97. The following definitions apply in this Part:

"appellate court", in respect of an appeal from a court, means the court exercising appellate jurisdiction with respect to that appeal; and

"competent authority" means the body, person or group of persons ordinarily competent under the laws of Nova Scotia to make rules regulating the practice and procedure in the court that is hearing a proceeding under this Law.

Rules

98. Subject to sections 99 to 105, a competent authority may make rules applicable to any proceedings under this Law, including rules:

(a) regulating the practice and procedure in the court, including the addition of persons as parties to the proceedings;

(b) respecting the conduct and disposition of any proceedings under this Law without an oral hearing;

(c) regulating the sittings of the court;

(d) respecting the fixing and awarding of costs;

(e) prescribing and regulating the duties of officers of the court;

(f) respecting the transfer of proceedings under this Law to or from the court; and

(g) prescribing and regulating any other matter considered expedient to attain the ends of justice and carry into effect the purposes and provisions of this Law.

Exercise of Power to Make Rules

99. The power to make rules conferred by section 98 on a competent authority shall be exercised in the like manner and subject to the like terms and conditions, if any, as the power to make rules conferred on that authority by the laws of Nova Scotia.

Provincial Laws of Evidence

100. The laws of evidence of Nova Scotia, including the laws of proof of service of any document, apply to proceedings under this Law.

Continuation of Proceedings on Death of Party

101. When a spouse or common-law partner makes an application under Part 6 or 8, and both spouses or common-law partners or one of them dies before the application is disposed of, the application may be continued by or against the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate of the spouse or common-law partner who dies.

Continuation of Application by Survivor after Death of Party

102. When a survivor makes an application under Part 8 and the survivor dies before the application is disposed of, the application may be continued by the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate of the survivor.

Continuation of Application by Executor or Administrator after Death of Party

103. When an executor of a will or an administrator of an estate makes an application under Part 8 and the survivor dies before the application is disposed of, the application may be continued against the executor of the will or the administrator of the estate of the survivor.

Council Power to Make Regulations

104. The Council may make regulations that the Council considers necessary for carrying out the purposes and provisions of this Law, including regulations making rules that are applicable to any proceedings under this Law and prescribing anything that by this Law is to be prescribed.

Regulations Prevail

105. Any regulations that may be made under section 104 to provide for uniformity in the rules made under section 98 prevail over those rules.

PART 12
PROOF OF LAW AND ACCESS TO COPIES OF LAW

106. A copy of this Law appearing to be certified as a true copy by an officer of Membertou is proof of the original without proof of the officer's signature or official character.

107. The Council shall ensure that a copy of this Law, as amended from time to time, is on the Membertou website and is available for public inspection at locations designated by the Council and may make it public by any other means of communication that the Council considers appropriate.

PART 13
AMENDMENT OR REPEAL

108. For the purposes of this Part, the following definitions apply:

"eligible voter" means, for the purpose of voting in relation to a major amendment to this Law, a member who has attained the age of eighteen (18) years on or before the last day of the vote;

"major amendment" means an amendment that is not a minor amendment, and includes a repeal of this Law;

"members-at-large meeting" means a meeting convened by Council for the purpose of approving major amendments to this Law;

"minor amendment" means an amendment that:

(a) corrects typographical errors;

(b) is required to reference any relevant new or amended Membertou or other applicable laws;

(c) is ordered by any Court; or

(d) serves to clarify the Law, where there is no reasonable dispute about the intention underlying the original provision.

Major Amendments

109. (1) A major amendment to this Law must be approved by eligible voters at a members-at-large meeting that is convened by Council for the purpose of amending this Law.

Rights of Eligible Voter

110. Each eligible voter has a right to vote in a members-at-large meeting.

Right to Attend Members-At-Large Meeting

111. Any member may attend a members-at-large meeting.

112. A person other than a member may attend a members-at-large meeting with the permission of Council.

More Than One Meeting

113. Council may schedule and hold more than one members-at-large meeting to discuss and decide on a major amendment to this Law.

Quorum for Members-At-Large Meeting

114. The quorum for a members-at-large meeting is ten percent (10%) of all eligible voters.

Voting at a Members-At-Large Meeting

115. Voting at a members-at-large meeting may be conducted by various methods, as determined by Council, including any of the following methods or combinations thereof, one of which shall provide an opportunity for persons residing off Membertou lands to vote:

(a) ballots cast in person by secret ballot at the members-at-large meeting;

(b) a show of hands at the members-at-large meeting;

(c) mail-in-ballots; or

(d) electronic ballots.

Requirements for Approval at Members-At-Large Meeting

116. A matter shall be considered to be approved at a members-at-large meeting if:

(a) at least ten percent (10%) of eligible voters cast a vote on the matter; and

(b) a majority of those eligible voters who cast a vote are in favor of the matter.

Notice of Members-At-Large Meeting

117. (1) Council shall provide eligible voters with written notice of a members-at-large meeting by:

(a) at least twenty-one (21) days' before the members-at-large meeting, posting a written notice in a public area of each public building on Membertou lands;

(b) at least twenty-one (21) days' before the members-at-large meeting, either:

(i) delivering a written notice to each eligible voter at their last known mailing address, or
