FOREWORD

FIRST NATIONS GAZETTE

www.fng.ca

The inaugural issue of the First Nations Gazette was published in 1997, under the joint auspices of the Indian Taxation Advisory Board and the Native Law Centre. The vision for the Gazette was to provide official notice of and access to First Nation laws, particularly those dealing with property taxation matters. Over the past number of years, the First Nations Gazette has ensured that all those engaged with reserve lands are aware of the First Nation's governance over those lands.

The First Nations Gazette is published by the First Nations Tax Commission in conjunction with the Native Law Centre. The publication of the First Nations Gazette is governed by an Editorial Board.

In 2014, the First Nations Gazette transitioned to an exclusively electronic publication. While the Gazette is no longer being printed or distributed in hard copy format, it can be accessed, free of charge, on the First Nations Gazette website at fng.ca.

Part II of the digital Gazette, which is a register of First Nation legislation, is consolidated monthly, with the specific content of each volume listed in a hyperlinked table of contents. The First Nation legislation contained in Part II include laws required by federal statute to be published in the First Nations Gazette, and any other laws, by-laws and codes enacted by First Nations and submitted to the Gazette for publication.

The following laws are required by federal statute to be published in the First Nations Gazette:

- Local revenue laws enacted under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act and approved by the First Nations Tax Commission;
- Financial administration laws enacted under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act and approved by the First Nations Financial Management Board;
- Laws enacted under the First Nations Goods and Services Tax Act; and

First Nations may submit other laws, by-laws and codes for publication, such as

- By-laws enacted under sections 81 and 85.1 of the Indian Act;
- By-laws enacted under section 83 of the Indian Act and approved by the Minister of Indigenous and Northern Affairs;
- Land management codes adopted in accordance with the First Nations Land Management Act; and
- Election codes enacted under the First Nations Elections Act.

Format

As of July 2015, the Gazette reproduces all laws, by-laws and codes in the exact form in which they were submitted to the Gazette, including any errors or omissions. This process preserves the authenticity of the legislation in the form submitted to the Gazette. Although legislation is reproduced in its original form using a digital imaging process, the Gazette reserves the right to alter the layout of these documents for compilation and publication purposes. These alterations may include, but are not limited to, altering the page sizing and orientation, and the addition of page numbering, headers and footers. Laws, by-laws, and codes enacted by First Nations are published in the language in which they were approved.

Citation of Laws, By-laws, and Codes

Any law, by-law, or code published in the digital First Nations Gazette may be cited to the annual volume in which it is contained, for example, Kanaka Bar Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015, F.N. Gaz. 2016.20. The citation, as shown in the example, includes the following elements: Title, Gazette abbreviation, year, volume.

Warranty Disclaimer and Limitation of Liability

The laws, by-laws, and codes enacted by First Nations are reproduced in the First Nations Gazette in the exact form as they were submitted to the Gazette. The Gazette is provided as a public service. All content is provided “as is”, and the publisher expressly disclaims all warranties, representations and conditions of any kind respecting the Gazette content, whether express, implied or statutory, including without limitation respecting the validity, accuracy or reliability of any content in the Gazette. All implied warranties or conditions, including without limitation, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title or non-infringement, or arising from a course of dealing, usage, or trade practice, are expressly disclaimed.

Under no circumstances will the publisher be liable to any person or entity for any loss or damage (including, without limitation, loss of profit, loss of contracts and other indirect or consequential loss) arising out of or in connection with that person’s access to, use of, or reliance on the Gazette, whether caused by the negligence of the publisher or otherwise.

PRÉFACE

GAZETTE DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS

www.fng.ca

La première édition de la Gazette des premières nations a été publiée en 1997 sous les auspices de la Commission consultative de la fiscalité indienne et du Native Law Centre. La Gazette a été conçue pour donner la notification officielle des textes législatifs des premières nations, en particulier ceux portant sur les questions d'imposition foncière, ainsi que pour assurer l'accès à ces textes. Au cours des dernières années, la Gazette des premières nations a permis d'informer tous les intervenants concernés de l'exercice par des premières nations de leur gouvernance sur les terres de réserve.

À l'heure actuelle, la Gazette des premières nations est publiée par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations en collaboration avec le Native Law Centre. La publication de la Gazette des premières nations relève d'un Comité de rédaction.

En 2014, le passage de la Gazette des premières nations à une publication exclusivement électronique s'est fait avec succès. Bien qu'elle ne soit plus imprimée ou distribuée en format papier, vous pouvez continuer d'y accéder, gratuitement, sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations à l'adresse fng.ca.

La partie II de la Gazette numérique, qui consiste en un registre des lois des Premières nations, est consolidée chaque mois, et le contenu particulier de chaque volume est énuméré dans une table des matières hyperliée. Les lois des Premières nations qui se trouvent dans la partie II comprennent les lois qui doivent être publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations en vertu d'une loi fédérale, et tous autres lois, règlements administratifs et codes adoptés par les Premières nations et soumis à la Gazette aux fins de publication.

Les lois ci-dessous doivent être publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations en vertu d'une loi fédérale :

- les lois sur les recettes locales adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations et approuvées par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations;
- les lois sur l'administration financière adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations et approuvées par le Conseil de gestion financière des Premières Nations;
- les lois adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la taxe sur les produits et services des premières nations.

Les Premières nations peuvent soumettre d'autres lois, règlements administratifs et codes aux fins de publication, comme les suivants :

- les règlements administratifs adoptés en vertu de l'article 81 ou 85.1 de la Loi sur les Indiens;
- les règlements administratifs adoptés en vertu de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens et approuvés par la ministre des Affaires autochtones et du Nord;
- les codes de gestion des terres adoptés en vertu de la Loi sur la gestion des terres des premières nations;
- les codes électoraux adoptés en vertu de la Loi sur les élections au sein de premières nations.

Format

En date de juillet 2015, la Gazette reproduit tous les lois, règlements administratifs et codes dans la forme exacte où ils lui sont soumis, y compris toute erreur ou omission. Ce processus permet de préserver l'authenticité des lois dans la forme où elles sont soumises à la Gazette. Bien que les lois soient reproduites dans leur forme originale à l'aide d'un processus d'imagerie numérique, la Gazette se réserve le droit de modifier la présentation de ces documents aux fins de compilation et de publication. Ces modifications peuvent comprendre, sans s'y limiter, la modification de la taille et de l'orientation des pages et l'ajout de

Renvois aux lois, règlements administratifs et codes

Les renvois aux lois, règlements administratifs ou codes publiés dans la Gazette numérique se font par indication du volume annuel où ils sont publiés, par exemple, Kanaka Bar Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015, F.N. Gaz. 2016.20. La référence contenue dans cet exemple comporte les éléments suivants : Titre, abréviation de la Gazette, année, volume.

Les lois, les règlements administratifs et les codes adoptés par les Premières nations sont reproduits dans la Gazette des premières nations dans la forme exacte où ils lui ont été soumis. La Gazette est offerte à titre de service public. Tout le contenu est fourni « tel quel », et l'éditeur décline expressément toute responsabilité à l'égard de toute garantie, déclaration ou condition de quelque nature que ce soit se rapportant au contenu de la Gazette, qu'elle soit expresse, tacite ou légale, y compris, sans limitation, concernant la validité, l'exactitude ou la fiabilité de tout contenu de la Gazette. Toutes conditions ou garanties implicites, y compris, sans limitation, les garanties implicites de commercialité, d'adaptation à un usage particulier, de propriété ou de non contrefaçon, ou découlant d'une transaction, d'un emploi ou d'une pratique commerciale, sont expressément rejetées.

En aucun cas, l'éditeur ne pourra être tenu responsable envers une personne ou une entité de pertes ou de dommages (y compris, sans limitation, les pertes de profits, les pertes de contrats ou toutes autres pertes indirectes ou consécutives) découlant de son accès à la Gazette, de son utilisation de celle-ci ou de sa confiance dans celle-ci, ou en rapport avec cet accès, cette utilisation ou cette confiance, que ces pertes ou ces dommages aient été causés par la négligence de l'éditeur ou autrement.

section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III ADMINISTRATION

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.

(3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of [insert title], assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator's responsibilities include

- (a) the collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and
- (b) the day to day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

PART IV LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

Tax Liability

5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law.

(2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law.

(3) Where an interest in land is exempt from taxation under paragraph 7(1)(a) or (b), that exemption does not affect the liability to taxation of other holders of interests in the same property.

(4) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.

(5) Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

(2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

(3) Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the tax administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

- (a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;
- (b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal

Current ver. 2018 03 28

banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V

EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

[Note to First Nation: The First Nation should determine what, if any, exemptions it wishes to provide in its law. Refer to the Taxation Law Standards for further information and limitations on the types of exemptions that may be included. The following are examples of exemptions a First Nation may wish to consider in its law.]

7.(1) The following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

(a) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

(b) subject to subsection (2), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

(c) a building used for public school purposes or for a purpose ancillary to the operation of a public school, and the land on which the building stands;

(d) a building used or occupied by a religious body and used for public worship, religious education or as a church hall, and the land on which the building stands;

(e) a building used solely as a hospital, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(f) a building used as a university, technical institute or public college, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands;

(g) an institutional building used to provide housing accommodation for the elderly or persons suffering from physical or mental disability, not operated for profit, and the land on which the building stands; and

(h) that land of a cemetery actually used for burial purposes.

(2) The exemptions in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where that interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.]

(3) [Note to First Nation: This wording may be included if exemptions are included that apply to buildings. An exemption from taxation applies only to that portion of a building occupied or used for the purpose for which the exemption is granted, and a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.]

GRANTS

[Note to First Nation: The First Nation should consider what, if any, grants it wishes to provide in its law. The qualifying requirements for grants must be set out in this law, with the amounts to be determined each year in an expenditure law. The following are examples of possible grants.]

Current ver. 2018 03 28

Grants for Surrounding Land

8. Where a building is exempted from taxation under this Law, Council may provide to the holder a grant equivalent to the taxes payable on that area of land surrounding the building determined by Council to be reasonably necessary in connection with it.

Annual Grants

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder:

- (a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation;
- (b) where the holder would be entitled to a grant under the provisions of the Home Owner Grant Act (BC) if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government; and
- (c) [set out qualifying criteria for other grant programs].

(2) Grants provided under subsection (1)

- (a) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year;
- (b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants; and
- (c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year.

(3) A grant under paragraph (1)(b) must be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Home Owner Grant Act (BC) if the holder's property was subject to taxation by a local government.

(4) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.]

PART VII LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

10.(1) On or before May 28 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

11.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before July 2 of the taxation year in which they are levied.

(2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

43.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 30(2), other than a trust account or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 30(2)(a).

- (3) All interest earned on
 - (a) a trust account must be retained in that account; and
 - (b) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(4) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

45. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off
- (a) if approved by the Council; or
 - (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

46. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only
- (a) if approved by the Council; or
 - (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

47.(1) Subject to subsection (2), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 30(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

48.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a law made under paragraph 5(1)(d) of the Act, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

49.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

50.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

51.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 30(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

52. Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

53.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 90(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 90(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

54. Subject to this Law and a law made under paragraph 5(1)(d) of the Act, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 51(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

55.(1) Subject to this section and any law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 61(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

56. A security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

Operational Controls

57. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

58.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or
- (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
- (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

59.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

- (a) authorized under section 103;
- (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
- (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 103, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

60.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

61.(1) Money in an account described in section 30 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 30, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 62.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds; and
- (b) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

62.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,

- (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
- (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and
- (d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.
- (4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

63.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

64.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

65.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 64 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

66.(1) In this section:

“fraudulent financial reporting” means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

“fraudulent non-financial reporting” means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

67. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

68. If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

69.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

70.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and
- (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

71.(1) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(2) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 25(2).

(4) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(5) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Special Purpose Reports

72. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 62(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

- 73.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of
- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or
 - (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.
- (2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation
- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board Standards, where applicable, or
 - (b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.
- (3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must
- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and
 - (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant
 - (i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and
 - (ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.
- (4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances
- (a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and
 - (b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

- 74.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to
- (a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and
 - (b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.
- (2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

- (a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and
- (b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

- (a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

75.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(3) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

- (a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and
- (b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 72.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

76.(1) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(2) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

77.(1) Before the annual financial statements may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by the Council;

- (b) be signed by
 - (i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,
 - (ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (iii) the senior financial officer; and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

Annual Report

78.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

- (2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:
- (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
 - (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
 - (c) the audited annual financial statements of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year; and
 - (d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 72, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

- (3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)
- (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
 - (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
 - (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

- (a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and
- (b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

79.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

80.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

81.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

82.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

83. If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

84. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

85. In this Part:

“capital project” means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

“First Nation's tangible capital assets” means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

- (a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,
- (b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,
- (c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and
- (d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 89;

“rehabilitation” includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

86. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;

(b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and

(c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

87. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

88. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 91 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

89.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;

- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;
- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out
 - (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
 - (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
 - (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

- (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
- (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

90.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 89 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

91.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;
- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

92. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

93. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

94.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

95. Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

- (a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
- (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

- (c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and
- (d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

96.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

97. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

98.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

- (a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,
- (b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,
- (c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or
- (d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

99.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 98(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 98, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

100.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 98 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 98 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 98 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 98; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 98.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

101.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or a law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) or (d) of the Act is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

102.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

- (b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

“First Nation official” means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

103.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
- (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

104. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

105. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 23, 25, 26, 28, 67-71, 73-77, 83, 94 and 95 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 3 day of May, 2018, at Chapleau, in the Province of ON at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of 3 () members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual's private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual's ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual's private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual's “private interests” means the individual's personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

- (a) the individual's spouse,
- (b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,
- (c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual's spouse is acting as guardian,
- (d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual's spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and
- (e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

- (a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or
- (b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

- (a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);
- (b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;
- (c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and
- (d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

- (a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;
- (b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and
- (c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

- (i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,
- (ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
- (iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(2) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

- (d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

- (a) to members of the public; or
- (b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

Version courante 2018 03 28

(2) La loi fixant les taux d'imposition peut prévoir des taux d'imposition différents pour chacune des catégories de biens fonciers.

(3) Les impôts sont prélevés par l'application du taux d'imposition à chaque tranche de mille dollars (1 000 $) de la valeur imposable de l'intérêt foncier.

(4) Les impôts prélevés en vertu de la présente loi sont réputés avoir été imposés le 1^{er} janvier de l'année d'imposition dans laquelle le prélèvement est initialement fait.

(5) Malgré le paragraphe (3), le Conseil peut établir, dans sa loi annuelle sur les taux d'imposition, l'impôt minimal à payer sur un intérêt foncier imposable.

(6) L'impôt minimal visé au paragraphe (5) peut être établi à l'égard d'une ou de plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers.

Paielements d'impôts

11.(1) Les impôts sont dus et payables au plus tard le 2 juillet de l'année d'imposition au cours de laquelle ils sont prélevés.

(2) Les paiements d'impôts sont faits au bureau de la Première Nation, pendant les heures d'ouverture normales, par chèque ou mandat ou en argent comptant.

(3) Les paiements d'impôts faits par chèque ou mandat sont établis à l'ordre de la Première Nation

PARTIE VIII RÔLE ET AVIS D'IMPOSITION

Rôle d'imposition

12.(1) Au plus tard le _____ de chaque année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal établit un rôle d'imposition pour cette année d'imposition.

(2) Le rôle d'imposition est établi sur support papier ou sous forme électronique et contient les renseignements suivants :

- a) une description du bien foncier telle qu'elle figure sur le rôle d'évaluation;
- b) le nom et l'adresse du détenteur inscrit sur le rôle d'évaluation à l'égard du bien foncier;
- c) le nom et l'adresse de chaque personne inscrite sur le rôle d'évaluation à l'égard du bien foncier;
- d) la valeur imposable – selon la classification de la terre et des améliorations – inscrite sur le rôle d'évaluation, à l'exception des exemptions, s'il y a lieu;
- e) le montant des impôts prélevés sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours en vertu de la présente loi;
- f) le montant des impôts impayés se rapportant aux années d'imposition antérieures, le cas échéant.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal peut utiliser le rôle d'évaluation certifié comme rôle d'imposition s'il y ajoute les renseignements suivants :

- a) le montant des impôts prélevés sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours en vertu de la présente loi;
- b) le montant des impôts impayés se rapportant aux années d'imposition antérieures, le cas échéant.

Avis d'imposition annuels

13.(1) Au plus tard le _____ de chaque année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis d'imposition aux personnes suivantes, à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'imposition :

Version courante 2018 03 28

- a) chaque détenteur d'un bien imposable au titre de la présente loi;
- b) chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'imposition à l'égard du bien imposable.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal inscrit sur le rôle d'imposition la date de mise à la poste de l'avis d'imposition.

(3) L'avis d'imposition envoyé par la poste par l'administrateur fiscal constitue un relevé d'impôts et une demande de paiement d'impôts.

(4) Peuvent être inclus dans un même avis d'imposition tout nombre de biens fonciers évalués au nom du même détenteur.

(5) Lorsque le titulaire d'une charge grevant un bien imposable donne avis de la charge à l'évaluateur conformément à la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière et que ce dernier inscrit le nom du titulaire sur le rôle d'évaluation, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste au titulaire de la charge une copie de tous les avis d'imposition transmis relativement au bien pendant la durée de la charge.

Modifications apportées au rôle et aux avis d'imposition

14.(1) Lorsque le rôle d'évaluation a été révisé conformément à la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, l'administrateur fiscal modifie le rôle d'imposition et envoie par la poste un avis d'imposition modifié à chaque personne visée par la modification.

(2) Si une erreur, une omission ou une description erronée est décelée dans les renseignements figurant sur le rôle d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal :

- a) peut corriger le rôle d'imposition seulement pour l'année en cours;
- b) une fois le rôle d'imposition corrigé, envoie par la poste un avis d'imposition modifié à chaque personne visée par la modification.

(3) Dans le cas où un avis d'imposition modifié indique une réduction du montant d'impôts à payer, l'administrateur fiscal rembourse sans délai, conformément à l'article 6, les impôts payés en trop.

(4) Dans le cas où un avis d'imposition modifié indique une augmentation du montant d'impôts à payer, ces impôts sont dus et payables à la date de mise à la poste de l'avis d'imposition modifié; cependant, le contribuable dispose d'un délai de trente (30) jours pour payer ces impôts et aucune pénalité et aucun intérêt ne peuvent y être ajoutés pendant cette période.

Impôts relatifs à une évaluation supplémentaire

15.(1) Lorsqu'un rôle d'évaluation supplémentaire est établi conformément à la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière, l'administrateur fiscal apporte les modifications nécessaires au rôle d'imposition et envoie par la poste un avis d'imposition à chaque personne visée par le rôle d'évaluation supplémentaire.

(2) Si un avis d'imposition est donné au titre du présent article, les paragraphes 14(3) et (4) s'appliquent.

Lotissement

16.(1) Si un bien foncier fait l'objet d'un lotissement, par bail ou autre acte juridique, avant le 1^{er} juin de l'année d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal peut :

- a) répartir les impôts exigibles pendant cette année d'imposition entre les biens fonciers créés par le lotissement dans les mêmes proportions selon lesquelles les impôts auraient été exigibles à l'égard des biens fonciers si le lotissement avait eu lieu au plus tard à la date de la certification du rôle d'évaluation aux termes de la Loi sur l'évaluation foncière;
- b) dès qu'il a fait la répartition visée à l'alinéa a), inscrire la répartition sur le rôle d'imposition de la manière qu'il juge nécessaire.

Version courante 2018 03 28

(2) Les impôts attribués à un bien foncier en application du paragraphe (1) sont les impôts exigibles à l'égard de ce bien pendant l'année d'imposition visée par la répartition.

(3) L'évaluateur fournit à l'administrateur fiscal les valeurs imposables requises pour le calcul des proportions d'impôts visées au paragraphe (1).

Demandes de renseignements

17.(1) L'administrateur fiscal peut présenter une demande de renseignements rédigée conformément à l'annexe I au détenteur ou à la personne ayant disposé d'un bien foncier, qui doit alors lui fournir les renseignements, à toute fin liée à l'application de la présente loi, dans les quatorze (14) jours suivants ou le délai supérieur indiqué dans la demande.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal n'est pas lié par les renseignements fournis en application du paragraphe (1).

PARTIE IX

REÇUS DE PAIEMENT ET CERTIFICATS D'IMPOSITION

Reçus de paiement

18. Sur réception d'un paiement d'impôts, l'administrateur fiscal délivre un reçu au contribuable et inscrit le numéro du reçu sur le rôle d'imposition en regard de l'intérêt foncier visé par le paiement.

Certificat d'imposition

19.(1) Sur réception d'une demande écrite accompagnée du paiement du droit prévu au paragraphe (2), l'administrateur fiscal délivre un certificat d'imposition indiquant si les impôts relatifs à un intérêt foncier ont été payés ou, dans le cas contraire, le montant des impôts en souffrance.

(2) Le droit à payer pour l'obtention d'un certificat d'imposition est de ____ dollars (____ $) pour chaque rôle d'imposition faisant l'objet d'une recherche.

PARTIE X

PÉNALITÉS ET INTÉRÊTS

Pénalité

20. Si la totalité ou une partie des impôts est toujours en souffrance après le 2 juillet de l'année où ils ont été prélevés, une pénalité de ____ pour cent (____ %) [Note à l'intention de la Première Nation : la pénalité totale maximale permise est de dix pour cent (10 %)] de la partie des impôts de l'année en cours qu'il reste à payer est ajoutée au montant des impôts impayés et le montant ainsi ajouté est, à toutes fins utiles, réputé faire partie des impôts de l'année en cours.

Intérêts

21. Si la totalité ou une partie des impôts est toujours en souffrance après le 2 juillet de l'année où ils ont été prélevés, des intérêts sont imposés sur la partie qu'il reste à payer, au taux de ____ pour cent (____ %) par année, jusqu'à son règlement ou recouvrement; les intérêts courus sont réputés, à toutes fins utiles, faire partie des impôts. [Note à l'intention de la Première Nation : le taux d'intérêt maximal est de quinze pour cent (15 %) par année.]

Application des paiements

22. L'administrateur fiscal applique les paiements d'impôts d'abord aux impôts impayés des années d'imposition antérieures, des plus anciens aux plus récents, et ensuite aux impôts impayés de l'année d'imposition en cours.

Version courante 2018 03 28

PARTIE XI

RECETTES ET DÉPENSES

Recettes et dépenses

23.(1) Les recettes perçues sous le régime de la présente loi sont versées dans un compte de recettes locales, distinct des autres fonds de la Première Nation.

(2) Les recettes perçues comprennent notamment :

- a) les impôts, y compris, par souci de clarté, les intérêts, pénalités et frais prévus dans la présente loi;
- b) les paiements versés en remplacement d'impôts.

(3) Toute dépense sur les recettes perçues sous le régime de la présente loi est faite en vertu d'une loi sur les dépenses ou en conformité avec l'article 13.1 de la Loi.

Fonds de réserve

24.(1) Tout fonds de réserve créé par le Conseil doit :

- a) être établi par une loi sur les dépenses;
- b) être conforme aux exigences du présent article.

(2) Sauf disposition contraire du présent article, les sommes versées dans un fonds de réserve sont conservées dans un compte distinct, et ces sommes et les intérêts qu'elles rapportent ne peuvent être utilisés que pour les fins auxquelles le fonds de réserve a été établi.

(3) Le Conseil peut, par une loi sur les dépenses :

- a) transférer des sommes d'un fonds de réserve destiné aux immobilisations à un autre fonds de réserve ou à un compte, pourvu que tous les projets pour lesquels a été établi le fonds de réserve aient été achevés;
- b) transférer des sommes d'un fonds de réserve non destiné aux immobilisations à un autre fonds de réserve ou à un compte;
- c) emprunter des sommes sur un fonds de réserve lorsque ces sommes ne sont pas immédiatement nécessaires, à la condition que la Première Nation rembourse les sommes empruntées plus les intérêts sur celles-ci à un taux égal ou supérieur au taux préférentiel fixé périodiquement par la banque principale de la Première Nation, au plus tard à la date où les sommes sont requises pour les fins auxquelles le fonds de réserve a été établi.

(4) À titre d'exception à l'alinéa (3)c), le Conseil de gestion financière des premières nations peut, agissant à la place du Conseil, emprunter des sommes sur un fonds de réserve au moyen d'une loi sur les dépenses dans le cas suivant :

- a) il a pris en charge la gestion du compte de recettes locales de la Première Nation;
- b) il a déterminé qu'il est nécessaire de faire des emprunts sur un fonds de réserve pour remplir les obligations financières de la Première Nation.

(5) Le Conseil autorise, dans une loi sur les dépenses, tous les paiements versés dans un fonds de réserve et toutes les dépenses faites sur ce fonds.

(6) Lorsque des sommes versées dans un fonds de réserve ne sont pas immédiatement nécessaires, l'administrateur fiscal les investit dans l'un ou plusieurs des placements suivants :

- a) les titres émis par le Canada ou une province;
- b) les titres garantis, quant au capital et aux intérêts, par le Canada ou une province;

Version courante 2018 03 28

- c) les titres émis par une administration financière municipale ou l'Administration financière des premières nations;
- d) les investissements garantis par une banque, une société de fiducie ou une coopérative d'épargne et de crédit;
- e) les dépôts auprès d'une banque ou d'une société de fiducie établie au Canada ou les titres non participatifs ou les parts sociales d'une coopérative d'épargne et de crédit.

PARTIE XII

PERCEPTION ET CONTRÔLE D'APPLICATION

Recouvrement des impôts impayés

25.(1) Les impôts visés au paragraphe 5(2) constituent une créance de la Première Nation recouvrable :

- a) devant un tribunal compétent;
- b) par un recours auprès du tribunal de règlement des litiges civils;
- c) par toute autre méthode autorisée par la présente loi.

Sauf disposition contraire, le recours à une méthode n'empêche pas la poursuite du recouvrement par une ou plusieurs autres méthodes.

(2) Une copie de l'avis d'imposition indiquant les impôts à payer par une personne, certifiée comme copie conforme par l'administrateur fiscal, constitue une preuve de la dette fiscale de la personne.

(3) Les frais engagés par la Première Nation pour le recouvrement des impôts impayés et les mesures d'exécution requises sont :

- a) calculés conformément à l'annexe III;
- b) payables par le débiteur à titre d'impôts impayés.

(4) L'administrateur fiscal peut, s'il a des motifs raisonnables de croire qu'un débiteur a l'intention de retirer son bien meuble de la réserve ou de démanteler ou d'enlever ses améliorations situées sur la réserve, ou de prendre toute autre mesure pouvant empêcher la perception des impôts exigibles sous le régime de la présente loi ou y faire obstacle, présenter une demande de recours à un tribunal compétent, même avant l'expiration du délai prévu pour le paiement des impôts.

(5) Avant d'entreprendre des mesures d'exécution en vertu des parties XIII, XIV et XV, l'administrateur fiscal en demande au Conseil l'autorisation par résolution.

Certificat d'arriérés d'impôts

26.(1) Avant de prendre des mesures d'exécution en vertu des parties XIII, XIV ou XV et sous réserve du paragraphe (2), l'administrateur fiscal délivre un certificat d'arriérés d'impôts et le transmet à chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'imposition à l'égard du bien foncier visé.

(2) Le certificat d'arriérés d'impôts est délivré au plus tôt six (6) mois après la date à laquelle les impôts deviennent exigibles.

Création de privilèges

27.(1) Les impôts impayés constituent un privilège grevant l'intérêt foncier auquel ils s'appliquent, qui assujettit l'intérêt foncier et lie les détenteurs subséquents de celui-ci.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal conserve une liste de tous les privilèges créés aux termes de la présente loi.

(3) Le privilège figurant sur la liste visée au paragraphe (2) a priorité sur tout privilège, charge, réclamation ou sûreté, enregistré ou non, concernant l'intérêt foncier.

Version courante 2018 03 28

(4) L'administrateur fiscal peut présenter une demande à un tribunal compétent pour assurer la protection ou l'exécution d'un privilège visé au paragraphe (1) s'il estime que cette mesure est nécessaire ou indiquée.

(5) Dès la réception du paiement intégral des impôts en souffrance ayant donné lieu à la création d'un privilège, l'administrateur fiscal enregistre, sans délai, la mainlevée du privilège.

(6) La mainlevée du privilège par l'administrateur fiscal constitue la preuve du paiement des impôts relatifs à l'intérêt foncier.

(7) Une erreur technique ou une omission commise lors de la création du privilège ou de son inscription sur la liste de privilèges n'entraîne pas la perte ou la diminution du privilège.

Transmission de documents lors des mesures d'exécution

28.(1) Le présent article s'applique à la présente partie ainsi qu'aux parties XIII, XIV et XV.

(2) La transmission de documents est effectuée par remise en mains propres ou par courrier recommandé.

(3) La remise en mains propres d'un document est effectuée de la manière suivante :

a) dans le cas d'un individu, le document lui est remis ou est remis à une personne âgée d'au moins dix-huit (18) ans qui réside au domicile de l'individu;

b) dans le cas d'une première nation, le document est remis à l'individu apparemment responsable du bureau principal de la première nation au moment de la remise ou au conseiller juridique de cette dernière;

c) dans le cas d'une personne morale, le document est remis à un de ses dirigeants ou de ses administrateurs, à son conseiller juridique ou à l'individu apparemment responsable de son siège social ou de sa succursale au moment de la remise.

(4) La transmission d'un document est réputée effectuée :

a) si le document est remis en mains propres, à la date de sa remise;

b) s'il est envoyé par courrier recommandé, le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste.

(5) Une copie de tout avis doit être transmise :

a) si l'avis concerne un bien imposable, à toutes les personnes dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'imposition relativement à ce bien;

b) si l'avis concerne un bien meuble, à tous les détenteurs d'une sûreté enregistrée sur celui-ci en vertu des lois de la province.

PARTIE XIII

SAISIE ET VENTE DE BIENS MEUBLES

Saisie et vente de biens meubles

29.(1) Lorsque des impôts sont toujours en souffrance plus de trente (30) jours après la délivrance du certificat d'arriérés d'impôts au débiteur, l'administrateur fiscal peut recouvrer le montant de ces impôts et les frais connexes en procédant à la saisie et à la vente de biens meubles du débiteur qui se trouvent dans la réserve.

(2) Comme restriction à l'application du paragraphe (1), ne peuvent être saisis aux termes de la présente loi les biens meubles d'un débiteur qui seraient insaisissables malgré la délivrance d'un bref d'exécution par une cour supérieure de la province.

Avis de saisie et de vente

30.(1) Avant d'entreprendre les mesures d'exécution prévues au paragraphe 29(1), l'administrateur fiscal transmet au débiteur un avis de saisie et de vente de biens meubles.

(2) Si les impôts sont toujours en souffrance plus de sept (7) jours après la transmission de l'avis de saisie et de vente de biens meubles, l'administrateur fiscal demande à un shérif, un huissier ou un agent chargé de l'application des règlements administratifs de procéder à la saisie des biens meubles décrits dans l'avis qui sont en la possession du débiteur et qui se trouvent dans la réserve.

(3) La personne qui saisit les biens meubles remet au débiteur un reçu à l'égard des biens saisis.

Avis de vente des biens meubles saisis

31.(1) L'administrateur fiscal publie un avis de vente des biens meubles saisis dans deux (2) parutions consécutives du journal local ayant le plus grand tirage.

(2) La première publication de l'avis de vente des biens meubles saisis est faite au plus tôt soixante (60) jours après la saisie des biens meubles.

Déroulement de la vente

32.(1) La vente des biens meubles est effectuée aux enchères publiques.

(2) Sous réserve du paragraphe (4), les biens saisis peuvent être vendus aux enchères publiques en tout temps après la deuxième publication de l'avis de vente des biens meubles saisis.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal tient la vente aux enchères publiques aux date, heure et lieu indiqués dans l'avis de vente des biens meubles saisis, à moins qu'il ne soit nécessaire de la reporter. Dans ce cas, un autre avis est publié de la manière prévue au paragraphe 31(1).

(4) Si, à tout moment avant la vente, la saisie est contestée devant un tribunal compétent, la vente ne peut avoir lieu avant que le tribunal ne se soit prononcé sur la contestation.

Sûretés enregistrées

33. L'application de la présente partie relativement à la saisie et à la vente de biens meubles assujettis à une sûreté enregistrée est subordonnée aux lois de la province qui régissent la saisie et la vente de tels biens.

Produit de la vente

34.(1) Le produit de la vente des biens meubles saisis est versé aux détenteurs d'une sûreté enregistrée sur ces biens et à la Première Nation selon l'ordre de priorité prévu par les lois applicables de la province; tout excédent est remis au débiteur.

(2) Si une autre personne réclame l'excédent et que cette réclamation est contestée, ou s'il n'est pas certain de la personne ayant droit à l'excédent, l'administrateur fiscal garde le produit de la vente jusqu'à ce que les droits des parties aient été établis.

PARTIE XIV

SAISIE ET CESSION DE BIENS IMPOSABLES

Saisie et cession de biens imposables

35.(1) Lorsque des impôts sont toujours en souffrance plus de neuf (9) mois après la délivrance du certificat d'arriérés d'impôts, l'administrateur fiscal peut recouvrer le montant de ces impôts en procédant à la saisie et à la cession du bien imposable.

Version courante 2018 03 28

(2) Avant d'entreprendre les mesures d'exécution prévues au paragraphe (1), l'administrateur fiscal signifie au débiteur un avis de saisie et de cession d'un bien imposable et en transmet une copie à tout possesseur qui a un intérêt dans ce bien.

(3) Au plus tôt six (6) mois après la transmission au débiteur d'un avis de saisie et de cession d'un bien imposable, l'administrateur fiscal peut vendre le droit à la cession du bien imposable par voie d'adjudication ou d'enchères publiques.

(4) Le Conseil prescrit, par résolution, la méthode d'adjudication ou de vente aux enchères publiques, y compris les conditions liées à l'acceptation d'une offre.

Mise à prix

36.(1) L'administrateur fiscal établit la mise à prix en vue de la vente du droit à la cession du bien imposable, qui ne peut être inférieure au montant total des impôts à payer sur ce bien, calculé à la fin du délai de rachat prévu au paragraphe 40(1) et majoré de cinq pour cent (5 %).

(2) La mise à prix est le prix le plus bas auquel le bien imposable peut être vendu.

Avis de vente du droit à la cession d'un bien imposable

37.(1) L'avis de vente du droit à la cession d'un bien imposable est :

- a) publié dans le journal local ayant le plus grand tirage au moins une fois par semaine pendant les quatre (4) semaines qui précèdent la date de l'adjudication ou des enchères publiques;
- b) affiché dans un endroit bien en vue dans la réserve au moins dix (10) jours avant la date de l'adjudication ou de la vente aux enchères publiques.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal tient l'adjudication ou les enchères publiques aux date, heure et lieu indiqués dans l'avis de vente du droit à la cession d'un bien imposable, à moins qu'il ne soit nécessaire de les reporter. Dans ce cas, un autre avis est publié de la manière prévue au paragraphe (1).

(3) Si aucune offre n'est égale ou supérieure à la mise à prix, la Première Nation est réputée avoir acheté le droit à la cession du bien imposable pour le montant de la mise à prix.

Avis au ministre

38. L'administrateur fiscal avise par écrit, sans délai, le ministre des Affaires indiennes et du Nord canadien de la vente de tout droit à la cession d'un bien imposable faite conformément à la présente loi.

Droits subsistants

39. Lorsqu'un bien imposable est vendu par voie d'adjudication ou d'enchères publiques, tous les droits sur celui-ci que possède le détenteur du bien ou le titulaire d'une charge cessent dès lors d'exister, sauf que :

- a) le bien imposable peut faire l'objet d'un rachat de la manière prévue au paragraphe 40(1);
- b) le droit de possession du bien imposable n'est pas touché durant le délai prévu pour le rachat, mais il est cependant assujéti :
 - (i) à l'interdiction de dégradation,
 - (ii) au droit du soumissionnaire gagnant ou de l'enchérisseur le plus offrant d'accéder au bien imposable pour le maintenir en bon état et empêcher sa dégradation;
- c) toute servitude ou clause restrictive ou tout projet de bâtiment ou droit de passage enregistré sur l'intérêt foncier subsiste;
- d) pendant le délai prévu pour le rachat, une action peut être engagée devant un tribunal compétent afin de faire annuler la vente du droit à la cession du bien imposable et de la faire déclarer invalide.

Version courante 2018 03 28

Délai de rachat

40.(1) Dans les trois (3) mois suivant la tenue d'une adjudication ou d'enchères publiques à l'égard d'un bien imposable, le débiteur peut racheter ce bien en payant à la Première Nation le montant de la mise à prix majorée de trois pour cent (3 %).

(2) Au rachat du bien imposable conformément au paragraphe (1) :

- a) si le droit à la cession a été vendu à un soumissionnaire ou un enchérisseur, la Première Nation lui rembourse sans délai le montant de l'offre;
- b) l'administrateur fiscal avise par écrit le ministre des Affaires indiennes et du Nord canadien du rachat.

(3) La cession du bien imposable ne peut être faite avant l'expiration du délai de rachat prévu au paragraphe (1).

(4) Sauf dans le cas du rachat visé au paragraphe (2), à l'expiration du délai de rachat, la Première Nation cède le bien imposable au soumissionnaire gagnant ou à l'enchérisseur le plus offrant, ou elle l'acquiert elle-même à titre d'acheteur présumé conformément au paragraphe 37(3).

Cession du bien imposable

41.(1) Un bien imposable ne peut être cédé qu'à une personne ou un organisme qui, aux termes de la Loi sur les Indiens ou de la Loi sur la gestion des terres des premières nations, selon le cas, peut obtenir un intérêt ou un droit constituant le bien imposable.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal enregistre la cession du bien imposable faite conformément à la présente loi dans tout bureau d'enregistrement où ce bien est enregistré au moment de la cession.

(3) La cession visée au paragraphe 40(4) opère :

- a) comme un transfert du bien imposable du débiteur au soumissionnaire ou à l'enchérisseur, sans attestation ou preuve d'exécution;
- b) de façon à éteindre tous les droits, titres et intérêts de chacun des détenteurs précédents du bien imposable ou des réclamants par l'intermédiaire d'un ancien détenteur, ainsi que tous les privilèges, réclamations, demandes, paiements, charges, jugements et charges hypothécaires de tout genre, enregistrés ou non, qui existent au moment où la cession est enregistrée aux termes du paragraphe (2), sauf si une servitude, une clause restrictive, un projet de bâtiment ou un droit de passage enregistré sur l'intérêt foncier subsiste.

(4) Dès l'enregistrement de la cession aux termes du paragraphe 40(4), toute dette du débiteur qui reste à l'égard du bien imposable est éteinte.

Produit de la vente

42.(1) À l'expiration du délai de rachat, le produit de la vente du droit à la cession du bien imposable est versé :

- a) d'abord à la Première Nation;
- b) ensuite aux autres détenteurs d'un intérêt enregistré dans le bien selon l'ordre de priorité prévu par la loi.

Tout excédent est remis au débiteur.

(2) Si une autre personne réclame l'excédent et que cette réclamation est contestée, ou s'il n'est pas certain de la personne ayant droit à l'excédent, l'administrateur fiscal garde le produit de la vente jusqu'à ce que les droits des parties aient été établis.

Version courante 2018 03 28

Revente par la Première Nation

43.(1) Si la Première Nation achète le droit à la cession d'un bien imposable aux termes du paragraphe 37(3), l'administrateur fiscal peut, pendant le délai de rachat, vendre à quiconque le droit à la cession du bien imposable à un prix égal ou supérieur au montant de la mise à prix, et l'acheteur est par la suite considéré comme le soumissionnaire gagnant ou l'enchérisseur le plus offrant au titre de la présente partie.

(2) La vente réalisée aux termes du paragraphe (1) n'a aucun effet sur le délai de rachat ou le droit de rachat par le débiteur au titre de la présente loi.

PARTIE XV

CESSATION DE SERVICES

Cessation de services

44.(1) Sous réserve des autres dispositions du présent article, la Première Nation peut cesser de fournir des services au bien imposable d'un débiteur si les conditions suivantes sont réunies :

- a) les recettes provenant de l'application de la présente loi ou de tout texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière pris par la Première Nation sont utilisées pour fournir ce service aux contribuables;
- b) des impôts non payés par le débiteur demeurent en souffrance plus de trente (30) jours après la transmission à celui-ci d'un certificat d'arriérés d'impôts.

(2) Au moins trente (30) jours avant la cessation des services, l'administrateur fiscal transmet un avis de cessation de services au débiteur et à tout possesseur ayant un intérêt dans le bien imposable.

(3) La Première Nation ne peut interrompre les services suivants :

- a) les services de police et de protection contre les incendies fournis à l'égard du bien imposable du débiteur;
- b) les services d'aqueduc et d'enlèvement des ordures fournis à un bien imposable qui est une maison d'habitation;
- c) les services d'électricité et de gaz naturel fournis à un bien imposable qui est une maison d'habitation, durant la période débutant le 1^{er} novembre et se terminant le 31 mars de l'année suivante.

PARTIE XVI

DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES

Communication de renseignements

45.(1) L'administrateur fiscal ou toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de renseignements ou d'archives obtenus ou créés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut communiquer ces renseignements ou archives sauf, selon le cas :

- a) dans le cadre de l'application de la présente loi ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celle-ci;
- b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières, le tribunal de règlement des litiges civils ou un tribunal judiciaire, ou aux termes d'une ordonnance judiciaire;
- c) en conformité avec le paragraphe (2).

(2) L'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier à l'agent du détenteur du bien si la communication de ces renseignements a été autorisée par écrit par le détenteur.

Version courante 2018 03 28

(3) L'agent ne peut utiliser les renseignements communiqués aux termes du paragraphe (2) qu'aux fins autorisées par écrit par le détenteur du bien foncier.

Communication aux fins de recherche

46. Malgré l'article 45 :

- a) l'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que ces renseignements et archives ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ni de renseignements commerciaux permettant d'identifier des entreprises;
- b) le Conseil peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises, pourvu que les conditions suivantes soient réunies :
 - (i) la recherche ne peut vraisemblablement être effectuée que si les renseignements sont fournis sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises,
 - (ii) le tiers a signé une entente avec le Conseil dans laquelle il s'engage à se conformer aux exigences du Conseil concernant l'utilisation, la confidentialité et la sécurité des renseignements.

Validité

47. Aucune disposition de la présente loi ne peut être annulée ou invalidée, et l'obligation d'une personne de payer des impôts ou autres montants imposés aux termes de la présente loi ne peut être modifiée, en raison :

- a) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans une estimation ou une estimation fondée uniquement sur les renseignements dont dispose l'évaluateur ou l'administrateur fiscal;
- b) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans un rôle d'imposition, un avis d'imposition ou tout avis donné sous le régime de la présente loi;
- c) du défaut de la part de la Première Nation, de l'administrateur fiscal ou de l'évaluateur de prendre des mesures dans le délai prévu.

Restriction

48.(1) Nul ne peut engager une action ou une procédure en vue du remboursement des sommes versées à la Première Nation, que ce soit dans le cadre d'une contestation ou autrement, au titre d'une demande, valide ou invalide, concernant les impôts ou tout autre montant payé aux termes de la présente loi, après l'expiration d'un délai de six (6) mois suivant la date du fait générateur du litige.

(2) Si aucune action ou procédure n'est engagée dans le délai prévu au présent article, les sommes versées à la Première Nation sont réputées avoir été versées de plein gré par l'intéressé.

Avis

49.(1) Lorsque la présente loi exige la transmission d'un avis par la poste ou qu'elle ne précise pas le mode de transmission, l'avis est transmis, selon le cas :

- a) par la poste, à l'adresse postale habituelle du destinataire ou à son adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'imposition;
 - b) si l'adresse du destinataire est inconnue, par affichage d'une copie de l'avis dans un endroit bien en vue sur le bien foncier du destinataire;
 - c) par remise de l'avis en mains propres ou par service de messagerie au destinataire, ou à son adresse postale habituelle ou à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'imposition.
- (2) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi :

Version courante 2018 03 28

- a) l'avis transmis par la poste est réputé reçu le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste;
- b) l'avis affiché sur un bien foncier est réputé reçu le deuxième jour après avoir été affiché;
- c) l'avis remis en mains propres est réputé reçu au moment de sa remise.

Interprétation

50.(1) Les dispositions de la présente loi sont dissociables. Si une disposition de la présente loi est pour quelque raison déclarée invalide par une décision d'un tribunal compétent, elle est alors retranchée de la présente loi et la décision du tribunal ne porte pas atteinte à la validité des autres dispositions de la présente loi.

(2) Les dispositions de la présente loi exprimées au présent s'appliquent à la situation du moment.

(3) Dans la présente loi, le pluriel ou le singulier s'appliquent, le cas échéant, à l'unité et à la pluralité.

(4) La présente loi est censée apporter une solution de droit et s'interprète de la manière la plus équitable et la plus large qui soit compatible avec la réalisation de ses objectifs.

(5) Les renvois dans la présente loi à un texte législatif sont réputés se rapporter à sa version éventuellement modifiée et visent tous les règlements d'application de ce texte.

(6) Les intertitres ne font pas partie de la présente loi, n'y figurant que pour faciliter la consultation.

Abrogation

[Note à l'intention de la Première Nation : Insérer la disposition d'abrogation seulement si la présente loi abroge et remplace un texte législatif existant sur l'imposition foncière.]

51. Le Règlement administratif sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation _____ (20__), dans son état modifié, est abrogé.]

Entrée en vigueur

(le « bien imposable »)

PRENEZ AVIS que des impôts, pénalités et intérêts d'un montant de _____ dollars (____ $) sont toujours en souffrance et qu'ils sont exigibles à l'égard l'intérêt foncier susmentionné.

PRENEZ AVIS qu'un certificat d'arriérés d'impôts daté du _____ vous a été remis relativement à ces impôts impayés.

ET PRENEZ AVIS que le défaut de payer la totalité de la dette fiscale dans les six (6) mois suivant la remise du présent avis peut entraîner, conformément à l'article ____ de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation _____ (20__), la saisie et la vente par voie d'adjudication [ou d'enchères publiques], par l'administrateur fiscal, d'un droit à la cession du bien imposable, comme suit :

1. La tenue de l'adjudication [des enchères publiques], y compris les conditions liées à l'acceptation d'une offre, sera conforme aux procédures prescrites par le Conseil de la Première Nation _____, dont on peut obtenir copie auprès de l'administrateur fiscal.
2. L'administrateur fiscal :
 - a) publiera un avis de vente du droit à la cession d'un bien imposable dans le journal _____ au moins une fois par semaine pendant les quatre (4) semaines précédant la date de la vente;
 - b) affichera l'avis de vente du droit à la cession d'un bien imposable dans un endroit bien en vue dans la réserve au moins dix (10) jours avant la date de la vente.
3. L'avis de vente du droit à la cession du bien imposable fera mention de la mise à prix pour l'obtention du droit à la cession ainsi que des conditions liées à l'acceptation d'une offre.
4. La mise à prix ne sera pas inférieure au montant total des impôts, intérêts et pénalités à payer, calculé à la fin du délai de rachat et majoré de cinq pour cent (5 %). La mise à prix est le prix le plus bas auquel peut être vendu le droit à la cession du bien imposable.
5. L'administrateur fiscal tiendra la vente par voie d'adjudication [d'enchères publiques] aux date, heure et lieu indiqués dans l'avis de vente du droit à la cession d'un bien imposable, à moins qu'il ne soit nécessaire de la reporter. Dans ce cas, un autre avis sera publié.
6. Si, lors de la tenue de l'adjudication [des enchères publiques], il n'y a aucune offre égale ou supérieure à la mise à prix, la Première Nation sera réputée avoir acheté le droit à la cession du bien imposable pour le montant de la mise à prix.
7. Le débiteur peut, après la vente, racheter le droit à la cession du bien imposable en payant à la Première Nation le montant de la mise à prix, majoré de trois pour cent (3 %), dans les trois (3) mois (« le délai de rachat ») suivant la tenue de l'adjudication [des enchères publiques] à l'égard du bien imposable. En cas de rachat du droit à la cession, la Première Nation remboursera sans délai au soumissionnaire [à l'enchérisseur] le montant de l'offre.
8. La vente d'un droit à la cession du bien imposable par voie d'adjudication [d'enchères publiques] n'est pas terminée et aucune cession du bien imposable ne pourra être faite avant l'expiration du délai de rachat. Si le droit à la cession du bien imposable n'est pas racheté avant l'expiration du délai de rachat, à l'expiration de celui-ci, la Première Nation cédera le bien imposable au soumissionnaire gagnant [à l'enchérisseur le plus offrant], ou à elle-même à titre d'acheteur présumé, selon le cas. Le bien imposable ne sera pas cédé à une personne ou un organisme qui, aux termes de la Loi sur les Indiens ou de la Loi sur la gestion des terres des premières nations, n'aurait pas été en mesure d'obtenir l'intérêt ou un droit constituant le bien imposable.

9. Le Conseil de la Première Nation _____ avisera par écrit, sans délai, le ministre des Affaires indiennes et du Nord canadien de la vente du droit à la cession du bien imposable et de tout rachat de ce droit.

10. L'administrateur fiscal enregistrera la cession du bien imposable dans tout bureau d'enregistrement où celui-ci est enregistré au moment de la cession.

11. La cession du bien imposable opère :

- a) comme un transfert du bien imposable du débiteur au soumissionnaire gagnant [à l'enchérisseur le plus offrant] ou à la Première Nation, selon le cas, sans attestation ou preuve d'exécution;
- b) de façon à éteindre tous les droits, titres et intérêts de chacun des détenteurs précédents du bien imposable ou des réclamants par l'intermédiaire d'un ancien détenteur, ainsi que tous les privilèges, réclamations, demandes, paiements, charges, jugements et charges hypothécaires de tout genre, enregistrés ou non, qui existent au moment où la cession est enregistrée, sauf si une servitude, une clause restrictive, un projet de bâtiment ou un droit de passage enregistré sur l'intérêt foncier subsiste.

12. Dès la cession du bien imposable, le débiteur sera tenu de quitter immédiatement le bien et tous les droits ou intérêts détenus par lui relativement au bien, y compris les améliorations, seront transférés en totalité à l'acheteur.

13. Le produit de la vente du bien imposable sera versé d'abord à la Première Nation, puis aux autres détenteurs d'un intérêt enregistré dans le bien imposable selon l'ordre de priorité prévu par la loi. Tout excédent sera remis au débiteur, conformément à la Loi sur l'imposition foncière de la Première Nation _____ (20__).

Using This Sample Service Fee Law

The Commission provides sample laws to assist First Nations in developing their own laws. When using sample laws, the First Nation should ensure that its law reflects its circumstances and that it obtains legal and other advice as necessary. If you have any questions as you are preparing this law, please do not hesitate to contact the FNTC staff.

Under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act (FMA), a First Nation may make laws respecting the charging of fees for the provision of services or the use of facilities on reserve lands, or for a regulatory process, permit, licence or other authorization, in relation to the provision of local services. This sample law has been developed for First Nations wishing to use their FMA fee powers to recover certain costs related to the provision of a service provided to property, for example a water service or a sewer service.

The following are some notes about the substance and format of the sample law:

1. The fee categories provided for in this sample law represent options for the First Nation to consider. The sample law will need to be modified to reflect the specific types of fees the First Nation wishes to impose in respect of the service.
2. The fees imposed under this law should be coordinated with the First Nation's applicable regulatory law or by-law.
3. Instructions are shown in square brackets and bold. All instructions should be deleted from the final version of the law.
4. Underlines indicate that information is to be entered. Insert the information needed, and delete the underlines from the final version of the law.
5. Where new sections are added, or sample sections are deleted, the remaining sections need to be renumbered consecutively.

Please refer to the Standards for First Nation Fee Laws, 2017 for additional requirements for service fee laws.

SCHEDULES

- I Fees for Service
- II Complaint to Tax Administrator Respecting Service Fee

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to paragraph 5(1)(a.1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting the charging of fees for the provision of services or the use of facilities on reserve lands, or for a regulatory process, permit, licence or other authorization, in relation to water, sewers, waste management, animal control, recreation and transportation, as well as any other similar services;

B. The First Nation provides a _____ service to residents of the reserve, and has determined that certain costs related to the provision of this service are to be recovered by fees charged to users of the service;

C. The fees established in this Law reflect the projected cost of providing the service [OR portion of the service to be funded by the fees] and are supported by a report setting out the projected cost of the service, how the cost of the service was determined, and the proportion of the total cost that the First Nation will recover through the fees set out in this Law; and

D. The Council of the _____ First Nation has given notice of this Law and has considered representations received by the Council, in accordance with the requirements of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the _____ First Nation duly enacts as follows:

PART I
CITATION

Citation

1. This Law may be cited as the _____ First Nation _____ Fee Law, 20__ .

PART II
DEFINITIONS AND REFERENCES

Definitions and References

- 2.(1) In this Law:

Current ver. 2018 03 28

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

“billing period” means [Note to First Nation: Insert time period for billing the fee, e.g. annual, semi-annual, quarterly, or monthly];

[Note to First Nation: If you are located in British Columbia, consider including references to the civil resolution tribunal in sections 16 and 18 as indicated. If the references are included, the following additional definition is required: “civil resolution tribunal” means the civil resolution tribunal established under the Civil Resolution Tribunal Act, SBC 2012, c 25;”.]

“fee” means a fee charged under this Law;

“First Nation” means the _____ First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“holder” means a person in possession of an interest in land or a person who, for the time being,

- (a) is entitled through a lease, licence or other legal means to possess or occupy the interest in land,
- (b) is in actual occupation of the interest in land,
- (c) has any right, title, estate or interest in the interest in land, or
- (d) is a trustee of the interest in land;

“interest in land” or “property” means land or improvements, or both, in the reserve and, without limitation, includes any interest in land or improvements, any occupation, possession or use of land or improvements, and any right to occupy, possess or use land or improvements;

“reserve” means any land set apart for the use and benefit of the First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act;

“service” means the [Note to First Nation: describe the service] service provided to or made available to residents of the reserve;

“tax administrator” means the person appointed by Council to that position under the Taxation Law; [Note to First Nation: Alternatively, the Law could provide to appoint a person to this position by resolution.]

“Taxation Law” means the _____ First Nation Property Taxation Law, 20__; and

“year” means a calendar year.

(2) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection 2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 5(1)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III ADMINISTRATION

Application of Law

3. This Law applies to the entire reserve. [Note to First Nation: Modify this wording if the fee applies only to part of the reserve.]

Tax Administrator

4.(1) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law.

- (2) The tax administrator must oversee the day-to-day administration and the enforcement of this Law.
- (3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of [insert title], assign the performance of any duties

Current ver. 2018 03 28

of the tax administrator under this Law to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

Records and Reporting

5.(1) The tax administrator must keep the following records in respect of the administration of this Law:

- (a) the amount of all fees levied;
- (b) the amount of all fees collected;
- (c) the amount of all refunds paid;
- (d) any complaints received; and
- (e) any enforcement proceedings taken.

(2) On or before [insert date] in each year, the tax administrator must report to Council on the administration of this Law in the previous fiscal year, which report must include each of the items referenced in subsection (1).

Provision of a Report

6.(1) The tax administrator must make available to any person, either on the First Nation's website or at the First Nation's administration offices, a report respecting how the fees levied under this Law were determined.

(2) The report referenced in subsection (1) must include the projected cost of the service, how the cost of the service was determined, and the proportion of the total cost of the service that is to be recovered through the fee.

Revenues and Expenditures

7.(1) All revenue collected by the First Nation from the fees levied under this Law, and interest earned on those revenues, must be used only for the provision of the service.

(2) The tax administrator must account separately for the fee revenues collected under this Law.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law made under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act, or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

Information and Access to Property

8.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a request for information to any person, including a current or former holder of property receiving the service, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information, including the production of records, for any purpose related to the administration or enforcement of this Law.

(2) A person authorized by the First Nation may at all reasonable times enter onto property to which the service is provided for any purposes related to the administration or enforcement of this Law.

PART IV

FEE LEVIES

[Note to First Nation: The following sets out sample wording for fees for a water service, as an example. For options respecting the setting of fees for different types of services, refer to section 3 of the Standards for First Nation Fee Laws, 2017.]

Connection, Disconnection and Reconnection Fees

9.(1) The holder of property to be connected to the service must pay in full, at the time of an application to connect to the service, the applicable connection fees set out in Part 2 of Schedule I.

Current ver. 2018 03 28

(2) The holder of property must pay in full the applicable fee set out in Part 2 of Schedule I at the time a request is made to disconnect or reconnect to the service.

User Fees

10.(1) The fees set out Part 1 of Schedule I are hereby levied on each holder of property receiving the service, for the provision of the service to the property.

(2) The tax administrator must determine the fees payable for each billing period by applying the applicable fees set out in Part 1 of Schedule I to the amount of water provided to a holder's property, as measured by the water meter during that billing period. [OR, for a flat rate: The tax administrator must determine the applicable fees set out in Part 1 of Schedule I for each property for a billing period.]

(3) A holder of property receiving the service must pay all fees levied in accordance with this Law.

[Note to First Nation: No sample wording for exemptions is included. If a First Nation wishes to include an exemption, specific wording can be developed that is consistent with the Standards for First Nation Fee Laws, 2017.]

PART V INVOICING AND PAYMENT

[Note to First Nation: These provisions will need to be tailored to reflect the First Nation's approach to invoicing, and whether it will collect fees concurrently with property taxes.]

Invoicing and Payment

11.(1) The tax administrator must invoice the fees levied under section 10 on each holder of property receiving the service.

(2) The tax administrator must mail the invoices for each billing period on or about the [insert day] of the month following the end of each billing period.

(3) The tax administrator must mail each invoice to the holder at the address of the property receiving the service, or to such other address provided to the First Nation by the holder in writing from time to time.

(4) Fees are due and payable in full on receipt of the invoice, and not later than thirty (30) days after the date of the invoice or such later date specified in the invoice.

[Note to First Nation: If the fee will be invoiced annually and the holders are also taxpayers under the Taxation Law, the Law can instead provide for the invoice to be included in the annual property tax notice. The following wording can be modified to reflect the approach the First Nation wishes to take:

11.(1) The tax administrator must include the fee levied under section 10 in the tax notice for the property given under the Taxation Law.

(2) Where the fee is included in a tax notice, the tax administrator must

(a) note on the tax roll that the fee is included in the tax notice for that property; and

(b) show the fee separately from the taxes on the tax notice and indicate that the fee is levied for the service.

(3) Where the fee is included in a tax notice,

(a) the mailing of the tax notice constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the fee; and

(b) the fee is due and payable on the same date as the property taxes for the property, unless a different due date is set out in the tax notice.]

Current ver. 2018 03 28

Payment of Fees

12.(1) All fees must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours by cheque, money order or cash, or may be paid by electronic payment.

(2) Payment of fees made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the _____ First Nation.

(3) Fees paid by electronic payment must be paid as directed by the tax administrator.

(4) The tax administrator must apply payments of fees first against any unpaid fees from previous billing periods, including interest and penalties, and then to current amounts due.

Adjustments to Fees

[Note to First Nation: These provisions may not be applicable to all types of services or invoicing approaches. Delete or modify as appropriate.]

13.(1) The tax administrator must adjust a fee imposed under this Law as follows:

(a) where the service is disconnected or turned off partway through a billing period, the invoice will include the time period to the end of the last month in which the service was provided;

(b) where the service is connected partway through a billing period, the invoice will include the time period beginning on the first day of the month in which the connection was made;

(c) where two (2) or more properties receiving the service are consolidated during a billing period, the consolidated property will receive a single invoice effective on the invoice for the subsequent billing period;

(d) where a property receiving the service is subdivided during a billing period, each new property will be invoiced separately effective on the invoice for the subsequent billing period.

(2) For clarity,

(a) there will be no adjustments to fees where the service is temporarily shut off for maintenance, emergencies or for any other reason; and

(b) fees that are invoiced before a property is subdivided or consolidated will not be adjusted.

Refund of Fees

14.(1) Where a person has

(a) paid a fee in circumstances where a fee was not payable, or

(b) made an overpayment of a fee,

the tax administrator must refund to that person the fee or any excess fee paid by that person, as applicable, including interest calculated in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator must calculate interest payable on a refund given under subsection (1) as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the fee was originally paid to the First Nation;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the earliest of the day payment of the money owed is mailed, delivered or actually received by the person to whom it is owed.

Current ver. 2018 03 28

PART VI PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalties and Interest

- 15. If all or part of a fee remains unpaid after it is due,
- (a) a one-time penalty of ten percent (10%) of the unpaid portion of the fee will be added to the unpaid fee on the day after it was due, and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the fee; and
 - (b) the unpaid portion of the fee accrues interest at fifteen percent (15%) per year, starting from the day after it was due until paid or recovered.

Enforcement

[Note to First Nation: If the First Nation is located in British Columbia, consider including the following alternate wording for subsection (1) to enable the collection of fees using the Civil Resolution Tribunal: (1) Fees charged under this Law, together with any applicable interest and penalties, are a debt owed to the First Nation that is recoverable by the First Nation in any court of competent jurisdiction, in a proceeding before the civil resolution tribunal, or in any manner permitted by law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.]

16.(1) Fees charged under this Law, together with any applicable interest and penalties, are a debt owed to the First Nation that is recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction or in any manner permitted by law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of an invoice showing the fees payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the fees.

(3) [Note to First Nation: This clause can be included only where the First Nation has a taxation law and the properties receiving the service are subject to taxation. If the First Nation is providing services to properties that are not subject to taxation, consider instead including provisions for enforcement directly in this law.] Fees overdue and remaining unpaid on December 31 in each year may be collected in the same manner and with the same enforcement remedies as taxes levied under the Taxation Law, and the tax administrator may enter the unpaid amounts on the tax roll for that property under the Taxation Law, as unpaid taxes.

PART VII COMPLAINTS

Complaints to Tax Administrator

17.(1) A holder may, within fourteen (14) days of receipt of an invoice under this Law, make a complaint respecting a fee on the basis that the holder has paid a fee when a fee was not payable, or has made an overpayment of a fee.

- (2) A complaint must
- (a) be made in the form set out in Schedule II;
 - (b) be delivered to the tax administrator; and
 - (c) include any reasons in support of the complaint.

(3) Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a complaint, the tax administrator must review the matter and attempt to resolve the complaint directly with the holder.

Current ver. 2018 03 28

(4) If the tax administrator determines that the holder has paid a fee when a fee was not payable, or has made an overpayment of a fee, as the case may be, the tax administrator must advise the holder of the determination and mail an amended invoice to the holder.

(5) If the tax administrator determines that the holder has not paid a fee when a fee was not payable, or has not made an overpayment of a fee, as the case may be, the tax administrator must notify the holder of this determination and the reasons for the determination.

PART VIII GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

18.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except

- (a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;
- (b) in proceedings before [Note to First Nation: Add “the civil resolution tribunal,” if this change was made to subsection 16(1).] a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or
- (c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the holder's property or fees owing in respect of the service, if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

19. Notwithstanding section 18,

- (a) the tax administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and
- (b) Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where
 - (i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and
 - (ii) the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

20. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay a fee under this Law be affected by

- (a) an error or omission in a determination made by the tax administrator;
- (b) an error or omission in any invoice or notice given under this Law; or
- (c) a failure of the First Nation or the tax administrator to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

21.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for fees paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

Current ver. 2018 03 28

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

22.(1) Where in this Law an invoice or notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving a notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

- (a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address, or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll made under the Taxation Law if applicable;
 - (b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the property to which the service is provided; or
 - (c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll made under the Taxation Law if applicable.
- (2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law, a notice or invoice
- (a) given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;
 - (b) posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and
 - (c) given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

23.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of this Law and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Utilisation du modèle de loi sur les droits de service

La Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations (la « Commission ») fournit des modèles de lois pour aider les premières nations à élaborer leurs textes législatifs. Les premières nations qui utilisent ces modèles doivent s'assurer que leurs textes législatifs sont adaptés à leurs circonstances particulières et veiller à obtenir les conseils juridiques et autres qui sont nécessaires. Si vous avez des questions au cours de la rédaction du présent texte législatif, n'hésitez pas à consulter le personnel de la Commission.

En vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)a.1) de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations (LGFPN), une première nation peut prendre des textes législatifs concernant l'imposition de droits pour la prestation de services ou l'utilisation d'installations sur les terres de réserve ou pour la fourniture de procédés réglementaires ou la délivrance d'un permis, d'une licence ou d'une autre autorisation relativement à la prestation de services locaux. Le présent modèle de loi a été conçu pour les premières nations qui souhaitent exercer leurs pouvoirs en matière de droits de service dans le cadre de la LGFPN, afin de recouvrer certains frais liés à la fourniture d'un service à des biens fonciers, tel le service d'eau ou le service d'égouts.

Voici quelques précisions concernant le contenu et la forme du modèle de loi :

1. Les catégories de droits de service établies dans le modèle de loi représentent des options à prendre en considération par la première nation. Cette dernière aura à adapter le modèle de loi de manière à ne retenir que les types de droits de service qu'elle souhaite imposer à l'égard du service.
2. Les droits de service imposés en vertu de la présente loi doivent être coordonnés avec le texte réglementaire ou le règlement administratif applicable de la première nation.
3. Les instructions figurent en caractères gras entre crochets. Il faut supprimer ces instructions dans la version définitive de la loi.
4. Les soulignements indiquent les renseignements à insérer dans la loi. Il faut insérer les renseignements nécessaires à l'endroit indiqué et supprimer les soulignements dans la version définitive de la loi.
5. Si de nouveaux articles sont ajoutés ou si des articles sont retranchés du modèle de loi, il faut renuméroter consécutivement les articles qui restent.

Veuillez vous reporter aux Normes relatives aux lois sur les droits de service des premières nations (2017) pour prendre connaissance des autres exigences applicables aux textes législatifs sur les droits de service.

II	Plainte à l'administrateur fiscal concernant les droits de service

Attendu :

A. qu'en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)a.1) de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations, le conseil d'une première nation peut prendre des textes législatifs concernant l'imposition de droits pour la prestation de services ou l'utilisation d'installations sur les terres de réserve ou pour la fourniture de procédés réglementaires ou la délivrance d'un permis, d'une licence ou d'une autre autorisation relativement à l'eau, aux égouts, à la gestion des déchets, au contrôle des animaux, aux loisirs et au transport ainsi qu'à d'autres services de même nature;

B. que la Première Nation fournit un service _____ aux résidents de la réserve et a décidé que certains frais liés à la prestation de ce service seront recouvrés en imposant des droits aux usagers du service;

C. que les droits de service établis dans le présent texte législatif correspondent au coût projeté de la prestation du service [OU de la partie du service à financer au moyen des droits] et sont appuyés par un rapport faisant état du coût projeté du service, de la manière dont ce coût a été calculé et de la portion du coût total que la première nation recouvrera au moyen des droits de service prévus dans le présent texte législatif;

D. que le Conseil de la Première Nation _____ a donné avis du présent texte législatif et pris en compte les observations qu'il a reçues, conformément aux exigences de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations,

À ces causes, le Conseil de la Première Nation _____ édicte :

PARTIE II DÉFINITIONS ET RENVOIS

Définitions et renvois

2.(1) Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent à la présente loi.

« administrateur fiscal » La personne nommée à ce poste par le Conseil en vertu de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière. [Note à la Première Nation : Comme alternative, la loi pourrait prévoir la nomination d'une personne à ce poste par voie de résolution.]

« année » S'entend d'une année civile.

« détenteur » Personne qui est en possession d'un intérêt foncier ou qui, selon le cas :

- a) a le droit de posséder ou d'occuper l'intérêt foncier en vertu d'un bail ou d'un permis ou par tout autre moyen légal;
- b) occupe de fait l'intérêt foncier;
- c) a des intérêts, titres ou droits sur l'intérêt foncier;
- d) est fiduciaire de l'intérêt foncier.

« droits de service » Droits imposés en vertu de la présente loi.

« service » S'entend du service de/d' [Note à la Première Nation : Préciser le type de service] fourni ou mis à la disposition des résidents de la réserve.

[Note à la Première Nation : Si la Première Nation est située en Colombie-Britannique, envisager d'inclure un renvoi au tribunal de règlement des litiges civils dans les articles 16 et 18, de la manière indiquée. Si ce renvoi est inclus, il faut ajouter la définition suivante : « tribunal de règlement des litiges civils » Le tribunal de règlement des litiges civils établi par la loi de la Colombie-Britannique intitulée Civil Resolution Tribunal Act, SBC 2012, ch. 25. »]

(2) Dans la présente loi, le renvoi à une partie (p. ex. la partie I), un article (p. ex. l'article 1), un paragraphe (p. ex. le paragraphe 2(1)), un alinéa (p. ex. l'alinéa 5(1)a)) ou une annexe (p. ex. l'annexe I) constitue, sauf indication contraire, un renvoi à la partie, à l'article, au paragraphe, à l'alinéa ou à l'annexe de la présente loi.

PARTIE III ADMINISTRATION

Version courante 2018 03 28

Application de la loi

3. La présente loi s'applique à l'ensemble de la réserve. [Note à la Première Nation : Modifier ce libellé si les droits de service ne s'appliquent qu'à une partie de la réserve.]

Administrateur fiscal

4.(1) L'administrateur fiscal s'acquitte des responsabilités qui lui sont attribuées par la présente loi.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal surveille l'application quotidienne et le contrôle d'application de la présente loi.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal peut, avec le consentement de [insérer le titre], déléguer l'une ou l'autre de ses fonctions dans le cadre de la présente loi à tout dirigeant, employé, entrepreneur ou mandataire de la Première Nation.

Dossiers et rapports

5.(1) L'administrateur fiscal tient, relativement à l'application de la présente loi, des dossiers de ce qui suit :

- a) le montant de tous les droits de service imposés;
- b) le montant de tous les droits de service perçus;
- c) le montant de tous les remboursements versés;
- d) les plaintes reçues, le cas échéant;
- e) les mesures d'exécution prises, le cas échéant.

(2) Au plus tard le [indiquer la date] de chaque année, l'administrateur fiscal soumet au Conseil un rapport sur l'application de la présente loi pour l'exercice précédent, dans lequel sont inclus les renseignements visés au paragraphe (1).

Mise à disposition d'un rapport

6.(1) L'administrateur fiscal met à la disposition des intéressés, sur le site Web de la Première Nation ou dans les bureaux administratifs de celle-ci, un rapport expliquant comment les droits de service prélevés en vertu de la présente loi ont été établis.

(2) Le rapport visé au paragraphe (1) doit faire état notamment du coût projeté du service, de la manière dont ce coût a été calculé et de la portion du coût total du service qui est censée être recouvrée au moyen des droits de service.

Recettes et dépenses

7.(1) Les recettes provenant des droits de service imposés en vertu de la présente loi, ainsi que les intérêts qu'elles rapportent, doivent servir uniquement à la fourniture du service.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal tient une comptabilité distincte pour les recettes provenant des droits de service perçus au titre de la présente loi.

(3) Toute dépense sur les recettes prélevées dans le cadre de la présente loi doit être faite en vertu d'un texte législatif sur les dépenses pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)b) de la Loi, ou en conformité avec l'article 13.1 de la Loi.

Information et accès au bien foncier

8.(1) L'administrateur fiscal peut remettre une demande de renseignements à toute personne, y compris le détenteur actuel ou ancien du bien foncier qui reçoit le service, et la personne doit alors lui fournir les renseignements demandés, ainsi que les dossiers pertinents, à toute fin liée à l'application ou au contrôle d'application de la présente loi, dans les quatorze (14) jours suivants ou dans le délai supérieur

indiqué dans la demande.

(2) La personne autorisée par la Première Nation peut, à toute heure convenable, entrer sur un bien foncier auquel le service est fourni, à toute fin liée à l'application ou au contrôle d'application de la présente loi.

PARTIE IV

IMPOSITION DES DROITS DE SERVICE

[Note à la Première Nation : Les dispositions suivantes contiennent un modèle de libellé concernant les droits de service d'eau, à titre d'exemple. Pour les options concernant l'imposition des droits applicables aux différents types de services, il faut se reporter à l'article 3 des Normes relatives aux lois sur les droits de service des premières nations (2017).]

Droits de branchement, de débranchement et de rétablissement du service

9.(1) Le détenteur qui souhaite faire brancher son bien foncier au service doit, au moment d'en faire la demande, payer le montant intégral des droits de branchement applicables prévus à la partie 2 de l'annexe I.

(2) Le détenteur du bien foncier doit payer le montant intégral des droits de service applicables prévus à la partie 2 de l'annexe I au moment de demander le débranchement ou le rétablissement du service.

Droits d'utilisation

10.(1) Les droits de service prévus à la partie 1 de l'annexe I pour la fourniture du service à un bien foncier sont imposés au détenteur de chaque bien foncier qui reçoit le service.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal calcule les droits de service à payer pour chaque période de facturation en multipliant les droits applicables prévus à la partie 1 de l'annexe I par la quantité d'eau fournie au bien foncier du détenteur et mesurée au compteur d'eau durant cette période. [OU, si une tarification à taux fixe est utilisée : L'administrateur calcule les droits de service applicables prévus à la partie 1 de l'annexe I pour chaque bien foncier pour la période de facturation.]

(3) Le détenteur du bien foncier qui reçoit le service doit payer tous les droits de service imposés conformément à la présente loi.

FACTURATION ET PAIEMENT

[Note à la Première Nation : Il faut adapter le libellé des dispositions ci-après en tenant compte de la méthode de facturation de la Première Nation et de sa décision de percevoir ou non les droits de service avec les impôts fonciers.]

Facturation et paiement

11.(1) L'administrateur fiscal transmet une facture des droits de service imposés en vertu de l'article 10 à chaque détenteur des biens fonciers qui reçoivent le service.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste les factures pour chaque période de facturation le ou vers le [indiquer le jour] du mois suivant la fin de chaque période de facturation.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal envoie chaque facture au détenteur à l'adresse du bien foncier qui reçoit le service, ou à toute autre adresse que le détenteur a communiquée par écrit à la Première Nation.

Version courante 2018 03 28

(4) Les droits de service sont dus et payables sur réception de la facture et au plus tard trente (30) jours après la date de la facture ou la date ultérieure qui y est indiquée.

[Note à la Première Nation : Si les droits de service sont facturés sur une base annuelle et que les détenteurs sont aussi des contribuables sous le régime de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, la facture des droits de service peut être incorporée à l'avis d'imposition annuel. Le libellé suivant peut être modifié en fonction de l'approche que la Première Nation souhaite retenir :

11.(1) L'administrateur fiscal inclut les droits de service imposés en vertu de l'article 10 dans l'avis d'imposition délivré à l'égard du bien foncier conformément à la Loi sur l'imposition foncière.

(2) Lorsque les droits de service sont inclus dans l'avis d'imposition, l'administrateur fiscal :

- a) ajoute une mention dans le rôle d'imposition indiquant que les droits de service sont inclus dans l'avis d'imposition pour ce bien foncier;
- b) dans l'avis d'imposition, indique les droits de service séparément des impôts fonciers et précise que ces droits sont imposés pour le service.

(3) Lorsque les droits de service sont inclus dans l'avis d'imposition :

- a) l'avis d'imposition envoyé par la poste constitue un relevé et une demande de paiement des droits de service;
- b) les droits de service sont dus et payable à la même date que les impôts fonciers exigibles pour ce bien foncier, à moins qu'une autre date d'échéance ne soit indiquée dans l'avis d'imposition.]

Païement des droits de service

12.(1) Les droits de service doivent être payés au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales par chèque ou mandat ou en argent comptant, ou ils peuvent être acquittés par paiement électronique.

(2) Les paiements des droits de service faits par chèque ou mandat doivent être établis à l'ordre de la Première Nation _____.

(3) Les droits de service acquittés par paiement électronique sont payés de la manière ordonnée par l'administrateur fiscal.

(4) L'administrateur fiscal applique les paiements de droits de service d'abord aux droits de service impayés des périodes de facturation antérieures, y compris les intérêts et les pénalités, et ensuite aux montants dus pour la dernière période de facturation.

Rajustement des droits de service

13.(1) L'administrateur fiscal rajuste les droits de service imposés en vertu de la présente loi de la façon suivante :

- a) si le service est débranché ou interrompu au cours d'une période de facturation, la facture comprendra la période allant jusqu'à la fin du dernier mois où le service était fourni;
- b) si le service est branché à un moment donné au cours d'une période de facturation, la facture comprendra la période commençant le premier jour du mois où le branchement a été réalisé;
- c) si deux (2) ou plusieurs biens fonciers qui reçoivent le service sont fusionnés au cours d'une période de facturation, une seule facture sera envoyée pour les biens fonciers fusionnés à compter de la période de facturation suivante;
- d) si un bien foncier qui reçoit le service fait l'objet d'un lotissement au cours d'une période de facturation, chaque nouveau bien foncier fera l'objet d'une facture distincte à compter de la période de facturation suivante.

(2) Il est entendu :

- a) qu'aucun rajustement ne peut être apporté aux droits de service lorsque le service est interrompu temporairement aux fins d'entretien, en cas d'urgence ou pour toute autre raison;
- b) que les droits de service facturés avant le lotissement d'un bien foncier ou avant la fusion de biens fonciers ne peuvent être rajustés.

Remboursement des droits de service

14.(1) L'administrateur fiscal rembourse à la personne les droits de service payés ou le trop-payé de droits de service, y compris les intérêts calculés conformément au paragraphe (2), dans les cas suivants :

- a) une personne a payé des droits de service dans des circonstances où aucun droit de service n'était payable;
- b) une personne a fait un paiement en trop de droits de service.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal calcule les intérêts payables sur un remboursement accordé au titre du paragraphe (1) de la façon suivante :

- a) l'intérêt commence à courir à la date à laquelle les droits de service ont initialement été payés à la Première Nation;
- b) le taux d'intérêt applicable à chaque période successive de trois (3) mois, commençant le 1^{er} janvier, le 1^{er} avril, le 1^{er} juillet et le 1^{er} octobre de chaque année, est le taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la Première Nation en vigueur le 15^e jour du mois précédant la période de trois (3) mois;
- c) l'intérêt n'est pas composé;
- d) l'intérêt cesse de courir le jour où le paiement de la somme due est remis ou envoyé par la poste à la personne à qui elle est destinée ou lui est effectivement versé.

PÉNALITÉS, INTÉRÊTS ET CONTRÔLE D'APPLICATION

Pénalités et intérêts

15. Si la totalité ou une partie des droits de service demeure en souffrance après la date d'échéance :

- a) une pénalité de dix pour cent (10 %) – imposée une seule fois – de la partie impayée des droits de service est ajoutée au montant des droits de service impayés le lendemain de la date d'échéance, et le montant ainsi ajouté est, à toutes fins utiles, réputé faire partie des droits de service;
- b) des intérêts de quinze pour cent (15 %) par année sont imposés sur la partie impayée des droits de service jusqu'à son règlement ou recouvrement.

Contrôle d'application

[Note à la Première Nation : Si la Première Nation est située en Colombie-Britannique, envisager de remplacer le paragraphe (1) par le libellé ci-après afin de permettre le recouvrement des droits de service par un recours au tribunal de règlement des litiges civils : (1) Les droits de service imposés en vertu de la présente loi, ainsi que les intérêts et pénalités applicables, constituent une créance de la Première Nation recouvrable par elle devant un tribunal compétent, par un recours auprès du tribunal de règlement des litiges civils ou de toute manière autorisée par la loi; sauf disposition contraire, le recours à une méthode n'empêche pas la poursuite du recouvrement par une ou

plusieurs autres méthodes.]

16.(1) Les droits de service imposés en vertu de la présente loi, ainsi que les intérêts et pénalités applicables, constituent une créance de la Première Nation recouvrable par elle devant un tribunal compétent ou de toute manière autorisée par la loi; sauf disposition contraire, le recours à une méthode n'empêche pas la poursuite du recouvrement par une ou plusieurs autres méthodes.

(2) Une copie de la facture indiquant les droits de service à payer par une personne, certifiée comme copie conforme par l'administrateur fiscal, constitue une preuve de la dette de la personne quant à ces droits.

(3) [Note à la Première Nation : La disposition ci-après ne peut être insérée que si la Première Nation dispose d'une loi sur l'imposition foncière et si les biens fonciers recevant le service sont assujettis à l'impôt. Si la Première Nation fournit des services à des biens fonciers non assujettis à l'impôt foncier, il faut plutôt envisager d'inclure des dispositions sur le contrôle d'application dans le texte de la loi.] Les droits de service qui sont toujours en souffrance le 31 décembre de chaque année peuvent être perçus de la même manière et au moyen des mêmes mesures d'exécution que les impôts fonciers prélevés en vertu de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, et l'administrateur fiscal peut, dans le rôle d'imposition établi aux termes de cette loi, inscrire les droits de service impayés à l'égard du bien foncier en tant qu'impôts impayés.

PARTIE VII

PLAINTES

Plaintes à l'administrateur fiscal

17.(1) Le détenteur peut, dans les quatorze (14) jours suivant la réception d'une facture dans le cadre de la présente loi, faire une plainte au sujet des droits de service au motif qu'il a payé des droits de service alors qu'aucun droit de service n'était payable ou qu'il a fait un paiement en trop de droits de service.

(2) La plainte doit :

- a) être en la forme prévue à l'annexe II;
- b) être transmise à l'administrateur fiscal;
- c) faire état des motifs à l'appui de la plainte.

(3) Dans les quatorze (14) jours suivant la réception de la plainte, l'administrateur fiscal procède à l'examen de la question et tente de régler la plainte directement avec le détenteur.

(4) S'il conclut que le détenteur a payé des droits de service alors qu'aucun droit de service n'était payable ou qu'il a fait un paiement en trop de droits de service, selon le cas, l'administrateur fiscal avise le détenteur de sa conclusion et lui envoie par la poste une facture modifiée.

(5) S'il conclut que le détenteur n'a pas payé des droits de service alors qu'aucun droit de service n'était payable ou qu'il n'a pas fait de paiement en trop de droits de service, selon le cas, l'administrateur fiscal informe le détenteur de sa conclusion et des motifs à l'appui.

PARTIE VIII

DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES

Communication de renseignements

18.(1) L'administrateur fiscal ou toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de renseignements ou d'archives obtenus ou créés en vertu de la présente loi ne peut communiquer ces renseignements ou archives sauf, selon le cas :

- a) dans le cadre de l'application de la présente loi ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celle-ci;

Version courante 2018 03 28

b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant [Note à la Première Nation : Ajouter « le tribunal de règlement des litiges civils ou » s'il est fait renvoi à ce tribunal au paragraphe 16(1)] un tribunal judiciaire, ou aux termes d'une ordonnance judiciaire;

c) en conformité avec le paragraphe (2).

(2) L'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer à l'agent d'un détenteur des renseignements confidentiels concernant le bien foncier du détenteur ou les droits de service que ce dernier doit pour le service, si la communication de ces renseignements a été autorisée par écrit par le détenteur.

(3) L'agent ne peut utiliser les renseignements communiqués aux termes du paragraphe (2) qu'aux fins autorisées par écrit par le détenteur du bien foncier.

Communication aux fins de recherche

19. Malgré l'article 18 :

a) l'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que ces renseignements et archives ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ni de renseignements commerciaux permettant d'identifier des entreprises;

b) le Conseil peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises, pourvu que les conditions suivantes soient réunies :

(i) la recherche ne peut vraisemblablement être effectuée que si les renseignements sont fournis sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises,

(ii) le tiers a signé une entente avec le Conseil dans laquelle il s'engage à se conformer aux exigences du Conseil concernant l'utilisation, la confidentialité et la sécurité des renseignements.

Validité

20. Aucune disposition de la présente loi ne peut être annulée ou invalidée, et l'obligation d'une personne de payer des droits de service aux termes de la présente loi ne peut être modifiée, en raison :

a) d'une erreur ou d'une omission dans une décision prise par l'administrateur fiscal;

b) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans toute facture ou tout avis donné dans le cadre de la présente loi;

c) du défaut de la part de la Première Nation ou de l'administrateur fiscal de prendre des mesures dans le délai prévu.

Restriction

21.(1) Nul ne peut engager une action ou une procédure en vue du remboursement des sommes versées à la Première Nation, que ce soit dans le cadre d'une contestation ou autrement, au titre d'une demande, valide ou invalide, concernant les droits de service payés aux termes de la présente loi, après l'expiration d'un délai de six (6) mois suivant la date du fait générateur du litige.

(2) Si aucune action ou procédure n'est engagée dans le délai prévu au présent article, les sommes versées à la Première Nation sont réputées avoir été versées de plein gré par l'intéressé.

Avis

22.(1) Lorsque la présente loi exige l'envoi par la poste d'une facture ou d'un avis ou qu'elle ne précise pas le mode de communication d'un avis, la facture ou l'avis est transmis, selon le cas :

a) par la poste, à l'adresse postale habituelle du destinataire ou à son adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'imposition établi aux termes de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, s'il y a lieu;

Version courante 2018 03 28

- b) si l'adresse du destinataire est inconnue, par affichage d'une copie de l'avis dans un endroit bien en vue sur le bien foncier auquel le service est fourni;
- c) par remise de l'avis en mains propres ou par service de messagerie au destinataire, ou à son adresse postale habituelle ou à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle d'imposition établi aux termes de la Loi sur l'imposition foncière, s'il y a lieu.
- (2) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente loi, la facture ou l'avis :
 - a) transmis par la poste est réputé reçu le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste;
 - b) affiché sur un bien foncier est réputé reçu le deuxième jour après avoir été affiché;
 - c) remis en mains propres est réputé reçu au moment de sa remise.

Interprétation

23.(1) Les dispositions de la présente loi sont dissociables. Si une disposition de la présente loi est pour quelque raison déclarée invalide par une décision d'un tribunal compétent, elle est alors retranchée de la présente loi et la décision du tribunal ne porte pas atteinte à la validité des autres dispositions de la présente loi.

(2) Les dispositions de la présente loi exprimées au présent s'appliquent à la situation du moment.

(3) Dans la présente loi, le pluriel ou le singulier s'appliquent, le cas échéant, à l'unité et à la pluralité.

(4) La présente loi est censée apporter une solution de droit et s'interprète de la manière la plus équitable et la plus large qui soit compatible avec la réalisation de ses objectifs.

(5) Les renvois dans la présente loi à un texte législatif sont réputés se rapporter à sa version éventuellement modifiée et visent tous les règlements d'application de ce texte.

(6) Les intertitres ne font pas partie de la présente loi, n'y figurant que pour faciliter la consultation.

Entrée en vigueur

24. La présente loi entre en vigueur le jour suivant son agrément par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations.

NOTE TO FIRST NATION: This sample By-law provides alternate wording options to cover a number of different circumstances. When using this sample By-law, please ensure that the appropriate options are selected to suit the First Nation's specific circumstances and that all drafting instructions and unused alternate wording are deleted from the final By-law. When deleting an unwanted section, subsection, paragraph or schedule please sequentially renumber/reletter the remaining provisions or schedules and revise, as appropriate, the numbering or lettering of any internal references affected by the deletion. Drafting instructions are indicated in square brackets and bold type as a "Note to First Nation", while alternate wording is indicated in square brackets with an "OR". Please also ensure that the schedules are fully completed to correspond to the wording of the final version of the by-law.

Please note that this sample By-law assumes that the First Nation has enacted its section 83 taxation by-law.

FIRST NATION
LOCAL IMPROVEMENT TAX BY-LAW, 20__

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 83(1)(a) of the Indian Act, the council of a First Nation may make by-laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands;

B. Council has determined that it is in the best interests of the First Nation to make a by-law for the provision of a [Note to First Nation: insert type of local improvement] to the reserve [OR to a defined area of the reserve] and to provide for the costs [OR a portion of the costs] of the local improvement to be paid for by a local improvement tax on property within the reserve [OR a defined area of the reserve];

C. The holders of the properties within the area of the reserve that will benefit from the local improvement have shown their support for the local improvement by [Note to First Nation: This recital is necessary only if the local improvement is to a defined area of the reserve. Insert how holders have shown their support and indicate the proportion of holders that are in favour of the local improvement.]; and

D. The Council of the _____ First Nation has given notice of this By-law and has considered representations received by the Council, in accordance with the requirements of the First Nations Tax Commission's section 83 Taxation Policy.

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the _____ First Nation duly enacts as follows:

PART III

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT AND LOCAL IMPROVEMENT TAX LEVY

Local Improvement Described

3.(1) The local improvement to be provided to the residents of the reserve [OR local improvement area] is [Note to First Nation: describe details of local improvement.].

(2) [The local improvement area is that portion of the reserve shown outlined on the map attached as Schedule VIII and includes those properties listed in Schedule VIII.] [Note to First Nation: This subsection is required only where the local improvement is to be provided to a defined area of the reserve and not the entire reserve. Where included, complete Schedule VIII. Where deleted, delete Schedule VIII as well.]

Estimated Cost of Local Improvement

4.(1) The estimated cost of the local improvement is _____ dollars ($ ____). [Note to First Nation: Costs can include land acquisition, capital costs, professional service or debt servicing costs and other expenses incidental to undertaking and financing the local improvement. Costs must be certified by a registered professional in accordance with the Commission Policy.]

[(2) The holders' portion of the cost is _____ percent (____%) of the total cost of the local improvement.]

Tax Levy

5.(1) A tax is hereby imposed on all property in the reserve [OR in the local improvement area] as set out in this By-law.

(2) Any person who shares the same interest in property subject to taxation under this By-law is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed under this By-law during the taxation year, and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity interest, penalties and costs.

(3) The tax for the local improvement is based on [Note to First Nation: select the basis for the tax and insert the rates, as applicable. Delete all other options.]

- a property value tax on the assessed value of the property as determined under the Assessment By-law, at a rate of _____ dollars ($ ____) per one thousand dollars ($1000) of assessed value [OR at the following rates for each class of property: class 1 - _____ dollars ($ ____) per one thousand dollars ($1000) of assessed value, etc.].
- a fixed amount of _____ dollars ($ ____) for each property.
- the taxable area of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($ ____) per square metre of area.
- the taxable area of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($ ____) per square metre for properties of up to _____ (____) square metres, _____ dollars ($ ____) per square metre for properties between _____ (____) square metres and _____ (____) square metres, and _____ dollars ($ ____) per square metre for properties greater than _____ (____) square metres.
- the taxable frontage of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($ ____) per metre of frontage.

Update 2018 10 30

- the taxable frontage of the property, at a rate of _____ dollars ($) per metre for properties of up to _____ () metres of frontage, _____ dollars ($) per metre for properties with between _____ () metres and _____ () metres of frontage, and _____ dollars ($) per metre for properties with more than _____ () metres of frontage.

[(4) The taxable area [OR frontage] of a property must be determined by the tax administrator using the formula set out in Schedule I.]

(5) The tax rate or formula set out in this section must not be amended other than by an amendment to this By-law.

Duration of Tax

6. The tax will be imposed in each taxation year for not more than _____ () years.

Construction Schedule

7.(1) A construction schedule for the local improvement, certified by a registered professional, is attached as Schedule II to this By-law.

(2) The First Nation must commence and complete the construction of the local improvement in accordance with the construction schedule and must in any event commence construction within one (1) year from the date the tax is due and payable in the first year it is imposed.

Exemptions from Taxes [Note to First Nation: Delete this section if no exemptions will be given from the tax.]

8.(1) The following properties are exempt from the tax because the holders of the property have provided all or a part of the cost of the local improvement or have already paid towards the cost of the local improvement: [Note to First Nation: insert description of properties].

(2) The following properties are exempt from the tax and the tax that would have been paid by the holders of these properties will be paid by the First Nation: [Note to First Nation: insert description of properties].

Payment

[Note to First Nation: The sample provides for annual collection of the tax on the same timetable as the property taxes. A First Nation can choose to follow a different time frame by making appropriate changes to this By-law.]

9.(1) The tax is deemed imposed January 1 of each year in which the tax is imposed.

(2) The tax forms part of the taxes due and owing in respect of each property in each year, and is due and payable by the holder on or before [Note to First Nation: insert same date as general property tax due date] in each year in which it is levied.

(3) Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator, first, to unpaid taxes from previous taxation years, with taxes imposed earlier being discharged before taxes imposed later, and, second, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

(4) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.

(5) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the _____ First Nation.

(6) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person, in the same manner as taxes are refunded under the Taxation By-law.

Prepayment

Update 2018 10 30

[Note to First Nation: Allowing prepayment is optional but recommended. If it is allowed, it will reduce the amount the First Nation will need to finance for the project and will reduce administration in future years.]

10.(1) A holder of property subject to the tax may prepay the tax imposed on the property by paying, on or before [Note to First Nation: suggest using same date as tax due date] in the year the tax is first imposed, the prepayment amount determined by the tax administrator in respect of that property.

(2) The tax administrator must calculate the prepayment amount by multiplying the number of years the tax is payable, by the amount payable in each year, by a factor of _____. [Note to First Nation: This factor should be calculated to eliminate the financing component of the local improvement tax.]

Revenues and Expenditures

11.(1) All revenue collected by the First Nation from the tax, and interest earned on it, must only be used for the provision of the local improvement.

(2) The tax administrator must establish a separate account for the tax revenues.

(3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this By-law must be made under the authority of an expenditure By-law under subsection 83(2) of the Act.

PART IV

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

Tax Roll

12.(1) The tax administrator must prepare a tax roll for the purposes of imposing the tax.

(2) On or before _____ in each subsequent taxation year, the tax administrator must update the tax roll in accordance with Part VIII.

(3) The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest in land;

(b) a short description of the interest in land;

(c) if the tax is imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the interest in land, the total assessed value of the interest in land as shown on the assessment roll;

(d) unless the tax is imposed on the basis of the assessed value or a single amount for each property, the taxable area or the taxable frontage of each interest in land, as applicable; and

(e) if the name of a holder of a registered charge is included on the assessment roll for a property, the name and address of that person.

(4) Where the tax is levied on the basis of taxable area or taxable frontage, the calculation of the taxable area or taxable frontage of each interest in land must be reviewed by a registered professional who must certify that these amounts are correctly shown on the tax roll.

(5) The tax administrator may correct errors on the tax roll at any time before the tax roll is certified under Part VII.

(6) Once it has been prepared by the tax administrator, the tax roll must be available for public inspection at the offices of the First Nation during regular office hours.

(7) If requested by a holder, the tax administrator must amend a tax roll available for public inspection by omitting or obscuring the address of the holder or other information about the holder in order to protect the privacy and security of the holder.

Update 2018 10 30

Tax Notice

- 13.(1) If property taxes are levied on the property under the Taxation By-law, the tax must be
- (a) included in the annual tax notice given under the Taxation By-law; and
 - (b) shown separately from other taxes on the tax notice.
- (2) If property taxes are not levied on a property under the Taxation By-law, the tax administrator must, in each year in which the tax is levied, mail a tax notice to the holder in the same manner as a tax notice would be given under the Taxation By-law.
- (3) The mailing of the tax notice constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.
- (4) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a tax notice.

PART V

PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalties and Interest

14. (1) If all or part of the taxes levied in any year remain unpaid after [Note to First Nation: insert due date], a penalty of ____ percent (____ %) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes in that year and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes. [Note to First Nation: maximum is a one-time ten percent (10%) penalty each year]

(2) If all or any portion of taxes levied in any year remain unpaid after [Note to First Nation: insert due date], the unpaid portion accrues interest at ____ percent (____ %) per year. [Note to First Nation: maximum interest is fifteen percent (15%) per year]

Tax Collection and Enforcement

15.(1) Taxes imposed under this By-law, together with any applicable interest and penalties, are a debt due to the First Nation by the holder, recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction and may also be recovered by any other method authorized under the Taxation By-law or other applicable by-laws, and for this purpose Parts XIII, XIV, XV and XVI [Note to First Nation: Confirm these Parts accurately refer to the collection and enforcement provisions in the First Nation's Taxation By-law] of the Taxation By-law apply to the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes.

(2) The use of one method of collection and enforcement does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(3) A copy of the tax notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

PART VI

REVIEW PANEL

Council to Establish Review Panel

16.(1) Where there is an appeal under Part VII or VIII of this By-law, Council must, by resolution, appoint at least three (3) persons as members of the Review Panel to hear and determine appeals and certify the tax roll as provided in this By-law.

(2) Each member of the Review Panel must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this By-law.

(3) If a member of the Review Panel is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

Update 2018 10 30

Appointment of Chair

17.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Review Panel as chair.

(2) The chair must

- (a) supervise and direct the work of the Review Panel;
- (b) determine procedures to be followed at hearings that are consistent with this By-law;
- (c) administer an oath or solemn affirmation to a person or witness before his or her evidence is taken; and
- (d) preside at hearings of the Review Panel.

(3) If the chair is absent or incapacitated, Council must designate a member of the Review Panel as acting chair for the period that the chair is absent or incapacitated.

Remuneration and Reimbursement

18. The First Nation must

- (a) remunerate a member of the Review Panel, other than the chair, for his or her services at a rate of _____ dollars ($ _____) per day for time spent on activities related to the Review Panel;
- (b) remunerate the chair of the Review Panel for his or her services at a rate of _____ dollars ($ _____) per day for time spent on activities related to the Review Panel; and
- (c) reimburse a member of the Review Panel for reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out his or her duties.

Conflicts of Interest

19.(1) A person must not serve on the Review Panel if the person

- (a) has a personal or financial interest in the property that is the subject of an appeal;
- (b) is the Chief or a member of Council;
- (c) is an employee of the First Nation; or
- (d) has financial dealings with the First Nation which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal as required under the terms of this By-law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in the property that is the subject of an appeal.

Duty of Member

20. In performing their duties under this By-law, the members of the Review Panel must act faithfully, honestly and impartially and to the best of their skill and ability, and must not disclose to any person information obtained by them as a member, except in the proper performance of their duties.

Removal of Member

21. Council may terminate the appointment of a member of the Review Panel for cause, including where a member

- (a) is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code;
- (b) fails to attend three (3) consecutive hearings of the Review Panel; or
- (c) fails to perform any of his or her duties under this By-law in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this By-law.

Assessment Review Board Sitting as the Review Panel

Update 2018 10 30

22.(1) Despite section 16, Council may, by resolution, appoint the Assessment Review Board established under the Assessment By-law to be the Review Panel.

(2) Where Council appoints the Assessment Review Board under subsection (1),

(a) the members of the Review Panel must be the same members that comprise the Assessment Review Board;

(b) the chair must be the same person appointed as chair of the Assessment Review Board;

(c) the members must follow the requirements and procedures set out in this By-law when acting as the Review Panel under this By-law;

(d) the members of the Review Panel must be remunerated and reimbursed for their work on the Review Panel as provided for the Assessment Review Board in the Assessment By-law; and

(e) the removal of a member of the Review Panel under section 21 is a removal of that member from the Assessment Review Board.

PART VII

APPEALS TO REVIEW PANEL

[Note to First Nation: Under this model, the Review Panel hears appeals, if any, respecting the local improvement tax roll in the first year the tax is imposed. Thereafter there is an annual opportunity for holders to appeal the tax to the Review Panel.]

Appeals to Review Panel

23. Before a tax is imposed for the first time, the Review Panel must hear and determine any appeals respecting the tax roll and must certify the roll in accordance with this Part.

Tax Administrator to Certify Where No Appeals

24. Where no appeals are filed in accordance with this Part, the tax administrator must

(a) certify in writing that the tax roll completed under section 12 was completed in accordance with the requirements of this By-law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified local improvement tax roll to Council.

Review Panel Sitting

25.(1) At least twenty-one (21) days before the tax is due in the first year the tax is imposed, Council must establish the proposed date, time and place for the sitting of the Review Panel to hear appeals respecting the tax roll.

(2) At least fourteen (14) days before the proposed date of the sitting of the Review Panel, the tax administrator must post a notice of the date, time and place of the proposed sitting on the First Nation's website and at the First Nation's administrative offices.

Notice of Tax

26. At least fourteen (14) days before the date proposed for the sitting of the Review Panel, the tax administrator must mail to the holder of every property that is to be taxed a Notice of Local Improvement Tax stating

(a) the local improvement in relation to which the tax is to be imposed;

(b) the taxable area or the taxable frontage of the property, if applicable;

(c) the tax rate or formula applicable to the property;

(d) the date, time and place of the sitting of the Review Panel; and

Update 2018 10 30

- (e) that the tax roll is available for inspection at the offices of the First Nation during its regular office hours.

Grounds for Appeal

27.(1) A person may appeal the tax to the Review Panel on one or more of the following grounds:

- (a) there is an error or omission respecting a name or address on the local improvement tax roll,
- (b) there is an error or omission respecting the inclusion of a property,
- (c) there is an error or omission respecting the taxable area or the taxable frontage of a property, and [Note to First Nation: Delete this ground for appeal if the tax is not based on area or frontage.]
- (d) an exemption has been improperly allowed or disallowed, [Note to First Nation: Delete this ground for appeal if the By-law does not provide for any exemptions from the tax.]

by delivering a completed Notice of Appeal and a copy of the Notice of Local Improvement Tax to the tax administrator within seven (7) days after the Notice of Local Improvement Tax was delivered to the holder of the property.

(2) Where an appeal is received under this section, the tax administrator must immediately advise the Council and the chair, and confirm the sitting of the Review Panel as scheduled.

(3) A Review Panel hearing an appeal under this section only has authority to amend the tax roll in relation to properties in respect of which an appeal under this section has been made.

Withdrawal of Appeal

28.(1) A complainant may withdraw an appeal under this Part by delivering a Notice of Withdrawal to the tax administrator.

(2) On receipt, the tax administrator must forward a Notice of Withdrawal to the chair of the Review Panel.

(3) Where a Notice of Withdrawal is received before a hearing has commenced, the chair must accept the withdrawal and cancel the hearing for that appeal.

(4) Where a Notice of Withdrawal is received after a hearing has commenced, the Review Panel must dismiss the appeal.

Hearings

29.(1) A majority of the members of the Review Panel constitutes a quorum.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of the Review Panel is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

(3) The Review Panel may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(4) The Review Panel must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably necessary for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(7) The Review Panel may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

Update 2018 10 30

(8) The Review Panel may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(9) The Review Panel may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(10) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(11) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Review Panel, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be in camera.

(12) The Review Panel may

(a) hear all appeals on the same day or may adjourn from time to time until all appeals have been heard and determined;

(b) hear an appeal whether the complainant is present or not; and

(c) at any time during a proceeding, adjourn the proceeding.

(13) If two (2) or more appeals involve the same or similar questions, the Review Panel may combine the appeals, or any part of them, hear the appeals at the same time or one immediately after the other, or stay one or more of the appeals until after the determination of another one of them.

(14) Subject to this By-law, the Review Panel has the power to control its own processes to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

Parties to an Appeal

30. The parties to an appeal are

(a) the complainant;

(b) the holder of the interest in land, if not the complainant;

(c) the tax administrator; and

(d) any other person who may be affected by the appeal, as determined by the Review Panel.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

31.(1) The Review Panel may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Review Panel may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Review Panel orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

32.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Review Panel, the Review Panel may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

(a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Review Panel;

(b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or

(c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Review Panel.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Review Panel must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Review Panel.

(3) The Review Panel must make a record of its decision for any dismissal made under subsection (1) and provide a copy of the record to all parties.

Update 2018 10 30

Decisions of the Review Panel

33.(1) A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Review Panel and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

(2) If a member is unable for any reason to complete the member's duties, the remaining members may continue to hear and determine the appeal and the vacancy does not invalidate the hearing.

(3) The chair must, within ten (10) days after completion of a hearing, make a record of the Review Panel's decision and provide the tax administrator with the information necessary to amend the tax roll and provide the notices required under section 35.

(4) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the information provided under subsection (3), the tax administrator must amend the tax roll in accordance with the chair's directions and return the amended tax roll to the chair.

Certification of Tax Roll by Chair

34.(1) The chair must review the amended tax roll returned under subsection 33(4) to confirm that the directed amendments have been made.

(2) If the chair confirms that the directed amendments have been made, the chair must certify the tax roll and deliver a copy of the certified tax roll to the tax administrator.

(3) On receipt of the certified tax roll under subsection (2), the tax administrator must deliver a copy of the tax roll to the Council.

Notices to Complainants

35.(1) Within ten (10) days after a tax roll is certified under section 34, the tax administrator must mail a notice of the decision made by the Review Panel to

- (a) the holder of the property to which the decision relates; and
- (b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder of the property.

(2) The notice under subsection (1) must include a statement that the complainant has the right to judicial review of the Review Panel's decision by a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART VIII

UPDATING THE LOCAL IMPROVEMENT TAX ROLL

Tax Administrator Must Update Tax Roll

36. In each year after the first year in which the tax is imposed, the tax administrator must update the tax roll to

- (a) reflect any changes from the previous year in relation to matters referred to in subsection 12(3); and
- (b) reflect changes where there is
 - (i) a subdivision affecting a property, or
 - (ii) a consolidation of two (2) or more properties, such that each of the new properties bears an appropriate share of the tax.

Annual Notice to Holders

37. In each year after the first year in which a tax is imposed, the tax administrator must post a notice on the First Nation's website and at the First Nation's administrative offices stating

- (a) that the tax roll for that year is available for inspection at the First Nation offices during its regular

Update 2018 10 30

office hours;

(b) that a person who holds property included on the tax roll may request that the roll be amended respecting a matter referred to in subsection 27(1); and

(c) the date and time by which a request must be made in order to be considered for that year.

Requests for Amendment to the Tax Roll

38.(1) A person who holds a property included on a tax roll may request that the tax roll be amended respecting a matter referred to in subsection 27(1), by delivering a Request to Amend Local Improvement Tax Roll to the tax administrator before the time specified in the notice given under section 37.

(2) A request under subsection (1) may be made only in relation to the person's own property.

(3) A request under subsection (1) must not be made in respect of an amendment that a holder has requested in a previous year.

(4) If the tax administrator does not make the amendment requested under subsection (1), the tax administrator must deliver a Notice of Refusal to Amend Local Improvement Tax Roll to the holder of the property in respect of which the request was made.

Appeals to Review Panel

39.(1) A holder who receives a Notice of Refusal to Amend Local Improvement Tax Roll may appeal the decision by delivering a completed Notice of Appeal to the tax administrator within thirty (30) days after the date on which the notice was given, provided that the appeal is

(a) on one or more of the grounds set out in subsection 27(1); and

(b) in respect of property held by that person.

(2) If the tax administrator receives an appeal in accordance with subsection (1), the tax administrator must advise Council, and Council must convene a Review Panel to hear and determine the appeal, and for these purposes Part VII applies.

(3) A Review Panel hearing an appeal under this section only has authority to amend the tax roll in relation to properties in respect of which an appeal under this section has been made.

(4) If no appeals are received under this section, the tax administrator must

(a) certify in writing that the tax roll as it is amended under this Part was completed in accordance with the requirements of this By-law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified local improvement tax roll to Council.

Validity of Tax Roll

40. Despite

(a) any omission, defect or error committed in or with respect to a tax roll,

(b) any defect, error or misstatement in any notice given, or

(c) any omission to mail or deliver a notice,

the initial tax roll, as certified by the tax administrator or the chair, is valid and binding on all parties concerned until updated in accordance with this By-law in each subsequent year, and each update to the tax roll certified by the tax administrator or the chair is valid and binding on all parties concerned until the next certified tax roll under this By-law.

PART IX GENERAL PROVISIONS

Update 2018 10 30

Disclosure of Information

41.(1) The tax administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this By-law must not disclose the information or records except

- (a) in the course of administering this By-law or performing functions under it;
- (b) in proceedings before the Review Panel, a court of law or pursuant to a court order; or
- (c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.

(3) An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

Disclosure for Research Purposes

42. Notwithstanding section 41, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided

- (a) the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or
- (b) where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

43. Nothing under this By-law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this By-law be affected by

- (a) an error or omission in a determination made by the tax administrator;
- (b) an error or omission in a tax roll or any notice given under this By-law; or
- (c) a failure of the First Nation, the tax administrator or the Review Panel to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

44.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this By-law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the making of the payment.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

Notices

45.(1) Where in this By-law a notice is required to be delivered, given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

- (a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;
- (b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or
- (c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

Update 2018 10 30

- (2) Except where otherwise provided in this By-law,
 - (a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;
 - (b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and
 - (c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

46.(1) The provisions of this By-law are severable, and where any provision of this By-law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this By-law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this By-law.

(2) Where a provision in this By-law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this By-law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This By-law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this By-law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

Coming into Force

47. This By-law comes into force upon the approval of the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development.

THIS BY-LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the ____ day of _____, 20____, at _____, in the Province of _____.

A quorum of Council consists of (____) () members of Council.

NOTE À LA PREMIÈRE NATION : Le présent modèle de règlement administratif offre des choix de dispositions convenant à différentes circonstances. Lorsque vous utilisez ce modèle de règlement administratif, veuillez vous assurer de bien choisir le libellé qui convient aux circonstances particulières de la Première Nation et de supprimer toutes les instructions de rédaction et les dispositions inutiles dans la version définitive du règlement administratif. En cas de suppression d'un article, d'un paragraphe, d'un alinéa ou d'une annexe qui n'est pas nécessaire, veuillez renuméroter ou redésigner en conséquence les autres dispositions ou annexes et réviser au besoin la désignation numérique ou alphabétique des renvois internes visés. Les instructions de rédaction sont indiquées en caractères gras entre crochets et sont précédées de la mention « Note à la Première Nation », tandis que les libellés facultatifs figurent entre crochets et sont précédés du mot « OU ». Veuillez aussi vous assurer que les annexes sont libellées de manière à correspondre à la version définitive du règlement administratif.

Il convient de noter que ce modèle de règlement administratif se fonde sur la prémisse que la Première Nation a déjà édicté son règlement administratif sur l'imposition foncière en vertu de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens.

RÈGLEMENT ADMINISTRATIF SUR LA TAXE D'AMÉLIORATIONS LOCALES DE LA PREMIÈRE NATION _____ (20__)

Attendu :

A. qu'en vertu de l'alinéa 83(1)a) de la Loi sur les Indiens, le conseil d'une première nation peut prendre des règlements administratifs concernant l'imposition de taxes à des fins locales sur les terres de réserve, ainsi que sur les intérêts ou les droits d'occupation, de possession et d'usage sur celles-ci;

B. que le Conseil a déterminé qu'il est dans l'intérêt de la Première Nation de prendre un règlement administratif concernant la réalisation d'améliorations locales [Note à la Première Nation : Indiquer le type d'améliorations locales] dans la réserve [OU à un secteur déterminé de la réserve] et de prévoir le financement des coûts [OU d'une partie des coûts] des améliorations locales au moyen de l'imposition d'une taxe d'améliorations locales sur les biens fonciers situés dans la réserve [OU dans un secteur déterminé de la réserve];

C. que les détenteurs de biens fonciers dans le secteur de la réserve qui bénéficiera des améliorations locales ont démontré qu'ils appuient ces améliorations en [Note à la Première Nation : Ce paragraphe n'est requis que si les améliorations locales sont réalisées dans un secteur déterminé de la réserve. Veuillez préciser de quelle façon les détenteurs ont manifesté leur appui et indiquer la proportion de détenteurs qui sont en faveur des améliorations locales.];

D. que le Conseil de la Première Nation _____ a donné avis du présent règlement administratif et a tenu compte des observations qu'il a reçues, conformément aux exigences de la Politique de la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations concernant l'imposition foncière au titre de l'article 83,

À ces causes, le Conseil de la Première Nation _____ édicte :

(2) Quiconque détient une part d'un intérêt dans un bien foncier assujéti à la taxe prévue au présent règlement administratif est solidairement responsable envers la Première Nation de payer la totalité des taxes imposées en vertu de ce règlement pendant l'année d'imposition ainsi que les taxes impayées imposées dans une année d'imposition antérieure, y compris les intérêts, pénalités et frais y afférents.

(3) La taxe d'améliorations locales est basée sur [Note à la Première Nation : Choisir la base d'imposition de la taxe et insérer les taux applicables. Supprimer les options inutiles.]

- une taxe sur la valeur foncière, qui est fondée sur la valeur imposable du bien foncier déterminée conformément au Règlement administratif sur l'évaluation foncière, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par tranche de mille dollars (1 000 $) de la valeur imposable [OU aux taux suivants pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers : catégorie 1 - _____ dollars (___ $) par tranche de mille dollars (1 000 $) de la valeur imposable, etc.].
- un montant fixe de _____ dollars (___ $) pour chaque bien foncier.
- la superficie imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré de superficie.
- la superficie imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré pour les biens fonciers ayant une superficie d'au plus _____ (___) mètres carrés, de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré pour les biens fonciers ayant une superficie entre _____ (___) mètres carrés et _____ (___) mètres carrés, et de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre carré pour les biens fonciers ayant une superficie supérieure à _____ (___) mètres carrés.
- la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre de longueur de façade.
- la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, au taux de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre pour les biens fonciers ayant une longueur de façade d'au plus _____ (___) mètres, de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre pour les biens fonciers ayant une longueur de façade entre _____ (___) mètres et _____ (___) mètres, et de _____ dollars (___ $) par mètre pour les biens fonciers ayant une longueur de façade supérieure à _____ (___) mètres.

[(4) La superficie imposable [OU La longueur de façade imposable] d'un bien foncier est calculée par l'administrateur fiscal au moyen de la formule prévue à l'annexe I.]

(5) Le taux de taxe ou la formule de calcul prévus au présent article ne peuvent être modifiés que par une modification apportée au présent règlement administratif.

Durée de la taxe

6. La taxe est imposée à chaque année d'imposition pendant au plus _____ (___) ans.

Échéancier de construction

7.(1) L'échéancier de construction relatif aux améliorations locales, certifié par un professionnel agréé, est annexé au présent règlement administratif à titre d'annexe II.

(2) La Première Nation doit commencer et achever les travaux de construction relatifs aux améliorations locales conformément à l'échéancier de construction et, en tout état de cause, commencer ces travaux dans un délai d'un (1) an suivant la date à laquelle la taxe est exigible la première année où elle est imposée.

Exemptions de taxe [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer cet article si aucune exemption de taxe]

ne sera accordée.]

8.(1) Les biens fonciers suivants sont exemptés de la taxe parce que les détenteurs de ces biens ont payé la totalité ou une partie du coût des améliorations locales ou ont déjà fait un paiement à l'égard de ce coût : [Note à la Première Nation : insérer une description des biens fonciers visés].

(2) Les biens fonciers suivants sont exemptés de la taxe, et la taxe qui aurait été payée par les détenteurs de ces biens sera acquittée par la Première Nation : [Note à la Première Nation : insérer une description des biens fonciers visés].

Paiement

[Note à la Première Nation : Le présent modèle prévoit la perception annuelle de la taxe selon le même échéancier que celui visant les impôts fonciers. La Première Nation peut choisir de suivre un échéancier différent en modifiant en conséquence le libellé du présent règlement administratif.]

9.(1) La taxe est réputée imposée le 1^{er} janvier de chaque année où elle est imposée.

(2) La taxe fait partie des impôts annuels exigibles pour chaque bien foncier et doit être payée par le détenteur au plus tard le _____. [Note à la Première Nation : Inscrire la même date que celle où les impôts fonciers généraux sont exigibles] de chaque année où elle est prélevée.

(3) L'administrateur fiscal applique les paiements d'impôts d'abord aux impôts impayés des années d'imposition antérieures, des plus anciennes aux plus récentes, et ensuite aux impôts impayés de l'année d'imposition en cours.

(4) Les paiements de la taxe doivent être faits au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales, par chèque ou mandat ou en argent comptant.

(5) Les paiements de la taxe faits par chèque ou mandat sont établis à l'ordre de la Première Nation _____.

(6) L'administrateur fiscal rembourse tout paiement en trop de la taxe de la même façon que le remboursement des impôts payés en trop sous le régime du Règlement administratif sur l'imposition foncière.

Paiement par anticipation

[Note à la Première Nation : Il est facultatif, bien que recommandé, d'autoriser les paiements par anticipation. Si ces paiements sont autorisés, cela réduira le montant dont aura besoin la Première Nation pour financer le projet et entraînera une diminution des frais administratifs dans les années ultérieures.]

10.(1) Le détenteur d'un bien foncier assujéti à la taxe peut payer celle-ci par anticipation au plus tard le _____. [Note à la Première Nation : Il est recommandé d'utiliser la même date que la date d'exigibilité des impôts] de la première année où la taxe est imposée, en acquittant le montant du paiement par anticipation calculé par l'administrateur fiscal à l'égard de ce bien.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal calcule le montant du paiement par anticipation en multipliant le nombre d'années pendant lesquelles la taxe est payable, par le montant payable chaque année, par un facteur de _____. [Note à la Première Nation : Il faut calculer ce facteur de manière à éliminer la composante de financement que comporte la taxe d'améliorations locales.]

Recettes et dépenses

11.(1) Les recettes provenant de la taxe que perçoit la Première Nation, ainsi que les intérêts qu'elles rapportent, doivent servir uniquement à la réalisation des améliorations locales visées.

(2) L'administrateur fiscal établit un compte distinct pour les recettes provenant de la taxe.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

(3) Toute dépense engagée sur les recettes perçues au titre du présent règlement administratif doit être autorisée par un règlement administratif sur les dépenses pris en vertu du paragraphe 83(2) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV

RÔLE DE TAXES D'AMÉLIORATIONS LOCALES ET AVIS DE TAXE

Rôle de taxes

12.(1) L'administrateur fiscal établit un rôle de taxes aux fins de l'imposition de la taxe.

(2) Au plus tard le _____ de chaque année d'imposition subséquente, l'administrateur fiscal met à jour le rôle de taxes conformément à la partie VIII.

(3) Le rôle de taxes est établi sur support papier ou sous forme électronique et contient les renseignements suivants :

- a) le nom et la dernière adresse connue du détenteur de l'intérêt foncier;
- b) une brève description de l'intérêt foncier;
- c) dans le cas où la taxe est basée sur la valeur imposable de l'intérêt foncier, la valeur imposable totale de celui-ci telle qu'elle figure sur le rôle d'évaluation;
- d) la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable de chaque intérêt foncier, selon le cas, sauf si la taxe est basée sur la valeur imposable ou sur un montant forfaitaire pour chaque bien foncier;
- e) dans le cas où le nom du titulaire d'une charge enregistrée est inscrit sur le rôle d'évaluation à l'égard d'un bien foncier, le nom et l'adresse de cette personne.

(4) Lorsque la taxe est basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable, le calcul de la superficie imposable ou de la longueur de façade imposable de chaque intérêt foncier est examiné par un professionnel agréé qui doit certifier que le résultat du calcul est indiqué correctement sur le rôle de taxes.

(5) L'administrateur fiscal peut corriger des erreurs sur le rôle de taxes à tout moment avant la certification de ce rôle en conformité avec la partie VII.

(6) Une fois qu'il a été établi par l'administrateur fiscal, le rôle de taxes est mis à la disposition du public pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales.

(7) À la demande d'un détenteur, l'administrateur fiscal modifie le rôle de taxes mis à la disposition du public pour consultation, en omettant ou en masquant l'adresse du détenteur ou tout autre renseignement le concernant afin de protéger le droit à la vie privée ou la sécurité de celui-ci.

Avis de taxe

13.(1) Si le bien foncier est assujéti à des impôts fonciers en vertu du Règlement administratif sur l'imposition foncière, la taxe d'améliorations locales est :

- a) incluse dans l'avis d'imposition annuel envoyé aux termes de ce règlement;
- b) indiquée séparément des autres taxes ou impôts sur l'avis d'imposition.

(2) Si le bien foncier n'est pas assujéti à des impôts fonciers selon le Règlement administratif sur l'imposition foncière, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste, chaque année où la taxe d'améliorations locales est prélevée, un avis de taxe au détenteur de la même façon qu'un avis d'imposition lui serait envoyé aux termes du Règlement administratif sur l'imposition foncière.

(3) L'avis de taxe envoyé par la poste constitue un relevé et une demande de paiement de la taxe.

(4) L'administrateur fiscal inscrit sur le rôle de taxes la date de mise à la poste de l'avis de taxe.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

PARTIE V

PÉNALITÉS, INTÉRÊTS ET CONTRÔLE D'APPLICATION

Pénalités et intérêts

14.(1) Si la totalité ou une partie des taxes prélevées dans une année est toujours en souffrance après le _____ [Note à la Première Nation : Indiquer la date d'exigibilité], une pénalité de ____ pour cent (____ %) de la partie qu'il reste à payer est ajoutée au montant des taxes impayées de cette année et le montant ainsi ajouté est, à toutes fins utiles, réputé faire partie des taxes. [Note à la Première Nation : la pénalité maximale – imposée une seule fois chaque année – est de dix pour cent (10 %)]

(2) Si la totalité ou une partie des taxes prélevées dans une année est toujours en souffrance après le _____ [Note à la Première Nation : Indiquer la date d'exigibilité], des intérêts sont imposés sur la partie impayée, au taux de ____ pour cent (____ %) par année. [Note à la Première Nation : le taux d'intérêt maximal est de quinze pour cent (15 %) par année]

Perception et contrôle d'application

(2) Le recours à une méthode de perception et de contrôle d'application n'empêche pas la poursuite du recouvrement par une ou plusieurs autres méthodes.

(3) Une copie de l'avis de taxe indiquant les taxes à payer par une personne, certifiée comme copie conforme par l'administrateur fiscal, constitue une preuve de la dette fiscale de la personne.

COMITÉ D'EXAMEN

Constitution du Comité d'examen

16.(1) Lorsqu'un appel est interjeté en vertu des parties VII ou VIII, le Conseil nomme, par résolution, au moins trois (3) personnes à titre de membres du Comité d'examen chargé d'entendre et de trancher les appels et de certifier le rôle de taxes conformément au présent règlement administratif.

(2) Chaque membre du Comité d'examen occupe sa charge pour un mandat de trois (3) ans, sauf s'il démissionne ou est révoqué conformément au présent règlement administratif.

(3) En cas d'absence, de disqualification, d'empêchement ou de refus d'agir d'un membre du Comité d'examen, le Conseil peut nommer comme suppléant une autre personne – par ailleurs qualifiée pour la nomination à titre de membre – qui remplacera le membre jusqu'à ce qu'il reprenne ses fonctions ou que son mandat arrive à expiration, selon la première de ces éventualités à survenir.

Désignation du président

17.(1) Le Conseil désigne, par résolution, un des membres du Comité d'examen à titre de président.

(2) Le président exerce les fonctions suivantes :

- a) superviser et diriger les travaux du Comité d'examen;

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

- b) définir les procédures à suivre lors des audiences, qui sont compatibles avec le présent règlement administratif;
- c) faire prêter serment à des personnes ou aux témoins ou recevoir leurs affirmations solennelles avant leur témoignage;
- d) présider les audiences du Comité d'examen.

(3) En cas d'absence ou d'empêchement du président, le Conseil désigne un membre du Comité d'examen pour assurer l'intérim pendant la durée de l'absence ou de l'empêchement du président.

Rémunération et remboursement

18. La Première Nation :

- a) verse une rémunération à chaque membre du Comité d'examen, autre que le président, pour ses services, au taux de _____ dollars (____ $) par jour pour le temps consacré aux activités liées au Comité d'examen;
- b) verse une rémunération au président du Comité d'examen pour ses services, au taux de _____ dollars (____ $) par jour pour le temps consacré aux activités liées au Comité d'examen;
- c) rembourse aux membres du Comité d'examen leurs frais de déplacement et faux frais raisonnables nécessairement engagés dans l'exercice de leurs fonctions.

Conflits d'intérêts

19.(1) Ne peut être membre du Comité d'examen la personne qui :

- a) soit a un intérêt personnel ou financier dans le bien foncier faisant l'objet d'un appel;
- b) soit est le chef ou un membre du Conseil;
- c) soit est un employé de la Première Nation;
- d) soit a des transactions financières avec la Première Nation qui pourraient vraisemblablement constituer un conflit d'intérêts ou compromettre sa capacité de trancher les appels de manière équitable et impartiale, comme l'exige le présent règlement administratif.

(2) Pour l'application de l'alinéa (1)a), le fait d'être membre de la Première Nation ne signifie pas nécessairement que la personne a un intérêt personnel ou financier dans le bien foncier faisant l'objet d'un appel.

Responsabilité des membres

20. Dans l'exercice de leurs fonctions au titre du présent règlement administratif, les membres du Comité d'examen sont tenus d'agir fidèlement, honnêtement, impartialement et le mieux possible, et ils ne peuvent divulguer à quiconque les renseignements obtenus en leur qualité de membre, sauf dans l'exécution régulière de leurs fonctions.

Révocation d'un membre

21. Le Conseil peut révoquer la nomination d'un membre du Comité d'examen pour un motif valable, notamment si le membre, selon le cas :

- a) est reconnu coupable d'une infraction au Code criminel;
- b) ne se présente pas à trois (3) audiences consécutives du Comité d'examen;
- c) n'accomplit pas ses fonctions au titre du présent règlement administratif de bonne foi et en conformité avec les dispositions de celui-ci.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

Comité de révision des évaluations foncières agissant comme Comité d'examen

22.(1) Malgré l'article 16, le Conseil peut, par résolution, désigner le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières constitué en vertu du Règlement administratif sur l'évaluation foncière pour agir en tant que Comité d'examen.

(2) Lorsque le Conseil désigne, en vertu du paragraphe (1), le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières pour agir en tant que Comité d'examen :

- a) les membres du Comité d'examen sont les mêmes membres dont est composé le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;
- b) le président est la même personne désignée comme président du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;
- c) les membres doivent respecter les exigences et les procédures énoncées dans le présent règlement administratif lorsqu'ils agissent en tant que Comité d'examen au titre de celui-ci;
- d) les membres du Comité d'examen reçoivent la même rémunération pour leurs services et le même remboursement de frais que ce que prévoit le Règlement administratif sur l'évaluation foncière à l'égard du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières;
- e) la révocation d'un membre du Comité d'examen en vertu de l'article 21 emporte sa révocation du Comité de révision des évaluations foncières.

PARTIE VII

APPELS DEVANT LE COMITÉ D'EXAMEN

[Note à la Première Nation : Selon le présent modèle, le Comité d'examen entend, s'il y a lieu, les appels relatifs au rôle de taxes au cours de la première année où la taxe d'améliorations locales est imposée. Par la suite, les détenteurs se voient accorder annuellement l'occasion d'interjeter appel de la taxe auprès du Comité d'examen.]

Appels devant le Comité d'examen

23. Avant que la taxe soit imposée pour la première fois, le Comité d'examen entend et tranche tous les appels relatifs au rôle de taxes et certifie le rôle de taxes conformément à la présente partie.

Certification du rôle par l'administrateur fiscal en l'absence d'appels

24. Si aucun appel n'est interjeté au titre de la présente partie, l'administrateur fiscal :

- a) certifie par écrit que le rôle de taxes établi aux termes de l'article 12 a été établi en conformité avec les exigences du présent règlement administratif;
- b) remet au Conseil une copie du rôle de taxes certifié.

Audience du Comité d'examen

25.(1) Au moins vingt et un (21) jours avant la date à laquelle la taxe est exigible dans la première année où elle est imposée, le Conseil fixe les date, heure et lieu de l'audience à laquelle le Comité d'examen entendra les appels relatifs au rôle de taxes.

(2) Au moins quatorze (14) jours avant la date prévue pour l'audience du Comité d'examen, l'administrateur fiscal affiche un avis des date, heure et lieu de l'audience sur le site Web de la Première Nation et dans le bureau administratif de celle-ci.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

Avis de taxe

26. Au moins quatorze (14) jours avant la date prévue pour l'audience du Comité d'examen, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste au détenteur de chaque bien foncier devant être assujéti à la taxe un avis de taxe d'améliorations locales qui contient les renseignements suivants :

- a) les améliorations locales auxquelles se rapporte la taxe qui sera imposée;
- b) la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable du bien foncier, s'il y a lieu;
- c) le taux ou la formule de calcul de la taxe qui s'applique au bien foncier;
- d) les date, heure et lieu de l'audience du Comité d'examen;
- e) la mention que le rôle de taxes est disponible pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales.

Motifs d'appel

27.(1) Toute personne peut interjeter appel de la taxe auprès du Comité d'examen pour l'un ou plusieurs des motifs suivants :

- a) il y a une erreur ou une omission dans un nom ou une adresse figurant sur le rôle de taxes;
- b) un bien foncier a été omis du rôle de taxes ou y a été inclus par erreur;
- c) il y a une erreur ou une omission dans la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable d'un bien foncier; [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer ce motif d'appel si la taxe n'est pas basée sur la superficie imposable ou la longueur de façade imposable.]
- d) une exemption a été incorrectement accordée ou refusée. [Note à la Première Nation : Supprimer ce motif d'appel si le présent règlement administratif ne prévoit pas d'exemptions de taxe.]

Pour interjeter appel, elle transmet un avis d'appel et une copie de l'avis de taxe d'améliorations locales à l'administrateur fiscal dans les sept (7) jours suivant la date de transmission de l'avis de taxe au détenteur du bien foncier.

(2) Sur réception d'un appel interjeté en vertu du présent article, l'administrateur fiscal en avise sans délai le Conseil et le président et il confirme la tenue de l'audience du Comité d'examen à la date prévue.

(3) Le Comité d'appel, une fois saisi de l'appel interjeté en vertu du présent article, n'a que le pouvoir de modifier le rôle de taxes relativement aux biens fonciers visés par l'appel.

Désistement

28.(1) Le plaignant peut se désister de l'appel interjeté en vertu de la présente partie en remettant un avis de désistement à l'administrateur fiscal.

(2) Sur réception de l'avis de désistement, l'administrateur fiscal l'achemine au président du Comité d'examen.

(3) Si l'avis de désistement est reçu avant le début de l'audience, le président est tenu d'accepter le désistement et d'annuler l'audience relative à l'appel.

(4) Si l'avis de désistement est reçu après le début de l'audience, le Comité d'examen est tenu de rejeter l'appel.

Audiences

29.(1) Le quorum est constitué par la majorité des membres du Comité d'examen.

(2) S'il n'y a pas quorum des membres du Comité d'examen à l'heure à laquelle une audience doit avoir lieu, l'audience est reportée au jour ouvrable suivant, et ainsi de suite, de jour en jour, jusqu'à ce qu'il y ait quorum.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

(3) Le Comité d'examen peut tenir ses audiences selon toute combinaison de moyens écrits, électroniques et oraux.

(4) Le Comité d'examen donne à toutes les parties l'occasion de se faire entendre à l'audience.

(5) Lors d'une audience orale, toute partie peut convoquer et interroger des témoins, présenter des éléments de preuve et des mémoires et contre-interroger les témoins, selon ce qui est raisonnablement nécessaire pour assurer une divulgation entière et équitable de toutes les questions pertinentes concernant l'objet de l'appel.

(6) Une partie peut être représentée par un conseiller ou un agent et peut soumettre des exposés des faits, du droit et des questions de compétence.

(7) Le Comité d'examen peut limiter de façon raisonnable la durée de l'interrogatoire ou du contre-interrogatoire d'un témoin s'il est convaincu qu'elle est suffisante pour assurer une divulgation entière et équitable de toutes les questions pertinentes concernant l'objet de l'appel.

(8) Le Comité d'examen peut interroger tout témoin qui présente un témoignage à l'audience.

(9) Le Comité d'examen peut recevoir et accepter tous renseignements qu'il juge pertinents, nécessaires et appropriés, que ces renseignements soient admissibles ou non devant un tribunal judiciaire.

(10) Dans un appel, le fardeau de la preuve incombe à la personne qui interjette appel.

(11) L'audience orale est publique à moins que le Comité d'examen ne décide, à la demande d'une partie, de tenir l'audience à huis clos.

(12) Le Comité d'examen peut :

- a) entendre tous les appels le même jour ou ajourner à l'occasion jusqu'à ce que tous les appels aient été entendus et tranchés;
- b) entendre un appel même en l'absence du plaignant;
- c) ajourner une audience à tout moment pendant celle-ci.

(13) Si deux (2) ou plusieurs appels visent la même question ou des questions semblables, le Comité d'examen peut combiner les appels, en tout ou en partie, entendre les appels en même temps ou l'un immédiatement à la suite de l'autre, ou suspendre un ou plusieurs des appels jusqu'à ce qu'une décision soit rendue à l'égard d'un autre de ces appels.

(14) Sous réserve des autres dispositions du présent règlement administratif, le Comité d'examen a le pouvoir de régir ses propres procédures pour faciliter le règlement juste et rapide des questions dont il est saisi.

Parties à un appel

30. Les parties à un appel sont les suivantes :

- a) le plaignant;
- b) le détenteur de l'intérêt foncier s'il ne s'agit pas du plaignant;
- c) l'administrateur fiscal;
- d) toute personne qui, de l'avis du Comité d'examen, peut être touchée par l'appel.

Maintien de l'ordre pendant l'audience

31.(1) Le Comité d'examen peut, lors d'une audience orale, rendre les ordonnances ou donner les directives qu'il juge nécessaires pour maintenir l'ordre à l'audience.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

(2) Sans que soit limitée la portée du paragraphe (1), le Comité d'examen peut, par ordonnance, imposer des restrictions sur la participation ou la présence d'une personne à une audience et il peut interdire à une personne de continuer à participer ou à assister à une audience jusqu'à nouvel ordre de sa part.

Rejet sans préavis

32.(1) À tout moment après avoir reçu l'avis d'appel, le Comité d'examen peut rejeter l'appel en tout ou en partie s'il juge, selon le cas :

- a) que l'appel ne relève pas de sa compétence;
- b) que l'appel n'a pas été déposé dans le délai applicable;
- c) que le plaignant n'a pas poursuivi l'appel avec diligence ou ne s'est pas conformé à une ordonnance du Comité d'examen.

(2) Avant de rejeter l'appel en tout ou en partie en vertu du paragraphe (1), le Comité d'examen donne au plaignant la possibilité de lui présenter des observations.

(3) Le Comité d'examen consigne dans un dossier sa décision de rejeter l'appel en vertu du paragraphe (1) et transmet une copie du dossier à toutes les parties.

Décisions du Comité d'examen

33.(1) Une décision de la majorité des membres constitue une décision du Comité d'examen et, en cas d'égalité, la décision du président l'emporte.

(2) Si un membre du Comité d'examen est empêché pour quelque raison d'exercer ses fonctions, les autres membres peuvent continuer à entendre et trancher l'appel, et le siège vacant n'invalide pas l'audience.

(3) Dans les dix (10) jours suivant la fin de l'audience, le président consigne dans un dossier la décision du Comité d'examen et transmet à l'administrateur fiscal les renseignements nécessaires pour qu'il modifie le rôle de taxes et envoie les avis prévus à l'article 35.

(4) Dans les dix (10) jours suivant la réception des renseignements visés au paragraphe (3), l'administrateur fiscal modifie le rôle de taxes conformément aux instructions du président et transmet à ce dernier la version modifiée du rôle de taxes.

Certification du rôle de taxes par le président

34.(1) Le président examine la version modifiée du rôle de taxes transmise conformément au paragraphe 33(4) afin de vérifier que les modifications ordonnées ont été apportées.

(2) Si le président confirme que les modifications ordonnées ont été apportées, il certifie le rôle de taxes et transmet à l'administrateur fiscal une copie du rôle de taxes certifié.

(3) Sur réception du rôle de taxes certifié conformément au paragraphe (2), l'administrateur fiscal en remet une copie au Conseil.

Avis aux plaignants

35.(1) Dans les dix (10) jours suivant la certification du rôle de taxes conformément à l'article 34, l'administrateur fiscal envoie par la poste un avis de la décision du Comité d'examen aux personnes suivantes :

- a) le détenteur du bien foncier visé par la décision;
- b) le plaignant s'il ne s'agit pas du détenteur du bien foncier.

(2) L'avis visé au paragraphe (1) indique également que le plaignant a le droit de demander une révision judiciaire, par un tribunal compétent, de la décision du Comité d'examen.

PARTIE VIII

MISE À JOUR DU RÔLE DE TAXES D'AMÉLIORATIONS LOCALES

Mise à jour obligatoire par l'administrateur fiscal

36. Chaque année suivant la première année où la taxe est imposée, l'administrateur fiscal est tenu de mettre à jour le rôle de taxes afin de tenir compte :

- a) de tout changement survenu depuis l'année précédente relativement aux questions mentionnées au paragraphe 12(3);
- b) des changements résultant de l'un ou l'autre des événements suivants, de sorte que chaque nouveau bien foncier soit assujéti à sa juste part de la taxe :
 - (i) le lotissement d'un bien foncier,
 - (ii) la consolidation de deux (2) ou plusieurs biens fonciers.

Avis annuel aux détenteurs

37. Chaque année suivant la première année où la taxe est imposée, l'administrateur fiscal affiche sur le site Web de la Première Nation ou dans le bureau administratif de celle-ci un avis indiquant :

- a) que le rôle de taxes de cette année est mis à la disposition du public pour consultation au bureau de la Première Nation pendant les heures d'ouverture normales;
- b) que la personne qui détient un bien foncier figurant sur le rôle de taxes peut demander que le rôle soit modifié relativement à une question mentionnée au paragraphe 27(1);
- c) la date et l'heure limites auxquelles une demande peut être présentée afin d'être prise en considération pour cette année.

Demande de modification du rôle de taxes

38.(1) La personne qui détient un bien foncier inscrit sur le rôle de taxes peut demander que ce rôle soit modifié relativement à une question mentionnée au paragraphe 27(1), en transmettant une demande de modification du rôle de taxes à l'administrateur fiscal avant la date et l'heure limites indiquées dans l'avis donné conformément à l'article 37.

(2) La demande présentée en vertu du paragraphe (1) ne peut viser que le bien foncier détenu par le demandeur.

(3) Le détenteur ne peut présenter une demande au titre du paragraphe (1) à l'égard d'une modification qu'il a demandée dans une année antérieure.

(4) S'il n'apporte pas la modification demandée en vertu du paragraphe (1), l'administrateur fiscal transmet un avis du refus de modifier le rôle de taxes d'améliorations locales au détenteur du bien foncier visé par la demande.

Appels devant le Comité d'examen

39.(1) Le détenteur qui reçoit un avis du refus de modifier le rôle de taxes d'améliorations locales peut interjeter appel de la décision en transmettant un avis d'appel à l'administrateur fiscal dans les trente (30) jours suivant la date de réception de l'avis du refus, pourvu que l'appel :

- a) soit fondé sur l'un ou plusieurs des motifs énumérés au paragraphe 27(1);
- b) vise le bien foncier qu'il détient.

(2) Une fois saisi d'un appel interjeté conformément au paragraphe (1), l'administrateur fiscal en avise le Conseil et ce dernier réunit un Comité d'examen chargé d'entendre et de trancher l'appel; la partie VII s'applique alors à cette fin.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

(3) Le Comité d'examen chargé d'entendre l'appel interjeté en vertu du présent article n'a que le pouvoir de modifier le rôle de taxes relativement aux biens fonciers visés par l'appel.

(4) Si aucun appel n'est interjeté selon le présent article, l'administrateur fiscal :

- a) certifie par écrit que le rôle de taxes dans sa version modifiée conformément à la présente partie a été établi en conformité avec les exigences du présent règlement administratif;
- b) remet au Conseil une copie du rôle de taxes certifié.

Validité du rôle de taxes

40. Le rôle de taxes initial, dans sa version certifiée par l'administrateur fiscal ou le président, est valide et lie les parties visées jusqu'à ce qu'il soit mis à jour conformément au présent règlement administratif à chaque année subséquente; toute mise à jour du rôle de taxes certifiée par l'administrateur fiscal ou le président est valide et lie les parties visées jusqu'au prochain rôle de taxes certifié conformément au présent règlement administratif, indépendamment :

- a) de tout défaut, erreur ou omission que peut contenir le rôle de taxes ou qui s'y rapporte;
- b) de tout défaut, erreur ou inexactitude dans un avis donné;
- c) de toute omission de poster ou de transmettre un avis.

DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES

Communication de renseignements

41.(1) L'administrateur fiscal ou toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de renseignements ou d'archives obtenus ou créés en vertu du présent règlement administratif ne peut communiquer ces renseignements ou ces archives sauf, selon le cas :

- a) dans le cadre de l'application du présent règlement administratif ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;
- b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité d'examen ou un tribunal judiciaire, ou aux termes d'une ordonnance judiciaire;
- c) en conformité avec le paragraphe (2).

(2) L'administrateur fiscal peut communiquer des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier à l'agent du détenteur du bien si la communication de ces renseignements a été autorisée par écrit par le détenteur.

(3) L'agent ne peut utiliser les renseignements communiqués aux termes du paragraphe (2) qu'aux fins autorisées par écrit par le détenteur du bien foncier.

Communication aux fins de recherche

42. Malgré l'article 41, le Conseil peut communiquer des renseignements et des archives à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, pourvu que :

- a) ces renseignements et ces archives ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ni de renseignements commerciaux permettant d'identifier des entreprises;
- b) dans le cas où la recherche ne peut vraisemblablement être effectuée que si les renseignements sont fournis sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus ou des entreprises, le tiers ait signé une entente avec le Conseil dans laquelle il s'engage à se conformer aux exigences du Conseil concernant l'utilisation, la confidentialité et la sécurité des renseignements.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

Validité

43. Aucune disposition du présent règlement administratif ne peut être annulée ou invalidée, et l'obligation d'une personne de payer la taxe ou tout autre montant exigé aux termes du présent règlement administratif ne peut être modifiée, en raison :

- a) d'une erreur ou d'une omission dans une décision prise par l'administrateur fiscal;
- b) d'une erreur ou d'une omission commise dans le rôle de taxes ou tout avis donné sous le régime du présent règlement administratif;
- c) du défaut de la part de la Première Nation, de l'administrateur fiscal ou du Comité d'examen de prendre des mesures dans le délai prévu.

Restriction

44.(1) Nul ne peut engager une action ou une procédure en vue du remboursement des sommes versées à la Première Nation, que ce soit dans le cadre d'une contestation ou autrement, au titre d'une demande, valide ou invalide, concernant les taxes ou tout autre montant payé aux termes du présent règlement administratif, après l'expiration d'un délai de six (6) mois suivant la date du paiement.

(2) Si aucune action ou procédure n'est engagée dans le délai prévu au présent article, les sommes versées à la Première Nation sont réputées avoir été versées de plein gré par l'intéressé.

Avis

45.(1) Lorsque le présent règlement administratif exige la remise ou la transmission par la poste d'un avis ou qu'il ne précise pas le mode de transmission, l'avis est transmis, selon le cas :

- a) par la poste, à l'adresse postale habituelle du destinataire ou à son adresse indiquée sur le rôle de taxes;
- b) si l'adresse du destinataire est inconnue, par affichage d'une copie de l'avis dans un endroit bien en vue sur le bien foncier du destinataire;
- c) par remise de l'avis en mains propres ou par service de messagerie au destinataire, ou à son adresse postale habituelle ou à l'adresse indiquée sur le rôle de taxes.

(2) Sauf disposition contraire du présent règlement administratif :

- a) l'avis transmis par la poste est réputé reçu le cinquième jour suivant sa mise à la poste;
- b) l'avis affiché sur un bien foncier est réputé reçu le deuxième jour après avoir été affiché;
- c) l'avis remis en mains propres est réputé reçu au moment de sa remise.

Interprétation

(2) Les dispositions du présent règlement administratif exprimées au présent s'appliquent à la situation du moment.

(3) Dans le présent règlement administratif, le pluriel ou le singulier s'appliquent, le cas échéant, à l'unité et à la pluralité.

(4) Le présent règlement administratif est censé apporter une solution de droit et s'interprète de la manière la plus équitable et la plus large qui soit compatible avec la réalisation de ses objectifs.

Mise à jour 2018 10 30

(5) Les renvois dans le présent règlement administratif à un texte législatif sont réputés se rapporter à sa version éventuellement modifiée et visent tous les règlements d'application de ce texte.

(6) Les intertitres ne font pas partie du présent règlement administratif, n'y figurant que pour faciliter la consultation.

Entrée en vigueur

47. Le présent règlement administratif entre en vigueur dès son approbation par le ministre des Affaires indiennes et du Nord canadien.

ET LISTE DES BIENS FONCIERS

STANDARDS FOR FIRST NATION ANNUAL TAX RATES LAWS, 2017

[Consolidated to 2018-06-29]

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;
- B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and
- C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation tax rates laws enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(ii) and subsection 10(1) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' tax rates laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to every property tax rates law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

CITATION

These Standards may be cited as the Standards for First Nation Annual Tax Rates Laws, 2017.

PART VI DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

“agricultural property” means an interest in land classified as “non-arable (range)” or “other agricultural” in Saskatchewan;

“annual rate of national inflation” means the change in the Annual Average Consumer Price Index for Canada, All-Items, maintained by Statistics Canada;

“assessed value” means the value of an interest in land for assessment purposes, as determined under an assessment law;

“assessment law” means a law enacted by a First Nation under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(i) of the Act that provides for the assessment of property;

“average tax bill” means either

(a) the mean of the tax bills of all taxpayers in a property class, net of all grants; or

(b) the median tax bill of a representative taxpayer in a property class, net of all grants;

“Commission” means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the Act;

“First Nation” means a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“interest in land” or “property” means land or improvements, or both, in a reserve and, without limitation, may include any interest in land or improvements, any occupation, possession or use of land or improvements, and any right to occupy, possess or use land or improvements;

“Law” means a tax rates law enacted under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(ii) of the Act;

“property class” means each of the categories of property established in the First Nation’s assessment law for the purposes of assessment and taxation;

“Province” refers to the province in which the reserve is situated;

“reference jurisdiction” means a taxing jurisdiction, located adjacent to the First Nation, that is identified for the purpose of comparing a First Nation’s tax rates;

“reference jurisdiction transition plan” means a plan that meets the requirements of section 11;

“reserve” means any land set apart for the use and benefit of a First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act;

“tax district” means a tax district established in a First Nation’s taxation law;

“taxable area” means the total area of the interest in land or portion of the interest in land, rounded to the nearest acre;

“taxable property” has the meaning given to that term in the Taxation Law Standards;

“taxation law” means a law made under paragraphs 5(1)(a) and (e) of the Act, but does not include a property transfer tax law;

“Taxation Law Standards” means the Commission Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws; and “transition period” has the meaning given to that term in the Taxation Law Standards.

Except as otherwise provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART VII STANDARDS

1. Setting Tax Rates

1.1 Except as provided in subsection 1.2 and section 3, the Law must set a single tax rate for each property class.

1.2 The Law may set multiple tax rates in a property class where multiple tax rates are set in the First Nation's reference jurisdiction, provided the Law

- (a) sets the same number of tax rates in each property class that are set in the reference jurisdiction; and
- (b) uses the same criteria that are used in the reference jurisdiction for the application of those tax rates in each property class.

1.3 The Law must set for each property class a tax rate as

- (a) a rate for each dollar ($1) of assessed value;
- (b) a rate for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value; or
- (c) a mill rate for each one thousand dollars ($1000) of assessed value.

1.4 As an exception to subsection 1.3, a Law may set a tax rate for a property class on a different basis where

- (a) the First Nation set a tax rate within that property class on a different basis at the time of being scheduled under the Act; or
- (b) the First Nation's reference jurisdiction sets a tax rate on a different basis within that property class.

1.5 For clarity, the requirement to set a tax rate does not apply to a property class where there are no assessable properties in that class.

2. Application of Tax Rates

Except as provided in sections 3 and 4,

- (a) the Law must provide that taxes must be levied on each taxable property by applying the applicable tax rate against the assessed value of the taxable property; and
- (b) the Law must provide for the tax rate in each property class to be applied equally to all taxable property in that class.

3. Tax Districts and Multiple Reference Jurisdictions

3.1 Where a First Nation has established one (1) or more tax districts,

- (a) the First Nation may set a tax rate for each property class in each tax district; and
- (b) the requirements in these Standards respecting setting tax rates and establishing minimum tax must be interpreted to apply separately within each tax district.

3.2 Where a First Nation has multiple reserves and has more than one (1) reference jurisdiction in respect of its reserves, the Law may set different tax rates for different reserves, provided that those reserves with the same reference jurisdiction must have the same tax rate in each property class.

4. Minimum Tax

Where a First Nation's taxation law provides that a minimum tax may be established in one or more property classes,

- (a) the Law may, despite section 2, establish a minimum amount of tax to be levied on taxable property within one or more property classes; and
- (b) the amount of the minimum tax must not exceed one hundred dollars ($100), except as provided in section 5.

5. Exceptions to Minimum Tax Limit

5.1 The Law may establish a minimum tax in an amount greater than one hundred dollars ($100) where required to create a fair taxation regime because of one or more of the following circumstances:

- (a) the First Nation had established a higher minimum tax amount in its taxation regime existing at the time of being scheduled under the Act;
- (b) the First Nation wishes to harmonize with minimum tax amounts established in the Province or the reference jurisdiction; and
- (c) the First Nation's costs of providing services to properties with lower assessed values exceeds one hundred dollars ($100).

5.2 As an exception to subsection 5.1, where a First Nation has included transition provisions in its taxation law in accordance with section 4 of the Taxation Law Standards, in each year of the transition period the Law must establish a minimum tax that is equal to the service fee charged by the First Nation in the year prior to its first taxation year.

6. Rate Setting in First Taxation Year

Where a First Nation is exercising property taxation jurisdiction for the first time, the First Nation must apply the same assessment practices as the former taxing authority, or the reference jurisdiction where there is no former taxing authority, and the Law must

- (a) set tax rates that do not exceed those set by the former taxing authority in the current year; or
- (b) set tax rates that do not exceed those set by the reference jurisdiction in the current year, where there is no former taxing authority.

7. Rate Setting in Subsequent Years Using Average Tax Bill

7.1 In the second and all subsequent years that a First Nation exercises property taxation powers, the Law must set tax rates based on the First Nation's budget for the expenditure of local revenues that, when applied, result in an average tax bill for each property class that has not increased from the previous year by more than

- (a) the annual rate of national inflation from the previous year; or
- (b) the average tax bill increase for each property class in the reference jurisdiction from the previous year.

7.2 For the purposes of subsection 7.1, where a representative taxpayer is used to determine the average tax bill,

- (a) that taxpayer must have been a taxpayer in the previous year and must be a taxpayer in the current year; and

(b) a change in the assessed value of the property held by that taxpayer from the previous year that is attributable to new construction, to the addition of lands to the property, or that results from an assessment appeal, must be excluded when determining the average tax bill increase.

7.3 For the purposes of subsection 7.1, where the mean of the tax bills of all taxpayers is used to determine the average tax bill,

(a) each taxpayer must have been a taxpayer in the previous year and must be a taxpayer in the current year; and

(b) any changes in assessed values to properties in that property class that are attributable to new construction, to the addition of lands to properties, or that result from assessment appeals, must be excluded when determining the average tax bill increase.

7.4 For the purposes of subsection 7.1, where the assessed value of a property is determined using a rate set by reference to a provincial regulation,

(a) that property may be excluded when determining the average tax bill increase in a property class; or

(b) the average tax bill may be calculated by excluding any increases or decreases in the assessed value of that property from the previous year to the current year.

8. Rate Setting in Subsequent Years Using Reference Jurisdiction

8.1 As an alternative to the approach set out in subsection 7.1, the Law may set tax rates that are identical to the tax rates set in the reference jurisdiction in the current year and the immediately preceding year, including by setting the same number of tax rates where the reference jurisdiction sets multiple tax rates within a property class.

8.2 Where a Law sets tax rates as provided in subsection 8.1, the First Nation must use assessment practices that are identical to the reference jurisdiction in the current year and the immediately preceding year.

9. Rate Setting Where First Nation has Transition Provisions in Taxation Law

9.1 Where a First Nation has included transition provisions in its taxation law in accordance with section 4 of the Taxation Law Standards, in each year of the transition period the Law must set tax rates for the applicable property classes that are consistent with those transition provisions, and sections 6, 7 and 8 do not apply.

9.2 Where subsection 9.1 applies and a Law sets a tax rate that is not consistent with the transition provisions in the First Nation's taxation law, the First Nation may provide justification of the rate for Commission consideration on the basis set out in paragraph 10.1(c).

10. Justifications for Additional Rate Increases

10.1 Where a Law sets a tax rate that does not meet the criteria set out in subsection 7.1, the First Nation may provide justification of the rate for Commission consideration, on one (1) or more of the following bases:

(a) the First Nation's costs of providing local services, such as water, sewer, waste collection, fire protection and roads, have increased significantly from the previous year;

(b) the rate is consistent with the First Nation's reference jurisdiction transition plan; and

(c) the taxpayers in the affected property class support the proposed rate.

10.2 Where a First Nation proposes to justify a tax rate under paragraph 10.1(a), the First Nation must provide to the Commission a signed service agreement evidencing the increased costs, or written evidence of the increased costs signed by the First Nation’s chief financial officer.

10.3 Where a First Nation proposes to justify a tax rate under paragraph 10.1(c), the First Nation must provide to the Commission letters of support from individual taxpayers or taxpayer associations representing

- (a) at least fifty percent (50%) of the taxpayers in that property class; and
- (b) taxpayers holding at least fifty percent (50%) of the total assessed values in that property class.

11. Justification on the Basis of Transition to Reference Jurisdiction Rate-Setting

A First Nation that proposes to justify an increase in its tax rates in one or more property classes in order to transition to setting tax rates that are identical to the reference jurisdiction must develop a reference jurisdiction transition plan that

- (a) provides a justification for the proposed increases in tax rates that relates either to providing a higher level of local services to the taxpayers, or to building new or replacement local service infrastructure; and
- (b) sets out how tax rates will increase incrementally in one (1) or more property classes over a period of not more than five (5) years in order to match the reference jurisdiction rates in all property classes.

PART VIII

STANDARDS FOR AGRICULTURAL PROPERTIES IN THE PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN

13. Application of this Part

13.1 This Part applies to the setting of tax rates for agricultural property where a First Nation’s property taxation law provides for taxation on the basis of the taxable area of the agricultural property.

13.2 Where this Part applies to the setting of tax rates in a property class, Part VII does not apply to the setting of tax rates in that property class.

14. Rate Setting Per Acre

14.1 The Law must set a single tax rate in a property class that is equal to or less than the amount levied per acre in the same property class in the reference jurisdiction.

14.2 For the purposes of subsection 14.1, the amount levied per acre in the reference jurisdiction must be determined by dividing the total property tax revenues within the property class by the total number of acres of property within that property class.

15. No Minimum Tax

A Law must not establish a minimum tax in a property class to which this Part applies.

PART IX

REVOCATION AND COMING INTO FORCE

Revocation

The Standards for First Nation Tax Rates Laws, 2016 that were established and effective as of April 1, 2016, are revoked.

NORMES RELATIVES AUX LOIS ANNUELLES SUR LES TAUX D'IMPOSITION DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS (2017)

[Codifiées le 2018-06-29]

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

- A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;
- B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;
- C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs sur les taux d'imposition foncière des premières nations édictés en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(ii) et de l'article 10 de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tous les textes législatifs sur les taux d'imposition foncière soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V TITRE

Les présentes normes peuvent être citées sous le titre : Normes relatives aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations (2017).

PARTIE VI

DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent aux présentes normes.

- « bien foncier agricole » Intérêt foncier classé dans l'une ou l'autre des catégories de biens fonciers « terres et améliorations non arables » et « autres terres et améliorations agricoles » en Saskatchewan.
- « catégorie de biens fonciers » Chacune des catégories de biens fonciers établies par le texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière d'une première nation aux fins de l'évaluation et de l'imposition foncières.
- « Commission » La Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations constituée en vertu de la Loi.
- « district fiscal » District fiscal établi dans le texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière d'une première nation.
- « intérêt foncier » ou « bien foncier » S'entend d'une terre ou des améliorations, ou des deux, dans une réserve, y compris, sans restrictions, tout intérêt dans cette terre ou ces améliorations, toute occupation, possession ou utilisation de la terre ou des améliorations, et tout droit d'occuper, de posséder ou d'utiliser la terre ou les améliorations.
- « Loi » La Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations, L.C. 2005, ch. 9, ainsi que les règlements pris en vertu de cette loi.
- « Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière » Les Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations, établies par la Commission.
- « période de transition » S'entend au sens des Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière.
- « plan de transition » Plan de transition vers les taux du territoire de référence qui satisfait aux exigences de l'article 11.
- « première nation » Bande dont le nom figure à l'annexe de la Loi.
- « province » Province dans laquelle est située la réserve.
- « relevé d'impôt moyen » Selon le cas :
- a) la moyenne des relevés d'impôt foncier – net de toute subvention – de tous les contribuables pour une catégorie de biens fonciers;
 - b) le relevé d'impôt foncier médian – net de toute subvention – d'un contribuable représentatif pour une catégorie de biens fonciers.
- « réserve » Toute terre réservée à l'usage et au profit d'une première nation au sens de la Loi sur les Indiens.
- « superficie imposable » La superficie totale d'un intérêt foncier, ou d'une partie de celui-ci, arrondie à l'acre près.

- « taux d'inflation national annuel » Variation de la moyenne annuelle de l'indice d'ensemble des prix à la consommation pour le Canada, établi par Statistique Canada.
- « territoire de référence » Administration taxatrice voisine de la première nation qui est désignée aux fins de la comparaison des taux d'imposition de cette dernière.
- « texte législatif » Texte législatif sur les taux d'imposition foncière édicté en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(ii) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière » Texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière édicté par une première nation en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(i) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière » Texte législatif pris en vertu des alinéas 5(1)a) et e) de la Loi, à l'exception d'un texte législatif sur la taxe sur les transferts fonciers.

« valeur imposable » Valeur d'un intérêt foncier aux fins de l'évaluation foncière, établie conformément au texte législatif sur l'évaluation foncière.

Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VII

NORMES

1. Fixation des taux d'imposition

1.1 Sauf disposition contraire du paragraphe 1.2 et de l'article 3, le texte législatif doit fixer un taux d'imposition unique pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers.

1.2 Le texte législatif peut fixer des taux d'imposition multiples pour une catégorie de biens fonciers lorsque le territoire de référence de la première nation en a établi, pourvu que les conditions suivantes soient respectées :

- a) il fixe, pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers, le même nombre de taux d'imposition que celui établi dans le territoire de référence;
- b) il utilise, pour l'application de ces taux d'imposition dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers, les mêmes critères que ceux utilisés dans le territoire de référence.

1.3 Le texte législatif doit fixer, pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers, un taux d'imposition exprimé comme :

- a) soit un taux pour chaque dollar (1 $) de la valeur imposable;
- b) soit un taux pour chaque cent dollars (100 $) de la valeur imposable;
- c) soit un taux pour chaque mille dollars (1 000 $) – taux du millième – de la valeur imposable.

1.4 À titre d'exception au paragraphe 1.3, le texte législatif peut fixer un taux d'imposition à partir d'une base différente pour une catégorie de biens fonciers si, selon le cas :

- a) la première nation avait, pour cette catégorie de biens fonciers, fixé un taux d'imposition à partir d'une base différente au moment de son inscription à l'annexe de la Loi;
- b) le territoire de référence fixe un taux d'imposition à partir d'une base différente pour cette catégorie de biens fonciers.

1.5 Il est entendu que les exigences relatives à la fixation d'un taux d'imposition ne s'appliquent pas aux catégories de biens fonciers qui ne comprennent aucun bien sujet à évaluation.

2. Application des taux d'imposition

Sauf disposition contraire des articles 3 et 4, le texte législatif doit prévoir :

- a) que l'impôt est prélevé sur chaque bien imposable par application du taux d'imposition en vigueur à la valeur imposable du bien;
- b) que le taux d'imposition propre à chaque catégorie de biens fonciers est appliqué uniformément à tous les biens imposables de cette catégorie.

3. Districts fiscaux et multiples territoires de référence

3.1 Lorsqu'une première nation a établi un (1) ou plusieurs districts fiscaux :

- a) elle peut fixer un taux d'imposition pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers dans chacun des districts fiscaux;

b) les exigences des présentes normes relatives à la fixation des taux d'imposition et à l'établissement d'un impôt minimum doivent être interprétées de manière à s'appliquer de façon distincte dans chaque district fiscal.

3.2 Dans les cas où une première nation a de multiples réserves et plus d'un (1) territoire de référence pour celles-ci, le texte législatif peut fixer des taux d'imposition différents pour les diverses réserves, pourvu que les réserves ayant le même territoire de référence aient le même taux d'imposition dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers.

4. Impôt minimum

Lorsque le texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière d'une première nation permet de prévoir un montant d'impôt minimum dans une ou plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers :

- a) il peut, malgré l'article 2, établir un montant d'impôt minimum à prélever sur les biens imposables d'une ou de plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers;
- b) le montant d'impôt minimum ne peut être supérieur à cent dollars (100 $), sauf dans les cas prévus à l'article 5.

5. Exceptions à l'impôt minimum

5.1 Le texte législatif peut fixer un montant d'impôt minimum supérieur à cent dollars (100 $) dans les cas où cela est nécessaire pour créer un régime d'imposition équitable en raison de l'une ou plusieurs des circonstances suivantes :

- a) la première nation avait déjà établi un impôt minimum supérieur dans son régime d'imposition au moment de son inscription à l'annexe de la Loi;
- b) la première nation souhaite harmoniser son régime avec les montants d'impôt minimum prélevés dans la province ou le territoire de référence;
- c) les coûts, pour la première nation, de la prestation de services aux biens fonciers ayant les valeurs imposables les plus faibles sont supérieurs à cent dollars (100 $).

5.2 À titre d'exception au paragraphe 5.1, lorsqu'une première nation a inclus des dispositions transitoires dans son texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière conformément à l'article 4 des Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière, à chaque année de la période de transition le texte législatif doit fixer un impôt minimum égal au montant des frais de service imposés par elle durant l'année précédant sa première année d'imposition.

6. Fixation des taux pour la première année d'imposition

Lorsqu'une première nation exerce ses pouvoirs d'imposition foncière pour la première fois, elle doit utiliser les mêmes pratiques d'évaluation que l'ancienne autorité taxatrice ou le territoire de référence, s'il n'y a pas d'ancienne autorité taxatrice, et le texte législatif doit :

- a) fixer des taux d'imposition qui ne dépassent pas ceux fixés par l'ancienne autorité taxatrice pour l'année en cours;
- b) fixer des taux d'imposition qui ne dépassent pas ceux fixés par le territoire de référence pour l'année en cours, s'il n'y a pas d'ancienne autorité taxatrice.

7. Fixation des taux pour les années subséquentes à l'aide du relevé d'impôt moyen

7.1 Pour la deuxième année et les années subséquentes où une première nation exerce ses pouvoirs d'imposition foncière, le texte législatif doit fixer des taux d'imposition fondés sur son budget des dépenses sur les recettes locales qui, lorsqu'ils sont appliqués, font en sorte que l'augmentation du relevé d'impôt moyen pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers par rapport à l'année précédente ne dépasse pas, selon le cas :

- a) le taux d'inflation national annuel de l'année précédente;
 - b) l'augmentation du relevé d'impôt moyen pour chaque catégorie de biens dans le territoire de référence pour l'année précédente.
- 7.2 Pour l'application du paragraphe 7.1, lorsqu'un contribuable représentatif est utilisé pour l'établissement du relevé d'impôt moyen :
- a) d'une part, il doit s'agir d'un contribuable qui était contribuable l'année précédente et qui l'est toujours pendant l'année en cours;
 - b) d'autre part, il faut exclure du calcul de l'augmentation du relevé d'impôt moyen tout changement de la valeur imposable du bien foncier détenu par ce contribuable, par rapport à l'année précédente, qui est attribuable à de nouvelles constructions ou à l'ajout de terres au bien ou qui découle d'un appel relatif à l'évaluation.
- 7.3 Pour l'application du paragraphe 7.1, lorsque la moyenne des relevés d'impôt foncier de tous les contribuables est utilisée pour l'établissement du relevé d'impôt moyen :
- a) d'une part, chaque contribuable doit avoir été contribuable l'année précédente et l'être toujours pendant l'année en cours;
 - b) d'autre part, il faut exclure du calcul de l'augmentation du relevé d'impôt moyen les changements de la valeur imposable des biens fonciers de la catégorie de biens fonciers visée qui sont attribuables à de nouvelles constructions ou à l'ajout de terres aux biens ou qui découlent d'appels relatifs aux évaluations.
- 7.4 Pour l'application du paragraphe 7.1, lorsque la valeur imposable d'un bien foncier est calculée au moyen d'un taux fixé par un règlement provincial :
- a) soit ce bien foncier peut être exclu lors du calcul de l'augmentation du relevé d'impôt moyen pour une catégorie de bien fonciers;
 - b) soit le relevé d'impôt moyen peut être établi en excluant toute augmentation ou réduction de la valeur imposable de ce bien foncier pour l'année en cours par rapport à l'année précédente.
- 8. Fixation des taux pour les années subséquentes à l'aide des taux du territoire de référence
- 8.1 Au lieu de se fonder sur la méthode prévue au paragraphe 7.1, le texte législatif peut fixer des taux d'imposition identiques à ceux établis dans le territoire de référence pour l'année en cours et l'année précédente, notamment en prévoyant le même nombre de taux d'imposition dans le cas où le territoire de référence a établi des taux d'imposition multiples pour une catégorie de biens fonciers.
- 8.2 Lorsque le texte législatif fixe des taux d'imposition en conformité avec le paragraphe 8.1, la première nation doit utiliser des pratiques d'évaluation identiques à celles utilisées par le territoire de référence pendant l'année en cours et l'année précédente.
- 9. Fixation des taux selon les dispositions transitoires du texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière
- 9.1 Lorsqu'une première nation a inclus des dispositions transitoires dans son texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière conformément à l'article 4 des Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière, à chaque année de la période de transition le texte législatif doit fixer des taux d'imposition conformes à ces dispositions transitoires pour les catégories de biens fonciers applicables, et les articles 6, 7 et 8 ne s'appliquent pas.
- 9.2 Lorsque le paragraphe 9.1 s'applique et que le texte législatif fixe un taux d'imposition qui n'est pas conforme aux dispositions transitoires du texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière de la première nation, celle-ci peut soumettre une justification du taux à la Commission pour examen, en invoquant le motif prévu à l'alinéa 10.1c).

10. Justification des augmentations de taux additionnelles

10.1 Lorsque le texte législatif fixe un taux d'imposition qui ne satisfait pas aux critères énoncés au paragraphe 7.1, la première nation peut soumettre une justification de ce taux à la Commission pour examen, pour l'un (1) ou plusieurs des motifs suivants :

- a) les coûts engagés par la première nation pour la prestation des services locaux – tels les services d'approvisionnement en eau, les services d'égouts, le ramassage des déchets, la protection contre les incendies et les routes – ont augmenté considérablement depuis l'année précédente;
- b) le taux est compatible avec le plan de transition de la première nation;
- c) les contribuables dans la catégorie de biens fonciers en cause appuient le taux proposé.

10.2 La première nation qui entend justifier un taux d'imposition sur le fondement de l'alinéa 10.1a) doit remettre à la Commission soit une convention de services signée qui démontre les coûts accrus, soit une preuve écrite des coûts accrus signée par le directeur des finances de la première nation.

10.3 La première nation qui entend justifier un taux d'imposition sur le fondement de l'alinéa 10.1c) doit remettre à la Commission des lettres d'appui reçues de contribuables à titre individuel ou d'associations de contribuables représentant à la fois :

- a) au moins cinquante pour cent (50 %) des contribuables dans la catégorie de biens fonciers visée;
- b) les contribuables détenant au moins cinquante pour cent (50 %) du total des valeurs imposables de cette catégorie de biens fonciers.

11. Justification fondée sur la transition vers les taux du territoire de référence

La première nation qui entend justifier l'augmentation de ses taux d'imposition pour une ou plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers afin de faire le passage à des taux d'imposition identiques à ceux du territoire de référence doit élaborer un plan de transition qui, à la fois :

- a) donne une justification des augmentations proposées qui se rapporte à la prestation d'un niveau plus élevé de services locaux aux contribuables ou à la construction d'une infrastructure nouvelle ou de remplacement pour les services locaux;
- b) précise de quelle façon les taux d'imposition augmenteront graduellement dans une (1) ou plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers sur une période d'au plus cinq (5) ans pour finir par correspondre aux taux du territoire de référence pour toutes les catégories de biens fonciers.

PARTIE VIII

NORMES APPLICABLES AUX BIENS FONCIERS AGRICOLES SITUÉS EN SASKATCHEWAN

13. Application de la présente partie

13.1 La présente partie s'applique à la fixation des taux d'imposition applicables aux biens fonciers agricoles lorsque le texte législatif sur l'imposition foncière de la première nation prévoit le prélèvement d'impôts sur la base de la superficie imposable de tels biens.

13.2 Lorsque la fixation des taux d'imposition pour une catégorie de biens fonciers tombe sous le coup de la présente partie, la partie VII ne s'applique pas à la fixation des taux d'imposition pour cette catégorie de biens fonciers.

14. Taux par acre

14.1 Le texte législatif doit fixer un taux d'imposition unique pour chaque catégorie de biens fonciers qui est égal ou inférieur au montant par acre prélevé dans le territoire de référence pour la même catégorie de biens fonciers.

14.2 Pour l'application du paragraphe 14.1, le montant par acre prélevé dans le territoire de référence doit correspondre au quotient qu'on obtient en divisant le total des recettes fiscales foncières pour la catégorie de biens fonciers par le nombre total d'acres de biens fonciers compris dans cette catégorie.

15. Aucun impôt minimum

Le texte législatif ne peut fixer aucun impôt minimum pour les catégories de biens fonciers auxquelles s'applique la présente partie.

STANDARDS FOR
FIRST NATION PROPERTY TAXATION LAWS, 2016

[Consolidated to 2018-06-25]

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;
- B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and
- C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation property taxation laws enacted under paragraphs 5(1)(a) and (e) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' property taxation laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to every property taxation law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

CITATION

These Standards may be cited as the Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws, 2016.

PART VI DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

- “Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

- (b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes on interests in land imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any local revenue law of the First Nation, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a Law;

“taxpayer” means a person liable for taxes in respect of taxable property; and

“transition period” means the first five (5) years during which a First Nation implements taxation under a Law.

Except as otherwise provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2018-06-25.]

PART VII

STANDARDS

1. Appointment of Tax Administrator

1.1 The Law must provide for the appointment by Council, by resolution, of a tax administrator to oversee the administration and enforcement of the Law.

1.2 The Law must provide that the tax administrator is responsible for the day-to-day management of the First Nation’s local revenue account.

2. Tax Liability

2.1 The Law must provide that

- (a) it applies to all interests in land in the reserve; and
- (b) all interests in land in the reserve are subject to taxation unless exempted from taxation in accordance with the Law.

2.2 The Law must provide that taxes must be levied on each taxable property by applying the applicable tax rate against the assessed value of the taxable property, except as provided in subsection 2.3.

2.3 If a First Nation wishes to establish a minimum amount of tax to be levied on taxable property in a property class, the Law must provide that the First Nation may set a minimum tax in one or more property classes in its annual rates law each year.

3. Tax Districts

3.1 Where a First Nation wishes to have one (1) or more tax districts, the Law must

- (a) establish each tax district; and
- (b) describe the reserves and parts of reserves included in each district, using either a map or written description that clearly defines the geographical boundaries of the tax district.

3.2 A First Nation may only establish a tax district where necessary to create a fair taxation regime because the First Nation

- (a) has multiple reserves and one (1) or more of the reserves or parts of reserves have differing levels of servicing requirements or different reference jurisdictions; or
- (b) has a single reserve and one or more parts of the reserve has differing levels of servicing requirements or different reference jurisdictions.

4. Transition Period for Certain Taxing First Nations

4.1 Where a First Nation is implementing taxation for the first time and, in the year prior to making the Law,

- (a) the interests in land that will be subject to taxation under the Law were not subject to provincial taxation jurisdiction, and
- (b) the First Nation charged a fee for the provision of local services to holders of interests in land in all or certain property classes,

the Law must include requirements for establishing tax rates during the transition period for those property classes that were subject to the fee referenced in paragraph (b), which requirements must comply with subsections 4.2 and 4.3.

4.2 Where subsection 4.1 applies to a First Nation, the Law must require the First Nation to establish tax rates in each year of the transition period that

- (a) are based on annual budgeting for the provision of local services to taxpayers; or
- (b) will move incrementally towards establishing tax rates that are identical to the tax rates set by the reference jurisdiction.

4.3 Where a First Nation's Law

- (a) applies paragraph 4.2(a), the Law must include a list of the services to be provided, the estimated costs of the services, and the anticipated tax rates in each applicable property class in each year of the transition period; or

(b) applies paragraph 4.2(b), the Law must include a list of the services to be provided and the anticipated tax rates in each applicable property class in each year of the transition period.

5. Exemptions from Taxation

5.1 Where a First Nation wishes to provide for exemptions from property taxation under a Law, those exemptions must be set out in the Law.

5.2 Where exemptions from taxation are included in a Law, the exemptions must be in respect of interests in land in one or more of the following categories:

- (a) an exemption for an interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation, or a member of the First Nation;
- (b) an exemption for an interest in land occupied as a residence by one (1) or more members of the First Nation and related individuals of those members and by no other persons; or
- (c) an exemption in a class of exemption used by local governments in the Province.

5.3 Where a Law provides an exemption under paragraph 5.2(a), the Law must provide that where an interest in land is held by the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation or a member of the First Nation and is wholly occupied by a person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation or a member of the First Nation,

- (a) the exemption does not apply to the person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation or a member of the First Nation;
- (b) that person is responsible for the taxes levied in respect of the interest in land; and
- (c) the taxes are a liability only on that person.

5.4 Where a Law provides an exemption under paragraph 5.2(a), the Law must provide that where an interest in land is occupied by the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation or a member of the First Nation and is also occupied by a person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation or a member of the First Nation,

- (a) the exemption does not apply to the person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Corporation or a member of the First Nation;
- (b) that person is responsible for the taxes levied in respect of that person's proportionate occupation of the interest in land; and
- (c) the taxes are a liability only on that person.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2018-06-25.]

6. Grants and Tax Abatement

6.1 Where a Law provides for a granting program, the Law must

- (a) set out the objectives of the program, which must relate to a community purpose or goal;
- (b) set out the qualifying criteria for the program;
- (c) provide that the grant
 - (i) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year,
 - (ii) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements or offsets, and

(iii) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year; and

(d) provide that Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given and authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

6.2 The Law may provide for a form of tax abatement only where it is the same type and the same amount or percentage amount of abatement that is provided by the Province.

6.3 Where a Law provides for tax abatement, the qualifying requirements must be set out in the Law, and the amount of abatements given must be shown annually in the annual expenditure law.

7. Reserve Funds

7.1 If a First Nation wishes to establish a reserve fund or use a reserve fund existing at the time the First Nation was added to the schedule to the Act,

(a) the Law must include the provisions set out in this section; and

(b) each reserve fund must be established in an expenditure law.

7.2 The Law must include the following provisions respecting the use of reserve funds:

(a) except as authorized in the Law, money in a reserve fund and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established;

(b) Council may, by expenditure law,

(i) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account only where all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed,

(ii) transfer money in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account,

(iii) borrow money from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the money is needed for the purposes of that reserve fund, and

(iv) as an exception to subparagraph (iii), borrow money from a reserve fund where the First Nations Financial Management Board has assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account and, acting in the place of the Council, has determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation; and

(c) all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund must be authorized by expenditure law.

7.3 Where a Law provides for the investing of moneys in a reserve fund that are not immediately required, it must allow for investment only in one or more of the following:

(a) securities of Canada or of a province;

(b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;

(c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

(d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or

(e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

8. Tax Payments

8.1 The Law must

- (a) provide for the date on which taxes are due and payable; and
- (b) set out the acceptable forms of payment and where payment must be made, if applicable.

8.2 Where the Law provides for tax payments by instalments, the Law must set out

- (a) how a taxpayer may apply to pay taxes by instalments;
- (b) the due date for each instalment;
- (c) how each instalment amount will be calculated;
- (d) any consequences of failing to pay an instalment by the instalment due date; and
- (e) any penalties or interest that will be levied on unpaid instalment payments and when such charges will be imposed.

8.3 The Law may require taxpayers to make an interim tax payment before the First Nation establishes its annual tax rates, provided the First Nation is located in a Province that permits interim tax levies in the provincial property taxation regime.

8.4 Where a Law requires an interim tax payment, the Law must set out

- (a) the date on which the interim payment is due and payable;
- (b) the calculation of the interim payment amount based on a specified percentage of the property value taxes levied on a property in the previous taxation year;
- (c) the interim tax payment percentage for each property class;
- (d) that the interim tax payment will be applied towards the total taxes owing for that taxation year; and
- (e) any penalties or interest that will be levied on an unpaid interim tax payment and when such charges will be imposed.

8.5 The percentages required by paragraph 8.4(c) must not exceed the percentages permitted under the applicable legislation in the Province in which the First Nation is located.

9. Tax Roll and Tax Notices

9.1 The Law must provide for the tax administrator to create a tax roll each year by a date set out in the Law.

9.2 The Law must require the tax administrator to mail a tax notice in each year by a date set out in the Law that is at least thirty (30) days before the date that any taxes are due.

9.3 The Law must require the tax administrator to mail a tax notice to

- (a) each holder of an interest in land subject to tax; and
- (b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of a taxable property.

9.4 The Law must require a tax notice to contain at least the following information:

- (a) a description of the property;
- (b) the taxes imposed under the Law for the current taxation year, or the interim payment amount owing, as applicable;
- (c) when penalties will be added if taxes are not paid;
- (d) any unpaid taxes, penalties, interest and costs in respect of the property; and
- (e) where payment must be made, the manner of payment, and the date or dates the taxes are due, including due dates for any interim tax payments and instalment tax payments.

9.5 The Law must provide for the mailing of amended tax notices where the tax roll is amended to reflect an amended, revised or supplementary assessment roll.

10. Tax Refunds

10.1 The Law must set out procedures for providing refunds to taxpayers and the circumstances under which refunds will be given, and must include at least the following provisions:

- (a) a refund of excess taxes paid where a change in the assessment results in a reduction of taxes for a property;
- (b) payment of interest at a rate of two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the fifteenth day of the month immediately preceding the calculation of the interest for the following three (3) month period.

10.2 Notwithstanding subsection 10.1, the Law may provide that excess taxes be applied as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts due to the First Nation.

11. Penalties, Collection and Enforcement

11.1 Where the Law provides for a penalty to be imposed in respect of unpaid taxes, the Law must set out the date on which a penalty will be imposed if taxes remain unpaid.

11.2 The Law must set out the enforcement measures that may be taken by the First Nation to collect unpaid taxes.

11.3 If the First Nation wishes to recover its costs of enforcement, the Law must set out the types of costs and how the amounts are determined.

12. Confidentiality

The Law must provide for the confidentiality of information and documents obtained by the tax administrator, assessor, the Assessment Review Board and any other person who has custody or control of records obtained or created under the Law, except that disclosure may be made

- (a) in the course of administering the Law or performing functions under it;
- (b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board or a court of law;
- (c) where a holder gives written authorization for his or her agent to obtain confidential information relating to a property;
- (d) by the tax administrator to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes, provided the information or documents do not include any information that is in an individually identifiable form; or

(e) by Council to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes.

PART VIII

REVOCATION AND COMING INTO FORCE

Revocation

The Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws that were established and effective as of October 22, 2007, are revoked.

Coming Into Force

These Standards are established and in effect as of April 1, 2016.

STANDARDS FOR

[Consolidated to 2018-12-12]

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;
- B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and
- C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation property taxation laws enacted under paragraphs 5(1)(a) and (e) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' property taxation laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to every property taxation law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

CITATION

These Standards may be cited as the Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws, 2016.

PART VI
DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

- “Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c.9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;

PART VII STANDARDS

1. Appointment of Tax Administrator

1.1 The Law must provide for the appointment by Council, by resolution, of a tax administrator to oversee the administration and enforcement of the Law.

1.2 The Law must provide that the tax administrator is responsible for the day-to-day management of the First Nation's local revenue account.

2. Tax Liability

2.1 The Law must provide that

- (a) it applies to all interests in land in the reserve; and
- (b) all interests in land in the reserve are subject to taxation unless exempted from taxation in accordance with the Law.

2.2 The Law must provide that taxes must be levied on each taxable property by applying the applicable tax rate against the assessed value of the taxable property, except as provided in subsection 2.3.

2.3 If a First Nation wishes to establish a minimum amount of tax to be levied on taxable property in a property class, the Law must provide that the First Nation may set a minimum tax in one or more property classes in its annual rates law each year.

3. Tax Districts

3.1 Where a First Nation wishes to have one (1) or more tax districts, the Law must

- (a) establish each tax district; and
- (b) describe the reserves and parts of reserves included in each district, using either a map or written description that clearly defines the geographical boundaries of the tax district.

3.2 A First Nation may only establish a tax district where necessary to create a fair taxation regime because the First Nation

- (a) has multiple reserves and one (1) or more of the reserves or parts of reserves have differing levels of servicing requirements or different reference jurisdictions; or
- (b) has a single reserve and one or more parts of the reserve has differing levels of servicing requirements or different reference jurisdictions.

4. Transition Period for Certain Taxing First Nations

4.1 Where a First Nation is implementing taxation for the first time and, in the year prior to making the Law,

- (a) the interests in land that will be subject to taxation under the Law were not subject to provincial taxation jurisdiction, and
- (b) the First Nation charged a fee for the provision of local services to holders of interests in land in all or certain property classes,

the Law must include requirements for establishing tax rates during the transition period for those property classes that were subject to the fee referenced in paragraph (b), which requirements must comply with subsections 4.2 and 4.3.

4.2 Where subsection 4.1 applies to a First Nation, the Law must require the First Nation to establish tax rates in each year of the transition period that

- (a) are based on annual budgeting for the provision of local services to taxpayers; or
- (b) will move incrementally towards establishing tax rates that are identical to the tax rates set by the reference jurisdiction.

4.3 Where a First Nation's Law

- (a) applies paragraph 4.2(a), the Law must include a list of the services to be provided, the estimated costs of the services, and the anticipated tax rates in each applicable property class in each year of the transition period; or
- (b) applies paragraph 4.2(b), the Law must include a list of the services to be provided and the anticipated tax rates in each applicable property class in each year of the transition period.

5. Exemptions from Taxation

5.1 Where a First Nation wishes to provide for exemptions from property taxation under a Law, those exemptions must be set out in the Law.

5.2 Where exemptions from taxation are included in a Law, the exemptions must be in respect of interests in land in one or more of the following categories:

- (a) an exemption for an interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation, a First Nation Entity, or a member of the First Nation;
- (b) an exemption for an interest in land occupied as a residence by one (1) or more members of the First Nation and related individuals of those members and by no other persons; or
- (c) an exemption in a class of exemption used by local governments in the Province.

5.3 Where a Law provides an exemption under paragraph 5.2(a), the Law must provide that where an interest in land is held by the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation and is wholly occupied by a person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation,

- (a) the exemption does not apply to the person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation;
- (b) that person is responsible for the taxes levied in respect of the interest in land; and
- (c) the taxes are a liability only on that person.

5.4 Where a Law provides an exemption under paragraph 5.2(a), the Law must provide that where an interest in land is occupied by the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation and is also occupied by a person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation,

- (a) the exemption does not apply to the person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation;
- (b) that person is responsible for the taxes levied in respect of that person's proportionate occupation of the interest in land; and
- (c) the taxes are a liability only on that person.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2018-06-25; 2018-12-12.]

6. Grants and Tax Abatement

6.1 Where a Law provides for a granting program, the Law must

- (a) set out the objectives of the program, which must relate to a community purpose or goal;
- (b) set out the qualifying criteria for the program;
- (c) provide that the grant
 - (i) may be given only to a holder of property that is taxable in the current taxation year,
 - (ii) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the property in the current taxation year, less any other grants, abatements or offsets, and
 - (iii) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the property in the current taxation year; and
- (d) provide that Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given and authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

6.2 The Law may provide for a form of tax abatement only where it is the same type and the same amount or percentage amount of abatement that is provided by the Province.

6.3 Where a Law provides for tax abatement, the qualifying requirements must be set out in the Law, and the amount of abatements given must be shown annually in the annual expenditure law.

7. Reserve Funds

7.1 If a First Nation wishes to establish a reserve fund or use a reserve fund existing at the time the First Nation was added to the schedule to the Act,

- (a) the Law must include the provisions set out in this section; and
- (b) each reserve fund must be established in an expenditure law.

7.2 The Law must include the following provisions respecting the use of reserve funds:

- (a) except as authorized in the Law, money in a reserve fund and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established;
- (b) Council may, by expenditure law,
 - (i) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account only where all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed,
 - (ii) transfer money in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account,
 - (iii) borrow money from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the money is needed for the purposes of that reserve fund, and
 - (iv) as an exception to subparagraph (iii), borrow money from a reserve fund where the First Nations Financial Management Board has assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account and, acting in the place of the Council, has determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation; and
- (c) all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund must be authorized by expenditure law.

7.3 Where a Law provides for the investing of moneys in a reserve fund that are not immediately required, it must allow for investment only in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities of Canada or of a province;
- (b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;
- (c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;
- (d) investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or
- (e) deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

8. Tax Payments

8.1 The Law must

- (a) provide for the date on which taxes are due and payable; and
- (b) set out the acceptable forms of payment and where payment must be made, if applicable.

8.2 Where the Law provides for tax payments by instalments, the Law must set out

- (a) how a taxpayer may apply to pay taxes by instalments;
 - (b) the due date for each instalment;
 - (c) how each instalment amount will be calculated;
 - (d) any consequences of failing to pay an instalment by the instalment due date; and
 - (e) any penalties or interest that will be levied on unpaid instalment payments and when such charges will be imposed.
- 8.3 The Law may require taxpayers to make an interim tax payment before the First Nation establishes its annual tax rates, provided the First Nation is located in a Province that permits interim tax levies in the provincial property taxation regime.
- 8.4 Where a Law requires an interim tax payment, the Law must set out
- (a) the date on which the interim payment is due and payable;
 - (b) the calculation of the interim payment amount based on a specified percentage of the property value taxes levied on a property in the previous taxation year;
 - (c) the interim tax payment percentage for each property class;
 - (d) that the interim tax payment will be applied towards the total taxes owing for that taxation year; and
 - (e) any penalties or interest that will be levied on an unpaid interim tax payment and when such charges will be imposed.
- 8.5 The percentages required by paragraph 8.4(c) must not exceed the percentages permitted under the applicable legislation in the Province in which the First Nation is located.
- 9. Tax Roll and Tax Notices
- 9.1 The Law must provide for the tax administrator to create a tax roll each year by a date set out in the Law.
- 9.2 The Law must require the tax administrator to mail a tax notice in each year by a date set out in the Law that is at least thirty (30) days before the date that any taxes are due.
- 9.3 The Law must require the tax administrator to mail a tax notice to
- (a) each holder of an interest in land subject to tax; and
 - (b) each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of a taxable property.
- 9.4 The Law must require a tax notice to contain at least the following information:
- (a) a description of the property;
 - (b) the taxes imposed under the Law for the current taxation year, or the interim payment amount owing, as applicable;
 - (c) when penalties will be added if taxes are not paid;
 - (d) any unpaid taxes, penalties, interest and costs in respect of the property; and
 - (e) where payment must be made, the manner of payment, and the date or dates the taxes are due, including due dates for any interim tax payments and instalment tax payments.
- 9.5 The Law must provide for the mailing of amended tax notices where the tax roll is amended to reflect an amended, revised or supplementary assessment roll.

10. Tax Refunds

10.1 The Law must set out procedures for providing refunds to taxpayers and the circumstances under which refunds will be given, and must include at least the following provisions:

- (a) a refund of excess taxes paid where a change in the assessment results in a reduction of taxes for a property;
- (b) payment of interest at a rate of two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the fifteenth day of the month immediately preceding the calculation of the interest for the following three (3) month period.

10.2 Notwithstanding subsection 10.1, the Law may provide that excess taxes be applied as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts due to the First Nation.

11. Penalties, Collection and Enforcement

11.1 Where the Law provides for a penalty to be imposed in respect of unpaid taxes, the Law must set out the date on which a penalty will be imposed if taxes remain unpaid.

11.2 The Law must set out the enforcement measures that may be taken by the First Nation to collect unpaid taxes.

11.3 If the First Nation wishes to recover its costs of enforcement, the Law must set out the types of costs and how the amounts are determined.

12. Confidentiality

The Law must provide for the confidentiality of information and documents obtained by the tax administrator, assessor, the Assessment Review Board and any other person who has custody or control of records obtained or created under the Law, except that disclosure may be made

- (a) in the course of administering the Law or performing functions under it;
- (b) in proceedings before the Assessment Review Board or a court of law;
- (c) where a holder gives written authorization for his or her agent to obtain confidential information relating to a property;
- (d) by the tax administrator to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes, provided the information or documents do not include any information that is in an individually identifiable form; or
- (e) by Council to a third party for research (including statistical) purposes.

PART VIII

REVOCATION AND COMING INTO FORCE

Revocation

The Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws that were established and effective as of October 22, 2007, are revoked.

Coming Into Force

These Standards are established and in effect as of April 1, 2016.

NORMES RELATIVES AUX LOIS
SUR L'IMPOSITION FONCIÈRE DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS (2016)

[Codifiées le 2018-06-25]

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

- A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;
- B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;
- C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations édictés en vertu des alinéas 5(1)a) et e) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III
AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tous les textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V
TITRE

Les présentes normes peuvent être citées sous le titre : Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations (2016).

PARTIE VI

- « territoire de référence » Administration taxatrice voisine d’une première nation qui est désignée aux fins de la comparaison des taux d’imposition de cette dernière.
- « texte législatif » Texte législatif sur l’imposition foncière édicté en vertu des alinéas 5(1)a) et e) de la Loi, à l’exception d’un texte législatif sur la taxe sur les transferts fonciers.
- « texte législatif annuel sur les taux d’imposition » Texte législatif édicté en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(ii) de la Loi, tel que l’exige l’article 10 de la Loi.
- Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s’entendent au sens de la Loi.
- [mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2018-06-25.]

PARTIE VII

NORMES

1. Nomination d’un administrateur fiscal

- 1.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir la nomination par le conseil, par voie de résolution, d’un administrateur fiscal chargé de surveiller l’application et le contrôle d’application du texte législatif.
- 1.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que l’administrateur fiscal est responsable de la gestion quotidienne du compte de recettes locales de la première nation.

2. Assujettissement à l’impôt

- 2.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir :
- a) qu’il s’applique à tous les intérêts fonciers dans la réserve;

b) que tous les intérêts fonciers dans la réserve sont assujettis à l'impôt, sauf s'ils en sont exemptés en conformité avec le texte législatif.

2.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que l'impôt est prélevé sur chaque bien imposable par application du taux d'imposition en vigueur à la valeur imposable du bien, sauf dans le cas prévu au paragraphe 2.3.

2.3 Si une première nation souhaite fixer un montant d'impôt minimum à prélever sur les biens imposables d'une catégorie de biens fonciers, le texte législatif doit prévoir que la première nation peut chaque année fixer un impôt minimum pour une ou plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers dans son texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition.

3. Districts fiscaux

3.1 Lorsqu'une première nation souhaite avoir un (1) ou plusieurs districts fiscaux, le texte législatif doit :

- a) établir chaque district fiscal;
- b) donner une description des réserves et des parties de réserve comprises dans chaque district fiscal, qui est accompagnée d'une carte ou d'un texte écrit et qui définit clairement les limites géographiques du district fiscal.

3.2 Une première nation ne peut établir un district fiscal que si cela est nécessaire pour créer un régime d'imposition équitable parce qu'elle a, selon le cas :

- a) de multiples réserves et qu'une ou plusieurs réserves ou parties de réserve ont des besoins différents en matière de services ou des territoires de référence différents;
- b) une seule réserve et qu'une ou plusieurs parties de la réserve ont des besoins différents en matière de services ou des territoires de référence différents.

4. Période de transition pour certaines premières nations taxatrices

4.1 Lorsqu'une première nation met en œuvre l'imposition foncière pour la première fois et que, dans l'année précédant la prise de son texte législatif :

- a) d'une part, les intérêts fonciers à assujettir à l'impôt selon le texte législatif n'étaient pas soumis au régime d'imposition provincial,
- b) d'autre part, elle imposait des frais pour la prestation des services locaux aux détenteurs d'intérêts fonciers de toutes les catégories de biens fonciers ou de certaines de celles-ci, le texte législatif doit énoncer les exigences à respecter pour fixer pendant la période de transition les taux d'imposition applicables aux catégories de biens fonciers assujetties aux frais visés à l'alinéa b), lesquelles exigences doivent être conformes aux paragraphes 4.2 et 4.3.

4.2 Lorsque le paragraphe 4.1 s'applique à une première nation, le texte législatif doit exiger que celle-ci fixe, à chaque année de la période de transition, des taux d'imposition qui :

- a) soit sont fondés sur le budget annuel relatif à la prestation des services locaux aux contribuables;
- b) soit augmenteront graduellement vers des taux d'imposition identiques à ceux fixés par le territoire de référence.

4.3 Lorsque le texte législatif d'une première nation :

- a) met en application l'alinéa 4.2a), il doit donner la liste des services à fournir et indiquer les coûts estimatifs des services et les taux d'imposition anticipés dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers applicable pour chaque année de la période de transition;
- b) met en application l'alinéa 4.2b), il doit donner la liste des services à fournir et les taux d'imposition anticipés dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers applicable pour chaque année de la période de transition.

5. Exemptions d'impôts

5.1 Lorsqu'une première nation souhaite prévoir des exemptions de l'imposition foncière dans le cadre du texte législatif, ces exemptions doivent être énoncées dans le texte législatif.

5.2 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit des exemptions d'impôts, il doit s'agir d'exemptions visant des intérêts fonciers de l'une ou plusieurs des catégories suivantes :

- a) exemption visant un intérêt foncier détenu ou occupé par la Première Nation, une société de la Première Nation ou un membre de la Première Nation;
- b) exemption visant un intérêt foncier occupé comme résidence par un (1) ou plusieurs membres de la Première Nation et des personnes apparentées à ceux-ci, et par nulle autre personne;
- c) exemption faisant partie d'une catégorie d'exemptions utilisée par des administrations locales dans la province.

5.3 Le texte législatif qui prévoit l'exemption visée à l'alinéa 5.2a) doit préciser que si l'intérêt foncier en cause est détenu par la Première Nation, une société de la Première Nation ou un membre de la Première Nation et qu'il est entièrement occupé par une personne qui n'est ni la Première Nation ni une société de la Première Nation ni un membre de la Première Nation :

- a) l'exemption ne s'applique pas à la personne qui occupe l'intérêt foncier;
- b) cette personne est responsable de payer les impôts qui sont imposés sur l'intérêt foncier;
- c) la responsabilité de payer ces impôts incombe uniquement à cette personne.

5.4 Le texte législatif qui prévoit l'exemption visée à l'alinéa 5.2a) doit préciser que si l'intérêt foncier est occupé par la Première Nation, une société de la Première Nation ou un membre de la Première Nation et qu'il est aussi occupé par une personne qui n'est ni la Première Nation ni une société de la Première Nation ni un membre de la Première Nation :

- a) l'exemption ne s'applique pas à cette personne;
- b) cette personne est responsable de payer les impôts imposés relativement à son occupation proportionnelle de l'intérêt foncier;
- c) la responsabilité de payer ces impôts incombe uniquement à cette personne.

[mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2018-06-25.]

6. Subventions et abattement fiscal

6.1 Lorsqu'il prévoit un programme de subventions, le texte législatif doit :

- a) énoncer les objectifs du programme, lesquels doivent se rapporter à une fin ou un but communautaire;
- b) établir les critères d'admissibilité au programme;
- c) préciser que la subvention :
 - (i) ne peut être accordée qu'au détenteur d'un bien foncier qui est imposable pendant l'année d'imposition en cours,
 - (ii) doit être d'un montant égal ou inférieur aux impôts payables sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours, moins tous autres subventions, abattements ou compensations,
 - (iii) ne peut être utilisée que pour le paiement des impôts exigibles sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours;
- d) prévoir que le conseil déterminera à chaque année d'imposition quelles subventions seront accordées et autorisera ces subventions dans le texte législatif sur les dépenses.

6.2 Le texte législatif ne peut prévoir un abattement fiscal que s’il s’agit du même type et du même pourcentage ou montant d’abattement que celui offert par la province.

6.3 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit un abattement fiscal, les conditions d’admissibilité à celui-ci doivent être énoncées dans ce texte et le montant des abattements accordés doit être indiqué chaque année dans le texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses.

7. Fonds de réserve

7.1 Si une première nation souhaite constituer un fonds de réserve ou utiliser un fonds de réserve qui existait à la date de son inscription à l’annexe de la Loi :

- a) le texte législatif doit comporter les dispositions énoncées au présent article;
- b) chaque fonds de réserve doit être constitué par un texte législatif sur les dépenses.

7.2 Le texte législatif doit comporter les dispositions suivantes concernant l’utilisation des fonds de réserve :

- a) sauf disposition contraire du texte législatif, les sommes versées dans un fonds de réserve et les intérêts qu’elles rapportent ne peuvent être utilisés que pour les fins auxquelles le fonds de réserve a été constitué;
- b) le conseil peut, par un texte législatif sur les dépenses :
 - (i) transférer des sommes d’un fonds de réserve pour immobilisations à un autre fonds de réserve ou à un compte seulement lorsque tous les projets pour lesquels a été constitué le fonds de réserve ont été achevés,
 - (ii) transférer des sommes d’un fonds de réserve non destiné aux immobilisations à un autre fonds de réserve ou à un compte,
 - (iii) emprunter des sommes sur un fonds de réserve lorsque ces sommes ne sont pas immédiatement nécessaires, à la condition que la première nation rembourse les sommes empruntées plus les intérêts sur celles-ci à un taux égal ou supérieur au taux préférentiel fixé périodiquement par la banque principale de la première nation, au plus tard à la date où les sommes sont requises pour les fins auxquelles le fonds de réserve a été constitué,
 - (iv) à titre d’exception au sous-alinéa (iii), emprunter des sommes sur un fonds de réserve dans les cas où le Conseil de gestion financière des premières nations a pris en charge la gestion du compte de recettes locales de la première nation et a déterminé, agissant à la place du conseil, qu’il est nécessaire de faire des emprunts sur un fonds de réserve pour remplir les obligations financières de la première nation;
- c) tous les versements effectués à un fonds de réserve et toutes les dépenses engagées sur ce fonds doivent être autorisés par une loi sur les dépenses.

7.3 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l’investissement des sommes versées dans un fonds de réserve qui ne sont pas immédiatement nécessaires, il ne peut autoriser leur investissement que dans l’un ou plusieurs des placements suivants :

- a) les valeurs mobilières du Canada ou d’une province;
- b) les valeurs mobilières garanties, en capital et intérêts, par le Canada ou une province;
- c) les valeurs mobilières d’une administration financière municipale ou de l’Administration financière des premières nations;
- d) les investissements garantis par une banque, une société de fiducie ou une caisse d’épargne et de crédit;

- e) les dépôts dans une banque ou une société de fiducie au Canada ou les titres non participatifs ou les parts sociales d'une caisse d'épargne et de crédit.

8. Paiements d'impôts

8.1 Le texte législatif doit :

- a) prévoir la date à laquelle les impôts sont exigibles;
- b) préciser les modes de paiement acceptables et l'endroit où les paiements doivent être faits, s'il y a lieu.

8.2 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit le paiement des impôts par acomptes provisionnels, il doit préciser :

- a) la procédure à suivre par le contribuable pour demander de payer les impôts par acomptes provisionnels;
- b) la date d'échéance de chaque acompte provisionnel;
- c) le mode de calcul du montant de chaque acompte provisionnel;
- d) les conséquences du défaut de payer un acompte provisionnel à la date d'échéance;
- e) les pénalités ou les intérêts qui seront imposés, le cas échéant, sur les acomptes provisionnels en souffrance et le moment où ils seront imposés.

8.3 Le texte législatif peut exiger que les contribuables versent un paiement provisoire d'impôts avant que la première nation établisse ses taux d'imposition annuels, pourvu que cette dernière soit située dans une province qui autorise les prélèvements provisoires d'impôts dans le cadre du régime provincial d'imposition foncière.

8.4 Lorsque le texte législatif exige le versement d'un paiement provisoire d'impôts, il doit préciser :

- a) la date d'échéance du paiement provisoire;
- b) le mode de calcul du montant du paiement provisoire, lequel est fondé sur un pourcentage déterminé des impôts fonciers prélevés sur un bien foncier au cours de l'année d'imposition précédente;
- c) le pourcentage applicable à chacune des catégories de biens fonciers que représente le paiement provisoire d'impôts;
- d) la mention que le paiement provisoire sera déduit du montant total des impôts exigibles pour l'année d'imposition en cours;
- e) les pénalités ou les intérêts qui seront imposés, le cas échéant, sur tout paiement provisoire en souffrance et le moment où ils seront imposés.

8.5 Les pourcentages visés à l'alinéa 8.4c) ne peuvent dépasser les pourcentages autorisés sous le régime des lois applicables de la province où est située la première nation.

9. Rôle et avis d'imposition

9.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'établissement d'un rôle d'imposition par l'administrateur fiscal chaque année, au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée.

9.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis d'imposition par la poste chaque année au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée, laquelle est d'au moins trente (30) jours avant la date à laquelle des impôts sont exigibles.

9.3 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis d'imposition par la poste à :

- a) chaque détenteur d'un intérêt foncier assujetti à l'impôt;
- b) chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'imposition à l'égard d'un bien imposable.

9.4 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l’avis d’imposition contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

- a) une description du bien foncier;
- b) le montant d’impôts prélevés en vertu du texte législatif pour l’année d’imposition en cours;
- c) la date où des pénalités seront ajoutées si les impôts ne sont pas payés;
- d) tous les impôts impayés, pénalités, intérêts et frais se rapportant au bien foncier;
- e) lorsqu’un paiement doit être fait, le mode de paiement et la date ou les dates auxquelles les impôts sont exigibles, y compris les dates d’échéance des paiements provisoires d’impôts et des acomptes provisionnels, le cas échéant.

9.5 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l’envoi par la poste d’avis d’imposition modifiés dans les cas où le rôle d’imposition a été modifié pour tenir compte d’un rôle d’évaluation modifié, révisé ou supplémentaire.

10. Remboursements d’impôts

10.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir les procédures applicables aux remboursements d’impôts accordés aux contribuables et les circonstances dans lesquelles des remboursements sont accordés, et il doit comporter au moins les dispositions suivantes :

- a) le remboursement des impôts payés en trop lorsque la modification de l’évaluation d’un bien foncier entraîne une réduction des impôts à payer sur ce bien;
- b) le paiement d’intérêts à un taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la première nation en vigueur le quinzième jour du mois précédant le calcul des intérêts pour la période de trois (3) mois subséquente.

10.2 Malgré le paragraphe 10.1, le texte législatif peut prévoir que les impôts payés en trop seront appliqués comme crédit à valoir sur la dette fiscale ou tout autre montant impayé dû à la première nation.

11. Pénalités, perception et contrôle d’application

11.1 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l’imposition d’une pénalité sur les impôts impayés, il doit préciser la date à laquelle une pénalité sera imposée si les impôts demeurent en souffrance.

11.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir les mesures de contrôle d’application que peut prendre la première nation pour percevoir les impôts impayés.

12. Confidentialité

Le texte législatif doit assurer la confidentialité des renseignements et des documents obtenus par l’administrateur fiscal, l’évaluateur, le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières et toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de dossiers obtenus ou créés en vertu du texte législatif; toutefois, ces renseignements et ces documents peuvent être communiqués :

- a) dans le cadre de l’application du texte législatif ou de l’exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;
- b) dans le cadre d’une procédure devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou un tribunal judiciaire;
- c) lorsqu’un détenteur a autorisé par écrit son agent à obtenir des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier;

- d) par l'administrateur fiscal à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, à la condition que les renseignements ou les documents ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus;
- e) par le conseil à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique.

PARTIE VIII

ABROGATION ET ENTRÉE EN VIGUEUR

Abrogation

Les Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations, établies et entrées en vigueur le 22 octobre 2007, sont abrogées.

Entrée en vigueur

Les présentes normes sont établies et entrent en vigueur le 1 avril 2016.

PARTIE IX

DEMANDES DE RENSEIGNEMENTS

Toutes les demandes de renseignements concernant les présentes normes doivent être adressées à :

Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

NORMES RELATIVES AUX LOIS
SUR L'IMPOSITION FONCIÈRE DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS (2016)

[Codifiées le 2018-12-12]

PARTIE I
PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

- A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;
- B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;
- C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II
OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations édictés en vertu des alinéas 5(1)a) et e) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III
AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV
APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tous les textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V
TITRE

Les présentes normes peuvent être citées sous le titre : Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations (2016).

PARTIE VII

NORMES

1. Nomination d'un administrateur fiscal

1.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir la nomination par le conseil, par voie de résolution, d'un administrateur fiscal chargé de surveiller l'application et le contrôle d'application du texte législatif.

1.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que l'administrateur fiscal est responsable de la gestion quotidienne du compte de recettes locales de la première nation.

2. Assujettissement à l'impôt

2.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir :

- a) qu'il s'applique à tous les intérêts fonciers dans la réserve;
- b) que tous les intérêts fonciers dans la réserve sont assujettis à l'impôt, sauf s'ils en sont exemptés en conformité avec le texte législatif.

2.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir que l'impôt est prélevé sur chaque bien imposable par application du taux d'imposition en vigueur à la valeur imposable du bien, sauf dans le cas prévu au paragraphe 2.3.

2.3 Si une première nation souhaite fixer un montant d'impôt minimum à prélever sur les biens imposables d'une catégorie de biens fonciers, le texte législatif doit prévoir que la première nation peut chaque année fixer un impôt minimum pour une ou plusieurs catégories de biens fonciers dans son texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition.

3. Districts fiscaux

3.1 Lorsqu'une première nation souhaite avoir un (1) ou plusieurs districts fiscaux, le texte législatif doit :

- a) établir chaque district fiscal;
- b) donner une description des réserves et des parties de réserve comprises dans chaque district fiscal, qui est accompagnée d'une carte ou d'un texte écrit et qui définit clairement les limites géographiques du district fiscal.

3.2 Une première nation ne peut établir un district fiscal que si cela est nécessaire pour créer un régime d'imposition équitable parce qu'elle a, selon le cas :

- a) de multiples réserves et qu'une ou plusieurs réserves ou parties de réserve ont des besoins différents en matière de services ou des territoires de référence différents;
- b) une seule réserve et qu'une ou plusieurs parties de la réserve ont des besoins différents en matière de services ou des territoires de référence différents.

4. Période de transition pour certaines premières nations taxatrices

4.1 Lorsqu'une première nation met en œuvre l'imposition foncière pour la première fois et que, dans l'année précédant la prise de son texte législatif :

- a) d'une part, les intérêts fonciers à assujettir à l'impôt selon le texte législatif n'étaient pas soumis au régime d'imposition provincial,
- b) d'autre part, elle imposait des frais pour la prestation des services locaux aux détenteurs d'intérêts fonciers de toutes les catégories de biens fonciers ou de certaines de celles-ci, le texte législatif doit énoncer les exigences à respecter pour fixer pendant la période de transition les taux d'imposition applicables aux catégories de biens fonciers assujetties aux frais visés à l'alinéa b), lesquelles exigences doivent être conformes aux paragraphes 4.2 et 4.3.

4.2 Lorsque le paragraphe 4.1 s'applique à une première nation, le texte législatif doit exiger que celle-ci fixe, à chaque année de la période de transition, des taux d'imposition qui :

- a) soit sont fondés sur le budget annuel relatif à la prestation des services locaux aux contribuables;
- b) soit augmenteront graduellement vers des taux d'imposition identiques à ceux fixés par le territoire de référence.

4.3 Lorsque le texte législatif d'une première nation :

- a) met en application l'alinéa 4.2a), il doit donner la liste des services à fournir et indiquer les coûts estimatifs des services et les taux d'imposition anticipés dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers applicable pour chaque année de la période de transition;
- b) met en application l'alinéa 4.2b), il doit donner la liste des services à fournir et les taux d'imposition anticipés dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers applicable pour chaque année de la période de transition.

5. Exemptions d'impôts

5.1 Lorsqu'une première nation souhaite prévoir des exemptions de l'imposition foncière dans le cadre du texte législatif, ces exemptions doivent être énoncées dans le texte législatif.

5.2 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit des exemptions d'impôts, il doit s'agir d'exemptions visant des intérêts fonciers de l'une ou plusieurs des catégories suivantes :

- a) exemption visant un intérêt foncier détenu ou occupé par la première nation, une entité de la première nation ou un membre de la première nation;
- b) exemption visant un intérêt foncier occupé comme résidence par un (1) ou plusieurs membres de la première nation et des personnes apparentées à ceux-ci, et par nulle autre personne;
- c) exemption faisant partie d'une catégorie d'exemptions utilisée par des administrations locales dans la province.

5.3 Le texte législatif qui prévoit l'exemption visée à l'alinéa 5.2a) doit préciser que si l'intérêt foncier en cause est détenu par la première nation, une entité de la première nation ou un membre de la première nation et qu'il est entièrement occupé par une personne qui n'est ni la première nation ni une entité de la première nation ni un membre de la première nation :

- a) l'exemption ne s'applique pas à la personne qui occupe l'intérêt foncier;
- b) cette personne est responsable de payer les impôts qui sont imposés sur l'intérêt foncier;
- c) la responsabilité de payer ces impôts incombe uniquement à cette personne.

5.4 Le texte législatif qui prévoit l'exemption visée à l'alinéa 5.2a) doit préciser que si l'intérêt foncier est occupé par la première nation, une entité de la première nation ou un membre de la première nation et qu'il est aussi occupé par une personne qui n'est ni la première nation ni une entité de la première nation ni un membre de la première nation :

- a) l'exemption ne s'applique pas à cette personne;
- b) cette personne est responsable de payer les impôts imposés relativement à son occupation proportionnelle de l'intérêt foncier;
- c) la responsabilité de payer ces impôts incombe uniquement à cette personne.

[mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2018-06-25; 2018-12-12.]

6. Subventions et abattement fiscal

6.1 Lorsqu'il prévoit un programme de subventions, le texte législatif doit :

- a) énoncer les objectifs du programme, lesquels doivent se rapporter à une fin ou un but communautaire;
- b) établir les critères d'admissibilité au programme;
- c) préciser que la subvention :
 - (i) ne peut être accordée qu'au détenteur d'un bien foncier qui est imposable pendant l'année d'imposition en cours,
 - (ii) doit être d'un montant égal ou inférieur aux impôts payables sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours, moins tous autres subventions, abattements ou compensations,
 - (iii) ne peut être utilisée que pour le paiement des impôts exigibles sur le bien foncier pendant l'année d'imposition en cours;
- d) prévoir que le conseil déterminera à chaque année d'imposition quelles subventions seront accordées et autorisera ces subventions dans le texte législatif sur les dépenses.

6.2 Le texte législatif ne peut prévoir un abattement fiscal que s'il s'agit du même type et du même pourcentage ou montant d'abattement que celui offert par la province.

6.3 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit un abattement fiscal, les conditions d'admissibilité à celui-ci doivent être énoncées dans ce texte et le montant des abattements accordés doit être indiqué chaque année dans le texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses.

7. Fonds de réserve

7.1 Si une première nation souhaite constituer un fonds de réserve ou utiliser un fonds de réserve qui existait à la date de son inscription à l'annexe de la Loi :

- a) le texte législatif doit comporter les dispositions énoncées au présent article;
- b) chaque fonds de réserve doit être constitué par un texte législatif sur les dépenses.

7.2 Le texte législatif doit comporter les dispositions suivantes concernant l'utilisation des fonds de réserve :

- a) sauf disposition contraire du texte législatif, les sommes versées dans un fonds de réserve et les intérêts qu'elles rapportent ne peuvent être utilisés que pour les fins auxquelles le fonds de réserve a été constitué;
- b) le conseil peut, par un texte législatif sur les dépenses :
 - (i) transférer des sommes d'un fonds de réserve pour immobilisations à un autre fonds de réserve ou à un compte seulement lorsque tous les projets pour lesquels a été constitué le fonds de réserve ont été achevés,
 - (ii) transférer des sommes d'un fonds de réserve non destiné aux immobilisations à un autre fonds de réserve ou à un compte,
 - (iii) emprunter des sommes sur un fonds de réserve lorsque ces sommes ne sont pas immédiatement nécessaires, à la condition que la première nation rembourse les sommes empruntées plus les intérêts sur celles-ci à un taux égal ou supérieur au taux préférentiel fixé périodiquement par la banque principale de la première nation, au plus tard à la date où les sommes sont requises pour les fins auxquelles le fonds de réserve a été constitué,
 - (iv) à titre d'exception au sous-alinéa (iii), emprunter des sommes sur un fonds de réserve dans les cas où le Conseil de gestion financière des premières nations a pris en charge la gestion du compte de recettes locales de la première nation et a déterminé, agissant à la place du conseil, qu'il est nécessaire de faire des emprunts sur un fonds de réserve pour remplir les obligations financières de la première nation;

c) tous les versements effectués à un fonds de réserve et toutes les dépenses engagées sur ce fonds doivent être autorisés par une loi sur les dépenses.

7.3 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l'investissement des sommes versées dans un fonds de réserve qui ne sont pas immédiatement nécessaires, il ne peut autoriser leur investissement que dans l'un ou plusieurs des placements suivants :

- a) les valeurs mobilières du Canada ou d'une province;
- b) les valeurs mobilières garanties, en capital et intérêts, par le Canada ou une province;
- c) les valeurs mobilières d'une administration financière municipale ou de l'Administration financière des premières nations;
- d) les investissements garantis par une banque, une société de fiducie ou une caisse d'épargne et de crédit;
- e) les dépôts dans une banque ou une société de fiducie au Canada ou les titres non participatifs ou les parts sociales d'une caisse d'épargne et de crédit.

8. Paiements d'impôts

8.1 Le texte législatif doit :

- a) prévoir la date à laquelle les impôts sont exigibles;
- b) préciser les modes de paiement acceptables et l'endroit où les paiements doivent être faits, s'il y a lieu.

8.2 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit le paiement des impôts par acomptes provisionnels, il doit préciser :

- a) la procédure à suivre par le contribuable pour demander de payer les impôts par acomptes provisionnels;
- b) la date d'échéance de chaque acompte provisionnel;
- c) le mode de calcul du montant de chaque acompte provisionnel;
- d) les conséquences du défaut de payer un acompte provisionnel à la date d'échéance;
- e) les pénalités ou les intérêts qui seront imposés, le cas échéant, sur les acomptes provisionnels en souffrance et le moment où ils seront imposés.

8.3 Le texte législatif peut exiger que les contribuables versent un paiement provisoire d'impôts avant que la première nation établisse ses taux d'imposition annuels, pourvu que cette dernière soit située dans une province qui autorise les prélèvements provisoires d'impôts dans le cadre du régime provincial d'imposition foncière.

8.4 Lorsque le texte législatif exige le versement d'un paiement provisoire d'impôts, il doit préciser :

- a) la date d'échéance du paiement provisoire;
- b) le mode de calcul du montant du paiement provisoire, lequel est fondé sur un pourcentage déterminé des impôts fonciers prélevés sur un bien foncier au cours de l'année d'imposition précédente;
- c) le pourcentage applicable à chacune des catégories de biens fonciers que représente le paiement provisoire d'impôts;

- d) la mention que le paiement provisoire sera déduit du montant total des impôts exigibles pour l'année d'imposition en cours;
- e) les pénalités ou les intérêts qui seront imposés, le cas échéant, sur tout paiement provisoire en souffrance et le moment où ils seront imposés.

8.5 Les pourcentages visés à l'alinéa 8.4c) ne peuvent dépasser les pourcentages autorisés sous le régime des lois applicables de la province où est située la première nation.

9. Rôle et avis d'imposition

9.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'établissement d'un rôle d'imposition par l'administrateur fiscal chaque année, au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée.

9.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis d'imposition par la poste chaque année au plus tard à la date qui y est précisée, laquelle est d'au moins trente (30) jours avant la date à laquelle des impôts sont exigibles.

9.3 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'administrateur fiscal envoie un avis d'imposition par la poste à :

- a) chaque détenteur d'un intérêt foncier assujetti à l'impôt;
- b) chaque personne dont le nom figure sur le rôle d'imposition à l'égard d'un bien imposable.

9.4 Le texte législatif doit exiger que l'avis d'imposition contienne au moins les renseignements suivants :

- a) une description du bien foncier;
- b) le montant d'impôts prélevés en vertu du texte législatif pour l'année d'imposition en cours;
- c) la date où des pénalités seront ajoutées si les impôts ne sont pas payés;
- d) tous les impôts impayés, pénalités, intérêts et frais se rapportant au bien foncier;
- e) lorsqu'un paiement doit être fait, le mode de paiement et la date ou les dates auxquelles les impôts sont exigibles, y compris les dates d'échéance des paiements provisoires d'impôts et des acomptes provisionnels, le cas échéant.

9.5 Le texte législatif doit prévoir l'envoi par la poste d'avis d'imposition modifiés dans les cas où le rôle d'imposition a été modifié pour tenir compte d'un rôle d'évaluation modifié, révisé ou supplémentaire.

10. Remboursements d'impôts

10.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir les procédures applicables aux remboursements d'impôts accordés aux contribuables et les circonstances dans lesquelles des remboursements sont accordés, et il doit comporter au moins les dispositions suivantes :

- a) le remboursement des impôts payés en trop lorsque la modification de l'évaluation d'un bien foncier entraîne une réduction des impôts à payer sur ce bien;
- b) le paiement d'intérêts à un taux inférieur de deux pour cent (2 %) au taux préférentiel de la banque principale de la première nation en vigueur le quinzième jour du mois précédant le calcul des intérêts pour la période de trois (3) mois subséquente.

10.2 Malgré le paragraphe 10.1, le texte législatif peut prévoir que les impôts payés en trop seront appliqués comme crédit à valoir sur la dette fiscale ou tout autre montant impayé dû à la première nation.

11. Pénalités, perception et contrôle d'application

11.1 Lorsque le texte législatif prévoit l'imposition d'une pénalité sur les impôts impayés, il doit préciser la date à laquelle une pénalité sera imposée si les impôts demeurent en souffrance.

11.2 Le texte législatif doit prévoir les mesures de contrôle d'application que peut prendre la première nation pour percevoir les impôts impayés.

12. Confidentialité

Le texte législatif doit assurer la confidentialité des renseignements et des documents obtenus par l'administrateur fiscal, l'évaluateur, le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières et toute autre personne ayant la garde ou le contrôle de dossiers obtenus ou créés en vertu du texte législatif; toutefois, ces renseignements et ces documents peuvent être communiqués :

- a) dans le cadre de l'application du texte législatif ou de l'exercice de fonctions aux termes de celui-ci;
- b) dans le cadre d'une procédure devant le Comité de révision des évaluations foncières ou un tribunal judiciaire;
- c) lorsqu'un détenteur a autorisé par écrit son agent à obtenir des renseignements confidentiels concernant un bien foncier;
- d) par l'administrateur fiscal à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique, à la condition que les renseignements ou les documents ne contiennent pas de renseignements sous une forme permettant d'identifier des individus;
- e) par le conseil à un tiers à des fins de recherche, y compris la recherche statistique.

STANDARDS FOR FIRST NATION
TAXPAYER REPRESENTATION TO COUNCIL LAWS, 2018

PART I PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting the form and content of First Nation local revenue laws enacted under subsection 5(1) of the Act;
- B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and
- C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out the requirements that must be met for First Nation laws respecting the procedures by which the interests of taxpayers may be represented to council, enacted under paragraph 5(1)(c) of the Act. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' taxpayer representation to council laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to those requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to every taxpayer representation to council law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

CITATION

These Standards may be cited as the Standards for First Nation Taxpayer Representation to Council Laws, 2018.

PART VI DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

- “Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations enacted under that Act;
- “annual expenditure law” means a law required under subsection 10(2) of the Act;
- “annual tax rates law” means a law required under subsection 10(1) of the Act;
- “Commission” means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the Act;
- “Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;
- “First Nation” means a band named in the schedule to the Act;
- “Law” means a taxpayer representation to council law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(c) of the Act;
- “reserve” means any land set apart for the use and benefit of a First Nation within the meaning of the Indian Act; and
- “taxation year” has the meaning given to that term in the Commission Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws, 2016.

Except as provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART VII STANDARDS

1. Notice of Annual Tax Rates Law and Annual Expenditure Law

- 1.1 The Law must require the First Nation to give notice to its taxpayers of its proposed annual tax rates law and its proposed annual expenditure law in each taxation year.
- 1.2 The Law must require the notice under subsection 1.1 to
- (a) be given at least five (5) days before Council makes its annual tax rates law and annual expenditure law;
 - (b) be posted in a public place on the reserve and at the administrative offices of the First Nation;
 - (c) be posted on the First Nations Gazette website or in a prominent place on the First Nation’s website; and
 - (d) include a copy of the proposed annual tax rates law and the proposed annual expenditure law.

2. Access to Documents

- 2.1 The Law must require the First Nation to make available the following documents to taxpayers:
- (a) service agreements that are funded from local revenues;
 - (b) the annual audit of the local revenue account required under the Act; and
 - (c) Council resolutions related to property taxation.
- 2.2 The Law must set out how the First Nation will make available the documents listed in subsection 2.1, which must include at least one (1) of the following methods:
- (a) making the documents available electronically, either on request or by posting on the First Nation’s website;

(b) making the documents available at the administration office of the First Nation during regular business hours.

2.3 The Law may allow Council to deny access to all or a portion of a document listed in subsection 2.1, where the subject matter of the document relates to or contains any of the following types of information:

- (a) personal information, where Council considers that release of such information would be an unreasonable invasion of an individual's personal privacy;
- (b) labour relations or other employment matters involving the First Nation;
- (c) the security of property on the reserve;
- (d) law enforcement;
- (e) advice and related communications that are subject to solicitor-client privilege;
- (f) negotiations and related communications respecting proposed agreements with the First Nation;
- (g) the acquisition or disposition by the First Nation of interests in land in the reserve;
- (h) trade secrets or commercial, financial, labour relations, scientific or technical information of or about a third party, where Council considers that disclosure could reasonably be expected to harm the business interests of the third party.

3. Ongoing Communications with Taxpayers

3.1 The Law must set out the methods that will be used by the First Nation, on an ongoing and regular basis, to

- (a) keep the taxpayers informed of the First Nation's proposals and activities related to property taxation matters; and
- (b) provide a means by which taxpayers may provide input to Council on taxation matters.

3.2 The methods referred to in subsection 3.1 must include

- (a) a process to
 - (i) provide information through a newsletter or an information circular published by the First Nation that is provided to taxpayers by posting in a prominent place on the First Nation's website, by e-mail to taxpayers, or by delivery to each taxable property, and
 - (ii) enable taxpayers to provide written input to the First Nation; or
- (b) a First Nation meeting or open house at which First Nation representatives provide information and taxpayers can provide input to the First Nation on property taxation matters.

4. Resolving Taxpayer Concerns

4.1 The Law must include procedures for the resolution of

- (a) taxpayer concerns respecting a local revenue law; and
- (b) all concerns raised by a taxpayer relating to taxation.

4.2 The procedures required by subsection 4.1 must include

- (a) provisions for resolving concerns with representatives of the First Nation; and
- (b) where a concern is not resolved with representatives of the First Nation, provisions for resolving the concern through other processes that must include either a facilitation process or a mediation process.

PART VIII REVOCATION AND COMING INTO FORCE

Revocation

The Standards for First Nation Taxpayer Representation to Council Laws that were established and effective as of February 10, 2010, are revoked.

Coming into Force

These Standards are established and in effect as of December 12, 2018.

NORMES RELATIVES AUX LOIS SUR LA REPRÉSENTATION DES INTÉRÊTS DES CONTRIBUABLES AUPRÈS DU CONSEIL (2018)

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

- A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme et le contenu des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales édictés en vertu du paragraphe 5(1) de la Loi;
- B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;
- C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les textes législatifs des premières nations concernant la procédure pour présenter au conseil les intérêts des contribuables, pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)c) de la Loi. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs des premières nations sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables auprès du conseil, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tous les textes législatifs sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables auprès du conseil qui sont soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V TITRE

Les présentes normes peuvent être citées sous le titre : Normes relatives aux lois sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables auprès du conseil (2018).

PARTIE VI

DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent aux présentes normes.

« année d'imposition » S'entend au sens des Normes relatives aux lois sur l'imposition foncière des premières nations (2016), établies par la Commission.

« texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition » Texte législatif exigé par le paragraphe 10(1) de la Loi.

Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VII

NORMES

1. Préavis du texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition et du texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses

1.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que la première nation donne à ses contribuables, à chaque année d'imposition, un préavis du texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition et du texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses qu'elle se propose de prendre.

1.2 Le texte législatif doit exiger que le préavis visé au paragraphe 1.1 soit :

- a) donné au moins cinq (5) jours avant que le conseil prenne le texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition et le texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses;
- b) affiché dans un lieu public sur la réserve et dans le bureau administratif de la première nation;
- c) affiché sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations ou à un endroit bien en vue sur le site Web de la première nation;
- d) accompagné d'une copie du projet du texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition et du projet du texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses.

2. Accès aux documents

2.1 Le texte législatif doit exiger que la première nation mette à la disposition des contribuables les documents suivants :

- a) les ententes de services qui sont financées par les recettes locales;
- b) la vérification annuelle du compte de recettes locales exigé par la Loi;
- c) les résolutions du conseil relatives à l'imposition foncière.

2.2 Le texte législatif doit préciser par quels moyens la première nation mettra les documents visés au paragraphe 2.1 à la disposition des contribuables, y compris au moins un (1) des moyens suivants :

- a) l'accès électronique aux documents, soit sur demande, soit par affichage sur le site Web de la première nation;
- b) l'accès aux documents dans le bureau administratif de la première nation pendant les heures ouvrables normales.

2.3 Le texte législatif peut autoriser le conseil à refuser l'accès à tout ou partie d'un document visé au paragraphe 2.1, si la matière qui y est traitée concerne ou contient des renseignements de l'un ou l'autre des types suivants :

- a) les renseignements personnels, si le conseil estime que leur divulgation constituerait une atteinte injustifiée à la vie privée d'un individu;
- b) les relations de travail ou autres questions en matière d'emploi mettant en cause la première nation;
- c) la sécurité des biens sur la réserve;
- d) le contrôle d'application des lois;
- e) les avis et les communications connexes qui sont protégés par le secret professionnel qui lie un avocat à son client;
- f) les négociations et les communications connexes concernant les projets d'ententes avec la première nation;
- g) l'acquisition ou la disposition par la première nation d'intérêts dans les terres de la réserve;
- h) les secrets industriels ou les renseignements d'ordre commercial, financier, scientifique ou technique ou relatifs aux relations de travail qui concernent un tiers ou proviennent de celui-ci, si le conseil estime que leur divulgation pourrait vraisemblablement nuire aux intérêts commerciaux du tiers.

3. Communications régulières avec les contribuables

3.1 Le texte législatif doit préciser par quels moyens la première nation maintiendra, de façon régulière :

- a) des communications avec les contribuables pour les tenir au courant de ses propositions et de ses activités en matière d'imposition foncière;
- b) un moyen permettant aux contribuables de fournir au conseil leurs observations sur des questions fiscales.

3.2 Les moyens visés au paragraphe 3.1 doivent comprendre :

- a) soit un processus qui, à la fois :
 - (i) permet de fournir des renseignements par l'entremise d'une circulaire d'information ou d'un bulletin d'information publié par la première nation et mis à la disposition des contribuables par affichage à un endroit bien en vue sur le site Web de la première nation, par expédition par la poste à ceux-ci ou par livraison à chaque bien foncier imposable,
 - (ii) offre aux contribuables la possibilité de présenter des observations par écrit à la première nation;
- b) soit la tenue par la première nation d'une assemblée ou d'une journée portes ouvertes au cours de laquelle, d'une part, les représentants de la première nation fournissent des renseignements et, d'autre part, les contribuables peuvent présenter à la première nation leurs observations sur des questions concernant l'imposition foncière.

4. Règlement des préoccupations des contribuables

- 4.1 Le texte législatif doit prévoir un processus pour le règlement :
- a) des préoccupations des contribuables concernant tout texte législatif sur les recettes locales;
 - b) des préoccupations soulevées par des contribuables au sujet de questions fiscales.
- 4.2 Le processus visé au paragraphe 4.1 doit prévoir :
- a) des dispositions pour le règlement des préoccupations par les représentants de la première nation;
 - b) dans les cas où les représentants de la première nation ne parviennent pas à régler des préoccupations, des dispositions pour leur règlement par d'autres mécanismes qui doivent comprendre un processus de facilitation ou de médiation.

PARTIE VIII

ABROGATION ET ENTRÉE EN VIGUEUR

Abrogation

Except as otherwise provided in these Standards, words and expressions used in these Standards have the same meaning as in the Act.

PART VII

STANDARDS FOR THE SUBMISSION OF PROPERTY TAXATION LAWS

1. Lands, Interests or Rights Subject to the Law

For a property taxation law, the First Nation must provide the Commission with a description of the lands, interests or rights subject to the property taxation law, in the following forms:

- the name, IR number, location or civic address of each reserve subject to the property taxation law;
- if the lands subject to the property taxation law comprise a portion of a reserve, a description of that portion and a map delineating that portion; and
- a description of the taxable interests that will be subject to the property taxation law.

2. Assessment Practices

For a law made under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(i) of the Act, the First Nation must provide the Commission with a statement confirming which provincial assessment practices will be applied in the law, including whether the law will follow the assessment review board procedures in the Act or those that are the same as the applicable province.

3. Services and Service Agreements

For a property taxation law other than a development cost charges law, the First Nation must provide the Commission with information regarding the services to be provided from local revenues, existing service agreements and any service agreement negotiations underway at the time the property taxation law is enacted, in the following forms:

- (a) a list of the services currently provided or that will be provided from local revenues; and
- (b) a summary of any service agreement negotiations underway, including the nature of the service and the proposed parties to the agreement.

4. Notice Confirmations

For a property taxation law, the First Nation must provide the Commission with a description of the notices that were given and any consultation undertaken by the Council before making the property taxation law, in the following forms:

- (a) confirmation that a section 6 notice of the proposed property taxation law was
 - (i) published in the First Nations Gazette, including the date of publication,
 - (ii) posted on the reserve in a public place, with a description of the location and the date of posting, and
 - (iii) mailed or emailed to the Commission, including the date the notice was provided;
- (b) confirmation that the section 6 notice of the proposed property taxation law was published in at least one (1) additional manner in accordance with subsections 5.1 and 5.4 of the Notice Standards, where applicable, including the date and manner of the publication;
- (c) confirmation that additional notice of the proposed property taxation law was given as required by subsections 5.3 and 5.4 to 5.6 of the Notice Standards, as applicable, including the form of the additional notice given;
- (d) a copy of the form or forms of notices referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c);
- (e) confirmation that the section 6 notification period complied with section 6 of the Act or with section 4 of the Notice Standards where applicable;
- (f) a description of the types of consultation, if any, undertaken by Council before making the proposed property taxation law and the dates of such consultations;
- (g) confirmation that Council considered all written representations received under section 6 of the Act before making the property taxation law, and the date of the Council meeting at which representations were considered;
- (h) confirmation that the notice required by section 7 of the Act and a copy of the property taxation law was provided to all persons who made written representations to Council under paragraph 6(3)(c) of the Act; and
- (i) a copy of the form of the notice referred to in paragraph (h), and a list of each person to whom the notice was provided.

5. Additional Notice Requirements for Certain Property Taxation Laws

- 5.1 For a development cost charges law, the First Nation must
- (a) provide the Commission with confirmation that it posted, for the duration of the section 6 notification period, a copy of the long-term capital plan or other plan that supported the development of the law, in a prominent place on the First Nation's website or on the First Nations Gazette website; and
 - (b) provide the Commission with a copy of the plan referenced in paragraph (a).
- 5.2 For a business activity tax law, the First Nation must provide the Commission with confirmation that the First Nation delivered the section 6 notice to each business located on the reserve that will be subject to the business activity tax, as required by subsections 5.2 and 5.4 of the Notice Standards.
- 6. Additional Requirements for British Columbia and Quebec First Nations
- 6.1 First Nations located in British Columbia that are undertaking property taxation for the first time must provide a certificate of taxation issued by the Province of British Columbia under the Indian Self Government Enabling Act (BC).
- 6.2 First Nations located in Quebec that are undertaking property taxation for the first time must provide a copy of any Order in Council issued by the Province of Quebec approving an agreement made between the First Nation and a municipality under section 14.8.1 of the Municipal Code of Quebec or under section 29.10.1 of the Cities and Towns Act.

PART VIII

STANDARDS FOR THE SUBMISSION OF TAXPAYER REPRESENTATION LAWS AND FEE LAWS

7. Taxpayer Representation Laws

The First Nation must provide the Commission with a description of the notices that were given and any consultation undertaken by the Council before making a taxpayer representation law, in the following forms:

- (a) confirmation that a section 6 notice of the proposed taxpayer representation law was
 - (i) published in the First Nations Gazette, including the date of publication,
 - (ii) posted on the reserve in a public place, with a description of the location and the date of posting, and
 - (iii) mailed or emailed to the Commission, including the date the notice was provided;
- (b) a copy of the form or forms of notices referred to in paragraph (a);
- (c) confirmation that the section 6 notification period complied with section 6 of the Act;
- (d) a description of the types of consultation, if any, undertaken by Council before making the proposed taxpayer representation law and the dates of such consultation;
- (e) confirmation that Council considered all written representations received under section 6 of the Act before making the taxpayer representation law, and the date of the Council meeting at which representations were considered;
- (f) confirmation that the notice required by section 7 of the Act and a copy of the taxpayer representation law was provided to all persons who made written representations to Council under paragraph 6(3)(c) of the Act; and
- (g) a copy of the form of the notice referred to in paragraph (e), and a list of each person to whom the notice was provided.

8. Fee Laws

8.1 The First Nation must provide the Commission with a description of the notices that were given and any consultation undertaken by the Council before making a fee law, in the following forms:

- (a) confirmation that a section 6 notice of the proposed fee law was
 - (i) published in the First Nations Gazette, including the date of publication,
 - (ii) posted on the reserve in a public place, with a description of the location and the date of posting, and
 - (iii) mailed or emailed to the Commission, including the date the notice was provided;
- (b) confirmation that the section 6 notice of the proposed fee law was published in at least one (1) additional manner in accordance with subsections 5.1 and 5.4 of the Notice Standards, including the date and manner of the publication;
- (c) confirmation that an additional notice of the proposed fee law was given as required by subsections 5.3 and 5.4 to 5.6 of the Notice Standards, including the form of the additional notice given;
- (d) a copy of the form or forms of notices referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c);
- (e) confirmation that the section 6 notification period complied with section 6 of the Act as extended by section 4 of the Notice Standards;
- (f) a description of the types of consultation, if any, undertaken by Council before making the proposed fee law and the dates of such consultation;
- (g) confirmation that Council considered all written representations received under section 6 of the Act before making the fee law, and the date of the meeting at which representations were considered;
- (h) confirmation that the notice given under section 7 of the Act and a copy of the law was provided to all persons who made written representations to Council under paragraph 6(3)(c) of the Act; and
- (i) a copy of the form of the notice referred to in paragraph (h), and a list of each person to whom the notice was provided.

8.2 For a fee law, the First Nation must

- (a) provide the Commission with confirmation that it posted, for the duration of the section 6 notification period, a copy of the fee law report in a prominent place on the First Nation's website or on the First Nations Gazette website; and
- (b) provide the Commission with a copy of the fee law report.

PART IX STANDARDS FOR THE SUBMISSION OF ANNUAL TAX RATES LAWS AND ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAWS

9. Annual Tax Rates Law Requirements

9.1 The First Nation must provide the Commission with confirmation that the First Nation gave notice of its annual tax rates law as required by subsection 1.1 of the Notice Standards, including how the notice was given.

9.2 Where a First Nation intends to provide a justification for a tax rate under paragraph 10.1(a) or (b) of the Standards for First Nation Annual Tax Rates Laws, 2017, the First Nation must provide the Commission with confirmation that the First Nation complied with the requirement in subsection 1.2 of the Notice

Standards, including how the notice was given.

9.3 In the first year that a First Nation proposes to justify its tax rates under paragraph 10.1(b) of the Standards for First Nation Annual Tax Rates Laws, 2017, the First Nation must provide the Commission with

- (a) a copy of the reference jurisdiction transition plan; and
- (b) confirmation that the First Nation, in the previous taxation year, completed the requirements set out in section 7 of the Notice Standards.

10. Annual Expenditure Law Requirements

The First Nation must provide the Commission with confirmation that the First Nation gave notice of its annual expenditure law as required by section 2 of the Notice Standards, including how the notice was given.

PART X

GENERAL STANDARDS

11. Evidence Law Duly Made

11.1 The First Nation must provide to the Commission a copy of a local revenue law, signed and dated by a quorum of Council, as evidence that the law was duly made by Council.

11.2 A law submitted under subsection 11.1 must contain an enactment clause stating that the law was duly enacted by Council on the date and at the location specified in the law.

12. Confirmation Requirements

Where these Standards require a matter to be confirmed by the First Nation, the confirmation

- (a) may be made by the Council or by an officer of the First Nation duly authorized by the Council to confirm the matters required on behalf of the First Nation; and
- (b) must be in writing and certified or sworn to be true by the authorized signatory for the First Nation.

PART XI

NORMES RELATIVES À LA PRÉSENTATION DES RENSEIGNEMENTS EXIGÉS PAR L'ARTICLE 8 DE LA LOI (2018)

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

Attendu :

- A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant la forme dans laquelle les renseignements visés à l'article 8 de la Loi doivent lui être fournis;
- B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;
- C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II OBJET

Les présentes normes ont pour objet d'établir la forme dans laquelle les renseignements visés à l'article 8 de la Loi doivent être fournis à la Commission. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs sur les recettes locales, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent lors de la présentation d'un texte législatif sur les recettes locales à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi. Toutefois, les parties VII et VIII de ces normes ne s'appliquent pas aux textes législatifs annuels sur les taux d'imposition et sur les dépenses.

PARTIE V TITRE

Les présentes normes peuvent être citées sous le titre : Normes relatives à la présentation des renseignements exigés par l'article 8 de la Loi (2018).

PARTIE VI DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent aux présentes normes.

- « Commission » La Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations constituée en vertu de la Loi.
- « conseil » S'entend du conseil de la première nation, au sens de la Loi.
- « délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6 » Le délai exigé aux termes de l'article 6 de la Loi qui, s'il y a lieu, est prolongé conformément aux Normes concernant les préavis.

- « plan de transition » S'entend au sens des Normes relatives aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations (2017).
- « préavis au titre de l'article 6 » Préavis relatif à un projet de texte législatif sur les recettes locales qui est exigé aux termes de l'article 6 de la Loi.
- « première nation » Bande dont le nom figure à l'annexe de la Loi.
- « rapport relatif au texte législatif sur les droits de service » Rapport élaboré pour appuyer les droits établis dans un texte législatif sur les droits de service, comme l'exigent les Normes relatives aux lois sur les droits de service des premières nations (2017).
- « réserve » Toute terre réservée à l'usage et au profit d'une première nation au sens de la Loi sur les Indiens.
- « texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses » Texte législatif exigé par le paragraphe 10(2) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition » Texte législatif exigé par le paragraphe 10(1) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables » Texte législatif pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)c) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif sur la taxe sur les activités commerciales » Texte législatif pris en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(iv) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif sur la taxe sur les transferts fonciers » Texte législatif pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)a) de la Loi qui impose une taxe sur un intérêt foncier au moment de l'enregistrement d'un transfert visant celui-ci à un bureau d'enregistrement.
- « texte législatif sur les droits de service » Texte législatif pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)a.1) de la Loi.
- « texte législatif sur les taxes d'aménagement » Texte législatif pris en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(v) de la Loi.
- Sauf disposition contraire des présentes normes, les termes utilisés dans celles-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VII

NORMES VISANT LA PRÉSENTATION DES TEXTES LÉGISLATIFS RELATIFS À L'IMPOSITION FONCIÈRE

1. Terres, intérêts et droits visés

Dans le cas d'un texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission une description des terres, intérêts et droits assujettis à ce texte législatif, en la forme suivante :

- a) le nom, le numéro de réserve indienne, l'emplacement ou l'adresse de voirie de chaque réserve assujettie au texte législatif;
- b) si les terres assujetties au texte législatif comprennent une partie d'une réserve, une description de cette partie et une carte délimitant celle-ci;

c) une description des intérêts imposables qui seront assujettis au texte législatif.

2. Méthodes d'évaluation

Dans le cas d'un texte législatif pris en vertu du sous-alinéa 5(1)a)(i) de la Loi, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission une déclaration confirmant les méthodes d'évaluation provinciales qui seront appliquées dans le texte législatif, y compris une mention indiquant si le texte législatif suivra les procédures du comité de révision des évaluations foncières énoncées dans la Loi ou des procédures identiques à celles utilisées dans la province visée.

3. Services et ententes de services

Dans le cas d'un texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière autre que celui sur les taxes d'aménagement, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission des renseignements sur les services dont la prestation sera assurée par les recettes locales ainsi que sur les ententes de services existantes et les ententes de services en cours de négociation au moment de la prise du texte législatif, en la forme suivante :

- a) une liste des services qui sont actuellement fournis ou qui seront fournis au moyen des recettes locales;
- b) un résumé des négociations en cours relatives à des ententes de services, y compris la nature des services et les parties proposées à l'entente.

4. Confirmations de préavis

Dans le cas d'un texte législatif relatif à l'imposition foncière, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission une description des préavis donnés et des consultations tenues, le cas échéant, par le conseil avant la prise du texte législatif proposé, en la forme suivante :

- a) une confirmation qu'un préavis au titre de l'article 6 concernant le texte législatif proposé a été, à la fois :
 - (i) publié dans la Gazette des premières nations, avec mention de la date de publication,
 - (ii) affiché dans un lieu public sur la réserve, avec mention du nom du lieu et de la date d'affichage,
 - (iii) transmis à la Commission par courrier ou voie électronique, avec mention de la date de transmission;
- b) une confirmation que le préavis au titre de l'article 6 concernant le texte législatif proposé a été publié par au moins un autre moyen conformément aux paragraphes 5.1 et 5.4 des Normes concernant les préavis, s'il y a lieu, avec mention de la date et du moyen de publication;
- c) une confirmation qu'un préavis supplémentaire du texte législatif proposé a été donné en conformité avec les paragraphes 5.3 et 5.4 à 5.6 des Normes concernant les préavis, s'il y a lieu, avec mention de la forme du préavis supplémentaire;
- d) une copie du ou des formulaires des préavis visés aux alinéas a), b) et c);
- e) une confirmation que le délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6 était conforme à l'article 6 de la Loi ou à l'article 4 des Normes concernant les préavis, selon le cas;
- f) une description des types de consultations tenues, le cas échéant, par le conseil avant la prise du texte législatif proposé et les dates de ces consultations;
- g) une confirmation que le conseil a pris en compte toutes les observations reçues aux termes de l'article 6 de la Loi avant la prise du texte législatif proposé, avec mention de la date de la réunion du conseil à laquelle ces observations ont été prises en considération;
- h) une confirmation que l'avis exigé par l'article 7 de la Loi et une copie du texte législatif ont été fournis à toutes les personnes qui ont présenté des observations écrites au conseil au titre de l'alinéa 6(3)c) de la Loi;
- i) une copie du formulaire de l'avis mentionné à l'alinéa h), ainsi que la liste des personnes auxquelles cet avis a été transmis.

5. Exigences de préavis supplémentaires pour certains textes législatifs relatifs à l'imposition foncière

5.1 Dans le cas d'un texte législatif sur les taxes d'aménagement, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission :

- a) une confirmation qu'elle a, pendant toute la durée du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6, affiché une copie du plan d'immobilisations à long terme – ou de tout autre plan appuyant l'élaboration de ce texte législatif – à un endroit bien en vue sur son site Web ou sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations;
- b) une copie du plan visé à l'alinéa a).

5.2 Dans le cas d'un texte législatif sur la taxe sur les activités commerciales, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission une confirmation qu'elle a transmis le préavis au titre de l'article 6 à chacune des entreprises situées dans la réserve qui seront assujetties à la taxe sur les activités commerciales, comme l'exigent les paragraphes 5.2 et 5.4 des Normes concernant les préavis.

6. Exigences supplémentaires pour les premières nations de la Colombie-Britannique et du Québec

6.1 Les premières nations situées en Colombie-Britannique qui procèdent à l'imposition foncière pour la première fois doivent fournir un certificat d'imposition délivré par la province de la Colombie-Britannique en vertu de la loi intitulée Indian Self Government Enabling Act de cette province.

6.2 Les premières nations situées au Québec qui procèdent à l'imposition foncière pour la première fois doivent fournir une copie du décret, pris par la province de Québec, approuvant l'entente conclue entre la première nation et une municipalité en vertu de l'article 14.8.1 du Code municipal du Québec ou de l'article 29.10.1 de la Loi sur les cités et villes.

PARTIE VIII

NORMES VISANT LA PRÉSENTATION DES TEXTES LÉGISLATIFS SUR LA REPRÉSENTATION DES INTÉRÊTS DES CONTRIBUABLES ET DES TEXTES LÉGISLATIFS SUR LES DROITS DE SERVICE

7. Textes législatifs sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables

La première nation doit fournir à la Commission une description des préavis donnés et des consultations tenues, le cas échéant, par le conseil avant la prise d'un texte législatif sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables, en la forme suivante :

- a) une confirmation qu'un préavis au titre de l'article 6 concernant le texte législatif proposé a été, à la fois :
 - (i) publié dans la Gazette des premières nations, avec mention de la date de publication,
 - (ii) affiché dans un lieu public sur la réserve, avec mention du nom du lieu et de la date d'affichage,
 - (iii) transmis à la Commission par courrier ou voie électronique, avec mention de la date de transmission;
- b) une copie du ou des formulaires du préavis visé à l'alinéa a);
- c) une confirmation que le délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6 était conforme à l'article 6 de la Loi;
- d) une description des types de consultations tenues, le cas échéant, par le conseil avant la prise du texte législatif proposé et les dates de ces consultations;
- e) une confirmation que le conseil a pris en compte toutes les observations reçues aux termes de l'article 6 de la Loi avant la prise du texte législatif proposé, avec mention de la date de la réunion du conseil à laquelle ces observations ont été prises en considération;

f) une confirmation que l'avis exigé par l'article 7 de la Loi et une copie du texte législatif proposé ont été fournis à toutes les personnes qui ont présenté des observations écrites au conseil au titre de l'alinéa 6(3)c) de la Loi;

g) une copie du formulaire de l'avis mentionné à l'alinéa e), ainsi que la liste des personnes auxquelles cet avis a été transmis.

8. Textes législatifs sur les droits de service

8.1 La première nation doit fournir à la Commission une description des préavis donnés et des consultations tenues, le cas échéant, par le conseil avant la prise d'un texte législatif sur les droits de service, en la forme suivante :

a) une confirmation qu'un préavis au titre de l'article 6 concernant le texte législatif proposé a été, à la fois :

- (i) publié dans la Gazette des premières nations, avec mention de la date de publication,
- (ii) affiché dans un lieu public sur la réserve, avec mention du nom du lieu et de la date d'affichage,
- (iii) transmis à la Commission par courrier ou voie électronique, avec mention de la date de transmission;

b) une confirmation que le préavis au titre de l'article 6 concernant le texte législatif proposé a été publié par au moins un autre moyen conformément aux paragraphes 5.1 et 5.4 des Normes concernant les préavis, s'il y a lieu, avec mention de la date et du moyen de publication;

c) une confirmation qu'un préavis supplémentaire du texte législatif proposé a été donné en conformité avec les paragraphes 5.3 et 5.4 à 5.6 des Normes concernant les préavis, s'il y a lieu, avec mention de la forme du préavis supplémentaire;

d) une copie du ou des formulaires des préavis visés aux alinéas a), b) et c);

e) une confirmation que le délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6 était conforme à l'article 6 de la Loi, tel que prolongé conformément à l'article 4 des Normes concernant les préavis;

f) une description des types de consultations tenues, le cas échéant, par le conseil avant la prise du texte législatif proposé et les dates de ces consultations;

g) une confirmation que le conseil a pris en compte toutes les observations reçues aux termes de l'article 6 de la Loi avant la prise du texte législatif proposé, avec mention de la date de la réunion du conseil à laquelle ces observations ont été prises en considération;

h) une confirmation que l'avis exigé par l'article 7 de la Loi et une copie du texte législatif proposé ont été fournis à toutes les personnes qui ont présenté des observations écrites au conseil au titre de l'alinéa 6(3)c) de la Loi;

i) une copie du formulaire de l'avis mentionné à l'alinéa h), ainsi que la liste des personnes auxquelles cet avis a été transmis.

8.2 Dans le cas d'un texte législatif sur les droits de service, la première nation doit fournir à la Commission :

a) une confirmation qu'elle a, pendant toute la durée du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6, affiché une copie du rapport relatif au texte législatif sur les droits de service à un endroit bien en vue sur son site Web ou sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations;

b) une copie du rapport relatif au texte législatif sur les droits de service.

PARTIE IX

NORMES VISANT LA PRÉSENTATION DES TEXTES LÉGISLATIFS ANNUELS SUR LES TAUX D'IMPOSITION ET DES TEXTES

LÉGISLATIFS ANNUELS SUR LES DÉPENSES

9. Exigences relatives aux textes législatifs annuels sur les taux d'imposition

9.1 La première nation doit fournir à la Commission une confirmation qu'elle a donné un préavis de son texte législatif annuel sur les taux d'imposition comme l'exige le paragraphe 1.1 des Normes concernant les préavis, avec mention de la manière dont le préavis a été donné.

9.2 Lorsqu'elle entend justifier un taux d'imposition sur le fondement des alinéas 10.1a) ou b) des Normes relatives aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations (2017), la première nation doit fournir à la Commission une confirmation qu'elle a respecté l'exigence prévue au paragraphe 1.2 des Normes concernant les préavis, avec mention de la manière dont le préavis a été donné.

9.3 Au cours de la première année où elle entend justifier ses taux d'imposition suivant l'alinéa 10.1b) des Normes relatives aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations (2017), la première nation doit fournir à la Commission :

- a) une copie du plan de transition;
- b) une confirmation qu'elle a, pendant l'année d'imposition précédente, respecté les exigences énoncées à l'article 7 des Normes concernant les préavis.

10. Exigences relatives aux textes législatifs annuels sur les dépenses

La première nation doit fournir à la Commission une confirmation qu'elle a donné un préavis de son texte législatif annuel sur les dépenses comme l'exige l'article 2 des Normes concernant les préavis, avec mention de la manière dont le préavis a été donné.

PARTIE X NORMES GÉNÉRALES

11. Preuve de la prise d'un texte législatif

11.1 La première nation doit fournir à la Commission une copie de tout texte législatif sur les recettes locales, signé et daté par un quorum du conseil, comme preuve que le texte législatif a été pris en bonne et due forme par le conseil.

11.2 Le texte législatif fourni selon le paragraphe 11.1 doit contenir une disposition d'édiction indiquant qu'il a été dûment édicté par le conseil à la date et au lieu qui y sont indiqués.

12. Exigences relatives aux confirmations

Lorsque les présentes normes exigent qu'une question soit confirmée par la première nation, cette confirmation :

- a) peut être faite par le conseil ou par un dirigeant de la première nation dûment autorisé par le conseil à confirmer les questions au nom de la première nation;
- b) doit être établie par écrit et certifiée véridique ou attestée sous serment par le signataire autorisé de la première nation.

STANDARDS RESPECTING NOTICES RELATING TO LOCAL REVENUE LAWS, 2018

[Consolidated to 2018-12-12]

PART I
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. Section 35 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act gives the First Nations Tax Commission the authority to establish standards respecting notices relating to local revenue laws, including any minimum periods applicable to the notices;
- B. Standards are established by the Commission to further the policy objectives of the Commission and the Act, including to ensure the integrity of the First Nations property taxation system and to assist First Nations to achieve economic growth through the generation of stable local revenues; and
- C. Section 31 of the Act requires the Commission to review every local revenue law and subsection 5(2) of the Act provides that such a law has no force and effect until it is reviewed and approved by the Commission.

PART II
PURPOSE

These Standards set out requirements for First Nations to provide notices relating to local revenue laws the First Nation intends to enact. These Standards are used by the Commission in its review and approval of First Nations' local revenue laws, pursuant to section 31 of the Act. The requirements established in these Standards are in addition to requirements set out in the Act.

The Commission recognizes that each First Nation's property taxation system operates within the broader context of its fiscal relationships with other governments. These Standards are intended to support a more comprehensive First Nation fiscal framework within Canada.

PART III
AUTHORITY AND PUBLICATION

These Standards are established under subsection 35(1) of the Act and are published in the First Nations Gazette as required by subsection 34(1) of the Act.

PART IV
APPLICATION

These Standards apply to a local revenue law submitted to the Commission for approval under the Act.

CITATION

These Standards may be cited as the Standards respecting Notices relating to Local Revenue Laws, 2018.

PART VI
DEFINITIONS

In these Standards:

PART VII

STANDARDS

1. Notice of Annual Tax Rates Laws

1.1 A First Nation must, in each year before submitting its annual tax rates law to the Commission for review and approval consideration, give notice of its annual tax rates law

- (a) by posting a copy of the law on the First Nations Gazette website or in a prominent place on the First Nation’s website;

- (b) in accordance with the procedures set out in the First Nation’s taxpayer representation to council law; or
- (c) by holding a public meeting at which taxpayers may meet with the tax administrator or members of Council to discuss the proposed law.

1.2 Where a First Nation intends to provide a justification for a tax rate under paragraph 10.1(a) or (b) of the Standards for First Nation Annual Tax Rates Laws, 2017, the First Nation must include a description of the justification in a notice given under paragraph 1.1(a), or inform the taxpayers of the justification when giving notice under paragraphs 1.1(b) or (c).

2. Notice of Annual Expenditure Laws

A First Nation must, in each year before submitting its annual expenditure law to the Commission for review and approval consideration, give notice of its annual expenditure law

- (a) by posting a copy of the law on the First Nations Gazette website or in a prominent place on the First Nation’s website;
- (b) in accordance with the procedures set out in the First Nation’s taxpayer representation to council law; or
- (c) by holding a public meeting at which taxpayers may meet with the tax administrator or members of Council to discuss the proposed law.

3. Additional Notice Information Requirements

- 3.1 Where a First Nation proposes to enact a development cost charges law, the First Nation must,
 - (a) in its section 6 notice, state where a copy of the long-term capital plan or other plan that supported the development of the law may be obtained; and
 - (b) for the duration of the section 6 notification period, post a copy of the plan referenced in paragraph (a) in a prominent place on the First Nation’s website or on the First Nations Gazette website.
- 3.2 Where a First Nation proposes to enact a fee law, the First Nation must,
 - (a) in its section 6 notice, state where a copy of the fee law report may be obtained; and
 - (b) for the duration of the section 6 notification period, post a copy of the fee law report in a prominent place on the First Nation’s website or on the First Nations Gazette website.

4. Minimum Notice Period for Certain Proposed Local Revenue Laws

- 4.1 Where a First Nation proposes to enact any of
 - (a) a development cost charges law,
 - (b) a property transfer tax law,
 - (c) a service tax law,
 - (d) a business activity tax law, or
 - (e) a fee law,

the notice period under section 6 of the Act must be extended to at least forty-five (45) days.

4.2 Where a First Nation is implementing real property taxation for the first time, the notice period under section 6 of the Act must be extended to at least forty-five (45) days for the First Nation’s property assessment law and property taxation law.

5. Additional Notice Requirements for Certain Proposed Local Revenue Laws

5.1 Where a First Nation proposes to enact a law referenced in section 4 and the First Nation has taxpayers or other persons on its reserve who will be subject to the tax or fee, the First Nation must publish the section 6 notice in at least one (1) of the following additional ways:

- (a) in the local newspaper with the largest circulation;
- (b) in a prominent place on the First Nation's website; or
- (c) in a newsletter delivered to each taxpayer on the reserve.

5.2 Where a First Nation proposes to enact a business activity tax law, the First Nation must deliver the section 6 notice to each business located on the reserve that will be subject to the proposed tax.

5.3 Where a First Nation proposes to enact a development cost charges law, a property transfer tax law, a service tax law or a fee law, the First Nation must undertake at least one (1) of the following additional requirements:

- (a) in the section 6 notice, state that a description of the key elements of the proposed local revenue law may be viewed on the First Nation's website;
- (b) in the section 6 notice, state the time and place of an open house at which representatives of the First Nation will provide information respecting the proposed local revenue law;
- (c) in the section 6 notice, state the time and place of a public meeting at which the council of the First Nation will review the proposed local revenue law; or
- (d) deliver the section 6 notice to each taxpayer on the reserve, or for a service tax law that will apply only to a defined area of the reserve, to each taxpayer in the defined area.

5.4 The First Nation must publish or deliver, as applicable, the notices required under subsections 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3 before the first day of the section 6 notification period.

5.5 The First Nation must publish the information referenced in paragraph 5.3(a) in a prominent place on the First Nation's website before the first day of the section 6 notification period.

5.6 The First Nation must hold an open house or public meeting referenced in paragraphs 5.3(b) and (c) during the section 6 notification period.

6. Exemptions from Requirements

Where, in respect of a local revenue law, the Commission has exempted a First Nation under subsection 6(2) of the Act from the notice requirements in subsection 6(1) of the Act, the requirements in sections 3, 4, 5 and 8 of these Standards do not apply to the First Nation in respect of that local revenue law.

[am. FNTC Resolution 2018-12-12.]

7. Notice of Transition to Reference Jurisdiction Rate Setting

7.1 Where a First Nation proposes to justify an increase in its tax rates under paragraph 10.1(b) of the Standards for First Nation Annual Tax Rates Laws, 2017, the requirements set out in this section apply.

7.2 The First Nation must provide a written notice, in accordance with subsection 7.4, stating

- (a) that the First Nation intends to develop a reference jurisdiction transition plan in order to transition to setting tax rates that are identical to the reference jurisdiction, and
- (b) the time and place of a taxpayer meeting to review and discuss the reference jurisdiction transition plan.

7.3 The First Nation must hold the taxpayer meeting referenced in subsection 7.2 at the time and place referenced in the notice.

7.4 At least fourteen (14) days before the date of the taxpayer meeting referenced in subsection 7.2, the notice required under subsection 7.2 must be

- (a) delivered to every taxpayer and any taxpayer association;
- (b) posted in the First Nation's administrative offices and in at least two (2) other locations on the reserve; and
- (c) published on the First Nations Gazette website and in a prominent place on the First Nation's website.

8. Notice Requirements for Seasonal Properties

8.1 Where there are taxable seasonal properties on a First Nation's reserve, the First Nation must comply with either subsection 8.2 or 8.3 where a section 6 notice is required in respect of a proposed local revenue law.

8.2 The First Nation must

- (a) begin and complete the section 6 notification period, and
- (b) fulfill all notice requirements set out in these Standards, during a time of year when the seasonal properties are intended for occupation.

8.3 The First Nation must, in addition to all other notice requirements, deliver the section 6 notice to each taxpayer who holds a seasonal property and has provided to the First Nation an e-mail address or permanent mailing address.

8.4 A First Nation providing notice under subsection 8.3 must deliver the section 6 notices before the first day of the section 6 notification period.

NORMES CONCERNANT LES PRÉAVIS RELATIFS AUX TEXTES LÉGISLATIFS SUR LES RECETTES LOCALES (2018)

[Codifiées le 2018-12-12]

Attendu :

- A. que l'article 35 de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations confère à la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations le pouvoir d'établir des normes concernant les préavis relatifs aux textes législatifs sur les recettes locales, notamment les délais applicables à ces préavis;
- B. que les normes sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation des objectifs stratégiques de celle-ci et de la Loi, y compris pour assurer l'intégrité du régime d'imposition foncière des premières nations et pour aider ces dernières à réaliser une croissance économique au moyen de la génération de recettes locales stables;
- C. que l'article 31 de la Loi exige que la Commission examine chaque texte législatif sur les recettes locales et que le paragraphe 5(2) de la Loi prévoit qu'un tel texte est inopérant tant qu'il n'a pas été examiné et agréé par la Commission.

PARTIE II OBJET

Les présentes normes énoncent les exigences que doivent respecter les premières nations quant aux préavis à donner au sujet des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales qu'elles se proposent de prendre. La Commission se fonde sur ces normes pour examiner et agréer les textes législatifs sur les recettes locales des premières nations, conformément à l'article 31 de la Loi. Les exigences énoncées dans les présentes normes s'ajoutent à celles établies dans la Loi.

La Commission reconnaît que chaque régime d'imposition foncière d'une première nation fonctionne dans le contexte plus général de ses relations financières avec d'autres gouvernements. Les présentes normes visent à appuyer un cadre financier plus global des premières nations à l'échelle du Canada.

PARTIE III AUTORISATION ET PUBLICATION

Les présentes normes sont établies en vertu du paragraphe 35(1) de la Loi et sont publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations, comme l'exige le paragraphe 34(1) de la Loi.

PARTIE IV APPLICATION

Les présentes normes s'appliquent à tout texte législatif sur les recettes locales qui est soumis à la Commission pour agrément en vertu de la Loi.

PARTIE V TITRE

Les présentes normes peuvent être citées sous le titre : Normes concernant les préavis relatifs aux textes législatifs sur les recettes locales (2018).

PARTIE VII

NORMES

1. Préavis relatifs aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition

1.1 La première nation doit, chaque année avant de soumettre sa loi annuelle sur les taux d'imposition à la Commission pour examen et agrément, donner un préavis de cette loi :

- a) soit en affichant une copie de la loi sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations ou à un endroit bien en vue sur son propre site Web;
- b) soit en se conformant aux procédures établies dans sa loi sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables auprès du conseil;
- c) soit en tenant une assemblée publique au cours de laquelle les contribuables peuvent rencontrer l'administrateur fiscal ou les membres du conseil pour discuter de la loi proposée.

1.2 Lorsqu'elle entend justifier un taux d'imposition sur le fondement des alinéas 10.1a) ou b) des Normes relatives aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations (2017), la première nation doit inclure une description de cette justification dans le préavis donné conformément à l'alinéa 1.1a) ou informer les contribuables de la justification au moment de donner le préavis en conformité avec les alinéas 1.1b) ou c).

2. Préavis relatifs aux lois annuelles sur les dépenses

La première nation doit, chaque année avant de soumettre sa loi annuelle sur les dépenses à la Commission pour examen et agrément, donner un préavis de cette loi :

- a) soit en affichant une copie de la loi sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations ou à un endroit bien en vue sur son propre site Web;
- b) soit en se conformant aux procédures établies dans sa loi sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables auprès du conseil;
- c) soit en tenant une assemblée publique à laquelle les contribuables peuvent rencontrer l'administrateur fiscal ou les membres du conseil pour discuter de la loi proposée.

3. Renseignements supplémentaires exigés

3.1 Lorsque la première nation se propose d'édicter une loi sur les taxes d'aménagement, elle doit :

- a) dans le préavis au titre de l'article 6, indiquer où on peut obtenir une copie du plan d'immobilisations à long terme ou de tout autre plan utilisé à l'appui de l'élaboration de la loi;
- b) pendant toute la durée du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6, afficher une copie du plan visé à l'alinéa a) à un endroit bien en vue sur son site Web ou sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations.

3.2 Lorsque la première nation se propose d'édicter une loi sur les droits de service, elle doit :

- a) dans le préavis au titre de l'article 6, indiquer où on peut obtenir une copie du rapport relatif à la loi sur les droits de service;
- b) pendant toute la durée du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6, afficher une copie du rapport relatif à la loi sur les droits de service à un endroit bien en vue sur son site Web ou sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations.

4. Délai de préavis applicable à certains projets de textes législatifs sur les recettes locales

4.1 Lorsque la première nation se propose d'édicter l'une des lois énumérées ci-après, le délai de préavis prévu à l'article 6 de la Loi doit être prolongé à au moins quarante-cinq (45) jours :

- a) loi sur les taxes d'aménagement;
- b) loi sur la taxe sur les transferts fonciers;

- c) loi sur la taxe sur les services;
- d) loi sur la taxe sur les activités commerciales;
- e) loi sur les droits de service.

4.2 Lorsque la première nation met en oeuvre l'imposition foncière pour la première fois, le délai de préavis prévu à l'article 6 de la Loi doit être prolongé à au moins quarante-cinq (45) jours pour la loi sur l'évaluation foncière et la loi sur l'imposition foncière de la première nation.

5. Exigences supplémentaires applicables au préavis de certains projets de loi

5.1 Lorsque la première nation se propose d'édicter une loi visée à l'article 4 et que, dans la réserve, il y a des contribuables ou autres personnes qui seront assujettis aux impôts fonciers, taxes ou droits proposés, elle doit publier le préavis au titre de l'article 6 par au moins un (1) autre des moyens suivants :

- a) la publication dans le journal local ayant le plus grand tirage;
- b) la publication à un endroit bien en vue sur le site Web de la première nation;
- c) la publication dans un bulletin d'information distribué à tous les contribuables de la réserve.

5.2 Lorsque la première nation se propose d'édicter une loi sur la taxe sur les activités commerciales, elle doit transmettre le préavis au titre de l'article 6 à chacune des entreprises situées dans la réserve qui seront assujetties à la taxe proposée.

5.3 Lorsque la première nation se propose d'édicter une loi sur les taxes d'aménagement, une loi sur la taxe sur les transferts fonciers, une loi sur la taxe sur les services ou une loi sur les droits de service, elle doit se conformer à au moins l'une des exigences supplémentaires suivantes :

- a) préciser, dans le préavis au titre de l'article 6, qu'une description des principaux éléments du projet de loi est accessible pour consultation sur le site Web de la première nation;
- b) indiquer, dans le préavis au titre de l'article 6, les date, heure et lieu de la séance portes ouvertes au cours de laquelle des représentants de la première nation fourniront des renseignements sur le projet de loi;
- c) indiquer, dans le préavis au titre de l'article 6, les date, heure et lieu de l'assemblée publique au cours de laquelle le conseil de la première nation fera l'examen du projet de loi;
- d) transmettre le préavis au titre de l'article 6 à chaque contribuable de la réserve ou, s'il s'agit d'un projet de loi sur la taxe sur les services applicable à un secteur déterminé de la réserve, à chaque contribuable de ce secteur.

5.4 La première nation doit publier ou transmettre, selon le cas, le préavis exigé par les paragraphes 5.1, 5.2 et 5.3 avant le premier jour du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6.

5.5 La première nation doit publier les renseignements visés à l'alinéa 5.3a) à un endroit bien en vue sur son site Web avant le premier jour du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6.

5.6 La première nation doit tenir la séance portes ouvertes ou l'assemblée publique visée aux alinéas 5.3b) ou c) pendant le délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6.

6. Exemption des exigences

Lorsque la Commission a, en vertu du paragraphe 6(2) de la Loi, exempté une première nation de l'obligation de préavis prévue au paragraphe 6(1) de la Loi à l'égard d'un texte législatif sur les recettes locales, les exigences énoncées aux articles 3, 4, 5 et 8 des présentes normes ne s'appliquent pas à la première nation en ce qui concerne ce texte législatif.

[mod. Résolution de la CFPN 2018-12-12.]

7. Préavis de la transition vers les taux du territoire de référence

7.1 Lorsque la première nation entend justifier une augmentation de ses taux d'imposition suivant l'alinéa 10.1b) des Normes relatives aux lois annuelles sur les taux d'imposition des premières nations (2017), les exigences énoncées au présent article s'appliquent à celle-ci.

7.2 La première nation doit donner un avis par écrit conformément au paragraphe 7.4, indiquant :

- a) son intention d'élaborer un plan de transition afin de faire le passage à des taux d'imposition identiques à ceux du territoire de référence;
- b) les date, heure et lieu de l'assemblée à laquelle les contribuables sont invités pour examiner le plan de transition et en discuter.

7.3 La première nation doit tenir l'assemblée des contribuables mentionnée au paragraphe 7.2 aux dates, heure et lieu indiqués dans l'avis.

7.4 Au moins quatorze (14) jours avant la date de l'assemblée des contribuables mentionnée au paragraphe 7.2, l'avis exigé à ce paragraphe doit être, à la fois :

- a) transmis à chaque contribuable et à chaque association de contribuables;
- b) affiché dans les bureaux administratifs de la première nation et dans au moins deux (2) autres endroits dans la réserve;
- c) publié sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations et à un endroit bien en vue sur le site Web de la première nation.

8. Exigences de préavis à l'égard des biens saisonniers

8.1 Lorsque la réserve d'une première nation comporte des biens saisonniers imposables, la première nation doit se conformer aux exigences du paragraphe 8.2 ou du paragraphe 8.3 si un préavis au titre de l'article 6 est exigé pour un projet de loi sur les recettes locales.

8.2 La première nation doit, pendant la période de l'année où les biens saisonniers sont destinés à être occupés :

- a) faire commencer et mener à terme le délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6;
- b) remplir toutes les exigences de préavis énoncées dans les présentes normes.

8.3 La première nation doit, en plus de remplir les autres exigences de préavis, transmettre le préavis au titre de l'article 6 à chaque contribuable qui détient un bien saisonnier et qui lui a communiqué une adresse électronique ou une adresse postale permanente.

8.4 La première nation qui donne préavis selon le paragraphe 8.3 doit transmettre les préavis au titre de l'article 6 avant le début du délai de préavis au titre de l'article 6.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY, 2018

PART I PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. The First Nations Fiscal Management Act recognizes First Nation jurisdiction to, among other things, raise revenue through property taxation and other local revenue laws;
- B. Subsection 83(1) of the Indian Act recognizes First Nation jurisdiction to raise revenue through property taxation;
- C. First Nation taxation systems can give rise to disputes regarding such issues as tax rates, tax revenue expenditures and the provision of local services;
- D. Disputes between a First Nation and its taxpayers can erode trust, increase costs due to litigation, and decrease the economic and social value of on-reserve leases and other land uses;
- E. Disputes between First Nations and adjacent local governments can erode trust, increase costs due to litigation, and decrease opportunities for the efficient provision of services and economic development;
- F. The First Nations Tax Commission wishes to foster dialogue, effective communication, joint problem solving and conflict resolution among First Nations, their taxpayers and adjacent local governments;
- G. The Commission encourages and supports training, including education and training in conflict resolution, consensus building, facilitation, mediation and negotiation, to increase the skills and abilities of First Nations to prevent disputes from arising and to address disputes that may arise; and
- H. The Commission advocates dispute resolution mechanisms that lead to
 - local resolution – the process should seek to resolve disputes directly with the First Nation;
 - efficient resolution – the process should seek to resolve disputes efficiently and cost-effectively by having in place informal and transparent processes with clear and reasonable deadlines for complaint resolution;
 - cooperative resolution – the process should seek to encourage the cooperative resolution of disputes in order to increase commitment to the resolution, achieve mutual gains, provide effective implementation of the resolution and strengthen relationships;
 - fair resolution – the process should seek to encourage resolutions that are fair and that support First Nation governance and jurisdiction; and
 - stable resolution – the process should seek to encourage resolutions that are viable, long lasting, and conclusive within the property taxation system.

PART II PURPOSE

This Policy provides a framework for supporting, encouraging and facilitating the use of dispute resolution methods to resolve disputes at the earliest possible stage and with mutually beneficial solutions. This Policy is intended to operate within the FMA and Indian Act legislative frameworks and to supplement applicable regulations and Commission standards, policies and procedures.

PART III AUTHORITY

This Policy is established pursuant to subsection 1.3 of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Commission and the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, and paragraph 29(c) of the FMA under which the Commission is mandated to prevent, or provide for the timely resolution of, disputes in relation to the application of local revenue laws.

PART IV APPLICATION

This Policy applies to the resolution of disputes that arise in relation to taxation systems under the FMA and under section 83 of the Indian Act. This Policy does not apply to reviews conducted under section 33 of the FMA.

PART V CITATION

This Policy may be cited as the Dispute Resolution Policy, 2018.

PART VI DEFINITIONS

In this Policy:

“arbitration” means a process where a neutral third party considers the facts and arguments presented by the parties and renders a decision that is non-binding or binding as determined in advance by the parties;

“Commission” means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9;

“dispute” means a disagreement concerning a taxation matter in which a claim or assertion of one party is met with refusal, denial or counterclaim by another;

“facilitation” means the collaborative process used to help parties with divergent views reach a goal or complete a task to the mutual satisfaction of the participants;

“First Nation” means a band as defined in subsection 2(1) the Indian Act;

“FMA” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9 and the regulations enacted under that Act;

“mediation” means the process where a neutral third party who has no authoritative decision-making power assists the parties in voluntarily reaching a mutually acceptable resolution of the dispute; and “roster” means the roster of arbitrators and mediators maintained by the Commission as set out in section 4.

PART VII POLICY

1. Dispute Resolution Mechanisms Supported by the Commission

The Commission encourages and supports the use, as appropriate, of the following dispute resolution mechanisms:

- (a) conflict assessment to identify the parties with a stake in a dispute, their interests, and possible processes and proposals for resolution;

- (b) facilitation to help the parties to come together to discuss issues affecting them, to debate different points of view and to reach consensus on possible solutions;
- (c) consensus building techniques such as advisory groups, joint fact finding, policy dialogues, and focus groups to build understanding, mutual respect, and to reach agreement;
- (d) mediation to assist the parties to reach a mutually acceptable resolution of the dispute; and
- (e) arbitration to provide an independent and informed judgment on one or more substantive or procedural matters in a dispute.

2. Commission’s Function in Dispute Resolution

2.1 The Commission’s function in dispute resolution includes

- (a) providing facilitation for First Nations and their taxpayers, and First Nations and adjacent local governments, to share information, increase understanding, rebuild relationships and resolve disputes;
- (b) assisting the parties to a dispute in evaluating options for dispute resolution where facilitation has not resolved a dispute; and
- (c) locating professional neutral and experienced dispute resolution services when desired and appropriate.

2.2 Dispute resolution is conducted in compliance with applicable legislation and Commission standards, policies and procedures, as well as the following guidelines:

- (a) dialogue, facilitation, mediation and arbitration are voluntary processes and the Commission will not compel any party to enter into any dispute resolution process;
- (b) a Commission staff member or commissioner who serves as a facilitator in a particular case will not participate in any subsequent Commission proceedings conducted under section 33 of the FMA respecting the matter;
- (c) the content of the dispute must fall within the mandate of the Commission under the FMA or section 83 of the Indian Act;
- (d) participation in a dispute resolution process does not affect the ability of a party to pursue a review under section 33 of the FMA; and
- (e) mediation or arbitration will be conducted by an independent mediator or arbitrator selected by the parties.

3. Seeking Commission Assistance in Resolving Disputes

3.1 Where a taxpayer, First Nation member, First Nation or local government has been unable to resolve a dispute at the local level, the taxpayer, First Nation member, First Nation or local government may contact the Commission for assistance in resolving the matter.

3.2 When the Commission receives a request for assistance in resolving a dispute, the request will be referred to a Commission staff person who will

- (a) contact the person requesting assistance to obtain details of the issue and any relevant documents or other material; and
- (b) contact the other party or parties to the dispute to obtain information, discuss the issue, and offer to assist in resolving the issue.

3.3 Where the parties to a dispute agree, the Commission may assist the parties by providing facilitation services to help the parties seek to resolve the issue.

3.4 Where the parties have been unable to resolve a dispute through facilitation, the Commission may recommend that the parties consider mediation as the next step in dispute resolution.

3.5 Where the parties have been unable to resolve a dispute through facilitation and do not wish to engage in mediation, or where mediation has not resolved a dispute, the Commission may recommend that the parties consider arbitration as the next step in dispute resolution.

4. Roster of Arbitrators and Mediators

4.1 The Commission maintains a roster of arbitrators and mediators to enable taxing First Nations and the other parties to a dispute engage arbitrators and mediators with First Nation property taxation experience.

4.2 Individuals practicing in the area of arbitration or mediation who wish to be placed on the roster must

(a) satisfy the Commission in writing that they have

(i) experience in the areas of First Nation property taxation, land use, and development disputes, and

(ii) dispute resolution training and certification in mediation and arbitration;

(b) provide a résumé of experience and a list of professional references; and

(c) provide written evidence that they hold professional liability insurance in an amount of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) per claim.

4.3 The Commission may in its sole discretion

(a) determine whether an applicant will be added to the roster; and

(b) delete a name from the roster at any time, without notice.

4.4 The roster is intended to assist the parties in their selection of an arbitrator or mediator and should not be construed as an endorsement by the Commission of the individuals on the roster.

4.5 The selection of an arbitrator or mediator from the roster is the sole responsibility of the parties to the dispute.

4.6 The Commission is not responsible for any errors or omissions committed by arbitrators and mediators selected from the roster.

4.7 First Nations and other parties to a dispute may access the roster by contacting the Commission.

4.8 The Commission will assist parties in accessing and using the roster and will provide the résumés of individuals on the roster where the parties to a dispute wish to consider engaging that individual.

POLITIQUE SUR LE RÈGLEMENT DES DIFFÉRENDS (2018)

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

ATTENDU :

- A. que la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations reconnaît la compétence des Premières Nations pour, notamment, percevoir des recettes en prenant des textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière et d'autres textes législatifs sur les recettes locales;
- B. que le paragraphe 83(1) de la Loi sur les Indiens reconnaît la compétence des Premières Nations pour percevoir des recettes au moyen de l'imposition foncière;
- C. que les régimes d'imposition foncière des Premières Nations peuvent engendrer des différends au sujet de questions telles que les taux d'imposition, les dépenses à engager sur les recettes issues des impôts et la prestation des services locaux;
- D. que les différends entre une Première Nation et ses contribuables peuvent miner la confiance, augmenter les coûts occasionnés par les litiges et diminuer la valeur économique et sociale des baux et autres formes d'utilisation des terres sur les réserves;
- E. que les différends entre les Premières Nations et les administrations locales voisines peuvent miner la confiance, augmenter les coûts occasionnés par les litiges et réduire les possibilités propices à la prestation efficace de services et au développement économique;
- F. que la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations souhaite encourager le dialogue, la communication efficace, la résolution concertée de problèmes et la résolution de conflits entre les Premières Nations, leurs contribuables et les administrations locales voisines;
- G. que la Commission encourage et soutient la formation, y compris l'enseignement et la formation sur la résolution de conflits, l'établissement de consensus, la facilitation, la médiation et la négociation, afin d'améliorer les aptitudes et les habiletés des Premières Nations à prévenir les différends et à résoudre ceux qui peuvent survenir;
- H. que la Commission préconise des mécanismes de règlement des différends qui mènent à :
 - un règlement local – le processus doit viser à résoudre les différends directement avec la Première Nation;
 - un règlement efficace – le processus doit viser à résoudre les différends de manière efficace et rentable en prévoyant des démarches informelles et transparentes qui sont assorties de délais clairs et raisonnables pour le règlement des plaintes;
 - un règlement concerté – le processus doit viser à favoriser le règlement concerté des différends afin d'accroître le niveau d'engagement envers le règlement, de réaliser des gains mutuels, d'assurer une mise en œuvre efficace de la solution et de renforcer les relations;
 - un règlement équitable – le processus doit viser à favoriser un règlement équitable et favorable à la gouvernance et à la compétence de la Première Nation;
 - un règlement stable – le processus doit viser à promouvoir un règlement viable, durable et définitif dans le cadre du régime d'imposition foncière.

PARTIE II

OBJET

La présente politique établit un cadre pour appuyer, encourager et faciliter l'utilisation de mécanismes de règlement des différends qui permettent de résoudre les différends dans les plus brefs délais possibles et de trouver des solutions mutuellement bénéfiques. Elle vise à fonctionner à l'intérieur des cadres législatifs établis par la LGFPN et la Loi sur les Indiens et à compléter les règlements applicables ainsi que les normes, les politiques et les procédures de la Commission.

AUTORISATION

La présente politique est établie en vertu du paragraphe 1.3 du Protocole d'entente conclu entre la Commission et le ministre des Affaires indiennes et du Nord canadien et en vertu de l'alinéa 29c) de la LGFPN qui confère à la Commission le mandat de prévenir ou de résoudre promptement les différends portant sur l'application des textes législatifs sur les recettes locales.

PARTIE IV

APPLICATION

La présente politique s'applique au règlement des différends qui surviennent relativement aux régimes d'imposition foncière mis en oeuvre dans le cadre de la LGFPN ou en vertu de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens. Elle ne s'applique pas aux examens effectués au titre de l'article 33 de la LGFPN.

TITRE

La présente politique peut être citée sous le titre : Politique sur le règlement des différends (2018).

PARTIE VI

DÉFINITIONS

Les définitions qui suivent s'appliquent à la présente politique.

- « arbitrage » Processus par lequel un tiers neutre examine les faits et les arguments présentés par les parties et rend une décision qui est non contraignante ou contraignante, selon ce qu'ont convenu les parties au préalable.
- « Commission » La Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations constituée en vertu de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations, L.C. 2005, ch. 9.
- « différend » Désaccord portant sur une question d'imposition foncière dans lequel une partie refuse, nie ou contredit les revendications ou les assertions de l'autre partie.
- « facilitation » Processus de collaboration utilisé pour aider les parties ayant des points de vue divergents à atteindre un but ou à accomplir une tâche à la satisfaction mutuelle des participants.
- « LGFPN » La Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations, L.C. 2005, ch. 9, ainsi que les règlements pris en vertu de cette loi.
- « liste » La liste des arbitres et médiateurs que maintient la Commission conformément à l'article 4.
- « médiation » Processus par lequel un tiers neutre qui ne possède aucun pouvoir décisionnel formel aide les parties à un différend à trouver volontairement une solution mutuellement satisfaisante au différend.
- « Première Nation » S'entend d'une bande au sens du paragraphe 2(1) de la Loi sur les Indiens.

PARTIE VII POLITIQUE

1. Mécanismes de règlement des différends appuyés par la Commission

La Commission encourage et appuie l'utilisation, au besoin, des mécanismes de règlement des différends qui suivent :

- a) l'évaluation des conflits, afin de déterminer les parties en cause dans un différend, de définir leurs intérêts, de recenser les processus possibles et d'explorer les propositions de solutions;
- b) la facilitation, afin d'aider à réunir les parties pour discuter des questions les touchant, débattre les points de vue divergents et en arriver à un consensus sur les solutions possibles;
- c) l'utilisation de techniques d'établissement de consensus telles que la création de groupes consultatifs, la recherche conjointe des faits, la tenue de discussions sur les politiques et la constitution de groupes de discussion, afin de susciter la compréhension et le respect mutuel et de parvenir à un accord;
- d) la médiation, afin d'aider les parties à trouver une solution mutuellement satisfaisante au différend;
- e) l'arbitrage, afin de procurer un jugement indépendant et éclairé sur une ou plusieurs questions de fond ou de procédure faisant l'objet d'un différend.

2. Rôle de la Commission dans le règlement des différends

2.1 Le rôle de la Commission dans le règlement des différends comporte notamment ce qui suit :

- a) offrir des services de facilitation aux Premières Nations et à leurs contribuables, ainsi qu'aux Premières Nations et aux administrations locales voisines, afin de partager des renseignements, d'améliorer la compréhension des questions, de rebâtir les relations et de régler les différends;
- b) aider les parties à un différend à évaluer les options pour le règlement du différend lorsque la facilitation a échoué;
- c) trouver des services d'experts en règlement des différends professionnels, impartiaux et chevronnés, lorsque les parties le souhaitent et en ont besoin.

2.2 Le règlement des différends doit se faire en conformité avec les lois et règlements applicables, les normes, politiques et procédures pertinentes de la Commission ainsi que les lignes directrices suivantes :

- a) le dialogue, la facilitation, la médiation et l'arbitrage sont des processus volontaires, et la Commission n'obligera aucune partie à participer à un processus de règlement d'un différend;
- b) si un membre du personnel de la Commission ou un commissaire agit en qualité de facilitateur dans un cas particulier, cette personne ne pourra par la suite participer à aucune étape de l'examen effectué par la Commission en vertu de l'article 33 de la LGFPN à ce sujet;
- c) l'objet du différend doit faire partie du mandat de la Commission dans le cadre de la LGFPN ou de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens;
- d) la participation à un processus de règlement d'un différend n'influe aucunement sur la capacité d'une partie de recourir au processus d'examen prévu à l'article 33 de la LGFPN;
- e) la médiation ou l'arbitrage sera confié à un médiateur ou un arbitre indépendant choisi par les parties.

3. Demande d'aide à la Commission pour le règlement des différends

3.1 Lorsqu'un contribuable, un membre d'une Première Nation, une Première Nation ou une administration locale n'a pas réussi à résoudre un différend à l'échelon local, il peut communiquer avec la Commission pour demander de l'aide afin de régler le différend.

3.2 Lorsque la Commission reçoit une demande d'aide pour régler un différend, la demande est acheminée à un membre du personnel de la Commission qui :

- a) d'une part, communique avec le demandeur pour obtenir les détails de la question en litige ainsi que les documents et autres matériels pertinents;
- b) d'autre part, communique avec l'autre partie ou les autres parties au différend pour obtenir des renseignements, discuter de la question en litige et offrir de l'aide afin de régler le différend.

3.3 Si les parties à un différend donnent leur accord, la Commission peut les aider en leur fournissant des services de facilitation pour tenter de régler le différend.

3.4 Si les parties ne réussissent pas à régler le différend par la facilitation, la Commission peut leur recommander d'envisager la médiation comme prochaine étape à franchir pour régler le différend.

3.5 Si les parties n'ont pas réussi à régler le différend par la facilitation et ne souhaitent pas recourir à la médiation, ou si la médiation a échoué, la Commission peut recommander aux parties d'envisager l'arbitrage comme prochaine étape à franchir pour régler le différend.

4. Liste des arbitres et médiateurs

4.1 La Commission tient une liste d'arbitres et de médiateurs pour aider les Premières Nations taxatrices et les autres parties à un différend à embaucher des arbitres et des médiateurs qui ont de l'expérience en matière d'imposition foncière des Premières Nations.

4.2 Les personnes pratiquant dans les domaines de l'arbitrage ou de la médiation qui souhaitent inscrire leur nom sur la liste doivent :

- a) démontrer par écrit à la Commission, de manière satisfaisante :
 - (i) d'une part, qu'elles possèdent de l'expérience dans les différends portant sur l'imposition foncière des Premières Nations et sur l'utilisation et l'aménagement des terres de celles-ci,
 - (ii) d'autre part, qu'elles ont reçu une formation sur le règlement des différends et possèdent un certificat en médiation et en arbitrage;
- b) fournir un sommaire de leur expérience et une liste de références professionnelles;
- c) faire parvenir une preuve écrite démontrant qu'elles possèdent une assurance-responsabilité professionnelle d'un montant d'au moins un million de dollars (1 000 000 $) pour chaque réclamation.

4.3 La Commission peut, à son entière discrétion :

- a) décider d'ajouter à la liste le nom d'une personne qui en fait la demande;
- b) supprimer un nom de la liste à tout moment, sans préavis.

4.4 La liste vise à aider les parties à faire le choix d'un arbitre ou d'un médiateur et elle ne peut être interprétée comme un appui donné par la Commission aux personnes qui y sont inscrites.

4.5 Le choix d'un arbitre ou d'un médiateur inscrit sur la liste est l'entière responsabilité des parties au différend.

4.6 La Commission ne peut être tenue responsable des erreurs ou omissions commises par les arbitres et médiateurs choisis à partir de la liste.

4.7 Les Premières Nations et les autres parties à un différend peuvent avoir accès à la liste en communiquant avec la Commission.

4.8 La Commission aidera les parties à accéder à la liste et à l'utiliser et elle transmettra le curriculum vitae des personnes inscrites sur la liste aux parties à un différend qui souhaitent embaucher l'une d'entre elles.

FIRST NATIONS TAXPAYER RELATIONS POLICY, 2018

PART I PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

- A. The First Nations Fiscal Management Act recognizes First Nation jurisdiction to, among other things, raise revenue through property taxation and other local revenue laws;
- B. Subsection 83(1) of the Indian Act recognizes First Nation jurisdiction to raise revenue through property taxation;
- C. The First Nations Tax Commission has a mandate that includes reconciling the interests of taxpayers with the responsibilities of chiefs and councils to govern the affairs of First Nations; and
- D. The Commission supports taxpayer relations approaches that
 - promote and protect First Nation tax jurisdiction by ensuring that responsibility for taxpayer relations rests with First Nation governments;
 - balance interests by providing opportunities for taxpayers to be consulted on First Nation taxation decisions that significantly and directly affect them;
 - expand revenue jurisdiction by building First Nation capacity and taxpayer confidence in First Nation property taxation systems;
 - encourage economic development by promoting a stable environment for investors and increasing the economic value of interests on reserve land for the benefit of taxpayers and First Nations; and
 - promote efficiencies by having effective and efficient mechanisms for taxpayer communication and input into First Nation taxation systems.

PART II PURPOSE

This Policy establishes a framework for identifying and implementing approaches to provide for the coordination of interests between First Nation governments and their taxpayers and support for ongoing and effective communication. This Policy will assist First Nation governments in supporting processes for taxpayer engagement and the coordination of taxpayer interests on their lands.

This Policy is intended to operate within the FMA and Indian Act legislative frameworks and to supplement applicable regulations and Commission standards, policies and procedures.

PART III AUTHORITY

This Policy is established pursuant to subsection 1.3 of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Commission and the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, and paragraph 29(b) of the FMA under which the Commission is mandated to ensure that property taxation systems reconcile the interests of taxpayers with the responsibilities of chiefs and councils to govern the affairs of First Nations.

PART IV APPLICATION

This Policy applies to matters concerning taxpayer relations within the context of taxation systems under the FMA and under section 83 of the Indian Act. This Policy does not apply to First Nation taxpayer representation to council laws enacted under paragraph 5(1)(c) of the FMA.

This Policy will assist the Commission in reviewing and supporting First Nation processes for taxpayer engagement and the coordination of taxpayer interests on reserve land.

PART V CITATION

This Policy may be cited as the First Nations Taxpayer Relations Policy, 2018.

PART VI DEFINITIONS

“by-law” means a by-law enacted under paragraph 83(1)(a) of the Indian Act;

“Commission” means the First Nations Tax Commission established under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the FMA;

“First Nation” means a band as defined in subsection 2(1) of the Indian Act;

“FMA” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9 and the regulations enacted under that Act;

“law” means a law made under subsection 5(1) of the FMA;

“taxable property” means property that is subject to tax under a law or by-law;

“taxation revenues” includes revenues from taxation under section 83 of the Indian Act and local revenues under the FMA; and “taxpayer” means a person liable for taxes under a by-law or law.

Except as otherwise provided in this Policy, words and expressions used in this Policy have the same meaning as in the Indian Act and the FMA.

PART VII POLICY

1. Taxpayer Engagement Principles Supported by the Commission

- 1.1 The Commission encourages and supports First Nation engagement with their taxpayers that
- (a) builds and maintains trust and a sense of community among First Nations and their taxpayers;
 - (b) recognizes First Nation autonomy and jurisdiction and respects local conditions, customs and traditions;
 - (c) provides accurate, timely and understandable information to taxpayers;
 - (d) provides opportunities for taxpayers to provide meaningful input on decisions that affect them;
 - (e) establishes procedures that are transparent and efficient;
 - (g) operates in a fair and unbiased manner;
 - (h) creates provisions for amendments and improvements as circumstances change; and

- (i) contains measures of accountability and responsibility.
- 1.2 The Commission encourages First Nations to implement taxpayer engagement processes through a First Nation by-law, law or policy, in order to establish approaches that are transparent, stable and long-lasting.
- 2. Notice of Annual Tax Rates and Budget
- 2.1 First Nations should establish procedures to provide taxpayers with an opportunity to review and provide input on the proposed annual property taxation budget and the proposed annual tax rates before they are approved by Council.
- 2.2 A procedure established under subsection 2.1 should provide for
 - (a) a notice to taxpayers that includes the proposed annual property taxation budget and the proposed annual tax rates and which invites comments from taxpayers; and
 - (b) an opportunity for taxpayers to provide comments to the Council either at a meeting or open house, or in writing.
- 3. Access to Documents
- 3.1 First Nations should establish procedures to ensure that the following documents are available to taxpayers in a timely manner:
 - (a) service agreements funded from taxation revenues;
 - (b) audits of the property tax account; and
 - (c) Council resolutions, by-laws and laws related to property taxation.
- 3.2 The documents referenced in subsection 3.1 should be made available
 - (a) electronically, either on request or by posting on the First Nation's website; and
 - (b) as paper copies at the administration office of the First Nation during regular business hours, at no cost or for a nominal fee.
- 4. Ongoing Communications with Taxpayers
- 4.1 A First Nation should establish methods for ongoing and regular communications with taxpayers in order to
 - (a) keep taxpayers informed of the First Nation's proposals and activities related to property taxation matters; and
 - (b) provide a means by which taxpayers may provide input to the First Nation on taxation matters.
- 4.2 The method and frequency of communication should be commensurate with and appropriate to the size of the First Nation, the number and types of taxpayers and the complexity of the issues.
- 4.3 The methods referred to in subsection 4.1 may include
 - (a) a process to
 - (i) provide information through a newsletter or an information circular published by the First Nation that is provided to taxpayers, and
 - (ii) enable taxpayers and any taxpayer associations to provide written input to the First Nation; or
 - (b) a meeting or open house at which First Nation representatives provide information on property taxation matters, and taxpayers and any taxpayer associations have an opportunity to provide input to the First Nation.

4.4 Communications with taxpayers and taxpayer associations should be undertaken using methods that are timely and effective and may include

- (a) electronic communication;
- (b) postings on the First Nation's website or on the First Nations Gazette website;
- (c) written communications by mail or delivery to each taxable property;
- (d) traditional forms of media communication such as newspapers, radio and television; and
- (e) postings at the administration offices of the First Nation.

5. Taxpayer Organization

5.1 A taxpayer organization can provide an effective mechanism to facilitate communications between a First Nation and its taxpayers, in order to ensure taxpayers' needs, concerns and preferences are heard and brought to the attention of the Council.

5.2 Formal taxpayer representation structures may be created by a First Nation, by taxpayers, or by the First Nation and taxpayers working together.

5.3 Taxpayer representation structures created by a First Nation may be created by law, by-law or policy.

5.4 Taxpayer representation structures created by a First Nation should adhere to the principles set out in section 1 of this Policy.

5.5 Where the First Nation intends to create a taxpayer representation structure, the First Nation should provide taxpayers with opportunities for input into the creation of the structure.

5.6 The factors that should be considered in establishing taxpayer representation structures include

- (a) the frequency and types of taxpayer issues and concerns raised;
- (b) the size of the tax base;
- (c) the number of taxpayers or the number of taxpayers within each property class;
- (d) the costs and benefits of the formal structure; and
- (e) the interest and wishes of the taxpayers.

6. Taxpayer Advisory Body

6.1 A First Nation may establish a taxpayer advisory body to identify issues and concerns of importance to taxpayers and to provide a taxpayer perspective to the Council.

6.2 The structure, composition, operating procedures and degree of formality of the advisory body will vary according to the particular circumstances of each First Nation but should include provisions respecting

- (a) the selection of representatives of the advisory body, whether through appointment or election, to ensure a fair and balanced advisory body representing the various taxpayer interests; and,
- (b) the receipt and consideration by the First Nation Council of information and advice received through the advisory body.

7. Taxpayer Associations

7.1 Taxpayers may independently organize and form formal or informal taxpayer associations.

7.2 Where taxpayers form a taxpayer association, the First Nation should

- (a) work with the taxpayer association to ensure coordination, communication and cooperation between the taxpayer association and the First Nation; and

- (b) promote coordination among taxpayer associations where taxpayers form more than one taxpayer association.

8. Resolving Taxpayer Concerns

8.1 The First Nation should establish processes for the local resolution of taxpayer concerns respecting a taxation matter.

8.2 The procedures referred to in subsection 8.1 should include

- (a) provisions for resolving concerns with representatives of the First Nation; and
- (b) where a concern is not resolved with representatives of the First Nation, provisions for resolving the concern through other processes that may include
 - (i) a facilitation process using the Commission's services or another qualified facilitator, or
 - (ii) a mediation process.

POLITIQUE SUR LES RELATIONS DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS AVEC LEURS CONTRIBUABLES (2018)

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

ATTENDU :

- A. que la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations reconnaît la compétence des premières nations pour, notamment, percevoir des recettes en prenant des textes législatifs sur l'imposition foncière et d'autres textes législatifs sur les recettes locales;
- B. que le paragraphe 83(1) de la Loi sur les Indiens reconnaît le pouvoir des premières nations de percevoir des recettes au moyen de l'imposition foncière;
- C. que la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations a une mission qui comporte notamment la tâche de concilier les intérêts des contribuables avec les responsabilités assumées par les chefs et les conseils dans la gestion des affaires des premières nations;
- D. que, pour les relations avec les contribuables, la Commission appuie les approches qui :
 - favorisent et protègent la compétence fiscale des premières nations en faisant en sorte que la responsabilité des relations avec les contribuables relève des gouvernements des premières nations;
 - mettent en équilibre les intérêts en donnant aux contribuables la possibilité d'être consultés sur les décisions fiscales des premières nations qui ont une incidence directe importante sur eux;
 - élargissent la compétence en matière de revenus en développant la capacité des premières nations et en suscitant la confiance des contribuables dans les régimes d'imposition foncière des premières nations;
 - encouragent le développement économique en favorisant un environnement stable pour les investisseurs et en augmentant la valeur économique des intérêts sur les terres de réserve au profit des contribuables et des premières nations;
 - favorisent la réalisation d'économies au moyen de mécanismes efficaces et efficaces pour la communication avec les contribuables et leur participation dans les régimes d'imposition foncière des premières nations.

PARTIE II OBJET

La présente politique établit un cadre pour l'identification et la mise en œuvre d'approches visant à assurer la coordination des intérêts entre les gouvernements des premières nations et leurs contribuables ainsi que le soutien d'une communication régulière et efficace. Elle aidera les gouvernements des premières nations à soutenir les processus de participation des contribuables et de coordination des intérêts des contribuables sur les terres de réserve.

Cette politique vise à fonctionner à l'intérieur des cadres législatifs établis par la LGFPN et la Loi sur les Indiens et à compléter les règlements applicables ainsi que les normes, les politiques et les procédures établies par la Commission.

PARTIE III

AUTORISATION

La présente politique est établie en vertu du paragraphe 1.3 du Protocole d'entente entre la Commission et le ministre des Affaires indiennes et du Nord canadien et de l'alinéa 29b) de la LGFPN selon lequel la Commission a notamment pour mission de veiller à ce que les régimes d'imposition foncière fonctionnent de manière à concilier les intérêts des contribuables avec les responsabilités assumées par les chefs et les conseils dans la gestion des affaires des premières nations.

PARTIE IV

APPLICATION

La présente politique s'applique aux questions concernant les relations avec les contribuables dans le contexte des régimes d'imposition foncière mis en oeuvre dans le cadre de la LGFPN ou en vertu de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens. Elle ne s'applique pas aux textes législatifs sur la représentation des intérêts des contribuables auprès du conseil d'une première nation pris en vertu de l'alinéa 5(1)c) de la LGFPN.

Cette politique aidera la Commission à examiner et à soutenir les processus établis par les premières nations pour assurer la participation des contribuables et la coordination des intérêts des contribuables sur les terres de réserve.

PARTIE V

PARTIE VII

POLITIQUE

1. Principes soutenus par la Commission pour la participation des contribuables

1.1 La Commission encourage et soutient l'engagement des premières nations envers leurs contribuables qui repose sur les principes suivants :

- a) susciter et maintenir la confiance et un sentiment de communauté parmi les premières nations et leurs contribuables;
- b) reconnaître l'autonomie et la compétence des premières nations et respecter les conditions, les coutumes et les traditions locales;
- c) fournir aux contribuables des renseignements exacts, opportuns et compréhensibles;
- d) donner aux contribuables l'occasion de fournir une rétroaction pertinente sur les décisions qui ont une incidence sur eux;
- e) établir des procédures à la fois transparentes et efficaces;
- g) avoir un mode de fonctionnement équitable et impartial;
- h) prévoir d'apporter des modifications et des améliorations au fur et à mesure que les circonstances changent;
- i) prévoir des mesures de responsabilité et de reddition de comptes.

1.2 La Commission encourage les premières nations à mettre en œuvre des processus de participation des contribuables au moyen d'un règlement administratif, d'une loi ou d'une politique, afin d'établir des approches transparentes, stables et de longue durée.

2. Préavis du budget et des taux d'imposition annuels

2.1 Les premières nations doivent établir des procédures qui offrent aux contribuables la possibilité d'examiner le budget d'imposition foncière annuel proposé et les taux d'imposition annuels projetés et de présenter leurs observations à ce sujet avant que le conseil donne son approbation.

2.2 Toute procédure établie selon le paragraphe 2.1 doit prévoir :

- a) la communication d'un préavis aux contribuables qui fait état du budget d'imposition foncière annuel proposé et des taux d'imposition annuels projetés et qui les invite à présenter des observations;
- b) la possibilité pour les contribuables de présenter des observations au conseil, soit à l'occasion d'une assemblée ou d'une journée portes ouvertes, soit par écrit.

3. Accès aux documents

3.1 Les premières nations doivent établir des procédures pour assurer l'accès des contribuables en temps opportun aux documents suivants :

- a) les ententes de services financées par les recettes fiscales;
- b) les vérifications annuelles du compte d'impôts fonciers;
- c) les résolutions du conseil, les règlements administratifs et les lois qui ont trait à l'imposition foncière.

3.2 Les documents visés au paragraphe 3.1 doivent être mis à la disposition des contribuables :

- a) par voie électronique, soit sur demande, soit par affichage sur le site Web de la première nation;
- b) comme copies papier accessibles au bureau administratif de la première nation pendant les heures ouvrables normales, sans frais ou moyennant des frais minimes.

4. Communications régulières avec les contribuables

4.1 La première nation doit établir des méthodes pour assurer des communications régulières et continues avec les contribuables, afin de :

- a) les tenir au courant de ses propositions et de ses activités en matière d'imposition foncière;
- b) leur fournir un moyen pour lui communiquer leurs observations sur des questions concernant l'imposition foncière.

4.2 La méthode et la fréquence de communication doivent correspondre et convenir à la taille de la première nation, au nombre et aux types de contribuables et à la complexité des questions.

4.3 Les méthodes visées au paragraphe 4.1 peuvent comprendre, selon le cas :

- a) un processus qui à la fois :
 - (i) permet de fournir des renseignements par l'entremise d'une circulaire d'information ou d'un bulletin d'information publié par la première nation et mis à la disposition des contribuables,
 - (ii) permet aux contribuables et aux associations de contribuables de présenter des observations écrites à la première nation;
- b) la tenue d'une assemblée ou d'une journée portes ouvertes au cours de laquelle, d'une part, les représentants de la première nation fournissent des renseignements sur des questions concernant l'imposition foncière et, d'autre part, les contribuables et les associations de contribuables ont l'occasion de présenter des observations à la première nation.

4.4 Les communications avec les contribuables et les associations de contribuables doivent être assurées par des méthodes opportunes et efficaces qui peuvent comprendre :

- a) la communication électronique;
- b) l'affichage sur le site Web de la première nation ou sur celui de la Gazette des premières nations;
- c) des communications écrites envoyées par courrier ou livrées à chaque bien imposable;
- d) des formes traditionnelles de communication par les médias, tels les journaux, la radio et la télévision;
- e) l'affichage dans les bureaux administratifs de la première nation.

5. Organismes de contribuables

5.1 Un organisme de contribuables peut constituer un mécanisme efficace pour faciliter les communications entre une première nation et ses contribuables, afin de s'assurer que les besoins, les préoccupations et les préférences des contribuables sont entendus et portés à l'attention du conseil.

5.2 La première nation, les contribuables ou la première nation en collaboration avec les contribuables peuvent établir des structures officielles de représentation des contribuables.

5.3 Les structures de représentation des contribuables établies par une première nation peuvent être constituées par une loi, un règlement administratif ou une politique.

5.4 Les structures de représentation des contribuables établies par une première nation doivent souscrire aux principes énoncés à l'article 1 de la présente politique.

5.5 La première nation qui se propose d'établir une structure de représentation des contribuables doit donner aux contribuables l'occasion de présenter leurs observations sur cette proposition.

5.6 Les facteurs à prendre en compte lors de la constitution d'une structure de représentation des contribuables comprennent notamment :

- a) la fréquence et les genres de questions et de préoccupations soulevées par les contribuables;
- b) l'ampleur de l'assiette fiscale;
- c) le nombre total de contribuables ou le nombre de contribuables dans chaque catégorie de biens fonciers;
- d) les coûts et les avantages de la structure officielle;
- e) les intérêts et les souhaits des contribuables.

6. Comité consultatif de contribuables

6.1 La première nation peut établir un comité consultatif de contribuables pour définir les questions et les préoccupations importantes pour les contribuables et offrir au conseil la perspective des contribuables.

6.2 La structure, la composition, les modalités de fonctionnement et le degré de formalisme du comité consultatif varieront selon les circonstances particulières de chaque première nation, mais ils doivent notamment prévoir :

- a) la sélection des représentants membres du comité consultatif, par nomination ou par élection, pour faire en sorte que le comité consultatif soit équitable et équilibré et qu'il représente les divers intérêts des contribuables;
- b) la réception par le conseil de la première nation et la prise en compte par celui-ci des informations et des recommandations transmises par le comité consultatif.

7. Associations de contribuables

7.1 Les contribuables peuvent organiser et former de manière indépendante des associations de contribuables officielles ou officieuses.

7.2 Lorsqu'une association de contribuables est formée par les contribuables, la première nation doit :

- a) travailler avec l'association de contribuables afin d'assurer la coordination, la communication et la collaboration entre celle-ci et la première nation;
- b) promouvoir la coordination entre les associations de contribuables si plus d'une est formée par les contribuables.

8. Règlement des préoccupations des contribuables

8.1 La première nation doit établir un processus pour le règlement au niveau local des préoccupations des contribuables concernant toute question fiscale.

8.2 Le processus visé au paragraphe 8.1 doit notamment prévoir :

- a) des dispositions pour le règlement des préoccupations par les représentants de la première nation;
- b) dans les cas où les représentants de la première nation ne parviennent pas à régler des préoccupations, des dispositions pour leur règlement par d'autres mécanismes pouvant comprendre :
 - (i) un mécanisme de facilitation qui fait intervenir les services de la Commission ou d'un autre facilitateur qualifié,
 - (ii) la médiation.

 - (v) relating to legal proceedings.
- 4.2 Notices that contain the following will not be accepted for publication:
 - (a) advertising;
 - (b) content of a personal nature;

- (c) offensive or defamatory content;
 - (d) political content; or
 - (e) false, inaccurate, misleading or fraudulent information.
- 4.3 Notices that are contrary to this Policy or the Terms of Service will not be accepted for publication.
- 4.4 The Managing Editor may determine, in his or her sole discretion, whether a submitted Notice meets the criteria for publication in the Gazette.
- 4.5 The Managing Editor may, in his or her sole discretion, refuse to publish a Notice.
- 5. Publication Schedule
- 5.1 Subject to subsection 5.2, Notices will be published on an ongoing basis, as and when a Notice is accepted and approved for publication.
- 5.2 The Managing Editor may establish and publish on the Gazette website a schedule for the publication of Notices.

PART VII

USE OF PUBLIC NOTIFICATION SERVICE

- 6. Use of Service
- 6.1 Access to and use of the Service is provided on the terms and conditions, and subject to the requirements, set out in
- (a) this Policy;
 - (b) the Submission Guide; and
 - (c) the Terms of Service.
- 6.2 A Client must at all times comply with the terms, conditions and requirements referenced in subsection 6.1 when accessing and using the Service.
- 6.3 Each Client must accept and agree to be bound by the Terms of Service at the time of registration for an account, as a condition of using the Service.
- 7. Access to Service and Notice Submission
- 7.1 The Service is accessed online at the Gazette website.
- 7.2 To use the Service, a Client must
- (a) register for an account;
 - (b) access the Service through the Client's account; and
 - (c) use the online submission form to submit a Notice for requested publication.
- 8. Submission Requirements
- 8.1 A Client must provide, with each Notice submitted,
- (a) the requested date by which the Notice is to be published;
 - (b) the number of times the Notice is to be published; and
 - (c) any additional instructions respecting the Notice.
- 8.2 A Client must submit a Notice for requested publication by 12 noon (Pacific Standard Time) at least ten (10) business days before the requested publication date.

9. Client Responsibility

A Client is solely responsible for all aspects of a submitted Notice, including for ensuring that a Notice is provided in the form, with the content, within the time frame, and for the duration required by

- (a) this Policy;
- (b) any applicable enactment, including a statute, regulation, law or by-law; and
- (c) any other applicable policy, procedure or standard established by the Commission, other institution or government.

10. Review and Acceptance

10.1 The Managing Editor will process and review submitted Notices

- (a) on business days;
- (b) in the order they are received; and
- (c) where possible, within ten (10) business days of receipt.

10.2 The Managing Editor will review a Notice to determine whether all submission requirements are met.

10.3 In no circumstances will the Managing Editor advise a Client on any legal or substantive aspect of a Notice.

10.4 After reviewing a Notice under subsection 10.2, the Managing Editor will,

- (a) where a Notice meets all submission requirements, advise the Client that the Notice is accepted for publication and the anticipated publication date;
- (b) where a Notice does not meet all submission requirements, is incomplete, or contains errors or omissions, advise the Client
 - (i) that the Notice will not be published as submitted,
 - (ii) of the reasons the Notice will not be published as submitted, and of any errors or omissions in the Notice, and
 - (iii) whether there is sufficient time for corrections to be made to the submission before the requested publication date.

10.5 The Managing Editor may make changes to the font, format and style of a Notice submitted for publication in order to meet submission requirements.

11. Official Languages

11.1 Notices are accepted for publication in either or both official languages of Canada.

11.2 A Notice will be published in the language or languages in which it was submitted.

12. Cancellations

12.1 A Client may submit a request to cancel a Notice publication request if the Notice has not been published on the Gazette website.

12.2 Where a cancellation request is received before the Notice is published on the Gazette website, the Managing Editor will cancel the publication request.

12.3 Where a cancellation request is received after the Notice has been published on the Gazette website, the Managing Editor will advise the Client that the Notice has been published and cannot be cancelled.

13. Corrections

13.1 Where a Notice has been submitted for publication but has not been published, a Client may make a correction to the Notice by withdrawing the original version and submitting the corrected version.

13.2 Where a Client wishes to correct a published Notice, the Client may

- (a) submit a new Notice for the purposes of correcting the published Notice; and
- (b) request that the Managing Editor add a “correction” link to the original Notice to indicate that it has been corrected by the Client.

13.3 A Notice that has been published on the Gazette website can be corrected only in accordance with the procedure set out in this section.

14. Retractions

14.1 Where a Client wishes to retract a published Notice, the Client may submit a request to the Managing Editor that the Notice be retracted.

14.2 Where the Managing Editor receives a request under subsection 14.1, the Managing Editor will add a notation to the original Notice that it has been retracted and the date of the retraction.

14.3 A Notice can be retracted only in accordance with the procedure set out in this section.

PART VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

15. Enquiries and Contact Information

15.1 Inquiries with respect to the publication process can be made to the Managing Editor.

15.2 The Managing Editor may be contacted at the Commission address, by email at notice@fng.ca, or through the “contact us” form on the Gazette website.

PART IX

EFFECTIVE DATE

This Policy is established and in effect as of September 19, 2018.

POLITIQUE SUR LE SERVICE
DE PUBLICATION D'AVIS PUBLICS
DE LA GAZETTE DES PREMIÈRES NATIONS (2018)

PARTIE I PRÉAMBULE

ATTENDU :

- A. que les politiques sont établies par la Commission pour favoriser la réalisation de ses objectifs stratégiques et pour l'aider à s'acquitter des obligations que lui impose la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations;
- B. que la Commission gère la Gazette des premières nations, une publication numérique qui diffuse des avis publics sur les lois, les règlements administratifs et autres textes législatifs des Premières Nations et qui sert de référence faisant autorité en matière de droit des Premières Nations au Canada;
- C. que la Gazette des premières nations offre un service en ligne pour la publication d'avis publics concernant les affaires autochtones qui émanent des gouvernements des Premières Nations, d'autres gouvernements, des institutions gouvernementales et du secteur privé;
- D. que les avis publics favorisent la transparence dans la prise des textes législatifs et la gouvernance et que le service de publication d'avis publics offre aux gouvernements des Premières Nations et autres intéressés un mécanisme par lequel ils peuvent donner avis d'une vaste gamme de questions et offrir au public l'accès à ces avis sans frais.

PARTIE II
OBJET

La présente politique a pour objet d'énoncer la portée et les modalités de fonctionnement du service de publication d'avis publics de la Gazette des premières nations et de prévoir la politique et les procédures applicables à l'utilisation de ce service. Elle régit le fonctionnement et l'utilisation du service de publication d'avis publics.

PARTIE III
APPLICATION

La présente politique s'applique aux avis soumis pour être publiés par le service de publication d'avis publics de la Gazette des premières nations ainsi qu'aux clients qui utilisent ce service et accèdent au site Web de la Gazette.

Sauf disposition contraire de la présente politique, les termes utilisés dans celle-ci s'entendent au sens de la Loi.

PARTIE VI

FOURNITURE DU SERVICE DE PUBLICATION D'AVIS PUBLICS

1. Fourniture du Service

1.1 La Commission assure le fonctionnement continu du Service, y compris :

- a) le développement, l'administration et l'entretien du site Web de la Gazette et des technologies connexes nécessaires à la fourniture du Service;
- b) le traitement et la publication des avis soumis pour être publiés par le Service.

1.2 La Commission peut établir, publier et réviser, lorsqu'elle le juge nécessaire :

- a) la politique et les procédures relatives au Service;
- b) le Guide sur l'envoi d'avis;
- c) les conditions de service.

2. Portée et limites du Service

2.1 Tous les aspects de l'accès au Service et de la fourniture du Service sont réalisés en ligne, y compris l'inscription des comptes, l'envoi des avis à publier et la publication des avis.

2.2 Le site Web de la Gazette est accessible en tout temps au public pour consultation et aux clients pour l'envoi d'avis, sauf lors des interruptions prévues pour l'entretien du système et des interruptions imprévues dues à des pannes d'électricité ou de service.

2.3 Un préavis de chaque interruption prévue du Service est publié sur le site Web de la Gazette.

2.4 La Commission ne peut en aucun cas être tenue responsable envers un client ou quelque autre personne des interruptions du Service, qu'elles soient prévues ou imprévues ou qu'elles soient ou non attribuables à des actions ou inactions de la part de la Commission ou à quelque autre cause.

3. Format et emplacement des avis publiés

3.1 Les avis acceptés pour la publication sont publiés sur le site Web de la Gazette sous forme électronique.

3.2 Les avis sont publiés sur le site Web de la Gazette à l'emplacement que le directeur de rédaction choisit périodiquement.

3.3 Le public peut consulter les avis publiés sur le site Web de la Gazette.

3.4 Après qu'un avis a été publié sur le site Web de la Gazette pour la période demandée, il peut :

- a) soit demeurer publié sur le site Web de la Gazette;
- b) soit être archivé sur le site Web de la Gazette ou dans un autre emplacement.

4. Avis acceptés

4.1 Les avis des catégories suivantes sont acceptés pour la publication :

- a) les avis et annonces des gouvernements des Premières Nations, y compris :
 - (i) ceux exigés par une loi ou s'y rapportant, notamment la Loi, la Loi sur les Indiens, la Loi sur la gestion des terres des premières nations et la Loi sur la taxe sur les produits et services des premières nations,
 - (ii) ceux exigés par les lois, les règlements administratifs et autres textes législatifs d'une Première Nation,
 - (iii) ceux exigés par une politique, une procédure ou une norme de la Commission, d'une autre institution ou d'un gouvernement,
 - (iv) ceux concernant les élections et les référendums tenus par le gouvernement d'une Première Nation,
 - (v) ceux concernant les nominations faites par le gouvernement d'une Première Nation,
 - (vi) ceux concernant des terres et portant notamment sur un règlement de droits fonciers issus de traités, des désignations, la gestion de terres, des ajouts aux réserves ou des expropriations,
 - (vii) ceux concernant des revendications et des règlements;
- b) les avis et annonces d'autres gouvernements (gouvernement fédéral, gouvernements territoriaux ou provinciaux et administrations municipales) ou des institutions gouvernementales

qui sont destinés aux Premières Nations, aux intervenants et au public, y compris :

- (i) ceux exigés par une loi ou s'y rapportant,
 - (ii) ceux concernant des consultations et la présentation d'observations par le public,
 - (iii) ceux concernant des politiques, des procédures ou des normes proposées en vertu de la Loi,
 - (iv) ceux concernant des nominations faites par des gouvernements et des institutions gouvernementales,
 - (v) ceux concernant les droits ancestraux et issus de traités;
- c) les avis et annonces de personnes morales, de cabinets d'avocats et d'autres personnes qui ont trait aux affaires autochtones, y compris :
- (i) ceux exigés par une loi ou s'y rapportant,
 - (ii) ceux concernant des consultations et la présentation d'observations par le public,
 - (iii) ceux concernant des ordonnances et des décisions,
 - (iv) ceux concernant des prix de reconnaissance et des nominations,
 - (v) ceux concernant des instances judiciaires.

4.2 Les avis contenant l'un ou l'autre des éléments suivants ne sont pas acceptés pour la publication :

- a) de la publicité;
- b) un contenu de nature personnelle;
- c) un contenu offensant ou diffamatoire;
- d) un contenu politique;
- e) des informations fausses, inexactes, trompeuses ou frauduleuses.

4.3 Les avis non conformes à la présente politique ou aux conditions de service ne sont pas acceptés pour la publication.

4.4 Le directeur de rédaction peut, à son entière discrétion, déterminer si un avis soumis satisfait aux critères de publication dans la Gazette.

4.5 Le directeur de rédaction peut, à son entière discrétion, refuser de publier un avis.

5. Calendrier de publication

5.1 Sous réserve du paragraphe 5.2, les avis sont publiés sur une base permanente, au fur et à mesure qu'ils sont acceptés et approuvés pour la publication.

5.2 Le directeur de rédaction peut établir et publier sur le site Web de la Gazette un calendrier de publication des avis.

PARTIE VII

UTILISATION DU SERVICE DE PUBLICATION D'AVIS PUBLICS

6. Utilisation du Service

6.1 L'accès au Service et son utilisation sont assujettis aux conditions et aux exigences énoncées dans :

- a) la présente politique;
- b) le Guide sur l'envoi d'avis;
- c) les conditions de service.

6.2 Chaque client doit respecter les conditions et les exigences visées au paragraphe 6.1 lorsqu'il accède au Service et l'utilise.

6.3 En tant que condition d'utilisation du Service, chaque client est tenu, au moment de s'inscrire pour créer un compte, d'accepter les conditions de service et de s'engager à les respecter.

7. Accès au Service et envoi des avis

7.1 L'accès au Service se fait en ligne sur le site Web de la Gazette.

7.2 Pour utiliser le Service, le client doit :

- a) s'inscrire pour créer un compte;
- b) accéder au Service par l'entremise de son compte;
- c) utiliser le formulaire en ligne pour soumettre l'avis qu'il souhaite faire publier.

8. Exigences relatives à l'envoi d'avis

8.1 Le client doit fournir, avec chaque avis qu'il soumet :

- a) une indication de la date de publication demandée;
- b) une indication du nombre de fois que l'avis doit être publié;
- c) s'il y a lieu, des instructions supplémentaires concernant l'avis.

8.2 Le client doit soumettre l'avis qu'il souhaite faire publier au plus tard à midi (heure normale du Pacifique) au moins dix (10) jours ouvrables avant la date de publication demandée.

9. Responsabilité du client

Le client a l'entière responsabilité de tous les aspects de l'avis à publier, y compris s'assurer que l'avis est soumis conformément aux exigences de forme, de contenu, de délai et de durée de publication prévues par :

- a) la présente politique;
- b) tout texte législatif applicable, notamment une loi, un règlement ou un règlement administratif;
- c) toute autre politique, procédure ou norme applicable établie par la Commission, une autre institution ou un gouvernement.

10. Examen et acceptation

10.1 Le directeur de rédaction traite et examine les avis soumis :

- a) pendant les jours ouvrables;
- b) dans l'ordre de leur réception;
- c) dans la mesure du possible, dans les dix (10) jours ouvrables suivant leur réception.

10.2 Le directeur de rédaction examine chaque avis afin de déterminer si toutes les exigences relatives à l'envoi d'avis ont été respectées.

10.3 Le directeur de rédaction ne peut en aucun cas donner au client des conseils sur des questions de droit ou de fond concernant un avis.

10.4 Après avoir fait l'examen d'un avis conformément au paragraphe 10.2, le directeur de rédaction :

- a) si l'avis satisfait à toutes les exigences relatives à l'envoi d'avis, informe le client que l'avis est accepté pour la publication et lui indique la date de publication envisagée;
- b) si l'avis ne satisfait pas à toutes les exigences relatives à l'envoi d'avis ou s'il est incomplet ou contient des erreurs ou des omissions, informe le client :
 - (i) que l'avis ne sera pas publié tel que soumis,
 - (ii) des raisons pour lesquelles l'avis ne sera pas publié tel que soumis et lui signale les erreurs ou les omissions,
 - (iii) qu'il a ou non suffisamment de temps pour apporter des corrections à l'avis avant la date de publication demandée.

10.5 Le directeur de rédaction peut apporter des changements de caractères, de format et de style à un avis pour que celui-ci satisfasse aux exigences relatives à l'envoi d'avis.

11. Langues officielles

11.1 Les avis sont acceptés pour la publication dans l'une ou l'autre ou les deux langues officielles du Canada.

11.2 L'avis est publié dans la langue ou les langues dans lesquelles il a été soumis.

12. Annulations

12.1 Le client peut soumettre une demande pour faire annuler une demande de publication d'un avis si l'avis n'a pas encore été publié sur le site Web de la Gazette.

12.2 Si la demande d'annulation est reçue avant la publication de l'avis sur le site Web de la Gazette, le directeur de rédaction annule la demande de publication.

12.3 Si la demande d'annulation est reçue après que l'avis a été publié sur le site Web de la Gazette, le directeur de rédaction avise le client que l'avis a été publié et ne peut être annulé.

13. Corrections

13.1 Si un avis a été soumis pour publication mais n'a pas encore été publié, le client peut apporter des corrections à l'avis en retirant la version originale et en soumettant la version corrigée.

13.2 S'il souhaite corriger un avis déjà publié, le client peut :

- a) d'une part, soumettre un nouvel avis afin de corriger l'avis publié;
- b) d'autre part, demander que le directeur de rédaction ajoute un lien de « correction » vers l'avis original pour indiquer que celui-ci a été corrigé par le client.

13.3 Un avis publié sur le site Web de la Gazette ne peut être corrigé qu'en conformité avec la procédure énoncée au présent article.

14. Rétractations

14.1 S'il souhaite rétracter un avis déjà publié, le client peut soumettre une demande de rétractation au directeur de rédaction.

Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Beaver Lake Cree Nation in the Province of Alberta,

Beaver Lake Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 29th day of May, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

BEAVER LAKE CREE NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Beaver Lake Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Beaver Lake Cree Nation Property Assessment Law, 2018;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means the Beaver Lake Cree Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and “Taxation Law” means the Beaver Lake Cree Nation Property Taxation Law, 2018.

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2018, and ending December 31, 2018, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 30th day of April, 2018, at Beaver Lake Cree Nation, in the Province of Alberta.

A quorum of Council consists of 3 members of Council.

(4) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(5) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;
- (d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(3) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(4) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

- (3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

- 10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

- (a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or
- (b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

- (a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;
- (b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and
- (c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

- (a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or
 - (b) it is a meeting with the auditor.
- (6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(3) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and
- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;
- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;
- (i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;
- (j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

(a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;

(b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;

(c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;

(d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;

(e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and

(f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
- (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(3) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(3) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(4) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(5) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
- (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
- (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
- (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
- (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
- (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
- (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
- (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(3) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(4) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(3) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

- (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
- (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
- (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(4) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

- (a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and
- (b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(3) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(3) All interest earned on

- (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
- (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
- (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(4) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(3) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(4) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(3) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.
- (4) The First Nation may carry on a business that
 - (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or
 - (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.
- (5) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities
 - (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
 - (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.
- (6) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(3) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(4) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

- (a) authorized under section 105;
- (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
- (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(5) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(3) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(4) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(5) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;
- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,
 - (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
 - (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and
- (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local RevenuesAnnual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit

the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or
- (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or
- (b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and
- (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant
 - (i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

- (ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.
- (4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances
 - (a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and
 - (b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

- (a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and
 - (b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.
- (2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must
- (a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and
 - (b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.
- (3) The auditor must be given notice of
- (a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
 - (b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.
- (4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.
- (5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.
- (6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

- (a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and
- (b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by the Council;
- (b) be signed by
 - (i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,
 - (ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (iii) the senior financial officer; and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(3) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(4) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

- (a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or
- (b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

- (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
- (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
- (c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year;
and
- (d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

- (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
- (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
- (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

- (a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

- (b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

"replacement" includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation's tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation's tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;

- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(3) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(4) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;
- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out
 - (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

- (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
 - (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(3) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;
- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;

- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(3) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

- 98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if
- (a) the First Nation is
 - (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
 - (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

- (c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

- (a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or
- (b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(3) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(4) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
- (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

- (2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.
- (3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.
- (4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.
- (5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.
- (6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 23 day of Jan, 2018, at La Crosse in the Province of Alberta at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of three (3) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART VII - Interpretation

Interpretation

109.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

110.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

- (a) the individual’s spouse,
- (b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,
- (c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,
- (d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and
- (e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART VIII - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

111. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

112.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

113.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

- (a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or
- (b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

- (a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);
- (b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;
- (c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and
- (d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(4) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

- (a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;
- (b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(5) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(6) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

114.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

115.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(3) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(4) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

116.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

117.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

118.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

- (b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART IX - Officers and Employees

Application

- 119. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

120.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

121. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

- (a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

122.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

- (a) would be considered within
 - (i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
 - (ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

- (b) is of nominal value;
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or
- (d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

123.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

124.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

- (a) to members of the public; or
- (b) to members of the First Nation.

(3) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(4) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

125.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART X - Contractors

Application

126.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

127. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

128.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(3) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(4) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

129.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

130. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

131. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

BIGSTONE COUNCIL RESOLUTION

Date of duly convened meeting	Day: 08	Month: 25	Year: 2018	Province: Alberta
-------------------------------	---------	-----------	------------	-------------------

DO HEREBY RESOLVE:

WHEREAS, the Chief and Council of Bigstone Cree Nation met at a duly convened meeting on the above date and;

WHEREAS, the Chief and Council of Bigstone Cree Nation are empowered to act on behalf of its' Membership and;

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Bigstone Cree First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Bigstone Cree First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Bigstone Cree First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means the Bigstone Cree First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Bigstone Cree First Nation Property Assessment and Taxation By-law.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning January 1, 2018 and ending December 31, 2018, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 8 day of May, 2018, at Wabasca, in the Province of Alberta.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;

(d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

- (3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

- 10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the director of finance must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

- (7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if
 - (a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or
 - (b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

- (2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,
 - (a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;
 - (b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and
 - (c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14. (1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the band administrator and the director of finance must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The band administrator or the director of finance may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

- (a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the band administrator or the director of finance; or
 - (b) it is a meeting with the auditor.
- (6) The Committee must meet
- (a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the band administrator, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term
 - (i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,
 - (ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,
 - (iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and
 - (iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;
- (b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;
- (c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and
- (d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;
- (b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;
- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;

- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;
- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and

- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Band administrator

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as band administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the band administrator is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the band administrator considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the band administrator under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the band administrator's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The band administrator may assign the performance of any of the band administrator's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and
- (b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the band administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Director of finance

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as director of finance of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the band administrator, the director of finance is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;
- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;
- (i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;
- (j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;
- (l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (n) to perform any other duties of the director of finance under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the band administrator that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the director of finance's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the band administrator, the director of finance may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the director of finance to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the director of finance of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the director of finance, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the director of finance the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the director of finance the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the band administrator, director of finance, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the band administrator, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;

- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
 - (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the band administrator, the director of finance, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).
- (3) On request, the band administrator must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.
- (4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the band administrator must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.
- (5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;
- (c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and
- (d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
- (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
- (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;

- (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
- (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
- (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
- (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
- (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the director of finance must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

- (a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and
- (b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the director of finance must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

- (a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and
- (c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and

- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the band administrator or the director of finance.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;
- (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
- (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
- (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The director of finance must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The director of finance

- (a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and
- (b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The band administrator may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the band administrator the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

- (a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and
- (b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

- (a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or
- (b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

- (a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or
- (b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The band administrator or the director of finance must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the band administrator or director of finance may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the band administrator or the director of finance.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The band administrator or the director of finance may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

- (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
- (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
- (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the director of finance to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the director of finance may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the director of finance recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the band administrator or the director of finance.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or
- (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
- (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the director of finance under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the director of finance must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

- (a) authorized under section 105;
- (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
- (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the director of finance to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;
- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the director of finance must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,
 - (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
 - (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the director of finance may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the band administrator must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the band administrator must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

“fraudulent financial reporting” means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

“fraudulent non-financial reporting” means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The director of finance must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the director of finance must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the director of finance must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The director of finance must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the director of finance must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The director of finance must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and
- (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the director of finance must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The director of finance must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local RevenuesAnnual Financial Statements

74.(1) The director of finance must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The director of finance must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;

- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or
- (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or
- (b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and
- (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

- (a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and
- (b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

- (b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by the Council;
- (b) be signed by
 - (i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,
 - (ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (iii) the director of finance; and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

- (a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or
- (b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

- (2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:
 - (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;

(b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;

(c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and

(d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The band administrator must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

(a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;

(b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and

(c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the band administrator to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The band administrator must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The band administrator must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the director of finance must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

“capital project” means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

“First Nation’s tangible capital assets” means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

- (a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,
- (b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,
- (c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and
- (d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

“rehabilitation” includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the band administrator must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;

- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The band administrator must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the band administrator must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;

(g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;

(h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and

(i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the director of finance must prepare the following:

(a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

(b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;

(c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

(i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

(ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and

(iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and

(d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out

(i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,

(ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,

(iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and

(iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

(a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;

(b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and

(c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;
- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The band administrator may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the band administrator, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

(a) the First Nation is

(i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or

(ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

- (a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,
- (b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,
- (c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or
- (d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the band administrator or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the band administrator under subsection 101(3), the band administrator must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the band administrator, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The band administrator and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

“indemnify” means pay amounts required or incurred to

(a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

“First Nation official” means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 13th day of December, 2017, at Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of five (5) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual’s private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) “real property” includes an interest in a reserve held under

- (a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or
- (b) the First Nation’s traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the band administrator:

- (a) the names of the councillor’s spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);
- (b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor’s spouse;
- (c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor’s spouse; and
- (d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor’s spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

- (a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;
- (b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and
- (c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The band administrator must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the band administrator must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

- (i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,
- (ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
- (iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the band administrator under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

- (a) to members of the public; or
- (b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The band administrator must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

- (a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the band administrator or, in the case of the band administrator, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the band administrator or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

- (a) would be considered within
 - (i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
 - (ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;
- (b) is of nominal value;
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the band administrator or, in the case of the band administrator, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Enoch Cree Nation in the Province of Alberta,

Enoch Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018

Dated at Calgary, Alberta this 31st day of July, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

ENOCH CREE NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Enoch Cree Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Enoch Cree Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Enoch Cree Nation Property Assessment Law, 2016;

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(4) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(5) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;
- (d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;
- (e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and
- (f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(3) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(4) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;
- (b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;
- (c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;
- (d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and
- (e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member’s term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member’s term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term
 - (i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,
 - (ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,
 - (iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and
 - (iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;
- (b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;
- (c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and
- (d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(3) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;
- (b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;
- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;
- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and
- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and
- (b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;

- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;
- (i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;
- (j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;
- (l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and
- (o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
- (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;
- (c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and
- (d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(3) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(3) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(4) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
 - (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and
 - (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.
- (5) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:
- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
 - (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
 - (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
 - (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

- 24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

- 25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that
- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
 - (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
 - (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
 - (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
 - (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
 - (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
 - (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(3) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(4) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

- (a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and
- (b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

- (a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and
- (c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

- (3) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:
- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
 - (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;
 - (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
 - (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
 - (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(4) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

- (2) The senior financial officer
- (a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and
 - (b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

- (a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or
- (b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

- (a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or
- (b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(3) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

- (3) All interest earned on
 - (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
 - (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
 - (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(4) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off
- (a) if approved by the Council; or

- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(3) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(4) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(3) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(4) The First Nation may carry on a business that

- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

- (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(5) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
- (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(6) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(3) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

- (4) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is
 - (a) authorized under section 105;
 - (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
 - (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(5) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(3) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(4) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(5) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;

- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,
 - (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
 - (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and
- (d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and
- (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

(a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by the Council;
- (b) be signed by
 - (i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,
 - (ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (iii) the senior financial officer; and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(3) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(4) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

- (a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or
- (b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

- (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
- (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
- (c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and
- (d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

- (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
- (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
- (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

- (a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,
- (b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,
- (c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and
- (d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

“rehabilitation” includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation’s tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(3) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(4) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;
- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

- (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
 - (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
- (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(3) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;

- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(3) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

- (a) the First Nation is
 - (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
- (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

- (c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

“indemnify” means pay amounts required or incurred to

- (a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or
- (b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

“First Nation official” means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(3) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(4) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
 - (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.
- (2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69-74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 9th day of April, 2018, at Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of four (4) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART VII - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART VIII - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

- (a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or
- (b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

- (a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);
- (b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;
- (c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and
- (d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(4) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

- (a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;
- (b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and
- (c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(5) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(6) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(3) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(4) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

(b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART IX - Officers and Employees

Application

- 11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

- (a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

- (a) would be considered within
 - (i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
 - (ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;
- (b) is of nominal value;
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(3) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(4) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART X - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(3) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(4) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

SIKSIKA NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1) (a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Siksika Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Siksika Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.
2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ Council wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ Property Assessment Law, 2017;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ under a local revenue law and payments made to ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and “Taxation Law” means ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ Property Taxation Law, 2017.

3. ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the ʔAqam in the Province of British Columbia,

ʔAqam Annual Rates Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 12th day of June, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manry) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ council may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ council has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“taxable property” means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

“Taxation Law” means the ᑭᐱᑭᐱᑭ Property Taxation Law, 2017.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2018 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than one hundred dollars ($100), the taxable property shall be taxed at one hundred dollars ($100) for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

6. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

7. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

8. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

9. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 7th day of June, 2018, at Cranbrook,

- (e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and
- (f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing at ?aqam’s administrative office.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least ten (10) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;
- (b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;
- (c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;
- (d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and
- (e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another ?aqam law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of ?aqam.

PART VI - Administration

DIVISION 7 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) ?aqam Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of ?aqam whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or representative agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable ?aqam law, ?aqam Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or representative agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, chair and vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of ?aqam;

- (d) the approval of borrowing of ?aqam;
- (e) the approval of new capital projects; and
- (f) the approval of the acquisition or disposition of tangible capital assets.

(3) Obtain advice, assistance and training in order to achieve financial competency in relation to decision-making under this Law.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of ?aqam.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting the acquisition, management, disposal and safeguarding of ?aqam assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of ?aqam that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration, Expenses and Contracts

10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of ?aqam in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Subject to applicable provincial and federal privacy laws, annually the Director of Finance must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by ?aqam, and by any entity, to each Councillor whether such amounts are paid to the Councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity:

- (a) the total amount of remuneration, expenses and benefits, including coverage under policies for insurance or medical, dental or related services, paid or provided by ?aqam to a Councillor and to each of the dependents of the Councillor;

(b) any contracts between ?aqam and a Councillor and between ?aqam and a dependent of the Councillor for the supply of goods or services, including a general description of the nature of the contracts;

(c) the total amount of remuneration, expenses and benefits, including coverage under policies for insurance or medical, dental or related services, paid or provided by ?aqam to the Chief Operating Officer and to each of the dependents of the Chief Operating Officer;

(d) any contracts between ?aqam and the Chief Operating Officer and between ?aqam and a dependent of the Chief Operating Officer for the supply of goods or services, including a general description of the nature of the contracts;

(e) the total amount of remuneration, expenses and benefits, including coverage under policies for insurance or medical, dental or related services, paid or provided by ?aqam to the Director of Finance and to each of the dependents of the Director of Finance; and

(f) any contracts between ?aqam and the Director of Finance and between ?aqam and a dependent of the Director of Finance for the supply of goods or services, including a general description of the nature of the contracts.

(2) Subsection (1) does not require the reporting of remuneration, expenses or benefits received

(a) in common by all members of ?aqam;

(b) under a program or service universally accessible to all members of ?aqam on published terms and conditions; or

(c) from a trust arrangement according to the terms of the trust.

(3) If the Director of Finance becomes aware of any information contained in a report completed under this section which may indicate a contravention of this Law, the Director of Finance must report this information to Council.

DIVISION 8 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, "Committee" means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) ?aqam Finance and Audit Committee is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of ?aqam.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must have independence.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with ?aqam government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) ?aqam Council must establish policies, procedures or give directions

(a) Setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least two(2) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years, Councillors as Committee members will have terms concurrent with their Council terms, unless Council portfolios are altered.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) Council must appoint a chairperson and a vice-chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a Councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-Councillor as chairperson of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings,

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to council respecting matters before it, and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14. (1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) Councillor.

(2) Where quorum is impossible to obtain due to conflict of interest or exclusion of a member from a meeting, the decision must be referred to a quorum of Council.

(3) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(4) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote unless they are in a position of a conflict, in which case a quorum of Council must cast the second tiebreaking vote.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), the Chief Operating Officer and the Director of Finance must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(6) The Chief Operating Officer or the Director of Finance may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the Chief Operating Officer or the Director of Finance; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(7) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(8) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(9) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(10) After consultation with the Director of Finance, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of ?aqam:

(a) Annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term financial

- (i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,
 - (ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,
 - (iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and
 - (iv) plans, projections and priorities;
- (b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;
- (c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of ?aqam against the budget and report any significant variations to Council; and
- (d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(3) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of ?aqam that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Finance and Audit Committee responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of ?aqam:

- (a) make recommendations to Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;
- (b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;
- (c) review and make recommendations to Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual local revenue account financial statements and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the Councillors, officers and employees of ?aqam;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 105 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of ?aqam:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any ?aqam reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of ?aqam accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in ?aqam accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of ?aqam financial assets, including debts owed to ?aqam;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on ?aqam risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of ?aqam, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;
- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of ?aqam's insurance coverage respecting significant ?aqam risks; and
- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 9 - Officers and Employees

Chief Operating Officer

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as Chief Operating Officer of ?aqam and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the Chief Operating Officer is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of ?aqam, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of ?aqam;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of ?aqam;
- (c) to hire the employees of ?aqam, as the Chief Operating Officer considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of ?aqam;
- (e) to dismiss the employees of ?aqam, other than the Director of Finance, in accordance with human resource policies and procedures;
- (f) to oversee and administer the contracts of ?aqam;
- (g) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (h) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (i) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (h) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (j) to perform any other duties of the Chief Operating Officer under this Law; and
- (k) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the Chief Operating Officer's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The Chief Operating Officer may assign the performance of any of the Chief Operating Officer's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of ?aqam; and
- (b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or representative agent of ?aqam.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the Chief Operating Officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Director of Finance

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as Director of Finance of ?aqam and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Chief Operating Officer, the Director of Finance is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of ?aqam, including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

- (b) to administer and maintain ?aqam's Chart of Accounts.
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting ?aqam's local revenues;
- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 72, the quarterly financial statements required in section 73 and the draft annual financial statements required in section 74 and section 75;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);
- (f) to prepare the draft annual and multi-year financial plan for review by the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (g) to actively monitor the compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by ?aqam;
- (h) to actively monitor the financial administration of capital projects;
- (i) administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (j) administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of ?aqam to facilitate the annual audit;
- (k) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable ?aqam law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of ?aqam;
- (l) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (m) to evaluate the financial administration systems of ?aqam and recommend improvements;
- (n) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (o) to develop and recommend procedures for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (p) to perform any other duties of the Director of Finance under this Law; and
- (q) to carry out any other activities specified by the Chief Operating Officer that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the Director of Finance's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the Chief Operating Officer, the Director of Finance may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the Director of Finance to any officer, employee, contractor or representative agent of ?aqam, but this assignment does not relieve the Director of Finance of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) Council must appoint a person as tax administrator for ?aqam and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Chief Operating Officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under ?aqam local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions ?aqam's local revenue law and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the Chief Operating officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the Chief Operating officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the Chief Operating Officer, Director of Finance, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, ?aqam's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the Chief Operating Officer, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator under this Law to any officer, employee, contractor or representative agent of ?aqam, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of ?aqam.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of ?aqam;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and

(d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including

(i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and ?aqam,

(ii) the Chief Operating Officer, the Director of Finance, the tax administrator and other officers of ?aqam, and

(iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the Chief Operating Officer must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a Councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or representative agent of ?aqam and a member of ?aqam.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the Chief Operating Officer must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that ?aqam hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of ?aqam.

DIVISION 10 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of ?aqam, a Councillor must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable ?aqam law and any applicable standards;

(b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of ?aqam;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law by independent investigation or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a Councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

(3) Council may, in accordance with ?aqam laws, take further disciplinary action against a Councillor who has contravened this section.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures in respect of disciplinary action taken against a Councillor under this section by a Councillor.

(5) The Council must make policies or procedures in respect of the independent investigation of an alleged contravention of this section by a Councillor.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and representative agent of ?aqam;
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or ?aqam; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or ?aqam who is not a Councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of ?aqam, that person must:

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable ?aqam law and any applicable standards;
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of ?aqam;
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of ?aqam;
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a Councillor; and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every representative agent of ?aqam.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
- (d) the appointment of a representative agent may be revoked.

PART VII - Financial Management

DIVISION 7 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of ?aqam is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31st of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
- (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
- (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
- (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
- (e) in respect of transfers between funds, the amounts required for capital purposes including from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
- (f) show all categories of restricted cash; and
- (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

26. (1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which ?aqam is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category, and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from ?aqam's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from ?aqam's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under ?aqam's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before March 15 of each year, the Director of Finance must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before March 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for ʔaᓄam for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before September 30 of each year, the Director of Finance must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting ʔaᓄam's local revenues.

(5) On or before September 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting ʔaᓄam's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting ʔaᓄam's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or related to local revenues

(b) the multi-year financial plan of ʔaᓄam demonstrates how and when this deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced beginning the year following the year the deficit was incurred; and

(c) the deficit does not cause ʔaᓄam to default on existing financial and legal obligations.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) ʔaᓄam annual budget must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 39, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of ʔaᓄam or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of ʔaᓄam.

Local Revenue Account Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to the local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for Member Information or Involvement

31.(1) ?aqam Council must establish policies or procedures respecting the means by which members of ?aqam must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting ?aqam's local revenue account;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) ?aqamnik may attend any Council meeting.

DIVISION 8 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of ?aqam unless the account is

- (a) in the name of ?aqam;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the Chief Operating Officer or the Director of Finance.

(2) ?aqam must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraph (b); and
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues.

(3) a trust account if ?aqam has money held in trust. ?aqam may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage ?aqam's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The Director of Finance must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by ?aqam.

(2) The Director of Finance

(a) must deposit all money received by ?aqam as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 9 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that permitted under a local revenue law.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. ?aqam must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires ?aqam to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or Act.

Payments from Accounts

36.(1) Subject to subsection 39(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

(3) Council must establish policies and procedures for the authorization of payments from accounts.

No Expenditure without Appropriation

37.(1) Subject to subsection 39(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

38.(1) The Chief Operating Officer may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another ?aqam law.

(2) ?aqam Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the Chief Operating Officer the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

39.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by ?aqam in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for ?aqam for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

40.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

41.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

- (a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or
- (b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

- (a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or
- (b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The Chief Operating Officer and/or the Director of Finance must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account pursuant to their level of authorization as set by Council from time to time.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the Chief Operating Officer or Director of Finance may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation pursuant to their level of authorization as set by Council from time to time.

Form of Payment

42.(1) Payments by ?aqam may be made by credit card, cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures for the authorization of payments by credit card, cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument.

DIVISION 10 - General Matters

Advances

43.(1) The Chief Operating Officer or Director of Finance may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The Tax Administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from the local revenue account in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

44. If ?aqam withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the liability created through initial payments. This liability is recognized and appropriations made in the respective fiscal year of the agreed appropriations.

Deposit Money

45. (1) Money received by ?aqam as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with:

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provision respecting that matter, any policy or directions of Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

46. (1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

- (a) a trust account must be retained in that account; and
- (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, ?aqam may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by Council on any debts or payments owed to ?aqam that are overdue.

Refunds

47. (1) Money received by ?aqam that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to ?aqam may be written off

- (a) as recommended by the Finance and Audit Committee;

- (b) if approved by Council;
- (c) if appropriate allowance has been set aside to cover written off amounts; or
- (d) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

49. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to ?aqam may be forgiven

- (a) only if approved by Council;
- (b) only if done under the authority of a policy or direction of Council; and
- (c) if the debtor is deceased and there is insufficient funds available from their estate.

Year-end Surplus

50. (1) Subject to subsection (2), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account, must not be comingled with other ?aqam funds and must not be used for purposes not authorized in a local revenue law.

DIVISION 11 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

51.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, ?aqam must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if ?aqam is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the Director of Finance to borrow money or grant security in the name of ?aqam

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
 - (b) in accordance with the policies and procedures made by the Council.
- (3) Proceeds of borrowing must only be used for the intended purpose of the borrowing.
- (4) There must be a secured funding source to service the debt.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

52.(1) ?aqam may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) ?aqam may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) ?aqam may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of ?aqam.

Financial Agreements

53.(1) ?aqam may enter into the following agreements in the name of ?aqam:

(a) for the purpose of efficient management of ?aqam's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and

(b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of ?aqam's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Council, Chief Operating Officer or Director of Finance may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of ?aqam.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

54.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the Director of Finance recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, ?aqam may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

55.(1) This section applies if ?aqam is a borrowing member.

(2) If ?aqam has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, ?aqam must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) ?aqam may only obtain long-term financing referred to in subsection (2) as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by ?aqam from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

56.(1) Council must establish policies or procedures respecting the means by which members of ?aqam must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Borrowing for new capital projects and infrastructure must be repaid within the reasonable life expectancy of the capital project, work or service for which the money was borrowed.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

57. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, ?aqam may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of ?aqam, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1), or a debt owed to the First Nations Finance Authority.

Use of Borrowed Money

58.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by ?aqam for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by ?aqam and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 66(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

59.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by ?aqam must be signed by a Councillor designated by the Council and by the Chief Operating Officer or the Director of Finance.

(2) A security granted by ?aqam in respect of local revenues must be signed by a Councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

60. Council must establish policies or procedures respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of ?aqam's operations.

DIVISION 12 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

61.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), ?aqam must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
 - (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
 - (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.
- (2) ?aqam may carry on a business that
- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of ?aqam governance; or
 - (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or license of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, ?aqam's lands or lands owned in fee simple by or in trust for ?aqam, or
 - (ii) any other property of ?aqam.
- (3) ?aqam may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if Council determines that the business activities
- (a) do not result in a material liability for ?aqam; or
 - (b) do not otherwise expose ?aqam's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

Guarantees and Indemnities

62.(1) ?aqam must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the Director of Finance under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the Director of Finance must prepare a report for the Committee to review and provide to Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of ?aqam to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

- (3) ?aqam must not give an indemnity unless it is
- (a) authorized under section 104;
 - (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which ?aqam is a party; or
 - (c) in relation to a security granted by ?aqam that is authorized under this Law or another ?aqam law.
- (4) Subject to a resolution described in section 104, Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:
- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of ʔaǰam and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by ʔaǰam.

Authority to Invest

63.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another ʔaǰam law, ʔaǰam must not invest ʔaǰam's financial assets.

(2) If ʔaǰam is authorized in this Law to invest ʔaǰam's financial assets, the Council may authorize the Director of Finance to invest ʔaǰam's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

64.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by ʔaǰam in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any class of investments permitted under an Act of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by ʔaǰam as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of ʔaǰam's lands are located.

(3) If ʔaǰam has established an investment account under section 32, ʔaǰam may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which ʔaǰam is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which ʔaǰam is a beneficiary; or

(c) a limited partnership in which ?aqam is a partner.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, government transfer funds and local revenue funds and other revenues may only be invested by ?aqam in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c), or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority.

Loans for ?aqamnik Activities

65.(1) ?aqam may only make a loan to a member of ?aqam or to an entity in which a member of ?aqam has an interest if the loan is made from a program of ?aqam that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the Director of Finance must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must, subject to provincial and federal privacy laws, satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of ?aqam;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of ?aqam;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about the amounts loaned, the purposes of the loans, the names of those receiving a loan and repayments of principal and interest on loans; and
- (d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

66.(1) If ?aqam is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the Director of Finance may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If ?aqam is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

67.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, ?aqam must identify and assess any significant risks to ?aqam's financial assets, ?aqam's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of ?aqam.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the Chief Operating Officer must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

68. (1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 64 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of ?aqam.

(2) On the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a Councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a Councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risk

69.(1) In this section:

“fraudulent financial reporting” means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

“fraudulent non-financial reporting” means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of ?aqam assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in ?aqam:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 13 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

70. All accounting practices of ?aqam must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

71. (1) The Director of Finance must account for local revenues of ?aqam separately from other moneys of ?aqam.

(2) If ?aqam has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the Director of Finance must

- (a) account for all other revenues of ?aqam separately from other moneys of ?aqam; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

72.(1) The Director of Finance must prepare and provide, each month, financial information in respect of ?aqam and departmental financial affairs to the Councillors and the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The Chief Operating Officer and/or Director of Finance must provide any significant risks associated to ?aqam financial affairs to the Finance and Audit Committee and/or Council when outside of the quarterly review cycle.

Quarterly Financial Statements

73.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year the Director of Finance must prepare financial statements for ?aqam for that quarter in compliance with GAAP.

(2) The Director of Finance must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) Director of Finance will present quarterly Financial Statements at the next scheduled Council meeting.

(4) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and must be approved by Council.

Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) At the end of each fiscal year the Director of Finance must prepare the annual financial statements of ?aqam for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(2) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of ?aqam for the fiscal year;
- (b) the financial information for the local revenue account that is required to meet the Board standards respecting audit of the local revenue account; and
- (c) the revenue categories for ?aqam's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(3) The annual financial statements must include the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 67(3)(c);
- (d) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by ?aqam;
- (e) a report setting out moneys of ?aqam derived from ?aqam land code activities, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from ?aqam lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

(4) The Director of Finance must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within seventy-five (75) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(5) Audited annual financial statements are to be presented to Council for review within ninety (90) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

75.(1) The Director of Finance must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting ?aqam's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit ?aqam to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and ?aqam chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Audit Requirements

76.(1) The annual financial statements of ?aqam referred to in subsection 74 must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 75 must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants.

(4) The auditor must conduct that part of the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account in accordance with Board standards for the audit of local revenue accounts and must report on that account separately from other accounts.

(5) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit opinion or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 74.

Appointment of Auditor

77.(1) ?aqam must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

(a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or

(b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

(a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act, and Board standards, where applicable, or

(b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of ?aqam, an auditor must

(a) be independent of ?aqam, its related bodies, Councillors and officers and members; and

(b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

(i) in good standing with the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing; and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of ?aqam are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise ?aqam in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

78.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of ?aqam, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of ?aqam for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any Councillor, officer, employee, contractor or representative agent of ?aqam to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of ?aqam as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of ?aqam.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

(7) If the auditor may attend or call a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or a Council meeting, he or she may do so by telephone or by other communications medium if all the participants in the meeting are able to communicate with each other.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee and/or Council for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(2) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in section 74 and section 75 may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by quorum of Council;
- (b) be signed by
 - (i) Nasu?kin (Chief) ?aqam, and
 - (ii) Chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
 - (iii) Director of Finance; and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements and the auditor's audit opinion or review comments of the special purpose reports referred to in subsection 74(3).

(2) Council must provide members of ?aqam and any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act with access to the audited annual financial statements, including financial statements respecting local revenues, and special purpose reports, or statements with distinct segmentation.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of ?aqam and related bodies for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

- (a) a description of the services and operations of ?aqam;
- (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of ?aqam; and
- (c) the full audited annual financial statements referred to in section 74 for the previous fiscal year, and
- (d) any special purpose reports referred to in subsection 74(3), including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The Chief Operating Officer must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

- (a) to a member of ?aqam as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
- (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if ?aqam has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
- (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if ?aqam is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to ʔaḡam members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of ʔaḡam including requiring

- (a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and
- (b) the Chief Operating Officer to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken if there are non compliance issues to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 14 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of ʔaḡam or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of ʔaḡam are the property of ʔaḡam.

(2) Council must establish policies or procedures to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of ʔaḡam.

Policy and Law Manual

83.(1) The Chief Operating Officer must prepare and maintain a current policy and law manual respecting every policy and law related to ʔaḡam's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The policy and law manual under subsection (1) must be made available to Councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of ʔaḡam.

(3) If any part of the policy and law manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or representative agent of ʔaḡam, that part of the policy and law manual must be made available to the contractor or representative agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The Chief Operating Officer must ensure that ʔaḡam prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of ʔaḡam's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) ʔaḡam's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted and in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of ʔaḡam must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to ʔaḡam's records.

Local Revenue Account Records

85. (1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of ?aqam, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If ?aqam has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the Director of Finance must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of ?aqam, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Confidentiality of Information

86. (1) No person may be given access to ?aqam's records containing confidential information except in compliance with applicable policies and procedures of Council.

(2) All persons who have access to ?aqam's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of Council respecting the confidentiality, control use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting information technology used by ?aqam in its operations to ensure the integrity of ?aqam's financial administration system and its database.

PART VIII - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of ?aqam's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects in which ?aqam or its related bodies are investors;

"?aqam's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of ?aqam having physical substance that

- (a) have a current value or grouped value of over ten thousand dollars ($10,000),
- (b) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,
- (c) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,
- (d) are to be used on a continuing basis, and
- (e) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of ?aqam’s tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

“rehabilitation” includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of ?aqam’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) prior to approval of a capital project, a forecast is prepared for estimating annual operations, maintenance and replacement costs;
- (b) ?aqam’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (c) the rehabilitation or replacement of ?aqam’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (d) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of ?aqam’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital projects Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the Chief Operating Officer or Director of Finance, or both, must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The Director of Finance must establish and keep current a register of all ?aqam's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before March 31st of each year, the Director of Finance, in conjunction with Director of Operations, must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of ?aqam's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before March 31st of each year, the Director of Finance must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of ?aqam's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

- (b) five (5), ten (10) and twenty-five (25) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of ?aqam's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation or disposal of ?aqam's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out
 - (i) each proposed rehabilitation or disposal project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
 - (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation or disposal project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of ?aqam's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
 - (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before March 31st of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before March 31st of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of ?aqam's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;
- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All ?a?am capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The Chief Operating Officer may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the Chief Operating Officer, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Involvement of Members

96. The Council must post a public notice describing each proposed capital project and each Council meeting when a proposed capital project is presented for approval.

PART IX - Borrowing Member Requirements

Board Standards

97. If ?a?am is a borrowing member as defined in the Act or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, ?a?am must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If Council becomes aware that ?a?am is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring ?a?am into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

- (a) ?a?am is
 - (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to ?aqam under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of ?aqam's local revenues is required, the Council of ?aqam delegates to the Board

- (i) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and
- (ii) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of ?aqam's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

- (a) ?aqam is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
- (b) the Board gives notice to ?aqam under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of ?aqam's other revenues is required, the Council of ?aqam delegates to the Board
 - (i) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and
 - (ii) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of ?aqam's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) ?aqam must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by ?aqam as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) The Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of ?aqam's land code for being accountable to members of ?aqam for the management of ?aqam's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

PART X - Miscellaneous

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

100.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

- (a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of ?aqam is not authorized by or under this Law or another ?aqam law,
- (b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of ?aqam,
- (c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or
- (d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a Councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the Councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or representative agent of ?aqam becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or representative agent, as the case may be, must report them to the Chief Operating Officer or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

101.(1) If a report is made to the Chief Operating Officer under subsection 100(3), the Chief Operating Officer must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 100(3), the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

102.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the Chief Operating Officer, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the Council to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 100 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 100 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by ?aqam or by a Councillor, officer, employee, contractor or representative agent of ?aqam as a result of making that report.

(3) The Chief Operating Officer and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 100 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 100; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 100.

(5) Council must make policies or procedures in respect of the independent investigation of an alleged contravention of the requirement to act in good faith in making a report under section 100.

(6) If, upon independent investigation, it is determined that a person has not acted in good faith in making a report under section 100, the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, up to and including dismissal, in accordance with policy;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; and
- (d) the appointment of a representative agent may be revoked.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

103.(1) A Councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or ?aqam's local revenue law is personally liable to ?aqam for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the Councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of ?aqam and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to ?aqam under subsection (1) may be recovered for ?aqam by ?aqam, a member of ?aqam or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by ?aqam.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of ?aqam for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of ?aqam's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

104.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means to pay amounts required or incurred

(a) to defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or

(b) to satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"?aqam official" means a current or former Councillor, officer or employee of ?aqam.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), Council must by resolution provide the Chief Operating Officer and the Director of Finance with an indemnification in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution including the circumstances and maximum amount, which may be given.

(3) Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of any other named ?aqam official, a category of ?aqam official or all ?aqam officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(4) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a ʔaąam official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review of Law

105.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

(a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of ʔaąam; and

(b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) Council must establish policies or procedures for

(a) the provision of information to members of ʔaąam respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of ʔaąam in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of ʔaąam may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If ʔaąam is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

106. As soon as practical after the Board approves this Law, the Council must provide a copy of the Law to the First Nations Finance Authority.

Coming into Force

107. This Law comes into force on the date after it is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 7th day of December, 2017, at Cranbrook, in the Province of British Columbia at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of three (five) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“Spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse;

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity;

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian;

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent; and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of ?aqam of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all Councillors of ?aqam and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the Councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

- (a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or
- (b) ?aqam's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) Subject to applicable provincial and federal privacy laws, Councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the Chief Operating Officer:

- (a) the names of the Councilor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);
- (b) the employer of the Councillor and the Councillor's spouse;
- (c) real property owned by the Councillor or the Councillors spouse; and
- (d) business interests and material investments of the Councilor or the Councilor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A Councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

- (a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;
- (b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the Councillor holds office.

(4) The Chief Operating Officer must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a Councillor under this section and section 6 and, upon request of an officer, employee or member of ?aqam alleging a conflict of interest in relation to information contained in the register, must review the register and prepare a report to the Council setting out the alleged conflict and any applicable information contained in the register.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the Chief Operating Officer must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A Councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that Councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the Councillor in the exercise of the Councillor's powers or performance of the Councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges, cultural or social obligations associated with the Councillor's office;

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships; or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of ?aqam;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by ?aqam to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a Councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the Councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the Chief Operating Officer under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of ?aqam.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of ?aqam.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the Councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of ?aqam.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the Councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the Councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a Councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the Councillor has a conflict of interest, the Councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A Councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the Councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the Councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the Councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the Councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A Councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the Councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A Councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the Councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a Councillor has reason to believe that another Councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the Councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a Councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the Councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the Councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a Councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the Councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

- (a) a Councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and
- (b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of ?aqam.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of ?aqam.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The Chief Operating Officer must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of his or her obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

- (a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the Chief Operating Officer or, in the case of the Chief Operating Officer, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the Chief Operating Officer or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

- (a) would be considered within
 - (i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
 - (ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of ?aqam;
- (b) is of nominal value; or
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the Chief Operating Officer or, in the case of the Chief Operating Officer, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

- (a) to members of the public; or
- (b) to members of ?aqam.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

?aqam Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of ?aqam for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of ?aqam unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of ʔaǰam, other than a person who has an employment contract with ʔaǰam.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or representative agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with ʔaǰam.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of ʔaǰam.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with ʔaǰam; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of ʔaǰam.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from ʔaǰam by offering gifts or benefits that a Councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or representative agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with ʔaǰam is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or representative agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by ʔaǰam and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for ʔaǰam unless ʔaǰam has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

?aąam Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of ?aąam in order to perform services for ?aąam, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Adams Lake Indian Band in the Province of British Columbia,

Adams Lake Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 25th day of June, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

ADAMS LAKE INDIAN BAND
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Adams Lake Indian Band duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Adams Lake Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Adams Lake Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means the Adams Lake Indian Band, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

“Taxation Law” means the Adams Lake Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2015.

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

10. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

13. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 13 day of June, 2018, at Chase, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of four (4) members of Council.

“related body” means

- (a) any agency of the First Nation,
- (b) any corporation in which the First Nation has a material or controlling interest,
- (c) any partnership in which the First Nation or another related body of the First Nation is a partner with a material or controlling interest, or
- (d) a trust of the First Nation;

“senior financial officer” means the person appointed senior financial officer under section 19;

“senior manager” means the person appointed senior manager under section 18;

“special purpose report” means a report described in section 75;

“standards” means the standards established from time to time under the Act; and “tax administrator” means the person appointed tax administrator under section 20 or the First Nation’s local revenue laws.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, words and expressions used in this Law have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;
- (d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;
- (e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and
- (f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer's place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer's place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;
- (b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as "clear days", between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;
- (c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;
- (d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and
- (e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member’s term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member’s term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

(a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;

(b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and

(c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term
 - (i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,
 - (ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,
 - (iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and
 - (iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;
- (b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;
- (c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and
- (d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;
- (b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;
- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and

- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;
- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and
- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and
- (b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;

- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;
- (i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;
- (j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;
- (l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and
- (o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

- (2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:
 - (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
 - (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
 - (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
 - (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;
- (c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and
- (d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
 - (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
 - (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.
- (3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into
- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
 - (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and
 - (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.
- (4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:
- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
 - (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
 - (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
 - (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

- 24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

- 25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that
- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
 - (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
 - (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
 - (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
 - (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
 - (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
 - (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

(2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

(3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

- (a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and
- (b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

- (a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and
- (c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;
- (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
- (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
- (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

- (a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and
- (b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

- (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
- (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
- (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

- (a) if approved by the Council; or

- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or

- (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
- (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

- (3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is
 - (a) authorized under section 105;
 - (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
 - (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;

- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,
 - (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
 - (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and
- (d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

"misappropriation of assets" means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and
- (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or
 - (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.
- (2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation
- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or
 - (b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.
- (3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must
- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and
 - (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant
 - (i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and
 - (ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.
- (4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances
- (a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and
 - (b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

- 77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to
- (a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and
 - (b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.
- (2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must
- (a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and
 - (b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

- (3) The auditor must be given notice of
 - (a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
 - (b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.
- (4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.
- (5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.
- (6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

- 78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.
- (2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.
- (3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.
- (4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide
 - (a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and
 - (b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

- 79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).
- (2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.
- (3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

- 80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by the Council;
- (b) be signed by
 - (i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,
 - (ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (iii) the senior financial officer; and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

- (a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or
- (b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

- (2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:
 - (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
 - (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
 - (c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and
 - (d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.
- (3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)
 - (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
 - (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
 - (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

(a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

(b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

- (a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,
- (b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,
- (c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and
- (d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

“rehabilitation” includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation’s tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;
- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out

- (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
 - (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
- (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;

- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

- (a) the First Nation is
 - (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
- (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

- (c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

“indemnify” means pay amounts required or incurred to

- (a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or
- (b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

“First Nation official” means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
 - (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.
- (2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1-24, 26-49, 60, 64, 68-81, 86, 97, 98, and 101 - 106 and the Schedule come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Law comes into force on the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 21st day of November, 2017, at Chase, in the Province of British Columbia at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of four (4) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

- (a) the individual’s spouse,
- (b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,
- (c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,
- (d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and
- (e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

- (a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or
- (b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

- (a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);
- (b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;
- (c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and
- (d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

- (a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;
- (b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and
- (c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

- (i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,
- (ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
- (iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

- (a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and
- (b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

- (a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

- (a) would be considered within
 - (i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
 - (ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;
- (b) is of nominal value;
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Aitchelitz First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 29th day of May, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

AITCHELITZ FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Aitchelitz First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Aitchelitz First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 29th day of May, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

AITCHELITZ FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Aitchelitz First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Aitchelitz First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;
- (d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

- (3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

- 10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

- (a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or
- (b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice-chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

- (a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;
- (b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and
- (c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

- (a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or
 - (b) it is a meeting with the auditor.
- (6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and
- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

- (l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and
- (o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
- (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
- (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

- 24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

- 25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
- (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
- (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
- (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
- (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
- (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
- (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

- (2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

- (3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

- (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
- (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
- (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

- (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
- (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
- (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
 - (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
 - (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.
- (2) The First Nation may carry on a business that
- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or
 - (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.
- (3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities
- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
 - (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.
- (4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

- (a) authorized under section 105;
- (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
- (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;
- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,
 - (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
 - (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and
- (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local RevenuesAnnual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit

the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or
- (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or
- (b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and
- (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant
 - (i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the senior financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

- (a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or
- (b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

- (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
- (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
- (c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and
- (d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

- (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
- (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
- (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

- (a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

- (b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation’s tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;
- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out
 - (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

- (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
 - (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
- (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;

- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
- (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

- (a) the First Nation is
 - (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
- (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

- (c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,
the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

- (a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or
- (b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
- (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for

(a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or

(b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.

(3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.

(4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.

(5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

(6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1 - 7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69 - 74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) The operative portions of sections 8, 11, 12(1), 18(1), 19(1), 21(1), 22(1), 23(2) and (4), 25, 31(1), 81, 101 – 104 of this Law and the Schedule to this Law come into force on January 1, 2020.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), this Law comes into force on the earlier of

(a) the date or dates established by resolution of the Council, and

(b) the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 1 day of October, 2018, at Chilliwack, in the Province of B.C. at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of (2) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

(a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($ 500) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

- (b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

- 11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

(a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

- (b) is of nominal value;
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or
- (d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

- (a) to members of the public; or
- (b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

First Nations Tax Commission
Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the
?Akisq̓nuk First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Akisq̓nuk First Nation
Annual Expenditure Replacement Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 23rd day of November, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

AKISQNUK FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE REPLACEMENT LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1) (a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Akisqnuq First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Akisqnuq First Nation Annual Expenditure Replacement Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Akisqnuq First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2016;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means the Akisqnuq First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to the First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

“Taxation Law” means the Akisqnuq First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018 and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. The Recreation Centre Reserve Fund, which has a zero balance, is no longer required and is hereby closed.

9. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

10. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

11. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

12. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

13.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including the Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

14. The Akisq'nuk First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

15. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 21 day of November, 2018 at Windermere, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of three (3) members of Council.

ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Akisqnuq First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Akisqnuq First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Akisqnuq First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2016;

“First Nation” means the Akisqnuq First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“taxable property” means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

“Taxation Law” means the Akisqnuq First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2016.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2018 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than one hundred dollars ($ 100), the taxable property shall be taxed at one hundred dollars ($100) for the taxation year.

5. If the First Nation is at any time required, in accordance with paragraph 84(5)(b) of the Act, to pay to the First Nations Finance Authority an amount sufficient to replenish the debt reserve fund, the Council must make or amend such property taxation laws as necessary in order to recover the amount payable.

6. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

7. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

8. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

9. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

10. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 28 day of May, 2018, at Windermere, in the Province of British Columbia.

BEECHER BAY
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of Beecher Bay duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Beecher Bay Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.
2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Beecher Bay Property Assessment Law, 2017;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means Beecher Bay, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and “Taxation Law” means Beecher Bay Property Taxation Law, 2017.

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. The grant amounts set out in the annual budget are hereby approved as expenditures in accordance with the Taxation Law.

8. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

9. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

10. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

11. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

12.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

PART III
ADMINISTRATION

PTT Administrator

3.(1) The Council shall appoint a PTT administrator to oversee the administration and enforcement of this Law.

(2) The PTT administrator shall fulfill the responsibilities given to the PTT administrator under this Law and such other duties assigned to the PTT administrator by Sc'ianew from time to time.

(3) With the consent of the Sc'ianew administrator, the PTT administrator may assign the performance of any duties of the PTT administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of Sc'ianew.

(4) On or before January 31 of each year, the PTT administrator shall prepare and provide to the Council a report on the administration of this Law during the previous fiscal year, which report shall include

- (a) the amount of all taxes levied;
- (b) the amount of all taxes received;
- (c) the amount of any exemptions from taxes;
- (d) the amount of any refunds of taxes;
- (e) a list of all requests for reconsideration received by the PTT administrator and the decision made respecting each request;
- (f) any appeals filed; and
- (g) any enforcement proceedings taken.

Revenues and Expenditures

4. Taxes collected by Sc'ianew shall be placed in the local revenue account of Sc'ianew and expended only in accordance with an expenditure law enacted by Sc'ianew or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

PART IV
TAX LIABILITY AND LEVY

Tax Liability

5.(1) This Law applies to all interests in land, and every transferee is subject to tax at the time of application for registration of a taxable transfer in respect of an interest in land in accordance with this Law.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(2) Except where an exemption applies as provided in Part V, a tax

(a) is levied and imposed on an interest in land at the time of the application for registration of a taxable transfer relating to that interest in land; and

(b) shall be paid by the transferee in accordance with this Law.

(3) A person who is a transferee of a taxable transfer under this Law is liable for the tax even if

(a) that person is also liable to pay taxes imposed under other property taxation laws of Sc'ianew; or

(b) the interest in land acquired by a co-transferee of the taxable transfer is exempt from tax under this Law.

(4) Where there is more than one (1) transferee in respect of a taxable transfer, each transferee is jointly and severally liable to Sc'ianew for the tax imposed under this Law.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a co-transferee of a taxable transfer who is exempt from tax under this Law.

(6) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting those taxes, including without limitation respecting the assessment of taxes, the applicability of an exemption, or the taxpayer's liability to taxation.

Tax Payment and Filing Return

6.(1) On application for registration of a taxable transfer in the registry, the transferee shall

(a) pay the tax in accordance with this Law; and

(b) file a completed Return in accordance with this Law, whether or not the taxable transfer is exempt from tax under this Law.

(2) The registry shall refuse to accept an application for registration of a taxable transfer if

(a) the transferee does not pay the tax owing at the time of registration;

(b) the transferee does not file a completed Return; or

(c) the PTT administrator or the registry staff have reasonable grounds to believe that the Return is incomplete, or the transferee does not qualify for an exemption being claimed on the Return.

(3) Payment of taxes shall be made by cheque or money order payable to Beecher Bay.

(4) Sc'ianew shall issue a receipt to the taxpayer for taxes paid under this Law.

Payment of Estimated Tax

7.(1) Despite section 6, where the amount of tax owing on a taxable transfer cannot be determined on the registration date because an appraisal or other valuation information is required to determine the fair market value of the taxable transfer, the PTT administrator may, on the request of the transferee,

(a) estimate the tax owing using the best information available to the PTT administrator on the registration date; and

(b) authorize the registry to accept the application for registration of the taxable transfer on payment by the transferee of the PTT administrator's estimate of the tax owing.

(2) Where a transferee makes a payment of estimated tax owing under subsection (1), the PTT administrator shall, on receipt of the appraisal or other valuation information, determine the tax owing on the taxable transfer.

(3) Despite subsection (2), if the transferee was required to provide the appraisal or other valuation information and the transferee does not provide the information within the required time, the PTT administrator shall determine the tax owing on the taxable transfer on the registration date, based on the best information available to the PTT administrator at the time of the determination under this subsection.

(4) Where the PTT administrator makes a determination of tax owing under subsection (2) or (3), the PTT administrator shall deliver a Notice of Tax Assessment to the transferee and section 31 applies.

Tax Rate

8.(1) The rate of tax levied under this Law is the sum of the following

- (a) one percent (1%) of the taxable transfer's fair market value that does not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000);
- (b) two percent (2%) of that portion of the fair market value that exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) but does not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000);
- (c) three percent (3%) of that portion of the fair market value that exceeds two million dollars ($2,000,000); and
- (d) where the subject matter of the taxable transfer includes residential property, an additional two percent (2%) of that portion of the fair market value of the residential property that exceeds three million dollars ($3,000,000), determined in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), the fair market value of a residential property is

- (a) where the subject matter of the taxable transfer includes only residential property, the fair market value of the taxable transfer; and
- (b) where the subject matter of the taxable transfer includes property that is not residential property, the fair market value of that portion of the taxable transfer comprising the residential property.

(3) If a transferee

- (a) applies to register a taxable transfer, and
- (b) within six (6) months after the application referred to in paragraph (a) applies to register one or more additional taxable transfers respecting the same interest in land, the tax owing on the taxable transfer referred to in paragraph (b) shall be calculated based on the total fair market value of the taxable transfers referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) as if all the taxable transfers referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) were a single taxable transfer.

(4) If

- (a) a transferee applies to register a taxable transfer, and
- (b) one or more related individuals of the person referred to in paragraph (a) apply, as transferees, at the same time as or within six (6) months after the application referred to in paragraph (a), to register one (1) or more taxable transfers respecting the same interest in land for which the transferor is not the person referred to in paragraph (a),

the tax owing shall be calculated based on the total fair market value of the taxable transfers referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) as if all those taxable transfers were a single taxable transfer, and the transferees referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) are jointly and severally liable to pay the total tax owing.

(5) If

- (a) a transferee that is a corporation (in this subsection and subsection (6) called the "corporate transferee") applies for registration of a taxable transfer, and
- (b) one or more corporations associated with the corporate transferee apply, as transferees, at the same time as or within six (6) months after the application referred to in paragraph (a), for registration of one or more taxable transfers respecting the same interest in land for which the transferor is not the corporate transferee,

the tax owing on the taxable transfers shall be calculated based on the total fair market value of the taxable transfers referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) as if all those taxable transfers were a single taxable transfer, and the transferees referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) are jointly and severally liable to pay that total tax.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a corporation is associated with a corporate transferee if the corporation and the corporate transferee are associated, within the meaning of section 256 of the Income Tax Act, on the registration date of the taxable transfer referred to in subsection (5).

Property Transfer Tax Return

9. A Return shall be dated and certified

(a) if no exemption is claimed, by the transferee or a person with actual authority to certify the Return on behalf of the transferee;

(b) if an exemption is claimed and the transferee is an individual, by the transferee or by an agent of the transferee who has personal knowledge of the matters certified; or

(c) if an exemption is claimed and the transferee is a corporation, by a person who has personal knowledge of the matters certified and actual authority to certify the Return on behalf of the transferee.

Correcting Transfer

10.(1) Despite section 8, the tax payable for a correcting transfer is the tax payable determined under that section as if the fair market value of the taxable transfer were determined on the registration date of the original transfer.

(2) On the registration of a correcting transfer, the amount of tax paid by a transferee in respect of the original transfer is deemed to be tax

(a) paid by the transferee in respect of the correcting transfer; and

(b) paid on the registration date of the correcting transfer.

PART V

EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Applicability of Exemptions

11.(1) A transferee is exempt from taxation on a taxable transfer under this Law where

(a) the taxable transfer is within any of the descriptions set out in sections 12 and 13; and

(b) the transferee files a claim for the exemption concurrently with the transferee's completed Return and application for registration of the taxable transfer in the registry.

(2) A claim for an exemption under this section shall

(a) be in the form required by the PTT administrator;

(b) provide sufficient information for the PTT administrator to confirm that the taxable transfer or the transferee, as the case may be, qualifies for the exemption claimed; and

(c) include a consent by the transferee to the PTT administrator conducting inquiries respecting the taxable transfer and the transferee that the PTT administrator considers necessary to confirm the qualification for the exemption.

Exemptions from Tax

12.(1) In this section a related individual shall be a person who is a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(2) A transferee is exempt from taxation on a taxable transfer under this Law where the taxable transfer is

- (a) from a transferor who is not a trustee to a transferee who is a related individual, if the interest in land transferred has been the principal residence of either the transferor or the transferee for a continuous period of at least six (6) months immediately before the registration date;
- (b) from a trustee of a deceased's estate or of a trust established under a deceased's will and who is registered in that capacity in the registry, to a transferee, if
 - (i) the transferee is a beneficiary of the estate or trust,
 - (ii) the transferee beneficiary was a related individual of the deceased at the time of the deceased's death, and
 - (iii) immediately before the deceased's death, the interest in land to be transferred was the deceased's principal residence or had been the transferee's principal residence for a continuous period of at least six (6) months;
- (c) from a trustee of a trust that is settled during the lifetime of the settlor and who is registered in that capacity in the registry, if
 - (i) the transferee is a beneficiary of the trust,
 - (ii) the transferee beneficiary is a related individual of the settlor of the trust, and
 - (iii) the interest in land transferred was the principal residence of either the settlor or the transferee for a continuous period of at least six (6) months immediately before the date of transfer or of the transferee beneficiary for that period;
- (d) from a transferor to a transferee who is a spouse or former spouse of the transferor where the transfer is made pursuant to a written separation agreement, a court order, or other legally binding order or agreement under the Beecher Bay First Nation Matrimonial Real Property Act or under an applicable provincial, federal or Sc'ianew enactment respecting the division of matrimonial or family property;
- (e) to change a joint tenancy to a tenancy in common, if
 - (i) the persons holding the interest in land are the same before and after the transfer, and
 - (ii) each person holding a share of the interest in land after the transfer has an interest equal to that held by the other holders;
- (f) by operation of law to the survivor of a joint tenancy consequent on the death of a joint tenant holder of the interest in land;
- (g) in relation to the subdivision of a parcel into smaller parcels, where
 - (i) the transferee of one or more of the resulting subdivided parcels was one of the registered holders of the original parcel immediately before its subdivision, and
 - (ii) the transferee's proportionate share of the fair market value of those smaller parcels, calculated using the fair market values as they were immediately after the subdivision, does not exceed the transferee's proportionate share of the fair market value of the original parcel, calculated using the fair market value as it was immediately before the subdivision;
- (h) by which an interest in land reverts, escheats or is forfeited to Sc'ianew or the federal or provincial Crown, or by which an interest in land that has reverted, escheated or been forfeited to Sc'ianew or the Crown is returned to its previous holder;

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

- (i) to the trustee in bankruptcy of an interest in land forming part of the estate of a bankrupt;
- (j) from the trustee in bankruptcy to the bankrupt of an interest in land forming part of the estate of the bankrupt, if no consideration for the transfer is paid by or on behalf of the bankrupt transferee and a declaration to that effect is made by the transferee and the transferor on the application for the exemption;
- (k) from the trustee in bankruptcy to the spouse or former spouse of the bankrupt of an interest in land forming part of the estate of the bankrupt, if
 - (i) the interest in land transferred was the principal residence of the bankrupt immediately before the date of the bankruptcy, and
 - (ii) no consideration for the transfer is paid by or on behalf of the transferee and a declaration to that effect is made by the transferee and the transferor on the application for the exemption;
- (l) to a person in his or her capacity as personal representative, if the interest in land transferred is part of the deceased's estate;
- (m) of a life estate in a lease, if the transferee of that life estate transferred the lease in the same interest in land to the transferor of the life estate in a concurrent transaction;
- (n) to a mortgagee, if the mortgagee was the immediately preceding holder of the interest in land that was subject to the mortgage;
- (o) to the provincial public guardian and trustee or the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, if
 - (i) the interest in land transferred is to be held in trust by the public guardian and trustee or the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, as the case may be, for the sole benefit of a minor,
 - (ii) the minor is a related individual of the transferor or the person whose estate is the transferor, and
 - (iii) the interest in land transferred was the principal residence of the minor, the transferor, or the person whose estate is the transferor;
- (p) from the provincial public guardian and trustee or the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, if
 - (i) the interest in land transferred was held in trust by the public guardian and trustee or the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, as the case may be, for the sole benefit of a minor, and
 - (ii) the transferee is the beneficiary;
- (q) from a transferor to a transferee, each of whom is registered in the registry as a trustee of the interest in land, if
 - (i) the change in trustee is for reasons that do not relate, directly or indirectly, to a change in beneficiaries or in a class of beneficiaries or to a change in the terms of the trust, and
 - (ii) the transferor and the transferee make a declaration to that effect on the application for the exemption;
- (r) for the purpose of transferring an interest in land
 - (i) that was transferred in error, or
 - (ii) in respect of which an error was made in the description or survey relating to the registration of the interest in land;

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

- (s) to a not-for-profit educational institution, including a public school, university, technical institute or public college, if the interest in land being transferred will be used for an educational purpose;
 - (t) to a not-for-profit hospital or health institution, if the interest in land being transferred will be used for hospital or health care related purposes;
 - (u) of a lease for an interest in land that is intended for subdivision, development and re-sale of at least five (5) parcels on the land, provided that the transferee completes a subdivision to create at least five (5) parcels within five (5) years after the registration date; or
 - (v) of a lease with a term of thirty (30) years or less remaining as of the registration date, other than a lease modification agreement.
- (3) Despite paragraph (2)(v), the exemption from taxation in that paragraph does not apply to a taxable transfer where
- (a) two (2) or more taxable transfers are made in respect of the same interest in land;
 - (b) the applications for registration of the taxable transfers are made at the registry within six (6) months of each other;
 - (c) each of the taxable transfers provides a term during which a person is given a right to occupy the interest in land under a lease; and
 - (d) the terms referred to in paragraph (c) exceed thirty (30) years in total.

Additional Exemptions

13.(1) A transferee is exempt from taxation on a taxable transfer under this Law where the taxable transfer is to

- (a) Sc'ianew as the sole transferee;
- (b) a Sc'ianew Corporation as the sole transferee;
- (c) a Sc'ianew member where, in respect of the taxable transfer,
 - (i) the Sc'ianew member is the only transferee,
 - (ii) all of the transferees are Sc'ianew members, or
 - (iii) the Sc'ianew member and the spouse of the Sc'ianew member are the only transferees, provided that the transferee will hold the interest in land directly and not as a trustee, and the interest in land will be the transferee's principal residence; or

- (d) a trustee who will hold the interest in land in trust only for the sole benefit of one (1) or more Sc'ianew members and no other person.

(2) Where an exemption is given under paragraph (1)(b), (c) or (d), Sc'ianew shall

- (a) pay into the local revenue account an amount equivalent to the taxes that would have been payable by the exempted person had the exemption not applied; and
- (b) make the payment under paragraph (a) using moneys that are not local revenues.

First-Time Home Buyer – Exemption Definitions

14. The following definitions apply to sections 15 to 18:

“first-time home buyer” means an individual who

- (a) is a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada on the registration date of a taxable transfer,
- (b) has not previously

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

- (i) owned land in British Columbia or elsewhere that constituted the individual's principal residence,
- (ii) held an interest in land under a lease that constituted the individual's principal residence, or
- (iii) held an interest in reserve lands under a lease that constituted the individual's principal residence, and
- (c) has not previously obtained a first-time home buyers' exemption or refund under this Law or under any other federal, provincial or First Nation enactment; and

"qualifying property" means an interest in land

- (a) with a fair market value that does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or the amount set for a qualifying property for the first time home buyers' program under the Property Transfer Tax Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 378 on the registration date, and
- (b) with a total parcel area of a half (0.5) hectare or less.

First-Time Home Buyer – Exemption Qualifications

15.(1) A transferee who applies for registration of a taxable transfer of a qualifying property is exempt from taxation under this Law if

- (a) the taxable transfer is referenced in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "taxable transfer";
- (b) the residential improvement is the only improvement on the qualifying property;
- (c) the transferee is a first-time home buyer;
- (d) the transferee meets the requirements set out in section 16; and
- (e) the transferee files a claim for the exemption concurrently with the transferee's completed Return and application for registration of the taxable transfer in the registry.

(2) A claim for an exemption under this section shall

- (a) be in the form required by the PTT administrator;
- (b) include a declaration that the transferee is a first-time home buyer;
- (c) provide sufficient information to confirm that the interest in land is a qualifying property; and
- (d) include a consent by the transferee to the PTT administrator conducting inquiries respecting the transferee that the PTT administrator considers necessary to confirm the qualifications of the transferee for the exemption.

First-Time Home Buyer – Requirement to Establish a Residence

16.(1) A transferee who has applied for an exemption under section 15 or a refund under section 17 shall establish a residence on the qualifying property in accordance with subsection (2) or subsection (3).

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a transferee establishes a residence on the qualifying property if, on the registration date, the qualifying property contains a residential improvement that the transferee inhabits as the transferee's principal residence within ninety-two (92) days after the registration date and continuing to a date that is not earlier than the first anniversary of the registration date.

(3) If, on the registration date, the qualifying property does not contain a residential improvement as required by subsection (2), a transferee may establish a residential improvement before the first anniversary of the registration date provided

- (a) the transferee inhabits the residential improvement as the transferee's principal residence beginning at the time it is completed, and continuing to a date that is not earlier than the first anniversary of the registration date; and

(b) the qualifying property, taking into consideration the total costs incurred to establish the residential improvement and the fair market value of the qualifying property on the registration date, would have been a qualifying property on the registration date.

First-Time Home Buyer – Refund on Application

17.(1) A transferee who is entitled to an exemption under section 15 who does not apply for that exemption on the registration date may, within eighteen (18) months after that date, apply to the PTT administrator under subsection (3) for a refund of the tax paid on the taxable transfer by the transferee.

(2) If a transferee is not entitled on the registration date to an exemption under section 15 only because the transferee does not meet a requirement set out in paragraph (a) of the definition of “first-time home buyer” on the registration date, the transferee may apply to the PTT administrator under subsection (3) for a refund of the tax paid on the taxable transfer by the transferee if

(a) the transferee meets the requirements of paragraph (a) of that definition on or before the first anniversary of the registration date; and

(b) the transferee makes the application for a refund within eighteen (18) months after the registration date.

(3) To claim a refund under subsection (1) or subsection (2), a transferee shall provide to the PTT administrator

(a) a written application for a refund, in the form required by the PTT administrator, signed by the transferee;

(b) a claim for the exemption in the form required by the PTT administrator; and

(c) any additional information or evidence necessary to satisfy the PTT administrator that the applicant is entitled to claim the exemption.

(4) On receiving an application under subsection (1) and additional information under subsection (3), the PTT administrator shall,

(a) on being satisfied that the transferee would have qualified for an exemption under section 15 on the registration date, pay to the transferee a refund of the tax paid by the transferee equivalent to the amount of the tax exemption had the application for the exemption been made on the registration date; or

(b) if not satisfied that the transferee would have qualified for an exemption under section 15 on the registration date, refuse the application and provide a written notice to the transferee stating the reasons for the refusal.

(5) On receiving an application under subsection (2) and additional information under subsection (3), the PTT administrator shall,

(a) on being satisfied that the transferee would have qualified for an exemption under section 15 on the registration date but for the transferee’s failure to meet a requirement under paragraph (a) of the definition in section 14 of “first-time home buyer” on that date, pay to the transferee a refund of the tax paid by the transferee equivalent to the amount of the tax exemption had the transferee met the requirement on the registration date; or

(b) if not satisfied that the transferee met that requirement on or before the first anniversary of the registration date, refuse the application and provide a written notice to the transferee stating the reasons for the refusal.

(6) A notice given under paragraph (4)(b) or (5)(b) is deemed to be a Notice of Tax Assessment for the purpose of allowing the taxpayer to make a Request for Reconsideration under this Law.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

First-Time Home Buyer – Unqualified Transferee

18.(1) The PTT administrator shall, after the first anniversary of the registration date, confirm with each transferee who has obtained an exemption under section 15 or a refund under section 17 that the requirements in section 16 have been met.

(2) Where the PTT administrator determines that a transferee who has obtained an exemption under section 15 or a refund under section 17

- (a) did not qualify for the exemption on the registration date; or
- (b) fails, refuses or ceases to comply with section 16,

the PTT administrator shall deliver a Notice of Assessment to the transferee and the transferee shall pay to Sc'ianew the tax that would have been owing by the transferee had the transferee not received the exemption or refund, plus interest calculated on the tax from the registration date and any penalty assessed under section 38.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply where a transferee does not comply with section 16 only because

- (a) the transferee dies before the first anniversary of the registration date, or
- (b) the interest in land is transferred by the transferee to a spouse or former spouse pursuant to a written separation agreement, a court order or other legally binding order or agreement under the Beecher Bay First Nation Matrimonial Real Property Act or under any other applicable provincial, federal or Sc'ianew enactment respecting the division of matrimonial or family property.

New Housing Exemption – Definitions

19. The following definitions apply to sections 20 to 23:

“qualifying individual” means an individual who is a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada;

“qualifying property” means an interest in land

- (a) with a fair market value that does not, on the registration date, exceed the sum of
 - (i) the qualifying value of an interest in land, and
 - (ii) fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or the amount set for a qualifying property for the new housing exemption under the Property Transfer Tax Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 378, and
- (b) with a total parcel area of a half (0.5) hectare or less; and “qualifying value”, in respect of an interest in land, means seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) or the amount set for the qualifying value for the new housing exemption under the Property Transfer Tax Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 378.

New Housing Exemption – Qualifications

20.(1) A transferee who applies for registration of a taxable transfer of a qualifying property that contains a residential improvement is exempt from taxation under this Law if

- (a) the taxable transfer is referenced in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of “taxable transfer” in subsection 2(1);
- (b) the transferee is a qualifying individual on the registration date;
- (c) the taxable transfer is in respect of either of the following:
 - (i) a qualifying property in respect of which the residential improvement
 - (A) was constructed or placed on the property, and
 - (B) on the registration date, has not been used as a dwelling since the construction of the

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

residential improvement began or since the residential improvement was placed on the property, as the case may be, or

(ii) a qualifying property that resulted from a subdivision of a parcel and in respect of which the residential improvement

(A) was developed from the division of an improvement that was on the parcel that was subdivided, and

(B) on the registration date, has not been used as a dwelling since the subdivision of the parcel;

(d) the qualifying property does not, on the registration date, contain an improvement other than a residential improvement that falls within the description in subparagraph (c)(i) or (ii);

(e) the application is the first application for registration in respect of the qualifying property,

(i) in the case of a qualifying property described in subparagraph (c)(i), since the residential improvement was completed or since the residential improvement was placed on the property, as the case may be, or

(ii) in the case of a qualifying property described in subparagraph (c)(ii), since the subdivision of the parcel; and

(f) the transferee files a claim for the exemption concurrently with the transferee's completed Return and application for registration of the taxable transfer in the registry.

(2) If the fair market value of a qualifying property exceeds the qualifying value of the property, the exemption under subsection (1) is the amount calculated as follows:

$$PTT \times ((QV + 50,000 - FMV) / 50,000)$$

where

FMV is the fair market value of the property;

PTT is the amount of tax that would be payable on the taxable transfer but for the exemption under subsection (1); and

QV is the qualifying value of the qualifying property.

(3) A claim for an exemption under this section shall

(a) be in the form required by the PTT administrator;

(b) include a declaration that the transferee and the taxable transfer meet all of the requirements for the exemption;

(c) provide sufficient information to confirm that the interest in land is a qualifying property; and

(d) include a consent by the transferee to the PTT administrator conducting inquiries respecting the transferee that the PTT administrator considers necessary to confirm the qualifications of the transferee and the transfer for the exemption.

New Housing Exemption – Obligation to Inhabit as Principal Residence

21. A transferee who has applied for an exemption under section 20 or a refund under section 22 shall,

(a) beginning on a date that is not more than ninety-two (92) days after the registration date, and

(b) continuing to a date that is not earlier than the first anniversary of the registration date, inhabit as the transferee's principal residence the residential improvement on the property.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

New Housing Exemption – Refund where Principal Residence on Registration Date

- 22.(1) A transferee who is entitled to an exemption under section 20 and who fails to apply for that exemption on the registration date may, within eighteen (18) months after that date, apply to the PTT administrator for a refund of the tax paid by the transferee on the registration date of the taxable transfer.
- (2) A transferee who is not entitled on the registration date to an exemption under section 20 because the transferee is not a qualifying individual on that date may apply to the PTT administrator for a refund of the tax paid on the registration of the transaction by the transferee if
- (a) the transferee becomes a qualifying individual on or before the first anniversary of the registration date; and
 - (b) the application for the refund is made within eighteen (18) months after the registration date.
- (3) On receiving an application under subsection (1), the PTT administrator,
- (a) if satisfied that the transferee would have qualified for an exemption under section 20 on the registration date, shall refund the portion of the amount of tax paid by the transferee that is equivalent to the amount of the exemption to which the transferee would have been entitled had the application for the exemption been made on the registration date; or
 - (b) if not satisfied that the transferee would have qualified for an exemption under section 20 on the registration date, shall refuse the application and provide the transferee with written notice stating the reasons for the refusal.
- (4) On receiving an application under subsection (2), the PTT administrator,
- (a) if satisfied that the transferee
 - (i) would have qualified for an exemption under section 20 on the registration date but for the transferee's failure to be a qualifying individual on that date, and
 - (ii) became a qualifying individual on or before the first anniversary of the registration date, shall refund that portion of the amount of tax paid by the transferee that would have been exempted under section 20 had the transferee been a qualifying individual on the registration date; and
 - (b) if not satisfied that the requirements for the refund set out in paragraph (a) have been met, shall refuse the application and provide the transferee with written notice stating the reasons for the refusal.
- (5) A notice given under paragraph (3)(b) or (4)(b) is deemed to be a Notice of Tax Assessment for the purpose of allowing the taxpayer to make a Request for Reconsideration under this Law.

New Housing Exemption – Unqualified Transferee

- 23.(1) A transferee who has obtained an exemption under section 20 or a refund under section 22 is liable under subsection (2) if the transferee,
- (a) in the case of a transferee who obtained an exemption under section 20 or a refund under paragraph 22(3)(a), is not a qualifying individual on the registration date;
 - (b) in the case of a transferee who obtained a refund under paragraph 22(4)(a), does not become a qualifying individual on or before the first anniversary of the registration date;
 - (c) in the case of a transferee who obtained an exemption under section 20, fails or refuses to comply with paragraph 20(1)(f) or subsection 20(3); or
 - (d) fails to inhabit the residential improvement referred to in section 21 as the transferee's principal residence as required by that section.
- (2) A transferee referred to in subsection (1) shall pay to Sc'ianew tax in the same amount that the transferee would have been obliged to pay under this Law had the transferee not received the exemption or refund.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(3) Where the PTT administrator determines that subsection (1) applies to a transferee, the PTT administrator shall deliver a Notice of Tax Assessment to the transferee and the transferee shall pay to Sc'ianew the tax that would have been owing by the transferee had the transferee not received the exemption or refund, plus interest calculated on the tax from the registration date and any penalty assessed under section 38.

(4) A transferee not referred to in subsection (1) who has obtained an exemption under section 20 or a refund under section 22 for an amount greater than the amount to which the transferee is entitled under this Law shall pay to Sc'ianew as a tax liability the amount by which the exemption or refund received exceeded the exemption or refund to which the transferee was entitled, plus interest calculated on the tax from the registration date and any penalty assessed under section 38.

(5) Subsections (1) to (4) do not apply to a transferee who has obtained an exemption under section 20 or a refund under section 22 if the transferee does not comply with section 21 only because, before the first anniversary of the registration date,

- (a) the transferee dies; or
- (b) the property is transferred by the transferee pursuant to a written separation agreement or a court order under the Beecher Bay First Nation Matrimonial Real Property Act or under an applicable federal or provincial enactment respecting the division of matrimonial or family property.

Rule Respecting Exemptions

24. Despite sections 14 to 23, a transferee is not entitled to and shall not apply for both a first-time home buyers' exemption or refund and a new housing exemption or refund in respect of the same taxable transfer.

PART VI

REVIEWS, INFORMATION REQUESTS AND INSPECTIONS

Review and Investigations

25.(1) The PTT administrator shall review every Return and every claim for an exemption submitted under this Law.

- (2) The PTT administrator may determine whether
 - (a) a Return is accurate;
 - (b) a claim for an exemption is accurate;
 - (c) the tax owing has been paid as required by this Law; and
 - (d) any provision of this Law has been contravened.

Requests for Information or Documents

26.(1) The PTT administrator may deliver a Request for Information to any person, including a transferor, a transferee, or a holder of an interest in land on which tax has or should have been levied, and that person shall provide to the PTT administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information, including the production of records, for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The PTT administrator is not bound by any information provided under subsection (1), and may despite any information delivered or if no information is delivered, make a tax assessment in respect of taxes payable, or make any other determination or take such action as the administrator determines appropriate.

Inspections

27.(1) The PTT administrator or another person authorized by Sc'ianew may, for any purpose related to the administration or enforcement of this Law,

(a) during normal office hours enter into a place where a business is carried on, or where anything is done in connection with a business, or where business records are or should be kept, and inspect the records that relate or may relate to the amount of tax payable under this Law; and

(b) examine any interest in land an examination of which may, in the person's opinion, assist in determining the accuracy of a Return or a claim for an exemption, information that is or should be in the Return or the claim for an exemption, or the amount of tax payable under this Law.

(2) If a record has been inspected or produced under this section, the person by whom it is inspected or to whom it is produced may make copies of that record.

(3) A person shall not obstruct a person doing anything that he or she is authorized by this section to do.

PART VII

REFUNDS

Refund of Taxes Paid

28.(1) If a person has paid tax pursuant to a Notice of Tax Assessment and, as a result of

(a) a decision of the PTT administrator under section 32, or

(b) an order of the court under section 33,

the tax payable is less than the amount actually paid, the PTT administrator shall refund the excess tax paid, including interest on the amount overpaid calculated in accordance with subsection (4).

(2) If, after a person has paid tax under section 6,

(a) the person withdraws the application for registration, or

(b) the application for registration is rejected and not re-submitted, the PTT administrator shall refund the tax paid, including interest calculated in accordance with subsection (4).

(3) If a person is deemed to have paid tax in respect of a correcting transfer and the tax payable is less than the amount deemed to have been paid, the PTT administrator shall refund the overpaid tax, including interest on the amount overpaid calculated in accordance with subsection (4).

(4) Where interest is payable on a refund of taxes under this Law, the PTT administrator shall calculate the interest payable as follows:

(a) interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to Sc'ianew;

(b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to Sc'ianew on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

(c) interest will not be compounded; and

(d) interest stops running on the earliest of the day payment of the money owed is mailed, delivered or actually received by the person to whom it is owed.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

Refund of Taxes on Application

29.(1) Where a person has paid an amount as tax under this Law in circumstances where there was no legal obligation to pay the amount as tax, the person may apply to the PTT administrator for a refund of the amount paid.

(2) To claim a refund under subsection (1), a person shall

(a) submit to the PTT administrator a written application, in the form required by the PTT administrator, signed by the person who paid the amount claimed; and

(b) provide sufficient evidence to satisfy the PTT administrator that the person who paid the amount is entitled to the refund.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), if the person who paid the amount claimed is a corporation, the application shall be signed by an authorized signatory of the corporation.

(4) Where the PTT administrator receives an application for a refund under this section and is satisfied that person paid an amount as tax in circumstances where there was no legal obligation to pay the amount as tax, the PTT administrator shall refund that amount to the person entitled to it, without interest.

(5) As a limitation on subsection (4), the PTT administrator shall not provide a refund for an amount paid more than two (2) years before the date on which the application for a refund is submitted under paragraph (2)(a).

(6) Where the PTT administrator determines that a refund is not payable under this section, the PTT administrator shall give a written notice to the transferee stating the reasons a refund is not payable and the notice is deemed to be a Notice of Tax Assessment for the purpose of allowing the taxpayer to make a Request for Reconsideration under this Law.

Recovery of a Refund Wrongly Obtained

30.(1) If a refund is made under this Law and the PTT administrator subsequently determines that the person was not entitled to the refund, or was entitled only to a refund in a lesser amount, the amount of the refund to which the person was not entitled is deemed to be tax imposed by section 6 which was required to have been paid by the person on the date the refund was made to the person.

(2) Where the PTT administrator makes a determination under subsection (1), the PTT administrator shall give a Notice of Tax Assessment to the person stating the reasons the person was not entitled to the refund, or was entitled only to a refund in a lesser amount, and the amount of taxes payable, including interest and penalties where section 38 applies.

PART VIII

ASSESSMENT, RECONSIDERATION AND APPEAL

Tax Assessment by PTT Administrator

31.(1) The PTT administrator may determine, in respect of a taxable transfer, and on information available to the PTT administrator,

(a) the fair market value of a taxable transfer;

(b) the applicability of an exemption claimed under this Law; and

(c) the tax owing by a transferee under this Law.

(2) If the PTT administrator determines that

(a) the fair market value indicated on a Return is not correct,

(b) an exemption claimed by a transferee is not applicable, or

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(c) for any reason a transferee has not paid the correct amount of tax, the PTT administrator shall make a tax assessment and deliver a Notice of Tax Assessment to the transferee.

(3) The Notice of Tax Assessment shall set out, as applicable,

(a) the name and address of the transferee;

(b) a description of the interest in land;

(c) the PTT administrator's determination of the fair market value of the taxable transfer;

(d) the PTT administrator's determination of the applicability of an exemption claimed by the transferee;

(e) the PTT administrator's determination of the total amount of tax payable on the taxable transfer;

(f) the amount of tax paid by the transferee;

(g) any penalty and interest owing by the transferee under Part X, as of the date of the Notice of Tax Assessment;

(h) the balance of tax owing or overpaid; and

(i) the date of the Notice of Tax Assessment.

(4) The delivery of a Notice of Tax Assessment by the PTT administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes where taxes are owing.

(5) Where a Notice of Tax Assessment indicates an overpayment of taxes, the PTT administrator shall refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with this Law.

(6) Where a Notice of Tax Assessment indicates taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable within thirty (30) days after the date shown on the Notice of Tax Assessment, whether or not a taxpayer delivers a Request for Reconsideration in respect of the tax assessment.

(7) Subject to being varied on reconsideration, a Notice of Tax Assessment is valid and binding despite any error, defect, omission, or error in procedure.

(8) Except as provided in subsections (9), (10), (11) and (12), the PTT administrator shall issue a Notice of Tax Assessment within one (1) year after the registration date of a taxable transfer.

(9) Where a claim for an exemption is made under paragraph 12(2)(g), the PTT administrator shall issue a Notice of Tax Assessment within twenty-four (24) months after the date of the first transfer after the subdivision.

(10) Where a claim for an exemption is made under paragraph 12(2)(u), the PTT administrator shall issue a Notice of Tax Assessment within sixty-four (64) months after the registration date of the taxable transfer relating to the exemption.

(11) Where a claim for an exemption is made under section 15 or 20, or an application for a refund is made under any of sections 17 or 22, the PTT administrator shall issue a Notice of Tax Assessment within twenty-four (24) months after the registration date of the taxable transfer relating to the exemption or refund.

(12) Despite the time limitations set out in this section, where the PTT administrator determines that a person has made any misrepresentation that is attributable to neglect, carelessness or willful default, or has committed any fraud, in supplying any information under this Law, in claiming an exemption or applying for a refund, or in omitting to disclose any information, or the person has failed to deliver a Return required by this Law, the PTT administrator may make a tax assessment and deliver a Notice of Tax Assessment to that person at any time.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

Reconsideration of Tax Assessment

32.(1) A transferee who receives a Notice of Tax Assessment may request that the PTT administrator reconsider that tax assessment by delivering a Request for Reconsideration to the PTT administrator within sixty (60) days after the date shown on the Notice of Tax Assessment.

(2) A Request for Reconsideration shall include the reasons for the request and set out all relevant facts, including an estimate of the fair market value if that information is relevant to the request.

(3) On receipt of the Request for Reconsideration, the PTT administrator shall consider the request and, within thirty (30) days after receiving the Request for Reconsideration, either

- (a) confirm the assessment or the refusal to provide a refund, as the case may be; or
- (b) vary the assessment or provide a refund, as the case may be.

(4) Where, under paragraph (3)(a), the PTT administrator confirms the assessment or the refusal to provide a refund, the PTT administrator shall give a written notice of that decision to the transferee.

(5) Where, under paragraph (3)(b), the PTT administrator decides to vary an assessment or provide a refund, the PTT administrator shall determine the taxes and interest owing on the taxable transfer, if any, or the refund payable, as the case may be, and deliver an amended Notice of Tax Assessment to the transferee reflecting the decision.

(6) The PTT administrator may extend the time limit for a transferee to deliver a Request for Reconsideration where

- (a) an application for extension is made before the expiry of the time allowed under subsection (1); and
- (b) the application contains the reason for the extension and specifies the period of time applied for.

(7) A Request for Reconsideration may not be made in respect of a reconsideration decision, or in respect of an amended Notice of Tax Assessment given under subsection (5).

Appeal to Court

33.(1) An appeal lies from a decision of the PTT administrator under section 32 to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be commenced within sixty (60) days of the notice of the PTT administrator's decision.

(3) An appeal under this section is a new hearing that is not limited to the evidence and issues that were before the PTT administrator.

(4) The court may dismiss the appeal, allow the appeal, vary the decision from which the appeal is made or refer the decision back to the PTT administrator for reconsideration.

(5) An appeal lies from a decision of the court to the appellate court with leave of a justice of that court.

PART IX

RECORDS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

Record of Taxes Levied

34. The PTT administrator shall keep the following records in respect of the administration of this Law:

- (a) all taxes levied;
- (b) all Returns received;

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

- (c) all applications for exemptions received and the decision made respecting each request;
- (d) all tax payments made and receipts issued;
- (e) all requests for reconsideration received by the PTT administrator and the decision made respecting each request;
- (f) all refund applications received and all refunds paid; and
- (g) all enforcement proceedings taken.

Tax Certificate

35. On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee of thirty dollars ($30) for each taxable transfer, the PTT administrator shall issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of a taxable transfer, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Interest

36. Where this Law provides for the payment of interest on unpaid taxes, the interest accrues on the unpaid taxes at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per year until paid or recovered and accrued interest is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Penalty

37. Where this Law provides for a penalty to be added to unpaid taxes, a one-time penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion of the taxes that remain unpaid shall be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Penalty and Interest in Certain Situations

38. If the PTT administrator determines that a transferee provided information that is false or misleading

- (a) in support of an exemption from tax under this Law,
- (b) in support of an application for a refund under any of sections 17, 22 or 29, or
- (c) relating to the fair market value of a taxable transfer, the transferee shall pay, in addition to the taxes owing on the taxable transfer, a penalty on the unpaid taxes added as of the registration date and interest calculated from the registration date.

Penalty and Interest Where Notice of Assessment Not Paid

39.(1) Except where a penalty is applied under section 38, a penalty shall be added to taxes that remain unpaid on the day after the due date shown on a Notice of Tax Assessment.

(2) Except where interest is applied under section 18, 23 or 38, interest shall accrue on taxes that remain unpaid on the day after the due date shown on a Notice of Tax Assessment, starting on the first day after the due date until the date the taxes are actually paid.

PART XI

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

40.(1) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to Sc'ianew, recoverable by Sc'ianew in a court of competent jurisdiction, in a proceeding before the civil resolution tribunal, or in any manner permitted by law.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(2) The use of one method of collection and enforcement does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(3) A copy of a Notice of Tax Assessment that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the PTT administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(4) Costs incurred by Sc'ianew in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule VII; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

Notice of Enforcement Proceedings

41.(1) Before taking enforcement proceedings for the recovery of taxes, the PTT administrator shall give written notice to the taxpayer of the intention to enforce payment.

(2) Failure to give notice under subsection (1) does not affect the validity of proceedings taken for the recovery of taxes or money to be collected as taxes under this Law.

Creation of Lien

42.(1) Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.

(2) The PTT administrator shall maintain a list of all liens created under this Law and file a notice of the lien in the registry.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.

(4) The PTT administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the PTT administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the PTT administrator shall register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the PTT administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

PART XII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Disclosure of Information

43.(1) The PTT administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law shall not disclose the information or records except

(a) in the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;

(b) in proceedings before a court of law or the civil resolution tribunal, or pursuant to a court order; or

(c) in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The PTT administrator may disclose to the agent of a transferee confidential information relating to the taxable transfer if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the transferee.

(3) An agent shall not use information disclosed under subsection (2) except for the purposes authorized in writing by the transferee referred to in that subsection.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

Disclosure for Research Purposes

44. Notwithstanding section 43,

- (a) the PTT administrator may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided the information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; and
- (b) the Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, in an identifiable form where
 - (i) the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, and
 - (ii) the third party has signed an agreement with the Council to comply with the Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

Validity

45. Nothing under this Law shall be rendered void or invalid, nor shall the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

- (a) an error or omission in a determination made by the PTT administrator, Sc'ianew or any person authorized by Sc'ianew;
- (b) an incorrect or incomplete assessment, a failure to make an assessment, or an error, defect or omission in procedure in a Notice of Tax Assessment or any notice given under this Law; or
- (c) a failure of Sc'ianew, the PTT administrator or any person authorized by Sc'ianew, to do something within the required time.

Limitation on Proceedings

46.(1) Except as specifically provided in this Law, a person shall not commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to Sc'ianew, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.

(2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, the money paid to Sc'ianew is deemed to have been paid voluntarily.

Notices

47.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it shall be given

- (a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address;
 - (b) where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or
 - (c) by personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address.
- (2) Except where otherwise provided in this Law,
- (a) a notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;
 - (b) a notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and
 - (c) a notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

Interpretation

48.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion shall be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

(3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

(4) This Law shall be construed as being remedial and shall be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

(5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.

(6) Headings form no part of the enactment and shall be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

PART XIII

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND COMING INTO FORCE

Transitional Provisions

49. Despite anything to the contrary in this Law, as a transitional measure, the following transitional provisions shall apply to a sale of a residential property where a written pre-sale agreement respecting that property was duly executed by both the purchaser and the vendor on or before the date this Law comes into force, provided that the sale and transfer closes and completes no later than six (6) months after the date on which this Law comes into force:

- (a) the rate of tax shall be one percent (1%) of the taxable transfer's fair market value; and
- (b) sections 19 to 24 of this Law shall not apply.

Repeal

50. The Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2014 is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Force and Effect

51. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by the Council on the 11 day of June, 2018, at Beecher Bay, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of the Council consists of two (2) members of the Council.

SCHEDULE I FAIR MARKET VALUE DETERMINATION

Interpretation

1. In this Schedule,

- (a) a reference to the “rent” does not include an amount that is separately calculated under a lease and is payable to a lessor in reimbursement for
 - (i) taxes, or
 - (ii) reasonable expenses relating to the operation of a multi-tenant premises of which the demised interest in land forms a part;
- (b) “appraisal” means an appraisal conducted by an independent appraiser who is designated Accredited Appraiser Canadian Institute by the Appraisal Institute of Canada or designated, registered or licensed as a certified appraiser under the laws of British Columbia, as applicable; and
- (c) “assessed value” means the most recent assessed value of an interest in land determined in accordance with Sc’ianew’s assessment law made under subparagraph 5(1)(a)(i) of the Act.

Determination of Lease Term

2.(1) Subject to section 6, and subsections (2), (3) and (5), the term of a lease is the sum of

- (a) the number of years for which a transferee has the right to occupy the demised interest in land; and
- (b) the maximum number of years not counted under paragraph (a) that, by the exercise of rights or options to renew or extend the lease, the transferee may occupy the demised interest in land.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the term of a lease is the unexpired portion of the term determined under subsection (1) on the registration date.

(3) If the lease is a time-share or fractional ownership plan, the term of the lease shall be determined by adding together the number of years during which the transferee may, for any part of a year, occupy the interest in land.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the term of a life estate is the number of years of life expectancy based on Table 3 remaining to the holder of the life estate on the registration date of the life estate in the registry.

(5) Where the term of a lease or life estate would otherwise be expressed as a fraction of a year or as a number of years plus a fraction of a year, the term shall be rounded up to the next whole number.

Fair Market Value of Prepaid Leases

3.(1) The fair market value of a transfer involving the granting or transfer of a prepaid lease is the amount of the purchase price paid by the transferee in money and in other consideration where

- (a) the rent under the lease is not subject to adjustment or renegotiation and has been paid for the term of the lease before the registration date or will be paid within one (1) year of that date; and
- (b) the lessor and the transferee deal with each other at arm’s length.

(2) If a lessor and a transferee are not at arm’s length, the fair market value is the amount that would have been paid if the leasehold interest in land had been sold on the registration date in the open market by a willing seller to a willing purchaser free of any trust and unencumbered by a judgment for the payment of money, or a mortgage, or any other financial instrument that secures the payment of money or the performance of an obligation.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

Fair Market Value of Lease Having a Term Not Exceeding 30 Years

4.(1) The fair market value of a transfer involving the grant or transfer of a lease

- (a) to which section 3 does not apply,
- (b) the term of which does not exceed thirty (30) years, and
- (c) where the lessor and the transferee deal with each other at arm's length, is, subject to an election under subsection (2), the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{LSC} + (\text{ARP} \times \text{PVF})$$

where

LSC = any lump sum consideration paid by the transferee for the grant or transfer of the lease, including for any improvements on the leasehold property;

ARP = the annual rent payment to be made during the last year for which rents are fixed pursuant to a lease; and

PVF = the present value factor set out in Column 2 of Table 2 that is opposite the number of years in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the lease.

(2) The transferee may elect to calculate the fair market value of the lease under section 5.

Fair Market Value of Other Leases

5.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the fair market value of a lease to which section 4 does not apply is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{VSI} \times \text{P}$$

where

VSI = the fair market value of the fee simple interest, including improvements, in the demised interest in land; and

P = the percentage set out in Column 2 of Table 1 opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the lease.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) where part of the improvements on a parcel of land are leased, the fair market value of the demised interest in land is determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{VSI} \times \text{P} \times \text{ARADP}}{\text{ARA}}$$

where

VSI = the fair market value of the fee simple interest, including improvements, within which the demised interest in land is situated;

P = the percentage set out in Column 2 of Table 1 opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the lease;

ARADP = the aggregate rentable area of the demised interest in land; and

ARA = the aggregate rentable area of the improvements on the land within which the demised interest in land is situated.

(3) The VSI in subsections (1) and (2) is the assessed value of the leasehold interest in land, if available.

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(4) If an assessed value is not available, the PTT administrator may

(a) determine the VSI using the best available data, which may include assessed values or appraisal data of comparable properties; or

(b) require the transferee to provide an appraisal of the VSI at the transferee's cost.

(5) If the PTT administrator determines the VSI under paragraph (4)(a), the transferee may, within ten (10) days after the PTT administrator advised the transferee of the VSI, elect to provide an appraisal of the VSI to the PTT administrator at the transferee's cost and within an additional twenty-one (21) days or such additional time frame as agreed to by the PTT administrator.

(6) If the transferee provides an appraisal under subsection (5), the PTT administrator shall use the VSI determined by the appraisal for the purposes of this section.

Fair Market Value of a Lease Modification Agreement

6.(1) The term of the lease modification agreement for the purposes of this section is the sum of

(a) the term of the lease before extension by the lease modification agreement, calculated under subsection 2(1) without regard to subsection 2(2) from the date the lease agreement was first executed; and

(b) the number of years, applying subsection 2(5), by which the lease is extended by the lease modification agreement.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), options or rights to renew or extend the lease pursuant to the lease modification agreement are deemed exercised to give the maximum possible extension.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), where the term of the lease modification agreement is one hundred (100) years or less, its fair market value is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{LSC} + (\text{ARP} \times \text{PVF})$$

where

LSC = any lump sum consideration paid by the transferee for the lease modification, including for any improvements on the leasehold property;

ARP = the annual rent payment to be made during the last year for which rents are fixed pursuant to the lease as extended by the lease modification agreement; and

PVF = the present value factor set out in Column 2 of Table 2 that is opposite the number of years in Column 1 that corresponds to the number of years applicable under paragraph (1)(b).

(4) Where the term of the lease modification agreement exceeds one hundred years (100) years, section 5 applies for the purpose of calculating the fair market value of the lease modification agreement except that "P" equals the percentage in Column 2 of Table 1 that is opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the number of years applicable under paragraph (1)(b).

(5) The transferee may elect to calculate the fair market value of the lease under section 5 as modified by subsection (4).

Fair Market Value of Life Estates

7. The fair market value of a life estate in a lease is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{VFS} \times \text{P}$$

Beecher Bay Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

where

VFS = the fair market value of the leasehold interest in land determined

(a) as though the life estate did not exist; and

(b) under section 3, 4 or 5 as applicable.

P = the percentage in Column 2 of Table 1 that is opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the life estate.

Transfers That Are Not Arm's Length

8. Where a transferor and a transferee do not deal with each other at arm's length, the PTT administrator may

(a) use the assessed value; or

(b) require the transferee to provide with the Return, as applicable and at the transferee's cost, an appraisal of

(i) the valuation required under subsection 3(2),

(ii) the ARP under section 4 or section 6 that would be paid on the open market on the registration date by an arm's length transferee, or

(iii) the VSI under section 5 that would be paid on the open market on the registration date by an arm's length transferee.

Campbell River Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 29th day of May, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

CAMPBELL RIVER INDIAN BAND
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to, at least once each year, make a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Campbell River Indian Band duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Campbell River Indian Band Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Campbell River Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2011;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means the Campbell River Indian Band, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

“Taxation Law” means the Campbell River Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2011.

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 24th day of May, 2018, at Campbell River, in the Province of British Columbia.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules, Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

CHAWATHIL FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Chawathil First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Chawathil First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Chawathil First Nation Property Assessment By-law (2004);

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means the Chawathil First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

“Taxation Law” means the Chawathil First Nation Property Taxation By-Law (2004).

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 15th day of July, 2018, at Hope, in the Province of British Columbia.

First Nations Tax Commission

COOK'S FERRY

ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

- A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;
- B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;
- C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and
- D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Cook's Ferry duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Cook's Ferry Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.
2. In this Law:

"Act" means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

"annual budget" means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

"Assessment Law" means the Cook's Ferry Indian Band Assessment By-Law, 1993;

"Council" has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

"First Nation" means Cook's Ferry, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

"Law" means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

"local revenues" means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

"property taxation law" means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

"Taxation Law" means the Cook's Ferry Indian Band Taxation By-Law, 1993.

3. The First Nation's annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;
- (d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;
- (e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”;
- (f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;
- (b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two (2) events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

- (c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;
- (d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and
- (e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III – Administration

DIVISION 1 – Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, chairperson and vice-chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation;
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration, Expenses and Contracts

10. (1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

(3) Subsection (2) does not require the reporting of remuneration, expenses or benefits received

(a) in common by all members of the First Nation,

(b) under a program or service universally accessible to all members of the First Nation on published terms and conditions, or

(c) from a trust arrangement according to the terms of the trust.

DIVISION 2 – Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. (1) In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) For purposes of section 12,

(a) an individual is independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(b) an individual does not have a financial relationship with the First Nation government as a result of the individual’s receipt of the following from the First Nation:

- (i) remuneration for acting in his or her capacity as a councillor or as a member of any First Nation committee;
- (ii) fixed retirement compensation;
- (iii) payments or benefits paid in common to all First Nation members;
- (iv) payments or benefits paid under a program or service where such payments are universally accessible to First Nation members on published terms and conditions; or
- (v) payments or benefits paid from a trust arrangement according to the terms of the trust.

Committee Established

12. (1) The Finance and Audit Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions requiring

(a) criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Finance and Audit Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) each member of the Finance and Audit Committee to sign annually a statement confirming that the member is independent.

(4) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councilors.

(5) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than two (2) complete fiscal years.

(6) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

(a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or,

(b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(7) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chairperson and a vice-chairperson of the Committee.
- (2) The chairperson of the Committee must be a councillor.

Committee Procedures

14. (1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Unless a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chairperson of the Committee may cast a second tie breaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

(a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer, or

(b) it is a meeting with the auditor.

(6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every three (3) months in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee, and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15. (1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) review, and recommend to the Council for approval, draft annual budgets and multi-year financial plans for the First Nation;

(b) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variances; and

(c) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit Responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;
- (b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;
- (c) review, and make recommendations to the Council on, the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review, and make recommendations to the Council, on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited local revenue account financial statements and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review, and make recommendations to the Council, on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 108 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (h) periodically review, and make recommendations to the Council on, the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may, by resolution, assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council other activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation.

DIVISION 3 – Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18. (1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
 - (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
 - (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
 - (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
 - (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
 - (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
 - (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
 - (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
 - (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
 - (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.
- (3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions
- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation, and
 - (b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.
- (4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19. (1) The senior manager must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all accounts of the First Nation;

- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets, multi-year financial plans and with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 72, the quarterly financial statements required in section 73 and the draft annual financial statements required in section 74 and section 75;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and financial information required by the Council;
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;;
- (i) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (j) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;
- (k) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (l) to develop and recommend procedures for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (m) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and
- (n) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20. (1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21. (1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

- (2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:
 - (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
 - (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a) including the linkages between them;
 - (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
 - (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers and employees of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers and employees referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 – Conduct Expectations

Conflict of Interest Provisions

22. (1) The Council must establish and maintain policies and procedures respecting the avoidance and mitigation of conflicts of interest including the following:

- (a) defining the private interests of councillors, officers, employees, committee members, contractors and agents that could result in a conflict of interest;
- (b) requiring the disclosure of actual or potential conflicts of interest as they arise and keeping of records of such disclosures;
- (c) specifying restrictions on the acceptance of gifts and benefits by any person referred to in paragraph (a) that might reasonably be seen to have been offered in order to influence the making of a decision by that person;
- (d) prohibiting any person referred to in paragraph (a) who has a conflict of interest from attempting to influence a decision or from participating in the making of a decision respecting the matter in which the person has a conflict of interest; and
- (e) specifying how any undisclosed or any alleged but not admitted conflicts of interest of councillors are to be addressed.

Conduct of Councillors

23. (1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards,
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation,
- (c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances,
- (d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with provisions in this Law for, or policies and procedures established by the council for, the avoidance and mitigation of those conflicts, and

(e) disclose as soon as practicable any circumstances which could result in a conflict of interest, and sign a declaration annually, in a form established by Council from time to time, disclosing relevant information respecting their private interests which could result in a conflict of interest.

(2) If a court of competent jurisdiction or the First Nation has determined, after a thorough and diligent investigation, that a councillor has contravened this Law, then

- (a) the councillor must be removed from the Finance and Audit Committee, if applicable;
- (b) the First Nation may use any legal means available to it to remedy the situation; and
- (c) the Council must communicate the determination to the membership as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Committee Members, Contractors and Agents

24. (1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation,
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation, or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) When a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards,
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council, including policies and procedures established under section 22,
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest, and
- (d) disclose as soon as practicable any circumstances that could result in a conflict of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section 24 into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation,
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation,
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor, and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined including dismissal;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
- (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV – Financial Management

DIVISION 1 – Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

- 25. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

- 26. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that
- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years,
 - (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts,
 - (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category,
 - (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category,
 - (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from any reserve accounts, and
 - (f) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 27. (1) An annual budget must be prepared that encompasses all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify
- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category,
 - (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category, and
 - (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year end surplus.
- (2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.
- (3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

28. (1) On or before March 25 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before March 25 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval, and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

29. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when this deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced, and

(b) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

30. The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

31. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to the local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Member Information or Involvement

32. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

(a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues,

- (b) the multi-year financial plan, and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

33. (1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation,
 - (b) opened in a financial institution; and
 - (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.
- (2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:
- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) and (c); and
 - (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues; and
 - (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust.
- (3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

- 34. (1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.
- (2) The senior financial officer
- (a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 33, and
 - (b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 33 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 – Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

- 35. (1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.
- (2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that permitted under a local revenue law.

Prohibited Agreements

36. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure without Appropriation

37. (1) Subject to subsection 38(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

38. (1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

Appropriations

39. (1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year End

40. (1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

- (a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year, and
- (b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

41. (1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is an approved charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one (1) or more expenditures chargeable against one (1) or more appropriations.

(6) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable, or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(7) The authorized officer for the trust must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(8) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(9) Subject to subsection (8), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for, payment from any appropriation.

(10) Subject to subsection (8), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for, payment from the appropriation.

Form of Payment

42. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by authorized signing officers.

DIVISION 4 – General Matters

Advances

43. (1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from the local revenue account in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

44. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

45. (1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid, and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

46. (1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsections 33(2) and 33(3), other than a trust account or local revenue account, may be deposited in the general account unless the program or resolution under which the account was established requires interest to be retained in that account.

- (2) All interest earned on
 - (a) a trust account must be retained in that account; and
 - (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

47. Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

Write Off of Debts

- 48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off
 - (a) if approved by the Council; or
 - (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

- 49. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only
- (a) if approved by the Council; or
 - (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year End Surplus

50. (1) Subject to subsection (2), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year may be paid into the general account described in section 33, or may be retained in another account described in subsection 33(3) if required by the program or resolution under which the account was established.

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 – Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

51. (1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council, or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

52. (1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, buildings, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

53. (1) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements in the name of the First Nation for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

54. (1) If the general account described in section 33 is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

55. (1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) The First Nation may only secure long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(3) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(4) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for Capital Projects

56. (1) Subject to this Law, the First Nation may enter into financing agreements for Council-approved capital projects in an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 94(2).

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

57. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 54(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

58. (1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 64(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

59. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Operational Controls

60. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

Limitation on Business Activity

61. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor,
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner, or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance, or
- (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or license of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by or in trust for the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation, or
- (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

62. (1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the risks associated with giving the guarantee and has assessed the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(2) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

(a) authorized under section 107,

(b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party, or

(c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(3) Subject to a resolution described in section 107, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

(a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;

(b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;

(c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and

(d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

63. (1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

(a) as specifically approved by the Council, or

(b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

64. (1) Money in an account described in section 33 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one (1) or more of the following:

(a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;

(b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short term paper of, or guaranteed by a financial institution;

- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any class of investments permitted under an Act of a province relating to trustees;
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 33, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder,
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary, or
- (c) a limited partnership or joint venture in which the First Nation is a partner.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority:

- (a) government transfer funds;
- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in Entities in which the First Nation has an Interest

65. (1) The First Nation may make a loan to an entity in which the First Nation has an interest only if the loan is approved by the Council and meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council approves a loan under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the loan and the costs of administering the loan.

(3) Any loan made to an entity in which the First Nation has an interest must be set out in an annual report prepared pursuant to section 82 which must include details about the amount loaned, the purpose of the loan, the name of the entity receiving the loan and repayment of principal and interest on the loan.

(4) Any loan made pursuant to this section must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(5) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

66. (1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

67. (1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

68. (1) The Council must ensure that insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 67 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation is procured and maintained in force.

(2) The Council must purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

69. In this section:

“fraudulent financial reporting” means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

“fraudulent non-financial reporting” means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

70. The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

(1) fraudulent financial reporting;

- (2) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (3) misappropriation of assets; and
- (4) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 – Financial Reporting

Separate Accounting

71. (1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.
- (2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must
- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
 - (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

72. (1) At the end of each month the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.
- (2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee within a reasonable period of time following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

73. (1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.
- (2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.
- (3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be
- (a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (b) reviewed and approved by the Council.
- (4) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for and report on all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other money of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with information respecting the other revenues account.

Annual Financial Statements

74. (1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 75(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

- (a) the financial information of the First Nation and its related bodies for the fiscal year; and
- (b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 27(2).

(6) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within a reasonable period of time following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(7) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within a reasonable period of time following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local Revenues Annual Financial Statements

75. (1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

76. The annual financial statements must include the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (e) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Audit Requirements

77. (1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal year end.

(2) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(3) The auditor must conduct that part of the annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account in accordance with Board standards for the audit of local revenue accounts and must report on that account separately from other accounts.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

- (a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements, and
- (b) an audit opinion or review comments on the special purpose reports referred to in subsection 76.

Appointment of Auditor

78. (1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered, or
- (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation:

- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act, and Board standards, or

- (b) to the extent they are not in compliance, to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters
- (3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must
 - (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members, and
 - (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant
 - (i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada or its respective counterpart in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and
 - (ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.
- (4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances
 - (a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances, and
 - (b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

79. (1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

- (a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request, and
 - (b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.
- (2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must
- (a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control, and
 - (b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.
- (3) The auditor must be given notice of
- (a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee,
 - (b) every Council meeting where matters relating to the annual audit, including the approval of the annual financial statements, will be considered, and
 - (c) every meeting of the members of the First Nation where the financial administration of the First Nation will be considered.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on any subject that concerns the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may call a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee to discuss any subject that concerns the auditor of the First Nation.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

80. (1) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration within a reasonable period of time after the fiscal year end for which the statements were prepared.

(2) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal year end for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

81. (1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 74(1) and 75(1) may be published or distributed, they must

- (a) be approved by the Council,
- (b) be signed by
 - (i) the Chief of the First Nation,
 - (ii) the chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee, and
 - (iii) the senior financial officer, and
- (c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements and the auditor's audit opinion or review comments of the special purpose reports referred to in section 76.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsections 74(1) and 75(1) and special purpose reports must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) Council must provide members and any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act with access to all audited annual financial statements, including financial statements respecting local revenues, and special purpose reports.

Annual Report

82. (1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

- (2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:
 - (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
 - (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
 - (c) the audited annual financial statements of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year including special purpose reports.
- (3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)
 - (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
 - (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
 - (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.
- (4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report.

DIVISION 8 – Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

83. (1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

84. (1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

85. (1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) No First Nation's record may be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted and in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Local Revenue Account Records

86. (1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) The senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Local Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Confidentiality of Information

87. (1) No person may be given access to First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted in and in accordance with the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Information Technology

88. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its data base.

PART V – Capital Projects

Definitions

89. In this Part:

“capital project” means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

“First Nation's tangible capital assets” means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

- (b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,
- (c) are to be used on a continuing basis,
- (d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations; and
- (e) have a replacement value of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more.

“life-cycle management program” means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets as described in section 93;

“rehabilitation” includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

90. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets,
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part, and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards, that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

91. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

92. At least quarterly at a Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and

- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 95 for every project referred to in that section.

Life-Cycle Management Program

93. (1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation's tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;
- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;

- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out
 - (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
 - (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
 - (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

94. (1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 93 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years, and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

95. (1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, the construction and rehabilitation of buildings and other improvements to land, including capital infrastructure:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;

- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;
- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) The construction or rehabilitation of any buildings, improvements, or any other capital projects, infrastructure by, or under the direction of, the First Nation must be carried out in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1) unless the funding agency has a specific process or specific requirements that must be followed, in which case the funding agency's process or requirements shall prevail as approved by Council.

Capital Project Consultants

96. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

97. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects, or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI – Board Standards and Powers

Application

98. This Part applies to the First Nation if it is a borrowing member as defined in the Act, or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act.

Compliance With Standards

99. (1) The First Nation must comply with all applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the any required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

100. (1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if

- (a) the First Nation is

- (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
- (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required, the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board
 - (i) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and
 - (ii) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.
- (2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if
 - (a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
 - (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required, the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board
 - (i) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and
 - (ii) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

PART VII – Land Management

Application

101. This Part applies to the First Nation if it has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act.

Obligations

102. (1) The First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(1) The Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

PART VIII - Miscellaneous

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, Etc.

103. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

- (a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,
- (b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,
- (c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or
- (d) a person has failed to comply with the conflict of interest requirements of this Law or of any policy or procedure established pursuant to section 22, the person may disclose the circumstances to the chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

104. (1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 103(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 103, the chairperson must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

105. (1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 103 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 103 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chairperson of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 103 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports,

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 103, and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 103.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

106. (1) If the Council passes a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law, the councillors who are present at the meeting at which the resolution is made are personally jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a councillor who:

(a) votes against the resolution; and

(b) provides a written notice of dissent to the resolution to the senior manager and the secretary to the Council within three days of the resolution having been made.

(3) A councillor who was not present at a meeting at which a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is passed is personally liable to the First Nation as if the councillor was present at the meeting unless, within seven (7) days after becoming aware of the resolution, the councillor provides a written notice of dissent to the resolution to the senior manager and the secretary to the Council.

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) do not apply if the Council relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(5) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) or (3) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(6) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of First Nation financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification Against Proceedings

107. (1) In this section:

“indemnify” means to pay amounts required or incurred

- (a) to defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person’s powers or the performance or intended performance of the person’s duties or functions, or
- (b) to satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

“First Nation official” means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official’s conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review of Law

108. (1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation, and
 - (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.
- (2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law, or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.
- (3) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.
- (4) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

109. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming Into Force

110. This Law comes into force on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Financial Management Board under Section 9 of the Act.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 22nd day of May, 2018, at Duncan in the Province of British Columbia at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of five (5) members of Council was present throughout.

FORT NELSON FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Fort Nelson First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Fort Nelson First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

First Nations Tax Commission

GITWANGAK FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Gitwangak First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Gitwangak First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Gitwangak First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2012;

“First Nation” means the Gitwangak First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“taxable property” means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

“Taxation Law” means the Gitwangak First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2012.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2018 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than one hundred dollars ($100), the taxable property shall be taxed at one hundred dollars ($100) for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

6. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

7. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

8. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

9. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 26th day of September 2018, at Gitwangak, in the Province of British Columbia.

GRASS 15 RESERVE
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Grass 15 Indian reserve has been set apart for the use and benefit of nine First Nations, being Aitchelitz First Nation, Kwaw-kwaw-Apilt First Nation, Shxwax Village First Nation, Skwah, Skowkale First Nation, Soowahlie First Nation, Squiala First Nation, Tzeachten First Nation, and Yakwekwioose First Nation, and those First Nations have each made a delegation law pursuant to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, delegating their law making power regarding property taxation of the Grass 15 reserve to the Ch-ihl-kway-uhk Tribe Society, each of which laws was approved by the First Nations Tax Commission;

B. Pursuant to its delegated power, the Ch-ihl-kway-uhk Tribe Society may, in respect of Grass 15 reserve, make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenue;

C. The Ch-ihl-kway-uhk Tribe Society has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law for Grass 15 reserve;

D. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires that when a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) has been made, at least once each year, a law must be made establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

E. The Ch-ihl-kway-uhk Tribe Society wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Board of the Ch-ihl-kway-uhk Tribe Society duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Grass 15 Reserve Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Grass 15 Reserve Property Assessment Law, 2016;

“Delegate” means the Ch-ihl-kway-uhk Tribe Society, a society incorporated under the laws of the province of British Columbia with the registration number of S-0038196, and with a civic address of 8A – 7201 Vedder Road, Chilliwack, BC, V2R 4G5;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection ;

“local revenues” means money raised by the Delegate under a local revenue law and payments made to the Delegate in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the Delegate under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and “Taxation Law” means the Grass 15 Reserve Property Taxation Law, 2016.

3. The Delegate’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018, and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the Delegate wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, the Delegate must amend this Law in accordance with board of directors procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

Kitselas First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 29th day of May, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules - Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

KITSELAS FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Kitselas First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Kitselas First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“First Nation” means the Kitselas First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“taxable property” means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

“Taxation Law” means the Kitselas First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2012.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2018 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than one hundred dollars ($100), the taxable property shall be taxed at one hundred dollars ($100) for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

6. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

7. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

8. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

9. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 23rd day of May, 2018, at Kitselas Administration, in the Province of British Columbia.

Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation
Annual Rates Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 29th day of May, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

KWAW KWAW APILT FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2011;

“First Nation” means the Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“taxable property” means property in a reserve that is subject to taxation under a property taxation law; and

“Taxation Law” means the Kwaw Kwaw Apilt First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2011.

3. Taxes levied pursuant to the Taxation Law for the taxation year 2018 shall be determined by imposing the rates set out in the Schedule upon the assessed value of all taxable property in each property class.

4. Notwithstanding section 3, where the amount of the tax levied on taxable property in a taxation year is less than one hundred dollars ($ 100), the taxable property shall be taxed at one hundred dollars ($ 100) for the taxation year.

5. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

6. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

7. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

8. The Schedule attached to this Law forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

9. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 18 day of May 2018, at Chilliwack, in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of Two (2) members of Council.

Chief Betty Henry

Councillor Sandra Joe

(3) Unless a word or expression is defined under subsection (1) or (2) or another provision of this Law, the definitions in the Interpretation Act apply.

(4) All references to named enactments in this Law are to enactments of the Government of Canada.

Interpretation

3.(1) In this Law, the following rules of interpretation apply:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;
- (b) words importing female persons include male persons and corporations and words importing male persons include female persons and corporations;
- (c) if a word or expression is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the same word or expressions have corresponding meanings;
- (d) the expression “must” is to be construed as imperative, and the expression “may” is to be construed as permissive;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

- (3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

- 10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

- (a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or
- (b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice-chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

- (a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;
- (b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and
- (c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

- (a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or
 - (b) it is a meeting with the auditor.
- (6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

15.(1) The Committee must carry out the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) annually develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, short, medium and long-term

(i) strategic plans, projections and priorities,

(ii) operational plans, projections and priorities,

(iii) business plans, projections and priorities, and

(iv) financial plans, projections and priorities;

(b) review draft annual budgets and recommend them to the Council for approval;

(c) on an ongoing basis, monitor the financial performance of the First Nation against the budget and report any significant variations to the Council; and

(d) review the quarterly financial statements and recommend them to the Council for approval.

(2) The Committee may make a report or recommendations to the Council on any matter respecting the financial administration of the First Nation that is not otherwise specified to be its responsibility under this Law.

Audit responsibilities

16. The Committee must carry out the following audit activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

(a) make recommendations to the Council on the selection, engagement and performance of an auditor;

(b) receive assurances on the independence of a proposed or appointed auditor;

- (c) review and make recommendations to the Council on the planning, conduct and results of audit activities;
- (d) review and make recommendations to the Council on the audited annual financial statements, including the audited annual financial statements respecting the local revenue account and any special purpose reports;
- (e) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on policies, procedures and directions on reimbursable expenses and perquisites of the councillors, officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (f) monitor financial reporting risks and fraud risks and the effectiveness of mitigating controls for those risks taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (g) conduct a review of this Law under section 106 and, where appropriate, recommend amendments to the Council; and
- (h) periodically review and make recommendations to the Council on the terms of reference of the Committee.

Council Assigned Responsibilities

17. The Council may assign to the Committee or another committee of the Council the following activities in respect of the financial administration of the First Nation:

- (a) to develop, and recommend to the Council for approval, performance measurements and goals designed to confirm that management activities, including financial management, occur as planned;
- (b) to prepare, and recommend to the Council for approval, cash management plans;
- (c) to review and report to the Council on the financial content of any First Nation reports;
- (d) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the appropriateness of the First Nation's accounting and financial reporting systems, policies and practices;
- (e) to review, and recommend to the Council for approval, any proposed significant changes in the First Nation's accounting or financial reporting systems, policies, procedures or directions;
- (f) to monitor the collection and receipt of the First Nation's financial assets, including debts owed to the First Nation;
- (g) to review and report to the Council on the First Nation's risk management policies and control and information systems and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (h) to review the adequacy of security of information, information systems and recovery plans and, where appropriate, recommend improvements to the Council;
- (i) to monitor compliance with the legal obligations of the First Nation, including legislative, regulatory and contractual obligations, and report to the Council;

- (j) to review and report to the Council on the adequacy of financial administration personnel and resources;
- (k) to review, monitor and report to the Council on the adequacy and appropriateness of the First Nation's insurance coverage respecting significant First Nation risks; and
- (l) to review, monitor and report to the Council on material litigation and its impact on financial administration and reporting.

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;
- (b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;
- (c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;
- (d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;
- (e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);
- (f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;
- (g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;
- (h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;
- (i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;
- (j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;
- (k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

(l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;

(n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and

(o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

(a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;

(b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;

(c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;

(d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;

(e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and

(f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
- (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

- (a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;
- (b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or
- (c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

- (a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;
- (c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and
- (d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

- (a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;
- (b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;
- (c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or
- (d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that

- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
- (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
- (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
- (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
- (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
- (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
- (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

- (2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

- (3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

(a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and

(b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

(a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;

(b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and

(c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

- (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
- (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
- (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

(a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and

(b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

- (2) All interest earned on
 - (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
 - (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
 - (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
 - (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
 - (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.
- (2) The First Nation may carry on a business that
- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or
 - (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.
- (3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities
- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
 - (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.
- (4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

- 61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).
- (2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.
- (3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is
- (a) authorized under section 105;
 - (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
 - (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.
- (4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;
- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.

Permitted Investments in First Nation Member Activities

64.(1) The First Nation may only make a loan to a member of the First Nation or to an entity in which a member of the First Nation has an interest if the loan is made from a program of the First Nation that has been approved by the Council and that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Before the Council establishes a program under this section, the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with the program and the costs of administering the program.

(3) A program referred to in subsection (1) must satisfy the following criteria:

- (a) the program must be universally available to all members of the First Nation;
- (b) the terms and conditions of the program must be published and accessible to all members of the First Nation;
- (c) all loans made from the program and all payments received from those loans must be set out in an annual report that includes details about
 - (i) the amounts loaned,
 - (ii) the purposes of the loans,
 - (iii) subject to applicable privacy laws, the names of those receiving a loan, and
 - (iv) repayments of principal and interest on the loans; and

(d) all loans must be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

(4) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions for the operation of the program referred to in this section.

Administration of Investments and Loans

65.(1) If the First Nation is authorized to make an investment or loan under this Law, the senior financial officer may do all things necessary or advisable for the purpose of making, continuing, exchanging or disposing of the investment or loan.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized to make a loan under this Law, the Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the terms and conditions under which loans may be made, including a requirement that all loans be recorded in a written agreement that provides for proper security for repayment and sets out the terms for repayment of principal and interest.

Risk Assessment and Management

66.(1) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must identify and assess any significant risks to the First Nation's financial assets, the First Nation's tangible capital assets as defined in Part V and the operations of the First Nation.

(2) Annually, and more often if necessary, the senior manager must report to the Finance and Audit Committee on proposed plans to mitigate the risks identified in subsection (1) or, where appropriate, to manage or transfer those risks by agreement with others or by purchasing insurance.

Insurance

67.(1) On recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee, the Council must procure and maintain in force all insurance coverage that is appropriate and commensurate with the risks identified in section 66 and any other risks associated with any assets, property or resources under the care or control of the First Nation.

(2) The Council may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a councillor or an officer or their personal representatives against any liability arising from that person being or having been a councillor or an officer.

Fraud Risks

68.(1) In this section:

"fraudulent financial reporting" means an intentional act in financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of financial reports and that may result in a material omission from or misstatement of financial reports;

"fraudulent non-financial reporting" means an intentional act in non-financial reporting that is designed to deceive users of non-financial reports; and

“misappropriation of assets” means the theft of First Nation assets in circumstances where the theft may result in a material omission or misstatement in financial reports.

(2) The Council must establish procedures for the identification and assessment of the following types of potential fraud in the First Nation:

- (a) fraudulent financial reporting;
- (b) fraudulent non-financial reporting;
- (c) misappropriation of assets; and
- (d) corruption and illegal acts.

DIVISION 7 - Financial Reporting

GAAP

69. All accounting practices of the First Nation must comply with GAAP.

Separate Accounting

70.(1) The senior financial officer must account for local revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must

- (a) account for all other revenues of the First Nation separately from other moneys of the First Nation; and
- (b) provide the First Nations Finance Authority or the Board, on its request, with accounting information respecting the other revenues.

Monthly Financial Information

71.(1) At the end of each month, the senior financial officer must prepare financial information respecting the financial affairs of the First Nation in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the financial information in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days following the end of the month for which the information was prepared.

Quarterly Financial Statements

72.(1) At the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, the senior financial officer must prepare financial statements for the First Nation for that quarter in the form and with the content approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) The senior financial officer must provide the quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) to the Council and the Finance and Audit Committee not more than forty-five (45) days after the end of the quarter of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(3) The quarterly financial statements in subsection (1) must be

(a) reviewed by the Finance and Audit Committee and recommended to Council for approval; and

(b) reviewed and approved by the Council.

Annual Financial Statements

73.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) At the end of each fiscal year the senior financial officer must prepare the annual financial statements of the First Nation for that fiscal year in accordance with GAAP and to a standard that is at least comparable to that generally accepted for governments in Canada.

(3) The annual financial statements must be prepared in a form approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(4) The annual financial statements must include the following information:

(a) the financial information of the First Nation for the fiscal year; and

(b) the revenue categories for the First Nation's lands referred to in subsection 26(2).

(5) The senior financial officer must provide draft annual financial statements to the Finance and Audit Committee for review within forty-five (45) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

(6) The Finance and Audit Committee must present draft annual financial statements to the Council for review within sixty (60) days following the end of the fiscal year for which they were prepared.

Local RevenuesAnnual Financial Statements

74.(1) The senior financial officer must prepare separate annual financial statements respecting the First Nation's local revenues in accordance with Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(2) The council must establish policies and procedures respecting the annual preparation, review, audit and approval of the annual financial statements referred to in subsection (1) including any required deadlines for completing these activities.

(3) The policies and procedures referred to in subsection (2) must be consistent with any requirements of the Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues.

(4) The provisions of this Law, including this section, respecting separate annual financial statements for local revenues do not apply if Board standards respecting financial reporting of local revenues permit

the First Nation to report on its local revenues in its audited annual financial statements as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements and the First Nation chooses to report on its local revenues in that manner.

Special Purpose Reports

75. The senior financial officer must prepare the following special purpose reports:

- (a) a report setting out all payments made to honour guarantees and indemnities for that fiscal year;
- (b) a report setting out the information required in section 10;
- (c) a report setting out all debts or obligations forgiven by the First Nation;
- (d) a report setting out the information required in paragraph 64(3)(c);
- (e) if the First Nation has a land code in force, a report setting out moneys of the First Nation derived from First Nation lands, categorized and shown separately from other revenues and that includes a sub-category respecting revenues from natural resources obtained from First Nation lands; and
- (f) any other report required under the Act or an agreement.

Appointment of Auditor

76.(1) The First Nation must appoint an auditor for each fiscal year to hold office until the later of

- (a) the end of the Council meeting when the audited annual financial statements for that fiscal year are being considered; or
- (b) the date the auditor's successor is appointed.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the auditor must be set out in an engagement letter approved by the Finance and Audit Committee and must include the auditor's obligation

- (a) to confirm in writing that the annual financial statements and the audit of them comply with this Law, the Act and Board standards, where applicable, or

- (b) to identify in writing consequential non-compliance matters.

(3) To be eligible for appointment as the auditor of the First Nation, an auditor must

- (a) be independent of the First Nation, its related bodies, councillors and officers and members; and
- (b) be a public accounting firm or public accountant

- (i) in good standing with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Certified General Accountants Association of Canada or the Society of Management Accountants of Canada and their respective counterparts in the province or territory in which the public accounting firm or public accountant is practicing, and

(ii) licensed or otherwise authorized to practice public accounting in the province or territory in which the majority of the reserve lands of the First Nation are located.

(4) If the auditor ceases to be independent, the auditor must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the circumstances

(a) advise the First Nation in writing of the circumstances; and

(b) eliminate the circumstances that resulted in loss of independence or resign as the auditor.

Auditor's Authority

77.(1) To conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the First Nation, the auditor must be given access to

(a) all records of the First Nation for examination or inspection and given copies of these records on request; and

(b) any councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation to ask any questions or request any information.

(2) On request of the auditor, every person referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must

(a) make available all records referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in that person's care or control; and

(b) provide the auditor with full information and explanation about the affairs of the First Nation as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.

(3) The auditor must be given notice of

(a) every meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee; and

(b) the Council meeting where the annual audit, including the annual financial statements, will be considered and approved.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the auditor may attend any meeting for which he or she must be given notice under this section or to which the auditor has been invited and must be given the opportunity to be heard at those meetings on issues that concern the auditor as auditor of the First Nation.

(5) The auditor may communicate with the Finance and Audit Committee, as the auditor considers appropriate, to discuss any subject that the auditor recommends be considered by the Committee.

(6) The auditor may be excluded from all or any part of a meeting of the Finance and Audit Committee or the Council by a recorded vote if the subject matter relates to the retaining or dismissal of the auditor.

Audit Requirements

78.(1) The annual financial statements of the First Nation referred to in subsection 73(1) must be audited by the auditor not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the fiscal-year end.

(2) The separate annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1) must be audited by the auditor at least once every calendar year.

(3) The auditor must conduct the audit of the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.

(4) When conducting the audit, the auditor must provide

(a) an audit opinion of the annual financial statements; and

(b) an audit report or review engagement report on the special purpose reports referred to in section 75.

Review of Audited Annual Financial Statements

79.(1) This section does not apply to the annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1).

(2) The audited annual financial statements must be provided to the Finance and Audit Committee for its review and consideration not more than one hundred and five (105) days after the fiscal year-end for which the statements were prepared.

(3) The Council must review and approve the audited annual financial statements not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year for which the statements were prepared.

Access to Annual Financial Statements

80.(1) Before the annual financial statements referred to in both subsections 73(1) and 74(1) may be published or distributed, they must

(a) be approved by the Council;

(b) be signed by

(i) the Chief of the First Nation or the Council chair,

(ii) the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, and

(iii) the senior financial officer; and

(c) include the auditor's audit report of the annual financial statements.

(2) The audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) must be available for inspection by members of the First Nation at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours.

(3) The following documents must be available for inspection by any person referred to in subsection 14(2) of the Act at the principal administrative offices of the First Nation during normal business hours:

- (a) the audited annual financial statements respecting local revenues referred to in subsection 74(1), or
- (b) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 73(1) if those statements include a report on local revenues as a distinct segment of the activities that appear in those statements.

Annual Report

81.(1) Not later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the end of each fiscal year, the Council must prepare an annual report on the operations and financial performance of the First Nation for the previous fiscal year.

(2) The annual report referred to in subsection (1) must include the following:

- (a) a description of the services and operations of the First Nation;
- (b) a progress report on any established financial objectives and performance measures of the First Nation;
- (c) the audited annual financial statements referred to in subsection 78(1) for the previous fiscal year; and
- (d) any special purpose reports referred to in section 75, including the auditor's report or review engagement report, as applicable.

(3) The senior manager must provide the annual report referred to in subsection (1)

- (a) to a member of the First Nation as soon as practicable after a request is made by the member;
- (b) to the Board as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act; and
- (c) to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the report's publication, if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures respecting, or give directions respecting, an accessible process and remedy available to First Nation members who have requested but have not been provided with the annual report of the First Nation including requiring

- (a) the maintenance of a register for the annual report that identifies all members who have requested a copy of the annual report, the date each request was received and the date the annual report was provided to the member; and

- (b) the senior manager to report quarterly to the Finance and Audit Committee on the steps taken to ensure compliance with subsection (3) and council policy made under this subsection.

DIVISION 8 - Information and Information Technology

Ownership of Records

82.(1) All records that are produced by or on behalf of the First Nation or kept, used or received by any person on behalf of the First Nation are the property of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions to ensure that the records referred to in subsection (1) remain the property of the First Nation.

Operations Manual

83.(1) The senior manager must prepare and maintain a current operations manual respecting every element of the First Nation's administrative systems, including any financial administration systems referred to in this Law.

(2) The operations manual under subsection (1) must be made available to councillors, members of the Finance and Audit Committee and all other Council committees and officers and employees of the First Nation.

(3) If any part of the operations manual under subsection (1) is relevant to the services being provided by a contractor or agent of the First Nation, that part of the operations manual must be made available to the contractor or agent.

Record Keeping and Maintenance

84.(1) The senior manager must ensure that the First Nation prepares, maintains, stores and keeps secure all of the First Nation's records that are required under this Law or any other applicable law.

(2) The First Nation's records may not be destroyed or disposed of except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures or directions of the Council.

(3) All financial records of the First Nation must be stored for at least seven (7) years after they were created.

(4) The Council must establish policies and procedures or give directions respecting access of any persons to First Nation's records.

Confidentiality of Information

85.(1) No person may be given access to the First Nation's records containing confidential information except as permitted by, and in accordance with, the policies, procedures and directions of the Council.

(2) All persons who have access to the First Nation's records must comply with all policies, procedures or directions of the Council respecting the confidentiality, control, use, copying or release of that record or information contained in those records.

Account Records

86.(1) The tax administrator must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting the local revenue system of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations.

(2) If the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues, the senior financial officer must prepare, maintain, store and keep secure a complete set of all records respecting other revenues of the First Nation, including all records referred to in section 5 of the Revenue Management Implementation Regulations as amended by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations.

Information Technology

87. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting information technology used by the First Nation in its operations to ensure the integrity of the First Nation's financial administration system and its database.

PART V - Capital Projects

Definitions

88. In this Part:

"capital project" means the construction, rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets and any other major capital projects funded by local revenues in which the First Nation or its related bodies are investors;

"First Nation's tangible capital assets" means all non-financial assets of the First Nation having physical substance that

(a) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services, for rental to others, for administrative purposes or for the development, construction, maintenance or repair of other tangible capital assets,

(b) have useful economic lives extending beyond an accounting period,

(c) are to be used on a continuing basis, and

(d) are not for sale in the ordinary course of operations;

"life-cycle management program" means the program of inspection, review and planning for management of the First Nation's tangible capital assets as described in section 92;

"rehabilitation" includes alteration, extension and renovation but does not include routine maintenance;

“replacement” includes substitution, in whole or in part, with another of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets.

Council General Duties

89. The Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that

- (a) the First Nation’s tangible capital assets are maintained in a good and safe condition and to the same standard as a prudent owner of those assets;
- (b) the rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation’s tangible capital assets is in accordance with a life-cycle management program described in this Part; and
- (c) capital projects for the construction of buildings or other improvements are financed, planned and constructed in accordance with procedures and to standards that generally apply to the financing, planning and construction of public buildings and other improvements of organized communities in the region in which the majority of the First Nation’s lands are located.

Tangible Capital Assets Reserve Fund

90. The Council must establish a tangible capital asset reserve fund for the purpose of funding expenditures for capital projects carried out under this Part.

Reports on Capital Projects

91. At each Finance and Audit Committee meeting, the senior manager must report on the following subjects:

- (a) year to date borrowings, loans and payments in respect of each capital project;
- (b) the status of a capital project, including
 - (i) a comparison of expenditures to date with the project budget,
 - (ii) a detailed description of any identified legal, financial, technical, scheduling or other problems, and
 - (iii) the manner in which a problem identified in subparagraph (ii) has been or will be addressed; and
- (c) steps taken to ensure compliance with section 94 for every capital project.

Life-cycle Management Program

92.(1) The senior manager must establish and keep current a register of all the First Nation’s tangible capital assets that identifies each of these assets and includes the following information:

- (a) location and purpose of the asset;
- (b) ownership and restrictions over ownership of the asset;

- (c) year of acquisition;
- (d) last inspection date of the asset;
- (e) expected life of the asset at the time of acquisition;
- (f) assessment of condition of the asset and its remaining useful life;
- (g) estimated residual value of the asset;
- (h) insurance coverage for the asset; and
- (i) any other information required by the Council.

(2) On or before November 30 of each year, the senior manager must arrange for the inspection and review of the state of each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets to establish or update information respecting the following matters:

- (a) its present use;
- (b) its condition and state of repair;
- (c) its suitability for its present use;
- (d) its estimated remaining life;
- (e) its estimated replacement cost;
- (f) estimated dates and costs of its required future rehabilitation;
- (g) a comparison of annual operating and maintenance costs, other than rehabilitation costs, for the last five (5) fiscal years;
- (h) maintenance records for all periods up to the date of inspection; and
- (i) property and liability insurance covering the capital asset and its use or operation.

(3) On or before December 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare the following:

- (a) a schedule of annual routine maintenance, other than rehabilitation, for each of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year;
- (b) five (5), ten (10) and thirty (30) year forecasts of the estimated cost for rehabilitation or replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets;
- (c) the proposed budget for rehabilitation of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year, setting out
 - (i) each proposed rehabilitation project and its schedule,

- (ii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed rehabilitation project, and
- (iii) the estimated amounts and timing of money that is required to carry out each proposed rehabilitation project; and
- (d) the proposed budget for replacement of the First Nation's tangible capital assets for the next fiscal year setting out
 - (i) each proposed replacement project and its schedule,
 - (ii) the description of each asset to be replaced,
 - (iii) the estimated cost, including contingencies, of each proposed replacement project, and
 - (iv) the reasons why each proposed acquisition should be regarded as a replacement for the capital asset to be replaced.

Review by Finance and Audit Committee

93.(1) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the information, schedules and budget prepared under section 92 for the following purposes:

- (a) to identify any means to reduce the costs of each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets;
- (b) to know the effect that each rehabilitation or replacement project included in the proposed budgets will have on the annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years; and
- (c) to determine whether any significant savings might be effected by coordinating the scheduling of projects, deferring any projects or carrying out rehabilitation projects rather than replacement projects.

(2) On or before January 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review any plans for new construction of the First Nation's tangible capital assets, including the proposed schedule, budget and impact on annual operating costs and routine maintenance costs in future years.

Capital Projects – Contracts and Tenders

94.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the management of capital projects, including the following:

- (a) project planning, design, engineering, safety and environmental requirements;
- (b) project costing, budgeting, financing and approval;
- (c) project and contractor bidding requirements;
- (d) tender, contract form and contract acceptance;
- (e) course of construction insurance;

- (f) project performance guarantees and bonding;
- (g) project control, including contract management; and
- (h) holdbacks, work approvals, payment and audit procedures.

(2) All First Nation capital projects must be managed in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions referred to in subsection (1).

Capital Project Consultants

95. The senior manager may retain the services of a professional engineer or other consultant to assist the senior manager, Finance and Audit Committee and Council to carry out their obligations under this Part.

Policy for Information or Involvement of Members

96. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
- (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting capital projects; or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of capital projects.

PART VI - Miscellaneous

Board Standards

97.(1) If the First Nation is a borrowing member or has a certificate issued by the Board under subsection 50(3) of the Act, the First Nation must comply with all the applicable Board standards.

(2) If the Council becomes aware that the First Nation is not complying with a Board standard referred to in subsection (1), the Council must as soon as practicable take the required actions to bring the First Nation into compliance with the Board standard.

Delegated Authority on Intervention

- 98.(1) Without limiting section 53 of the Act, if
- (a) the First Nation is
 - (i) making local revenue laws under subsection 5(1) of the Act, or
 - (ii) using its local revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and
 - (b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

- (c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's local revenues and local revenue account under the Act.

(2) Without limiting section 53 of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, if

(a) the First Nation is using its other revenues to secure a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority, and

(b) the Board gives notice to the First Nation under section 53 of the Act that third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues is required,

the Council of the First Nation delegates to the Board

(c) the powers and authorities described in subsection 53(2) of the Act as adapted by the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations, and

(d) any other of the Council's powers required to give effect to third-party management of the First Nation's other revenues under the Act.

Land Management Obligations

99.(1) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the First Nation must comply with the First Nations Land Management Act and any land code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

(2) If the First Nation has a land code under the First Nations Land Management Act, the Council must establish and implement a policy that provides a method consistent with the requirements of the First Nation's land code for being accountable to members of the First Nation for the management of the First Nation's lands and for moneys earned from those lands to satisfy paragraph 6(1)(e) of the First Nations Land Management Act.

Oil and Gas Obligations

100. If the First Nation has a financial code under the First Nations Oil and Gas and Moneys Management Act, the First Nation must comply with that Act and any financial code made by the First Nation as required or permitted under that Act.

Reports of Breaches and Financial Irregularities, etc.

101.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if any person has reason to believe that

(a) an expenditure, liability or other transaction of the First Nation is not authorized by or under this Law or another First Nation law,

(b) there has been a theft, misappropriation or other misuse or irregularity in the funds, accounts, assets, liabilities and financial obligations of the First Nation,

(c) a provision of this Law has been contravened, or

(d) a person has failed to comply with the Schedule that forms part of this Law,

the person may disclose the circumstances to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) If a councillor becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the councillor must report them to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(3) If an officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation becomes aware of any circumstances described under subsection (1), the officer, employee, contractor or agent, as the case may be, must report them to the senior manager or the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

Inquiry into Report

102.(1) If a report is made to the senior manager under subsection 101(3), the senior manager must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) If a report is made to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee under section 101, the chair must inquire into the circumstances reported and report the findings to the Finance and Audit Committee as soon as practicable.

(3) The Finance and Audit Committee may make a further inquiry into any findings reported to it under this section but, in any event, must make a report to the Council respecting any circumstances reported to the Finance and Audit Committee under this section, including the Committee's recommendations, if any.

Protection of Parties

103.(1) All reasonable steps must be taken by the senior manager, the members of the Finance and Audit Committee and the councillors to ensure that the identity of the person who makes a report under section 96 is kept confidential to the extent practicable in all the circumstances.

(2) A person who makes a report in good faith under section 101 must not be subjected to any form of reprisal by the First Nation or by a councillor, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation as a result of making that report.

(3) The senior manager and the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee must take all necessary steps to ensure that subsection (2) is not contravened and must report any contravention or suspected contravention to the Council.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) for the recording and safeguarding of reports made under section 101 and any records prepared during the inquiry or investigation into those reports;

(b) for the inquiry or investigation into reports made under section 101; and

(c) concerning the fair treatment of a person against whom a report has been made under section 101.

Liability for Improper Use of Money

104.(1) A councillor who votes for a resolution authorizing an amount to be expended, invested or used contrary to this Law or the First Nation's local revenue law is personally liable to the First Nation for that amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the councillor relied on information provided by an officer or employee of the First Nation and the officer or employee was guilty of dishonesty, gross negligence or malicious or willful misconduct when providing the information.

(3) An amount owed to the First Nation under subsection (1) may be recovered for the First Nation by the First Nation, a member of the First Nation or a person who holds a security under a borrowing made by the First Nation.

(4) It is a good defence to any action brought against an officer or employee of the First Nation for unauthorized expenditure, investment or use of the First Nation's financial assets if it is proved that the officer or employee gave a written and signed warning to the Council that in his or her opinion, the expenditure, investment or use would be unlawful.

Indemnification against Proceedings

105.(1) In this section:

"indemnify" means pay amounts required or incurred to

- (a) defend an action or prosecution brought against a person in connection with the exercise or intended exercise of the person's powers or the performance or intended performance of the person's duties or functions, or
- (b) satisfy a judgment, award or penalty imposed in an action or prosecution referred to in paragraph (a);

"First Nation official" means a current or former councillor, officer or employee of the First Nation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Council may by resolution indemnify or provide for the indemnification of a named First Nation official, a category of First Nation official or all First Nation officials in accordance with the terms specified in the resolution.

(3) The Council may not pay a fine that is imposed as a result of a First Nation official's conviction for an offence unless the offence is a strict or absolute liability offence.

Periodic Review and Changes of Law

106.(1) On a regular, periodic basis established by a policy of the Council, the Finance and Audit Committee must conduct a review of this Law

- (a) to determine if it facilitates effective and sound financial administration of the First Nation; and
- (b) to identify any amendments to this Law that may better serve this objective.

- (2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions for
 - (a) the provision of information to members of the First Nation respecting any proposed amendment of this Law; or
 - (b) the involvement of members of the First Nation in consideration of an amendment to this Law.
- (3) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when a proposed amendment to this Law is presented for approval.
- (4) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matter referred to in subsection (3) is being considered.
- (5) If the First Nation is a borrowing member, it may only repeal this Law if it replaces it at the same time with another financial administration law which has been reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.
- (6) Any amendment of this Law must be reviewed by the Board and issued a compliance approval under section 9 of the Act.

Provision of Law to First Nations Finance Authority

107. If the First Nation intends to apply to become a borrowing member, the Council must provide a copy of this Law to the First Nations Finance Authority as soon as practicable after the Board approves the Law.

Coming into Force

108. (1) This section and the operative portions of sections 1 - 7, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30, 69 - 74, 76-80, 86, 97 and 98 come into force the day after this Law is approved by the Board under section 9 of the Act.

(2) The operative portions of sections 8, 11, 12(1), 18(1), 19(1), 21(1), 22(1), 23(2) and (4), 25, 31(1), 81, 101 – 104 of this Law and the Schedule to this Law come into force on January 1, 2020.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), this Law comes into force on the earlier of

- (a) the date or dates established by resolution of the Council, and
- (b) the day that is 36 months after the date when the First Nation becomes a borrowing member of the First Nations Finance Authority.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 28 day of SEPTEMBER 2018, at Chilliwack, in the Province of BC at a duly called and conducted Council meeting at which the required quorum of TWO (2) members of Council was present throughout.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

(b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

Disclosure of Interests

5.(1) In paragraph (2)(c) "real property" includes an interest in a reserve held under

(a) a certificate of possession under the Indian Act; or

(b) the First Nation's traditional land holding system pursuant to a band council resolution.

(2) A councillor must file a written disclosure of the following information with the senior manager:

(a) the names of the councillor's spouse and any persons or entities referred to in subsection 2(3);

(b) the employer of the councillor and the councillor's spouse;

(c) real property owned by the councillor or the councillor's spouse; and

(d) business interests and material investments of the councillor or the councillor's spouse, including in an entity referred to in paragraph 2(3)(e).

(3) A councillor must file a written disclosure under subsection (2) on the following occasions:

(a) within thirty (30) days of being elected to the Council;

(b) as soon as practical after a material change in the information previously disclosed; and

(c) on April 15 of each year that the councillor holds office.

(4) The senior manager must establish and maintain a register of all information disclosed by a councillor under this section and section 6.

(5) On request of a member of the First Nation or any person engaged in any aspect of the financial administration of the First Nation, the senior manager must permit that member or person to view the register referred to in subsection (4).

Gifts and Benefits

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

(a) would be considered within

(i) normal protocol exchanges or social obligations associated with the councillor's office,

(ii) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or

(iii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

(b) is of nominal value;

(c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or

(d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

(3) Where a gift with a value greater than five hundred dollars ($ 500) is given to a councillor or a person referred to in subsection (1), the councillor must make a written disclosure of the gift to the senior manager under section 5, and the gift must be treated as the property of the First Nation.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a gift received during a public cultural event of the First Nation.

Confidential Information

7.(1) Councillors must keep confidential all information that the councillors receive while performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

(a) to members of the public; or

(b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) Councillors must only use confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the councillors.

(3) Councillors must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the councillor's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

8.(1) As soon as a councillor becomes aware of circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest, the councillor must disclose the circumstances of the conflict of interest at the next Council meeting.

(2) A councillor must leave any part of a Council meeting where the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest are being discussed or voted on.

(3) The minutes of a Council meeting must record the councillor's disclosure under subsection (1) and note the councillor's absence from the Council meeting when the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest were being discussed or voted on.

(4) A councillor must not take part in any discussions or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

(5) A councillor must not influence or attempt to influence in any way before, during or after a Council meeting any discussion or vote on any decision respecting the circumstances in which the councillor has a conflict of interest.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

(2) Sections 4 and 6 to 9 apply to a member of a Council committee and all references in those sections to

(a) a councillor are considered to be references to a member of a Council committee; and

- (b) a Council meeting are considered to be references to a committee meeting.

PART III - Officers and Employees

Application

- 11. This Part applies to all officers and employees of the First Nation.

General Obligations

12.(1) In the performance of their duties and functions, an officer or employee must act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must avoid circumstances that could result in the officer or employee having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(3) An officer or employee must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

(4) The senior manager must ensure that every officer and employee is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that employees comply with these obligations.

Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

13. If an officer or employee believes he or she has a conflict of interest, the officer or employee must

- (a) disclose the circumstances in writing as soon as practical to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any discussions or decision-making respecting the circumstances of the conflict of interest until advised by the senior manager or the chair, as the case may be, on actions to be taken to avoid or mitigate the conflict of interest.

Gifts or Benefits

14.(1) An officer or employee or a member of their family must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the officer or employee in the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties or functions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a gift or benefit may be accepted if the gift or benefit

- (a) would be considered within
 - (i) normal exchanges common to business relationships, or
 - (ii) normal exchanges common at public cultural events of the First Nation;

- (b) is of nominal value;
- (c) is given by a close friend or relative as an element of that relationship; or
- (d) is of a type that the policies or directions of the Council have determined would be acceptable if offered by the First Nation to another person.

Outside Employment and Business Interests

15.(1) If an officer or employee is permitted under their terms of employment to have outside employment or business interests, the officer or employee must disclose these employment or business interests in writing to the senior manager or, in the case of the senior manager, to the chair of the Finance and Audit Committee.

(2) An officer or employee must ensure that any permitted outside employment or business interests do not unduly interfere with the exercise of their powers or performance of their duties and functions and that these activities are conducted on their own time and with their own resources.

Confidential Information

16.(1) An officer or employee must keep confidential all information that the officer or employee receives while exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available

- (a) to members of the public; or
- (b) to members of the First Nation.

(2) An officer or employee must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the officer or employee.

(3) An officer or employee must not make use of any information received in the course of exercising their powers or performing their duties or functions to benefit the officer or employee's private interests or those of relatives, friends or associates.

First Nation Property and Services

17.(1) Officers and employees must not use any personal property or services of the First Nation for any purposes unrelated to performance of their duties or functions unless that use is otherwise acceptable under the policies or directions of the Council.

(2) Officers and employees must not acquire any personal property of the First Nation unless it is done in accordance with policies or directions of the Council.

PART IV - Contractors

Application

18.(1) This Part applies to all contractors of the First Nation, other than a person who has an employment contract with the First Nation.

(2) In this Part, a reference to a contractor includes a reference to each employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation.

Contractor Acting as Officer or Employee

19. If a contractor is retained to exercise the powers or perform the duties or functions of an officer or employee, the contractor must comply with Part III of this Schedule as if the contractor were an officer or employee of the First Nation.

General Obligations

20.(1) A contractor must act at all times with integrity and honesty

(a) in its dealings with the First Nation; and

(b) in its dealing with any third party when the contractor is representing or acting on behalf of the First Nation.

(2) A contractor must not attempt to obtain preferential treatment from the First Nation by offering gifts or benefits that a councillor, committee member, officer or employee is prohibited from accepting under this Schedule.

(3) A contractor must ensure that every employee or agent of the contractor who is engaged to perform duties or functions under the contract with the First Nation is informed of their obligations under this Part and must take steps to ensure that these employees or agents comply with these obligations.

Confidential Information

21.(1) A contractor must keep confidential all information that the contractor receives in the course of performing their duties or functions unless the information is generally available to members of the public.

(2) A contractor must only use any confidential information referred to in subsection (1) for the specific purposes for which it was provided to the contractor.

(3) A contractor must not make use of any information received in the course of performing its duties or functions to benefit the contractor's interests or those of the contractor's relatives, friends or associates.

Business Opportunities

22. A contractor must not take advantage of a business or investment opportunity being considered by the First Nation and which the contractor becomes aware of while performing services for the First Nation unless the First Nation has determined not to pursue the opportunity.

First Nation Property and Services

23. If a contractor has been provided the use of any property or services of the First Nation in order to perform services for the First Nation, the contractor must not use the property or services for any purposes unrelated to performance of those services.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Kwikwetlem First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Kwikwetlem First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 5th day of June, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

KWIKWETLEM FIRST NATION
ANNUAL EXPENDITURE LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws authorizing the expenditure of local revenues;

B. The Council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law;

C. Subsection 10(2) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law or a law under paragraph 5(1)(a.1) to make, at least once each year, a law establishing a budget for the expenditure of revenues raised under those laws; and

D. The Council of the First Nation wishes to establish an annual budget for the expenditure of revenues raised in the current taxation year, and wishes to authorize expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Kwikwetlem First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Kwikwetlem First Nation Annual Expenditure Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

“annual budget” means a budget setting out the projected local revenues and projected expenditures of those local revenues during a budget year, and setting out expenditures made in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act;

“Assessment Law” means the Kwikwetlem First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2017;

“Council” has the meaning given to that term in the Act;

“First Nation” means the Kwikwetlem First Nation, being a band named in the schedule to the Act;

“Law” means this annual expenditure law enacted under paragraph 5(1)(b) of the Act as required by subsection 10(2) of the Act;

“local revenues” means money raised by the First Nation under a local revenue law and payments made to a First Nation in lieu of a tax imposed by a law made under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act;

“property taxation law” means a law enacted by the First Nation under paragraph 5(1)(a) of the Act; and

“Taxation Law” means the Kwikwetlem First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2017.

3. The First Nation’s annual budget for the budget year beginning April 1, 2018 and ending March 31, 2019, is attached as a Schedule and the expenditures provided for in the Schedule are authorized.

4. Expenditures of local revenues must be made only in accordance with the annual budget or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

5. The expenditures made in the current year before this Law is enacted are included in the annual budget and are authorized by this Law.

6. Where the First Nation wishes to authorize an expenditure not authorized in this Law, or change the amount of an expenditure authorized, Council must amend this Law in accordance with Council procedure and the requirements of the Act.

7. This Law authorizes the expenditure of contingency amounts as necessary within any of the categories of expenditures set out in the Schedule.

8. Except where otherwise defined, words and expressions used in this Law have the meanings given to them in the Assessment Law and the Taxation Law.

9. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

10. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.

11.(1) The Schedule attached to this Law, including any Appendices, forms part of and is an integral part of this Law.

(2) A reference to the Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Law.

12. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 24 day of May, 2018, at Coquitlam in the Province of British Columbia.

A quorum of Council consists of two (2) members of Council.

The First Nations Tax Commission, pursuant to the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, hereby approves the following law made by the Kwikwetlem First Nation in the Province of British Columbia,

Kwikwetlem First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018

Dated at Kamloops, British Columbia this 5th day of June, 2018.

On behalf of the First Nations Tax Commission

C.T. (Manny) Jules – Chief Commissioner
First Nations Tax Commission

KWIKWETLEM FIRST NATION
ANNUAL RATES LAW, 2018

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to section 5 of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands, interests in reserve lands or rights to occupy, possess or use reserve lands, including laws to establish tax rates and apply them to the assessed value of lands, interests and rights in the reserve;

B. The council of the First Nation has made a property assessment law and a property taxation law; and

C. Subsection 10(1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act requires a first nation that has made a property taxation law to, at least once each year, make a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to the assessed value of each class of lands, interests or rights in the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Kwikwetlem First Nation duly enacts as follows:

1. This Law may be cited as the Kwikwetlem First Nation Annual Rates Law, 2018.

2. In this Law:

“Act” means the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, S.C. 2005, c. 9, and the regulations made under that Act;

(e) unless the context indicates otherwise, “including” means “including, but not limited to”, and “includes” means “includes, but not limited to”; and

(f) a reference to an enactment includes any amendment or replacement of it and every regulation made under it.

(2) This Law must be considered as always speaking and where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it must be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to this Law according to its true spirit, intent and meaning.

(3) Words in this Law referring to an officer, by name of office or otherwise, also apply to any person designated by the Council to act in the officer’s place or to any person assigned or delegated to act in the officer’s place under this Law.

Posting of Public Notice

4.(1) If a public notice must be posted under this Law, the public notice is properly posted if a written notice is placed in a conspicuous and accessible place for public viewing in the principal administrative offices of the First Nation.

(2) Unless expressly provided otherwise, if a public notice of a meeting must be posted under this Law the notice must be posted at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting.

Calculation of Time

5. In this Law, time must be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

(a) where the time limited for taking an action ends or falls on a holiday, the action may be taken on the next day that is not a holiday;

(b) where there is a reference to a number of days, not expressed as “clear days”, between two events, in calculating that number of days the day on which the first event happens is excluded and the day on which the second event happens is included;

(c) where a time is expressed to begin or end at, on or within a specified day, or to continue to or until a specified day, the time includes that day;

(d) where a time is expressed to begin after or to be from a specified day, the time does not include that day; and

(e) where anything is to be done within a time after, from, of or before a specified day, the time does not include that day.

Conflict of Laws

6.(1) If there is a conflict between this Law and another First Nation law, other than a code or a local revenue law, this Law prevails.

(2) If there is a conflict between this Law and the Act, the Act prevails.

(3) If there is a conflict between this Law and a local revenue law, the local revenue law prevails.

Scope and Application

7. This Law applies to the financial administration of the First Nation.

PART III - Administration

DIVISION 1 - Council

Responsibilities of Council

8.(1) The Council is responsible for all matters relating to the financial administration of the First Nation whether or not they have been assigned or delegated to an officer, employee, committee, contractor or agent by or under this Law.

(2) Subject to paragraph 5(1)(f) of the Act, this Law and any other applicable First Nation law, the Council may delegate to any of its officers, employees, committees, contractors or agents any of its functions under this Law except the following:

- (a) the approval of Council policies, procedures or directions;
- (b) the appointment of members, the chair and the vice-chair of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- (c) the approval of budgets and financial statements of the First Nation; and
- (d) the approval of borrowing of the First Nation.

Council Policies, Procedures and Directions

9.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may establish policies and procedures and give directions respecting any matter relating to the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the acquisition, management and safeguarding of First Nation assets.

(3) The Council must not establish any policies or procedures or give any directions relating to the financial administration of the First Nation that are in conflict with this Law, the Act or GAAP.

(4) The Council must ensure that all human resources policies and procedures are designed and implemented to facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must document all its policies, procedures and directions and make them available to any person who is required to act in accordance with them or who may be directly affected by them.

Reporting of Remuneration and Expenses

10.(1) In this section:

“entity” means a corporation or a partnership, a joint venture or any other unincorporated association or organization, the financial transactions of which are consolidated in the annual financial statements of the First Nation in accordance with GAAP;

“expenses” includes the costs of transportation, accommodation, meals, hospitality and incidental expenses; and

“remuneration” means any salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, fees, honoraria and dividends and any other monetary and non-monetary benefits.

(2) Annually the senior financial officer must prepare a report separately listing the remuneration paid and expenses reimbursed by the First Nation, and by any entity, to each councillor whether such amounts are paid to the councillor while acting in that capacity or in any other capacity.

DIVISION 2 - Finance and Audit Committee

Interpretation

11. In this Division, “Committee” means the Finance and Audit Committee.

Committee Established

12.(1) The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council’s decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation.

(2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and all of whom must be independent.

(3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

(4) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions

(a) setting criteria to determine if an individual is eligible to be a member of the Committee and is independent;

(b) requiring confirmation, before appointment, that each potential member of the Committee is eligible to be a member and is independent; and

(c) requiring each member of the Committee annually to sign a statement confirming that the member continues to meet the criteria referred to in paragraph (a).

(5) If the Committee consists of

(a) three (3) members, at least one (1) of the Committee members must be a councillor; and

(b) four (4) or more members, at least two (2) of the Committee members must be councillors.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

(7) A Committee member may be removed from office by the Council if

- (a) the member misses three (3) consecutively scheduled meetings of the Committee; or
- (b) the chair of the Committee recommends removal.

(8) If a Committee member is removed from office, resigns or dies before the member's term of office expires, the Council must as soon as practicable appoint a new Committee member to hold office for the remainder of the first member's term of office.

Chair and Vice-chair

13. (1) The Council must appoint a chair and a vice- chair of the Committee, one of whom must be a councillor.

(2) If Council appoints a non-councillor as chair of the Committee,

- (a) Council must send to the chair notices and agendas of all council meetings;
- (b) on request of the chair, Council must provide the chair with any materials or information provided to Council respecting matters before it; and
- (c) the chair may attend and speak at Council meetings.

Committee Procedures

14.(1) The quorum of the Committee is fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Committee members, including at least one (1) councillor.

(2) Except where a Committee member is not permitted to participate in a decision because of a conflict of interest, every Committee member has one (1) vote in all Committee decisions.

(3) In the event of a tie vote in the Committee, the chair of the Committee may cast a second tiebreaking vote.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the senior manager and the senior financial officer must be notified of all Committee meetings and, subject to reasonable exceptions, must attend those meetings.

(5) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may be excluded from all or any part of a Committee meeting by a recorded vote if

- (a) the subject matter relates to a confidential personnel or performance issue respecting the senior manager or the senior financial officer; or
 - (b) it is a meeting with the auditor.
- (6) The Committee must meet

(a) at least once every quarter in each fiscal year as necessary to conduct the business of the Committee; and

(b) as soon as practical after it receives the audited annual financial statements and report from the auditor.

(7) The Committee must provide minutes of its meetings to the Council and report to the Council on the substance of each Committee meeting as soon as practicable after each meeting.

(8) Subject to this Law and any directions given by the Council, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its meetings.

(9) After consultation with the senior manager, the Committee may retain a consultant to assist in the performance of any of its responsibilities.

Financial Planning Responsibilities

DIVISION 3 - Officers and Employees

Senior Manager

18.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior manager of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the Council, the senior manager is responsible for leading the planning, organization, implementation and evaluation of the overall management of all the day-to-day operations of the First Nation, including the following duties:

- (a) to develop and recommend to the Council for approval, human resources policies and procedures for the hiring, management and dismissal of officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (b) to prepare and recommend to the Council for approval, descriptions of the powers, duties and functions of all employees of the First Nation;
- (c) to hire the employees of the First Nation, as the senior manager considers necessary, and to set the terms and conditions of their employment;
- (d) to oversee, supervise and direct the activities of all officers and employees of the First Nation;
- (e) to oversee and administer the contracts of the First Nation;
- (f) to prepare, recommend to the Council and maintain and revise as necessary the organization chart referred to in section 21;
- (g) to identify, assess, monitor and report on financial reporting risks and fraud risks;
- (h) to monitor and report on the effectiveness of mitigating controls for the risks referred to in paragraph (g) taking into consideration the cost of implementing those controls;
- (i) to perform any other duties of the senior manager under this Law; and
- (j) to carry out any other activities specified by the Council that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior manager's duties specified in this Law.

(3) The senior manager may assign the performance of any of the senior manager's duties or functions

- (a) to an officer or employee of the First Nation; and

(b) with the approval of the Council, to a contractor or agent of the First Nation.

(4) Any assignment of duties or functions under subsection (3) does not relieve the senior manager of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Senior Financial Officer

19.(1) The Council must appoint a person as senior financial officer of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior manager, the senior financial officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the systems of the financial administration of the First Nation, including the following duties:

(a) to ensure the financial administration systems, policies, procedures, directions and internal controls are appropriately designed and operating effectively;

(b) to administer and maintain all charts of accounts of the First Nation;

(c) to prepare the draft annual budgets and, with advice and input from the tax administrator, to prepare any draft amendments to the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues ;

(d) to prepare the monthly financial information required in section 71, the quarterly financial statements required in section 72 and the draft annual financial statements required in sections 73 and 74;

(e) to prepare the financial components of reports to the Council and of any short, medium and long-term plans, projections and priorities referred to in subsection 15(1);

(f) to actively monitor compliance with any agreements and funding arrangements entered into by the First Nation;

(g) to administer and supervise the preparation and maintenance of financial records and the financial administration reporting systems;

(h) to administer and supervise the maintenance of the records of all receipts and expenditures of the First Nation to facilitate the annual audit;

(i) to actively monitor compliance with the Act, this Law, any other applicable First Nation law, applicable standards and any policies, procedures and directions of the Council respecting the financial administration of the First Nation;

(j) to prepare or provide any documentation and financial information required by the Council or the Finance and Audit Committee to discharge its responsibilities;

(k) to evaluate the financial administration systems of the First Nation and recommend improvements;

- (l) to develop and recommend procedures for the safeguarding of assets and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (m) to develop and recommend procedures to Council for identifying and mitigating financial reporting and fraud risks and to ensure approved procedures are followed;
- (n) to perform any other duties of the senior financial officer under this Law; and
- (o) to carry out any other activities specified by the senior manager that are not contrary to the Act or inconsistent with the senior financial officer's duties under this Law.

(3) With the approval of the senior manager, the senior financial officer may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the senior financial officer to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the senior financial officer of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Tax Administrator

20.(1) If the First Nation is collecting local revenues, the Council must appoint a person as tax administrator of the First Nation and may set the terms and conditions of that appointment.

(2) Reporting to the senior financial officer, the tax administrator is responsible for performing the tax administrator's duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws, the Act and this Law.

(3) In addition to any duties or functions under the First Nation's local revenue laws and the Act, the tax administrator is responsible for the following:

- (a) to manage local revenues and the local revenue account on a day-to-day basis;
- (b) to recommend to the senior financial officer the draft and amended budgets for the component of the annual budget respecting local revenues;
- (c) to recommend to the senior financial officer the local revenues components of the multi-year financial plan;
- (d) on request, to provide advice to the senior manager, senior financial officer, Finance and Audit committee and the Council respecting local revenues matters;
- (e) to monitor compliance with the Act, the First Nation's local revenue laws and this Law in the administration of local revenues and the local revenue account; and
- (f) to perform any other duties of the tax administrator under this Law.

(4) With the approval of the senior manager, the tax administrator may assign the performance of any of the duties or functions of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation, but this assignment does not relieve the tax administrator of the responsibility to ensure that these duties or functions are carried out properly.

Organizational Structure

21.(1) The Council must establish and maintain a current organization chart for the governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation.

(2) The organization chart under subsection (1) must include the following information:

- (a) all governance, management and administrative systems of the First Nation;
- (b) the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including the linkages between them;
- (c) the specific roles and responsibilities of each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a); and
- (d) all governance, management and administrative positions at each level of the organization of the systems described in paragraph (a), including
 - (i) the membership on the Council, Finance and Audit Committee and all other committees of the Council and the First Nation,
 - (ii) the senior manager, the senior financial officer, the tax administrator and other officers of the First Nation, and
 - (iii) the principal lines of authority and the responsibility between the Council, the committees referred to in subparagraph (i) and the officers referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(3) On request, the senior manager must provide a copy of the organization chart under subsection (1) to a councillor, a member of a committee referred to in subparagraph (2)(d)(i), an officer, employee or contractor or agent of the First Nation and a member of the First Nation.

(4) In the course of discharging his or her responsibilities under this Law, the senior manager must recommend to the Council for approval and implementation human resource policies and procedures that facilitate effective internal financial administration controls.

(5) The Council must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the First Nation hires or retains qualified and competent personnel to carry out the financial administration activities of the First Nation.

DIVISION 4 - Conduct Expectations

Conduct of Councillors

22.(1) When exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, a councillor must

- (a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;
- (b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the First Nation;

(c) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances; and

(d) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with the requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required annual disclosures of private interests.

(2) If it has been determined under this Law or by a court of competent jurisdiction that a councillor has contravened this section, the Council must post a public notice of the details of the determination for a period of not less than thirty-one (31) days as soon as practicable after the contravention was determined.

Conduct of Officers, Employees, Contractors, etc.

23.(1) This section applies to

(a) an officer, employee, contractor and agent of the First Nation;

(b) a person acting under the delegated authority of the Council or the First Nation; or

(c) a member of a committee of the Council or the First Nation who is not a councillor.

(2) If a person is exercising a power, duty or responsibility relating to the financial administration of the First Nation, that person must

(a) comply with this Law, the Act, any other applicable First Nation law and any applicable standards;

(b) comply with all policies, procedures and directions of the Council; and

(c) avoid conflicts of interest and comply with any applicable requirements of the Schedule: Avoiding and Mitigating Conflicts of Interest, including required disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

(3) The Council must incorporate the relevant provision of this section into

(a) the terms of employment or appointment of every officer or employee of the First Nation;

(b) the terms of every contract of a contractor of the First Nation;

(c) the terms of appointment of every member of a committee who is not a councillor; and

(d) the terms of appointment of every agent of the First Nation.

(4) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the following actions may be taken:

(a) an officer or employee may be disciplined, including dismissal;

(b) a contractor's contract may be terminated;

(c) the appointment of a member of a committee may be revoked; or

(d) the appointment of an agent may be revoked.

PART IV - Financial Management

DIVISION 1 - Financial Plans and Annual Budgets

Fiscal Year

- 24. The fiscal year of the First Nation is April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

Multi-year Financial Plan

- 25. No later than March 31 of each year, the Council must approve a multi-year financial plan that
- (a) has a planning period of five (5) years comprised of the current fiscal year and the four (4) succeeding fiscal years;
 - (b) is based on the projections of revenues, expenditures and transfers between accounts;
 - (c) sets out projected revenues, segregated by significant category;
 - (d) sets out projected expenditures, segregated by significant category;
 - (e) in respect of transfers between accounts, sets out the amounts from the tangible capital asset reserve account;
 - (f) shows all categories of restricted cash; and
 - (g) indicates whether in any of the five (5) years of the plan a deficit or surplus is expected from the projection of revenues and expenditures for that year.

Content of Annual Budget

- 26.(1) The annual budget must encompass all the operations for which the First Nation is responsible and must identify

- (a) anticipated revenues, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of revenue from each category;
- (b) anticipated expenditures, segregated by significant category, with estimates of the amount of expenditure for each category; and
- (c) any anticipated annual and accumulated surplus or annual and accumulated deficit and the application of year-end surplus.

- (2) The revenue category of moneys derived from the First Nation's lands must be shown separately in the annual budget from other revenues and must include a sub-category for revenues from natural resources obtained from the First Nation's lands.

- (3) In subsection (2), "natural resources" means any material on or under the First Nation's lands in their natural state which when extracted has economic value.

Budget and Planning Process Schedule

27.(1) On or before January 31 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft annual budget and a draft multi-year financial plan for the next fiscal year.

(2) On or before February 15 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review

- (a) the draft annual budget and recommend an annual budget to the Council for approval; and
- (b) the draft multi-year financial plan and recommend a multi-year financial plan to the Council.

(3) On or before March 31 of each year, the Council must review and approve the annual budget for the First Nation for the next fiscal year.

(4) On or before June 15 of each year, the senior financial officer must prepare and submit to the Finance and Audit Committee for review a draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

(5) On or before June 30 of each year, the Finance and Audit Committee must review the draft amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues and recommend an amendment to the annual budget to the Council for approval.

(6) No later than July 15 of each year, the Council must approve the amendment of the component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues.

Additional Requirements for Budget Deficits

28. If a draft annual budget contains a proposed deficit, the Council must ensure that

- (a) no portion of the proposed deficit originates in or relates to local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan of the First Nation demonstrates how and when the deficit will be addressed and how it will be serviced; and
- (c) the deficit does not have a negative impact on the credit worthiness of the First Nation.

Amendments to Annual Budgets

29.(1) The annual budget of the First Nation must not be changed without the approval of the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection 27(6) and section 37, unless there is a substantial change in the forecasted revenues or expenses of the First Nation or in the expenditure priorities of the Council, the Council must not approve a change to the annual budget of the First Nation.

Local Revenues Budget Requirements

30. Despite any other provisions of this Law, any part of a budget relating to local revenues must be prepared, approved and amended in accordance with applicable provisions of the Act and of the Commission standards.

Policy for First Nation Information or Involvement

31.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of

- (a) the annual budget, including any component of the annual budget respecting the First Nation's local revenues;
- (b) the multi-year financial plan; and
- (c) budget deficits or extraordinary expenditures.

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when each of the following is presented for approval:

- (a) the multi-year financial plan;
- (b) the annual budget; and
- (c) an amendment to the annual budget.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

DIVISION 2 - Financial Institution Accounts

Financial Institution Accounts

32.(1) No account may be opened for the receipt and deposit of money of the First Nation unless the account is

- (a) in the name of the First Nation;
- (b) opened in a financial institution; and
- (c) authorized by the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) The First Nation must establish the following accounts in a financial institution:

- (a) a general account for money from any sources other than those described in paragraphs (b) to (e);
- (b) a local revenue account for money from local revenues;

- (c) a trust account if the First Nation has money held in trust;
- (d) a land and resources account for money from revenues from the First Nation's lands; and
- (e) a tangible capital asset reserve account for money set aside for purposes of section 90.

(3) The First Nation may establish any other accounts not referred to in subsection (2) as may be necessary and appropriate to manage the First Nation's financial assets.

Accounts Management

33.(1) The senior financial officer must ensure the safekeeping of all money received by the First Nation.

(2) The senior financial officer

- (a) must deposit all money received by the First Nation as soon as practicable into the appropriate accounts described in section 32; and
- (b) must not authorize payment of money from an account described in section 32 unless the payment relates to the subject matter for which the account was established and is otherwise authorized or permitted under this Law.

DIVISION 3 - Expenditures

Prohibited Expenditures

34.(1) Money or financial assets in a trust account must not be used for a purpose other than that permitted under the terms of the trust.

(2) Money in a local revenue account must not be used for any purpose other than that authorized in a local revenue law or as permitted under section 13.1 of the Act.

(3) Money in a tangible capital asset reserve account must not be used for any purpose other than that described in Part V.

Prohibited Agreements

35. The First Nation must not enter into an agreement or undertaking that requires the First Nation to expend money that is not authorized by or that contravenes this Law, a local revenue law or the Act.

No Expenditure Without Appropriation

36.(1) Subject to subsection 37(1), money must not be paid out of any account unless the expenditure is authorized under an appropriation.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to expenditures from a trust account where the expenditure is authorized under the terms of the trust.

Emergency Expenditures

37.(1) The senior manager may approve an expenditure for an emergency purpose that was not anticipated in the budget if the expenditure is not expressly prohibited by or under this Law or another First Nation law.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures to authorize expenditures under subsection (1).

(3) The expenditure under subsection (1) must be reported to the Council as soon as practicable and the Council must amend the budget to include the expenditure.

(4) Subsection (1) does not give the senior manager the authority to borrow for the purpose of making an expenditure for an emergency purpose.

(5) For clarity, this section does not authorize an expenditure of local revenues.

Appropriations

38.(1) An amount that is appropriated in a budget must not be expended for any purpose other than that described in the appropriation.

(2) The total amount expended by the First Nation in relation to an appropriation must not exceed the amount specified in the budget for the First Nation for that appropriation.

(3) Every person who is responsible for managing an appropriation must establish and maintain a current record of commitments chargeable to that appropriation.

Payments after Fiscal Year-end

39.(1) Money appropriated in a budget for a fiscal year must not be expended after the end of the fiscal year except to discharge a liability incurred in that fiscal year.

(2) If the liabilities for an appropriation under subsection (1) exceed the unexpended balance of the appropriation at the end of the fiscal year, the excess must be

(a) charged against a suitable appropriation for the following fiscal year; and

(b) reported in the financial statements for the fiscal year in which the liability was incurred.

Requisitions for Payment

40.(1) No money may be paid out of any account without a requisition for payment as required under this section.

(2) No requisition may be made or given for a payment of money unless it is a lawful charge against an appropriation or an authorized use of money in a trust.

(3) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that results in expenditures from a trust account in excess of the unexpended balance of the trust account.

(4) No requisition may be made or given for payment of money that reduces the balance available in an appropriation or trust account so that it is not sufficient to meet the commitments chargeable against it.

(5) A requisition may apply to one or more expenditures chargeable against one or more appropriations.

(6) A requisition must identify the appropriation or trust account out of which payment is to be made and must include a statement certifying that the expenditure is not prohibited under this section and that it is

(a) in accordance with the appropriation identified in the certified statement; or

(b) allowed without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(7) If a requisition is for the payment of performance of work or services or the supply of goods, the requisition must include a statement certifying that

(a) the work or services have been performed or the goods supplied, any conditions in an agreement respecting the work, services or goods have been met and the price charged or amount to be paid is in accordance with an agreement or, if not specified by agreement, is reasonable; or

(b) if payment is to be made before completion of the work or services, delivery of the goods or satisfaction of any conditions in an agreement, the payment is in accordance with the agreement.

(8) The senior manager or the senior financial officer must authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, a trust account.

(9) The tax administrator must authorize payment out of a local revenue account.

(10) Subject to subsection (9), the senior manager or senior financial officer may authorize a payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, any appropriation.

(11) Subject to subsections (8) and (9), a person who is responsible for managing an appropriation may authorize payment out of, or sign a requisition for payment from, the appropriation.

Form of Payment

41. Payments by the First Nation may be made by cheque, draft, electronic transfer or other similar instrument signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

DIVISION 4 - General Matters

Advances

42.(1) The senior manager or the senior financial officer may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation in the current fiscal year or an appropriation in the next fiscal year.

(2) The tax administrator may approve an advance to prepay expenses that are chargeable against an appropriation from local revenues in the current fiscal year or an appropriation from that account in the next fiscal year.

Holdbacks

43. If the First Nation withholds an amount payable under an agreement, the payment of the amount withheld must be charged to the appropriation from which the agreement must be paid even if the fiscal year for which it was appropriated has ended.

Deposit Money

44.(1) Money received by the First Nation as a deposit to ensure the doing of any act or thing must be held and disposed of in accordance with

- (a) the agreement under which the deposit has been paid; and
- (b) in the absence of any provisions respecting that matter, any policy or directions of the Council.

(2) The Council must make policies or procedures or give directions in respect of the disposition of deposit money referred to in subsection (1).

Interest

45.(1) All interest earned on the accounts described in subsection 32(2), other than a trust account, local revenue account, or tangible capital asset reserve account must be deposited in the general account referred to in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) All interest earned on

- (a) a trust account must be retained in that account;
- (b) the local revenue account must be retained in that account; and
- (c) the tangible capital asset reserve account must be retained in that account.

(3) Subject to the Interest Act, the First Nation may charge interest at a rate set from time to time by the Council on any debts or payments owed to the First Nation that are overdue.

Refunds

46.(1) Money received by the First Nation that is paid or collected in error or for a purpose that is not fulfilled may be refunded in full or in part as circumstances require.

(2) The Council must establish policies and procedures respecting the refund of money under subsection (1).

Write Off of Debts

47. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be written off

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Extinguishment of Debts

48. All or part of a debt or obligation owed to the First Nation may be forgiven only

- (a) if approved by the Council; or
- (b) if done under the authority of a policy or direction of the Council.

Year-end Surplus

49.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an operating surplus at the end of the fiscal year must be paid into the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a).

(2) An operating surplus in the local revenue account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

(3) An operating surplus in the tangible capital asset reserve account at the end of the fiscal year must be retained in that account.

DIVISION 5 - Borrowing

Limitations on Borrowing

50.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or in a local revenue law, the First Nation must not borrow money or grant security.

(2) Subject to this Law, if the First Nation is authorized in this Law to borrow money or grant security, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to borrow money or grant security in the name of the First Nation

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Borrowing for Ordinary Operations

51.(1) The First Nation may incur trade accounts or other current liabilities payable within normal terms of trade for expenditures provided for in the budget for the fiscal year if the debt will be repaid from money appropriated under an appropriation for the fiscal year or is in respect of an expenditure that may be made without the authority of an appropriation under this Law.

(2) The First Nation may enter into agreements with financial institutions for overdrafts or lines of credit and, for the purpose of securing any overdrafts or lines of credit, may grant security to the financial institution in a form, amount, and on terms and conditions that the Council approves.

(3) The First Nation may enter into a general security agreement or a lease for the use or acquisition of lands, materials or equipment required for the operation, management or administration of the First Nation.

Financial Agreements

52.(1) The First Nation may enter into the following agreements in the name of the First Nation:

- (a) for the purpose of efficient management of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions and related services agreements; and
- (b) for the purpose of reducing risks or maximizing benefits in relation to the borrowing, lending or investing of the First Nation's financial assets, agreements with financial institutions respecting currency exchange, spot and future currency, interest rate exchange and future interest rates.

(2) Unless otherwise specified by the Council, the senior financial officer may enter into any agreements referred to in subsection (1) on behalf of the First Nation.

Borrowing for Authorized Expenditures

53.(1) If the general account described in paragraph 32(2)(a) is not sufficient to meet the expenditures authorized to be made from it and the senior financial officer recommends that money be borrowed to ensure that the general account is sufficient for these purposes, the First Nation may borrow an amount not exceeding a maximum amount specified by the Council and to be repaid within a specified period of time.

(2) Despite the repayment terms specified in subsection (1), if the money borrowed under subsection (1) is no longer required for the purpose for which it was borrowed, the money must be repaid as soon as possible.

Borrowing Member Requirements

54.(1) This section applies if the First Nation is a borrowing member.

(2) If the First Nation has obtained long-term financing secured by property taxes from the First Nations Finance Authority, the First Nation must not subsequently obtain long-term financing secured by property tax revenues from any other person.

(3) The First Nation may only obtain long-term financing from the First Nations Finance Authority as permitted under its local revenue law and the Act.

(4) Money borrowed under subsection (2) may only be used for the purposes permitted under the Act.

(5) Money borrowed by the First Nation from the First Nations Finance Authority that is secured by other revenues may only be used for the purposes set out in section 4 of the Financing Secured by Other Revenues Regulations made under the Act.

Borrowing for New Capital Projects

55.(1) The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the means by which members of the First Nation must be informed about or involved in consideration of borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2).

(2) The Council must post a public notice of each Council meeting when borrowing for new capital projects described in subsection 93(2) is presented for approval.

(3) Members of the First Nation may attend that part of the Council meeting when the matters referred to in subsection (2) are being considered.

Borrowing for Repayment of Debts

56. Subject to this Law and a local revenue law, the First Nation may borrow money that is required for the repayment or refinancing of any debt of the First Nation, other than a debt in relation to money borrowed under subsection 53(1).

Use of Borrowed Money

57.(1) Subject to this section and any local revenue law, money borrowed by the First Nation for a specific purpose must not be used for any other purpose.

(2) All or some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose by the First Nation and not required to be used immediately for that purpose may be temporarily invested under subsection 63(1) until required for that purpose.

(3) If some of the money borrowed for a specific purpose is no longer required for that purpose, that money must be applied to repay the debt from the borrowing.

Execution of Security Documents

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a security granted by the First Nation must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by either the senior manager or the senior financial officer.

(2) A security granted by the First Nation in respect of local revenues must be signed by a councillor designated by the Council and by the tax administrator.

Operational Controls

59. The Council must establish policies or procedures or give directions respecting the establishment and implementation of an effective system of internal controls that ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the First Nation's operations.

DIVISION 6 - Risk Management

Limitation on Business Activity

60.(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the First Nation must not

- (a) carry on business as a proprietor;
- (b) acquire an interest in a partnership as a general partner; or
- (c) act as a trustee respecting property used for, or held in the course of, carrying on a business.

(2) The First Nation may carry on a business that

- (a) is ancillary or incidental to the provision of programs or services or other functions of First Nation governance; or
- (b) derives income from the granting of a lease or licence of or is in respect of
 - (i) an interest in, or natural resources on or under, the First Nation's lands or lands owned in fee simple by, or in trust for, the First Nation, or
 - (ii) any other property of the First Nation.

(3) The First Nation may carry on business activities for the primary purpose of profit if the Council determines that the business activities

- (a) do not result in a material liability for the First Nation; or
- (b) do not otherwise expose the First Nation's financial assets, property or resources to significant risk.

(4) The Council may impose terms and conditions on the conduct of any business activity permitted under this section in order to manage any risks associated with that activity.

Guarantees and Indemnities

61.(1) The First Nation must not give a guarantee unless the Council has considered the report of the senior financial officer under subsection (2).

(2) Before the Council authorizes a guarantee under subsection (1), the senior financial officer must prepare a report for Council identifying any risks associated with giving the guarantee and assessing the ability of the First Nation to honour the guarantee should it be required to do so.

(3) The First Nation must not give an indemnity unless it is

- (a) authorized under section 105;
- (b) necessary and incidental to and included in another agreement to which the First Nation is a party; or
- (c) in relation to a security granted by the First Nation that is authorized under this Law or another First Nation law.

(4) Subject to a resolution described in section 105, the Council must make policies and directions respecting guarantees and indemnities as follows:

- (a) specifying circumstances under which an indemnity may be given without Council approval;
- (b) designating the persons who may give an indemnity on behalf of the First Nation and specifying the maximum amount of any indemnity which may be given by them;
- (c) specifying any terms or conditions under which a guarantee or indemnity may be given; and
- (d) specifying the records to be maintained of all guarantees and indemnities given by the First Nation.

Authority to Invest

62.(1) Except as specifically authorized in this Law or another First Nation law, the First Nation must not invest the First Nation's financial assets.

(2) If the First Nation is authorized in this Law to invest the First Nation's financial assets, the Council may authorize the senior financial officer to invest the First Nation's financial assets

- (a) as specifically approved by the Council; or
- (b) in accordance with the policies, procedures or directions made by the Council.

Approved Investments

63.(1) Money in an account described in section 32 that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation in one or more of the following:

- (a) securities issued or guaranteed by Canada, a province or the United States of America;
- (b) fixed deposits, notes, certificates and other short-term paper of, or guaranteed by, a financial institution, including swaps in United States of America currency;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) commercial paper issued by a Canadian company that is rated in the highest category by at least two (2) recognized security-rating institutions;
- (e) any investments a trustee may make under an enactment of a province relating to trustees; or
- (f) any other investments or class of investments prescribed by a regulation under the Act.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust, money held in trust that is not immediately required for expenditures may be invested by the First Nation as permitted under the terms of the trust or under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the majority of the First Nation's lands are located.

(3) If the First Nation has established an investment account under section 32, the First Nation may invest money in that account in

- (a) a company that is incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province or territory and in which the First Nation is a shareholder;
- (b) a trust in which the First Nation is a beneficiary;
- (c) securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or by a local, municipal or regional government in Canada;
- (d) a limited partnership in which the First Nation is a partner; or
- (e) a member investment program described in section 64.

(4) Despite any other provision in this section, the First Nation may only invest the following in investments specified in subsection 82(3)(a), (b), (c) or (d) of the Act and in investments in securities issued by the First Nations Finance Authority or a municipal finance authority established by a province:

- (a) government transfer funds;
- (b) local revenues; and
- (c) other revenues, if the First Nation has a loan from the First Nations Finance Authority secured by other revenues.
