SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual’s private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(a) the individual’s spouse,

(b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,

(c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,

(d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual’s private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

SCHEDULE – Avoiding And Mitigating Conflicts Of Interest

PART I - Interpretation

Interpretation

1.(1) In this Schedule:

“spouse” means, in relation to an individual, a person to whom the individual is married or with whom the individual has lived as a common law partner for at least one (1) year in a marriage-like relationship; and

“this Law” means the Financial Administration Law to which this Schedule is attached and forms a part.

(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule, words and expressions used in this Schedule have the same meanings as in this Law.

(3) Sections 3 and 5 of this Law apply to this Schedule.

(4) If there is a conflict between a provision of this Schedule and this Law, the provision of this Law applies.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

- (a) the individual’s spouse,
- (b) a person under the age of eighteen (18) years in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is a parent or acting in a parental capacity,
- (c) a person in respect of whom the individual or the individual’s spouse is acting as guardian,
- (d) a person, other than an employee, who is financially dependent upon the individual or the individual’s spouse or on whom the individual is financially dependent, and
- (e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual’s private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

PART II - Councillors and Committee Members

Application

3. This Part applies to all councillors of the First Nation and, where applicable, to all members of Council committees.

General Obligations

4.(1) Councillors must avoid circumstances that could result in the councillor having a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest.

(2) Councillors must avoid placing themselves in circumstances where their ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function could be influenced by the interests of any person to whom they owe a private obligation or who expects to receive some benefit or preferential treatment from them.

6.(1) A councillor or a person referred to in paragraphs 2(3)(a) to (d) in relation to that councillor must not accept a gift or benefit that might reasonably be seen to have been given to influence the councillor in the exercise of the councillor's powers or performance of the councillor's duties or functions.

Procedure for Undisclosed Conflict of Interest

9.(1) If a councillor has reason to believe that another councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest in respect of a matter before the Council, the councillor may request clarification of the circumstances at a Council meeting.

(2) If, as a result of a clarification discussion under subsection (1), a councillor is alleged to have a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest and the councillor does not acknowledge the conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest and take the actions required under section 8, the Council must determine whether the councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest before the Council considers the matter referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The minutes of the Council meeting must record any determination made by the Council under subsection (2).

(4) If the Council determines under subsection (2) that a councillor has a conflict of interest or an apparent conflict of interest, the councillor must comply with section 8.

Obligations of Committee Members

10.(1) This section applies to all members of Council committees.

PART III ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of land in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in land and must enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(3) For the period consisting of the three taxation years from 2018 to 2020, interests in land are valued as of January 1, 2016 and subsection (11) does not apply.

(4) For each period consisting of four taxation years subsequent to 2020, interests in land are valued as of January 1 of the year preceding the first of those four taxation years.

(5) Where an easement is appurtenant to any interest in land, it must be assessed in connection with and as part of the interest in land at the added value it gives to the interest in land as the dominant tenement, and the assessment of the interest in land that, as the servient tenement, is subject to the easement must be reduced accordingly.

(6) A restrictive covenant running with the interest in land must be deemed to be an easement within the meaning of subsection (5).

(7) The assessor must not make an assessment against the name of any deceased person, but, when the assessor is unable to ascertain the name of the person who should be assessed instead of the deceased person, the assessor may enter, instead of the name, the words "Representatives of A.B., deceased" (giving the name of the deceased person).

(8) Where a block of vacant land subdivided into lots is owned by the same person, it may be entered on the roll as so many acres of the original block or lot if the numbers and description of the lots into which it is subdivided are also entered on the roll.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of the assessment of interests in land the assessor must use

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules, procedures and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules, procedures and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

(10) On or before March 1 of every year or such other date prescribed by the Province from time to time under the Assessment Act (Ontario), every pipe line company that owns or operates a transmission pipe line located on the reserve must notify the assessor of the age, length and diameter of all of its transmission pipe lines located on the reserve as of January 1 of that year.

(4) The assessor must

- (a) assess interests in land according to the property classes established under this Law; and
- (b) where a property falls into two (2) or more property classes, determine the share of the assessed value of the property attributable to each class and assess the property according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

7.(1) The assessor may send a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) A person who receives a Request under subsection (1) must, within the time set out in the Request, provide to the assessor all the information required that is within the person's knowledge and produce all the documents required that are within the person's possession or control.

(3) The assessor may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with a request made under this section.

Inspections and Information

8.(1) The assessor, upon producing proper identification, must at all reasonable times and upon reasonable request be given free access to all land and to all parts of every building, structure, machinery and fixture erected or placed upon, in, over, under or affixed to the land, for any purposes related to the assessment of that interest in land.

(2) Every adult person present when the assessor visits the land in the performance of his or her duties must upon request give to the assessor all the information in his or her knowledge that will assist the assessor to make a proper assessment of the land and improvements and to obtain the information the assessor requires with respect to any person whose name the assessor is required to enter on the assessment roll or concerning whom the assessor is required to obtain any information for the purpose of this Law.

(3) The assessor is not bound by any statement or information delivered under section 7 or this section nor does it excuse the assessor from making due inquiry to ascertain the correctness of the statement or information and, despite any such statement or information, the assessor may assess every person for the amount that the assessor believes to be just and correct and may omit from the assessment roll the person's name or any interest in land that the person claims to hold if the assessor has reason to believe that the person is not entitled to be placed on the roll or to be assessed for the interest in land.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL

(3) The assessor must not amend the assessment roll contrary to a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

May 22 2018

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

- (a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any
 - (i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,
 - (ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or
 - (iii) omission to mail any notice required; and
- (b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

13.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours.

(2) In addition to inspection under subsection (1), the Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(3) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

- (a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or
- (b) harass an individual.

(4) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration substantially in the form set out in Schedule III

- (a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and
- (b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder and where directed by the tax administrator, the assessor must omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll.

(2) The tax administrator may direct the assessor as set out in subsection (1) if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(3) Where the assessor omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 13(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that the assessor add his or her name to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under subsection (1), the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all Assessment Notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

May 22 2018

PART VII

ASSESSMENT NOTICES

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The assessor must, no later than fourteen (14) days before the assessment roll is completed, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the assessor must mail the Assessment Notices on or before the day that the tax administrator mails the Tax Notices under the Taxation Law.

(3) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(4) Where a person named on the assessment roll provides the tax administrator with a written request that the Assessment Notice be delivered to the address stated in the request, the tax administrator must advise the assessor of the request and the assessor must thereafter deliver the Assessment Notice to the recipient at the requested address.

(5) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(6) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

PART VIII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Correction of Errors in the Assessment Roll

17.(1) Any time before the certification of the assessment roll under section 10, the assessor may correct any defect, error, omission or misstatement in any assessment and amend the roll accordingly.

(2) If prior to the end of the current taxation year or all or part of the preceding year, and as a result of an amendment to this Law or an amendment to any provincial legislation referred to under subsection 5(9),

(a) the classification of an interest in land is changed and taxes have been levied on the interest in land that exceed the amount of taxes that would have been levied if it had been classified in accordance with the change,

(b) an interest in land becomes exempt from taxation, or

(c) the method of determining the assessed value of an interest in land is changed,

then the assessor must make any assessment necessary to reflect the change and amend the assessment roll accordingly.

(3) The assessor may, at any time during the taxation year, correct any error in the assessment or classification of a property that has resulted from incorrect factual information about the property, and not from a change in opinion as to assessed value.

Omissions and Incorrect Exemptions

18.(1) If, after the assessment roll has been certified under section 10, the assessor is informed that

(a) an interest in land that is liable to assessment has been in whole or in part omitted from the assessment roll, or

May 22 2018

(b) an interest in land that is liable to taxation has been entered on the assessment roll as exempt from taxation,

for the current taxation year or for any part of either or both of the last two (2) preceding taxation years, and no taxes have been levied on that interest in land, the assessor must make any additional assessment necessary to rectify the omission.

(2) As an exception to subsection (1), if a court or tribunal has decided that the interest in land is not liable to taxation, the assessor must not make any additional assessment.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), “omitted” includes the invalidation or setting aside of an assessment by any court or assessment tribunal on any ground except that the interest in land is not liable to taxation.

(4) If subsection (1) applies with respect to an interest in land or a portion of an interest in land, the assessor, in addition to making an additional assessment, may also change the classification of the interest in land.

(5) If the assessor makes an assessment or changes a classification under this section, the assessor must make the appropriate changes

(a) on a supplementary assessment roll and forward the supplementary roll to the tax administrator at the earliest opportunity; and

(b) on the assessment roll for the next year, even if the day as of which land is valued for the next year is the same as for the current year.

Supplementary Assessments and Classifications

19.(1) If, after Assessment Notices have been given under subsection 16(1) and before the last day of the current taxation year,

(a) an increase in value occurs which results from the erection, alteration, enlargement or improvement of any building, structure, machinery, equipment or fixture or any portion thereof that commences to be used for any purpose, or

(b) land or a portion of land ceases

(i) to be exempt from taxation,

(ii) to be in the farm property class, or

(iii) to be classified in a subclass of land,

the assessor may make any additional assessment that may be necessary to reflect the change.

(2) If, during the taxation year or the period after June 30 in the preceding taxation year, a change event occurs that would change the property class applicable to all or part of an interest in land, the assessor may change the classification accordingly, including any subclass, for the current taxation year.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), “change event” includes

(a) a change in the use of all or part of the interest in land; and

(b) an act or omission that results in all or part of the interest in land ceasing to be in a property class.

(4) If subparagraphs (1)(b)(ii) applies to an interest in land or a portion of an interest in land, the assessor, in addition to making an additional assessment, may also change the classification of the interest in land.

(5) If the assessor makes an assessment or classification under this section, the assessor must make the appropriate changes

- (a) on a supplementary assessment roll and forward the supplementary roll to the tax administrator at the earliest opportunity; and
 - (b) on the assessment roll for the next year, even if the day as of which the interest in land is valued for the next year is the same as for the current year.
- (6) If the assessor could have made an assessment or classification under this section but did not, the appropriate changes must be made on the assessment roll for the next year, even if the day as of which the interest in land is valued for the next year is the same as for the current year.
- (7) An amendment made under this section applies for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the change occurred if the assessment had been made in the usual way.

Amended Assessment Notice

20. The assessor must, at the earliest opportunity, mail or e-mail (where subsection 16(3) applies) an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected if the assessor does any of the following under the provisions of this Law:

- (a) amends the assessment roll;
- (b) makes an additional assessment under section 18 or 19; or
- (c) changes the classification of an interest in land under section 18 or 19.

PART IX

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

21.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

- (a) be delivered to the assessor at the address or e-mail address indicated on the Assessment Notice within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;
- (b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and
- (c) include any reasons in support of the request and the facts under which the request is made.

(4) The assessor must consider the request for reconsideration and, within sixty (60) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

- (a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or
- (b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

- (a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;
- (b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and
- (c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

May 22 2018

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

(2) A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class in each tax district.

(3) Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each $100 of assessed value of the interest in land.

(4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land.

(6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Adjustments to Tax Levy

11.(1) Where an amendment to the assessment roll has been made under paragraph 17(2)(a) or (b) of the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must, upon receiving notice of the amendment, refund or credit to the taxpayer the amount of any overpayment for the current taxation year and any part of the preceding taxation year in accordance with section 6.

current taxation year and for any part of either or both of the last two preceding taxation years.

(4) Where the assessor has made an additional assessment under paragraphs 19(1)(a) or (b) of the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must, upon receiving notice of the assessment, enter the additional assessment on the tax roll and levy and collect the amount of taxes that would have been levied for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the use commenced or change occurred.

(5) Where the assessor has changed the classification under subsections 19(2) or (3) of the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must, upon receiving notice of the change, enter it on the tax roll and levy and collect the amount of taxes that would have been levied for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the change event occurred.

Tax Payments

12.(1) Taxes are due and payable in two payments in the taxation year in which they are levied, being on or before April 1 and on or before August 1.

(2) The tax payment due on or before April 1 is an interim tax payment in the amount that is fifty percent (50%) of the total amount of taxes levied on the property in the immediately preceding taxation year.

(3) Despite subsection (2)

(a) if taxes were levied on a property for only part of the previous taxation year because the assessment was added to the tax roll during the taxation year, the interim tax payment must be determined using the amount the tax administrator estimates would have been levied on the property if the taxes had been levied for the entire taxation year; and

(b) if a property has been added to the assessment roll for the current taxation year, but was not taxed in the previous taxation year, the interim tax payment must be fifty percent (50%) of the amount the tax administrator estimates will be the total amount of taxes to be levied on the property in the current year.

(4) The tax payment due on or before August 1 is determined by subtracting the interim payment from the total taxes due in the current year.

(5) Taxes must be paid

(a) by electronic payment, including online banking payment;

(b) by pre-authorized debit payment plan; or

(c) by mail or at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by certified cheque or money order made payable to the Chippewas of Georgina Island First Nation.

(4) The tax administrator must enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice and this record is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that the Tax Notice was sent on that date.

(5) The mailing of a Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(6) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(7) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(8) No defect, error or omission in the form or substance of a Tax Notice invalidates any proceedings for the recovery of the taxes.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notice

15.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, or where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll or create a supplementary tax roll, as necessary, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

- (a) apportion the unpaid taxes on the interest in land among the properties created by the subdivision
 - (i) in proportion to their relative value at the time the assessment roll for the year in which the application is made was certified, or
 - (ii) if the tax administrator is of the opinion that an apportionment under paragraph (i) is not appropriate due to special circumstances, in any other manner; and
- (b) direct what proportion of any part payment of taxes on the interest in land is to be applied to each of the properties created by the subdivision.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(3) The assessor must provide the tax administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (1).

Requests for Information

17.(1) The tax administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the tax administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

If all or any portion of a tax payment remains unpaid after the date that the tax payment is due under subsection 12(1), a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion of the amount of the current year's taxes that is due and remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the current year's taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of a tax payment remains unpaid after the date that the tax payment is due under subsection 12(1), the unpaid portion accrues interest at one and one quarter percent (1.25%) per month or portion of month, provided that the total interest shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) per year,

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

- (a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

(a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and

(b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

May 22, 2018

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV

29.(1) Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the tax administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

30.(1) Before proceeding under subsection 29(1), the tax administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

2.(1) In this Schedule, an individual has a “conflict of interest” when the individual exercises a power or performs a duty or function and at the same time knows or ought reasonably to have known that in the exercise of the power or performance of the duty or function there is an opportunity to benefit the individual’s private interests.

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

(3) In this Schedule, an individual’s “private interests” means the individual’s personal and business interests and include the personal and business interests of

(e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual’s private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

- (a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or
- (b) are so remote or insignificant that they could not be reasonably regarded as likely to influence the individual in the exercise of a power or performance of a duty or function.

WHEREAS:

A. The Nipissing First Nation is guided by the seven Grandfather teachings of:

Respect – Minaadendamowin:

“To honour all creation is to have respect.” All creation must be treated with respect. You must give respect if you wish to be respected.

Wisdom – Nibwaakaawin:

“To cherish knowledge is to know wisdom.” Wisdom is given by the Creator to be used for the good of the people. In the Anishinaabe language, the word expresses not only wisdom but also means prudence or intelligence. In some communities, in addition to wisdom, this can also mean intelligence or knowledge.

Love – Zaagi’idiwin

“To know love is to know peace” Love must be unconditional. When people are weak, they need love the most. In the Anishinaabe language, this word with the reciprocal theme tells us that this form of love is mutual.

Humility - Dabaadendiziwin

“Humility is to know yourself as a sacred part of creation.” In the Anishinaabe language, this word can also mean compassion. You are equal to others, but you are not better.

Bravery – Aakode’ewin

“Bravery is to face the foe with integrity.” In the Anishinaabe language, this word means state of having a fearless heart: to do what is right even when the consequences are unpleasant.

Honesty – Gwayakwaadiziwin

“Honesty in facing a situation is to be brave”. Always be honest in word and action. Be honest first with yourself and you will more easily be able to be honest with others.

Truth - Debwewin

Truth is to know all of these things.” Speak the truth. Do not deceive yourself or others.

B. The Nipissing First Nation has the inherent and Aboriginal right to make laws for the purposes of supporting a well balanced, healthy, politically and economically independent, culturally strong and self-governing nation; and,

Definition of Conflict of Interest

(2) In this Schedule, an individual has an “apparent conflict of interest” if a reasonably well-informed person would perceive that the individual’s ability to exercise a power or perform a duty or function of their office or position must be affected by the individual’s private interests.

- (e) an entity in which the individual or the individual in combination with any other person described in this subsection has a controlling interest.

(4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), an individual's private interests do not give rise to a conflict of interest if those interests

(a) are the same as those of a broad class of members of the First Nation of which the individual is a member; or

Assessor

3.(1) The Council shall appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by the Council shall be qualified to conduct assessments of land in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in land.

PART IV ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor shall assess

(a) all interests in land that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law;

(b) all interests in land for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council; and

(c) non-taxable interests in land, as directed by the Council.

(2) The assessor shall determine the assessed value of an interest in land and shall enter the assessed value of the interest in land in the assessment roll.

(3) For the period consisting of the two (2) taxation years from 2019 to 2020, interests in land are valued as of January 1, 2016 and subsection (11) does not apply.

(4) For each period consisting of four (4) taxation years subsequent to 2020, interests in land are valued as of the date prescribed by the Province for those four (4) taxation years.

(5) Where an easement is appurtenant to any interest in land, it shall be assessed in connection with and as part of the interest in land at the added value it gives to the interest in land as the dominant tenement, and the assessment of the interest in land that, as the servient tenement, is subject to the easement shall be reduced accordingly.

(6) A restrictive covenant running with the interest in land shall be deemed to be an easement within the meaning of subsection (5).

(7) The assessor shall not make an assessment against the name of any deceased person, but, when the assessor is unable to ascertain the name of the person who should be assessed instead of the deceased person, the assessor may enter, instead of the name, the words "Representatives of A.B., deceased" (giving the name of the deceased person).

(8) Where a block of vacant land subdivided into lots is owned by the same person, it may be entered on the roll as so many acres of the original block or lot if the numbers and description of the lots into which it is subdivided are also entered on the roll.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of the assessment of interests in land the assessor shall use

- (a) the valuation methods, rates, rules, procedures and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and
- (b) the assessment rules, procedures and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

(10) On or before March 1 of every year or such other date prescribed by the Province from time to time under subsection 25(2) of the Assessment Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. A.31, every pipe line company that owns or operates a pipe line located on the reserve shall notify the assessor of the following information, in respect of each pipeline and as of January 1 of that year,

(2) The day as of which an interest in land shall be classified for a taxation year is June 30 of the previous year.

(3) The property classes established under subsection (1) are set out in Schedule 1 to this Law, and the assessor shall use the provincial classification rules for each property class, including any subclasses.

INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Request for Information

7.(1) The assessor may send a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person shall provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) A person who receives a Request under subsection (1) shall, within the time set out in the Request, provide to the assessor all the information required that is within the person's knowledge and produce all the documents required that are within the person's possession or control.

(3) The assessor may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing a person to comply with a request made under this section.

Inspections and Information

8.(1) The assessor, upon producing proper identification, shall at all reasonable times and upon reasonable request be given free access to all land and to all parts of every building, structure, machinery and fixture erected or placed upon, in, over, under or affixed to the land, for any purposes related to the assessment of that interest in land.

(2) Every adult person present on land when the assessor visits the land in the performance of his or her duties shall upon request give to the assessor all the information in his or her knowledge that will assist the assessor to make a proper assessment of the land and improvements and to obtain the information the assessor requires with respect to any person whose name the assessor is required to enter on the assessment roll or concerning whom the assessor is required to obtain any information for the purpose of this Law.

(3) The assessor is not bound by any statement or information delivered under section 7 or this section nor does it excuse the assessor from making due inquiry to ascertain the correctness of the statement or information and, despite any such statement or information, the assessor may assess every person for the amount that the assessor believes to be just and correct and may omit from the assessment roll the person's name or any interest in land that the person claims to hold if the assessor has reason to believe that the person is not entitled to be placed on the roll or to be assessed for the interest in land.

PART VI

Assessment Roll

9.(1) Except as provided in sections 17, 18 and 19, assessments of interests in land under this Law shall be made annually at any time between January 1 and the second Tuesday following December 1.

- (b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to the Council.

Amendments to Assessment Roll

11.(1) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll under section 17, or amends the assessment roll to reflect reconsideration decisions or implement decisions of the Assessment Review Board, the assessor shall

- (a) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll, in writing or electronically, and
- (b) report the change or correction to the Council.

(2) Where the assessor amends the assessment roll or creates a supplementary assessment roll under this Law, the changes are an integral part of the assessment roll and, except as provided in subsection 19(7), are deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

(3) The assessor shall not amend the assessment roll contrary to a decision of the Assessment Review Board or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and, unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

- (a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any
 - (i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,
 - (ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or
 - (iii) omission to mail any notice required; and
- (b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of Wasauksing until the next certified assessment roll.

(2) In addition to inspection under subsection (1), the Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(3) A person shall not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

- (a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

Wasauksing First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2018

(b) harass an individual.

(4) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration substantially in the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder and where directed by the tax administrator, the assessor shall omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll.

(2) The tax administrator may direct the assessor as set out in subsection (1) if, in the tax administrator's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(3) Where the assessor omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information shall be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 13(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that their name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under subsection (1), the assessor shall enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all Assessment Notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

PART VII
ASSESSMENT NOTICES

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The assessor shall, no later than fourteen (14) days before the assessment roll is completed, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the assessor shall mail out the Assessment Notice in that subsection on or before the day that the tax administrator mails out Tax Notices under the Taxation Law.

(3) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(4) Where a person named on the assessment roll provides the tax administrator with a written request that the Assessment Notice be delivered to the address stated in the request, the tax administrator shall advise the assessor of the request and the assessor shall thereafter deliver the Assessment Notice to the recipient at the requested address.

(5) Any number of interests in land assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(6) If several interests in land are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the property assessed, without giving the full description of each property as it appears in the assessment roll.

PART VIII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Correction of Errors in the Assessment Roll

17.(1) Any time before the certification of the assessment roll under section 10, the assessor may correct any defect, error, omission or misstatement in any assessment and amend the roll accordingly.

(2) If prior to the end of the current taxation year or all or part of the preceding year, and as a result of an amendment to this Law or an amendment to any provincial legislation referred to under subsection 5(9),

- (a) the classification of an interest in land is changed and taxes have been levied on the interest in land that exceed the amount of taxes that would have been levied if it had been classified in accordance with the change,
- (b) an interest in land becomes exempt from taxation, or
- (c) the method of determining the assessed value of an interest in land is changed, then the assessor shall make any assessment necessary to reflect the change and amend the assessment roll accordingly.

(3) The assessor may, at any time during the taxation year, correct any error in the assessment or classification of a property that has resulted from incorrect factual information about the property, and not from a change in opinion as to assessed value.

Omissions and Incorrect Exemptions

18.(1) If after the assessment roll has been certified under section 10, the assessor is informed that

- (a) an interest in land that is liable to assessment has been in whole or in part omitted from the assessment roll, or
- (b) an interest in land that is liable to taxation has been entered on the assessment roll as exempt from taxation,

for the current taxation year or for any part of either or both of the last two (2) preceding taxation years, and no taxes have been levied on that interest in land, the assessor shall make any additional assessment necessary to rectify the omission.

(2) As an exception to subsection (1), if a court has decided that the interest in land is not liable to taxation, the assessor shall not make any additional assessment.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), “omitted” includes the invalidation or setting aside of an assessment by any court or assessment tribunal on any ground except that the interest in land is not liable to taxation.

(4) If subsection (1) applies with respect to an interest in land or a portion of an interest in land, the assessor, in addition to making an additional assessment, may also change the classification of the interest in land.

(5) If the assessor makes an assessment or changes a classification under this section, the assessor shall make the appropriate changes

- (a) on a supplementary assessment roll and forward the supplementary roll to the tax administrator at the earliest opportunity; and
- (b) on the assessment roll for the next year, even if the day as of which land is valued for the next year is the same as for the current year.

Wasauksing First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2018

Supplementary Assessments and Classifications

19.(1) If, after Assessment Notices have been given under subsection 16(1) and before the last day of the current taxation year to which that assessment roll applies,

- (a) an increase in value occurs which results from the erection, alteration, enlargement or improvement of any building, structure, machinery, equipment or fixture or any portion thereof that commences to be used for any purpose, or
- (b) land or a portion of land ceases,
 - (i) to be exempt from taxation,
 - (ii) to be in the farm property class, or
 - (iii) to be classified in a subclass of land,

the assessor may make any additional assessment that may be necessary to reflect the change.

(2) If, during the taxation year or the period after June 30 in the preceding taxation year, a change event occurs that would change the property class that all or part of an interest in land is in, the assessor may change the classification accordingly, including any subclass, for the current taxation year.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), “change event” includes:

- (a) a change in the use of all or part of the interest in land; and
- (b) an act or omission that results in all or part of the interest in land ceasing to be in a property class.

(4) If subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) applies with respect to an interest in land or a portion of an interest in land, the assessor, in addition to making an additional assessment, may also change the classification of the interest in land.

(5) If, before October 1 of any taxation year, the assessor determines that property that was exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law has become taxable, the assessor shall make an entry on a supplementary assessment roll.

(6) If the assessor makes an assessment or classification under this section, the assessor shall make the appropriate changes

- (a) on a supplementary assessment roll and forward the supplementary roll to the tax administrator at the earliest opportunity; and
- (b) on the assessment roll for the next year, even if the day as of which the interest in land is valued for the next year is the same as for the current year.

(7) If the assessor could have made an assessment or classification under this section but did not, the appropriate changes shall be made on the assessment roll for the next year, even if the day as of which the interest in land is valued for the next year is the same as for the current year.

(8) An amendment made under this section applies for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the change occurred if the assessment had been made in the usual way.

Amended Assessment Notice

20. The assessor shall, at the earliest opportunity, mail or email (where subsection 16(3) applies) an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in land affected if the assessor does any of the following under the provisions of this Law:

- (a) amends the assessment roll;
- (b) makes an additional assessment under section 18 or 19; or
- (c) changes the classification of an interest in land under section 18 or 19.

PART IX

Reconsideration by Assessor

21.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment shall

(a) be delivered to the assessor at the address, or e-mail address, indicated on the Assessment Notice within thirty (30) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request and the facts under which the request is made.

(4) The assessor shall consider the request for reconsideration and, within sixty (60) days after receiving the request for reconsideration, either

(a) advise the person who requested the reconsideration that the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) where the assessor determines that assessable property should have been assessed differently, offer to the person who requested the reconsideration to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor shall

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

(b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.

(6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person shall not appeal the modified assessment and shall withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART X

for time spent on activities of the Assessment Review Board required under this Law or expressly authorized by the Council, calculated in accordance with subsection (3).

(2) For clarity, a reference in subsection (1) to the maximum rate established by the Province does not include a rate set for persons appointed in their professional capacity or to a labour-related tribunal.

(3) The remuneration under subsection (2) shall be calculated as follows:

(a) a member of the Assessment Review Board shall be paid the applicable per diem rate where the member spends more than four (4) hours of time on the activities of the Assessment Review Board in a twenty-four (24) hour day; and

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in Wasauksing does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

25.(1) The Council shall, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(4) Where an appeal is commenced with respect to a supplementary assessment, the appeal shall be confined to the supplementary assessment.

(5) The assessor shall deliver any Notice of Appeal received by the assessor to the chair of the Assessment Review Board and to the tax administrator.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(11) In determining the value at which any interest in land shall be assessed, the Assessment Review Board shall have reference to the value at which similar interests in land in the vicinity are assessed and adjust the assessment of the land to make it equitable with that of similar interests in the vicinity if such an adjustment would result in a reduction of the assessment of the interest in land.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

(4) Where the assessor has made an additional assessment under paragraphs 19(1)(a) or (b) of the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall, upon receiving notice of the assessment, enter the additional assessment on the tax roll and levy and collect the amount of taxes that would have been levied for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the use commenced or change occurred.

(5) Where the assessor has changed the classification under subsections 19(2) or (3) of the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall, upon receiving notice of the change, enter it on the tax roll and levy and collect the amount of taxes that would have been levied for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the change event occurred.

Wasauksing First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2018

(2) The tax administrator shall enter on the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice and this record is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that the Tax Notice was sent on that date.

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator shall mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

(6) No defect, error or omission in the form or substance of a Tax Notice invalidates any proceedings for the recovery of the taxes.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notice

14.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, or where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator shall amend the tax roll or create a supplementary tax roll, as necessary, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

(2) The duties imposed on the tax administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

(3) If a supplementary assessment roll has been prepared under the Assessment Law because, in the current taxation year, property that was exempt from taxation has become taxable, the tax levied in respect of the property shall be prorated so that tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is taxable.

(4) Where subsection (3) applies, taxes levied for part of the taxation year are imposed on the date that the property has become taxable, despite subsection 10(4).

(5) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator shall forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

(6) Where a Tax Notice or an amended Tax Notice is given under this section, the Tax Notice shall indicate that the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer shall be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest shall not be added in that period.

Subdivision

15.(1) If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, the tax administrator may, upon application by a holder

(i) in proportion to their relative value at the time the assessment roll for the year in which the application is made was certified, or

(ii) if the tax administrator is of the opinion that an apportionment under paragraph (i) is not appropriate due to special circumstances, in any other manner; and

(b) direct what proportion of any part payment of taxes on the interest in land is to be applied to each of the properties created by the subdivision.

Interest

20. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after the date that taxes are due under subsection 11(1), the unpaid portion accrues interest at interest at one and one quarter percent (1.25%) per month or portion of month, compounded monthly, provided that the total interest shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) per year.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

PART IV

TAX LIABILITY AND LEVY

Tax Liability

5.(1) This Law applies to all interests in land, and every transferee is subject to tax at the time of application for registration of a conveyance in respect of an interest in land in accordance with this Law.

(2) Except where an exemption applies as provided in Part V, a tax

(a) is levied and imposed on an interest in land at the time of the application for registration of a conveyance relating to that interest in land; and

(b) shall be paid by the transferee in accordance with this Law.

(3) A person who is a transferee of a conveyance is liable for the tax even if

(a) that person is also liable to pay taxes imposed under other property taxation laws of Wasauksing; or

(b) the interest in land acquired by a co-transferee of the conveyance is exempt from tax under this Law.

(4) Where there is more than one (1) transferee in respect of a conveyance, each transferee is jointly and severally liable to Wasauksing for the tax imposed under this Law.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a co-transferee of a conveyance who is exempt from tax under this Law.

(6) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting those taxes, including without limitation respecting the assessment of taxes, the applicability of an exemption or refund, or the taxpayer's liability to taxation.

Tax Payment and Filing Return

6.(1) On application for registration of a conveyance in the registry, the transferee shall

(a) pay the tax computed at the rate set out in this Law; and

(b) file a completed Return in accordance with this Law, whether or not the conveyance is exempt from tax under this Law.

(2) The registry shall refuse to accept an application for registration of a conveyance if

- (4) Payments by cheque or money order shall be made payable to the Wasauksing First Nation, and payments by electronic transfer shall be made as directed by the PTT administrator.
- (5) Wasauksing shall issue a receipt to the taxpayer for taxes paid under this Law.

Payment of Estimated Tax

7.(1) Despite section 6, where the amount of tax owing on a conveyance cannot be determined on the registration date because an appraisal or other valuation information is required to determine the value of the consideration of the conveyance, the PTT administrator may, on the request of the transferee,

- (a) estimate the tax owing using the best information available to the PTT administrator on the registration date; and
 - (b) authorize the registry to accept the application for registration of the conveyance on payment by the transferee of the PTT administrator's estimate of the tax owing.
- (2) Where a transferee makes a payment of estimated tax owing under subsection (1), the PTT administrator shall, on receipt of the appraisal or other valuation information, determine the tax owing on the conveyance.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), if the transferee was required to provide the appraisal or other valuation information and the transferee does not provide the information within the required time, the PTT administrator shall determine the tax owing on the conveyance on the registration date, based on the best information available to the PTT administrator at the time of the determination under this subsection.

(4) Where the PTT administrator makes a determination of tax owing under subsection (2) or (3), the PTT administrator shall deliver a Notice of Property Transfer Tax Assessment to the transferee and section 21 applies.

Tax Rate

- 8.(1) The tax levied under this Law shall be computed at the rate of
- (a) one half of one percent (0.5%) of the value of the consideration for the conveyance up to and including fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000);
 - (b) one percent (1%) of the value of the consideration for the conveyance that exceeds fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) up to and including two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000);
 - (c) one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the value of the consideration for the conveyance that exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) up to and including four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000); and
 - (d) two percent (2%) of the value of the consideration for the conveyance that exceeds four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).
- (2) In addition to the rates set out in subsection (1), if the value of the consideration for the conveyance exceeds $2,000,000 and the conveyance is a conveyance of an interest in land that contains at least one (1) and not more than two (2) single family residences, an additional tax shall be added at the rate of one-half of one percent (.5%) of the amount by which the value of the consideration exceeds $2,000,000.

the tax owing shall be calculated based on the total value of consideration of the conveyances referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) as if all those conveyances were a single conveyance, and the transferees referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) are jointly and severally liable to pay the total tax owing.

(5) If

(a) a transferee that is a corporation (in this subsection and subsection (6) called the “corporate transferee”) applies for registration of a conveyance, and

(b) one or more corporations associated with the corporate transferee apply, as transferees, at the same time as or within six (6) months after the application referred to in paragraph (a), for registration of one or more conveyances respecting the same interest in land for which the transferor is not the corporate transferee, the tax owing on the conveyances shall be calculated based on the total value of the consideration of the conveyances referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) as if all those conveyances were a single conveyance, and the transferees referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) are jointly and severally liable to pay that total tax.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a corporation is associated with a corporate transferee if the corporation and the corporate transferee are associated, within the meaning of section 256 of the Income Tax Act, on the registration date of the conveyance referred to in subsection (4).

Wasauksing First Nation Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

arrangement relating to the lease (whether or not the lessee and the optionee or person named in the document are the same persons).

provided that the transferee will hold the interest in land directly and not as a trustee; or

(c) a trustee who will hold the interest in land in trust only for the sole benefit of one (1) or more members and no other person.

(3) If an individual who would otherwise be eligible for a refund under subsection (2) is not eligible because the individual is not a purchaser within the meaning of subsection (1) because the individual is not a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada on the registration date, that individual is eligible for the refund if they become a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada within eighteen (18) months after the registration date of the conveyance.

(4) The maximum amount of tax refundable under subsection (2) in respect of the acquisition of a qualifying home is four thousand dollars ($4000).

20.(1) If a refund is made under this Law and the PTT administrator subsequently determines that the person was not entitled to the refund, or was entitled only to a refund in a lesser amount, the amount of the refund to which the person was not entitled is deemed to be tax imposed by section 6 which was required to have been paid by the person on the date the refund was made to the person.

(2) Where the PTT administrator makes a determination under subsection (1), the PTT administrator shall give a Notice of Property Transfer Tax Assessment to the person stating the reasons the person was not entitled to the refund, or was entitled only to a refund in a lesser amount, and the amount of taxes payable, including interest and penalties where section 28 applies.

SCHEDULE I

Interpretation

1. In this Schedule,

(a) a reference to the “rent” does not include an amount that is separately calculated under a lease and is payable to a lessor in reimbursement for

(i) taxes, or

(b) “appraisal” means an appraisal conducted by an independent appraiser who is designated Accredited Appraiser Canadian Institute by the Appraisal Institute of Canada or designated, registered or licensed as a certified appraiser under the laws of the Province of Ontario, as applicable; and

(c) “assessed value” means the most recent assessed value of an interest in land determined in accordance with the Wasauksing First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2018.

Determination of Lease Term and Life Estate Term

2.(1) Subject to section 6, and subsections (2), (3) and (5), the term of a lease is the sum of

(a) the number of years for which a transferee has the right to occupy the demised interest in land; and

(b) the maximum number of years not counted under paragraph (a) that, by the exercise of rights or options to renew or extend the lease, the transferee may occupy the demised interest in land.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the term of a lease is the unexpired portion of the term determined under subsection (1) on the registration date.

(3) If the lease is a time-share or fractional ownership plan, the term of the lease shall be determined by adding together the number of years during which the transferee may, for any part of a year, occupy the interest in land.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the term of a life estate is the number of years of life expectancy based on Table 3 remaining to the holder of the life estate on the registration date of the life estate in the registry.

(5) Where the term of a lease or life estate would otherwise be expressed as a fraction of a year or as a number of years plus a fraction of a year, the term shall be rounded up to the next whole number.

Fair Market Value of Prepaid Leases

3.(1) The fair market value of a conveyance involving a prepaid lease is the amount of the purchase price paid by the transferee in money and any other consideration, where

(a) the rent under the lease is not subject to adjustment or renegotiation and has been paid for the term of the lease before the registration date or will be paid within one (1) year of that date; and

(b) the lessor and the transferee deal with each other at arm’s-length.

(2) If a lessor and a transferee are not at arm’s-length, the fair market value is the amount that would have been paid if the leasehold interest in land had been sold on the registration date in the open market by a willing seller to a willing purchaser free of any trust and unencumbered by a judgment for the payment of money, or a mortgage, or any other financial instrument that secures the payment of money or the performance of an obligation.

Fair Market Value of Lease Having a Term Not Exceeding 30 Years

4.(1) The fair market value of a conveyance involving a lease

- (a) to which section 3 does not apply,
- (b) the term of which does not exceed thirty (30) years, and
- (c) where the lessor and the transferee deal with each other at arm's-length, is, subject to an election under subsection (2), the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{LSC} + (\text{ARP} \times \text{PVF})$$

where

LSC = any lump sum consideration paid by the transferee for the grant or transfer of the lease, including for any improvements on the leasehold property;

ARP = the annual rent payment to be made during the last year for which rents are fixed pursuant to a lease; and

PVF = the present value factor set out in Column 2 of Table 2 that is opposite the number of years in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the lease.

(2) The transferee may elect to calculate the fair market value of the lease under section 5.

Fair Market Value of Other Leases

5.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the fair market value of a conveyance to which section 4 does not apply is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{VSI} \times \text{P}$$

where

VSI = the fair market value of the fee simple interest, including improvements, in the demised interest in land; and

P = the percentage set out in Column 2 of Table 1 opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the lease.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) where part of the improvements on a parcel of land are leased, the fair market value of the demised interest in land is determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{VSI} \times \text{P} \times \text{ARADP}}{\text{ARA}}$$

where

VSI = the fair market value of the fee simple interest, including improvements, within which the demised interest in land is situated;

P = the percentage set out in Column 2 of Table 1 opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the lease;

ARADP = the aggregate rentable area of the demised interest in land; and

ARA = the aggregate rentable area of the improvements on the land within which the demised interest in land is situated.

Wasauksing First Nation Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

(3) The VSI in subsections (1) and (2) is the assessed value of the leasehold interest in land, if available.

(4) If an assessed value is not available, the PTT administrator may

(a) determine the VSI using the best available data, which may include assessed values or appraisal data of comparable properties; or

(b) require the transferee to provide an appraisal of the VSI at the transferee's cost.

(5) If the PTT administrator determines the VSI under paragraph (4)(a), the transferee may, within ten (10) days after the PTT administrator advised the transferee of the VSI, elect to provide an appraisal of the VSI to the PTT administrator at the transferee's cost and within an additional twenty-one (21) days or such additional time frame as agreed to by the PTT administrator.

(6) If the transferee provides an appraisal under subsection (5), the PTT administrator shall use the VSI determined by the appraisal for the purposes of this section.

Fair Market Value of a Lease Modification Agreement

6.(1) The term of the lease modification agreement for the purposes of this section is the sum of

(a) the term of the lease before extension by the lease modification agreement, calculated under subsection 2(1) without regard to subsection 2(2) from the date the lease agreement was first executed; and

(b) the number of years, applying subsection 2(5), by which the lease is extended by the lease modification agreement.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), options or rights to renew or extend the lease pursuant to the lease modification agreement are deemed exercised to give the maximum possible extension.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), where the term of the lease modification agreement is one hundred (100) years or less, its fair market value is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{LSC} + (\text{ARP} \times \text{PVF})$$

where

LSC = any lump sum consideration paid by the transferee for the lease modification, including for any improvements on the leasehold property;

ARP = the annual rent payment to be made during the last year for which rents are fixed pursuant to the lease as extended by the lease modification agreement; and

PVF = the present value factor set out in Column 2 of Table 2 that is opposite the number of years in Column 1 that corresponds to the number of years applicable under paragraph (1)(b).

(4) Where the term of the lease modification agreement exceeds one hundred years (100) years, section 5 applies for the purpose of calculating the fair market value of the lease modification agreement except that "P" equals the percentage in Column 2 of Table 1 that is opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the number of years applicable under paragraph (1)(b).

(5) The transferee may elect to calculate the fair market value of the lease under section 5 as modified by subsection (4).

Fair Market Value of Life Estates

7. The fair market value of a life estate in a lease is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

Wasauksing First Nation Property Transfer Tax Law, 2018

$$\text{VFS} \times \text{P}$$

where

VFS = the fair market value of the leasehold interest in land determined

- (a) as though the life estate did not exist; and
- (b) under section 3, 4 or 5 as applicable.

P = the percentage in Column 2 of Table 1 that is opposite the period in Column 1 that corresponds to the term of the life estate.

Transfers That Are Not Arm's-Length

8. Where a transferor and a transferee do not deal with each other at arm's-length, the PTT administrator may

- (a) use the assessed value; or
- (b) require the transferee to provide with the Return, as applicable and at the transferee's cost, an appraisal of
 - (i) the valuation required under subsection 3(2),
 - (ii) the ARP under section 4 or section 6 that would be paid on the open market on the registration date by an arm's-length transferee, or
 - (iii) the VSI under section 5 that would be paid on the open market on the registration date by an arm's-length transferee.
